42 For thus saith the Lorde, Like as I haue brought all this great plague vpon this people, so will I bring vpon them all the good that I haue promised them.

43 And the fieldes shall be possessed in this lande, whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast, and shall be giuen into the hand of the Caldeans.

44 Men shall buy x fieldes for siluer, and make writings, and seale them, & take witnesses in the land of Beniamin, and roundе about Ierusalem, & in the cities of Iudah, and in the cities of the mountaines, and in the cities of the plaine, and in the cities of the South: for I will cause their captiuitie to returne, saith the Lord.

x This is the declaration of that which was spoken verse 8.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 The Prophet is monished of the Lord to pray for the deliuerance of the people, which the Lord promised. 8 God forgiueth sinnes, for his owne glory. 15 Of the birth of Christ. 20 The kingdome of Christ in the Church shall neuer be ended.

MOreouer, the word of the Lord came vnto Ieremiah the second time (while hee was yet shut vp in the a court of the prison) saying, a Which was in the kings house at Ierusalem, as chap. 32.1.2.

2 Thus saith the Lord, the maker b thereof, the Lorde that formed it, and established it, the Lord is his Name.

b To wit, of Ierusalem, who as he made it, so wil he preserue it, reade Isa. 37.26.

3 Call vnto me, and I wil answere thee, and shewe thee great and mightie things, which thou knowest not.

c Reade Chap. 32.24.

4 For thus saith the Lord God of Israel, concerning the houses of this citie, and concerning the houses of the kings of Iudah, which are destroyed by the c mounts, and by the sword, d The Iewes thinke to ouercome the Caldeans, but they seeke their owne destruction.

5 They come to d fight with the Caldeans, but it is to fill themselues with the dead bodies of men, whom I haue slaine in mine anger and in my wrath: for I haue hid my face from this citie, because of all their wickednesse.

e He sheweth that Gods fauour is cause of all prosperitie, as his anger is of all aduersitie.

6 ¶ Beholde, e I will giue it health and amendment: for I will cure them, and will reueale vnto them the abundance of peace, and trueth.

f In the mids of his threatnings, God remembreth his, and comforteth them.

7 And I will cause the captiuitie of Iudah, and the captiuitie of Israel to returne, and will build them as at the first.

g Declaring that there is no deliuerance nor ioy, but whereas we feele remission of sinnes.

8 And I wil cleanse them from all their iniquitie, whereby they haue sinned against me: yea, I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they haue sinned against me, and whereby they haue rebelled against me.

9 And it shall be to me a name, a d ioy, a praise, and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall heare all the good that I doe vnto them: and they shall feare, and tremble for all the goodnesse, and for all the wealth, that I shewe vnto this citie.

d Whereby he sheweth that the Church, wherein is remission of sinnes, is Gods honour & glory, so that whosoeuer is enemie to it, laboureth to dishonour God.

10 Thus saith the Lorde, Againe there shal be heard in this place (which ye say shal be desolate, without man, and without beast, euen in the cities of Iudah, and in the streetes of Ierusalem, that are desolate without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast)

e Which was a song appointed for the Leuites to praise God by, 1. Chro. 16.8. psal. 105.1. isa. 12.4. psal. 106.1. and 107.1. & 118.1. and 136.1.

11 The voyce of ioy and the voyce of gladnesse, the voyce of the bridegrome, and the voyce of the bride, the voyce of them that shal say, f Praise the Lord of hostes, because the Lord is good: for his mercie endureth for euer, and of them that offer the sacrifice of praise in the house of the Lorde, for I will cause to returne the captiuitie of the land, as at the first, saith the Lord.

f Meaning, that all the countrey of Iudah shalbe inhabited againe.

12 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, Againe in this place, which is desolate without man, and without beast, and in all the cities thereof there shalbe dwelling for shepheards to rest their flocks.

g That is, I will send the Messiah which shall come of the house of Dauid, of whom this prophesie is meant, as testifie all the Iewes, and that which is written, Chap. 23.5.

13 In the cities of the k mountaines, in the cities in the plaine, & in the cities of the South, and in the land of Beniamin, and about Ierusalem, and in the cities of Iudah shall the sheepe passe againe, vnder the hand of him that telleth them, saith the Lord.

h To wit, Christ that shall call his Church.

14 Beholde, the dayes come, saieth the Lord, that I will performe that good thing, which I haue promised vnto the house of Israel, and to the house of Iudah.

i That is, Christ is our Lord God, righteousnesse, sanctification, and redemption, 1. Cor. 1.30.

15 In those dayes and at that time will I cause l the branch of righteousnesse to growe vp vnto Dauid, and he shall execute iudgement, and righteousnesse in the land.

k Meaning, the Caldeans and other infidels, which thought God had vtterly cast off Iudah and Israel or Beniamin, because he did correct them for a time for their amendment.

16 In those dayes shall Iudah be saued, and Ierusalem shal dwel safely, and he that shal call m her, is the Lord our n righteousnes.

l That is, Christ.

17 For thus saith the Lorde, Dauid shall neuer want a man to sit vpon the throne of the house of Israel.

m To wit, Christ.

18 Neither shal the Priests and Leuites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to offer meate offerings, and to doe sacrifice continually.

n That is, Christ is our Lord God, righteousnesse, sanctification, and redemption, 1. Cor. 1.30.

19 ¶ And the word of the Lord came vnto Ieremiah, saying,

20 Thus saith the Lorde, If you can breake my couenant of the o day, and my couenant of the night, that there should not be day, and night in their season, o This is chiefly meant of the spirituall sacrifice of thankesgiuing, which is left to the Church in the time of Christ, who was the euerlasting Priest and the euerlasting sacrifice figured by the sacrifices of the Lawe.

21 Then may my couenant be broken with Dauid my seruant, that he should not haue a sonne to reigne vpon his throne, and with the Leuites, and Priests my ministers.

p Reade Chap. 31.35.

22 As the armie of heauen cannot be numbred, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seede of Dauid my seruant, and the Leuites, that minister vnto me.

q Meaning, the Caldeans and other infidels, which thought God had vtterly cast off Iudah and Israel or Beniamin, because he did correct them for a time for their amendment.

23 ¶ Moreouer, the worde of the Lorde came to Ieremiah, saying,

24 Considerest thou not what this people haue spoken, saying, The two families,

lies, which the Lorde hath chosen, he hath euen cast them off: thus they haue despised my people, that they should bee no more a nation before them.

25 Thus saith the Lord, If my couenant be not with day and night, and if I haue not appointed the order of heauen and earth, 26 Then will I cast away the seede of Iaakob & Dauid my seruant, and not take of his seede to be rulers ouer the seede of Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob: for I will cause their captiuitie to returne, and haue compassion on them.

CHAP. XXXIIII.

2 He threatneth that the citie, and the king Zedekiah shalbe giuen into the hands of the king of Babylon. 11 He rebuketh their cruelitie towards their seruants.

a Who commonly of Ieremiah was called Nebuchad-nezzar, and of others Nebuchad-nezzar.

THe worde which came vnto Ieremiah from the Lord (when [a] Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel, and all his hoste, and all the kingdomes of the earth, that were vnder the power of his hand, & all people fought against Ierusalem, and against all the cities thereof) saying,

2 Thus saieth the Lorde God of Israel, Goe, and speake to Zedekiah King of Iudah, and tell him, Thus saith the Lord, Behold, * I will giue this citie into the hand of the king of Babel, and he shal burne it with fire,

2. Chro. 36. 19. chap. 29. 16, 17. and 32. 3.

3 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and deliuered into his hande, and thine eyes shall behold the face of the king of Babel, and he shall speake with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt goe to Babel.

4 Yet heare the worde of the Lord, O Zedekiah king of Iudah: thus saith the Lorde of thee, thou shalt not die by the sword, b Not of any violent death.

5 But thou shalt die in [b] peace: and according to the burning for thy fathers the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burne odours for thee, and they shall lament thee, saying, Oh [c] Lorde: for I haue pronounced the word, saith the Lord.

c The Iewes shall lament for thee their Lord and King.

6 Then Ieremiah the Prophet spake all these words vnto Zedekiah King of Iudah in Ierusalem,

7 (When the king of Babels host fought against Ierusalem, and against all the cities of Iudah that were left, euen against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these strong cities remained of the cities of Iudah)

8 This is the worde that came vnto Ieremiah from the Lorde, after that the King Zedekiah had made a couenant with all the people which were at Ierusalem, [d] to proclaime libertie vnto them, d When the enemie was at hand, and they saw themselues in danger, they would seeme holy and so begane some kinde of reformation: but soone after they vttered their hypocrisie.

9 That euery man should let his [e] seruant goe free, & euery man his handmaide, which was an Ebrew or an Ebrewesse, and that none should serue himselfe of them, to wit, of a Iewe his brother.

e According to the Lawe, Exod. 21. 2, Deut. 15. 12

10 Nowe when all the princes, and all the people which had agreed to the couenant, hearde that euerie one should let his seruaunt goe free, and euerie one his handmaid, and that none should serue themselues of them any more, they obeyed and let them goe.

11 But afterward they ‡ repented, and caused the seruants and the handmaides, whom they had let goe free, to returne, and bestde them in subiection as seruaunts and handmaides.

12 Therefore the word of the Lord came vnto Ieremiah from the Lord, saying,

13 Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I made a couenant with your fathers, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of ‖ seruants, saying,

14 * At the terme of seuen yeeres let yee goe, euerie man his brother an Ebrewe which hath bene solde vnto thee: and when hee hath serued thee sixe yeeres, thou shalt let him goe free from thee: but your fathers obeyed me not, neither inclined their eares.

15 And ye were now turned, & had done right in my sight in proclaiming libertie, euery man to his neighbour, & ye had made a couenant before me in [f] the House, whereupon my Name is called.

f Meaning, in the Temple, to declare that it was a most solemne and straite couenant, made in the Name of the Lord.

16 But ye repented, & polluted my name, for ye haue caused euery man his seruaunt, and euery man his handmaide, whome yee had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and hold them in subiection to bee vnto you as seruants and as handmaids.

17 Therefore thus saieth the Lorde, Yee haue not obeied me, in proclaiming freedom euery man to his brother, and euery man to his neighbour: behold, I proclaime a libertie for you, saith the Lord, to [g] the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine, and I will make you a terrour to all the kingdomes of the earth.

g That is, I giue the sword libertie to destroy you.

18 And I will giue those men that haue broken my couenant, and haue not kept the words of the couenaunt, which they had made before me, when they [h] cut the calfe in twaine, and passed betweene the parts thereof:

h As touching this maner of solemne couenant which the ancient vsed by passing betweene the two parts of a beast, to signifie that the transgressor of the same couenant should be so diuided in pieces, reade Gene. 15. 10.

19 The princes of Iudah, and the princes of Ierusalem, the Eunuches, and the Priests, and all the people of the land, which passed betweene the parts of the calfe, 20 I will euen giue them into the hande of their enemies, and into the handes of them that seeke their life: and their dead bodies shall be for meate vnto the foules of the heauen, and to the beasts of the earth.

21 And Zedekiah king of Iudah, and his princes will I giue into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, & into the hand of the king of Babels hoste, which [i] are gone vp from you.

i To fight against the Egyptians, as Chap. 37. 11.

22 Beholde, I will commaund, saieth the Lord, and cause them to returne to this citie, and they shal fight against it, & take it, and burne it with fire: and I will make the cities of Iudah desolate without an inhabitant.

CHAP. XXXV.

He proposeth the obedience of the Rechalites and thereby confoundeth the pride of the Iewes.

THe worde which came vnto Ieremiah from the Lord, in the dayes [a] of Iehoiakim the sonne of Iosiah King of Iudah, saying, a For the disposition and order of these prophecies, reade chap. 27. 1.

2 Goe vnto the house of the [b]Rechabites, and speake vnto them, and bring them into the house of the Lord into one of the chambers, and giue them wine to drinke.

3 Then tooke I Iaazaniah, the sonne of Ieremiah the sonne of Habazziniah, & his brethren, and all his sonnes, and the whole house of the Rechabites.

4 And I brought them into the House of the Lorde, into the chamber of the sonnes of Hanan, the sonne of Igdaliah a man [c] of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was aboue the chamber of Maaseiah the sonne of Shallum, the keeper of the ‖treasure.

5 And I set before the sonnes of ỹ house of the Rechabites, pots full of wine, and cups, and [d] said vnto them, Drinke wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: For [e] Ionadab the sonne of Rechab our father commaunded vs, saying, [f] Yee shall drinke no wine, neither you nor your sonnes for euer.

7 Neither shall ye builde house, nor sow seede, nor plant vineyard, nor haue any, but all your dayes ye shall dwell in tents, that ye may liue a long time in the land where ye be strangers.

8 Thus haue we obeied the voyce of Ionadab the sonne of Rechab our father, in all that he hath charged vs, and wee drinke no wine al our dates, neither we, our wiues, our sonnes, nor our daughters.

9 Neither builde wee houses for vs to dwel in, neither haue we vineyard, nor field, nor seede, 10 But wee haue remained in tents, and haue obeyed, and done according to all that Ionadab our father commanded vs.

11 But when Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel came vp into ỹ land, we said, Come, and let vs goe to Ierusalem, from the hoste of the Caldeans, and from the hoste of Aram: so we [g] dwell at Ierusalem.

12 Then came the word of the Lorde vnto Ieremiah, saying,

13 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Go, and tel the men of Iudah, and the inhabitants of Ierusalem, Will [h] ye not receiue doctrine to obey my wordes, saieth the Lord?

14 The commandement of Ionadab the sonne of Rechab that he commaunded his sonnes, that they should drinke no wine, is surely kept: for vnto this day they drinke none, but obey their fathers commandement: notwithstanding I haue spoken vnto you, [k] rising early, and speaking, but ye would not obey me.

15 I haue sent also vnto you all my seruants the Prophets, rising vp early, & sending thē, saying, [l] Returne nowe euery man from his euill way, & amend your workes, and goe not after other gods to serue them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I haue giuen vnto you and to your fathers, but ye would not incline your eare, nor obey me.

16 Surely, the sonnes of Ionadab the sonne of Rechab, haue kept the commandement of their father, which hee gaue them, but this people hath not obeyed me.

17 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring vpon Iudah, and vpon all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, all the euil that I haue pronounced against them, because I haue [i] spoken vnto them, but they would not heare, and I haue called vnto them, but they would not answere.

18 And Ieremiah said vnto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saieth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Because ye haue obeied the commandement of Ionadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according vnto all that he hath commanded you, 19 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Ionadab the sonne of Rechab shal [m] not want a man to stand before me for euer.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 Baruch writeth, as Ieremiah inditeth, the booke of the curses against Iudah & Israel. 9 Hee is sent with the booke vnto the people and readeth it before them all. 14 He is called before the rulers and readeth it before them also. 23 The king casteth it in the fire. 28 There is another written at the commandement of the Lord.

AND in the fourth [a] yeere of Iehoiakim the sonne of Iosiah king of Iudah, came this worde vnto Ieremiah from the Lorde, saying,

2 Take thee a roule or booke, and write therein all the words that I haue spoken to thee against Israel, and against Iudah, and against all the nations, from the day that I spake vnto thee, euen [b] from the dayes of Iosiah vnto this day.

3 It may be that the house of Iudah will heare of all the euil, which I determined to doe vnto them, that they may returne euery man from his euil way, that I may forgiue their iniquitie, and their sinnes.

4 Then Ieremiah called Baruch the sonne of Neriah, & Baruch wrote [c] at the mouth of Ieremiah all the wordes of the Lorde, which he had spoken vnto him, vpon a roule, or booke.

5 And Ieremiah commaunded Baruch, saying, I am [d] shut vp, and cannot goe into the house of the Lord.

6 Therefore goe thou, & reade the roule, wherein thou hast written at my mouth the wordes of the Lorde, in the audience of the people in the Lords house vpon the [e] fasting day: also thou shalt reade them in the hearing of all Iudah, that come out of their cities.

7 It may be that they will [f] pray before the Lord, and euery one returne from his euil way, for great is the anger, & the wrath, that the Lord hath declared against this people.

8 So Baruch the sonne of Neriah did according vnto all, that Ieremiah the Prophet commaunded him, reading in the booke the wordes of the Lorde in the Lordes b They came of Hobab Moses father in lawe, who was no Israelite, but after ioyned with them in the seruice of God.

c That is, a Prophet.

d The Prophet saith not, The Lord saith thus: for then they ought to haue obeyed: but he tendeth to another end: that is, to declare their obedience to man, seing the Iewes would not obey God himselfe.

e Whom Iehu the king of Israel fauoured for his zeale, 2. king. 10. 15.

f Teaching them hereby to flee all occasion of intemperancie, ambition and auarice, and that they might know that they were strangers in the earth, and be readie to depart at all occasions.

g Which was now for the space of three hundreth yeres from Iehu to Iehoiakim.

h Which declareth that they were not so bound to their vowe, that it could not be broken for any necessitie: for where they were commanded to dwell in tents, they dwell now at Ierusalem for feare of the warres.

i Whom I haue chosen to be my children, seeing these which were the children of an heathen man, obeyed the commandement of their father. k I haue most diligently exhorted and warned you both by my selfe and my Prophets. Chap. 18. 11. and 25. 5.

l That is, by his Prophets and ministers: which sheweth that it is as much as though he should speake to vs himselfe, when he sendeth his ministers to speake in his Name.

m His posterirje shal continue and be in my fauour for euer,

b Which were twentie and three yeres, as Cha. 25. 3. counting from the thirteenth yeere of Iosiahs reigne.

c As he did indite.

d Meaning, in prison, through the malice of the Priests, e Which was proclaimed for feare of the Babylonians, as their custome was when they feared warre or any great plague of God.

f He sheweth that fasting without prayer & repentance auaileth nothing, but is meere hypocrisie.

g The fast was then proclaimed, and Baruch read this roule, which was a litle before that Ierusalem was first taken, and then Iehoiakim and Daniel and his companions were led away captiues.

9 ¶ And in the fift g yeere of Iehoiakim the sonne of Iosiah King of Iudah, in the ninth moneth, they proclanned a fast before the Lord to all the people in Ierusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Iudah vnto Ierusalem.

h Which is the East gate of the Temple.

10 Then read Baruch in the booke the wordes of Ieremiah in the House of the Lorde, in the chamber of Gemariah the sonne of Shaphan the secretarie, in the hier court at the entrie of the h newe gate of the Lords house, in the hearing of all the people.

11 When Michaiah the sonne of Gemariah, the sonne of Shaphan had heard out of the booke all the words of the Lord, 12 Then hee went downe to the kings house into the Chancellors chamber, and loe, all the Princes sate there, euen Elishama the Chancellour, and Delaiah the sonne of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the sonne of Achbor, and Gemariah the sonne of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the sonne of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah declared vnto them all the wordes that hee had heard when Baruch read in the booke in the audience of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Iehudi the sonne of Nethaniah, the sonne of Shelemia, the sonne of Chushi, vnto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roule, wherein thou hast read in the audience of the people, and come. So Baruch the sonne of Neriah, tooke the roule in his hand, and came vnto them.

15 And they sayd vnto him, Sit downe nowe, and reade it, that we may heare. So Baruch read it in their audience.

i The godly were afraide, seeing God so offended, and the wicked were astonied for the horror of the punishment.

16 Nowe when they had heard all the wordes, they were i afraide both one and other, and said vnto Baruch, We will certifie the king of all these words.

17 And they examined Baruch, saying, Tell vs nowe, howe diddest thou write all these wordes at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, Hee pronounced all these wordes vnto mee with his mouth, and I wrote them with ynke in the booke.

k They that were godly among the princes, gaue this counsell, by whose meanes it is like that Ieremiah was deliuered: for they knew the rage of the King and of the wicked to bee such, that they could not escape without danger of their liues.

19 Then said the Princes vnto Baruch, Goe, k hide thee, thou and Ieremiah, and let no man knowe where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king to the court, but they layde vp the roule in the chamber of Elishama the Chancellour, and tolde the king all the wordes, that he might heare.

21 So the king sent Iehudi to fet the roule, and hee tooke it out of Elishama the Chancellours chamber, and Iehudi read it in the audience of the King, and in the audience of all the princes, which stoode beside the king.

l Which conteined part of November and part of December.

22 Nowe the King sate in the winterhouse, in the l ninth moneth, and there was a fire burning before him.

23 And when Iehudi had read three or foure sides, he cut it with the pen-knife and cast it into the fire, that was on the hearth, vntill all the roule was consumed in the fire, that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afrayde, nor rent m their garments, neither the king, nor any of his seruants, that heard all these words.

m Shewing that the wicked in stead of repenting when they heare Gods iudgements, growe into further malice against him and his word.

25 Neuertheless, Elnathan, and Delaiah, and Gemariah had besought the king, that hee would not burne the roule: but hee would not heare them.

n Thus we see the continuall care that God hath euer ouer his to preserue them from the rage of the wicked.

26 But the king commanded Ierahmeel the sonne of Hammelech, and Seraiah the sonne of Azriel, and Shelemiah the sonne of Abdiel, to take Baruch the scribe, and Ieremiah the Prophet, but the Lord n hid them.

27 ¶ Then the word of the Lord came to Ieremiah (after that the king had burnt the roule and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Ieremiah) saying, 28 Take thee againe o another roule, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roule which Iehoiakim the king of Iudah hath burnt.

o Though the wicked thinke to haue abolished the word of God, when they haue burnt the booke thereof: yet this declareth that God wil not only raise it vp againe, but also increase it in greater abundance to their condemnation, as verse 32.

29 And thou shalt say to Iehoiakim king of Iudah, Thus sayeth the Lorde, Thou hast burnt this roule, saying, p Why hast thou written therein, saying, that the king of Babel shall come and certainely destroy this land, and shall take thence both man and beast?

p These are Iehoiakims words.

30 Therefore thus saith the Lord of Iehoiakim king of Iudah, He shal haue q none to sit vpon the throne of Dauid, and his r dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heate, and in the night to the frost.

q Though Iehoiakim his sonne succeeded him, yet because hee reigned but three moneths, it was esteemed as no reigne.

r Reade Chap. 22, 19.

31 And I will visite him and his seede, and his seruants for their iniquitie, and I will bring vpon them, and vpon the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and vpon the men of Iudah all the euill that I haue pronounced against them: but they would not heare.

32 Then tooke Ieremiah another roule, and gaue it Baruch the scribe the sonne of Neriah, which wrote therein at the mouth of Ieremiah all the wordes of the booke which Iehoiakim king of Iudah had burnt in the fire, and there were added besides them many like words.

CHAP. XXXVII.

Zedekiah succeeded Iechoniah. 3 He sendeth vnto Ieremiah to pray for him. 12 Ieremiah going into the land of Beniamin, is taken, 15 He is beaten and put in prison.

AND * King Zedekiah the sonne of Iosiah reigned for a Koniah the sonne of Iehoiakim, whom Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel b made king in the land of Iudah.

2 But neither hee, nor his seruants, nor the people of the land would obey the words of the Lord, which he spake by the ‡ ministerie of the Prophet Ieremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king c sent Iehucal the sonne of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the sonne of Maaseiah the Priest to the Prophet Ieremiah, saying, Pray now vnto the Lord our God for vs.

6 Then came the word of the Lord vnto the Prophet Ieremiah, saying,

7 Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Thus shall ye say to the king of Iudah, that sent you vnto me to inquire of me, Behelde, Pharaohs hoste, which is come foorth to helpe you, shall returne to Egypt into their owne land.

8 And the Caldeans shall come againe, and fight against this citie, and take it and burne it with fire.

‖ Or, lift not vp your mindes.

9 Thus sayeth the Lorde, ‖ Deceiue not your selues, saying, The Caldeans shall surely depart from vs: for they shall not depart.

10 For though ye had smitten the whole hoste of the Caldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet shoulde euery man rise vp in his tent, and burne the citie with fire.

13 And when hee was in the g gate of Beniamin, there was a chiefe officer, whose name was Iriah, the sonne of Shelemiah, the sonne of Hananiah, and hee tooke Ieremiah the Prophet, saying, Thou ‡ fleest to the Caldeans.

14 Then said Ieremiah, That is false, I flee not to the Caldeans: but he would not heare him: so Iriah tooke Ieremiah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were angrie with Ieremiah, and smote him, and laid him in the prison in the house of Ionathan the scribe: for they had made that the h prison.

h Beeause it was a vile and streit prison.

16 When Ieremiah was entred into the dungeon, and into the prisons, and had remained there a long time, 17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and tooke him out, and the king asked him secretly in his house, and sayd, Is there any word from the Lord? And Ieremiah said, Yea: for, said he, thou shalt be deliuered into the hand of the king of Babel.

18 Moreouer Ieremiah sayde vnto king Zedekiah, What haue I offended against thee, or against thy seruants, or against this people, that ye haue put me in prison?

Chap. 28. 4. * Ebr. fall.

19 * Where are nowe your prophets, which prophecied vnto you, saying, The king of Babel shall not come against you, nor against this land?

i That is, so long as there was any bread in the citie: thus God prouideth for his, that he will cause their enemies to preserue them to that ende, whereunto he hath appointed them.

20 Therefore heare now, I pray thee, O my Lord the king: let my prayer ‡ be accepted before thee, that thou cause me not to returne to the house of Ionathan the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they shoulde put Ieremiah in the court of the prison, and that they should giue him daily a piece of bread out of the Bakers streete vntill all the i bread in the citie were eaten vp. Thus Ieremiah remained in the court of the prison.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 By the motion of the rulers Ieremiah is put into a dungeon. 10 At the request of Ebed-melech the king commandeth Ieremiah to be brought foorth of the dungeon. 17 Ieremiah sheweth the king how he might escape death.

THen Shephatiah the sonne of Mattan, and Gedaliah the sonne of Pashhur, and Iucal the sonne of Shelemiah, and Pashur the sonne of a Melchiah, heard the wordes that Ieremiah had spoken vnto all the people, saying, a For Zedekiah had sent these to Ieremiah to inquire at the Lord for the state of the countrey nowe when Nebuchad-nezzar came, as Chap. 21.1.

2 Thus saith the Lord, He that remaineth in this citie, shall die by the sword, by the famine and by the pestilence: but he that goeth foorth to the Caldeans, shall liue: for he shall haue his life for b a pray, and shall liue.

b Reade Chap. 21.9. and 45.5.

3 Thus saith the Lord, This citie shall surely bee giuen into the hand of the king of Babels armie, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes sayde vnto the King, We beseech you, let this man bee put to death: for thus he ‖ weakeneth the hands of the men of warre c that remaine in this citie, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such wordes vnto them: for this man seeketh not the wealth of this people, but the hurt.

c Thus we see how the wicked when they can not abide to heare the trueth of Gods word, seeke to put the ministers to death as transgressours of policies.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, hee is in your hands, for the king can denie d you nothing.

d Wherein he grieuously offended in that that not onely hee would not heare the truth spoken by the Prophet, but also gaue him to the lusts of the wicked to be cruelly intreated.

6 Then tooke they Ieremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the sonne of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let downe Ieremiah with cordes: and in the dungeon there was no water but myre: so Ieremiah stacke fast in the myre.

‡ Ebr. Cuſhite, or Ethiopian.

7 Nowe when Ebed-melech the ‡ blacke Moze, one of the Eunuches, which was in the kings house, heard that they had put Ieremiah in the dungeon (then the king late in the e gate of Beniamin)

e To heare matters, and giue sentence.

8 And Ebed-melech went out of the kings house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, f these men haue done euill in all that they haue done to Ieremiah the Prophet, whom they haue cast into the dungeon, and hee dieth for hunger in the place where hee is: for there is no more bread in the citie.

f Hereby is declared, that the Prophet found more fauour at this strangers hands, then he did by all them of his countrey, which was to their great condemnation.

10 Then the king commaunded Ebed-melech the blacke Moze, saying, Take from hence thirtie men ‡ with thee, and take Ieremiah the Prophet out of the dungeon before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech tooke the men with him, and went to the house of the king vnder the treasurie, and tooke there olde rotten ragges, and olde worne cloutes, and let them downe by cordes into the dungeon to Ieremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the blacke Moze sayde vnto Ieremiah, Put nowe these olde rotten ragges and worne, vnder thine armeholes, betweene the cordes. And Ieremiah did so.

13 So they drewe vp Ieremiah with cordes, and tooke him vp out of the dungeon, dungeon, and Jeremiah remained in ſ the Court of the priſon.

14 ¶ Then Zedekiah the king ſent, and tooke Jeremiah the Prophet vnto him, into the third entrie that is in the houſe of the LORD, and the king ſayd vnto Jeremiah, I will aſke thee a thing: hide nothing from mee.

15 Then Jeremiah ſayd to Zedekiah, If I declare it vnto thee, wilt not thou ſlay me? and if I giue thee counſell, thou wilt not heare me.

16 So the king ſware ſecretly vnto Jeremiah, ſaying, As the LORD liueth, that made vs theſe ſoules, I will not ſlay thee, nor giue thee into the hands of thoſe men that ſeeke thy life.

17 Then ſayd Jeremiah vnto Zedekiah, Thus ſayeth the LORDE God of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, If thou wilt goe forth vnto the king of Babels h princes, then thy ſoule ſhall liue, and this citie ſhall not bee burnt vp with fire, and thou ſhalt liue, and thine houſe.

h And yeeld thy ſelfe vnto them.

18 But if thou wilt not goe forth to the king of Babels princes, then ſhall this city be giuen into the hand of the Caldeans, and they ſhall burne it with fire, and thou ſhalt not eſcape out of their hands.

19 And Zedekiah the king ſayd vnto Jeremiah, I am carefull for the Jewes that are fled vnto the Caldeans, leaſt they deliuer me into their hands, & they i mocke me.

i Which declareth that he more feared ỹ reproch of men, then the threatnings of God.

20 But Jeremiah ſayde, They ſhall not deliuer thee: hearken vnto the voyce of the LORD, I beſeech thee, which I ſpeake vnto thee: ſo ſhall it be well vnto thee, and thy ſoule ſhall liue.

21 But if thou wilt refuſe to goe forth, this is the word that the LORD hath ſhewed mee.

22 And beholde, all the woman that are k left in the king of Judahs houſe, ſhall bee brought forth to the king of Babels princes: and thoſe women ſhall ſay, Thy friends haue perſwaded thee, and haue preuailed againſt thee: thy feete are ſaſtened in the mire, and they are turned backe.

k When Ieconiah and his mother with others were caried away, theſe women of the kings houſe were left: which ſhalbe taken, ſayth the Propher, and tell the king of Babel howe Zedikiah hath bene ſeduced by his familiar friendes and falſe Prophets, which haue left him in the mire.

23 So they ſhall bring out all thy wiues, and thy children to the Caldeans, and thou ſhalt not eſcape out of their handes, but ſhalt bee taken by the hande of the King of Babel: and this citie ſhalt thou cauſe to bee burnt with fire.

24 Then ſaid Zedekiah vnto Jeremiah, Let no man know of theſe words, and thou ſhalt not die.

l Herein appeareth the infirmity of the Prophet, who did diſſemble to ſaue his life, albeit it was not to the deniall of his doctrine, or to the hurt of any,

25 But if the princes vnderſtand that I haue talked with thee, and they come vnto thee, and ſay vnto thee, Declare vnto vs now, what thou haſt ſayd vnto the King, hide it not from vs, and wee will not ſlay thee: alſo what the king ſayd vnto thee, 26 Then ſhalt thou ſay vnto them, I humbly l beſought the king that hee would not cauſe me to returne to Jehonathans houſe to die there.

27 Then came all the Princes vnto Jeremiah and aſked him. And he told them according to all theſe wordes that the king had commanded: ſo they left off ſpeaking with him, for the matter was not perceiued.

28 So Jeremiah abode ſtill in the court of the priſon, vntill the day that Jeruſalem was taken: and he was there, when Jeruſalem was taken.

IN * the ninth yeere of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth moneth, came Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel and all his hoſte againſt Jeruſalem, and they beſieged it.

2 And in the eleuenth yere of Zedekiah, in the fourth moneth, the ninth day of the moneth, the citie was broken a vp.

a The gates and walles were broken downe.

3 And all the princes of the king of Babel came in, and ſate in the middle gate, euen Nergal, Sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarſechim, Rab ſaris, Nergal, Sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the reſidue of the princes of the king of Babel.

4 And when Zedekiah the king of Judah ſawe them, and all the men of warre, then they fled, and went out of the citie by night, thorow the kings garden, and by the b gate betweene the two walles, and he went toward the wilderneſſe.

b Which was a poſterne doore, reade 2. Kings 25.4.

5 But the Caldeans hoſte purſued after them, and ouertooke Zedekiah in the deſert of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him to Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel vnto c Riblah in the lande of Hamath, where hee gaue iudgement vpon him.

c Which is called Antiochia in Syria.

6 Then the king of Babel ſlew ỹ ſonnes of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: alſo the king of Babel ſlewe all the Nobles of Judah.

7 Moreouer hee put out Zedekiahs eyes, and bound him in chaines, to carrie him to Babel.

8 And the Caldeans burnt the Kings houſe, and the houſes of the people with fire, and brake downe the walles of Jeruſalem.

9 Then Nebuzar-adan the ‖ chiefe ſteward carried away captiue into Babel the remnant of the people, that remained in the citie, and thoſe that were fled and fallen vnto him with the reſt of the people that remained.

d For the rich and the mighty which put their truſt in their ſhifts & meanes, were by Gods iuſt iudgements moſt rigorouſly handled.

14 Euen they sent, and tooke Ieremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him vnto f Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam the sonne of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.

15 Now the word of the LORD came vnto Ieremiah, while he was shut vp in the court of the prison, saying, 16 Goe and speake to Ebed-melech the blacke Moze, saying, Thus sayth the LORD of hosts the God of Israel, Beholde, I will bring my words vpon this city for euill, and not for good, and they shalbe accomplished in that day before thee.

17 But I will deliuer thee in that day, sayeth the Lord, and thou shalt not be giuen into the hand of the men whome thou fearest.

18 For I will surely deliuer thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sworde, but thy life shall be for a praye vnto thee, because thou hast put thy trust in me, sayth the LORD.

f Whome the king of Babel had now appointed gouernour ouer the rest of the Iewes that he left behinde.

CHAP. XL.

4 Ieremiah hath licence to goe whither he will. 6 He dwelleth with the people that remaine with Gedaliah.

THe word which came to Ieremiah from the Lord after that Nebuzar-adan the chiefe steward had let him goe from Ramath, when he had taken him being bound in chaines among all that were carried away captiue of Ierusalem & Iudah, which were caried away captiue vnto Babel.

2 a And the chiefe steward tooke Ieremiah, and sayed vnto him, The Lord thy God hath pronounced this plague vpon this place.

3 Nowe the Lorde hath brought it, and done according as he hath sayd: because yee haue b sinned against the Lorde, and haue not obeyed his voyce, therefore this thing is come vpon you.

4 And nowe beholde, I loose thee this day from the chaines which were on thine hands: if it pleale thee to come with me into Babel, come, and I will looke well vnto thee: but if it pleale thee not to come with me into Babel, ‡ tarie still: beholde, all the land is ‖ before thee: whither it seemeth good, and conuenient for thee to goe, thither go.

5 For yet he was not returned: therefore he sayd, Returne to Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam, the sonne of Shaphan, whom the king of Babel hath made gouernour ouer all the cities of Iudah, and dwell with him among the people, or goe wheresoeuer it pleaseth thee to goe. So the chiefe Steward gaue him vitailes and a reward and let him goe.

6 Then went Ieremiah vnto Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam, to c Mizpah, & dwelt there with him among the people that were left in the land.

7 Nowe when all the Captaines of the hoste, d which were in the fieldes, euen they and their men heard, that the king of Babel had made Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam gouernour in the land, and that he had committed vnto him, men, and women, and 9 And Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam, the sonne of Shaphan * sware vnto them, and to their men, saying, Feare not to serue the Caldeans: dwell in the land, and serue the king of Babel, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for mee, beholde, I will dwell at Mizpah to ‖ serue the Caldeans, which will come vnto vs: but you, gather you wine, and Sommer fruits, and oyle, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities, that ye haue ‖ taken.

11 Likewise when all the Iewes that were in f Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babel had left a remnant of Iudah, and that hee had set ouer them Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam the sonne of Shaphan, 12 Euen all the Iewes returned out of all places where they were driuen, and came to the land of Iudah to Gedaliah vnto Mizpah, and gathered wine and Sommer fruits, very much.

13 Moreouer Iohanan the sonne of Kareah, and all the captaines of the hoste, that were in the fieldes, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 And sayd vnto him, knowest thou not that g Baalis the king of the Ammonites, hath sent Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah to slay thee? but Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam beleeued them not.

15 Then Iohanan the sonne of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me goe, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it. Wherefore should he kill thee, that all the Iewes, which are gathered vnto thee, should be scattered, and the remnant in Iudah perish?

16 But Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam sayd vnto Iohanan the sonne of Kareah, Thou shalt h not doe this thing: for thou speakest falsly of Ishmael.

2 Ishmael killeth Gedaliah guilefully, and many other with him. 11 Iohanan followeth after Ishmael.

BVt in the a seuenth moneth came Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah, the sonne of Elishama of the seed royall, and the princes of the b king, and tenne men with him, vnto Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam to Mizpah, and there they did c eate bread together in Mizpah.

with him, and smote Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam the sonne of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the King of Babel had made gouernour ouer the land.

3 Ishmael also slew all the Iewes that were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and all the Caldeans that were found there, and the men of warre.

4 Now the second day that he had slaine Gedaliah, and no man knew it,

5 There came men from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, euen fourescore men, hauing their beards shauen, and their clothes rent and cut, with [d] offrings and incense in their hands to offer in the house of the LORD.

6 And Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah went foorth from Mizpah to meete them, weeping as he went: [e] when he met them, he said vnto them, Come to Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam.

7 And when they came into the middes of the citie, Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the middest of the pit, hee and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them, that said vnto Ishmael, Slay vs not: for wee haue treasures in the field, of wheate, and of barley, and of oyle, and of honie: so he stayed, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast the dead bodyes of the men (whom hee had slaine because of Gedaliah) is it, which Asa the king had [f] made because of Baasha King of Israel, and Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slaine.

10 Then Ishmael caryed away captiue all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, euen the kings daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan the chiefe steward had committed to Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam, and Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah caryed them away captiue, and departed to goe ouer to the Ammonites.

11 But when Iohanan the sonne of Kareah, and all the [g] captaines of the hoste that were with him, heard of all the euill that Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah had done, 12 Then they all tooke their men, [†] went to fight with Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon.

13 Now when all the people whome Ishmael caryed away captiue, sawe Iohanan the sonne of Kareah, and all the captaines of the hoste, that were with him, they were glad.

14 So all the people, that Ishmael had caryed away captiue from Mizpah, returned, and came againe, and went vnto Iohanan the sonne of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah escaped from Iohanan with eight men, and went to the [h] Ammonites.

16 Then tooke Iohanan the sonne of Kareah, and all the captaines of the hoste that were with him, all the remnant of the people, whom Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah had caryed away captiue from Mizpah, (after that hee had slaine Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam) euen the strong men of warre, and the women, and the children, and the eunuches, whom hee had brought againe from Gibeon:

17 And they departed and dwelt in Geruth [i] Chunham, which is by Beth-lehem, to goe and to enter into Egypt, 18 Because of the Caldeans: for they feared them, because Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah had slaine Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam, whom the King of Babel made gouernour in the land.

d For they thought that the Temple had not bene destroyed, and therefore came vp to the feast of Tabernacles: but hearing of the burning thereof in the way, they shewed these signes of sorow.

e For his death was kept secret, and hee fained that he lamented for the destruction of Ierusalem, and the Temple: but after slew them when they seemed to fauour Gedaliah.

1 The captaines aske counsell of Ieremiah what they ought to doe. 7 He admonisheth the remnant of the people not to goe into Egypt.

THen all the captaines of the hoste, and Iohanan the sonne of Kareah, and Iezaniah the sonne of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least vnto the most came,

2 And said vnto Ieremiah the Prophet, [‡] Heare our prayer, we beseech thee, and pray for vs vnto the LORD thy God, euen for all this remnant (for we are left, but a few of many, as thine eyes doe behold)

3 That the LORD thy God may shew vs the way wherein we may walke, and the thing that we may [a] doe.

4 Then Ieremiah the Prophet said vnto them, I haue heard you: behold, I will pray vnto the LORD your God, according to your words, and whatsoeuer thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it vnto you: I will keepe nothing backe from you.

5 Then they said to Ieremiah, [b] The LORD bee a witnesse of trueth, and faith betweene vs, if wee doe not, euen according to all things, for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to vs.

6 Whether it be good or euill, we will obey the voyce of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee, that it may be well with vs, when we obey the voyce of the LORD our God.

7 ¶ [c] And so after ten dayes came the word of the LORD vnto Ieremiah.

8 Then called hee Iohanan the sonne of Kareah, and all the captaines of the hoste, which were with him, and all the people from the least to the most,

9 And said vnto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, vnto whom yee sent me to present your prayers before him,

10 If ye will dwell in this land, then I will build you, and not destroy you, and I will plant you, and not roote you out: for I [d] repent me of the euill that I haue done vnto you.

11 Feare not for the King of Babel, of whome yee are afraide: bee not afraide of him, saith the LORDE: for I am with you to saue you, and to deliuer you [e] from his hand, Lord your God.

14 Saying, Nay, but wee will goe into the land of Egypt, where wee shall see no warre, nor heare the sound of the trumpet, nor haue hunger of bread, and there will we dwell,

15 (And now therefore heare the worde of the Lord, ye remnant of Iudah, thus saith the Lord of hostes, the God of Israel, If ye set your faces to enter into Egypt, and goe to dwell there) f Thus God turneth the policie of the wicked to their owne destruction: for they thought themselues sure in Egypt, and there Nebuchadnezzar destroyed them and the Egyptians, Chap. 46.25.

16 Then the sword that ye feared, f shall take you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, for the which yee care, shall there hang vpon you in Egypt, and there shall ye die.

17 And all the men that set their faces to enter into Egypt to dwell there, shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, and none of them shall remaine nor escape from the plague, that I will bring vpon them.

g Reade Chap. 26.6. & 44.12. shewing that this should come vpon them for their infidelitie and stubburnesse.

18 For thus saith the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, As mine anger and my wrath hath bene powred foorth vpon the inhabitants of Ierusalem: so shall my wrath be powred foorth vpon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt, and yee shall be a detestation, and astonishment, and a curse, and a reproch, and ye shall see this place no more.

h For you were fully minded to goe into Egypt, whatsoeuer God spake to the contrary.

19 O yee remnant of Iudah, the Lord hath said concerning you, Goe not into Egypt: know certeinely that I haue admonished you this day.

20 Surely ye g dissembled in your hearts when yee sent me vnto the Lord your God, saying, Pray for vs vnto the Lord our God, and declare vnto vs euen according vnto all that the Lord our God shall say, and we will doe it.

21 Therefore I haue this day declared it you, but you haue not obeyed the voyce of the Lord your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me vnto you.

22 Now therefore, know certenly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, i in the place whither yee desire to goe and dwell.

i To wit, in Egypt.

CHAP. XLIII.

Iohanan careth the remnant of the people into Egypt contrary to the mind of Ieremiah. 8 Ieremiah prophecieth the destruction of Egypt.

NOw when Ieremiah had made an end of speaking vnto the whole people all the wordes of the Lord their God, for the which the Lord their God had sent him to them, euen all these words,

2 Then spake a Azariah the sonne of Hoshaiah, and Iohanan the sonne of Kareah, and all the b proud men, saying vnto Ieremiah, c Thou speakest falsly: the Lord our God hath d not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to dwell there, a Who was also called Iezaniah, Chap. 42.1.

b This declareth that pride is the cause of rebellion, and contempt of Gods ministers.

c When the hypocrisie of the wicked is discouered, they burst foorth into open rage: for they can abide nothing but flatteries, reade Isa. 30.10. d He sheweth what is the nature of the hypocrites: to wit, to feigne that they would obey God and embrace his word, if they were assured that his messengers spake trueth: though indeede they be most farre from all obedience.

3 But Baruch the sonne of Neriah e prouoketh thee against vs, for to deliuer vs into the hand of the Caldeans, that they might slay vs, and carie vs away captiues into Babel.

e Thus the wicked do not onely contemne and hurt the messengers of God, but slander & speake wickedly of all them that support or saiour the godly.

4 So Iohanan the sonne of Kareah, and all the captaines of the hoste, and all the people obeyed not the voyce of the Lord, to dwell in the land of Iudah.

5 But Iohanan the sonne of Kareah, and all the captaines of the hoste, tooke all the remnant of Iudah, that were returned from all f nations, whither they had bene driuen, to dwell in the land of Iudah:

f As from the Moabites, Ammonites, and Edomites, Chap. 40.11.

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voyce of the Lord: thus came they to h Tahpanhes.

h A citie in Egypt neere to Nilus.

8 ¶ Then came the worde of the Lord vnto Ieremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and i hide them in the clay in the bricke kill, which is at the entrie of Pharaohs house in Tahpanhes in the sight of the men of Iudah, i Which signified that Nebuchad-nezzar should come euen to the gates of Pharaoh, where were his bricke killes for his buildings.

10 And say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, Behold, I will send and bring Nebuchad-nezzar the king of Babel k my seruant, and will set his throne vpon these stones that I haue hidde, and he shall spread his pauillion ouer them.

l Euery one shall be slaine by that meanes that God hath appointed, Chap. 15.2.

12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt, and hee shall burne them, and carie them away captiues, and hee shall aray himselfe with the land of Egypt, as a m shepheard putteth on his garment, and shal depart from thence in peace.

m Meaning, most easily, and suddenly shall he carie the Egyptians away.

13 Hee shall breake also the images of ‖ Beth-shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt, and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burne with fire.

CHAP. XLIIII.

He reproueth the people for their idolatrie. 15 They that set light by the threatning of the Lorde are chastened. 26 The destruction of Egypt, and of the Iewes therein, is prophecied.

THe worde that came to Ieremiah concerning all the Iewes, which dwell in the land of Egypt, and remained at Migdol and at a Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the countrey of Pathros, saying, a These were all famous & strong cities in Egypt, where the Iewes that were fled, dwelt for their safetie: but the Prophet declareth that there is no holde so strong, that can preserue them from Gods vengeance.

2 Thus saith the Lord of hosts the God of Israel, Yee haue seene all the euill that I haue brought vpon Ierusalem, and vpon all the cities of Iudah: and behold, this day they are desolate, and no man dwelleth therein,

3 Because

3 Because of their wickednesse which they haue committed, to prouoke mee to anger, in that they went to burne incense, and to serue other gods, whom they knewe not, neither they nor you nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit I sent vnto you all my seruants the Prophets [b] rising earely, and sending them, saying, Oh doe not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 But they would[e] not heare nor incline their eare to turne from their wickednesse, and to burne no more incense vnto other gods.

6 Wherefore [c] my wrath, and mine anger was powred foorth and was kindled in the cities of Iudah, and in the streets of Ierusalem, and they are desolate, and wasted, as appeareth this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, Wherefore commit ye this great euill against your soules, to cut off from you man and woman, childe and suckling out of Iudah, and leaue you none to remaine?

8 In that yee prouoke mee vnto wrath with the works of your handes, burning incense vnto other gods in the land of Egypt whither ye be gone to dwell: that ye might bring destruction vnto your selues, and that ye might be a curse and a reproch among all nations of the earth.

9 Haue ye forgotten the wickednesse of your Fathers, and the wickednesse of the [a] kings of Iudah, and the wickednesse of their wiues, and your owne wickednesse, and the wickednesse of your wiues, which they haue committed in the land of Iudah and in the streetes of Ierusalem?

10 They are not ‖ humbled vnto this day, neither haue they feared nor walked in my Lawe nor in my statutes, that I set before you, and before your fathers.

11 Therefore thus sayeth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Behold, I will set my face against you * to euill, and to destroy all Iudah, 12 And I will take the remnant of Iudah, that [e] haue set their faces to goe into the land of Egypt there to dwell, and they shall all be consumed and fall in the lande of Egypt: they shall euen be consumed by the sword, and by the famine: they shall die from the least vnto the most, by the sword, and by the famine, and they shall be a detestation and an astonishment and a [f] curse and a reproch.

13 For I will visite them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I haue visited Ierusalem, by the sworde, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

14 So that none of the remnant of Iudah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to dwell there, shall escape or remaine, that they should returne into the land of Iudah to the which they ‡ haue a desire to returne to dwell there: for none shall returne, but [g] such as shall escape.

15 Then all the men which knew that their wiues had burnt incense vnto other gods, & all the women that stood by, a great multitude, euen all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt in Pathros, answered Ieremiah, saying,

16 The word that thou hast spoken vnto vs in the name of the Lorde, wee will [h] not heare it of thee,

17 But we will do whatsoeuer thing goeth out of our own mouth, as to burne incense vnto [i] the Queene of heauen, and to powre out drinke offerings vnto her, as wee haue done, both we and our fathers, our Kings and our princes in the cities of Iudah, and in the streets of Ierusalem: for then ‡ had we [k] plentie of vitailes and were well and ‖ felt none euill.

18 But since wee left off to burne incense to the Queene of heauen, and to powre out drinke offerings vnto her, wee haue had ‖ scarsenesse of all things, and haue bene consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 And when wee burnt incense to the Queene of heauen, and powred out drinke offerings vnto her, did wee make her cakes to ‖ make her glad, & powre out drinke offerings vnto her without [l] our husbands?

20 Then said Ieremiah vnto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had giuen him that answere, saying,

21 Did not the Lord remember the incense, that yee burnt in the cities of Iudah, and in the streetes of Ierusalem, both you, and your fathers, your Kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, & ‡ hath he not considered it?

22 So that the Lord could no longer forbeare, because of the wickednesse of your inventions, and because of the abominations, which ye haue committed: therefore is your land desolate and an astonishment, and a curse, and without inhabitant, as appeareth this day.

23 Because yee haue burnt incense, and because ye haue sinned against the Lord, and haue not obeyed the voyce of the Lord, nor walked in his Law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies, therefore this plague is come vpon you, as appeareth this day.

24 ¶ Moreouer Ieremiah said vnto all the people, and to all the women, Heare the word of the Lord, all Iudah that are in the land of Egypt.

25 ¶ Thus speaketh the Lord of hostes, the God of Israel, saying, Yee and your wiues haue both spoken with your mouthes, and fulfilled with your [m] hand, saying, Wee will perfourme our vowes that wee haue vowed to burne incense to the Queene of heauen, and to powre out drinke offrings to her: yee will perfourme your vowes, and doe the things that yee haue vowed.

26 Therefore heare the word of the Lord, all Iudah that dwell in the land of Egypt. Behold, I haue sworne by my great Name, saith the Lord, that my Name any thing whereof they be not assured by Gods word: for thereby they take an occasion to iustifie their doinges, and their husbandes shall giue an account thereof before God, reade Ha.3.25. ‡ Ebr. Is it not come vp into his heart?

[h] This declareth how dangerous a thing it is to decline once from God, and to follow our owne fantasies: for Satan euer solicites such, and doth not leaue them till he haue brought them to extreme impudencie and madnes, euen to iustifie their wickednes against God & his Prophets.

[i] Reade Chap. 7.18 It seemeth that the Papists gathered of this place, their Salue Regina, & Regina cœli lætare, calling the virgin Mary Queene of heauen, and so of the blessed virgine, and mother of our Sauiour Christ made an idole: for here the Prophet condemneth their idolatrie.

[k] This is still the argument of idolaters, which esteeme religion by the belly, and in stead of acknowledging Gods workes, who sendeth both plentie and dearth, health and sickenesse, they attribute it to their idoles, and so dishonour God.

[m] This teacheth vs how great danger it is for the husbandes to permit their wiues n This declareth an horrible plague toward idolaters, seeing that God wil not vouchsafe to haue his Name mentioned by such as haue polluted it.

o We see therefore, that God hath a perpetuall care ouer his, wheresoeuer they are scattered: for though they be but two or three, yet he will deliuer them when he destroyeth his enemies.

p He sheweth the meanes wherby they should be destroyed, to assure them of the certaintie of the plague, and yet they remaine still in their obstinacie till they perish: for Iosephus lib. 10. de Antiq. cap. 11. writeth, that fiue yeere after the taking of Ierusalem, Nebuchadnezzar the yonger, hauing ouercome the Moabites and the Ammonites, went against Egypt, and slewe the king, and so brought these Iewes, and other into Babylon.

n shall no more bee called vpon by the mouth of any man of Iudah, in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord God liueth.

27 Beholde, I will watch ouer them for euil and not for good, and all men of Iudah that are in the land of Egypt, shall bee consumed by the sword, and by the famine, vntil they be vtterly destroyed.

28 Yet a small number that escape the sword, o shall returne out of the land of Egypt into the land of Iudah: and all the remnant of Iudah that are gone into the land of Egypt to dwell there, shall knowe whose words shall stand, mine or theirs.

29 And this shall bee a signe vnto you, sayeth the Lorde, when I visite you in this place, that yee may knowe that my wordes shall surely stand against you for euill.

30 Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will p giue Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seeke his life: as I gaue Zedekiah king of Iudah into the hand of Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel his enemie, who also sought his life.

5 d Wherefore haue I seene them afraid, and driuen backe? for their mightie men are smitten, & are fled away, & looke not backe: for feare was round about, saith the Lord.

6 The swift shall not flee away, nor the strong man escape: they shall stumble, and fal toward the e North by the riuer Perath.

The worde of the Lorde againſt the Moabites 26 Becauſe of their pride and cruelties.

COncerning Moab, thus ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, Woe vnto a Nebo: for it is waſted: Kiriathaim is confounded and taken: Miſgab is confounded and afraid.
2 Moab ſhall boaſt no more of Heſhbon: for they haue deuiſed euill againſt it, b Come, and let vs deſtroy it, that it be no more a nation: alſo thou ſhalt bee deſtroyed, c O mad men, and the ſword ſhall purſue thee.

33 And ioy, and gladnesse is taken from the plentifull field & from the land of Moab: and I haue caused wine to fall from the wine presse: none shall tread with shouting: their shouting shalbe no shouting.

34 From the cry of Heshbon vnto Elealeh, and vnto Jahaz haue they made their noyse: from Zoar vnto Horonaim, the [t] heifer of three yeere olde shall go lowing: for the waters also of Nimrim shalbe wasted.

35 Moreouer, I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the Lorde, him that offered in the hie places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

36 Therefore mine heart shall sounde for Moab like a [u] thaunne, and mine heart shall sound like a thaunne for the men of Kir-heres, because the riches that hee hath gotten, is perished.

37 * For euerie head shall be ‖ balde, and euerp beard plucked: vpon all the hands shalbe cuttings, and vpon the loynes sackecloth.

38 And mourning shall bee vpon all the house toppes of Moab and in al the streetes thereof: for I haue broken Moab like a vessell wherein is no pleasure, saieth the Lord.

39 They shall howle, saying, Howe is hee destroyed? howe hath Moab turned the backe with shame: so shall Moab be a derision, and a feare to all them about him.

40 For thus saith the Lord, Beholde, [x] he shall flee as an eagle, and shall spread his wings ouer Moab.

41 The cities are taken, and the strong holdes are woonne, and the mightie mens hearts in Moab at that day shall bee as the heart of a woman in trauell.

42 And Moab shalbe destroyed from being a people, because he hath set vp himselfe against the Lord.

43 [y] Feare, and pit and snare shalbe vpon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the Lord.

44 He that escapeth from the feare, shall fall in the pit, and he that getteth vp out of the pit, shalbe taken in the snare: for I will bring vpon it, euen vpon Moab, the yeere of their visitation, saith the Lord.

45 They that fledde stood vnder the shadowe [z] of Heshbon, because of the force: for [a] the fire came out of Heshbon, and a flame from Sihon, and deuoured the corner of Moab, and the toppe of the seditious children.

46 Wo be vnto thee, O Moab: the people of [b] Chemosh perisheth: for thy sonnes are taken captiues, and thy daughters led into captiuitie.

47 Yet will I bring againe the captiuitie of Moab in the [c] latter dayes, saith the Lorde. Thus farre of the iudgement of Moab.

CHAP. XLIX.

1 The word of the Lord against the Ammonites, 7 Idumea, 23 Damascus, 28 Kedar, 34 and Elam.

VNto the children of Ammon thus saith the Lorde, Hath Israel no sonnes? or hath hee none heire? Why then hath their [b] king possessed Gad, and his people dwelt in [c] his cities?

2 Therefore beholde, the dayes come, saith the Lord, that I will cause a noyse of warre k As the calfe of Beth-el was not able to deliuer the Israelites: no more shall Chemosh deliuer the Moabites.

l How are they destroyed that put their trust in their strength and riches.

m Thus they that flee, shall answere.

n That is, his power and strength.

warre to be heard in [d]Rabbah of the Ammonites, and it shall be a desolate heape, and her daughters shall be burnt with fire: then shall Israel possesse those that possessed him, saith the Lord.

3 Howle, O Heshbon, for Ai is wasted: crie ye daughters of Rabbah: gird you with sackcloth: mourne and runne to and fro by the hedges: for their king shall goe into captiuitie, and his Priestes, and his Princes likewise.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the [e] valleys? thy valley floweth away, O rebellious daughter: she trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come vnto me?

5 Beholde, I will bring a [f] feare vpon thee, saith the Lorde God of hostes, of all those that be about thee, and ye shalbe scattered euery man [g] right foorth, and none shall gather him that fleeth.

6 And [h] afterward I will bring againe the captiuitie of the children of Ammon.

7 ¶ To Edom thus saith the Lorde of hostes, Is wisedome no more in [i] Teman? Is counsell perished from their children? Is their wisedome vanished?

8 Flee, ye inhabitants of Dedan ([k] they are turned backe, and haue consulted to dwell) for I haue brought the destruction of Esau vpon him, and the time of his visitation.

9 If the [l] grape gatherers come to thee, would they not leaue some grapes? if theeues come by night, they will destroy till they haue inough.

10 For I haue discouered Esau: I haue vncouered his secrets, and he shall not be able to hide himselfe: his seede is wasted, and his brethren and his neighbours, and there shall be none to say, 11 Leaue thy [m] fatherlesse children, and I will preserue them aliue, and let thy widowes trust in me.

12 For thus saith the Lord, [n] Behold, they whose iudgement was not to drinke of the cup, haue assuredly drunken, and art thou he that shall escape free? thou shalt not goe free, but thou shalt surely drinke of it.

13 For I haue sworne by my selfe, saith the Lord, that [o] Bozrah shall be waste, and for a reproch, and a desolation, and a curse and all the cities therof shall be perpetuall desolations.

14 I haue heard a rumour from the Lord, and an ambassadour is sent vnto the heathen, saying, Gather you together, and come against [p] her, and rise vp to the battell.

15 For loe, I will make thee but small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy [q] feare, & the pride of thine heart hath deceiued thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rocke, and keepest the height of the hill: though thou shouldest make thy nest as high as the egle, I will bring thee downe from thence, saith the Lord.

17 ¶ Also Edom shall be desolate: euery one that goeth by it, shall be astonished, and shall hisse at all the plagues therof, 18 As in the ouerthrow of Sodome, & of Gomorah, and the places therof neere about, saith the Lorde: no man shall dwell there, neither shall the sonnes of men remaine in it.

19 Behold, [r] he shall come vp like a lion from the swelling of Iorden vnto the strong dwelling place: for I will make Israel to rest, euen I will make [s] him to haste away from her, and who is a chosen man that I may appoint against her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is the [t] shepheard that will stand before me?

20 Therefore heare the counsell of the Lord that hee hath deuised against Edom, and his purpose that hee hath conceiued against the inhabitants of Teman: surely the least [u] of the flocke shall draw them out: surely [u] he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21 The earth is moued at the noyse of their fall: the cry of their voyce is heard in the red sea.

22 Behold, he shall come vp, and flie as the egle, [x] and spread his wings ouer Bozrah, and at that day shall the heart of the strong men of Edom bee as the heart of a woman in trauell.

23 ¶ Vnto [y] Damascus he saith, Hamath is confounded and Arpad, for they haue heard euill tidings, & they are faint hearted as one on the fearefull sea that cannot rest.

24 Damascus is discouraged, and turneth her selfe to flight, [z] and feare hath seased her: anguish and sorowes haue taken her as a woman in trauell.

25 How is the glorious [a] citie not reserued, the citie of my ioy?

26 Therefore her yong men shall fall in her streetes, and all her men of warre shalbe cut off in that day, saith the Lord of hostes.

27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, which shall consume the palaces of [b] Ben-hadad.

28 ¶ Vnto [c] Kedar, and to the kingdomes of Hazor, which Nebuchad nezzar King of Babel shall smite, thus saith the Lord, Arise, and goe vp vnto Kedar, and destroy the men of the East.

29 Their tentes and their flockes shall they take away: yea, they shal take to them selues their [d] curteines, and all their vessels, and their camels, and they shall crie vnto them, Feare is on euery side.

30 Flee, get you farre off (ye haue consulted to dwell) O yee inhabitants of Hazor, saith the Lord: for Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel hath taken counsell against you, and hath deuised a purpose against you.

31 [f] Arise, and get you vp vnto the wealthie nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the Lord, which haue neither gates nor barres, but dwell alone.

32 And their camels shalbe a bootie, & the multitude of their cattell a spoile. and I will scatter them into all windes, & to the vtmost corners, and I will bring their destruction from all the sides therof, saith the Lord.

35 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, Behold, I will breake the h bow of Elam, euen the chiefe of their strength.

36 And vpon Elam I will bring the foure windes from the foure quarters of heauen, & will scatter them towards all these winds, and there shall be no nation, whither the fugitiues of Elam shall not come.

37 For I will cause Elam to be afraide before their enemies, and before them that seeke their liues, and will bring vpon them a plague, euen the indignation of my wrath, saith the Lord, and I will send the sword after them till I haue consumed them.

38 And I will set my i throne in Elam, and I will destroy both the king and the princes from thence, saith the Lord: but k in the latter dayes I will bring againe the captiuitie of Elam, saith the Lord.

CHAP. L.

He prophecieth the destruction of Babylon, and the deliuerance of Israel, which was in captiuitie.

THe word that the Lord spake concerning Babel, and concerning the land of the Caldeans by the ‡ ministerie of Ieremiah the Prophet.

‡ Ebr. hand.

2 Declare among the nations, and publish it, and set vp a standart, proclaime it and conceale it not: say, a Babel is taken, Bel is confounded, b Merodach is broken downe: her idoles are confounded, and their images are burst in pieces.

3 For out of the North there c commeth vp a nation against her, which shall make her land waste, and none shall dwell therein: they shall flee, and depart, both man & beast.

4 In those dayes, and at that time, saith the Lord, the children of Israel shall d come, they, and the children of Iudah together, going, and e weeping shall they goe, and seeke the Lord their God.

5 They shall aske the way to Zion, with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let vs cleane to the Lord in a perpetual couenant that shall not be forgotten.

6 ¶ My people hath beene as lost sheepe: their f shepheards haue caused them to goe astray, and haue turned them away to the mountaines: they haue gone from g mountaine to hill, and forgotten their resting place.

7 All that found them, haue deuoured them, and their enemies saide, We offend not, because they haue sinned against the Lorde, h the habitation of iustice, euen the Lord the hope of their fathers.

8 i Flee from the middes of Babel, and depart out of the land of the Caldeans, and be ye as the hee goates k before the flocke.

9 For lo, I will raise, & cause to come vp against Babel a multitude of mightie nations from the North countrey, and they shal set themselues in arap against her, whereby she shall be taken: their arrowes shall be as of a strong man, which is expert, for none shall returne in vaine.

10 And Caldea shall be a spoile: all that spoile her, l shall be satisfied, saieth the Lord.

11 Because ye were glad and reioyced in destroying mine heritage, and because ye are growen fat, as the calues in the grasse, m and neyed like strong horses.

12 Therefore your mother shall be sore confounded, and she that bare you, shall be ashamed: beholde, the vttermost of the nations shall be a desert, a drie land, and a wildernesse.

13 Because of the wrath of the Lorde it shal not be inhabited, but shall be wholy desolate: euery one that goeth by Babel, shall be astonished, and n hisse at all her plagues.

14 o Put your selues in arap against Babel round about: all yee that bend the bow, shoote at her, spare no arrowes: for she hath p sinned against the Lord.

15 Crie against her round about: shee hath ‖ giuen her hand: her foundations are fallen, and her walles are destroyed: for it is the vengeance of the Lord: take vengeance vpon her: as shee hath done, doe vnto her.

16 Destroy the q sower from Babel, and him, that handleth the sickle in the time of haruest: because of the sword of the oppressour they shall turne euery one to his people, and they shall flee euery one to his owne land.

17 Israel is like scattered sheepe: the lyons haue dispersed them: first the king r of Assyr hath deuoured him, and last this Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel hath broken s his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Behold, I will visite the king of Babel, and his land, as I haue visited the king of Assyr.

19 And I wil bring Israel againe to his habitation: hee shall feede on Carmel and Bashan, and his soule shalbe satisfied vpon the mount Ephraim and Gilead.

20 In those dayes, and at that time, saith the Lord, the iniquitie of Israel shall bee sought for, and there shalbe none: and the sinnes of Iudah, & they shall not be found: for I will be mercifull vnto them, whom I reserue.

21 Goe vp against the land of the t rebels, euen against it, and against the inhabitants u of ‖ Pekod: destroy, and lay it waste after them, saith the Lord, and doe according to all that I haue commanded thee.

22 A crie of battell is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 How is the u hammer of the whole world destroyed and broken! howe is Babel become desolate among the nations!

24 I haue

b After that God hath vsed the Babylonians seruice to punish other nations, he sheweth that their turne shall come to be punished.

b These were two of their chiefe idoles, d When Cyrus shall take Babel,

e Reade Chap. 31. 9.

f Their gouernours & ministers by their examples haue prouoked them to idolatrie.

g They haue committed idolatrie in euery place.

h For the Lord dwelt among them in his Temple, and would haue maintained them by his iustice against their enemies, i When God shall deliuer you by Cyrus, k That is, most forward & without feare, l Shall be made rich thereby.

m For ioy of the victorie, that ye had against my people.

n In signe of contempt and disdaine.

o He speaketh to the enemies the Medes and Persians.

p Though the Lord called the Babylonians his seruants, & their worke, his worke, in punishing his people, yet because they did it not to glorifie God, but for their owne malice, and to profite themselues, it is here called sinne.

‖ Or, yeelded, or, made peace.

q Destroy her, so that none be left to labour the ground, or to take the fruite thereof.

r Meaning, Tiglath Pelezar, who caried away the ten tribes.

s He caried away the rest, to wit, Iudah, and Beniamin.

t That is, Babylon: thus the Lord raiseth vp Cyrus. Ezek. 23. 23.

‖ Or, of them that should be visited.

u Nebuchad-nezzar, who had smitten downe all the princes, and people of the world.

24 I haue snared thee, and thou art taken, O Babel, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striuen against the Lord.

25 The Lorde hath opened his treasure, and hath brought foorth the weapons of his wrath: for this is the worke of the Lorde God of hostes in the land of the Caldeans.

26 Come against her ‡ from the vtmost border: open her store houses: treade on her as on sheaues, and destroy her vtterly: let nothing of her be left.

x Her princes and mightie men.

27 Destroy all her x bullockes: let them goe downe to the slaughter. Wo vnto them, for their day is come, and the time of their visitation.

y Of the Iewes which should be deliuered by Cyrus.

28 The voyce of them that y flee, and escape out of the land of Babel to declare in Zion the vengeance of the Lord our God, and the vengeance of his Temple.

29 Call vp the archers against Babel: all yee that bend the bowe, besiege it rounde about: let none thereof escape: * recompense her according to her worke, and according to all that she hath done, doe vnto her: for shee hath bene proude against the Lorde, euen against the holy one of Israel.

* Reuel. 18.6.

30 Therefore shall her yong men fall in the streetes, and all her men of warre shalbe destroyed in that day, saith the Lord.

31 Beholde, I come vnto thee, O proude man, saieth the Lorde God of hostes: for thy day is come, euen the time that I will visite thee.

32 And the proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him vp: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shal deuoure all round about him.

33 Thus saith the Lorde of hostes, The children of Israel, and the children of Iudah were oppressed together: and all that tooke them captiues, held them, and would not let them goe.

34 But their strong Redeemer, whose Name is the Lorde of hostes, he shall maintaine their cause, that he may giue rest to the land, z and disquiet the inhabitants of Babel.

z He sheweth that when God executeth his iudgements against his enemies, that his Church shal then haue rest.

35 A sworde is vpon the Caldeans, saith the Lorde, and vpon the inhabitants of Babel, and vpon her princes, and vpon her wise men.

36 A sworde is vpon the ‡ soothsayers, and they shall dote: a sworde is vpon her strong men, and they shalbe afrayde.

a For Cyrus did dry the riuer Euphrates, and diuided the course thereof into many streames, so that it might be passed ouer as though there had bene no water: which thing he did by the counsell of two of Belshazzars captaines, who conspired against their king, because he had gelded the one of them in despite, and slaine the sonne of the other. b Reade Isa. 13. 31.

37 A sworde is vpon their horses, and vpon their charets, and vpon all the multitude that are in the middes of her, and they shall be like women: a sworde is vpon her treasures, and they shalbe spoyled.

38 A a drought is vpon her waters, and they shall bee dryed vp: for it is the land of grauen images, and they dote vpon their idoles.

‡ Ebr. sonnes of the ostriches, or young. Gene. 19.24. Isa. 13.19.

39 Therefore the b Zijms with the Ijms shall dwell there, and the ‡ ostriches shall dwell therein: for it shall be no more inhabited, neither shall it be inhabited from generation vnto generation.

40 As God destroyed * Sodom and Gomorah with the places thereof neere about, saith the Lorde: so shall no man dwell there, neyther shall the sonne of man remaine therein.

41 ¶ Beholde, a people shall come from the North, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised vp from c the coastes of the earth.

c Meaning, that the Persians should gather their armie of many nations.

42 They shall holde the bowe and the buckler: they are cruell and vnmercifull: their voyce shall roare like the sea, and they shall ride vpon horses, and be put in aray like men to the battell against thee, O daughter of Babel.

43 The king of Babel hath heard the report of them, and his hands d waxed feeble: sorowe came vpon him, euen sorowe as of a woman in trauaile.

d Which is meant of Belshazzar, Dan. 5.6.

44 Behold, he * shall come vp like a lyon from the swelling of Iorden vnto the strong habitation: for I will make Israel to rest, and I will make them to haste away from her: and who is a chosen man that I may appoynt against her? for who is like mee, and who will appoynt mee the time, and who is the e shepheard that will stand before me?

* Chap. 49.19.

e Reade Chap. 49.19.

45 Therefore heare the counsell of the Lorde that hee hath deuised against Babel, and his purpose that hee hath conceiued against the land of the Caldeans: surely the least of the flocke shall draw them out: surely hee shall make their habitation desolate with them.

46 At the noyse of the winning of Babel the earth is moued, and the crie is heard among the nations.

CHAP. LI.

6 Why Babylon is destroyed. 41 The vaine confidence of the Babylonians. 43 The vanitie of idolaters. 59 Ieremiah giueth his booke to Sheraiah.

THus saith the Lord, Behold, I will raise vp against Babel, and against the inhabitants ‡ that lift vp their heart against me, a destroying a winde.

‡ Or, of the land that riseth vp.

a The Medes and Persians that shal destroy them as the winde doth the chaffe.

2 And will send vnto Babel fanners that shall fanne her, and shall emptie her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her on euery side.

b Though they were forsaken for a time, yet they were not vtterly cast off as though their husband were dead.

3 Also to the bender that bendeth his bowe, and to him that lifteth himselfe vp in his brigandine, will I say, Spare not her yong men, but destroy all her hoste.

4 Thus the slaine shall fall in the land of the Caldeans, and they that are thrust thorough in her streetes.

c He sheweth that there remaineth nothing for them that abide in Babylon, but destruction, Chap. 17.6. and 48.6.

5 For Israel hath bene no b widowe, nor Iudah from his God, from the Lorde of hostes, though their land was filled with sinne against the holy one of Israel.

d By whom the Lord powred out the drinke of his vengeance to whom it pleased him.

6 ¶ c Flee out of the midst of Babel, and deliuer euery man his soule: be not destroyed in her iniquitie: for this is the time of the Lords vengeance: hee will render vnto her a recompense.

e For the great afflictions y they haue felt by the Babylonians. Isa. 21.9. Reuel. 14.8.

7 Babel hath bene as a golden cup in the d Lords hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations haue drunken of her wine, therefore doe the nations rage.

8 * Babel is suddenly fallen, and destroyed: howle for her, bring balme for her sore, if she may be healed.

9 We would haue cured Babel, but she could not be healed: forſake her, and let vs goe euery one vnto his owne countrey: for her iudgement is come vp vnto heauen, and is lifted vp to the cloudes.

10 The Lorde hath brought foorth our g righteouſneſſe: come and let vs declare in Zion the worke of the Lord our God.

11 Make bright the arrowes: ‖ gather the ſhieldes: the Lorde hath rayſed vp the ſpirit of the king of the Medes: for his purpoſe is againſt Babel to deſtroy it, becauſe it is the h vengeance of the Lorde, and the vengeance of his Temple.

12 Set vp the ſtandard vpon the walles of Babel, make the watch ſtrong: ſet vp the watchmen: prepare the ſhoutes: for the Lorde hath both deuiſed, and done that which hee ſpake againſt the inhabitants of Babel.

13 O thou that dwelleſt vpon many i waters, abundant in treaſures, thine ende is come, euen the ‖ ende of thy couetouſneſſe.

14 The Lorde of hoſtes hath ſworne by ‡ him ᵐ ſelfe, ſaying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with caterpillers, and they ſhall crie and ſhout againſt thee.

15 * He hath made the earth by his power, and eſtabliſhed the world by his wiſedome, and hath ſtretched out the heauen by his diſcretion.

16 Hee giueth by his voyce the multitude of waters in the heauen, and hee cauſeth the cloudes to aſcende from the endes of the earth: he turneth lightnings to rayne, and bringeth foorth the winde out of his treaſures.

17 Euery man is a beaſt by his owne k knowledge: euery founder is confounded by the grauen image: for his melting is but falſhood, and there is no breath therin.

18 They are vanitie, and the woorke of errours: in the time of their l viſitation they ſhall periſh.

19 The ᵐ portion of Iaakob is not like them: for he is the maker of all things, and Iſrael is the rod of his inheritance: the Lord of hoſtes is his Name.

20 Thou art mine ᵐ hammer, and weapons of warre: for with thee will I breake the nations, and with thee will I deſtroy kingdomes, 21 And by thee will I breake horſe and horſeman, and by thee will I breake the charet and him that rideth therein.

22 By thee alſo will I breake man and woman, and by thee will I breake olde and yong, and by thee will I breake the yong man and the maide.

23 I will alſo breake by thee the ſheepheard and his flocke, and by thee will I breake the huſbandman and his yoke of oxen, and by thee will I breake the dukes and princes.

24 And I will render vnto Babel, and to all the inhabitantes of the Caldeans all their euill, that they haue done in Zion, euen in your ſight, ſaith the Lord.

25 Beholde I come vnto thee, O deſtroying * mountaine, ſaith the Lorde, which deſtroyeſt all the earth: and I will ſtretch out mine hand vpon thee, and rolle thee downe p from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountaine.

26 They ſhall not take of thee a ſtone for a corner, nor a ſtone for foundations, but thou ſhalt bee deſtroyed for euer, ſayeth the Lord.

27 Set vp a ſtandart in the land: blowe the trumpets among the nations: prepare the nations againſt her: call vp the kingdomes of q Ararat, Minni, and Aſchenaz againſt her: appoynt the prince againſt her: cauſe horſes to come vp as the rough caterpillers.

28 Prepare againſt her the nations with the kings of the Medes, the dukes thereof, and the princes thereof, and all the land of his dominion.

29 And the land ſhall tremble and ſorow: for the deuice of the Lorde ſhalbe performed againſt Babel, to make the land of Babel waſte without an inhabitant.

30 The ſtrong men of Babel haue ceaſed to fight: they haue remayned in their holdes: their ſtrength hath failed, and they were like women: they haue burnt her dwelling places, and her barres are broken.

31 A poſte ſhall runne to meete the poſte, and a meſſenger to meete the meſſenger, ‖ to ſhewe the king of Babel, that his citie is taken on a r ſide thereof, 32 And that the paſſages are ſtopped, and the reedes burnt with fire, and the men of warre troubled.

33 For thus ſayeth the Lord of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, The daughter of Babel is like a threſhing floore: the time of her threſhing is come: yet a little while, and the time of her harueſt ſ ſhall come.

34 Nebuchad-nezzar the king of Babel hath t deuoured mee, and deſtroyed mee: hee hath made mee an emptie veſſell: hee ſwallowed mee vp like a dragon, and filled his belly with my delicates, and hath caſt me out.

35 The ſpoile of me, and that which was left of mee, is brought vnto Babel, ſhall the inhabitant of Zion ſay: and my blood vnto the inhabitants of Caldea, ſhall Ieruſalem ſay.

36 Therefore thus ſayeth the Lorde, Behold, I will maintaine thy ᵐ cauſe, and take vengeance for thee, and I will drie vp the ſea, and drie vp her ſpringe.

37 And Babel ſhall be as heapes, a dwelling place for Dragons, an aſtoniſhment, and an hiſſing, without an inhabitant.

38 They ſhall roare together like lyons, u and yell as the lyons whelpes.

39 In their x heate I will make them feaſtes, and I will make them drunken, that they may reioyce, and ſleepe a perpetuall ſleepe, and not wake, ſaith the Lord.

40 I will bring them downe like lambes to the ſlaughter, and like raumes and goates.

41 How is y Sheſhach taken? and howe is the glorie of the whole earth taken? how is Babel become an aſtoniſhment among the nations?

60 So Ieremiah wrote in a booke all the euill that should come vpon Babel: euen all these things that are written against Babel.

61 And Ieremiah sayde to Sheraiah, When thou commest vnto Babel, and shalt see, and shalt reade all these wordes, 62 Then shalt thou say, O Lord, thou hast spoken against this place, to destroy it, that none should remaine in it, neither man nor beast, but that it should be desolate for euer.

CHAP. LII.

4 Ierusalem is taken. 10 Zedekiahs sonnes are killed before his face, and his eyes put out. 13 The citie is burned. 31 Iehoiachin is brought foorth of prison, and fed like a King.

ZEdekiah * was one and twentie yeere old when he began to reigne, and he reigned eleuen yeres in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Hamutal, the daughter of Ieremiah of Libnah.

2 And he did euill in the eyes of the Lord, according to all that Iehoiakim had done.

3 a Doubtlesse because the wrath of the Lorde was against Ierusalem and Iudah, till he had cast them out from his presence, therefore Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babel.

4 * But in the ninth yeere of his reigne, in the tenth moneth, the tenth day of the moneth came Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel, he and all his hoste against Ierusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 So the citie was besieged vnto the eleuenth yeere of the king Zedekiah.

6 Nowe in the fourth moneth, the ninth day of the moneth, the famine was sore in the citie, so that there was no more bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the citie was broken vp and all the men of warre fled, and went out of the citie by night, by the b way of the gate betweene the two walles: which was by the Kings garden: (nowe the Caldeans were by the citie round about) and they went by the way of the wildernesse.

8 But the armie of the Caldeans pursued after the King, and tooke Zedekiah in the desert of Iericho, and all his hoste was scattered from him.

9 Then they tooke the king and carried him vp vnto the king of Babel to Riblah in the land of Hamath, c where hee gaue iudgement vpon him.

10 And the king of Babel slew the sonnes of Zedekiah, before his eyes: hee slewe also all the princes of Iudah in Riblah.

11 Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah, a That is, his gifts and presents which he had received as part of the spoyle of other nations, and which the idolaters brought vnto him from all countreys.

b Meaning, that Babylon should not be destroyed all at once, but by litle and litle should bee brought to nothing: for the first yeere came the tydings, the next yeere the siege, and in the third yere it was taken: yet this is not that horrible destruction which the Prophets threatned so many places: for that was after this, when they rebelled, and Darius ouercame them by the policie of Zopyrus, and hanged three thousand gentlemen besides the common people.

c All creatures in heauen & earth shall reioyce and pray'e God for the destruction of Babylon the great enemie of his Church.

d Babylon did not only destroy Israel, but many other nations.

and the king of Babel bound him in chains, and caried him to Babel, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

d In the 2. king. 25 8. it is called the seuenth day, because the fire began then, and so continued to the tenth.

12 Now in the fifth moneth in the d tenth day of the moneth (which was the nineteenth yeere of the King Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel) came Nebuzar-adan chiefe steward which e stoode before the king of Babel in Jerusalem, e That is, which was his seruant, as 2. Kings 25. 8.

13 And burnt the house of the Lorde, and the kings house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the great houses burnt he with fire.

14 And all y armie of the Caldeans that were with the chiefe steward, brake downe all the walles of Jerusalem round about.

15 Then Nebuzar-adan y chiefe steward caried away certaine of the poore of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the citie, and those that were fled, and fallen to the king of Babel, with the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzar-adan y chiefe steward left certaine of the poore of the land, to dresse the vines, and to till the land.

f Of these pillars, reade 1. Kings 7. 15.

17 Also the f pillars of brasse that were in the house of the Lord, and the bases, and the brasen sea, that was in the house of the Lord, the Caldeans brake, and caried all the brasse of them to Babel.

g Which were also made of brasse, as 1. king. 7. 45.

18 The pots also & the s besoms, and the instruments of musicke, & the balms, & the incense dishes, and all the vessels of brasse wherewith they ministred, tooke they away.

19 And the bowles, and the aspans, and the balms, and the pots, & the candlesticks, and the incense dishes, and the cups, and all that was of gold, and that was of siluer, tooke the chiefe steward away, 20 With the two pillars, one Sea, and twelue brasen bulls, that were vnder the bases, which king Salomon had made in the house of the Lord: the brasse of all these vessels was without h weight.

h It was so much in quantitie.

21 And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteene cubites, and a threed of twelue cubits did compasse it, and the thicknesse thereof was foure fingers: it was holow.

22 And a chapiter of brasse was vpon it, and the height of one chapiter was fiue cubites with net worke, and pomegranates vpon the chapiters round about, all of brasse: the second pillar also, and the pomegranates were like vnto these.

23 And there were ninetie and sixe pomegranates on a side: and all the pomegranates vpon the net worke were an i an hundreth round about.

i But because of the roundnes no more could be seene but ninetie and sixe.

24 And y chiefe steward tooke Sheraiah the chiefe Priest, & Zephaniah k the second Priest, and the three keepers of the doore.

k Which serued in the hie Priests stead, if he had any necessarie impediment.

25 He tooke also out of the citie an Eunuch which had the ouersight of the men of warre, and l seuen men that were in the kings presence, which were found in the citie, and Sopher captaine of the hoste who mustred the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the mids of the citie.

l In the 2. kings 25. 19. it is read but of fiue: those were the most excellent, and the other two, which were not so noble, are not there mentioned with them.

26 Nebuzar-adan the chiefe steward tooke them, and brought them to the King of Babel to Riblah.

27 And the king of Babel smote them, and slew them in Riblah, in the land of Hamath: thus Judah was caried away captiue out of his owne land.

m Which was the latter ende of the seuenth yeere of his reigne, and the beginning of the eight.

28 ¶ This is the people, whome Nebuchad-nezzar caried away captiue, in the m seuenth yeere, euen three thousand Iewes, and three and twentie.

n In the latter ende also of that yeere, and the beginning of the nineteenth.

29 In the n eighteene yere of Nebuchadnezzar he caried away captiue from Jerusalem, eight hundreth, thirtie & two ‡ persons.

30 In the three and twentieth yeere of Nebuchad-nezzar, Nebuzar-adan the chiefe steward caried away captiue of the Iewes seuen hundreth fourtie and fiue persons: all the persons were foure thousand and sixe hundreth.

31 And in the seuen and thirtieth yeere of the captiuitie of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelft moneth, in the fiue and twentieth day of the moneth, Euil-merodach king of Babel, in the first yeere of his reigne, o lifted vp the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him out of prison, o That is, restored him to libertie and honour.

32 And spake kindly vnto him, & set his throne aboue the throne of the kings, that were with him in Babel, p And gaue him princely apparel.

33 And changed his prison p garments, and hee did continually eate bread before him all the dayes of his life.

q That is, he had allowance in the Court, and thus at length hee had rest & quietnes, because he obeyed Ieremiah the Prophet, whereas the other were cruelly ordered, that would not obey him.

34 His portion was a q continuall portion giuen him of the king of Babel, euery day a certaine, all the dayes of his life vntill he died.

a The Prophet wondereth at the great iudgement of God, seeing Ierusalem, which was so strong and so full of people, to be now destroied and desolate.

HOw doeth a the citie remaine solitarie that was full of people! thee is as a Widowe: thee that was great among the nations, and b princesse among the prouinces, is made tributarie.

HOwe hath the Lorde a darkened the daughter of Zion in his wrath! and hath cast downe from b heauen vnto the earth the beautie of Israel, and remembred not his c footestoole in the day of his wrath!

2 The Lord hath destroyed all the habitations of Iaakob, and not spared: hee hath throwne downe in his wrath the strong holdes of the daughter of Iudah: he hath cast them downe to the ground: hee hath polluted the kingdome and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce wrath all the d horne of Israel: he hath drawen backe his e right hand from before the enemie, and there was kindled in Iaakob like a flame of fire, which deuoured round about.

4 He f hath bent his bowe like an enemie: his right hand was stretched vp as an aduersarie, and slewe all that was pleasant to the eye in the Tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he powred out his wrath like fire.

5 The Lord was as an enemie: he hath deuoured Israel, and consumed all his palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holdes, and hath increased in the daughter of Iudah lamentation and mourning.

6 For he hath destroyed his Tabernacle, as a garden, he hath destroyed his congregation: the Lord hath caused the feastes and Sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in ‡ indignation of his wrath the King and the Priest.

13 [i] What thing shall I take to witnesse for thee? What thing shall I compare to thee, O daughter Ierusalem? what shall I liken to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgine daughter Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heale thee?

14 Thy prophets haue [k] looked out vaine and foolish things for thee, and they haue not discouered thine iniquitie, to turne away thy captiuitie, but haue looked out for thee false ‖ prophesies, and causes of banishment.

15 All that passe by the way, clap their hands at thee: they hisse and wag their head vpon the daughter Ierusalem, saying, Is this the citie that men call, The perfection of beautie, and the ioy of the whole earth?

16 All thine enemies haue opened their mouth against thee: they hisse and gnash the teeth, saying, Let vs deuoure it: certainely this is the day that we looked for: we haue found and seene it.

17 * The Lorde hath done that which he had purposed: hee hath fulfilled his word that he had determined of old time: he hath throwen downe, and not spared: he hath caused thine enemie to reioyce ouer thee, and set vp the horne of thine aduersaries.

18 Their heart * cried vnto the Lord, O wall of the daughter Zion, let teares runne downe like a riuer, day and night: take thee no rest, neither let the apple of thine eye cease.

19 Arise, crie in the night: in the beginning of the watches powre out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord: lift vp thine hands toward him for the life of thy yong children, that faint for hunger in the corners of all the streetes.

CHAP. III.

I Am the man that hath seene [a] affliction in the rod of his indignation.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkenesse, but not to light.

3 Surely he is turned against me: he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin hath he caused to waxe olde, and he hath broken my bones.

5 He hath [b] builded against me, and compassed me with gall and labour.

6 He hath set me in darke places, as they that be dead for euer.

7 He hath hedged about me, that I can not get out: hee hath made my chaines heauie.

8 Also when I crie and shoute, he shutteth out my [c] prayer.

9 He hath [d] stopped vp my wayes with hewen stone, and turned away my paths.

10 [e] He was vnto me as a beare lying in waite, and as a lyon in secret places.

11 He hath stopped my wayes, and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bowe and made me a marke for the arrowe.

13 He caused † the arrowes of his quiuer to enter into my reines.

14 I was a derision to all my people, and their song all the day.

15 He hath filled me with bitternesse, and made me drunken with [f] wormewood.

16 He hath also broken my teeth with stones, and hath couered me with ashes.

17 Thus my soule was farre off from peace: I forgate prosperitie.

18 And I saide, My strength and mine hope is perished from the Lord, 19 Remembring mine affliction, and my mourning, the wormewood and the gall.

20 My soule hath them in remembrance, and is humbled [g] in me.

21 I consider this in mine heart: therefore haue I hope.

22 It is the Lords [i] mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions faile not.

23 They are renued [k] euery morning: great is thy faithfulnesse.

24 The Lord is my [l] portion, saith my soule: therefore will I hope in him.

25 The Lord is good vnto them, that trust a The Prophet complaineth of the punishments and afflictions that he endured by the false prophets and hypocrites, when he declared the destruction of Ierusalem, as Ier. 22.a

b He speaketh this as one that felt Gods heauie iudgements, which he greatly feared, and therefore setteth them out with this diuersitie of words, c This is a great tentation to the godly, when they see not the fruite of their prayers, and causeth them to thinke that they are not heard, which thing God vseth to doe, that they might pray more earnestly and the oftner.

d And keepeth me in holde, as a prisoner.

e He hath no pitie on me.

f With great anguish and sorowe he hath made me to lose my sense.

g Thus with paine he was driuen to & fro betweene hope and despaire, as the godly oft times are, yet in the end the Spirit getteth in him, and to the soule that seeketh him.

26 It is good both to trust and to waite for the salvation of the Lord.

27 It is good for a man that hee beare the yoke in his m youth.

28 He sitteth alone, n and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.

29 He putteth his o mouth in the dust, if there may be hope.

30 He giueth his cheeke to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproches.

31 For the Lord will not forsake for euer.

32 But though he send affliction, yet will he haue compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For he doeth not p punish ‡willingly, nor afflict the children of men, 34 To stamping vnder his feete all the prisoners of the earth,

35 To ouerthrowing the right of a man before the face of the most High, 36 To subuerting a man in his cause: the Lord q seeth it not.

37 Who is hee then that sayth, and it commeth to passe, and the Lord r commandeth it not?

38 Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not euill and good?

39 Wherefore then is the liuing s man sorowfull? man suffereth for his sinne.

40 Let vs search and try our wayes, and turne againe to the Lord.

41 Let vs lift vp u our hearts with our hands vnto God in the heauens.

42 Wee haue sinned, and haue rebelled, therefore thou hast not spared.

43 Thou hast couered vs with wrath, and persecuted vs: thou hast slaine and not spared.

44 Thou hast couered thy selfe with a cloude, that our prayer should not passe thorough.

45 Thou hast made vs as the * offscouring and refuse in the mids of the people.

46 All our enemies haue opened their mouth against vs.

47 Feare, and a snare is come vpon vs with desolation and destruction.

48 Mine eye casteth out riuers of water, for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 Mine eye droppeth without stay and ceaseth not,

50 Till the Lorde looke downe, and behold from heauen.

51 Mine eye x breaketh mine heart because of all the daughters of my cite.

52 Mine enemies chased mee sore like a bird without cause.

53 They haue shut vp my life y in the dungeon, and cast a stone vpon me.

54 Waters flowed ouer mine head, then thought I, I am destroyed.

55 I called vpon thy Name, O Lorde, out of the lowe dungeon.

56 Thou hast heard my voyce: stop not thine eare from my sigh, and from my cry.

57 Thou drewest neere in the day that I called vpon thee: thou saydest, Feare not.

58 O Lorde, thou hast maintained the cause of my z soule, & hast redeemed my life.

59 O Lorde, thou hast seene my wrong, iudge thou my cause.

60 Thou hast seene all their vengeance, and all their deuises against me.

61 Thou hast heard their reproch, O Lord, & all their imaginations against me:

62 The lips also of those that rose against me, and their whispering against me continually.

63 Behold, their sitting downe and their rising vp, how I am their song.

64 * Giue them a recompense, O Lorde, according to the worke of their hands. Psalm.28.4.

65 Giue them ‖ sorow of heart, euen thy curse to them. ‖ Or, an obstinate heart.

CHAP. V.

The prayer of Ieremiah.

a This prayer as is thought, was made when some of the people were caried away captiue, others, as the poorest, remained, and some went into Egypt and other places for succour, albeit it seemeth that the Prophet foreseeing their miseries to come, thus prayed.

REmember, O Lorde, what is come vpon vs: a consider, and beholde our reproch.

2 Our inheritance is turned to the strangers, our houses to the aliants.

3 We are fatherlesse, euen without father, and our mothers are as widowes.

4 We haue drunke our b water for money, and our wood is solde vnto vs.

5 Our neckes are vnder persecution: we are wearie, and haue no rest.

6 We haue giuen our c hands to the Egyptians, and to Asshur, to be satisfied with bread.

7 Our fathers haue sinned, and are not, and we haue borne their d iniquities.

8 Seruants haue ruled ouer vs, and none would deliuer vs out of their hands.

9 Wee gate our bread with the perill of our liues, because of the sworde e of the wildernes.

10 Our skin was blacke like as an ouen, because of the terrible famine.

11 They defiled the women in Zion, and the maides in the cities of Iudah.

12 The princes are hanged vp by f their hand: the faces of the Elders were not had in honour.

13 They tooke the yong men to grinde, and the children fell vnder g the wood.

14 The Elders haue ceased from the h gate, and the yong men from their songs.

15 The ioy of our heart is gone, our dance is turned into mourning.

16 The crowne of our head is fallen: wo now vnto vs that we haue sinned.

17 Therefore our heart is heauie for these things, our i eyes are dimme, 18 Because of the mountaine of Zion which is desolate: the foxes runne vpon it.

19 But thou, O Lorde, remainest for k euer: thy throne is from generation to generation.

20 Wherefore doest thou forget vs for euer, and forsake vs so long time?

21 l Turne thou vs vnto thee, O Lorde, and we shalbe turned: renue our dayes as of olde.

22 But thou hast vtterly reiected vs: thou art exceeding angrie against vs.

b Meaning, their extreme seruitude and bondage.

c We are ioyned in league and amitie with them, or haue submitted our selues vnto them.

d As our fathers haue bene punished for their sinnes, so we that are culpable of the same sinnes, are punished.

e Because of the enemie that came from the wildernesse, and would not suffer vs to goe and seeke our necessary foode.

f That is, by the enemies hand.

g Their slaueric was so great, that they were not able to abide it.

h There were no more lawes nor forme of common wealth.

i With weeping.

k And therefore thy couenant and mercies can neuer faile.

Ezekiel.

THE ARGVMENT.

AFter that Iehoiachin by the counsell of Ieremiah and Ezekiel had yeelded himselfe to Nebuchadnezzar, and so went into captiuitie with his mother and diuers of his princes and of the people, certayne beganne to repent and murmure that they had obeyed the Prophets counsell, as though the thing which they had professed should not come to passe, and therefore their estate should bee still miserable vnder the Caldeans. By reason whereof hee confirmeth his former professies, declaring by newe visions and reuelations shewed vnto him, that the citie shoulde most certainely bee destroyed, and the people grieuously tormented by Gods plagues, in so much that they that remained, shoulde be brought into cruell bondage. And lest the godly should despaire in these great troubles, hee assureth them that God will deliuer his Church at his time appointed, and also destroy their enemies which eyther afflicted them, or reioyced in their miseries. The effect of the one and the other should chiefly bee performed vnder Christ, of whom in this Booke are many notable promises, and in whome the glory of the new Temple should perfectly be restored. He prophecied these things in Calddea at the same time that Ieremiah prophecied in Iudah, and there began in the fift yeere of Iehoiachins captiuitie.

CHAP. I.

1 The time wherein Ezekiel prophesied and in what place. 3 His kinred. 5 The vision of the foure beasts. 26 The vision of the throne.

a After that the booke of the lawe was found, which was the eighteenth yeere of the reigne of Iosiah, so that fiue and twentie yeeres after this booke was found, Ieconiah was led away captiue with Ezekiel (and many of the people) who the first yeere after saw these visions.

IT came to passe in the a thirtieth yere in the fourth moneth, and in the fift day of the moneth (as I was among the captiues by the riuer b Chebar) that the heauens were opened, and I saw visions of c God.

2 In the fift day of the moneth (which was the fift yeere of King Iotachins captiuitie)

3 The worde of the Lorde came vnto Ezekiel the Priest, the sonne of Buzi, in the land of the Caldeans, by the riuer Chebar, where the d hand of the Lorde was vpon him.

b That is, notable and excellent visions, so that it might be known, it was no naturall dreame, but came of God.

4 And I looked, and behold, e a whirlewinde came out of the North, a great cloud and a fire wrapped about it, and a brightnesse was about it, and in the midst thereof, to wit, in the midst of the fire came out as the likenesse of ‖ amber.

c That is, the Spirite of prophecie, as Chap. 3. 22. and 37. 1.

d By this diuersitie of wordes he signifieth the fearefull iudgement of God, and the great afflictions that should come vpon Ierusalem.

5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likenesse of foure f beasts, and this was their forme: they had the appearance of a man.

6 And euery one had foure faces, and euery one had foure wings.

7 And their feete were streight feete, and the sole of their feete was like the sole of a calues foote, and they sparkled like the appearance of bright blasse.

f Which were the foure Cherubims that represented the glory of God, as Chap. 3. 23.

8 And the hands of a man came out from vnder their wings in the foure parts of them, and they foure had their faces, and their wings.

9 They were g ioyned by their wings one to another, and when they went foorth, they returned not, but euerie one went straight forward.

g The wing of the one touched the wing of the other.

10 And the similitude of their faces was as h the face of a man: and they foure had the face of a lion on the right side, & they foure had the face of a bullocke on the left side: they foure also had the face of an eagle.

h Euery Cherubim had foure faces, the face of a man, and of a lion on the right side, and the face of a bullocke, and of an eagle on the left side.

11 Thus were their faces: but their wings were spread out aboue: two wings of euery one were ioyned one to another, and two couered their bodies.

12 And euerie one went straight forward: they went whither their ‡ spirit led them, & they returned not when they went forth.

‡ Ebr. whither their spirite, or will was to goe.

13 The similitude also of the beasts and their appearance was like burning coales of fire, and like the appearance of lampes: for the fire ranne among the beasts, and the fire gaue a gluster, and out of the fire there went lightning.

14 And the beasts ranne, and i returned like lightening.

i That is, when they had executed Gods will: for afore they returned not, till God had changed the state of things.

15 ¶ Now as I beheld the beasts, beholde, a wheele appeared vpon the earth by the beast, hauing foure faces.

16 The facion of the wheeles and their worke was like vnto a k chrysolite: and they foure had one forme, and their facion, and their worke was as one wheele in another wheele.

k The Ebrew word is tarshish meaning, that the colour was like the Cilician sea, or a precious stone so called.

17 When they went, they went vpon their foure sides, and they returned not when they went.

18 They had also ‖ rings, and height, and were fearefull to behold, and their rings were full of eyes, round about them foure.

19 And when the beastes went, the wheeles went with them: & when the beasts were lift vp from the earth, the wheeles were lift vp.

20 Whither their spirite led them, they went, & thither did the spirit of the wheeles leade them, and the wheeles were lifted vp besides them: for the spirit of the beastes was in the wheeles.

21 When the beasts went, they went, and when they stood, they stood, and when they were lifted vp from the earth, the wheeles were lifted vp besides them: for the spirit of the beasts was in the wheeles.

22 And the similitude of the firmament vpon the heads of the beasts was woonderful, like vnto christal, spread ouer their heads aboue.

23 And vnder the firmament were their wings streight, the one toward the other: euery one had two, which couered them, and euery one had two, which couered their bodies.

24 And when they went foorth, I heard the noyse of their l wings, like the noyse of great waters, and as the voyce of the Almightie, euen the voyce of speech, as the noise of an hoste: and when they stood, they m set downe their wings.

l Which declared the swiftnes, and the fearefulnesse of Gods iudgements.

25 And there was a voyce from the firmament that was ouer their heads, when they stood, and had let downe their wings.

m Which signified that they had no power of themselues, but only waited to execute Gods commandement.

26 And aboue the firmament that was ouer their heads, was the fashion of a throne like vnto a sapphire stone, and vpon the similitude of the throne was by appearance, as the similitude of a man aboue vpon it.

27 And I sawe as the appearance of Amber, and as the similitude of fire n round about within it to looke to, euen from his loynes vpwarde: and to looke to, euen from his loynes downewarde, I sawe as a likenesse of fire, and brightnesse round about it.

n Whereby was signified a terrible iudgement toward the earth.

28 As the likenesse of the bowe, that is in the cloud in the day of raine, so was the appearance of the light round about.

29 This was the appearance of the similitude of the glory of the Lord: and when I sawe it, I fell o vpon my face, and I heard a voyce of one that spake.

o Considering the maiestie of God, and the weakenesse of flesh.

CHAP. II.

The Prophet is sent to call the people from their errour.

AND p he sayd vnto me, b Sonne of man, stand vp vpon thy feet, & I will speake vnto thee.

p That is, the Lord.

b Meaning man, which is but earth and ashes, which was to humble him, and cause him to consider his owne state and Gods grace.

2 c And c So that hee could not abide Gods presence till Gods Spirit did enter into him.

d This declareth on the one part Gods great affect on toward his people, that notwithstanding their rebellion, yet he will send his Prophets among them, and admonisheth his ministers on the other part that they cease not to doe their duetie, though the people be neuer so obstinate: for the worde of God shall bee either to their saluation or great condemnation.

e Reade Iere. 1. 17. he sheweth that for none afflictions they should cease to doe their duties.

f He doeth not only exhort him to his duetie, but also giueth him the means wherwith he may be able to execute it.

g Hee sheweth what were the contents of this booke: to wit, Gods iudgements against the wicked.

2 c And the Spirit entred into me, when he had spoken vnto me, and set me vpon my feete, so that I heard him that spake vnto me.

3 And he said vnto me, Sonne of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation, that hath rebelled against me: for they and their fathers haue rebelled against me, euen vnto this very day.

4 For they are ‡ impudent children, and stiffe hearted: I do send thee vnto them, and thou shalt say vnto them, Thus sayeth the Lord God.

5 But surely they will not heare, neither indeede will they cease: for they are a rebellious house: yet shal they know that d there hath bene a Prophet among them.

6 And thou sonne of man, e feare them not, neither be afraide of their wordes, although rebels, and thornes bee with thee, and thou remainest with scorpions: feare not their words, nor be afraid at their looks, for they are a rebellious house.

7 Therefore thou shalt speake my words vnto them: but surely they will not heare, neither will they indeede cease: for they are rebellious.

8 But thou sonne of man, heare what I say vnto thee: bee not thou rebellious, like this rebellious house: open thy mouth, and f eate that I giue thee.

9 And when I looked vp, beholde, an hand was sent vnto me, and loe, a roule of a booke was therein.

10 And he spred it before me, and it was written within and without, and there was written therein, g Lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

CHAP. III.

1 The Prophet beeing fedde with the worde of God, and with the constant boldnesse of the Spirite, is sent vnto the people that were in captiuity, 17 The office of true ministers.

MOreouer he said vnto mee, Sonne of man, eate that thou findest: a eate this roule, and goe, and speake vnto the house of Israel.

a Whereby is ment, that none is meete to bee Gods messenger before he haue receiued the word of God in his heart, as verse 10. and haue a zeale thereunto, and delite therein, as Iere. 15. 16. Reuel. 10. 10.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he gaue me this roule to eate.

3 And he saide vnto mee, Sonne of man, cause thy belly to eate, and fill thy bowels with this roule that I giue thee. Then did I eate it, and it was in my mouth as sweet as honie.

4 And he saide vnto me, Sonne of man, goe, and enter into the house of Israel, and declare them my wordes.

5 For thou art not sent to a people of an ‡ vnknown tongue, or of an hard language, but to the house of Israel,

6 Not to many people of an vnknown tongue, or of an hard language, whose wordes thou canst not vnderstand: yet if I should send thee to them they would obey thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not obey thee: for they will not obey mee: yea, all the house of Israel are impudent and stiffe hearted.

8 Behold, I haue made thy face b strong against their faces, and thy forehead harde against their foreheads.

9 I haue made thy forehead as the adamant, and harder then the flint: feare them not therefore, neither bee afraide at their lookes: for they are a rebellious house.

10 He saide moreouer vnto me, Sonne of man, e receiue in thine heart all my wordes that I speak vnto thee, and heare them with thine eares, 11 And go and enter to them that are led away captiues vnto the children of thy people, and speake vnto them, & tell them, Thus saith the Lord God: but surely they will not heare, neither will they indeede cease.

12 Then the Spirit tooke me vp, and I heard behind me a noyse of a great rushing, saying, d Blessed be the glory of the Lord out of his place.

13 I heard also the noyse of the wings of the beasts, that toucheth one another, and the rushing of the wheeles that were by them, euen a noyse of great rushing.

14 So the Spirit lift mee vp, and tooke me away, and I e went in bitternesse, and indignation of my spirit, but the hand of the Lord was strong vpon me.

15 Then I came to them that were led away captiues of f Tel-abib, that dwelt by the riuer Chebar, and I sate where they sate, and remained there astonished among them g seuen dayes.

16 And at the ende of seuen dayes, the worde of the Lorde came againe vnto mee, saying, 17 Sonne of man, I haue made thee a h watchman vnto the house of Israel: therefore heare the word at my mouth, and giue them warning from me.

18 When I shall say vnto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die, and thou giuest him not warning, nor speakest to admonish the wicked of his wicked way, that hee may liue, the same wicked man shall die in his iniquitie: but his blood will I require at thine hand.

19 Yet if thou warne the wicked, and hee turne not from his wickednesse, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquitie, but thou hast deliuered thy soule.

20 Likewise if a i righteous man turne from his righteousnesse, and commit iniquitie, I will lay a k stumbling blocke before him, and he shall die, because thou hast not giuen him warning: hee shall die in his sinne, and his l righteous deeds, which hee hath done, shall not be remembred: but his blood will I require at thine hand.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The besieging of the citie of Ierusalem is signified. 9 The long continuance of the captiuitie of Israel. 16 An hunger is prophecied to come.

THou also sonne of man, take thee a bricke, and lay it before thee, and portrap vpon it the citie, euen Ierusalem,

2 And lay siege against it, and builde a fort against it, and cast a mount against it: set the campe also against it, and lay engins of warre against it round about.

3 Moreouer, take an [a] yron panne, and set it for a wall of yron betweene thee and the citie, and direct thy face toward it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it: this shalbe a signe vnto the house of Israel.

4 Sleepe thou also vpon thy left side, and lay the iniquitie of the [b] house of Israel vpon it: according to the number of the dayes, that thou shalt sleepe vpon it, thou shalt beare their iniquitie.

5 For I haue laide vpon thee the yeeres of their iniquitie, according to the number of the dayes, euen three hundreth and ninetie dayes: so shalt thou beare the iniquitie of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, sleepe againe vpon thy [c] right side, and thou shalt beare the iniquitie of the house of Iudah fourtie dayes: I haue appointed thee a day for a yeere, euen a day for a yeere.

7 Therefore thou shalt direct thy face towarde the siege of Ierusalem, and thine [d] arme shall be vncouered, and thou shalt prophesie against it.

8 And beholde, I will lay [e] bands vpon thee, and thou shalt not turne thee from one side to an other, til thou hast ended the daies of thy siege.

9 Thou shalt take also vnto thee wheate and barley, and beanes, and lentiles, & millet, and [f] fitches, and put them in one vessell, and make thee bread thereof according to the number of the dayes, that thou shalt sleepe vpon thy side: euen [g] three hundreth and ninetie dayes shalt thou eate thereof.

10 And the meate whereof thou shalt eate, shall be by weight, euen [h] twentie shekels a day: and from time to time shalt thou eate thereof.

11 Thou shalt drinke also water by measure, euen the first part of an [i] Hin: from time to time shalt thou drinke.

12 And thou shalt eate it as barly cakes, and thou shalt bake it [k] in the doung that commeth out of man in their sight.

13 And the Lord saide, So shall the children of Israel eate their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will cast them.

14 Then saide I, Ah Lord God, beholde, my soule hath not beene polluted: for from my youth vp, euen vnto this houre, I haue not eaten of a thing dead, or torne in pieces, neither came there any [l] vncleane flesh in my mouth.

15 Then he said vnto mee, Loe, I haue giuen thee bullockes [m] doung for mans doung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

16 Moreouer, he said vnto me, Sonne of man, beholde, I will breake [n] the staffe of bread in Ierusalem, and they shall eate bread by wright, and with care, and they shall drinke water by measure, and with astonishment.

17 Because that bread & water shal faile, they shalbe astonied one with another, and shall consume away for their iniquitie.

12 He that is farre off shall die of the pestilence, and he that is neere, shall fall by the sword, and hee that remaineth and is besieged, shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my wrath vpon them.

12 The time is come, the day draweth neere: let not the buyer i reioyce, nor let him that selleth, k mourne: for the wrath is vpon all the multitude thereof.

13 For he that selleth, shall not l returne to that which is solde, although they were yet aliue: for the m vision was vnto all the multitude thereof, and they returned not, n neither doeth any encourage him selfe in the punishment of his life.

14 o They haue blowen the trumpet, and prepared all, but none goeth to the battell: for my wrath is vpon all the multitude thereof.

15 The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: hee that is in the field, shal die with the sword, and he that is in the citie, famine and pestilence shall deuoure him.

16 But they that flee away from them, shall escape, and shall be in the mountaines, like the doues of the valleys: all they shall mourne, euery one for his iniquitie.

17 * All handes shall be weake, and all knees shall fall away as water.

18 * They shall also gird them selues with sackcloth, and feare shall couer them, and shame shalbe vpon all faces, and baldnes vpon their heads.

20 He had also set the beautie of his p ornament in maiestie: but they made images of their abominations, and of their idoles therein: therefore haue I set it farre from them.

21 And I will giue it into the handes of the q strangers to be spoyled, and to the wicked of the earth to be robbed, and they shall pollute it.

22 My face wil I turne also from them, and they shall pollute my r secrete place: for the destroyers shall enter into it, & defile it.

23 ¶ Make a chaine: for the land is full of the s iudgement of blood, and the citie is full of cruelnie.

24 Wherefore I will bring the most wicked of the heathen, and they shall possesse their houses: I will also make the pompe of the mightie to cease, and their t holy places shalbe defiled.

25 When destruction commeth, they shal seeke peace, and shall not haue it.

26 Calamitie shal come vpon calamitie, and rumour shalbe vpon rumour: then shall they seeke a vision of the Prophet: but the Law shall perish from the Priest, and counsell from the Ancient.

27 The king shall mourne, and the prince shalbe clothed with desolation, & the handes of the people in the land shalbe troubled: I wil doe vnto them according to their wayes, and according to their iudgements will I iudge them, and they shall knowe that I am the Lord.

CHAP. X.

1 Of the man that tooke hote burning coales out of the middle of the wheeles of the Cherubims. 8 A rehearsall of the vision of the wheeles, of the beasts, and of the Cherubims.

And

And as I looked, beholde, in the * firmament that was aboue the head of the a Cherubims, there appeared vpon them like vnto the similitude of a throne, as it were a Saphir stone.

2 And hee spake vnto the man clothed with linnen, and sayde, Goe in betweene the wheeles, euen vnder the Cherub, & fill thine hands with coales of fire from betweene the Cherubims, and scatter them ouer b the citie. And he went in in my sight.

3 Nowe the Cherubims stoode vpon the right side of the house when the man went in, and the cloude filled the inner Court.

4 Then the glory of the Lorde c went vp from the Cherub, and stoode ouer the doore of the house, and the house was filled with the cloude, and the court was filled with the brightnesse of the Lords glory.

5 And d the sound of the Cherubims wings was heard into the vtter Court, as the voice of the Almightie God, when he speaketh.

6 And when hee had commaunded the man clothed with linnen, saying, Take fire from betweene the wheeles, and from betweene the Cherubims, then he went in and stoode beside the wheele.

7 And one Cherub stretched foorth his hand from betweene the Cherubims vnto the fire, that was betweene the Cherubims, and tooke thereof, and put it into the handes of him that was clothed with linnen: who tooke it and went out.

8 And there appeared in the Cherubims, the likenesse of a mans hand vnder their wings.

9 And when I looked vp, beholde, foure wheeles were beside the Cherubims, one wheele by one Cherub, and another wheele by another Cherub, and the appearance of the wheeles was as the colour of a e Chrysolite stone.

10 And their appearance (for they were all foure of one fashion) was as if one wheele had bene in another wheele.

11 When they went foorth, they went vpon their foure sides, and they returned not as they went: but to the place whither the first went, they went after it, and they f turned not as they went.

12 And their whole body, and their ‖ rings, and their hands and their wings, and the wheeles were full of eyes round about, euen in the same foure wheeles.

13 And the Cherub cryed to their wheeles in mine hearing, saying, O wheeles.

14 And euery beast had foure faces: the first face was the face of a Cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lyon, and the fourth the face of an Eagle.

15 And the Cherubims were lifted vp: * this is the beast that I sawe at the riuer Chebar.

16 And when the Cherubims went, the wheeles went by them: and when the Cherubims lift vp their wings to mount vp from the earth, the same wheeles also turned not from beside them.

17 When the Cherubims stood, they stood: and when they were lifted vp, they lifted themselues vp also: for the g spirit of the beast was in them.

18 h Then the glory of the Lord departed from aboue the doore of the house, and stood vpon the Cherubims.

19 And the Cherubims lift vp their wings, and mounted vp from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheeles also were beside them: and euery one stood at the entrie of the gate of the Lords house at the East side, and the glory of the God of Israel was vpon them on high.

20 * This is the i beast that I sawe vnder the God of Israel by the riuer Chebar, and I knewe that they were the Cherubims.

21 Euery one had foure faces, and euery one foure wings, and the likenesse of mans hands was vnder their wings.

22 And the likenesse of their faces was the selfe same faces, which I sawe by the riuer Chebar, & the appearance of the Cherubims was the selfe same, and they went euery one straight forward.

CHAP. XI.

1 Who they were that seduced the people of Israel. 5 Against these he propheseth, shewing them how they shalbe dispersed abroad. 19 The renuing of the heart commeth of God. 21 How threatneth them that leane vnto their owne counsels.

MOreouer, the Spirit lift mee vp, and brought mee vnto the East gate of the Lordes house, which lieth Eastward, and beholde, at the entrie of the gate were fiue and twentie men: among whom I sawe Iaazaniah the sonne of Azur, and Pelatiah the sonne of Benaiah, the princes of the people.

2 Then said he vnto me, Sonne of man, these are the men that imagine mischiefe, and deuise wicked counsell in this citie.

3 For they say, a It is not neere, let vs build houses: this citie is the b caldron, and we be the flesh.

4 Therefore prophesie against them, sonne of man, prophesie.

5 And the Spirit of the Lord fell vpon me, and said vnto me, Speake, Thus sayth the Lord, O yee house of Israel, this haue ye sayd, and I knowe that which riseth vp of your mindes.

6 Many haue ye murthered in this citie, and yee haue filled the streetes thereof with the slaine.

7 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, They that yee haue slaine, and haue layde in the middes of it, they are c the flesh, and this citie is the caldron, but I will bring you forth of the middes of it.

8 Yee haue feared the sword, and I will bring a sword vpon you, saith the Lord God.

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliuer you into the d hands of strangers, and will execute iudgements among you.

10 Yee shall fall by the sword, and I will iudge you in the border of e Israel, and yee shall know that I am the Lord.

11 This citie shall not bee your caldron, neither shal ye be the flesh in y midst therof, but I will iudge you in the border of Israel.

c Contrary to their vaine confidence he sheweth in what sense this citie is the caldron: that is, because of the dead bodies that haue bene murthered therein, and so lie as flesh in the caldron.

d That is, of the Caldeans.

e That is, in Riblah, Reade 2.Kings 25.6.

12 And ye shal know that I am the Lord: for ye haue not walked in my statutes, neither executed my iudgements, but haue done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 ¶ And when I prophecied, Pelatiah the sonne of [f] Benaiah died: then fell I downe vpon my face, and cried with a loude voyce, and sayde, Ah Lord God, wilt thou then vtterly destroy all the remnant of Israel?

14 Againe the word of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

15 Sonne of man, thy [g] brethren, euen thy brethren, the men of thy kinred, and all the house of Israel, wholly are they vnto whome the inhabitantes of Ierusalem haue sayde, Depart ye farre from the Lorde: for the land is giuen vs in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saieth the Lorde God, Although I haue cast them farre off among the heathen, and although I haue scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a litle [h] Sanctuarie in the countreys where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus sayeth the Lord God, I will gather you againe from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where yee haue bene scattered, and I will giue you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the idoles thereof, and all the abominations thereof from thence.

19 * And I will giue them one heart, and I will put a newe spirite within their bowels: and I will take the [i] stonie heart out of their bodies, and will giue them an heart of flesh, 20 That they may walke in my statutes, and keepe my iudgements, and execute them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But vpon them, whose heart is toward their idoles, and whose affection goeth after their abominations, I will lay their way vpon their owne heads, sayeth the Lord God.

22 ¶ Then did the Cherubims lift vp their wings, and the wheeles beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel was vpon them on hie.

23 And the glory of the Lorde went vp from the middes of the citie, and stood vpon the mountaine which is toward the East side of the citie.

24 Afterward the Spirit tooke mee vp, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Caldea to them that were led away captiues: so the vision that I had seene, went vp from me.

25 Then I declared vnto them that were [k] led away captiues, all the things that the Lord had shewed me.

1 The parable of the captiuitie. 18 Another parable whereby the distresse of hunger and thirst is signified.

THe word of the Lord also came vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, thou dwellest in y midst of a rebellious house, which haue eyes to see, and see not: they haue eares to heare, and heare not: for they are a rebellious house.

3 Therefore thou sonne of man, [‡] prepare thy stuffe to goe into captiuitie, and go forth by day in their sight: and thou shalt passe from thy place to another place in their sight, if it be possible that they may consider it: for they are a rebellious house.

4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuffe by day in their sight as the stuffe of him that goeth into captiuitie: and thou shalt go forth at euen in their sight, as they that goe forth into captiuitie,

5 Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

6 In their sight shalt thou beare it vpon thy shoulders and carry it forth in the darke: thou shalt couer thy face that thou see not the earth: for I haue set thee as a [b] signe vnto the house Israel.

7 And as I was comanded, so I brought forth my stuffe by day as the stuffe of one that goeth into captiuitie: and by night I digged through the wall with mine hand, and brought it forth in the darke, and I bare it vpon my shoulder in their sight.

8 And in the morning came the word of the Lord vnto me, saying,

9 Sonne of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, sayde vnto thee, What [c] doest thou?

10 But say thou vnto them, Thus sayeth the Lord God, This burden concerneth the chiefe in Ierusalem, and all the house of Israel, that are among them.

11 Say, I am your signe: like as I haue done, so shall it be done vnto them: they shall goe into bondage and captiuitie.

12 And the chiefest that is among them, shall beare vpon his shoulder in the darke, and shall goe forth: they shall dig through the wall, to cary out thereby: he shall couer his face, that hee see not the ground with his eyes.

13 My net also will I spread vpon [d] him, and hee shalbe taken in my net, and I will bring him to Babel to the land of the Caldeans, yet shall hee not see it, though he shall die there.

14 And I will scatter toward euery wind all that are about him to helpe him, and all his garisons, and I will draw out the sword after them.

15 And they shall knowe that I am the Lord, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countreys.

16 But I will leaue a [e] litle number of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen, where they come, and they shall knowe, that I am the Lord.

17 ¶ Moreouer, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

18 Sonne of man, eate thy bread with trembling, and drinke thy water with trouble, and with carefulnesse,

19 And say vnto the people of the land, Thus sayeth the Lorde God of the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and of the lande of Israel, They shall eate their bread with care

f It seemeth that this noble man died of some terrible death, and therefore the Prophet feared some strange iudgement of God toward the rest of y people.

g They that remained still at Ierusalem, thus reproched them that were gone into captiuitie, as though they were cast off and forsaken of God.

20 And the cities that are inhabited, ſhal be left voyde, and the land ſhall bee deſolate, and ye ſhall know that I am the Lord.

21 ¶ And the word of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,

22 Sonne of man, what is that prouerbe that you haue in the lande of Iſrael, ſaying, The dayes [f] are prolonged, and all viſions [‖] faile?

23 Tell them therefore, Thus ſaieth the Lorde God, I will make this prouerbe to ceaſe, and they ſhall no more vſe it as a prouerbe in Iſrael: but ſay vnto them, The dayes are at hand & the effect of euery viſio.

24 For no viſion ſhall bee any more in vaine, neither ſhall there be any flattering diuination within the houſe of Iſrael.

25 For I am the Lorde: I will ſpeake, and that thing that I ſhall ſpeake, ſhall come to paſſe: it ſhall be no more prolonged: for in your dayes, O rebellious houſe, will I ſay the thing, and will performe it, ſaith the Lord God.

26 Againe the word of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,

27 Sonne of man, beholde, they of the houſe of Iſrael ſay, The viſion that he ſeeth, is for [g] many dayes to come, and he propheſieth of the times that are farre off.

28 Therefore ſay vnto them, Thus ſaith the Lord God, All my words ſhall no longer bee delayed, but that thing which I haue ſpoken, ſhalbe done, ſaith the Lord God.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The worde of the Lorde againſt falſe prophets, which teach the people the counſels of their owne hearts.

AND the word of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,

2 Sonne of man, propheſie againſt the prophets of * Iſrael, that propheſie, and ſay thou vnto them, that propheſie out of their [a] owne hearts, Heare the word of the Lord.

3 Thus ſaith the Lord God, Woe vnto the foolish prophets that follow their owne ſpirit, and haue ſeene nothing.

4 O Iſrael, thy prophetes are like the foxes [b] in the waſte places.

5 [c] Ye haue not riſen vp in the gappes, neither made vp the hedge for the houſe of Iſrael, to ſtand in the battell in the day of the Lord.

6 They haue ſeene vanitie, and lying diuination, ſaying, The Lorde ſaith it, and the Lorde hath not ſent them: and they haue made others to hope that they would confirme the word of their propheſie.

7 Haue ye not ſeene a vaine viſion? and haue ye not ſpoken a lying diuination? [d] ye ſay, The Lorde ſaieth it, albeit I haue not ſpoken.

8 Therefore thus ſaieth the Lorde God, Becauſe ye haue ſpoken vanitie, and haue ſeene lyes, therefore beholde, I am againſt you, ſaith the Lord God, 9 And mine hand ſhall be vpon the prophets that ſee vanitie, and diuine lyes: they ſhall not bee in the aſſembly of my people, neither ſhall they be written in the [e] writing of the houſe of Iſrael, neither ſhall they enter into the land of Iſrael: and ye ſhal know that I am the Lord God.

10 And therefore, becauſe they haue deceiued my people, ſaying, [f] Peace, and there was no peace: and one built vp a [g] wal, and behold, the others daubed it with vntempered morter, 11 Say vnto them which daube it with vntempered morter, that it ſhal fall: for there ſhall come a great ſhowre, and I will ſende haileſtones, which ſhall cauſe it to fall, and a ſtormie winde ſhall breake it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, ſhall it not bee ſayde vnto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye haue daubed it?

13 Therefore thus ſaieth the Lord God, I will cauſe a ſtormie winde to breake forth in my wrath, and a great ſhowre ſhall be in mine anger, and haileſtones in mine indignation to conſume it.

14 So I will deſtroy the wall that yee haue daubed with vntempered morter, and bring it downe to the ground, ſo that the foundation thereof ſhall bee diſcouered, and it ſhall fall, and yee ſhall be conſumed in the middes thereof, and yee ſhall knowe, that I am the Lord.

15 Thus will I accompliſh my wrath vpon the wall, and vpon them that haue daubed it with [h] vntempered morter, and will ſay vnto you, The wall is no more, neither the daubers thereof, 16 Towit, the Prophets of Iſrael, which propheſie vpon Ieruſalem, and ſee viſions of peace for it, and there is no peace, ſaieth the Lord God.

17 Likewiſe thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face againſt the daughters of thy people, which propheſie out of their owne heart: and propheſie thou againſt them, and ſay,

18 Thus ſaith the Lord God, Woe vnto the women that ſowe [i] pillowes vnder all armeholes, and make vailes vpon the head of euery one that ſtādeth vp, to hunt ſoules: will yee hunt the ſoules of my people, and will yee giue life to the ſoules that come vnto you?

19 And will yee pollute mee among my people for handfuls of [k] barley, and for pieces of bread to ſlay the ſoules of them that ſhould not die, and [l] to giue life to the ſoules that ſhould not liue, in lying to my people, that heare your lyes?

20 Wherefore thus ſaith the Lord God, Beholde, I will haue to doe with your pillowes, wherewith yee hunt the [m] ſoules to make them to flie, and I will teare them from your armes, and will let the ſoules go, euen the ſoules, that yee hunt to make them to flie.

21 Your vailes alſo will I teare, and deliuer my people out of your hand, and they ſhall be no more in your handes to be hunted, and ye ſhall know that I am the Lord.

CHAP. XIIII.

4 The Lord sendeth false prophets for the ingratitude of the people. 22 He reserueth a small portion for his Church.

THen came certaine of the Elders of Israel vnto me, and [a] sate before me.

2 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

3 Sonne of man, these men haue set vp their idoles in their [b] heart, and put the stumbling blocke of their iniquitie before their face: should I, being required, answere them?

4 Therefore speake vnto them, and say vnto them, Thus sayeth the Lord God, Euery man of the house of Israel that setteth vp his idoles in his heart, and putteth the stumbling blocke of his iniquitie before his face, and commeth to the [c] Prophet, I the Lorde will answere him that commeth, according to the multitude [d] of his idoles:

5 That [e] I may take the house of Israel in their owne heart, because they are all departed from me through their idoles.

6 Therefore say vnto the house of Israel, Thus sayeth the Lorde God, Returne, and withdraw your selues, and turne your faces from your idoles, and turne your faces from all your abominations.

7 For euery one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which departeth from mee, & setteth vp his idoles in his heart, and putteth the stumbling blocke of his iniquitie before his face, and commeth to a Prophet, for to inquire of him for mee, I the Lorde will answere him ‖ for my selfe,

8 And I will set my face against that man, and will make him an example and prouerbe, and I will cut him off from the middes of my people, and yee shall knowe that I am the Lord.

9 And if the prophet be [f] deceiued, when he hath spoken a thing, I the Lord haue deceiued that prophet, and I will stretch out mine hand vpon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people of Israel.

10 And they shal beare their punishment: the punishment of the prophet shall be euen as the punishment of him that asketh, 11 That the house of [g] Israel may go no more astray from mee, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions, but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord God.

12 ¶ The word of the Lorde came againe vnto me, saying,

13 Sonne of man, when the land sinneth against mee by committing a trespasse, then will I stretch out mine hand vpon it, [h] and wil breake the staffe of the bread thereof, and will send famine vpon it, and I will destroy man and beast forth of it.

14 Though these three men [i] Noah, Daniel, & Iob were among them, they should deliuer but their owne soules by their [k] righteousnesse, saith the Lord God.

15 If I bring noysome beastes into the land, and they spoile it, so that it be desolate, that no man may passe through, because of beastes, 16 Though these three men were in the midst thereof, As I liue, saith the Lord God they shall saue neither sonnes nor daughters: they onely shall bee deliuered, but the land shalbe waste.

17 Or if I bring a sword vpon this land, and say, Sword, go through the land, so that I destroy man and beast out of it, 18 Though these three men were in the middes thereof, As I liue, saieth the Lorde God, they shall deliuer neither sonnes nor daughters, but they onely shalbe deliuered themselues.

19 Or if I send a pestilence into this land, and powre out my wrath vpon it in blood, to destroy out of it man and beast, 20 And though Noah, Daniel and Iob were in the middes of it, As I liue, saieth the Lorde God, they shall deliuer neither sonne nor daughter: they shall but deliuer their owne soules by their righteousnesse.

21 For thus saith the Lorde God, How we much more when I sende my * foure sore iudgements vpon Ierusalem, euen the sword, and famine, and the noysome beast and pestilence, to destroy man and beast out of it?

22 Yet behold, therein shalbe left a [l] remnant of them that shalbe caried away both sonnes and daughters: beholde, they shall come forth vnto you, and yee shall see their way, and their enterprises: and ye shall bee comforted concerning the euill that I haue brought vpon Ierusalem, euen concerning all that I haue brought vpon it.

23 And they shall comfort you, when ye see their way and their enterprises: and yee shall knowe, that I haue not done without cause all that I haue done in it, saith the Lord God.

3 Shall wood be taken thereof to doe any worke? or will men take a pinne of it to hang any vessell thereon?

CHAP. XVI.

The Prophet declareth the benefites of God toward Ierusalem. 15 Their vnkindnesse. 46 He iustifieth the wickednesse of other people in comparison of the sinnes of Ierusalem. 49 The cause of the abominations, into which the Sodomites fell. 60 Mercy is promised to the repentant.

AGaine, the worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, cause Ierusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God vnto Ierusalem, Thine habitation & thy kinred is of the lande a of Canaan: thy father was an Amorite, & thy mother an Hittite.

4 And in thy nativitie when thou wast b borne, thy navell was not cut: thou wast not washed in water to soften thee: thou wast not salted with salte, nor swadled in cloutes.

5 None eie pitied thee to do any of these vnto thee, for to haue compassion vpon thee, but thou wast cast out in the open fielde to the contempt of thy person in the day that thou wast borne.

6 And when I passed by thee, I sawe thee polluted in thine c owne blood, and I said vnto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Thou shalt liue: euen when thou wast in thy blood, I said vnto thee, thou shalt liue.

7 I haue caused thee to multiply, as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou hast gotten excellent ornaments: thy brests are fashioned, thine haire is growen, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked vpon thee, beholde, thy time was as the time of loue, and I spread my skirtes ouer thee, and couered d thy filthinesse: yea, I sware vnto thee, and entred into a couenant with e thee, saieth the Lorde God, and thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with f water, yea, I washed away thy blood from thee, and I g anointed thee with oile.

10 I clothed thee also with broidred worke, and shod thee with badgers skinne, and I girded thee about with fine linnen, and I couered thee with silke.

11 I decked thee also with ornamentes, and I put bracelets vpon thine handes, and a chaine on thy necke.

12 And I put a frontlet vpon thy face, and earerings in thine eares, and a beautifull h crowne vpon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and siluer, and thy raiment was of fine linnen, and silke and broidred worke: thou diddest eate fine floure, and hony and oile, and thou wast verie beautifull, and thou diddest grow vp into a kingdom.

14 And thy name was spread among the heathen for thy beautie: for it was perfect through my i beautie which I had set vpon thee, saieth the Lord God.

15 Nowe thou didst k trust in thine owne beautie, and playdst the harlot, because of thy renowme, and hast powred out thy fornications on euery one that passed by, thy desire was to him.

16 And thou diddest take thy garments, and deckedst thine hie places with diuers colours, m and playdst the harlot therevpon: the like things shall not come, neither hath any done so.

17 Thou hast also taken thy faire iewels made of my golde and of my siluer, which I had giuen thee, and n madest to thy selfe images of men, and didst commit whoredome with them.

18 And tookest thy broidred garmentes, and coueredst them: and thou hast set mine oile and my perfume before them.

19 My meate also which I gaue thee as fine floure, oile and honie wherewith I fed thee, thou hast euen set it before them for a sweet sauor: thus it was, saith the Lord God.

20 Moreouer thou hast taken thy sonnes and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne vnto me, and these hast thou sacrificed vnto them, to o bee deuoured: is this thy whoredome a small matter?

21 That thou hast slaine my children, and deliuered them to cause them to passe through fire for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and whoredomes, thou hast not remembred the dayes of thy youth, when thou wast naked, and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And beside all thy wickednesse, (woe, woe vnto thee saieth the Lord God.)

24 Thou hast also built vnto thee an hie place, and hast made thee an hie place in euery streete.

25 Thou hast built thine hie place at euery ‖ corner of the way, and hast made thy beautie to be abhorred: thou hast opened thy feet to euery one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredom.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with the p Egyptians thy neighbors, which haue great members, and hast encreased thy whoredome, to prouoke me.

27 Beholde, therefore I did stretch out mine hand ouer thee, & I wil diminish thine ordinarie, and deliuer thee vnto the will of them that hate thee, euen to the ‖ daughters of the Philistims, which are ashamed of thy wicked way.

28 Thou hast plaid the whore also with a Thou boastest to be of the seed of Abraham, but thou art degenerate & followest the abominations of y wicked Canaanites, as children doe the maners of their fathers, Iez. 1.4, and 57.3.

b When I first brought thee out of Egypt, and planted thee in this land to be my Church.

c Being thus in thy filthines and forsaken of all men, I tooke thee and gaue thee life: whereby is meant that before God wash his Church, and giue life, there is nothing but filthinesse and death.

d These words, as blood, pollution, nakednesse, and filthinesse, are oftentimes repeated, to beate downe their pride, and to cause them to consider what they were before God receiued them to mercy, fauoured them, & couered their shame.

e That thou shouldest be a chaste wife vnto me, and that I should maintaine thee and endue thee with all graces.

f I washed away thy sinne.

g I sanctified thee with mine holy spirite.

h Hereby he sheweth how he saued his church, enriched it, and gaue it power and dominion to reigne.

i He declareth wherein the dignitie of Ierusalem stood: to wit, in that that the Lord gaue them of his beautie & excellencie.

k In abusing my gifts, and in putting thy confidence in thine owne wisedom and dignitie, which were the occasions of thine idolatrie.

l There was none idolatrie so vile, wherewith thou didst not pollute thy selfe.

m This declareth how the idolaters put their chiefe delite in those things, which please the eies and outward senses.

n Thou hast conuerted my vessels and instruments, which I gaue thee to serue me with, to the vse of thine idoles.

o Meaning, by fire, read Leuit. 18.21. 2. King. 23.10.

p He noteth the great impietie of this people, who first falling from God to seeke helpe at strange nations, did also at length imbrace their idolatrie, thinking thereby to make their amitie more strong.

the Assyrians, because thou wast insatiable: yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast moreouer multiplied thy fornication from the land of Canaan vnto Caldea, and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weake is thine heart, saieth the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these things, euen the worke of a [o] presumptuous whorish woman?

31 In that thou buildest thine hie place in the corner of euery way, and makest thine hie place in euery streete, and hast not bene as an harlot [q] that despiseth a reward,

32 But as a wife that playeth the harlot, and taketh others for her husband:

33 They giue gifts to all other whores, but thou giuest gifts vnto all thy louers, and rewardest them, that they may come vnto thee on euery side for thy fornication.

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy fornications, neither the like fornication shall bee after thee: for in that thou giuest a reward, and no reward is giuen vnto thee, therefore thou art contrary.

35 Wherefore, O harlot, heare the worde of the Lord.

36 Thus saieth the Lord God, Because thy [p] shame was powred out, and thy filthines discouered through thy fornications with thy louers, and with all the idoles of thine abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou diddest offer vnto them,

37 Beholde, therefore I will gather all [r] thy louers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loued, with all them that thou hast hated: I will euen gather them round about against thee, and will discouer thy filthinesse vnto them, that they may see all thy filthinesse.

38 And I will iudge thee after the maner of them that are [s] harlots, and of them that shed blood, and I will giue thee the blood of wrath and iealousie.

39 I will also giue thee into their hands, and they shal destroy thine hie place, & shall breake downe thine hie places: they shall strip thee also out of thy clothes, & shall take thy faire iewels, and leaue thee naked and bare.

40 They shall also bring vp a company against thee, and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swordes.

41 And they [t] shall burne vp thine houses with fire, and execute iudgements vpon thee in the sight of many women: & I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, & thou shalt giue no reward any more.

42 So will I make my wrath toward thee to rest, and my [u] iealousie shall depart from thee, and I will cease and bee no more angrie.

43 Because thou hast not remembred the dayes of thy youth, but hast prouoked mee with all these things, beholde, therefore I also haue [v] brought thy way vpon thine head, saieth the Lord God: yet hast not thou had consideration of all thine abominations.

44 Beholde, all that vse prouerbes, shall vse this prouerbe, against thee, saying, As is the mother, [x] so is her daughter.

45 Thou art thy mothers daughter, that hath cast off her husband and her children, and thou art the sister of thy [y] sisters, which forsooke their husbands and their children: your mother is an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 And thine elder sister is Samaria, and her [z] daughters, that dwell at thy left hand, and [‡] thy yong sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom, & her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou [a] not walked after their wayes, nor done after their abominations: but as it had bene a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more then they in all thy wayes.

48 As I liue, saieth the Lord God, Sodom thy sister hath not done, neither she nor her daughters, as thou hast done and thy daughters.

49 Beholde, this was the iniquitie of thy sister Sodom, [b] Pride, fulnes of bread, and abundance of idlenesse was in her, and in her daughters: neither did shee strengthen the hand of the poore and needie.

50 But they were hautie, and committed abomination before mee: therefore I tooke them away, as pleased me.

51 Neither [c] hath Samaria committed halfe of thy sinnes, but thou hast exceeded them in thine abominations, and hast [d] iustified thy sisters in all thine abominations, which thou hast done.

52 Therefore thou which hast iustified thy sisters, beare thine own shame for thy sinnes that thou hast committed more abominable then they which are more righteous then thou art: be thou therefore confounded also, and beare thy shame, seeing that thou hast iustified thy sisters.

53 Therefore I will bring againe [e] their captiuitie with the captiuitie of Sodome, and her daughters, & with the captiuitie of Samaria, & her daughters: euen the captiuitie of thy captiues in the mids of them, 54 That thou mayest beare thine owne shame, and maiest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou hast [f] comforted them.

55 And thy sister Sodome & her daughters shall returne to their former state: Samaria also and her daughters shall returne to their former state, & then thou and thy daughters shall returne to your former state.

56 For thy sister Sodom was not heard of [h] by thy report in the day of thy pride.

57 Before thy wickednes was discouered, as in that same time of the reproche of the daughters of Aram, & of all the daughters of the Philistims rounde about [k] her which despise thee on all sides.

[d] Thou art so wicked, that in respect of thee, Sodom and Samaria were iust.

[e] This he speaketh in comparison, saying, that he would restore Ierusalem when Sodome should be restored, that is, neuer: and this is meant of the greatest part of the Iewes.

[f] In that thou hast shewed thy selfe worse then they, and yet thoughtest to escape punishment.

[g] Meaning, that it should neuer come to passe.

[‡] Ebr. was not a rumour in thy mouth.

[h] Thou wouldest not call her punishment to minde when thou wast aloft, to learne by her example to feare my iudgements. [i] That is, till thou wast brought vnder by the Syrians and Philistims, 2. Chro. 28. 19. [k] Which ioyned with the Syrians, or compassed about Ierusalem, 58 Thou hast borne therefore thy wickednesse, and thine abomination, saith the Lord.

59 For thus saith the Lord God, I might euen deale with thee, as thou hast done: when thou didst despise the l othe, in breaking the couenant.

60 Neuertheless, I will m remember my couenant made with thee in the dayes of thy youth, and I will confirme vnto thee an euerlasting couenant.

61 Then thou shalt remember thy wayes, and bee ashamed, when thou shalt receiue n thy sisters, both thy elder and thy yonger, and I will giue them vnto thee for daughters, but not o by thy couenant.

62 And I will establish my couenant with thee, and thou shalt knowe that I am the Lord, 63 That thou mayest remember, and be p ashamed, and neuer open thy mouth any more: because of thy shame when I am pacified toward thee, for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord God.

l When thou brakest the couenant, which was made betweene thee and me, as verse 8.

m That is, of mercie and loue I will pitie thee, and so stand to my couenant, though thou hast deserued the contrary.

CHAP. XVII.

The parable of the two Eagles.

AND the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, put forth a parable and speake a prouerbe vnto the house of Israel,

3 And say, Thus sayeth the Lord God, The great q egle with great wings, and long wings, and full of feathers, which had diuers colours, came vnto Lebanon, and tooke the hiest branch of the cedar,

4 And brake off the top of his twigge, and caried it into the land r of merchants, and set it in a citie of merchants.

5 He tooke also of the s seede of the land, and planted it in a fruitful ground: he placed it by great waters, t set it as a willow tree.

6 And it budded vp, u was v like a spreading vine of x lowe stature, whose branches turned toward it, and the rootes thereof were vnder it: so it became a vine, and it brought forth branches, and shot forth buds.

7 There was also y another great egle with great wings and many feathers, and behold, this vine did turne her roots toward it, and spread foorth her branches toward it, that shee might water it by the trenches of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good soyle by great z waters, that it should bring foorth branches, and beare fruite, and be an excellent vine.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, Shall it prosper? Shall a he not pull vp the rootes thereof, and destroy the fruite thereof, and cause them to drie? all the leaues of her bud shall wither without great power, or many people, to plucke it vp by the rootes thereof.

10 Beholde, it was planted: but shall it prosper? shall it not be dried vp, and wither? when the East winde shall touch it, it shall wither in the trenches, where it grewe.

a That is, Nebuchad-nezzar, who hath great power, riches, & many countries vnder him, shall come to Ierusalem, and take away Ieconiah the king, as verse 12.

b Meaning, to Babylon.

c That is, Zedekiah, who was of the kings blood, and was left at Ierusalem, and made king in steade of Ieconiah. 2. King. 24. 17. iere. 37. 1.

d This was Zedekiahs kingdome.

e That it might not haue power to rebell against Babylon, as verse 14.

f Meaning the king of Egypt of whom Zedekiah sought succour against Nebuchad-nezzar.

g They thought to bee moystened by the waters of Nilus.

h Shall not Nebuchad-nezzar destroy it?

i By this drie winde, he meaneth the Babylonians.

11 Moreouer the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

12 Say nowe to this rebellious house, Knowe ye not what these things meane? tell them, Beholde, the King of Babel is come to Ierusalem, and hath taken k the King thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babel,

13 And hath taken one of the kings seede, and made a couenant with him, and hath taken an l othe of him: hee hath also taken the princes of the land,

14 That the kingdome might be in subiection, and not lift it selfe vp, but keepe their couenant, and stand to it.

15 But he rebelled against him, and sent his ambassadours into Egypt, that they might giue him horses, and much people: shall hee prosper? shall hee escape, that doeth such things? or shall he breake the couenant, and be deliuered?

16 As I liue, saith the Lord God, he shall die in the middes of Babel, in the place of the King, that had made him King, whose othe hee despised, and whose couenant made with him, he brake.

17 Neither shall Pharaoh with his mightie hoste, and great multitude of people, maintaine him in the warre, when they haue cast vp mounts, and builded ramparts to destroy many persons.

18 For he hath despised the othe, and broken the couenant (yet loe, he had giuen m his hand) because he hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, As I liue, I will surely bring mine othe that hee hath despised, and my couenant that hee hath broken, vpon his owne head.

20 n And I will spreade my nette vpon him, and he shall be taken in my nette, and I will bring him to Babel, and will enter into iudgement with him there for his trespasse that he hath committed against me.

21 And all that flee from him with all his hoste, shall fall by the sword, and they that remaine, shall bee scattered toward all the windes: and yee shall knowe that I the Lord haue spoken it.

22 Thus saith the Lord God, I will also take off the toppe o of this hie cedar, and will set it, and cut off the o toppe of the tender plant thereof, and I will plant it vpon an hie mountaine and great.

23 Euen in the hie mountaine of Israel will I plant it: p it shall bring forth boughs and beare fruite, and be an excellent cedar, and vnder it shall remaine all birdes, and euery p foule shall dwell in the shadowe of the branches thereof.

24 And all the q trees of the fielde shall know that I the Lord haue brought downe the hie tree, and exalted the lowe tree: that I haue dried vp the greene tree, and made the drie tree to flourish: I the Lord haue spoken it, and haue done it.

k That is, Ieconiah, 2. King. 24. 15.

m Because hee tooke the Name of God in vaine, and brake his oth which he had confirmed by giuing his hand, therefore the Prophet declareth that God would not suffer such periurie and infidelitie to escape punishment, Chap. 12. 13. and 32. 3.

n This promise is made to the Church which shall be as a small remnant, and as the top of a tree.

o I will trimme it and dresse it.

p Both the Iewes and Gentiles shal be gathered into it.

q All the world shall know that I haue plucked downe the proud enemies, and set vp my Church which was low and contemned.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 He sheweth that euery man shal beare his owne sinne. 21 To him that amendeth, is salvation promised. 24 Death is prophecied to the righteous, which turneth backe from the right way.

THE word of the Lord came vnto mee againe, saying,

2 What meane yee that yee speake this prouerbe, concerning the land of Israel, saying, [a] The fathers haue eaten sowre grapes, and the childrens teeth are set on edge?

3 As I liue, saith the Lord God, ye shall vse this prouerbe no more in Israel.

4 Beholde, all soules are mine, both the soule of the father, and also the soule of the sonne are mine: the soule that sinneth, it shal die.

5 But if a man bee iust, and doe that which is lawfull, and right,

6 And hath not eaten [b] vpon the mountaines, neither hath lift vp his eyes to the idoles of the house of Israel, neither hath * defiled his neighbours wife, neither hath ‡ lien with a * menstrous woman,

7 Neyther hath oppressed any, but hath restored the pledge to his debtour: hee that hath spoyled none by violence, * but hath giuen his bread to the hungry, and hath couered the naked with a garment,

8 And hath not giuen foorth vpon * vsurie, neither hath taken any increase, but hath withdrawen his hand from iniquitie, and hath executed true iudgement betweene man and man,

9 And hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my iudgements to deale truely, he is iust, hee shall surely liue, saith the Lord God.

10 ¶ If he beget a sonne, that is ‖ a thiefe, or a shedder of blood, if hee doe any one of these things,

11 Though he do not all these things, but eyther hath eaten vpon the mountaines, or defiled his neighbours wife,

12 Or hath oppressed the poore and needie, or hath spoyled by violence, or hath not restored the pledge, or hath lift vp his eyes vnto the idoles, or hath committed abomination,

13 Or hath giuen foorth vpon vsurie, or hath taken increase, shall hee liue? hee shall not liue: seeing he hath done all these abominations, [c] he shal die the death, and his blood shalbe vpon him.

14 ¶ But if hee beget a sonne, that seeth all his fathers sinnes, which hee hath done, and feareth, neither doeth such like,

15 That hath not eaten vpon the mountaines, neither hath lift vp his eyes to the idoles of the house of Israel, nor hath defiled his neighbours wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, nor hath withholden the pledge, neither hath spoyled by violence, but hath giuen his bread to the hungrie, and hath couered the naked with a garment,

17 Neither hath withdrawen his hand from the afflicted, nor receiued vsurie nor increase, but hath executed my iudgements, and hath walked in my statutes, hee shall not die in the iniquitie of his father, but he shall surely liue.

18 His father, because hee cruelly oppressed and spoyled his brother by violence, and hath not done good among his people, loe, euen he dieth in his iniquitie.

19 Yet say yee, Wherefore shall not the sonne beare the iniquitie of the father? because the sonne hath executed iudgement and iustice, and hath kept all my statutes, and done them, he shall surely liue.

20 * The same soule that sinneth, shall die: the sonne shall not beare the iniquitie of the father, neither shall the father beare the iniquitie of the sonne, but the righteousnesse of the righteous shall be vpon him, and the wickednesse of the wicked shalbe vpon himselfe.

21 But if the wicked will returne from all his sinnes that hee hath committed, and keepe all my [d] statutes, and doe that which is lawfull and right, he shall surely liue, and shall not die.

22 All his transgressions that hee hath committed, they shall not be ‖ mentioned vnto him, but in his [e] righteousnesse that he hath done, he shall liue.

23 [f] Haue I any desire that the wicked should die, saith the Lord God? ‖ or shall he not liue, if he returne from his wayes?

24 But if the righteous turne away from his righteousnesse, and commit iniquitie, and doe according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall hee liue? all his [g] righteousnesse that hee hath done, shall not bee mentioned: but in his transgression that hee hath committed, and in his sinne that hee hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 Yet yee say, The way of the Lord is not [h] equall: heare nowe, O house of Israel. Is not my way equal? or are not your wayes vnequall?

26 For when a righteous man turneth away from his righteousnesse, and committeth iniquitie, hee shall euen die for the same, he shall euen die for his iniquitie that he hath done.

27 Againe, when the wicked turneth away from the wickednesse that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawfull and right, he shall saue his soule aliue.

28 Because hee considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that hee hath committed, he shall surely liue and shall not die.

29 Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equall. O house of Israel, are not my wayes equall? or are not your wayes vnequall?

30 Therefore I will iudge you, O house of Israel, euery one according to his wayes saith the Lord God: returne therefore & cause others to turne away from all your transgressions: so iniquity shal not be your destruction.

31 Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye haue transgressed, and make [i] you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

32 For I desire not the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: cause therefore one another to turne, and liue ye.

10 Thy [g] mother is like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: shee brought foorth fruit and branches by the abundant waters, 11 And shee had strong rods for the scepters of them that beare rule, and her stature was exalted among the branches, and shee appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

12 But she was plucked vp in wrath: she was cast downe to the ground, & the [h] East winde dried vp her fruit: her branches were broken, and withered: as for the rod of her strength, the fire consumed it.

13 And now she is planted in the wildernesse in a dry and thirstie ground.

14 And fire is gone out [i] of a rod of her branches, which hath deuoured her fruit, so that shee hath no strong rod to be a scepter to rule: this is a lamentation and shall be for a lamentation.

CHAP. XX.

3 The Lord denieth that hee will answere them when they pray, because of their vnkindnesse. 33 He promiseth that his people shall returne from captiuitie. 46 By the forest that should be burnt, is signified the burning of Ierusalem.

AND in the [a] seuenth yeere, in the fift moneth, the tenth day of the moneth, came certeine of the Elders of Israel to enquire of the Lord, and sate before me.

2 Then came the word of the Lord vnto me, saying,

3 Sonne of man, speake vnto the Elders of Israel, and say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Are ye come to enquire of mee? as I liue, saith the Lord God, when I am asked, I will not answere you.

4 Wilt thou iudge them, sonne of man? wilt thou iudge them? cause [b] them to vnderstand the abominations of their fathers,

5 And say vnto them, Thus sayeth the Lord God, In the day when I chose Israel, and [c] lift vp mine hand vnto the seede of the house of Iaakob, and made my selfe knowen vnto them in the land of Egypt, when I lift vp mine hand vnto them, and said, I am the Lord your God,

6 In the day that I lift vp mine hande vnto them to bring them forth of the land of Egypt, into a land that I had prouided for them, flowing with milke and hony, which is pleasant among all lands,

7 Then said I vnto them, Let euery man cast away the abominations of his eyes, [d] and defile not your selues with the idoles of Egypt: for I am the Lord your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, & would not heare me: for none cast away the abominations of [e] their eyes, neither did they forsake the idoles of Egypt: then I thought to powre out mine indignation vpon them, and to accomplish my wrath against them in the middes of the land of Egypt.

9 But I had respect to my [f] Name, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, and in whose sight I made my selfe knowen vnto them in bringing them forth of the land of Egypt.

10 Nowe I carried them out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wildernesse.

11 And I gaue them my statutes, and declared my iudgements vnto them, * which if a man doe, he shall liue in them.

12 Moreouer, I gaue the also my * Sabbaths to be a signe betweene mee and them, that they might know that I am the Lord, that sanctifie them.

13 But the house of Israel rebelled against mee in the wildernesse: they walked not in my statutes, and they cast away my iudgements, which if a man do, he shall liue in them, & my Sabbaths haue they greatly polluted: then I thought to powre out mine indignation vpon them * in the wildernesse to consume them,

14 But I had respect to my Name, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet neuertheless, I lift vp mine hand vnto them in the wildernesse that I would not bring them into the land, which I had giuen them, flowing with milke and hony, which was pleasant aboue all lands, 16 Because they cast away my iudgements, and walked not in my statutes, but haue polluted my [h] Sabbaths: for their heart went after their idoles.

17 Neuertheles mine eye spared thē, that I would not destroy them, neither would I consume them in the wildernesse.

18 But I saide vnto their children in the wildernes, Walke ye not in the ordinances a Of the captiuitie of Ieconiah.

b This declareth the great lenitie and patience of God, which calleth sinners to repentance before he condemne them.
c I sware that I would be their God, which maner of othe was obserued frō all antiquitie, where they vsed to lift vp their hands toward the heauen, acknowledging God to be the authour of truth, and the defender thereof, and also the iudge of y heart, wishing that he shoulde take vengeance, if they concealed any thing which they knew to be true.
d God had forbidden them to make mention of the idoles, Exod. 23.13. psal. 16.4.
e Which thing declareth y wickednes of mans heart which iudge Gods seruice by their eyes and outward senses.
f God had euer this respect to his glory, that he would not haue his name euill spoken of among the Gentiles for the punishment that his people deserued, in confidence whereof the godly euer prayed, as Exod. 32.12. Numb. 14.13. Leuit. 18.5. rom. 10.5. galat. 3.12. Exod. 20.8. & 31.13. deut. 5.12. Num. 14.28, 29. and 26.65.

h That is, my true religion, which I had commanded them, and gaue themselues to serue according to their owne fantasies.

of your fathers, neither obſerue their maners, nor defile your ſelues with their idoles.

19 I am the Lorde your God: walke in my ſtatutes, and keepe my iudgements and doe them, 20 And ſanctifie my Sabbaths, and they ſhalbe a ſigne betweene me and you, that ye may know that I am the Lord your God.

21 Notwithſtanding the children rebelled againſt me: they walked not in my ſtatutes, nor kept my iudgements to do them, which if a man do, he ſhall liue in them, but they polluted my Sabbaths: then I thought to powre out mine indignation vpon them, and to accompliſh my wrath againſt them in the wilderneſſe.

22 Neuertheleſſe I withdrewe my hand, and had reſpect to my Name, that it ſhould not be polluted before the heathen, in whoſe ſight I brought them forth.

23 Yet I lift vp mine hand vnto them in the wilderneſſe, that I would ſcatter them among the heathen, and diſperſe them throw the countreys, 24 Becauſe they had not executed my iudgements, but had caſt away my ſtatutes, and had polluted my Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers idoles.

25 Wherefore I gaue them alſo ſtatutes that were not good, and iudgements, wherein they ſhould not liue.

26 And I polluted them in their owne gifts, in that they cauſed to paſſe by the fire all that firſt openeth the wombe, that I might deſtroy them, to the ende that they might know that I am the Lord.

27 Therefore, ſonne of man, ſpeake vnto the houſe of Iſrael, & ſay vnto them, Thus ſaith the Lord God, yet in this your fathers haue blaſphemed me, though they had before grieuouſly tranſgreſſed againſt me.

28 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted vp mine hand to giue it to them, then they ſaw euery high hill, and all the thicke trees, and they offered there their ſacrifices, and there they preſented their offering of prouocation: there alſo they made their ſweet ſauour, and powred out there their drinke offerings.

29 Then I ſaid vnto them, What is the hie place whereunto ye goe? And the name thereof was called Bamah vnto this day.

30 Wherefore ſay vnto the houſe of Iſrael, Thus ſaith the Lord God, Are ye not polluted after the maner of your fathers? and commit yee not whoredome after their abominations?

31 For when you offer your giftes, and make your ſonnes to paſſe thorow the fire, you pollute your ſelues with all your idoles vnto this day: ſhall I anſwere you when I am aſked, O houſe of Iſrael? As I liue, ſaith the Lord God, I will not anſwere you when I am aſked.

32 Neither ſhall that be done that commeth into your minde: for ye ſay, we will be as the heathen, and as the families of the countreys, and ſerue wood and ſtone.

33 As I liue, ſayth the Lord God, I will ſurely rule you with a mighty hand, and with a ſtretched out arme, and in my wrath powred out, 34 And will bring you from the people, and will gather you out of the countreyes, wherein yee are ſcattered, with a mighty hand, and with a ſtretched out arme, and in my wrath powred out.

35 And I will bring you into the wilderneſſe of the people, & there will I pleade with you face to face.

36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderneſſe of the land of Egypt, ſo will I pleade with you, ſaith the Lord God.

37 And I will cauſe you to paſſe vnder the rod, and will bring you into the bond of the couenant.

38 And I will chuſe out from among you the rebels, and them that tranſgreſſe againſt me: I will bring them out of the land where they dwell, and they ſhall not enter into the land of Iſrael, and you ſhall know that I am the Lord.

39 As for you, O houſe of Iſrael, Thus ſayth the Lord God, Goe you, and ſerue euery one his idole, ſeeing that ye will not obey me, and pollute mine holy Name no more with your gifts and with your idoles.

40 For in mine holy mountaine, euen in the hie mountaine of Iſrael, ſayth the Lord God, there ſhall all the houſe of Iſrael, and all in the land, ſerue me: there will I accept them, and there will I requite your offerings, and the firſt fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept your ſweet ſauour, when I bring you from the people, and gather you out of the countreyes, wherein ye haue bene ſcattered, that I may be ſanctified in you before the heathen.

42 And yee ſhall knowe, that I am the Lord, when I ſhall bring you into the land of Iſrael, into the land, for the which I lifted vp mine hand to giue it to your fathers.

43 And there ſhall yee remember your wayes, and all your works, wherein ye haue bene defiled, and ye ſhall iudge your ſelues woorthy to be cut off, for all your euils, that ye haue committed.

44 And ye ſhall knowe, that I am the Lord, when I haue reſpect vnto you for my names ſake, & not after your wicked wayes, nor according to your corrupt works, O ye houſe of Iſrael, ſaith the Lord God.

45 Moreouer, the word of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,

46 Sonne of man, ſet thy face toward the way of Teman, and droppe thy word toward the South, and prophecie toward the forreſt of the field of the South,

47 And ſay to the forreſt of the South, Heare the word of the Lord: thus ſayeth the Lord God, Beholde, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it ſhall deuoure all the greene wood in thee, and all the drie wood: the continuall flame ſhall not bee quenched, CHAP. XXI.

3 Hee threatneth the ſword, and deſtruction to Ieruſalem. 23 He ſheweth the fall of King Zedekiah. 28 He is commanded to propheſie the deſtruction of the children of Ammon. 30 The Lord threatneth to deſtroy Nebuchad-nezzar.

THe word of the Lord came to mee againe, ſaying,

2 Sonne of man, ſet thy face toward Ieruſalem, a and dropp thy word toward the holy places, and propheſie againſt the land of Iſrael,

3 And ſay to the land of Iſrael, Thus ſaith the Lord, Behold, I come againſt thee, and will draw my ſword out of his sheath, and cut off from thee both the b righteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee both the righteous & wicked, therefore ſhall my ſword goe out of his ſheath againſt all fleſh from the South to the c North,

5 That all fleſh may know that I the Lord haue drawen my ſword out of his ſheath, and it ſhall not returne any more.

6 Mourne therefore, thou ſonne of man, as in the paine of thy d reines, and mourne bitterly before them.

7 And if they ſay vnto thee, Wherefore mourneſt thou? then anſwere, Becauſe e of the bruite: for it commeth, and euery heart ſhall melt, and all hands ſhalbe weake, and all mindes ſhall faint, and all knees ſhall fall away as water: behold, it commeth, and ſhalbe done, ſaith the Lord God.

8 ¶ Againe, the word of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,

9 Sonne of man, propheſie, & ſay, Thus ſaith the Lord God, ſay, A ſword, a ſword both ſharpe and fourbiſhed.

10 It is ſharpned to make a ſore ſlaughter, and it is fourbiſhed that it may f glitter: how ſhall we reioyce? for it contemneth the g rodde of my ſonne, as h all other trees.

11 And he hath giuen it to be fourbiſhed, that he may handle it: this ſword is ſharpe, and is fourbiſhed, that hee may giue it into the hand of the i ſlayer.

12 Cry, and howle: ſonne of man: for this ſhall come to my people, and it ſhall come vnto all the Princes of Iſrael: the terrours of the ſword ſhalbe vpon my people: k ſmite therefore vpon thy thigh.

13 For it is a triall, l and what ſhall this be, if the ſword contemne euen the rodde? It ſhalbe no more, ſaith the Lord God.

14 Thou therefore, ſonne of man, propheſie, and ſmite m hand to hand, and let the ſword be doubled, let the ſword that hath killed, returne the third time: it is the ſword of the great ſlaughter entring into their priuie chambers.

15 I haue brought the feare of the ſword into all their gates to make their heart to faint, and to multiplie their ruines. Ah it is made bright, and it is dreſſed for the ſlaughter.

16 Get thee n alone: go to the right hand, or get thy ſelfe to the left hand, whitherſoeuer thy face turneth.

17 I will alſo ſmite mine hands together, and will cauſe my wrath to ceaſe. I the Lord haue ſaid it.

18 ¶ The word of the Lord came vnto me againe, ſaying, 19 Alſo thou ſonne of man, appoint thee o two wayes, that the ſword of the King of Babel may come: both twaine ſhall come out of one land, and chuſe a place, and chuſe it in the corner of the way of the citie.

20 Appoint a way, that the ſword may come to Rabbath of the Ammonites, and p to Iudah in Ieruſalem the ſtrong citie.

21 And the King of Babel ſtood at the q parting of the way, at the head of the two wayes, conſulting by diuination, and made his arrowes bright: hee conſulted with idoles, and looked in r the liuer.

22 At his right hand was the diuination for Ieruſalem to appoint captaines, to open their mouth in the ſlaughter, and to lift vp their voyce with ſhouting, to lay engins of warre againſt the gates, to caſt a mount, and to build a fortreſſe.

23 And it ſhalbe vnto them ſ as a falſe diuination in their ſight for the othes made vnto them: t but he will call to remembrance their iniquitie, to the intent they ſhould bee taken.

24 Therefore thus ſaith the Lord God, Becauſe yee haue made your iniquitie to bee remembred, in diſcouering your rebellion, that in all your workes your ſinnes might appeare: becauſe, I ſay, that ye are come to remembrance, ye ſhalbe taken with the hand.

25 And thou u prince of Iſrael polluted, and wicked, whoſe day is come, when iniquitie ſhall haue an end, 26 Thus ſaith the Lord God, I will take away the x diademe, and take off the crowne: this ſhall be no more the ſame: I will exalt the humble, and will abaſe him that is hie.

27 I will ouerturne, ouerturne, ouerturne it, & it ſhalbe no more vntil he y come, whoſe right it is, and I will giue it him.

28 ¶ And thou, ſonne of man, propheſie, and ſay, Thus ſaith the Lord God to the children of Ammon, and to their blaſphemie: ſay thou, I ſay, The ſword, the ſword is drawen foorth, and fourbiſhed to the ſlaughter, to conſume, becauſe of the glittering.

3 Then ſay, Thus ſaith the Lord God, The citie ſheadeth blood in the mids of it, that her [b] time may come, and maketh idoles [c] againſt her ſelfe to pollute her ſelfe.

4 Thou haſt offended in thy blood, that thou haſt ſhed, and haſt polluted thy ſelfe in thine idoles, which thou haſt made, & thou haſt cauſed thy dayes to draw neere, and art come vnto thy terme: therefore haue I made thee a reproch to the heathen, and a mocking to all countries.

5 Thoſe that be neere, and thoſe that bee farre from thee, ſhall mocke thee, which art vile in [d] name, and ſore in affliction.

6 Behold, the princes of Iſrael euery one in thee was readie to his power, to ſhead blood.

7 In thee haue they deſpiſed father and mother: in the mids of thee [e] haue they oppreſſed the ſtranger: in thee haue they vexed the fatherleſſe and the widow.

8 Thou haſt deſpiſed mine holy things, and haſt polluted my Sabbaths.

19 Therefore thus ſaith the Lord God, Becauſe ye are all as droſſe, behold, therefore I will gather you in the middes of Ieruſalem.

20 As they gather ſiluer and braſſe, and yron, and lead, and tinne into the middes of the fornace, to blow the fire vpon it to melt it, ſo will I gather you in mine anger and in my wrath, and will put you there [l] and melt you.

21 I will gather you, I ſay, and blowe the fire of my wrath vpon you, and you ſhall be melted in the middes thereof.

22 As ſiluer is melted in the middes of the fornace, ſo ſhall ye be melted in the mids thereof, and ye ſhall know, that I the Lord haue powred out my wrath vpon you.

PSAL. XXIII.

Of the idolatrie of Samaria and Ierusalem, vnder the names of Aholah and Aholibah.

THe word of the Lord came againe vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, there were two women, the daughters of one [a] mother.

3 And they committed fornication in Egypt, they committed fornication in their youth: there were their breastes pressed, and there they bruised the teates of their virginitie.

4 And the names of [c] them were Aholah, the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and they were mine, and they bare sonnes & daughters: thus were their names. Samaria is Aholah, and Ierusalem Aholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot ‡ when she was mine, and she was set on fire with her louers, to wit, with the Assyrians her neighbours,

6 Which were clothed with blew like, both captaines and princes: they were all pleasant yong men, and horsemen riding vpon horses.

7 Thus shee committed her whoredome with them, euen with all them that were the chosen men of Asshur, and with all on whom she doted, and defiled her selfe with all their idoles.

8 Neyther left shee her fornications, learned of the Egyptians: for in her youth they [e] lay with her, and they bruised the breastes of her virginitie, and powred their whoredome vpon her.

9 Wherefore I deliuered her into the handes of her louers, euen into the handes of the Assyrians, vpon whom she doted.

10 These discouered her shame: they tooke away her sonnes and her daughters, and slew her with the sword, and she had an euill name among women: for [f] they had executed iudgement vpon her.

11 And when her sister Aholibah sawe this, shee marred her selfe with inordinate loue, more then shee, and with her fornications more then her sister with her fornications.

12 Shee doted vpon the Assyrians her neighbours, both captaines and princes clothed with diuers suites, horsemen riding vpon horses: they were all pleasant yoong men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, and that they were both after one sort,

14 And that shee increased her fornications: for when shee saw men [g] painted vpon the wall, the images of the Caldeans painted with vermilion,

15 And girded with girdles vpon their loynes, and with died attire vpon their heads (looking all like princes after the maner of the Babylonians in Caldea, the land of their nativitie)

16 Assoone, I say, as shee saw them, shee doted vpon them, and sent messengers vnto them into Caldea, 17 Nowe when the Babylonians came to her into the bed of loue, they defiled her with their fornication, and shee was polluted with them, and her lust departed from them.

18 So she discouered her fornication, and discloſed her shame: then mine heart forsooke her, like as mine heart had forsaken her sister.

19 Yet she increased her whoredome more, and called to remembrance the dayes of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For shee doted vpon their seruaunts, whose members are as the members of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thou calledst to remembrance the wickednesse of thy youth, when thy teates were bruised by the Egyptians: therefore the pappes of thy youth are thus.

22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will raise vp thy louers against thee, from whom thine heart is departed, and I will bring them against thee on euery side, 23 To wit, the Babylonians, and all the Caldeans, [h] Peked, and Shoah, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: they were all pleasant yong men, captaines and princes: all they were valiant and renowned, riding vpon horses.

24 Euen these shall come against thee, with charets, wagons, and wheeles, and with a multitude of people, which shall set against thee, buckler and shield, and helmet round about: and ‡ I will leaue the punishment vnto them, and they shall iudge thee according to their ‖ iudgements.

25 And I will lay mine indignation vpon thee: and they shall deale cruelly with thee: they shall cut off thy [i] nose and thine eares, and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall carry away thy sonnes and thy daughters, and thy residue shall bee deuoured by the fire.

26 They shall also strippe thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy faire iewels.

27 Thus will I make thy wickednes to ceale from thee, and thy fornication out of the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift vp thine eyes vnto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

28 For thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will deliuer thee into the hand of them, whom thou hatest: euen into the handes of them from whom thine heart is departed.

29 And they shall handle thee despitefully, and shal take away al thy [k] labour, and shall leaue thee naked & bare, and the shame of thy fornications [l] shalbe discouered, both thy wickednesse, and thy whoredome.

30 I will doe these things vnto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idoles.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister: therefore will I giue her [m] cup into thine hand.

32 Thus a Meaning Israel and Iudah, which came both out of one familie.

b They became idolaters after the maner of the Egyptians.

c Aholah signifieth a mansion or dwelling in her self, meaning Samaria, which was the royall citie of Israel: And Aholibah signifieth my mansion in her, whereby is meant Ierusalem where Gods Temple was.

d When the Israelites were named the people of God, they became idolaters, and forsooke God, and put their trust in the Assyrians.

e The holy Ghost vseth these termes which seeme strange to chaste eares, to cause this wicked vice of idolatry so to be abhorred, that vnneth any should abide to heare the name thereof mentioned.

f Meaning, the Assyrians.

g This declareth that no words are able sufficiently to expresse the rage of idolaters, and therefore the holy Ghost here compareth them to those which in their raging loue and filthie lustes dote vpon the images and paintings of the after whom they lust.

h These were the names of certeine Princes and captaines vnder Nebuchad-nezzar.

‡ Ebr. I will giue iudgement before them.

i They shall destroy the princes and priests with the rest of thy people.

k All thy treasures and riches which thou hast gotten by labour.

l All the world shall see thy shamefull forsaking of God to serue idoles.

m I will execute the same iudgements & vengeance against thee, and that with greater seuerities.

32 Thus saith the Lord God, Thou shalt drinke of thy sisters cup, deepe and large: thou shalt bee laughed to scorne and had in derision, because it conteyneth much.

n Meaning, that the afflictions should bee so great, that they should cause them to lose their senses and reason.

33 Thou shalt bee filled with [n] drunkennesse and sorowe, euen with the cup of destruction, and desolation, with the cuppe of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt euen drinke it, and wring it out to the dregges, and thou shalt breake the sheards thereof, and teare thine owne breasts: for I haue spoken it, saith the Lord God.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, Because thou hast forgotten mee, and cast me behinde thy backe, therefore thou shalt also beare thy wickednesse and thy whoredome.

36 ¶ The Lord said moreouer vnto me, Sonne of man, wilt thou iudge Aholah, and Aholibah? and wilt thou declare to them their abominations?

37 For they haue played the whores, and blood is in their handes, and with their idoles haue they committed aduulterie, and haue also caused their sonnes, whome they bare vnto mee, to passe by the fire to be their [o] meate.

o That is, to be sacrifices to their idoles, Reade Chap. 16. 20.

38 Moreouer, thus haue they done vnto mee: they haue defiled my sanctuarie in the same day, and haue prophaned my Sabbaths.

39 For when they had slaine their children to their idoles, they came the same day into my Sanctuarie to defile it: and loe, thus haue they done in the middes of mine house.

40 And howe much more is it that they sent for men to come from [p] farre, vnto whome a messenger was sent, and loe, they came? for whome thou diddest wash thy selfe, and paintedst thine eyes, and deckedst thee with ornaments,

41 And satest [q] vpon a costly bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oyle.

42 And a voyce of a multitude being at ease, was with her: and with the men to make the company great were brought men of [r] Saba from the wildernesse, which put bracelets vpon their handes, and beautifull crownes vpon their heads.

p They sent into other countries, to haue such as should teach the seruice of their idoles.

q He meaneth the altar, that was prepared for the idoles.

r Which should teach the maner of worshipping their gods.

43 Then I said vnto her that was olde in adulteries, Now shall shee and her fornications come to an end.

44 And they went in vnto her as they go to a common harlot: so went they to Aholah and Aholibah the wicked women.

45 And the righteous men they shall iudge them, after the maner of harlots, and after the maner of murtherers: for they are harlots, and blood is in their hands.

s That is, worthy death, Reade Chap. 16. 38.

46 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God, I will bring a multitude vpon them, & will giue them vnto the tumult, and to the spoile, 47 And the multitude shall stone them with stones, & cut them with their swords: they shall slay their sonnes, and their daughters, and burne vp their houses with fire.

t Meaning, all other cities, and countries.

48 Thus will I cause wickednes to cease out of the land, that all [t] women may bee taught, not to doe after your wickednesse.

49 And they shall lay your wickednesse vpon you, and yee shall beare the sinnes of your idoles, and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 He sheweth the destruction of Ierusalem by a parable of a seething pot. 16 The parable of Ezekiels wife being dead.

AGaine in the [a] ninth yeere, in the tenth [b] moneth, in the tenth day of the moneth came the worde of the Lorde vnto mee, saying, a Of Iechoniahs captiuitie, and of the reigne of Zedekiah, 2. King. 25. 1.

b Called Tebeth, which conteineth part of December and part of Januarie: in the which moneth and day Nebuchad-nezzar befieged Ierusalem.

2 Sonne of man, write thee the name of the day, euen of this same day: for the King of Babel set himselfe against Ierusalem this same day.

3 Therefore speake a parable vnto the rebellious house, and say vnto them, Thus sayth the Lord God, Prepare a [c] pot, prepare it, and also powre water into it.

c Whereby was meant Ierusalem.

4 Gather the [d] pieces thereof into it, euen euery good piece, as the thigh and the shoulder, and fill it with the chiefe bones.

d That is, the citizens, and the chiefe men thereof.

5 Take one of the best sheepe, and ‖ burne also the [e] bones vnder it, and make it boyle well, and seethe the bones of it therein,

e Meaning, of the innocents, whom they had slaine, who were the cause of the kindling of Gods wrath against them.

6 Because the Lord God saith thus, Woe to the bloodie citie, euen to the pot, [f] whose skomme is therin, and whose skomme is not gone out of it: bring it out [g] piece by piece: let no [h] lot fall vpon it.

f Whose iniquities, and wicked citizens there yet remaine.

g Signifying, that they should not be destroyed all at once, but by litle and litle.

h Spare none estate or condition.

7 For her blood is in the middes of her: they set it vpon an high [i] rocke, and powred it not vpon the ground to couer it with dust, i The citie shewed her cruelties to all the world, and was not ashamed thereof, neither yet hid it.

8 That it might cause wrath to arise, and take vengeance: euen I haue set her blood vpon an high rocke that it should not bee couered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, * Woe to the bloodie citie, for I will make ‖ the burning great.

Nahum. 3. 1. habak. 2. 12.

‖ Or, an heape of wood.

10 Heape on much wood: [k] kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and cast in spice, and let the bones be burnt.

k Meaning, that the citie should 11 Then set it emptie vpon the coales thereof, that ‖ the brasse of it may be hot, and may burne, and that the filthinesse of it may be molten in it, and that the skomme of it may be consumed.

12 [l] Shee hath wearied her selfe with lyes, and her great skomme went not out of her: therefore her skomme shalbe consumed with fire.

13 Thou remainest in thy filthinesse & wickednesse: because I would [m] haue purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not bee purged from thy filthinesse, till I haue caused my wrath to light vpon thee.

14 I the Lord haue spoken it: it shall come to passe, and I will doe it: I will not goe backe, neither will I spare, neither will I repent: according to thy waies, and according to thy works shall [n] they iudge thee, saith the Lord God.

bee vtterly destroyed, and that hee would giue the enemies an appetite thereunto. ‖ Or, bottome. l The citie hath flattered her selfe in vaine. m I laboured by sending my Prophets to call thee to repentance, but thou wouldest not. n That is, the Babylonians.

15 ¶ Also

15 ¶ Also the worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

16 Sonne of man, behold, I take away from thee the o pleasure of thine eyes with a plague: yet shalt thou neither mourne nor weepe, neither shall thy teares runne downe.

o Meaning, his wife in whom he delited, as verse 18.

17 Cease from sighing: make no mourning for the dead, and binde the tyre of thine head vpon thee, p and put on thy shooes vpon thy feete, and couer not thy lips, and eate q not the bread of men.

p For in mourning, they went bare headed and barefooted, and also couered their lips.

q That is, which the neighbours sent to them that mourned.

18 So I spake vnto the people in the morning, and at euen my wife died: and I did in r the morning, as I was commanded.

r Meaning, the morning following.

19 And the people sayd vnto mee, Wilt thou not tell vs what these things meane toward vs, that thou doest so?

20 Then I answered them, The worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying, 21 Speake vnto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, Beholde, I will f pollute my Sanctuarie, euen, the t pride of your power, the pleasure of your eyes, and your hearts desire, and your sonnes, and your daughters whome ye haue left, shall fall by the sword.

f By sending the Caldeans to destroy it, as Chap. 7.22.

t Wherein you boast and delite.

22 And ye shall doe as I haue done: ye shall not couer your lippes, neither shall ye eate the bread of men.

23 And your tire shalbe vpon your heads, and your shooes vpon your feete: ye shall not mourne nor weepe, but ye shall pine awap for your iniquities, and mourne one toward another.

24 Thus Ezekiel is vnto you a signe: according to all that he hath done, ye shall doe: and when this commeth, ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Also, thou sonne of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their power, the ioy of their honour, the pleasure of their eyes, and the ‡ desire of their heart, their sonnes and their daughters, ‡ Ebr. lifting vp of their soules.

26 That hee that escapeth in that day, shall come vnto thee to tell thee that which he hath heard with his eares?

27 In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speake, and be no more dumbe, and thou shalt be a signe vnto them, and they shall knowe that I am the Lord.

CHAP. XXV.

1 The worde of the Lord against Ammon, which reioyced at the fall of Ierusalem. 8 Against Moab and Seir, Idumea and the Philistims.

THe worde of the Lorde came againe vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, set thy face against the Ammonites, and prophesie against them,

3 And say vnto the Ammonites, Heare the worde of the Lord God, Thus saith the Lord God, Because thou saidest, a Ha, ha, against my Sanctuarie, when it was polluted, and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate, and against the house of Iudah, when they went into captiuitie, a Because ye reioyced when the enemie destroied my citie and Temple.

4 Beholde, therefore I will deliuer thee to the b men of the East for a possession, and they shall set their c palaces in thee, & make their dwellings in thee: they shall eate thy fruite, and they shall drinke thy milke.

b That is to the Babylonians.

c They shall chase thee away and take thy goodes houses to dwell in.

5 And I will make d Rabbah a dwelling place for camels, and the Ammonites a sheepecote, and ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

d Called also Philadelphia, which was the chiefe citie of the Ammonites and ful of conduites, 2. Sam. 12, 27.

6 For thus saieth the Lorde God, Because thou hast clapped thy handes, and stamped with the feete, and reioyced in heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel:

7 Beholde, therefore I will stretch out mine hand vpon thee, and will deliuer thee to be spoiled of the heathen, and I will roote thee out from the people, and I will cause thee to be destroyed out of the countreys, and I will destroy thee, and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

8 Thus saieth the Lord God, Because that Moab and Seir doe say, Beholde, the house of Iudah is like vnto all the heathen.

9 Therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab, euen of the cities e of his cities, I say, in his frontiers with the pleasant countrey, Beth-iesimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim, e So y no power or strength should be able to resist the Babylonians.

10 I will call the men of the East against the Ammonites, and will giue them in possession, so that the Ammonites shall no more be remembred among the nations, 11 And I will execute iudgements vpon Moab, and they shall know that I am the Lorde.

12 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God, Because that Edom hath done euill by taking vengeance vpon the house of Iudah, and hath committed great offence, & reuenged himselfe vpon them, 13 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, I will also stretch out mine hand vpon Edom, and destroy man and beast out of it, and I will make it desolate from Teman, and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.

14 And I will execute my vengeance vpon Edom by the hand of my people Israel, and they shall doe in Edom according to mine anger, and according to mine indignation, and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord God.

15 Thus saith the Lorde God, Because the Philistims haue executed vengeance, and reuenged themselues with a despitefull heart, to destroy it for the olde hatred, 16 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde, I will stretch out mine hand vpon the Philistims, and I will cut off the f Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast.

f Which were certaine garisons of Philistims, whereby they oft times molested the Iewes. Of the Cherethims Dauid also had a gard, 2. Sam. 8, 18 17 And I will execute great vengeance vpon them with rebukes of mine indignation, and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde, when I shall lay my vengeance vpon them.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 He prophesieth that Tyrus shalbe ouerthrowen because it reioyced at the destruction of Ierusalem. 15 The wondering and astonishment of the marchants for the destruction of Tyrus.

And

And in the [a] eleuenth yeere, in the first day of the moneth, the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, because that Tyrus hath said against Ierusalem, Aha, the [b] gate of the people is broken: it is turned vnto me: for seeing she is desolate, I shall be [c] replenished,

3 Therefore thus saieth the Lorde God, Beholde, I come against thee, O Tyrus, and I will bring vp many nations against thee, as the sea mounteth vp with his waues.

4 And they shall destroy the walles of Tyrus, and breake downe her towres: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rocke.

5 Thou shalt be for the spreading of nets in the middes of the sea: for I haue spoken it, saieth the Lord God, and it shalbe a spoile to the nations.

6 And her [d] daughters which are in the fielde, shall be slaine by the sword, and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 For thus saieth the Lord God, Behold, I will bring vpon Tyrus Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel, a King of Kings, from the North, with horses and with charets, and with horsemen, with a multitude and much people.

8 He shal slay with the sword thy daughters in the fielde, and hee shall mak a forte against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift vp the buckler against thee.

9 Hee shall set engins of warre before him against thy walles, and with his weapons breake downe thy towers.

10 The dust of his horses shall couer thee, for their multitude: thy walles shall shake at the noyse of the horsemen, and of the wheeles, and of the charets, when he shall enter into thy gates, as into the entrie of a citie that is broken downe.

11 With the hooues of his horses shall he treade downe all thy streetes: hee shall slay thy people by the sword, and the [e] pillars of thy strength shal fall downe to the ground.

12 And they shall robbe thy riches, and spoile thy marchandize, & they shall breake downe thy walles, and destroy thy pleasant houses, and they shall cast thy stones and thy timber and thy dust into the middes of the water.

13 *Thus will I cause the sound of thy songs to cease, & the sound of thine harpes shall be no more heard.

14 I will lay thee like the top of a rocke: [f] thou shalt be for a spreading of nets: thou shalt be built no more: for I the Lorde haue spoken it, saieth the Lord God.

15 Thus saieth the Lord God to Tyrus, Shall not the ples tremble at the sound of thy fall? and at the crie of the wounded, when they shall be slaine and murthered in the middes of thee?

16 Then all the princes of the [g] sea shall come downe from their thrones: they shall lay away their robes, and put off their broydred garments, and shall clothe themselues with astonishment: they shall sit vp on the ground and bee astonished at euery moment, and be amased at thee.

17 And they shal take vp a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, Howe art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited [b] of the sea men, the renowmed citie which was strong in the sea, both she and her inhabitants, which cause their feare to bee on all that haunt therein!

18 Nowe shall the ples be astonished in the day of thy fall: yea, the ples that are in the sea, shalbe troubled at thy departure.

19 For thus saieth the Lord God, when I shall make thee a desolate citie, like the cities that are not inhabited, and when I shall bring the deepe vpon thee, and great waters shall couer thee,

20 When I shall cast thee downe with them that descend into the pit with the people [i] of olde time, and shall set thee in the lowe parte of the earth, like the old ruines, with them, I say, which goe downe to the pit, so that thou shalt not be inhabited, and I shall shewe my glory in the land of the [k] liuing, 21 I will bring thee to nothing, and thou shalt be no more: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou neuer be found againe, saieth the Lord God. ‖Or, make thee a terrour.

CHAP. XXVII.

The Prophet bewaileth the desolation of Tyrus, shewing what were the riches, power and authoritie thereof in time past.

The worde of the Lorde came againe vnto me, saying:

2 Sonne of man, take vp a lamentation for Tyrus,

3 And say vnto Tyrus, that is situate at the entrie of the sea, which is the mart [a] of the people for many ples: Thus saieth the Lord God, O Tyrus, thou hast said, I am of perfite beautie.

4 Thy borders are in the ‡ middes of the sea, and thy builders haue made thee of perfite beautie. ‡Ebr. heart.

5 They haue made all thy ship boards of firre trees of [b] Shenir: they haue brought cedars from Lebanon, to make masts for thee.

6 Of the Okes of Bashan haue they made thine oyes: the company of the Assyrians haue made thy bankes of yuorie, brought out of the ples of [c] Chittim.

7 Fine linnen with broydered worke, brought from Egypt, was spread ouer thee to be thy saile, blewe silke & purple, brought from the ples of Elishah, was thy couering. ‖Or, shipmasters.

8 The inhabitants of Zidon and Arnad were thy mariners, O Tyrus: thy wise men that were in thee, they were thy ‖ pilots.

9 The ancients of Gebal, and the wise men thereof were in thee thy [d] calkers, all the shippes of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupie thy marchandise.

10 They of Persia, & of Lud & of Phut were were in thine armie: thy men of warre they hanged the shielde and helmet in thee: they set foorth thy beautie.

11 The men of Aruad with thine armie were vpon thy walles rounde about, and the e Gammadims were in thy towres: they hanged their shieldes vpon thy walles rounde about: they haue made thy beautie perfite.

12 They of Tarshish were thy marchants for the multitude of all riches, for siluer, yron, tinne, and lead, which they brought to thy faires.

13 They of f Iauan, Tubal and Meshech were thy marchants, g concerning the liues of men, and they brought vessels of brasse for thy marchandise.

14 They of the house of h Togarmah brought to thy faires, horses and horsemen, and mules.

15 The men of Dedan were thy marchants: and the marchandise of many Iles were in thine hande: they brought thee for a present, i homes, teeth, and peacockes.

16 They of Aram were thy marchants for the multitude of thy ‖ wares: they occupied in thy faires with ‖ emerandes, purple, and broydred worke, and ‖ fine linen, and corall, and pearle.

17 They of Iudah and of the land of Israel were thy marchants: they brought for thy marchandise wheate of k Minnith, and Pannag, and honie and oyle, and ‖ balme.

18 They of Damascus were thy marchants in the multitude of thy wares, for the multitude of all riches, as in the wine of Helbon and white woll.

19 They of Dan also and of Iauan, going to and fro, occupied in thy faires: yron worke, cassia and calamus were among thy marchandise.

20 They of Dedan were thy marchants in precious clothes for the charets.

21 They of Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar ‖ occupied with thee in lambes, and rammes, and goates: in these were they thy marchants.

22 The marchants of Sheba, and Raamah were thy marchants: they occupied in thy faires with the chiefe of all spices, and with all precious stones and golde.

23 They of Haran and Canneh and Eden, the marchants of Sheba, Asshur and Chilmad were thy marchants.

24 These were thy marchants in all sorts of things, in rayment of blewe silke, and of broydred worke, and in coffers for the riche apparell, which were bound with cordes: chames also were among thy marchandise.

25 The shippes of Tarshish ‖ were thy chiefe in thy marchandise, and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the middes of the sea.

26 Thy ‖ robbers haue brought thee into great waters: the l East winde hath broken thee in the mids of the sea.

27 Thy riches and thy faires, thy marchandise, thy mariners and pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy marchandise, and all thy men of warre that are in thee, and all the multitude which is in the middes of thee, shall fall in the middes of the sea, in the day of thy ruine.

28 The m suburbs shal shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots.

29 And all that handle the oze, the mariners and all the pilots of the sea shall come downe from their ships, and shall stand vpon the land,

30 And shal cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast dust vpon their heades, and wallowe themselues in the ashes.

31 They shall plucke off their haire for thee, and girde them with a sackecloth, and they shal weepe for thee, with sorow of heart and bitter mourning.

32 And in their mourning they shal take vp a lamentation for thee, saying, What citie is like Tyrus, so destroyed in the middes of the sea!

33 When thy wares went forth of the seas, thou filledst many people, and thou didest enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy marchandise.

34 When thou shalt be broken by the seas in the depthes of the waters, thy marchandise and all thy multitude, which was in the middes of thee, shall fall.

35 All the inhabitants of the Iles shall be astonished at thee, and al their kings shal be sore afrayd and troubled in their countenance.

36 The marchants among the people shall hisse at thee: thou shalt bee a terrour, and neuer shalt be n any more.

CHAP. XXVIII.

2 The word of God against the King of Tyrus for his pride. 21 The worde of the Lord against Zidon. 25 The Lord promiseth that he will gather together the children of Israel.

THe word of the Lorde came againe vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, Say vnto the Prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord God, Because thine heart is exalted, and thou hast sayd, a I am a god, I sit in the seate of God in the middes of the sea, yet thou art but a man and not God, and ‡ though thou didst thinke in thine heart, that thou wast equall with God,

3 Beholde, thou art wiser then b Daniel: there is no secret, that they can hide from thee.

4 With thy wisedome and thine vnderstanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten golde and siluer into thy treasures.

5 By thy great wisedome and by thine occupying hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted vp because of thy riches.

6 Therefore thus saieth the Lorde God, Because thou biddest thinke in thine heart, that thou wast equall with God,

7 Beholde, therefore I will bring strangers vpon thee, euen the terrible nations: and they shall drawe their swordes against ‡ Ebr. though thou set thine heart as the heart of God.

b Thus he speaketh by derision: for Daniel had declared notable signes of his wisdome in Babylon, when Ezekiel wrote this, against the beautie of thy wiſedome, and they ſhall defile thy brightneſſe.

8 They ſhall caſt thee downe to the pit, and thou ſhalt die the death of them, that are ſlaine in the middes of the ſea.

9 Wilt thou ſay then before him, that ſlaieth thee, I am a god? but thou ſhalt bee a man, and no God, in the hands of him that ſlayeth thee.

10 Thou ſhalt die the death of the [e] vncircumciſed by the handes of ſtrangers: for I haue ſpoken it, ſaith the Lord God.

11 Moreouer the word of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,

12 Sonne of man, take vp a lamentation vpon the King of Tyrus, and ſay vnto him, Thus ſaith the Lord God, Thou ſealeſt vp the ſimilitude, and art full of [d] wiſedome and perfect in beautie.

13 Thou haſt bene in Eden the garden of God: euery precious ſtone was in thy garment, the rubie, the topaze, & the ‖ diamond, the chryſolite, the onix, and the iaſper, the ſaphir ‖ emerald, and the carbuncle of golde: the workemanſhip of thy timbrels, and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou waſt created.

14 Thou art [e] the anointed Cherub, that coūereth, and I haue ſet thee [f] in honour: thou waſt vpon the holy mountaine of God: thou haſt walked in the middes of the ſtones of fire.

15 Thou waſt perfect in thy wayes from the day that thou waſt [g] created, till iniquitie was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy marchandiſe, they haue filled the midſt of thee with cruelties, and thou haſt ſinned: therefore I will caſt thee as prophane out of the [h] mountaine of God: and I will deſtroy thee, O couering Cherub, from the middes of the ſtones of fire.

17 Thine heart was lifted vp, becauſe of thy beautie, and thou haſt corrupted thy wiſedome by reaſon of thy brightneſſe: I will caſt thee to the ground: I will lay thee before Kings, that they may behold thee.

18 Thou haſt defiled thy [i] ſanctification by the multitude of thine iniquities, and by the iniquitie of thy marchandiſe: therefore will I bring footh a fire from the midſt of thee, which ſhall deuoure thee: and I will bring thee to aſhes vpon the earth, in the ſight of all them that behold thee.

19 All they that knowe thee among the people, ſhall be aſtoniſhed at thee: thou ſhalt be ‖ a terrour, and neuer ſhalt thou bee any more.

20 ¶ Againe, the word of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

21 Sonne of man, ſet thy face againſt Zidon, and prophecie againſt it, 22 And ſay, Thus ſaieth the Lorde God, Behold, I come againſt thee, O Zidon, and I will be [k] glorified in the midſt of thee: and they ſhall knowe that I am the Lord, when I ſhall haue executed iudgements in her, and ſhall be ſanctified in her.

23 For I will ſend into her peſtilence, and blood into her ſtreetes, & the ſlaine ſhall fall in the middes of her: [m] the enemie ſhall come against her with the ſworde on euery ſide, and they ſhall know that I am the Lord.

24 And there ſhall be no more a pricking thorne vnto the houſe of Iſrael, nor any grieuous thorne of all that are rounde about them, and deſpiſed them, and they ſhall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Thus ſaieth the Lorde God, when I ſhall haue gathered the houſe of Iſrael from the people where they are ſcattered, and ſhall bee [n] ſanctified in them in the ſight of the heathen, then ſhall they dwell in the lande, that I haue giuen to my ſeruaunt Iaakob, 26 And they ſhall dwell ſafely therein, and ſhall build houſes and plant vineyardes: yea, they ſhall dwel ſafely, when I haue executed iudgements vpon all rounde about them that deſpiſe them, and they ſhall know that I am the Lord their God.

CHAP. XXIX.

He prophecieth againſt Pharaoh and Egypt, 13 The Lorde promiſeth that he will reſtore Egypt after fourtie yeeres. 18 Egypt is the reward of King Nebuchad-nezzar for the labour which he tooke againſt Tyrus.

1 In the [a] tenth yeere, and in the tenth moneth, in the twelfth day of the moneth, the word of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,

2 Sonne of man, ſet thy face againſt Pharaoh the King of Egypt, and prophecie againſt him, and againſt all Egypt.

3 Speake, and ſay, Thus ſaith the Lorde God, Behold, I come againſt thee, O Pharaoh King of Egypt, the great [b] dragon, that lieth in the midſt of his riuers, which hath ſayde, The riuer is mine, and I haue made it for my ſelfe.

4 But I will put [c] hookes in thy chawes, and I will cauſe the fiſh of thy riuers to ſticke vnto thy ſcales, and I will draw thee out of the middes of thy riuers, and all the fiſh of thy riuers ſhall ſticke vnto thy ſcales.

5 And I will leaue thee in the wilderneſſe, both thee and all the fiſh of thy riuers: thou ſhalt fall vpon the open fielde: thou ſhalt not be brought together, nor gathered: for I haue giuen thee for meat to the beaſts of the fielde, and to the foules of the heauen.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde, becauſe they haue bene a ſtaffe of [d] reede to the houſe of Iſrael.

7 When they tooke holde of thee with their hand, thou diddeſt breake, and rent all their ſhoulder: and when they leaned vpon thee, thou braketeſt & madeſt all their loynes to ‖ ſtand [e] vpright.

8 Therefore thus ſaith the Lorde God, Behold, I wil bring a ſword vpon thee, and deſtroy man and beaſt out of thee,

9 And the land of Egypt ſhalbe deſolate, and waſte, and they ſhall knowe that I am the Lord: becauſe he hath ſaid, [f] The riuer is mine, and I haue made it,

13 Yet thus saith the Lord God, * At the end of fortie yeeres wil I gather the Egyptians from the people, where they were scattered,

14 And I will bring againe the captiuitie of Egypt, and wil cause them to returne into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation, and they shall bee there a small kingdome.

g Meaning, that they should not haue full dominion, but be vnder the Persians, Grecians & Romanes, and the cause is, that the Israelites should no more put their trust in them, but learne to depend on God, 15 It shalbe the smallest of the kingdoms, neither shall it exalt it selfe any more aboue the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule the nations.

16 And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, to bring their h iniquitie to remembrance by looking after them, so shal they know, that I am the Lord God.

h Least I should by this meanes punish their sinnes.

17 ¶ In the i seuen and twentieth yeere also in the first moneth, and in the first day of the moneth came the word of the Lord vnto me, saying,

i Counting from the captiuitie of Ieconiah.

18 Sonne of man, Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel caused his armie to serue a great k seruice against Tyrus: euery head was made balde, and euery shoulder was made bare: yet had he no wages, l nor his armie for Tyrus, for the seruice that he serued against it.

k He tooke great paines at the siege of Tyrus, and his armie was sore handled.

l Signifying, that Nebuchad-nezzar had more paines then profite, by the taking of Tyrus.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will giue the land of Egypt vnto Nebuchad-nezzar the king of Babel, and he shall take her multitude, and spoyle her spoyle, and take her pray, and it shall be the wages for his armie.

CHAP. XXX.

The destruction of Egypt, and the Cities thereof.

THe word of the Lord came againe vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, prophesie and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Howle and crie, Wo be vnto this day.

3 For the day is neere, and the day of the Lord is at hand, a cloudie day, and it shal be the time of the heathen.

4 And the sword shal come vpon Egypt, & feare shalbe in Ethiopia, when the slaine shall fall in Egypt, when they shall take away her multitude, and when her foundations shalbe broken downe.

a By Phut and Lud are meant Aphrica and Lybia.

5 a Ethiopia, and Phut, and Lud, and all the common people, and Cub, and the men of the land, that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 Thus saith the Lord, They also that maintaine Egypt, shall fall, and the pride of her power shall come downe: from the tower of b Seueneh shall they fall by the sword, saith the Lord God.

b Which was a strong citie of Egypt, chap. 29. 10.

7 And they shalbe desolate in the middes of the countreys that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the mids of the cities that are waste.

8 And they shall knowe that I am the Lord, when I haue set a fire in Egypt, and when all her helpers shalbe destroyed.

9 In that day shall there messengers go forth from me in ships, to make the careless Moores afraid, and feare shall come vpon them as in the day of Egypt: for lo, it commeth.

10 Thus saith the Lord God, I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel.

11 For he and his people with him, euen the terrible nations shalbe brought to destroy the land: and they shall drawe their swordes against Egypt, and fill the land with the slaine.

12 And I will make the riuers drie, and sell the land into the handes of the wicked, and I wil make the land waste, and all that therein is, by the hands of strangers: I the Lord haue spoken it.

13 Thus saith the Lord God, I will also destroy the idoles, and I will cause their idoles to cease out of ‖ Noph, and there shal be no more a Prince of the land of Egypt, and I wil send a feare in the land of Egypt.

‖ Or, Memphis, or Alkara.

14 And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire in ‖ Zoan, and I will execute iudgement in No.

‖ Or, Tanis.

15 And I will powre my wrath vpon ‖ Sin, which is the strength of Egypt: and I will destroy the multitude of ‖ No.

‖ Or, Pelusium.

‖ Or, Alexandria.

16 And I wil set fire in Egypt: Sin shal haue great sorow, and No shalbe destroyed, and Noph shall haue sorowes daily.

17 The yong men of ‖ Auen, & of ‖ Phibeseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall goe into captiuitie.

‖ Or, Heliopolis.

‖ Or, Tubastum.

18 At Tehaphnehes the day c shall restraine his light, when I shall breake there the d barres of Egypt: and when the pompe of her power shall cease in her, the cloude shall couer her, and her daughters shall goe into captiuitie.

c Meaning, that there shall be great sorow and affliction.

d That is, the strength and force.

19 Thus will I execute iudgements in Egypt, and they shall know, that I am the Lord.

20 ¶ And in the e eleuenth yeere, in the first moneth, and in the seuenth day of the moneth, the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying, e Of the captiuitie of Ieconiah, or of Zedekiahs reigne.

21 Sonne of man, f I haue broken the arme of Pharaoh king of Egypt: and loe, it shall not be bound vp to be healed, neither shall they put a roll to binde it, and so make it strong, to hold the sword.

f For Nebuchadnezzar destroyed Pharaoh Necho at Carchemish, Ier. 46. 26.

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I come against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will breake his g arme, that g His force and power.

was strong, but is broken, and I will cause the swoord to fall out of his hand.

23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countreys.

24 And I will strengthen the arme of the king of Babel, and put my swoord in his hand, but I will breake Pharaohs armes, and he shall cast out sighings, as the sighings of him, that is wounded before him.

25 But I will strengthen the armes of the king of Babel, and the armes of Pharaoh shall fall downe, and they shall know, that I am the Lord, [h] when I shall put my swoorde into the hand of the king of Babel, and hee shall stretch it out vpon the land of Egypt.

26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, & disperse them among the countreys, and they shall know, that I am the Lord.

h Hereby we see that tyrants haue no power of themselues, neither can doe any more harme then God appointeth, and when he will, they must cease.

CHAP. XXXI.

2 A comparison of the prosperitie of Pharaoh with the prosperitie of the Assyrians. 10 He propheseth a like destruction to themboth.

AND in the [a] eleuenth yeere, in the third moneth, and in the first day of the moneth, the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, speake vnto Pharaoh king of Egypt, & to his multitude, Whom art thou [b] like in thy greatnesse?

3 Behold, Assiur was like a cedar in Lebanon with faire branches, and with thicke shadowing boughes, and hot vp very hie, and his top was among the thicke boughs.

4 The waters nourished him, and the deepe exalted him on hie with her riuers running round about his plantes, and sent out her [c] little riuers vnto all the trees of the ‖ field.

5 Therefore his height was exalted aboue all the trees of the field, & his boughes were multiplied, and his branches were long, because of the multitude of the waters, which the deepe sent out.

6 All the foules of the heauen made their nests in his boughs, & vnder his branches did all the beastes of the field bring foorth their yong, and vnder his shadow dwelt all mightie nations.

7 Thus was he faire in his greatnesse, & in the length of his branches: for his root was neere great waters.

8 The cedars in the garden [d] of God could not hide him: no firre tree was like his branches, and the chesnut trees were not like his boughes: all the trees in the garden of God were not like vnto him in his beautie.

9 I made him faire by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, enuied him.

10 Therefore thus saieth the Lord God, Because ‖ he is lift vp on high, & hath shot vp his top among the thicke boughs, and his heart is lift vp in his height, 11 I haue therefore deliuered him into the handes of the [e] mightiest among the heathen: he shall handle him, for I haue cast him away for his wickednesse.

12 And [f] strangers haue destroyed him, euen the terrible nations, and they haue left him vpon the mountaines, and in all the vallepes his branches are fallen, and his boughs are [f] broken by all the riuers of the land: and all the people of the earth are departed from his shadow, and haue forsaken him.

13 Vpon his ruine shall all the foules of the heauen remaine, and all the beasts of the field shalbe vpon his branches, 14 So that none of all the trees by the waters shall be exalted by their height, neither shall shoot vp their top among [g] thicke boughes, neither shall their leaues stand vp in their height, which drinke so much water: for they are all deliuered vnto death in the neather partes of the earth in the midst of the children of men among them that go downe to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord God, In the day when he went downe to hel, I caused them to mourne, & I [g] couered the deepe for him, and I did restreine the floods thereof, & the great waters were staied: I caused Lebanon to mourne for him, and all the trees of the field fainted.

16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him downe to hell, with them that descend into the pit, and all the excellent trees of Eden, and the best of Lebanon: euen all that are nourished with waters, shall [h] be comforted in the neather partes of the earth.

17 They also went downe to hell with him vnto them that be slaine [i] by the swoord, and his arme, & they that dwelt vnder his shadow in the mids of the heathen.

18 To whom [i] art thou thus like in glory and in greatnesse among the trees of Eden? yet thou shalt be cast downe with the trees of Eden vnto the nether partes of the earth: thou shalt sleepe in the mids of the [k] vncircumcised, with them that bee slaine by the swoord: this is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

f Hereby is signified the destruction of the power of the Assyrians by the Babylonians.

g The deepe waters that caused him to mount so high (meaning his great abundance & pompe) shall now lament as though they were couered with sackcloth.

h To cause this destruction of the king of Assyria, to seeme more horrible, he setteth foorth other Kings and Princes which are dead, as though they reioyced at the fall of such a tyrant.

i Meaning, that Pharaohs power was nothing so great as his was.

k Read Chap. 28.10.

CHAP. XXXII.

2 The Prophet is commaunded to bewaile Pharaoh king of Egypt. 12 He propheseth that destruction shall come vnto Egypt through the king of Babylon.

AND in the [a] twelft yeere in the twelft moneth, & in the first day of the moneth, the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, take vp a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, & say vnto him, Thou art like a [b] lion of the nations, and art as a ‖ dragon in the sea: thou castedst out thy riuers, and troubledst the waters with thy feete, and stampedst in their riuers.

3 Thus saieth the Lord God, * I will therefore spread my net ouer thee [c] with a great multitude of people, and they shall make thee come vp into my net.

4 Then will I leaue thee vpon the land and I will cast thee vpon the open field, and I will cause all the foules of the heauen to remaine vpon thee, and I will fill all

5 And I wil lay thy flesh vpon ᵖ mountaines, & fill the valleys ᵈ with thine height.

6 I will also water with thy blood the lande wherein thou ᵉ swimmest, euen to the mountaines, and the riuers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall ᶠ put thee out, I wil couer the heauen, and make the starres thereof darke: * I will couer the sunne with a cloud, and the moone shall not giue her light.

8 All the lights of heauen will I make darke for thee, and bring ᵍ darkenesse vpon thy land, saith the Lord God.

9 I will also trouble the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, and vpon the countreis which thou hast not knowen.

10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, & their kings shall be astonished with feare of thee, when I shall make my sword to glitter against their faces, & they shalbe afrayd at euery moment: euery man for his owne life in the day of thy fall.

11 For this saieth the Lorde God, The sword of the king of Babel shal come vpon thee.

12 By the swords of the mightie will I cause thy multitude to fall: they all shall be terrible nations, and they shall destroy the ʰ pompe of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be consumed.

13 I wil destroy also all the beasts thereof from the great water sides, neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoones of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make ⁱ their waters deepe, and cause their riuers to runne like oyle, saith the Lord God.

15 When I shal make the land of Egypt desolate, and the countrey with all that is therein, shall be laied waste: when I shall smite all them, which dwell therein, then shall they know, that I am the Lord.

16 This is the mourning wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saieth the Lord God.

17 ¶ In the twelfth yeere, also in the fifteenth day of the moneth, came the word of the Lord vnto me, saying,

18 Sonne of man, lament for the multitude of Egypt, and ᵏ cast them downe, euen them and the daughters of the mightie nations vnto the nether partes of the earth, with them that go downe into the pit.

19 Whom doest thou passe ˡ in beautie? goe downe & sleepe with the vncircumcised.

20 They shall fall in the middes of them that are slaine by the sword: ᵐ shee is deliuered to the sword: draw her downe, and all her multitude.

21 The most mightie and strong shall speake to ⁿ him out of the mids of hell with them that helpe her: they are gone downe and sleepe with the vncircumcised that bee slaine by the sword.

22 Asshur is there and all his company: their graues are about him: all they are slaine and fallen by the sword.

23 Whose graues are made in the side of the pit, and his multitude are round about his graue: all they are slaine and fallen by the sword, which caused feare to be in the land of the liuing.

24 There is ᵒ Elam & all his multitude round about his graue: all they are slaine and fallen by the swoorde, which are gone downe with the vncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused themselues to bee feared in the land of the liuing, yet haue they borne their shame with them that are gone downe to the pit.

25 They haue made his bed in the mids of the slaine with all his multitude: their graues are round about him: all these vncircumcised are slaine by the sword: though they haue caused their feare in the land of the liuing, yet haue they borne their shame with them that goe downe to the pit: they are laide in the middes of them that bee slaine.

26 There is ᵠ Meshech, Tubal, and all their multitude: their graues are round about them: all these vncircumcised were slaine by the swoorde, though they caused their feare to be in the land of the liuing.

27 And they shal not lie with the valiant ʳ of the vncircumcised, that are fallen, which are gone downe to the graue, with their weapons of warre, and haue laide their swoordes vnder their heads, but their iniquitie shall bee vpon their bones: because they were the feare of the mightie in the land of the liuing.

28 Yea thou shalt be broken in the mids of the vncircumcised, and lye with them that are slaine by the sword.

29 There is Edom, his kings, and all his princes, which with their strength are laid by them that were slaine by the sword: they shall sleepe with the vncircumcised, and with them that goe downe to the pit.

30 There be al the princes of the ˢ North, with all the Zidonians, which are gone downe with the slaine, with their feare: they are ashamed of their strength, and the vncircumcised sleepe with them that bee slaine by the sword, and beare their shame with them that goe downe to the pit.

31 Pharaoh shall see them, and he shalbe ᵗ comforted ouer all his multitude: Pharaoh, and all his armie shall be slaine by the sword, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XXXIII.

2 The office of the gouernours and ministers. 14 He strengtheneth them that despaire, and boldeneth them with the promes of mercie. 30 The worde of the Lord against the mockers of the Prophet.

AGaine the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, speake to the children of thy people, and say vnto them, When

‖ Or, of their coasts.

I bring the sword vpon a land, if the people of the land take a man ‖ from among them, and make him their [a] watchman,

3 If when hee seeth the sword come vpon the land, he blow the trumpet, & warne the people,

4 Then hee that heareth the sound of the trumpet, and will not bee warned, if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shalbe vpon his owne head.

5 For he heard the sound of the trumpet, and would not be admonished: therefore his blood shalbe vpon him: but hee that receiueth warning, shall saue his life.

6 But if the watchman see the sworde come, and blowe not the trumpet, and the people bee not warned: if the sworde come, and take any person from among them, hee is taken away for his [b] iniquitie, but his blood will I require at the watchmans hand.

7 * So thou, O sonne of man, I haue made thee a watchman vnto the house of Israel: therfore thou shalt heare the word at my [c] mouth, and admonish them from me.

8 When I shall say vnto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt die the death, if thou doest not speake, and admonish the wicked of his way, that wicked man shall die for his iniquitie, but his blood will I [d] require at thine hand.

9 Neuertheless, if thou warne the wicked of his way, to turne from it, if hee doe not turne from his way, he shall die for his iniquitie, but thou hast deliuered thy soule.

10 Therefore, O thou sonne of man, speake vnto the house of Israel, Thus yee speake and say, If our transgressions & our sinnes be vpon vs, and we are consumed because of them, [e] how should we then liue?

11 Say vnto them, As I liue, saieth the Lord God, [f] I desire not the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turne from his way and liue: turne you, turne you from your euill wayes, for why will ye die, O ye house of Israel?

12 Therefore thou sonne of man, say vnto the children of thy people, The [g] righteousnesse of the righteous shall not deliuer him in the day of his transgression, nor the wickednesse of the wicked shall cause him to fall therein, in the day that hee returneth from his wickednesse, neither shall the righteous liue for his righteousnesse in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say vnto the righteous, that hee shall surely liue, if hee trust to his owne righteousnesse, and commit iniquitie, all his righteousnesse shall be no more remembred, but for his iniquitie that he hath committed, he shall die for the same.

14 Againe when I shall say vnto the wicked, Thou shalt die the death, if he turne from his sinne, and doe that which is lawfull and [h] right, 15 To wit, if the wicked restore the pledge, and giue againe that he had robbed, & walke in the statutes of life, without committing iniquitie, he shall surely liue, and not die.

16 None of his sinnes that he hath committed, shall bee mentioned vnto him: because he hath done that, which is lawful and right, he shall surely liue.

17 Yet the children of thy people say, * The way of the Lord is not equall: but their owne way is vnequall.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousnesse, and committeth iniquitie, he shall euen die thereby.

19 But if the wicked returne from his wickednesse, and doe that which is lawfull, and right, he shall liue thereby.

20 Yet ye say, the way of the Lord is not equall. O ye house of Israel, I will iudge you euery one after his wayes.

21 Also in the twelfth yeere of our captiuitie, in the tenth moneth, and in the fift day of the moneth, one that had escaped out of Jerusalem, came vnto mee, and said, The citie is smitten.

22 Now the [k] hand of the Lord had bene vpon me in the euening afore hee that had escaped, came, and had opened my mouth, vntil he came to me in the morning: and when hee had opened my [l] mouth, I was no more dumme.

23 Againe the word of the Lord came vnto me, and said,

24 Sonne of man, these that dwell in the desolate places of the land of Israel, talke and say, [m] Abraham was but one, and hee possessed the land: but we are many, therefore the land shall be giuen vs in possession.

25 Wherefore say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Yee eate with the [n] blood, and lift vp your eyes toward your idoles, and shedde blood: shoulde yee then possesse the land?

26 Yee leane vpon your [o] swordes: yee worke abomination, and ye defile euery one his neighbours wife: should yee then possesse the land?

27 Say thus vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God, As I liue, so surely they that are in the desolate places, shall fall by the sword: and him that is in the open field, will I giue vnto the beasts to be deuoured: and they that bee in the fortes and in the caues, shall die of the pestilence.

28 For I will lay the lande desolate and waste, and the * pompe of her strength shall cease: and the mountaines of Israel, shalbe desolate, and none shall passe thorow.

29 Then shall they know that I am the Lord, when I haue laied the land desolate and waste, because of all their abominations, that they haue committed.

30 Also thou sonne of man, the children of thy people that [p] talke of thee by the walles and in the doores of houses, and speake one to another, euery one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and heare what is the word that commeth frō the Lord.

31 For they come vnto thee, as the people vseth to come: and my people sit before thee, and heare thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouthes they make [q] iestes, and their heare goeth after their couetousnesse.

32 And loe, thou art vnto them, as a [r] iesting song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can sing wel: for they heare thy words, but

CHAP. XXXIIII.

1 Against the shepheards that despised the flocke of Christ, and seeke their owne gaine. 7 The Lorde saith that he will visite his dispersed flocke, and gather them together. 23 He promiseth the true shepheard Christ, and wisheth him peace.

AND the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, prophesie against the shepherds of Israel, prophesie and say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God vnto the shepheards,* Woe be vnto the [a] shepheards of Israel, that feede themselues: should not the shepheards feede the flockes?

3 Ye eate the [b] fatte, and ye clothe you with the wooll: ye kill them that are fedde, but ye feede not the sheepe.

4 The [c] weake haue ye not strengthened: the sicke haue ye not healed, neither haue ye bound vp the broken, nor brought againe that which was driuen away, neither haue yee sought that which was lost, but with crueltie, and with rigor haue ye ruled them.

5 And they were scattered without a shepheard: and when they were dispersed, they were [d] deuoured of all the beastes of the field.

6 My sheepe wandred through all the mountaines, and vpon euery hie hill: yea, my flocke was scattered throwe all the earth, & none did seeke or search after them.

7 Therefore yee shepheards, heare the worde of the Lord.

8 As I liue, saith the Lorde God, surely because my flocke was spoyled, and my sheepe were deuoured of all the beastes of the field, hauing no shepheard, neither did my shepheards seeke my sheepe, but the shepheards fed themselues, and fed not my sheepe, 9 Therefore, heare yee the worde of the Lord, O ye shepheards.

10 Thus saith the Lord God, Beholde, I come against the shepheards, and will require my sheepe at their hands, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheepe: neither shall the shepheards feede themselues any more: for I will deliuer my sheepe from [e] their mouthes, and they shall no more deuoure them.

11 For thus saith the Lord God, Beholde, I will search my sheepe, & seeke them out.

12 As a shepheard searcheth out his flocke, when he hath bin among his sheepe that are scattered, so will I seeke out my sheepe, and will deliuer them out of all places, where they haue bene scattered in [f] the cloudie and darke day.

13 And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countreyes, and will bring them to their owne land, and feede them vpon [g] the mountaines of Israel, by the riuers, and in all the inhabited places of the countrey.

14 I will feed them in a good pasture, and vpon the hie mountaines of Israel shal their fold be: there shall they lye in a good folde, and in fat pasture shall they feede vpon the mountaines of Israel.

15 I will feed my sheepe, and bring them to their rest, saith the Lord God.

16 I will seeke that which was lost, and bring againe that which was driuen away, and will binde vp that which was broken, and will strengthen the weake, but I will destroy the fatte and the [g] strong, and I will feede them with [h] iudgement.

17 Also you my sheepe, Thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde, I iudge betweene sheepe and sheepe, betweene the rammes and the goates.

18 Seemeth it a small thing vnto you to haue eaten vp the good [i] pasture, but ye must tread downe with your feete the residue of your pasture? and to haue drunke of the deepe waters, but ye must trouble the residue with your feete?

19 And my sheepe eate that which yee haue troden with your feete, & drinke that which ye haue troubled with your feete.

20 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God vnto them, Beholde, I, euen I will iudge betweene the fat sheepe and the leane sheepe.

21 Because ye haue thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the weake with your hornes, till yee haue scattered them abroad.

22 Therefore will I helpe my sheepe, and they shall no more be spoyled, and I will iudge betweene sheepe and sheepe.

23 And I will set vp a shepheard ouer them, and he shall feede them, euen my seruant [k] Dauid, he shall feede them, and hee shall be their shepheard.

24 And I the Lord will be their God, and my seruant Dauid shall be the prince among them, I the Lord haue spoken it.

25 And I will make with them a couenant of peace, and will cause the euil beastes to cease out of the land: and they shall [l] dwel safely in the wildernesse, and sleepe in the woods.

26 And I will set them, as a blessing, euen round about my mountaine: and I will cause raine to come downe in due season, and there shall be raine of blessing.

27 And the [m] tree of the field shall yeelde her fruite, and the earth shall giue her fruit, and they shalbe safe in their land, and shall knowe that I am the Lord, when I haue broken the coardes of their yoke, and deliuered them out of the hands of those that serued themselues of them.

28 And they shall no more be spoyled of the heathen, neither shall the beastes of the land deuoure them, but they shall dwel safely, and none shall make them afraid.

29 And I will raise vp for them a [n] plant of renowme, & they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither beare the reproch of the heathen any more.

30 Thus shall they vnderstand, that I the Lord their God am with them, and that they, euen the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord God.

31 And ye my sheepe, the sheepe of my pasture are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God.

2. The destruction that shall come on mount Seir, because they troubled the people of the Lord.

MOreouer the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, set thy face against mount [a] Seir, and prophesie against it,

3 And say vnto it, Thus sayth the Lord God, Beholde, O mount Seir, I come against thee, & I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee desolate and waste.

4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

5 Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred and hast put the children of Israel to flight by the force of the sworde in the time of their calamitie, when their [b] iniquitie had an ende,

6 Therefore as I liue, sayeth the Lorde God, I will prepare thee vnto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: except thou [c] hate blood, euen blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Seir desolate, and waste, and cut off from it him that passeth out and him that returneth.

8 And I will fill his mountaines with his slaine men: in thine hilles, and in thy valleys and in all thy riuers shall they fall, that are slaine with the sword.

9 I will make thee perpetuall desolations, and thy cities shall not [d] returne, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

10 Because thou hast saide, [e] These two nations, and these two countreys shall be mine, and we will possesse them (seeing the Lord was [f] there)

11 Therefore as I liue, sayeth the Lorde God, I wil euē do according to thy wrath, and according to thine indignation which thou hast vsed in thine hatred against thē: and I will make my selfe knowen among [h] them when I haue iudged thee.

12 And thou shalt know, that I the Lord haue heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountaines of Israel, saying, They lie waste, they are giuen vs to be deuoured.

13 Thus with your mouthes ye haue boasted against me, and haue multiplied your wordes against me: I haue heard them.

14 Thus sayth the Lorde God, So shall al the world reioyce, when I shal make thee desolate.

15 As thou diddest reioyce at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I doe vnto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea wholly, and they shall knowe, that I am the Lord.

CHAP. XXXVI.

8 He promiseth to deliuer Israel from the Gentiles. 22 The benefites done vnto the Iewes, are to be ascribed to the mercie of God, and not vnto their deseruings. 26 God reneweth our hearts, that we may walke in his commandements.

ALso thou sonne of man, prophesie vnto the * mountaines of Israel, and say, Ye mountaines of Israel, heare the worde of the Lord.

2 Thus sayeth the Lorde God, Because the [a] enemie hath saide against you, Aha, euen the [b] hie places of the worlde are ours in possession,

3 Therefore prophesie, & say, Thus saith the Lorde God, Because that they haue made you desolate, and swallowed you vp on euery side, that ye might be a possession vnto the residue of the heathen, and ye are come vnto the lippes and [c] tongues of men, and vnto the reproche of the people,

4 Therefore ye mountaines of Israel, heare the word of [b] Lord God, Thus saith the Lorde God to the mountaines & to the hilles, to the riuers, and to the valleys, and to the waste, and desolate places, and to the cities that are forsaken: which are spoyled and had in derision of the residue of the heathen that are round about.

5 Therefore thus sayeth the Lord God, Surely in the fire of mine indignation haue I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which [d] haue taken my land for their possession, with [b] ioy of all their heart, and with despiteful mindes to cast it out for a pray.

6 Prophesie therefore vpon the lande of Israel, and say vnto the mountaines, and to the hilles, to the riuers, and to the valleyes, Thus sayth the Lord God, Behold, I haue spoken in mine indignation, and in my wrath, because ye haue suffered the [e] shame of the heathen,

7 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, I haue [f] lifted vp mine hande, surely the heathen that are about you, shall beare their shame.

8 But you, O mountaines of Israel, ye shall [g] shoote foorth your branches, & bring foorth your fruite to my people of Israel: for they are ready to come.

9 For beholde, I come vnto you, and I will turne vnto you, and ye shall be tilled and sowen.

10 And I will multiplie the men vpon you, euen all the house of Israel wholly, and the cities shall be inhabited, and the desolate places shall be builded.

11 And I will multiply vpon you man and beast, and they shall increase and bring fruite, and I will cause you to dwell after your old estate, and I wil bestow benefites vpon you more then [h] at the first, and ye shall knowe that I am the Lord.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walke vpon [i] you, euen my people Israel, and they shall possesse ‖ you, and ye shall be their inheritance, and ye shall no more henceforth despoile them of men.

13 Thus saith [b] Lord God, Because they say vnto you, Thou [k] lande deuourest vp men, and hast bene a waster of thy people,

14 Therefore thou shalt deuoure men no more, neither waste thy people henceforth, saith the Lord God, 15 Neither will I cause men to heare in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou beare the reproche of the people any more, neither shalt cause thy folke to fall any more, saith the Lord God.

16 ¶ Moreouer the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying, 17 Sonne of man, when the houſe of Iſrael dwelt in their owne lande, they defiled it by their owne waies, and by their deedes: their way was before mee as the filthineſſe of the menſtruous.

18 Wherefore I powred my wrath vpon them, for the blood that they had ſhed in the land, and for their idoles, wherewith they had polluted it.

19 And I ſcattered them among the heathen, and they were diſperſed thorow the countries: for according to their wayes, and according to their deedes, I iudged them.

20 And when they entred vnto the heathen, whither they went, they polluted mine holy Name, when they ſaid of them, Iſa.52.5. rom. 2.14. These are the people of the Lorde, and are gone out of his land.

21 But I fauoured mine holy [l] Name which the houſe of Iſrael had polluted among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore ſay vnto the houſe of Iſrael, Thus ſaith the Lord God, I do not this for your ſakes, O houſe of Iſrael, but for mine [m] holy Names ſake, which ye polluted among the heathen whither ye went.

23 And I will ſanctifie my great Name, which was polluted among the heathen, among whome you haue polluted it, and the heathen ſhal know that I am the Lord, ſaith the Lord God, when I ſhall be ſanctified in you before their eyes.

24 For I will take you from among the heathen, & gather you out of all countreys, and will bring you into your owne land.

25 Then wil I powre cleane [n] water vpon you, and ye ſhall be cleane: yea, from all your filthineſſe, and from all your idoles will I cleanſe you.

26 *A newe heart alſo will I giue you, and a new ſpirit wil I put within you, & I wil take away the ſtony heart out of your body, and I will giue you an heart of fleſh.

27 And I will put my Spirite within you, & cauſe you to walke in my ſtatutes, and ye ſhall keepe my iudgements and doe them.

28 And ye ſhall dwell in the land, that I gaue to your fathers, & ye ſhall be my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will alſo deliuer you from all your filthineſſe, & I will call for [o] corne, and will increaſe it, and lay no famine vpon you.

30 For I will multiplie the fruite of the trees, and the increaſe of the fielde, that ye ſhall beare no more the reproche of famine among the heathen.

31 Then ſhall ye remember your owne wicked wayes, and your deedes that were not good, and ſhall iudge your ſelues worthie to haue bene [p] deſtroyed for your iniquities, and for your abominations.

32 Be it knowen vnto you that I do not this for your ſakes, ſayeth the Lorde God: therefore, O ye houſe of Iſrael, be aſhamed, and confounded for your owne wayes.

33 Thus ſayeth the Lord God, What time as I ſhal haue cleanſed you frō all your iniquities, I will cauſe you to dwell in the cities, & the deſolate places ſhalbe builded.

34 And the deſolate lande ſhall be tilled, whereas it lay waſte in the ſight of all that paſſed by.

35 For they ſayd, This waſte land was like the garden of Eden, & theſe waſte and deſolate & ruinous cities were ſtrong, and were inhabited.

36 Then the reſidue of the heathen that are left round about you, ſhall [q] know that I the Lorde builde the ruinous places, and plant the deſolate places: I the Lorde haue ſpoken it, and will doe it.

37 Thus ſayth the Lord God, I will yet for this be ſought of the houſe of Iſrael, to performe it vnto them: I wil increaſe them with men like a flocke.

38 As the holy flocke, as the flocke of Ieruſalem in their ſolemne feaſts, ſo ſhall the deſolate cities be filled with flocks of men, and they ſhall know, that I am the Lord.

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 He propheſieth the bringing againe of the people being in captiuitie. 16 He ſheweth the vnion of the ten tribes with the two.

THe hand of the Lord was vpon me, and caried me out in the Spirit of the Lord, and ſet me downe in the midſt of the ‖ field, which was full of [a] bones.

2 And hee led me round about by them, and beholde, there were very many in the open field, and loe, they were very drie.

3 And he ſayd vnto me, Sonne of man, can theſe bones line? And I anſwered, O Lord God, thou knoweſt.

4 Againe he ſayde vnto mee, Propheſie vpon theſe bones and ſay vnto them, O ye drie bones, heare the worde of the Lord.

5 Thus ſayth the Lorde God vnto theſe bones, Beholde, I will cauſe breath to enter into you, and ye ſhall line.

6 And I will lay ſinewes vpon you, and make fleſh growe vpon you, and couer you with ſkin, & put breath in you, that ye may liue, and ye ſhall know that I am the Lord.

7 So I propheſied, as I was commanded: & as I propheſied, there was a noyſe, and beholde, there was a ſhaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, loe, the ſinewes, and the fleſh grewe vpon them, and aboue, the ſkinne couered them, but there was no breath in them.

9 Then ſaid he vnto me, Propheſie vnto the winde: propheſie, ſonne of man, and ſay to the winde, Thus ſaith the Lord God, Come from the foure [b] windes, O breath, and breathe vpon theſe ſlaine, that they may liue.

10 So I propheſied as he had commanded me: and the breath came into them, and they liued, and ſtood vp vpon their feet, an exceeding great armie.

11 Then he ſaid vnto me, Sonne of man, theſe bones are the whole houſe of Iſrael. Behold, they ſay, Our bones are dried, and our hope is gone, and we are cleane cut off.

a He ſheweth by a great miracle, that God hath power, and alſo will deliuer his people from their captiuitie, in as much as he is able to giue life to the dead bones, and bodies, and raiſe them vp againe.

b Signifying all parts whereas the Iſraelites were ſcattered: that is, the faithfull ſhall be brought to the ſame vnitie of ſpirit, and doctrine, wherſoeuer they are ſcattered thorow the world.

pon to come vp out of your sepulchres, and bring you into the land of Israel.

13 And yee shall knowe that I am the Lord, c when I haue opened your graues, & vp people, and brought you vp out of your sepulchres, c That is, when I haue brought you out of those places, & townes where you are captiues.

14 And shall put my Spirit in you, and ye shall liue, and I shall place you in your owne land: then yee shall know that I the Lord haue spoken it, and performed it, saith the Lord.

15 ¶ The word of the Lord came againe vnto me, saying,

16 Moreouer, thou sonne of man, take thee a piece of wood, and write vpon it, Vnto Iudah, and to the children of Israel his companions: then take d another piece of wood, and write vpon it, Vnto Ioseph the tree of Ephraim, and to all the house of Israel his companions.

d Which signifieth the ioyning together of the two houses of Israel, and Iudah.

17 And thou shalt ioyne them one to another into one tree, and they shall be as one in thine hand.

18 And when the children of thy people shal speake vnto thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew vs what thou meanest by these?

19 Thou shalt answere them, Thus saith the Lord God, Beholde, I will take the tree e of Ioseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellowes, and will put them with him, euen with the tree of Iudah, and make them one tree, and they shalbe one in mine hand.

e That is, the house of Israel.

20 And the pieces of wood, whereon thou writest, shalbe in thine hand, in their sight.

21 And say vnto them, Thus saieth the Lord God, Beholde, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen whither they be gone, and will gather them on euery side, and bring them into their owne land.

22 And I will make them one people in the lande, vpon the mountaines of Israel, *and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two peoples, neither bee diuided any more hereafter into two kingdomes.

*Iohn 10.16.

23 Neither shall they bee polluted any more with their idoles, nor with their abominations, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will saue them out of all their dwelling places, wherein they haue sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they bee my people, and I will be their God.

24 And Dauid my * seruant shalbe king ouer them, and they all shall haue one shepheard: they shall also walke in my iudgements, and obserue my statutes, and doe them.

*Isa.40.11.ierem. 23.5.chap.34.23. dan.9.24.

25 And they shall dwell in the f land, that I haue giuen vnto Iaakob my seruaunt, where your fathers haue dwelt, and they shall dwel therein, euen they, & their sonnes, and their sonnes sonnes for euer, and my seruant Dauid shalbe their prince for euer.

f Meaning, that ye elect by Christ shall dwell in the heauenly Ierusalem, which is meant by the land of Canaan. Psal.109.4.and 116.2.

26 Moreouer, I will make * a couenant of peace with them: it shall bee an euerlasting couenant with them, and I will place them, and multiplie them, and will set my Sanctuarie among them for euermore.

27 My Tabernacle also shall bee with them: yea, I will bee their God, and they shall be my people.

28 Thus the heathen shall knowe, that I the Lord doe sanctifie Israel, when my Sanctuarie shall bee among them for euermore.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 Hee propheseth that Gog and Magog shall fight with great power against the people of God.
21 Their destruction.

AND the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, set thy face against a Gog and against the land of Magog, the chiefe prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesie against him.

a Which was a people that came of Magog the sonne of Iapher, Gene.10.2. Magog also heere signifieth a certeine countrey, so that by these two countreys, which had the gouernment of Grecia and Italie, he meaneth the principall enemies of the Church, Reuel. 20,8.

3 And say, Thus saieth the Lord God, Beholde, I come against thee, O Gog the chiefe prince of Meshech and Tubal.

4 And I will destroy thee, & put hookes in thy chawes, and I will bring thee forth and all thine hoste both horses, and horsemen, all clothed with all sortes of armour, euen a great multitude with bucklers, and shields, all b handling swords.

b Hee sheweth that the enemies should bend themselues against the Church, but it should be to their owne destruction.

5 They of c Paras, of Cush, and Phut with them, euen all they that beare shield and helmet.

c The Persians, Ethiopians, and men of Aphrica.

6 d Gomer and all his bandes, and the house of Togarmah of the North quarters, and all his bandes, and much people with thee.

d Gomer was Iaphets sonne, and Togarmah the sonne of Gomer, and are thought to be they that inhabit Asia minor.

7 Prepare thy selfe, and make thee readie, both thou, and all thy multitude, that are assembled vnto thee, and be thou their safegard.

8 After many dayes thou shalt be visited: for in the latter yeeres thou shalt come into the land, that hath bene destroyed with the swoorde, and is gathered out of many people vpon the mountaines of Israel, which haue long lien waste: yet ‖ they haue bene brought out of the people, and they shall dwell all safe.

e Signifying, that all the people of the world should assemble themselues against the Church and Christ their head.

‖ Or, it: meaning the land of Israel.

9 Thou shalt ascend and come vp like a tempest, and shalt be like a cloud to couer the land, both thou, and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

10 Thus saith the Lord God, Euen at the same time shall many things come into thy minde, and thou shalt thinke e euill thoughts.

f That is, to molest and destroy the Church.

11 And thou shalt say, I will go vp to the land that hath no walled towers: I will go to them that are at rest, & dwell in safetie, which dwell all without walles, and haue neither barres nor gates,

12 Thinking to spoyle the pray, and to take a bootie, to turne thine hand vpon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and vpon the people that are gathered out of the nations which haue gotten cattell and goods, and dwell in the middes of the land.

g Meaning, Israel, which had now beene destroyed, and was not yet built againe: declaring heereby the simplicitie of the godly, who seeke not so much to fortifie themselues by outward force, as to depend on the prouidence and goodnesse of God.

13 Sheba and Dedan, & the marchants of Tarshish with all the lions thereof shall say vnto thee, h Art thou come to h One enemie shall enuie another, because euery one shall thinke to haue the spoyle of the Church.

spoyle the praye? hast thou gathered thy multitude to take a boote? to carrie awaye siluer and golde, to take awaye cattell, and goods, and to spoyle a great praye?

14 Therefore sonne of man, prophesie, and say vnto Gog, Thus saith the Lord God, In that day when my people of Israel i dwelleth safe, shalt thou not know it,

15 And come from thy place out of the North partes, thou and much people with thee? all shall ride vpon horses, euen a great multitude and a mightie armie.

16 And thou shalt come vp against my people of Israel, as a cloude to couer the land: thou shalt be in the k latter dayes, and I will bring thee vpon my land, that the heathen may knowe mee, when I l shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord God, Art not thou hee, of whome I haue spoken in olde time, m by the hand of my seruants the Prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those dayes and yeeres, that I would bring thee vpon them?

18 At the same time also when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith n Lord God, my wrath shall arise in mine anger.

19 For in mine indignation and in the fire of my wrath haue I spoken it: surely at that time there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel, 20 So that the fishes of the sea, and the foules of the heauen, and the beastes of the fielde, and all that moue and creepe vpon the earth, and all the men that are vpon the earth, shall tremble at my presence, and the mountaines shall be ouerthrowen, and the o staires shall fall, and euery wall shall fall to the ground.

21 For I will call for a sworde against him p throughout all my mountaines, saith the Lord God: euery mans sworde shall be against his brother.

22 And I will pleade against him with pestilence, and with blood, and I will cause to raine vpon him and vpon his bandes, and vpon the great people, that are with him, a sore raine, and haile stones, fire, and brimstone.

23 Thus will I be * magnified, and sanctified, and knowen in the eyes of many nations, and they shall knowe, that I am the Lord.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 Hee sheweth the destruction of Gog and Magog. 11 The graues of Gog and his hoste. 17 They shall be deuoured of birdes and beastes. 23 Wherefore the house of Israel is captiue. 24 Their bringing againe from captiuitie is promised.

THerefore, thou sonne of man, prophesie against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord God, behold, I come against thee, O Gog, the chiefe prince of q Meshech and Tubal.

2 And I wil destroy thee * and leaue but the sixt part of thee, and will cause thee to come vp from the North partes, and will bring thee vpon the mountaines of Israel:

3 And I will smite thy bowe out of thy left hand, and I will cause thine arrowes to fall out of thy right hand.

4 Thou r shalt fal vpon the mountaines of Israel, and all thy bandes, and the people, that is with thee: for I will giue thee vnto the birdes and to euery feathered foule and beast of the field to be deuoured.

5 Thou shalt fall vpon the open field: for I haue spoken it, saith the Lord God.

6 And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell safely in the s yles, and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 So will I make mine holy Name knowen in the midst of my people Israel, and I will not suffer them to pollute mine holy Name any more, and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the holy One of Israel.

8 Beholde, t it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God: this is the day where of I haue spoken.

9 And they that dwel in the cities of Israel, shall u goe forth, and shall burne and set fire vpon the weapons, and on the shielde, and bucklers, vpon the bowes, and vpon the arrowes, and vpon the staues in their hands, and vpon the speares, and they shall burne them with fire seuen yeres.

10 So that they shall bring no wood out of the field, neither cut downe any out of the forests: for they shall burne the weapons with fire, and they shall robbe those that robbed them, and spoyle those that spoyled them, saith the Lord God.

11 And at the same time will I giue vnto Gog x a place there for buriall in Israel, euen the valley whereby men goe towarde the East part of the Sea: and it shall cause them that passe by, to stoppe their y noses, and there shall they burie Gog with all his multitude: and they shall call it the valley of z Hamon-gog.

12 a And seuen moneths long shall the house of Israel bee burying of them, that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land, shal burie them, and they shall haue a name when I shalbe glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 And they shall chuse out men to goe continually through the b lande with them that trauell, to burie those that remaine vpon the ground, and cleanse it: they shall search to the end of seuen moneths.

15 And the trauellers that passe thorow the land, if any see a mans bone, then shall hee set vp a signe by it, till the buriers haue buried it, in the valley of Hamon gog.

16 And also the name of the citie shall be ‖ Hamonah: thus shall they cleanse the land.

17 And thou sonne of man, thus saieth the Lord God, Speake vnto euery feathered foule, and to all the beastes of the field, Assemble your selues, and come: c gather your selues on euery side to my sacrifice: for, I doe sacrifice a great sacrifice for you vpon the mountaines of Israel, that yee may eate flesh and drinke blood.

18 Yee shall eate the flesh of the valiant, and drinke the blood of the princes of the earth, of the weathers, of the lambs, and of the goates, and of bullockes, euen of all fatte beasts of Bashan.

19 And yee shall eate fat till you be full, and i Shalt not thou spie thine occasions to come against my Church, when they suspect nothing?

k Meaning, in the last age, and from the comming of Christ vnto the end of the world.

l Signifying, that God will be sanctified by maintaining his Church, and destroying his enemies, as chap. 36. 23. and 37. 28.

m Hereby he declareth that none affliction can come to the Church, whereof they haue not bene aduertised aforetime, to teach them to indure all things with more patience, when they know that God hath so ordeined.

n All meanes whereby man should thinke to saue himselfe, shall faile, the affliction in those dayes shall be so great, and the enemies destruction shalbe so terrible.

o Against the people of Gog and Magog.

Chap. 36. 23. and 37. 28.

a Or, destroy thee with sixe plagues, as chap. 38. 22.

b Meaning, that by the vertue of Gods word the enemie shall be destroyed where-soeuer he assaileth his Church.

c That is, among all nations where the enemies of my people dwell, seeme they neuer so farre separate.

d That is, this plague is fully determined in my counsell, and cannot be changed.

e After this destruction the church shal haue great peace and tranquillitie, and burne all their weapons because they shall no more feare the enemie: and this is chiefly meant of the accomplishment of Christes kingdome, when by their head Christ all enemies shall be ouercome.

f Which declareth that the enemies shall haue an horrible fall.

g For the stinke of the carkeises.

h Meaning, a long time.

i Partly that the holy land should not be polluted, and partly for the compassion that the children of God haue, euen on their enemies.

k Whereby he signifieth the horrible destruction that should come vpon the enemies of his Church.

and drinke blood, till yee be drunken of my sacrifice, which I haue sacrificed for you.

20 Thus you shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with valiant men, and with all men of warre, saieth the Lord God.

21 And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my iudgement, that I haue executed, and mine hand, which I haue layd vpon them.

22 So the house of Israel shall knowe, that I am the Lorde their God from that day and so foorth.

23 And the heathen shall know, that the house of Israel went into captiuitie for their iniquitie, because they trespalled against mee: therefore hidde I my face from them, and gaue them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword.

1 The heathen shall know that they ouercame not my people by their strength, neither yet by the weakenesse of mine arme, but that this was for my peoples sinnes.

24 According to their vncleannesse, and according to their transgressions haue I done vnto them, & hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saieth the Lorde God, Nowe will I bring againe the captiuitie of Iaakob, and haue compassion vpon the whole house of Israel, and wil be ielous for mine holy Name,

26 After that they haue borne their shame, and all their transgression, whereby they haue transgressed against mee, when they dwelt safely in their land, and without feare of any,

27 When I haue brought them againe from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies lands, and am * sanctified in them in the sight of many nations.

Chap.36.23.

28 Then shall they know, that I am the Lorde their God, which caused them to bee ledde into captiuitie among the heathen: but I haue gathered them vnto their owne lande, and haue left none of them any more there, 29 Neither wil I hide my face any more from them: for I haue powred out my Spirite vpon the house of Israel, saieth the Lord God.

CHAP. XL.

The restoring of the Citie and the Temple.

IN the fiue and twentieth yeere of our being in captiuitie, in the a beginning of the yeere, in the tenth day of the moneth, in the fourteenth yeere after that the citie was smitten, in the selfe same day, the hande of the Lorde was vpon mee, and brought mee thither.

a The Iewes counted the beginning of the yere after two sorts: for their feasts they began to count in March, and for their other affaires in September: so that this is to be vnderstood of September.

2 Into the land of Israel brought he me by ‖ a diuine vision, and set me vpon a verie high mountaine, whereupon was as the building of a citie, toward the South.

‖ Or, visions of God.

3 And hee brought mee thither, and beholde, there was a b man, whose similitude was to looke to, like brasse, with a linnen thread in his hand, and a reede to measure with: and he stood at the gate.

b Which was an Angel in forme of a man, that came to measure out this building.

4 And the man said vnto me, Sonne of man, beholde with thine eyes, and heare with thine eares, and set thine heart vpon all that I shall shewe thee: for to the intent that they might bee shewed thee, art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest, vnto the house of Israel.

5 And beholde, I sawe a wall on the outside of the house rounde about: and in the mans hand was a reede to measure with, of sixe cubites long, by the cubite, and an hand breadth: so hee measured the breadth of the building with one reed, and the height with one reed.

6 Then came hee vnto the gate, which looketh toward the East, and went vp the staires thereof, and measured the ‖ poste of the gate, which was one reede broad, and ‖ the other poste of the gate, which was one reede broad.

‖ Or, thresholde. ‖ Or, vpper poste.

7 And euery chamber was one reede long, and one reed broad, and betweene the chambers were fiue cubites: and the poste of the gate by the porche of the gate within was one reede.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within with one reede.

9 Then measured hee the porche of the gate of eight cubites, and the ‖ postes thereof, of two cubites, and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the chambers of the gate Eastwarde, were three on this side, and three on that side: they three were of one measure, and the postes had one measure on this side, and one on that side.

11 And hee measured the breadth of the entrie of the gate ten cubites, and the height of the gate thirteene cubites.

12 The space also before the chambers was one cubite on this side, and the space was one cubite on that side, and the chambers were sixe cubites on this side, and sixe cubites on that side.

13 Hee measured then the gate from the roofe of a chamber to the toppe of the gate: the breadth was fiue and twentie cubites, doore against doore.

14 He made also postes of threescore cubites, and the postes of the court, and of the gate had one measure round about.

15 And vpon the forefront of the entrie of the gate vnto the forefront of the porch of the gate within were fiftie cubites.

16 And there were narrowe windowes in the chambers, and in their postes within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches: and the windowes went rounde about within: and vpon the postes were palme trees.

17 ¶ Then brought he mee into the outwarde court, and loe, there were chambers, and a pauement made for the court rounde about, and thirtie chambers were vpon the pauement.

18 And the pauement was by the side of the gates ouer against the length of the gates, and the pauement was beneath.

19 Then hee measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate without, vnto the forefront of the court within, an hundreth cubites Eastward and Northward.

20 And the gate of the outwarde court, that looked towarde the North, measured he after the length and breadth thereof.

21 And the chambers thereof were, three on this side, and three on that side, and the postes thereof and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fiftie cubites, and the breadth fiue and twentie cubites.

22 And their windowes, & their arches with their palme trees, were after the measure of þ gate that looketh toward þ East, and the going vp vnto it had seuen steppes, and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court stoode ouer against the gate toward the North, and toward the East, and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubites.

24 After that, he brought me toward the South, and loe, there was a gate toward the South, and he measured the postes thereof, and þ arches thereof according to these measures.

25 And there were windowes in it, and in the arches thereof rounde about, like those windowes: the height was fiftie cubites, and the breadth fiue and twentie cubites.

26 And there were seuen steps to goe vp to it, & the arches thereof were before them: and it had palme trees, one on this side, and another on that side vpon the post thereof.

27 ¶ And there was a gate in the inner court toward the South, and he measured from gate to gate toward the South an hundred cubites.

28 And he brought me into þ inner court by the South gate, and he measured the South gate according to these measures, 29 And the chambers thereof, and the postes thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures, and there were windowes in it, and in the arches thereof round about, it was fiftie cubites long and fiue and twentie cubites broad.

30 And the arches rounde about were fiue and twentie cubites long, and fiue cubites broad.

31 And the arches thereof were towarde the vtter court, and palme trees were vpon the postes thereof, and the going vp to it had eight steppes.

32 ¶ Againe he brought me into the inner court toward the East, and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And þ chambers thereof, & the postes thereof, and the arches thereof were according to these measures, and there were windowes therein, and in the arches thereof rounde about, it was fiftie cubites long, and fiue and twentie cubites broad.

34 And the arches thereof were towarde the vtter court, and palme trees were vpon the postes thereof, on this side and on that side, and the going vp to it had eight steps.

35 ¶ After, he brought me to the North gate, and measured it, according to these measures, 36 The chambers thereof, the postes thereof, and the arches thereof, and there were windowes therein round about: the height was fiftie cubites, and the breadth fiue and twentie cubites.

37 And the postes thereof were towarde the vtter court, and palme trees were vpon the postes thereof on this side, and on that side, and the going vp to it had eight steps.

38 And euery chamber, and the entrie thereof was vnder the postes of the gates: there they washed the burnt offering.

39 And in the porche of the gate stoode two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, vpon the which they slewe the burnt offering, and the sinne offering, and the trespasse offering.

40 And at the side beyond the steps, at the entrie of the North gate stoode two tables, and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate were two tables.

41 Foure tables were on this side, and foure tables on that side by the side of the gate, euen eight tables whereupon they slewe their sacrifice.

42 And the foure tables were of hewen stone for the burnt offering, of a cubite and an halfe long, and a cubite and a halfe broad, and one cubite hie: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slewe the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were borders an handbroade, fastened round about, and vpon the tables lay the flesh of the offering.

44 And without the inner gate, were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the North gate: and their prospect was towarde the South, and one was at the side of the East gate, hauing the prospect toward the North.

45 And he said vnto me. This chamber whose prospect is toward the South, is for the Priestes that haue charge to keepe the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the North, is for the Priestes that haue the charge to keepe the altar: these are the sonnes of Zadok among the sonnes of Leui which may come neere to the Lord to minister vnto him.

47 So he measured the court, an hundred cubites long, and an hundred cubites broade, euen foure square: likewise the altar that was before the House.

48 And he brought me to the porche of the house, and measured the postes of the porch, fiue cubites on this side, and fiue cubites on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubites on this side, and three cubites on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twentie cubites, and þ breadth eleuen cubites, and he brought me by the steppes whereby they went vp to it, and there were pillars by the postes, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAP. XLI.

1 The disposition and order of the building of the Temple and the other things therto belonging.

AFterward, he brought me to the Temple, and measured the postes, sixe cubites broad on the one side, and sixe cubites broad on þ other side, which was the breadth of the Tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the entrie was ten cubites, and the sides of the entrie were fiue cubites on the one side, and fiue cubites on the other side, and he measured the length thereof fourty cubites, and the breadth twentie cubites.

3 Then went he in, and measured the postes postes of the entrie two cubites, and the entrie sixe cubites, and the bredth of the entrie seuen cubites.

4 So he measured the length thereof twentie cubites, and the bredth twentie cubites before the Temple. And he said vnto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After, he measured the wall of the house, sixe cubites, and the bredth of euery chamber foure cubites rounde about the house, on euery side.

6 And the chambers were chamber vpon chamber, three and thirtie foot high, and they entred into the wall made for the chambers which was round about the house, that the postes might be fastened therein, and not be fastened in the wall of the house.

7 And it was large, & went round mounting vpward to the chambers: for the staire of the house was mounting vpward round about the house: therefore the house was larger vpward: so they went vp from the lowest chamber to the highest by the middes.

8 I saw also the house hie round about: the foundations of the chambers were a full reed of sixe great cubites.

9 The thicknesse of the wall which was for the chamber without, was fiue cubites, and that which remained, was the place of the chambers that were within.

10 And betweene the chambers was the wideneſſe of twentie cubites rounde about the House on euery side.

11 And the doores of the chambers were toward the place that remained, one doore toward the North, and another doore toward the South, and the breadth of the place that remained, was fiue cubites round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place toward the West corner, was seuentie cubites broad, and the wall of the building was fiue cubites thicke, round about, and the length ninetie cubites.

13 So he measured the house an hundred cubites long, and the separate place and the building with the walles thereof were an hundred cubites long.

14 Also the bredth of the forefront of the house, and of the separate place toward the East, was an hundred cubites.

15 And he measured the length of the building, ouer against the separate place, which was behinde it, and the chambers on the one side and on the other side an hundred cubites with the Temple within, and the arches of the court.

16 The palles and the narrowe windowes, and the chambers round about, on three sides ouer against the postes, sieled with cedar wood round about, and from the ground vp to the windowes, and the windowes were sieled.

17 And from aboue the doore vnto the inner house and without, and by all the wall round about within and without it was sieled according to the measure.

18 And it was made with Cherubims and palme trees, so that a palme tree was betweene a Cherub and a Cherub: and euery Cherub had two faces.

19 So that the face of a man was towarth the palme tree on the one side, and the face of a lyon toward the palme tree on the other side: thus was it made throughout all the house round about.

20 From the ground vnto aboue the doore were Cherubims and palme trees made as in the wall of the Temple.

21 The postes of the Temple were squared, and thus to looke vnto was the similitude and forme of the Sanctuarie.

22 The altar of wood was three cubites hie, and the length thereof two cubites, and the corners thereof and the length thereof, and the sides thereof were of wood. And hee said vnto mee, This is the table that shall be before the Lord.

23 And the Temple and the Sanctuary had two doores.

24 And the doores had two wickets, euen two turning wickets, two wickets for one doore, and two wickets for another doore.

25 And vpon the doores of the Temple there were made Cherubims and palme trees, like as was made vpon the walles, and there were thicke plankes vpon the forefront of the porch without.

26 And there were narrowe windowes and palme trees on the one side, and on the other side, by the sides of the porch, and vpon the sides of the house, and thicke plankes.

CHAP. XLII.

Of the chambers of the Temple for the Priestes, and the holy things.

THen brought he me into the vtter court by the way toward the North, and hee brought mee into the chamber that was ouer against the separate place, and which was before the building towarde the North.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubites, was the North doore, and it was fiftie cubites broad.

3 Ouer against the twentie cubites which were for the inner court, and ouer against the pauement, which was for the vtter court, was chamber against chamber in three rowes.

4 And before the chamber was a gallerie of tenne cubites wide, and within was a way of one cubite, and their doores toward the North.

5 Now the chambers aboue were narrower: for those chambers seemed to take vp these, to wit, the lower, and those that were in the middes of the building.

6 For they were in three rowes, but had not pillars as the pillars of the court: therefore there was a difference from them beneath & from the middlemost, euen from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without ouer against the chambers, toward the vtter court on the forefront of the chambers, was fiftie cubites long.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the vtter court, was fiftie cubites: and loe, before the Temple were an hundred cubites.

9 And

9 And vnder these chambers was the entrie on the Eastside, as one goeth into them from the outward court.

10 The chambers were in the thicknesse of the wall of the court towarde the East, ouer against the separate place, and ouer against the building.

11 And the way before them was after the maner of the chambers, which were toward the North, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their entries were like, both according to their fashions, and according to their doores.

12 And according to the doores of the chambers that were towarde the South, was a doore in the corner of the way, euen the way directly before the wall towarde the East, as one entreth.

13 Then sayd he vnto mee, The North chambers and the South chambers which are before the separate place, they bee holy chambers, wherein the Priestes that approch vnto the Lord, shall eate the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meate offering, and the sinne offering, and the trespasse offering: for the place is holy.

14 When the Priests enter therein, they shall not goe out of the holy place into the vter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister: for they are holy, and shall put on other garments, and so shall approch to those things, which are for the people.

15 Nowe when hee had made an ende of measuring the inner house, hee brought mee forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the East, & measured it round about.

16 Hee measured the East side with the measuring rodde, fiue hundreth reeds, euen with the measuring reed round about.

17 Hee measured also the North side, fiue hundreth reedes, euen with the measuring reed round about.

18 And he measured the South ‖side fiue hundreth reeds with the measuring reede.

‖Or, winde.

19 He turned about also to the West side, and measured fiue hundreth reedes with the measuring reede.

20 Hee measured it by the foure sides: it had a wall rounde about, fiue hundreth reedes long, & fiue hundreth broad to make a separation betweene the Sanctuarie, and the prophane place.

CHAP. XLIII.

2 Hee seeth the glory of God going into the Temple, from whence it had before departed. 7 He mentioneth the idolatrie of the children of Israel for the which they were consumed and brought to nought. 9 He is commanded to call them againe to repentance.

AFterward hee brought mee to the gate, euen the gate that turneth towarde the East.

2 And beholde, the glory of the God of Israel came from out of the East, whose voice was like a noyse of great waters, and the earth was made light with his glory.

Chap. 9. 3.

a When I prophesied the destruction of the citie by the Caldeans.

3 And the vision which I saw was* like the vision, euen as the vision that I saw a when I came to destroy the citie: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar: and I fell vpon my face.

4 And the b glorie of the Lord came into the house by the way of the gate, whose prospect is toward the East.

b Which was departed afore, Chap. 10. 4. and 11. 23.

5 So the Spirit tooke me vp & brought mee into the inner court, and beholde, the glory of the Lord filled the house.

6 And I heard one speaking vnto me out of the house: and there stood a man by me,

7 Which sayd vnto mee, Sonne of man, this place is my throne, and the place of the soles of my feete, whereon I will dwell among the children of Israel for euer. and the house of Israel shall no more c defile mine holy Name, neither they, nor their kings by their fornication, nor by the carkeises of d their kings in their hie places.

c By their idolatries.

8 Albeit they set their thresholdes by my thresholdes, and their postes by my postes (for there was but a wall betweene mee and them) yet haue they defiled mine holy Name with their abominations, that they haue committed: wherefore I haue consumed them in my wrath.

d He alludeth to Ammon and Manasseh, who were buried in their gardens neere the Temple, and there had erected vp monuments to their idoles.

9 Now therefore let them put away their fornication, and the carkeises of their kings farre from mee, and I will dwell among them for euer.

10 ¶ Thou sonne of man, shewe this House to the house of Israel, that they may bee ashamed of their wickednesse, and let them measure the paterne.

11 And if they bee ashamed of all that they haue done, shew them the forme of the house, and the paterne thereof, and the going out thereof, and the comming in thereof, and the whole fashion thereof, and all the ordinances therof, and all the figures thereof, and all the lawes thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keepe the whole fashion thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and doe them.

12 This is the ‡ description of the house, It shall bee vpon the toppe of the mount: all the limits thereof round about shalbe most holy. Beholde, this is the description of the house.

‡Or, law.

13 And these are the measures of the Altar, after the cubites, the cubite is a cubite and an hand breadth, euen the bottome shall be a cubite, and the breadth a cubite, and the border thereof by the edge thereof, round about shall bee a spanne, and this shall bee the height of the altar.

14 And from the bottome which toucheth the ground to the lower piece shall bee two cubites, and the breadth one cubite, and from the litle piece to the great piece shall be foure cubites, and the breadth one cubite.

15 So the altar shall be foure cubites, and from the altar vpward shalbe foure hornes.

16 And the altar shall bee twelue cubites long, and twelue broad, and foure square in the foure corners thereof.

17 And the frame shall bee foureteene cubites long, and foureteene broad in the foure square corners therof, and the border about it shall bee halfe a cubite, and the bottome thereof shall be a cubite about, and the steps thereof shall be turned toward the East.

18 ¶ And

18 ¶ And hee sayd vnto mee, Sonne of man, thus sayth the Lorde God, These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it to offer the burnt offring thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt giue to the Priestes, and to the Leuites, that be of the seed of Zadok, which approch vnto me, to minister vnto me, sayeth the Lord God, a yong bullocke for a sinne offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the foure homes of it, and on the foure corners of the frame, and vpon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse it, and reconcile it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullocke also of the sinne offering, and burne it in the appointed place of the house without the Sanctuarie.

22 But the seconde day thou shalt offer an hee goate without blemish for a sinne offering, and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullocke.

23 When thou hast made an end of clensing it, thou shalt offer a yoong bullocke without blemish, and a ramme out of the flocke without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the Lord, and the Priestes shall cast salt vpon them, and they shall offer them for a burnt offering vnto the Lord.

25 Seuen dayes shalt thou prepare euery day an hee goat for a sinne offering: they shall also prepare a yoong bullocke and a ramme out of the flocke, without blemish.

26 Thus shall they seuen dayes purifie the altar, and cleanse it, and ‡ consecrate it.

‡ Hebr. fill his hand.

27 And when these dayes are expired, vpon the eight day and so forth, the Priests shall make your burnt offerings vpon the altar, and your peace offerings, and I will accept you, sayth the Lord God.

CHAP. XLIIII.

He reprooueth the people for their offence. 7 The vncircumcised in heart, and in the flesh. 9 Who are to be admitted to the seruice of the Temple, and who to be refused.

Then he brought mee toward the gate of the outwarde Sanctuarie, which turneth toward the East, and it was shut.

2 Then sayde the Lord vnto mee, This gate shall be a shut, and shall not be opened, and no man shall enter by it, because the Lord God of Israel hath entred by it, and it shall be shut.

a Meaning, from the comon people, but not from the Priestes nor the Prince, reade Chap. 46.8,9.

3 It appertaineth to the prince: the prince himselfe shall sit in it to eat bread before the Lord: he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall goe out by the way of the same.

4 ¶ Then brought hee mee toward the North gate before the house: and when I looked, beholde, the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord, & I fell vpon my face.

5 And the Lord sayd vnto mee, Sonne of man, ‡ marke well, and beholde with thine eyes, and heare with thine eares, all that I say vnto thee, concerning all the ordinances of the House of the Lorde, and all the lawes thereof, and marke well the entring in of the house with euery going foorth of the Sanctuarie.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, euen to the house of Israel, Thus sayth the Lorde God, O house of Israel, yee haue enough of all your abominations,

7 Seeing, that ye haue brought into my Sanctuarie b strangers, vncircumcised in heart, and vncircumcised in flesh, to bee in my Sanctuarie, to pollute mine House, when ye offer my bread, euen fat, and blood: and they haue broken my couenant, because of all your abominations.

b For they had brought idolaters, which were of other countreys, to teach them their idolatrie, Cha. 23.40.

8 For ye haue not kept the c ordinances of mine holy things: but you your selues haue set other to take the charge of my Sanctuarie.

c Ye haue not offered vnto me according to my Law.

9 Thus sayth the Lord God, No stranger vncircumcised in heart, nor vncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my Sanctuarie, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel, 10 Neither yet the d Leuites that are gone backe from mee, when Israel went astray, which went astray from mee after their idoles, but they shall beare their iniquitie.

d The Leuites which had committed idolatrie, were put from their dignitie, and could not be receiued into the Priestes office, although they had bene of the house of Aaron, but must serue in the inferior offices, as to watch and to keepe the doores, reade 2. King. 23.9.

11 And they shall serue in my Sanctuarie, and keepe the gates of the house, and minister in the House: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people: and they shall stande before them to serue them.

12 Because they serued before their idoles, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquitie, therefore haue I lift vp mine hand against them, sayth the Lord God, and they shall beare their iniquitie, 13 And they shall not come neere vnto me to doe the office of the Priest vnto mee, neither shall they come neere vnto any of mine holy things in the most holy place, but they shal beare their shame and their abominations, which they haue committed.

14 And I will make them keepers of the watch of the House, for all the seruice thereof, for all that shall be done therein.

15 But the Priestes of the Leuites, the sonnes of Zadok, that e kept the charge of my Sanctuarie, when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shal come neere to me to serue mee, and they shall stand before mee to offer mee the fat and the blood, sayth the Lord God.

e Which obserued the Law of God, and fell not to idolatrie.

16 They shall enter into my Sanctuary, and shal come nere to my table, to serue mr, and they shall keepe my charge.

17 And when they shall enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shalbe clothed with linnen garments, and no wooll shall come vpon them while they serue in the gates of the inner court, and within.

18 They shall haue linnen bonets vpon their heads, and shall haue linnen breeches vpon their loines: they shal not gird themselues in the sweating places.

19 But when they go foorth into the vtter court, euen to the vtter court to the people, they shall put off their garments, wherein they ministred, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments: for they shall not sanctifie tifie the people with their garments.

30 They shal not also f shaue their heads, nor suffer their lockes to growe long, but rounde their heades.

f As did the infidels and heathen. *Leuit.*10.9.

21 * Neither shal any Priest drinke wine when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wines a widow, or her that is diuorced: but they shall take maidens of the seede of the house of Israel, or a widow that hath bene the widow of a Priest.

*Leuit.*21.13,14.

23 And they shall teach my people the difference betweene the holy and prophane, and cause them to discerne betweene the vncleane and the cleane.

24 And in controuersie they shall stand to iudge, and they shall iudge it according to my iudgements: and they shall keepe my lawes and my statutes in all mine assemblies, and they shal sanctifie my Sabbaths.

25 * And they shal come at no dead person to defile themselues, except at their father, or mother, or sonne, or daughter, brother or sister, that hath had per none husband: in these may they g be defiled.

*Leuit.*21.1,2,11.

26 And when he is cleansed, they shal reckon vnto him seuen dayes.

g They may be at their buriall, which was a defiling.

27 And when he goeth into the Sanctuarie vnto the inner court to minister in the Sanctuarie, he shall offer his sinne offring, saith the Lord God.

28 * And the Priesthood shall be their inheritance, yea, I am their inheritance: therefore shall yee giue them no possession in Israel, for I am their possession.

*Deut.*18.1. *numb.*18,20.

29 They shall eate the meate offering, and the sinne offering, and the trespasse offering, and euery dedicate thing in Israel shal be theirs.

30 * And all the first of all the first borne, and euery oblation, euen all of euery sort of your oblations shalbe the Priests. Ye shall also giue vnto the Priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

*Exod.*13.2. and 22.29. and 34.19. *numb.*3.13.

31 The Priests shal not eate of any thing that is * dead, or torne, whether it be foule or beast.

*Exod.*22.31. *Ieuit.*22.8.

CHAP. XLV.

1 Out of the land of promise are there separate fiue portions, of which the first is giuen to the priests and to the Temple, the second to the Leuites, the third to the citie, the fourth to the prince. 9 An exhortation vnto the heads of Israel. 10 Of iust weightes and measures. 13 Of first fruites, &c.

MOreouer when ye shall diuide the land for inheritance, yee shall offer an oblation vnto the Lord an a holy portion of the land, fiue and twentie thousand reeds long, and ten thousand broad: this shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

a Of all the land of Israel the Lord onely requireth this portion for the Temple and for the Priests, for the citie and for the Prince.

2 Of this there shalbe for the Sanctuarie fiue hundreth in length with fiue hundreth in breadth, all square round about, and fifty cubites round about for the suburbes thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of fiue and twentie thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the Sanctuarie, and the most holy place.

4 The holy portion of the land shall bee the priests, which minister in the Sanctuarie, which came neere to serue the Lord: and it shalbe a place for their houses, and an holy place for the Sanctuarie.

5 And in the fiue and twentie thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth shall the Leuites that minister in the house, haue their possession for twentie chambers.

6 Also ye shall appoint the possession of the citie, fiue thousand broad, and fiue and twentie thousand long ouer against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side, and on that side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the citie, euen before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the citie from the West corner Westward, and from the East corner Eastward, and the length shalbe by one of the portions from the West border vnto the East border.

8 In this land shall be his possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppresse my people, and the rest of the land shal they giue to the house of Israel, according to their tribes.

9 Thus saith the Lord God, Let it b suffice you, O princes of Israel: leaue off cruelty and oppression, and execute iudgement and iustice: take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord God.

b The Prophet sheweth that the heads must be first reformed, afore any good order can be established among the people.

10 Ye shall haue iust balances, and a true c Ephah, and a true Bath.

c Ephah and Bath were both of one quantitie, saue that Ephah conteined in dry things, that which Bath did in liquor. Leuit. 5.11. 1.King. 5.11. *Exod.*30.13. *Ieuit.*27.25. *numb.*3.47.

11 The Ephah and the Bath shall bee equall: a Bath shall conteine the tenth part of an Homer, and an Ephah the tenth part of an Homer: the equalitie thereof shall be after the Homer.

12 * And the shekel shall be twentie gerahs, and twentie shekels, and d fiue and twentie shekels and fifteene shekels shalbe your Maneh.

d That is, threescore shekels make a weight called Mina: for he ioyneth these three parts to a Mina.

13 ¶ This is the oblation that yee shall offer, the first part of an Ephah of an Homer of wheate, and yee shall giue the first part of an Ephah of an Homer of barley.

14 Concerning the ordinance of the oyle, euen of the Bath of oyle, yee shall offer the tenth part of a Bath out of the Coze (tenne Bathes are an Homer: for ten Baths fill an Homer.)

15 And one lambe of two hundred sheepe out of the fat pastures of Israel for a meate offering, and for a burnt offring e for peace offrings, to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord God.

16 All the people of the land shall giue this oblation for the prince in Israel.

17 And it shalbe the princes part to giue burnt offrings, and meat offrings, & drinke offerings in the solemne feastes, and in the new moones, and in the Sabbaths, & in all the high feastes of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sinne offring, and the meat offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

e Which was Nisan, conteining part of March and part of Aprill.

18 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God, In the first moneth, in the first day of the moneth, thou shalt shall take a yong bullocke without blemish, and cleanse the Sanctuarie.

19 And the Priest shall take of the blood of the sinne offering, and put it vpon the posts of the house, and vpon the foure ‖corners of the frame of the altar, and vpon the posts of the gate of the inner court.

‖Or, corn.

20 And so shalt thou doe the seuenth day of the moneth, for euery one that hath erred, and for him that is deceiued: so shall you reconcile the house.

Exod. 12.18. Leuit. 23.5.

21 * In the first moneth in the fourteenth day of the moneth, ye shall haue the Passeouer, a feast of seuen dayes, and ye shall eate vnleauened bread, 22 And vpon that day, shall the Prince prepare for himselfe, and for all the people of the land, a bullocke for a sinne offering.

23 And in the seuen dayes of the feast, he shall make a burnt offering to the Lord, euen of seuen bullocks, & seuen rammes without blemish daily for seuen dayes, and an hee goate daily for a sinne offering.

24 And he shall prepare a meate offering of an Ephah for a bullocke, an Ephah for a ramme, and an [f] Hin of ople for an Ephah.

f Reade Exod. 29.40.

25 In the seuenth moneth, in the fifteenth day of the moneth, shall he do the like in the feast for seuen dayes, according to the sinne offring, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meate offering, and according to the ople.

CHAP. XLVI.

1 The sacrifices of the Sabbath and of the newe moones. 8 Thorow which doores they must goe in, or come out of the Temple, &c.

THus saith the Lord God, The gate of the inner court, that turneth toward the East, shall be shut the fiue working dayes: but on the Sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the newe moone it shall be opened.

2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the poste of the gate, and the priests shall make his burnt offering, and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: after, he shall goe foorth, but the gate shall not bee shut till the euening.

3 Likewise the people of the lande shall worship at the entrie of this gate before the Lord on the Sabbaths, and in the newe moones.

4 And the burnt offering that the prince shall offer vnto the Lorde on the Sabbath day, shall be fiue lambes without blemish, and a ramme without blemish.

5 And the meate offering shall be an Ephah for a ramme: and the meate offering for the lambes [a] a gift of his hand, and an Hin of ople to an Ephah.

a That is, as much as he will.

6 And in the day of the newe moone it shall be a young bullocke without blemish, and fiue lambes and a ramme: they shalbe without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meate offering, euen an ephah for a bullocke, and an Ephah for a ramme, and for the lambes [b] according as his hand shall bring, and an Hin of ople to an Ephah.

b Meaning, as he shall thinke good.

8 And when the prince shal enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall goe foorth by the way thereof.

9 But when the people of the land shall come before the Lord in the solemne feastes, he that entreth in by the way of the North gate to worship, shall goe out by the way of the South gate: and hee that entreth by the way of the South gate, shall goe foorth by the way of the North gate: hee shall not returne by the way of the gate whereby hee came in, but they shall goe foorth ouer against it.

10 And the prince shalbe in the mids of them: he shall goe in when they goe in, and when they goe foorth, they shall goe foorth together.

11 And in the feastes, and in the solemnities the meate offering shalbe an Ephah to a bullocke, and an Ephah to a ramme, and to the lambes, the gift of his hand, and an Hin of ople to an Ephah.

12 Nowe when the prince shall make a free burnt offering or peace offerings freely vnto the Lord, one shall then open him the gate that turneth toward the East, and he shall make his burnt offring, and his peace offrings as he did on the Sabbath day: after, he shall goe foorth, and when he is gone foorth, one shall shut the gate.

13 Thou shalt daily make a burnt offering vnto the Lord of a lambe of one yeere without blemish: thou shalt doe it euery morning.

14 And thou shalt prepare a meate offering for it euery morning, the fift part of an Ephah, and the third part of an Hin of oile, to mingle with the fine floure: this meat offring shalbe continually by a perpetuall ordinance vnto the Lord.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lambe, and the meate offering, and the ople euery morning, for a continuall burnt offering.

16 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God, If the prince giue a gift of his inheritance vnto any of his sonnes, it shalbe his sonnes, and it shall be their possession by inheritance.

17 But if he giue a gift of his inheritance to one of his seruants, then it shall be his to the [c] peere of libertie: after, it shall returne to the prince, but his inheritance shall remaine to his sonnes for them.

c Which was at the Iubile, Leuit. 25.9.

18 Moreouer the prince shall not [d] take of the peoples inheritance, nor thrust them out of their possession: but he shall cause his sonnes to inherite of his owne possession, that my people be not scattered euery man from his possession.

d But be content with that portion that God had assigned him, as Chap. 45.8.

19 ¶ After, he brought me thorow the entrie, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the Priestes, which stood toward the North: and behold, there was a place at the West side of them.

20 Then said he vnto me, This is the place where the priests shall seethe the trespasse offering, and the sinne offering, where they shall bake the meate offering, that they should not beare them into the vtter court, [e] to sanctifie the people.

e That the people should not haue to doe with those things which appertaine to the Lord, and thinke it lawfull for them to eate them,

21 Then he brought me forth into the vtter court, and caused me to goe by the foure corners corners of the court: and beholde, in euery corner of the court, there was a court.

22 In the fourt corners of the court there were courts ioyned of fourtie cubites long, and thirtie broade: these foure corners were of one measure.

23 And there went a wall about them, euen about those foure, and kitchins were made vnder the walles round about.

24 Then sayde hee vnto me, This is the kitchin where the ministers of the house shall seethe the sacrifice of the people.

CHAP. XLVII.

1 The vision of the waters, that come out of the Temple. 13 The coastes of the land of promise, and the deuision thereof by tribes.

AFterward hee brought mee vnto the doore of the house: and beholde, [a] waters issued out from vnder the thresholde of the house Eastward: for the forefront of the house stoode towarde the East, and the waters ranne downe from vnder the right side of the house, at the South side of the altar.

2 Then brought hee me out toward the North gate, and led mee about by the way without vnto the vtter gate, by the way that turneth Eastward: and beholde, there came forth waters on the right side.

3 And when the man that had the line in his hand, went forth Eastward, he measured a thousand cubites, and he brought me through the waters: the waters were to the ancles.

4 Againe hee measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters: the waters were to the knees: againe hee measured a thousand, and brought me through: the waters were to the loynes.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand, and it was a [b] riuer that I could not passe ouer: for the waters were risen, and the waters did flowe, as a riuer that could not bee passed ouer.

6 And he sayd vnto me, Sonne of man, hast thou seene this? Then he brought mee, and caused mee to returne to the bancke of the riuer.

7 Now when I returned, behold, at the bancke of the riuer were very many [c] trees on the one side, and on the other.

8 Then sayd he vnto me, These waters issue out toward the East countrey, and runne downe into the plaine, and shall goe into one [d] sea: they shall runne into another sea, and the [e] waters shalbe wholesome.

9 And euery thing that liueth, which moueth, whereseuer the riuers shall come, shall liue, and there shall bee a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be wholesome, and euery thing shall liue whither the riuer commeth.

10 And then the [f] fishers shall stand vpon it, and from En-gedi euen vnto [g] En-eglaim, they shall spread out their nettes: for their fish shalbe according to their kindes, as the fish of [h] the maine sea, exceeding many.

11 But [i] the myrie places thereof, and the marishes thereof shall not be wholesome: they shall be made salt-pits.

12 And by this riuer vpon the bancke thereof, on this side, and on that side, shall growe all ‖ fruitfull trees, whose leafe shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof faile: it shall bring forth newe fruite according to his moneths, because their waters runne out of the Sanctuarie: and the fruite thereof shall be meate, and the leafe thereof shall be for ‖ medicine.

13 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God, This shal be the border, whereby yee shall inherite the land according to the twelue tribes * of Israel: Ioseph shall haue two portions.

14 And ye shall inherite it, one as well as an other: * concerning the which I lift vp mine hand to giue it vnto your fathers, and this land shall fall vnto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall bee the border [k] of the land toward the Northside, from the maine sea toward Hethlon as men goe to Zedadah:

16 Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is betweene the border of Damascus, and the border of Hamath, and Hazar, Hatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran.

17 And the border from the sea shall bee Hazar, Enan, and the border of Damascus, and the residue of the North, Northward, and the border of Hamath: so shall bee the North part.

18 But the East side shall yee measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Iorden, and from the border vnto the East sea: and so shall be the East part.

19 And the Southside shall bee towarde Teman from Tamar to the waters of ‖ Meriboth in Kadesh, and the riuer to the maine sea: so shalbe the South part toward Teman.

20 The West part also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come ouer against Hamath: this shall be the West part.

21 So shall ye diuide this land vnto you, according to the tribes of Israel.

22 And you shall diuide it by lot for an inheritance vnto you, and to the strangers that dwell among you, which shall beget children among you, and they shall be vnto you, as borne in the countrey among the children of Israel, [l] they shall part inheritance with you in the mids of the tribes of Israel.

23 And in what tribe the stranger dwelleth, there shall ye giue him his inheritance, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XLVI.

1 The sacrifices of the Sabbath and of the newe moones. 8 Therow which doores they must goe in, or come out of the Temple, &c.

THus saith the Lord God, The gate of the inner court, that turneth toward the East, shall be shut the sixe working dayes: but on the Sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the newe moone it shall be opened.

2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the poste of the gate, and the priests shall make his burnt offering, and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: after, he shall goe forth, but the gate shall not bee shut till the euening.

3 Likewise the people of the lande shall worship at the entrie of this gate before the Lord on the Sabbaths, and in the newe moones.

4 And the burnt offering that the prince shall offer vnto the Lorde on the Sabbath day, shall be sixe lambes without blemish, and a ramme without blemish.

5 And the meate offering shall be an Ephah for a ramme: and the meate offering for the lambes a a gift of his hand, and an Hin of ople to an Ephah.

a That is, as much as he will.

6 And in the day of the newe moone it shall be a young bullocke without blemish, and sixe lambes and a ramme: they shalbe without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meate offering, euen an ephah for a bullocke, and an Ephah for a ramme, and for the lambes b according as his hand shall bring, and an Hin of ople to an Ephah.

b Meaning, as he shall thinke good.

8 And when the prince shal enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall goe forth by the way thereof.

9 But when the people of the land shall come before the Lord in the solemne feastes, he that entreth in by the way of the North gate to worship, shall goe out by the way of the South gate: and hee that entreth by the way of the South gate, shall goe forth by the way of the North gate: hee shall not returne by the way of the gate whereby hee came in, but they shall goe forth ouer against it.

10 And the prince shalbe in the mids of them: he shall goe in when they goe in, and when they goe forth, they shall goe forth together.

11 And in the feastes, and in the solemnities the meate offering shalbe an Ephah to a bullocke, and an Ephah to a ramme, and to the lambes, the gift of his hand, and an Hin of ople to an Ephah.

12 Howe when the prince shall make a free burnt offering or peace offerings freely vnto the Lord, one shall then open him the gate that turneth toward the East, and he shall make his burnt offring, and his peace offrings as he did on the Sabbath day: after, he shall goe forth, and when he is gone forth, one shall shut the gate.

13 Thou shalt daily make a burnt offering vnto the Lord of a lambe of one yeere without blemish: thou shalt doe it euery morning.

14 And thou shalt prepare a meate offering for it euery morning, the sixt part of an Ephah, and the third part of an Hin of oile, to mingle with the fine floure: this meat offring shalbe continually by a perpetuall ordinance vnto the Lord.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lambe, and the meate offering, and the ople euery morning, for a continuall burnt offering.

16 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God, If the prince giue a gift of his inheritance vnto any of his sonnes, it shalbe his sonnes, and it shall be their possession by inheritance.

17 But if he giue a gift of his inheritance to one of his seruants, then it shall be his to the c peere of libertie: after, it shall returne to the prince, but his inheritance shall remaine to his sonnes for them.

c Which was at the Iubile, Leuit. 25.9.

18 Moreouer the prince shall not d take of the peoples inheritance, nor thrust them out of their possession: but he shall cause his sonnes to inherite of his owne possession, that my people be not scattered euery man from his possession.

d But be content with that portion that God had assigned him, as Chap. 45.8.

19 ¶ After, he brought me thorow the entrie, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the Priests, which stood toward the North: and behold, there was a place at the West side of them.

20 Then said he vnto me, This is the place where the priests shall sethe the trespasse offering, and the sinne offering, where they shall bake the meate offering, that they should not beare them into the vtter court, e to sanctifie the people.

e That the people should not haue to doe with those things which appertaine to the Lord, and thinke it lawfull for them to eate them.

21 Then he brought me forth into the vtter court, and caused me to goe by the foure corners corners of the court: and beholde, in euery corner of the court, there was a court.

22 In the foure corners of the court there were courts ioyned of fourtie cubites long, and thirtie broade: these foure corners were of one measure.

23 And there went a wall about them, euen about those foure, and kitchins were made vnder the walles round about.

24 Then sayde hee vnto me, This is the kitchin where the ministers of the house shall seethe the sacrifice of the people.

CHAP. XLVII.

1 The vision of the waters, that come out of the Temple. 13 The coastes of the land of promise, and the diuision thereof by tribes.

AFterward hee brought mee vnto the doore of the house: and beholde, [a] waters issued out from vnder the threshold of the house Eastward: for the forefront of the house stoode towarde the East, and the waters ranne downe from vnder the right side of the house, at the South side of the altar.

2 Then brought hee me out toward the North gate, and led mee about by the way without vnto the vtter gate, by the way that turneth Eastward: and beholde, there came forth waters on the right side.

3 And when the man that had the line in his hand, went forth Eastward, he measured a thousand cubites, and he brought me through the waters: the waters were to the ancles.

4 Againe hee measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters: the waters were to the knees: againe hee measured a thousand, and brought me through: the waters were to the loynes.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand, and it was a [b] riuer that I could not passe ouer: for the waters were risen, and the waters did flowe, as a riuer that could not bee passed ouer.

6 And he sayd vnto me, Sonne of man, hast thou seene this? Then he brought mee, and caused mee to returne to the brinke of the riuer.

7 Now when I returned, behold, at the brinke of the riuer were very many [c] trees on the one side, and on the other.

8 Then sayd he vnto me, These waters issue out toward the East countrey, and runne downe into the plaine, and shall goe into one [d] sea: they shall ronne into another sea, and the [e] waters shalbe wholesome.

9 And euery thing that liueth, which moueth, whereseouer the riuers shall come, shall liue, and there shall bee a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be wholesome, and euery thing shall liue whither the riuer commeth.

10 And then the [f] fishers shall stand vpon it, and from En-gedi euen vnto [g] En-eglaim, they shall spread out their nettes: for their fish shalbe according to their kindes, as the fish of [h] the maine sea, exceeding many.

11 But [i] the myrie places thereof, and the marises thereof shall not be wholesome: they shall be made salt-pits.

12 And by this riuer vpon the brinke thereof, on this side, and on that side, shall growe all ‖ fruitfull trees, whose leafe shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof faile: it shall bring foorth newe fruite according to his moneths, because their waters runne out of the Sanctuarie: and the fruite thereof shall be meate, and the leafe thereof shall be for ‖ medicine.

Gen.12.7. & 13.15. & 15.18. and 26.4. deut.34.4.

15 And this shall bee the border [k] of the land toward the Northside, from the maine sea toward Hethlon as men goe to Zedadah:

k By the land of promise he signifieth the spirituall land, whereof this was a figure.

16 Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is betweene the border of Damascus, and the border of Hamath, and Hazar, Hatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran.

17 And the border from the sea shall bee Hazar, Enan, and the border of Damascus, and the residue of the North, Northward, and the border of Hamath: so shall bee the North part.

18 But the East side shall yee measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Iorden, and from the border vnto the East sea: and so shall be the East part.

19 And the Southside shall bee towarde Teman from Tamar to the waters of ‖ Meriboth in Kadesh, and the riuer to the maine sea: so shalbe the South part toward Teman.

‖ Or, strife.

5 And by the border of Manasseh from the East side vnto the West side, a portion for Ephraim.

6 And by the border of Ephraim, from the East part euen vnto the West part, a portion for Reuben.

7 And by the border of Reuben, from the East quarter vnto the West quarter, a portion for Iudah.

8 And by the border of Iudah, from the East part vnto the West part [b] shall be the offering which they shall offer of fiue and twentie thousande reedes broade, and of length as one of the other partes, from the East side, vnto the West side, and the Sanctuarie shall be in the middes of it.

b That is, the portion of the ground, which they shall separate and appoynt to the Lord, which shall be diuided into three parts: for the Priestes, for the Prince, and for the citie.

9 The oblation that yee shall offer vnto the Lord, shall bee of fiue and twentie thousand long, and of ten thousand the breadth.

10 And for them, euen for the Priestes shalbe this holy oblation, toward the North fiue and twentie thousand long, and toward the West ten thousand broade, and toward the East ten thousand broade, and toward the South fiue and twentie thousand long, and the Sanctuarie of the Lord shall bee in the middes thereof.

11 It shall be for the Priests that are sanctified of the sonnes of * Zadok, which haue kept my charge, which went not astray, when the children of Israel went astray, as the Leuites went astray.

* Chap. 44. 15.

12 Therefore this oblation of the land that is offered, shall bee theirs, as a thing most holy by the border of the Leuites.

13 And ouer against the border of the Priests, the Leuites shall haue fiue and twentie thousand long, and ten thousand broade: all the length shall be fiue and twentie thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.

14 And they shall not sell of it, neither change it, nor alienate the first fruites of the land: for it is holy vnto the Lord.

15 And the fiue thousand that are left in the breadth ouer against the fiue and twentie thousand, shall be a prophane place for the citie, for housing, and for suburbes, and the citie shall be in the middes thereof.

16 And these shalbe the measures thereof, the North part fiue hundreth and fours thousand, and the South part [c] fiue hundreth and foure thousand, and the East part fiue hundreth and foure thousand, and the West part fiue hundreth and foure thousand.

c Meaning, that it should be square.

17 And the suburbes of the citie shall be toward the North two hundreth and fiftie, and towarde the South two hundreth and fiftie, and towarde the East two hundreth and fiftie, and towarde the West two hundreth and fiftie.

18 And the residue in length ouer against the oblation of the holy portion shall bee ten thousand Eastward, and tenne thousande Westward: and it shall be ouer against the oblation of the holy portion, and the encrease thereof shall bee for foode vnto them that serue in the citie.

19 And they that serue in the citie, shall be of all the tribes of Israel that shall serue therein.

20 All the oblation shalbe fiue and twentie thousand with [d] fiue and twentie thousand: you shall offer this oblation foure square for the Sanctuarie, and for the possession of the citie.

d Euery way it shall be fiue and twenty thousand.

21 And the residue shall bee for the prince on the one side and on the other of the oblation of the Sanctuarie, and of the possession of the citie, ouer against the fiue and twentie thousand of the oblation towarde the East border, and Westward ouer against the fiue and twentie thousand towarde the West border, ouer against shalbe for the portion of the prince: this shalbe the holy oblation, and the house of the Sanctuarie shall be in the middes thereof.

22 Moreouer, from the possession of the Leuites, and from the possession of the citie, that which is in the mids shall bee the princes: betweene the border [e] of Iudah, and betweene the border of Beniamin shall bee the princes.

e So that Iudah was on the North side of the princes and Leuites portions, and Beniamin on the South side.

23 And the rest of the tribes shalbe thus: from the East part vnto the West part, Beniamin shall be a portion.

24 And by the border of Beniamin, from the East side vnto the West side, Simeon a portion.

25 And by the border of Simeon from the East part vnto the West part, Issachar a portion.

26 And by the border of Issachar from the East side vnto the West, Zebulun a portion.

27 And by the border of Zebulun from the East part vnto the West part, Gad a portion.

28 And by the border of Gad at the South side, toward [f] Temath, the border shalbe euen from [g] Tamar vnto the waters of Meribath in Kadesh, and to the [h] riuer, that runneth into the maine sea.

f Which is here taken for Idumea.

g Which was Iericho, the citie of Palme trees.

h Meaning, Nilus, that runneth into the sea called Mediterraneum.

29 This is the land, which yee shall distribute vnto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their portions, sayeth the Lord God.

30 And these are the boundes of the citie, on the North side fiue hundreth, and foure thousand measures, 31 And the gates of the citie shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel, the gates Northward, one gate of Reuben, one gate of Iudah, and one gate of Leui.

32 And at the East side fiue hundreth and foure thousand and three gates, and one gate of Ioseph, one gate of Beniamin, and one gate of Dan.

33 And at the South side, fiue hundreth and foure thousande measures, and three portes, one gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, and one of Zebulun.

34 At the West side fiue hundreth and foure thousand, with their three gates, one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, and one gate of Naphtali.

35 It was round about eighteene thousand measures, and the name of the citie from that day shall be, ‡ The Lord is there.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe great prouidence of God, and his ſingular mercy toward his Church are moſt liuely heere ſet foorth, who neuer leaueth his deſtitute, but now in their greateſt miſeries and afflictions giueth them Prophets, as Ezekiel, and Daniel, whom he adorned with ſuch graces of his holy Spirit, that Daniel aboue all other had moſt ſpeciall reuelations of ſuch things as ſhould come to the Church, euen from the time that they were in captiuitie, to the laſt end of the world, and to the generall reſurrection, as of the foure monarchies and empires of all the world, to wit, of the Babylonians, Perſians, Grecians, and Romans. Alſo of the certeine number of the times euen vnto Chriſt, when all ceremonies and ſacrifices ſhould ceaſe, becauſe he ſhould be the accompliſhment thereof: moreouer he ſheweth Chriſtes office and the cauſe of his death, which was by his ſacrifice to take away ſinnes, and to bring euerlaſting life. And as from the beginning God euer exerciſed his people vnder the croſſe, ſo he teacheth here, that after that Chriſt is offered, he will ſtill leaue this exerciſe to his Church vntill the dead riſe againe, and Chriſt gather his into his kingdome in the heauens.

CHAP. I.

1 The captiuitie of Iehoiakim King of Iudah. 4 The king chuſeth certeine yong men of the Iewes to learne hu law. 5 They haue the kings ordinarie appointed, 8 but they abſteine from it.

IN the a third yeere of the reigne of Iehoiakim King of Iudah, came Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel vnto Ieruſalem, and beſieged it.

2 And the Lord gaue Iehoiakim King of Iudah into his hand, with part of the veſſels of the houſe of God, which hee carried into the land of b Shinar, to the houſe of his God, and he brought the veſſels into his gods treaſurie.

3 And the King ſpake vnto c Aſhpenaz the maiſter of his d Eunuches, that hee ſhoulde bring certeine of the children of Iſrael, of the e Kings ſeed, and of the princes:

4 Children in whome was no blemiſh, but well f fauoured, and inſtruct in all wiſdome, and wel ſeene in knowledge, and able to vtter knowledge, and ſuch as were able to ſtand in the Kings palace, and whome they might teach the g learning, and the tongue of the Caldeans.

5 And the king appointed them prouiſion euery day of a h portion of the kings meate, and of the wine which hee dranke, ſo nouriſhing them i three yere, that at the end thereof, they might ſtand k before the king.

6 Now among theſe were certeine of the children of Iudah, Daniel, Hananiah, Miſhael, and Azariah.

7 Vnto whom the chiefe of the eunuches l gaue other names: for hee called Daniel, Belteſhazzar, and Hananiah, Shadrach, and Miſhael, Meſhach, and Azarriah, Abednego.

8 ¶ But Daniel had determined in his heart, that hee woulde not m defile himſelfe with the portion of the kings meat, nor with the wine which he dranke: therefore he required the chiefe of the Eunuches that hee might not defile himſelfe.

9 (Nowe God had brought Daniel into fauour, and tender loue with the chiefe of the Eunuches)

10 And the chiefe of the Eunuches ſayde vnto Daniel, n I feare my lord the King, who hath appointed your meate and your drinke: therefore if he ſee your faces woorſe liking then the other children, which are of your ſort, then ſhall you make me loſe mine head vnto the king.

11 Then ſayd Daniel to Melzar, whome the chiefe of the Eunuches had ſet ouer Daniel, Hananiah, Miſhael and Azariah, 12 Prooue thy ſeruants, I beſeech thee, o ten dayes, and let them giue vs p pulſe to eate, and water to drinke.

13 Then let our countenances be looked vpon before thee, and the countenances of the children that eate of the portion of a Reade 2. Kings 24. 1. and Ierem. 25. 1.

b Which was a plaine by Babylon, where was the Temple of their great god, and is here taken for Babylon.

c Who was as maſter of the wards.

d Hee calleth them eunuches whom the King nouriſhed and brought vp to be rulers of other countreys afterward.

e His purpoſe was to keepe them as hoſtages, and that he might ſhewe himſelfe victorious, and alſo by their good intreatie and learning of his religion, they might fauour rather him then the Iewes, and ſo to be able to ſerue him as gouernours in their land: moreouer by this meanes the Iewes might bee better kept in ſubiection, fearing otherwiſe to procure hurt to theſe noble men. f The King required three things, that they ſhould be of noble birth, that they ſhould bee wittie and learned, and that they ſhoulde bee of a ſtrong and comely nature, that they might doe him better ſeruice: this hee did for his owne commodity, therefore it is not to praiſe his liberalitie: yet in this hee is woorthy praiſe, that hee eſteemed learning, and knew that it was a neceſſary meane to gouerne by. g That they might forget their owne religion and countrey faſhions, to ſerue him the better to his purpoſe: yet it is not to be thought that Daniel did learne any knowledge that was not godly: in all poyntes hee refuſed the abuſe of things and ſuperſtition, inſomuch that he would not eate the meate which the King appointed him, but was content to learne the knowledge of naturall things. h That by their good entertainement they might learne to forget the mediocritie of their owne people, i To the intent that in this time they might both learne the maners of the Caldeans, and alſo their tongue.

k As well to ſerue at the table, as in other offices.

l That they might altogether forget their religion: for the Iewes gaue their children names, which might euer put them in remembrance of ſome point of religion: therefore this was a great tentation and a ſigne of ſeruitude which they were not able to reſiſt.

m Not that he thought any religion to be in the meate or drinke (for afterward he did eate) but becauſe the King ſhould not entiſe him by this ſweet poiſon, to forget his religion and accuſtomed ſobrietie, and that in his meat and drinke he might dayly remember of what people he was: and Daniel bringeth this in to ſhew how God from the beginning aſſiſted him with his Spirit, and at length called him to be a Prophet. n He ſuppoſed they did this for their religion, which was contrary to the Babylonians, and therefore herein he repreſenteth them which are of no religion: for neither he would condemne theirs, nor maintaine his owne. o Meaning, that within this ſpace he might haue the triall, and that no man ſhould be able to diſcerne it: and thus he ſpake, being mooued by the Spirit of God. p Not that it was a thing abominable to eate daintie meats and to drinke wine, as both before and after they did, but if they ſhould haue hereby bene woonne to the King, and haue refuſed their owne religion, that meate and drinke had bene accurſed.

14 So hee consented to them in this matter, and proued them ten dayes.

15 And at the ende of tenne dayes, their countenances appeared fairer, & [t] better liking then all the children, which did eate the portion of the kings meate.

16 Thus Melzar tooke away the portion of their meate, and the wine that they should drinke, and gaue them pulse.

17 As for these foure children, God gaue them knowledge, and vnderstanding in all learning [r] and wisedome: also hee gaue Daniel vnderstanding of all [s] visions and dreames.

18 Now when the time was [r] expired, that the king had appointed to bring them in, the chiefe of the Eunuches brought them before Nebuchad-nezzar.

19 And the king communed with them: and among them all was founde none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the King.

20 And in all matters of wisedome, and vnderstanding that the King enquired of them, he found them ten times better then all the Inchanters and Astrologians, that were in all his realme.

21 And Daniel was vnto [u] the first yeere of King Cyrus.

q This bare feeding and that also of Moses, when he fled from the court of Egypt, declareth that we must liue in such sobriety as God doth call vs vnto, seeing he will make it more profitable vnto vs, then all deinties: for his blessing onely sufficeth.

CHAP. II.

1 The dreame of Nebuchad-nezzar. 13 The king commandeth all the wisemen of Babylon to be slaine, because they could not interpret his dreame. 16 Daniel requireth time to solute the question. 24 Daniel is brought vnto the king, and sheweth him his dreame and the interpretation thereof. 44 Of the euerlasting kingdome of Christ.

AND in the second yeere of the reigne of [a] Nebuchad-nezzar, Nebuchad-nezzar dreamed [b] dreames wherewith his spirit was [c] troubled, and his [d] sleepe was vpon him.

2 Then the King commanded to call the Inchanters, and the Astrologians and the Sorcerers, and the [e] Caldeans for to shewe the King his dreames: so they came & stood before the King.

3 And the King sayd vnto them, I haue dreamed a dreame, and my spirit was troubled to know the dreame.

4 Then spake the Caldeans to the king in the [f] Aramites language, O king, liue for euer: shewe thy seruants thy dreame, and we shall shew the interpretation.

5 And the king answered and sayd to the Caldeans, The thing is gone from me. If ye will not make me vnderstand the dreame with the interpretation thereof, ye [g] shalbe drawen in pieces, and your houses shall be made a fakes.

6 But if yee declare the dreame and the interpretation thereof, yee shall receiue of me giftes and rewardes, and great honour: therefore shewe me the dreame and the interpretation of it.

7 They answered againe, and sayd, Let the King shewe [h] his seruants the dreame, and wee will declare the interpretation thereof.

8 Then the King answered, and sayde, I know certeinely that yee [i] would gaine the time, because yee see the thing is gone from mee.

9 But if yee will not declare mee the dreame, there is but one iudgement for you: for yee haue prepared lying and corrupt wordes, to speake before me till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dreame, that I may know, if yee can declare me the interpretation thereof.

10 Then the Caldeans answered before the king, and sayd, There is no man vpon earth that can declare the Kings matter: yea, there is neither king, nor prince, nor lord that asked such things at an Inchanter or Astrologian or Caldean.

11 For it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can declare it before the king, except the gods whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the King was angry and in great fury, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babel.

13 ¶ And when sentence was giuen, the wise men were slaine: and they [i] sought Daniel and his fellowes to be put to death.

14 Then Daniel answered with counsell and wisedome to Arioch the kings ‖ chiefe steward, which was gone forth to put to death the wise men of Babel.

15 Yea, he answered and said vnto Arioch the kings captaine, Why is the sentence so hasty from the king? Then Arioch declared the thing to Daniel.

16 So Daniel went and desired the king that hee would giue him leasure, and that hee would shew the king the interpretation thereof.

17 ¶ Then Daniel went to his house and shewed the matter to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah his companions, 18 That they shoulde beseech the God of heauen for grace in this secret, that Daniel and his fellowes shoulde not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babel.

19 Then was the secret reuealed vnto Daniel in a vision by night: therefore Daniel praised the God of heauen.

20 And Daniel answered and said, *The Name of God be praised for euer and euer: for wisedome and strength are his,

21 And hee changeth the times and seasons: he taketh away kings: he setteth vp kings: hee giueth wisedome vnto the wise, and a The father and the sonne were both called by this name: so that this is meant of the sonne, whe he reigned alone: for he reigned also after a sort with his father.

b Not that he had many dreames, but because many matters were conteined in this deame.

c Because it was so rare & strange a dreame that he had not had the like. d He was so heauy with sleepe that he began to sleepe againe, Some reade, and his sleepe was broken from him. e For all these Astrologers and Sorcerers called themselues by this name of honour, as though all the wisedome and knowledge of the countrey depended vpon them, and that all other countreyes were voyd of the same. f That is, in the Syrian tongue which differed not much from the Caldeans, saue it seemed to be more eloquent, & therfore the learned vsed to speake it: as the Iewish writers do to this day.

g This is a iust reward of their arrogancy (which vaunted of themselues that they had the knowlege of all things) that they should be proued fooles, and that to their perpetuall shame and confusion.

g Herein appeared their ignorance, that notwithstanding their brags, yet were they not able to tell the dreame, except he entred them into the matter, and therefore they would pretend knowledge where was but mere ignorance, and so as deluders of the people, they were worthy to die.

i Which declareth, that God would not haue his seruant ioyned in the company of these sorcerers and astrologers, whose artes were wicked, and therefore iustly ought to die, though the king did it vpon a rage, and no zeale.

‖ Or, the captaine of the gard.

* Psalme 113.2. and 115.18.

k He sheweth that man hath neither wisdome nor knowledge, but very darke blindnes, and ignorance of himselfe: for it commeth onely of God, that man vnderstandeth any thing.

l To whom thou madest thy promise, and who liued in thy feare: whereby he excludeth all other gods.

m Meaning, power to interprete it.

n Whereby appeareth that many were slaine, as verse 13. and the rest at Daniels offer were preserued on condition: not that Daniel fauoured their wicked profession, but that he had respect to equitie, because the king proceded according to his wicked affection, and not considering, if their science were lawfull or no.

o He affirmeth that man by reason & arte is not able to attaine to the cause of Gods secrets, but the vnderstanding onely thereof must come of God: whereby he smiteth the King with a certaine feare and reuerence of God, that he might be the more apt to receiue his mysteries, that should be reuelled.

and vnderstanding to those that vnderstand.

22 He discouereth the deepe and secrete things: hee knoweth what is in the darknes, and the [k] light dwelleth with him.

23 I thanke thee and prayse thee, O thou God of my [l] fathers, that thou hast giuen me wisedome and [m] strength, and hast shewed mee nowe the thing that wee desired of thee: for thou hast declared vnto vs the kings matter.

24 ¶ Therefore Daniel went vnto Arioch, whome the king had ordayned to destroy the wise men of Babel: hee went and sayd thus vnto him, Destroy not [n] the wise men of Babel, but bring me before the king, and I will declare vnto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought Daniel before the king in all haste, and sayd thus vnto him, I haue founde a man of the children of Iudah that were brought captiues, that will declare vnto the king the interpretation.

26 Then answered the king and sayde vnto Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to shewe mee the dreame, which I haue seene, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the King, and sayde, The secrete which the king hath demaunded, can neither the wise, the astrologians, the inchaunters, nor the soothsayers declare vnto the king.

28 But there is a God in [o] heauen that reueileth secrets, and sheweth the King Nebuchad-nezzar what shall bee in the latter dayes. Thy dreame, and the things which thou hast seene in thine head vpon thy bed, is this.

29 O King, when thou wast in thy bed, thoughts came into thy mind, what shoulde come to passe hereafter, and hee that reueileth secrets, telleth thee, what shall come.

30 As [p] for mee, the secrete is not shewed mee for any wisedome that I haue, more then any other liuing, but onely to shewe the King the interpretation, and that thou mightest knowe the thoughtes of thine heart.

31 O king, thou sawest, and behold, there was a great image: this great image whose glory was so excellent, stood before thee, and the forme thereof was terrible.

32 This images head was of fine [q] gold, his breast and his armes of siluer, his bellie and his thighs of brasse, 33 His legges of yron, and his feete were part of yron, and part of clay.

34 Thou beheldest it till a stone was cut without handes, which smote the image vpon his feete, that were of yron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

35 Then was the yron, [p] clay, the brasse, the siluer and the golde broken all together, and became like the chaffe of the sommer flowers, and the winde caried them away, that no place was founde for them: and the stone that smote the image, became a great mountaine, and filled the whole earth.

36 This is the dreame, and wee will declare before the King the interpretation thereof.

37 O King, thou art a king of kings, for the God of heauen hath giuen thee a kingdome, power, and strength, and glory.

38 And in all places where the children of men dwell, the beastes of the fielde, and the fowles of the heauen hath he giuen into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler ouer them all: thou art [r] this head of golde.

39 And after thee shal rise another kingdome, inferiour to thee, of siluer, and another [s] third kingdome shall be of brasse, which shal beare rule ouer all the earth.

40 And the fourth kingdome shall bee strong as yron: for as yron breaketh in pieces, and subdueth all things, and as yron bruiseth all these things, so shall it breake in [t] pieces, and bruise all.

41 Whereas thou sawest the feete and toes, part of potters clay, and part of yron: the kingdome shall bee [u] diuided, but there shall bee in it of the strength of the yron, as thou sawest the yron mixt with the clay, and earth.

42 And as the toes of the feete were part of yron, and part of clay, so shall the kingdome be partly strong, and partly broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest yron mixt with clay and earth, they shall mingle themselues with [y] the seede of men: but they shall not ioyne one with another, as yron can not be mixed with clay.

44 And in the dayes of these kings, shall the God of heauen set vp a kingdome, which [z] shall neuer bee destroyed: and this kingdome shall not bee giuen to another people, but it shal breake, and destroy all these kingdomes, and it shall stand for euer.

45 ¶ Whereas thou sawest, that the [a] stone was cutte off the mountayne without handes, and that it brake in pieces the yron, the brasse, the clay, the siluer and the golde: the great God hath shewed the King what shall come to passe hereafter, and the dreame is certaine, and the interpretation thereof faithfull.

46 Then King Nebuchad-nezzar fell downe on his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commaunded that they should offer an offering and sweete odours vnto him.

47 The King answered vnto Daniel, and sayde, Of a truth your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a reuealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reueile this secrete.

48 Then the King aduanced Daniel, and gaue him many great giftes, and made him ruler ouer all the prouince of Babel, and chiefe of the gouernours ouer all the wise men of Babel.

49 Daniel also requested of the King, that he might set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego ouer the affaires of the prouince of Babel: but Daniel was in the kings gate.

p Because he had said that God only must reueile the signification of this dreame, the King might haue asked, why Daniel did enterprise to interprete it, and therefore hee sheweth that he was but Gods minister, and had no giftes, but such as God had giuen him to set foorth his glory.

q By golde, siluer, brasse and yron, are meant the Caldean, Persian, Macedonian and Romane kingdome, which should successiuely rule all the world till Christ (which is here called the stone) come himselfe, and destroy the last: & this was to assure the Iewes, that their affliction should not ende with the empire of the Caldeans, but that they should patiently abide the comming of Messiah, which should be at the ende of this fourth Monarchie.

r Daniel leaueth out the kingdome of the Assyrians, which was before the Babylonian, both because it was not a Monarchie and generall empire, and also because he would declare the things that were to come, to the comming of Christ, for the comfort of the elect amõg these wonderfull alterations: and he calleth the Babylonian kingdome the golden head, because in respect of the other three, it was the best, and yet was of it selfe wicked & cruell.

s Meaning, the Persians, which were not inferiour in dignitie, power, and riches, but were worse touching ambition, cruelties, & all kind of vice: shewing, that the world should grow worse and worse, till it was restored by Christ.

t That is, of the Macedonians shall bee of brasse, not alluding to the hardnes thereof, but to the vilenesse in respect of siluer.

u That is, the Romane empire shall subdue all these other aforenamed, which after Alexander were diuided into the Macedonians, Grecians, Syrians, and Egyptians.

x They shall haue ciuill warres, & continuall discords among themselues.

y They shall by marriages, and affinities thinke to make themselues strong: yet shall they neuer be ioyned in hearts.

z His purpose is to shew, that all the kingdomes of the worlde are transitorie, and that the kingdome of Christ shall onely remaine for euer.

a Meaning Christ, who was sent of God, and not set vp by man, whose kingdome at the beginning shoulde bee small and without beautie to mans iudgement, but shoulde at length growe and fill the whole earth, which hee calleth a great mountaine, as verse 35. And this kingdome which is not onely referred to the person of Christ, but also to the whole body of his Church, and to euery member thereof shall be eternall: for the spirite that is in them, is life eternall, Rom. 8. 10.

golde: so the great God hath shewed the king, what shall come to passe hereafter, and the dreame is true, and the interpretation thereof is sure.

b Though this humbling of the king seemed to deserue commendation, yet because he ioyned Gods honour with the Prophets, it is to be reproued, and Daniel herein erred if he suffered it: but it is credible that Daniel admonished him of his fault, and did not suffer it.

46 ¶ Then the King Nebuchad-nezzar, fell vpon his face, and b bowed himselfe vnto Daniel, and commanded that they should offer meate offrings, and sweete odours vnto him.

c This confession was but a sudden motion, as it was also in Pharaoh, Exod. 9.27, 28. but his heart was not 47 Also the king answered vnto Daniel, and sayde, I knowe of a trueth that your c God is a God of gods, and the Lorde of kings, and the reueiler of secrets, seeing thou couldest open this secret.

48 So d king made Daniel a great man, and gaue him many and great d giftes. He made him gouernour ouer the whole prouince of Babel, and chiefe of the rulers, and aboue all the wise men of Babel.

49 Then Daniel e made request to the King, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego ouer the charge of the prouince of Babel: But Daniel sate in the f gate of the king.

touched, as appeareth soone after ward. d Not that the Prophet was desirous of gifts or honour, but because by this meanes he might relieue his poore brethren which were grieuously oppressed in this their captiuitie, and also he receiued them, lest he should offend this cruell king, which willingly gaue them. e He did not this for their priuate profite, but that the whole Church which was then there in affliction, might haue some release and ease, by this benefite. f Meaning, that eyther he was a iudge, or that hee had the whole authoritie, so that none could bee admitted to the kings presence, but by him.

CHAP. III.

1 The king setteth vp a golden image. 8 Certaine are accused because they despised the Kings commandement, and are put into a burning ouen. 25 By beliefe in God they are deliuered from the fire. 26 Nebuchad nezzar confesseth the power of God after the sight of the miracle.

a Vnder pretence of religion and holinesse, in making an image to his idole Bel, he sought his owne ambition and vaine glory: and this declareth, that he was not touched with the true feare of God before, but that he confessed him on a sudden motion, as the wicked, when they are ouercome with the greatnesse of his workes. The Greeke interpreters write, that this was done eighteene yeeres after the dreame, and as may appeare, the King feared least the Iewes by their religion should haue altred the state of his common wealth, and therefore he meant to bring all to one kind of religion, and so rather sought his owne quietnesse, then Gods glory. b Shewing that the idole is not knowen for an idole so long as hee is with the woorkeman: but when the ceremonies and customes are recited and vsed, and the consent of the people is there, then of a blocke they thinke they haue made a god. c This was sufficient with the wicked at all times to approue their religion, if the kings authoritie were alledged for the establishment therof, not considering in the meane season what Gods word did permit.

NEbuchad-nezzar the King made a an image of golde, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof sixe cubites: he set it vp in the plaine of Dura, in the prouince of Babel.

2 Then Nebuchad-nezzar the king sent foorth to gather together the nobles, the princes and the dukes, the iudges, the receiuers, the counsellers, the officers, and all the gouernours of the prounces, that they shoulde come to the b dedication of the image, which Nebuchad-nezzar the c King had set vp.

3 So the nobles, princes and dukes, the iudges, the receiuers, the counsellers, the officers, and all the gouernours of the prouinces were assembled vnto the dedicating of the image, that Nebuchad-nezzar the king had set vp: and they stoode before the image, which Nebuchad-nezzar had set vp.

4 Then an heralde cryed alounde, See it knowen to you, O people, d nations, and languages,

5 That when yee heare the sounde of the cornet, trumpet, harpe, sackebut, psalterie, dulcimer, and all instruments of musicke, yee fall downe and worship the golden image, that Nebuchad-nezzar the king hath set vp,

6 And whosoeuer falleth not downe and worshipped, shall the same houre bee cast into the mids of an hote fierie fornace.

7 Therefore assoone as all the people heard the sound of the cornet, trumpet, harpe, sackebut, psalterie, and all instruments of musicke, all the people, nations, and languages fell downe, and worshipped the golden image, that Nebuchad-nezzar the king had set vp.

8 ¶ By reason whereof at that same time came men of the Caldeans, and grieuously accused the Iewes.

9 For they spake and sayde to the king Nebuchad-nezzar, O king, liue for euer.

10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that euery man that shall heare the sounde of the cornet, trumpet, harpe, sackebut, psalterie, and dulcimer, and all instruments of musicke, shal fall downe and worship the golden image, 11 And whosoeuer falleth not downe, and worshipyeth, that hee should be cast into the mids of an hote fierie fornace.

12 There are certaine Iewes whome thou hast set ouer the charge of the prouince of Babel, e Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: these men, O King, haue not regarded thy commandement, neither will they serue thy gods, nor worship the golden image, that thou hast set vp.

13 ¶ Then Nebuchad-nezzar in his anger and wrath commanded that they should bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: so these men were brought before the king.

14 And Nebuchad-nezzar spake, and said vnto them, f What disorder? will not you, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego serue my god, nor worship the molten image that I haue set vp?

15 g Nowe therefore are yee ready when ye heare the sounde of the cornet, trumpet, harpe, sackebut, psalterie, and dulcimer, and all instruments of musicke, to fal downe, and worship the image, which I haue made: for if ye worship it not, yee shall bee cast immediately into the midses of an hote fierie fornace: for who is that God, that can deliuer you out of mine hands?

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered and sayde to the king, O Nebuchad-nezzar, wee are not carefull to answere thee in this matter,

17 Beholde, our God whome we serue, is d These are the two dangerous weapons where with Satan vseth to fight against the children of God, the consent of the multitude, and the crueltie of ỹ punishment: for though some feared God, yet the multitude, which consented to the wickednes, astonied them: and here the king required not an inward consent, but an outward gesture, that the Iewes might, by little and little, learne to forget their true religiõ. e It seemeth that they named not Daniel, because he was greatly in the kings fauour, thinking if these three had bene destroyed, they might haue had better occasion to accuse Daniel: and this declareth that this policie of erecting this image, was inuented by the malicious flatterers, which sought nothing but ỹ destruction of the Iewes, whome they accused of rebellion and ingratitude. f Signifying, that he would receiue them to grace, if they would now at the length obey his decree. g For they should haue done iniurie to God, if they should haue doubted in this holy cause, and therefore they say, that they are resolued to die for Gods cause.

h They ground on two points, first on y power and prouidence of God ouer them, and secondly on their cause, which was Gods glory, and the testifying of his true religion with their blood, & so make open confession, that they wil not so much as outwardly consent to idolatrie.

i This declareth that the more the tyrants rage, and the more wittie they shew themselues in inuenting strange and cruell punishments, the more is God glorified by his seruants to whome he giueth patience & constancie to abide the crueltie of their punishment: for either hee deliuereth them from death, or els for this life giueth them a better.

k For the Angels were called the sonnes of God because of their excellencie: therefore the king called this Angel, whome God sent to comfort his in these great torments, the sonne of God.

l This commendeth their obedience vnto God, that they would not for any feare depart out of this fornace, till the time appointed, as Noah remained in the Arke till the Lorde called him foorth.

m He was moued by the greatnesse of the miracle to prayse God, but his heart was not touched. And here wee see that miracles are not sufficient to conuert men to God, but that doctrine must chiefly bee adioyned, without the which there can be no faith.

able to deliuer vs from the hote fierie fornace, and hee will deliuer vs out of thine hand, O king.

18 But if not, be it knowen to thee, O king, that wee will not serue thy gods, nor worship the golden image, which thou hast set vp.

19 ¶ Then was Nebuchad-nezzar full of rage, and the fourme of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: therefore hee charged and commaunded that they should heate the fornace at once seuen i times more then it was wont to be heat.

20 And he charged the most valiant men of warre that were in his armie, to binde Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the hote fiery fornace.

21 So these men were bound in their coates, their hosen, and their clokes, with their other garments, and cast into the midst of the hote fiery fornace.

22 Therefore because the kings commaundement was straite, that the fornace should be exceeding hote, the flame of the fire slewe those men that brought foorth Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego fell downe bound into the midst of the hote fiery fornace.

24 ¶ Then Nebuchad-nezzar the king was astonied and rose vp in haste, and spake, and sayd vnto his counsellers, Did not wee cast three men bound into the middes of the fire? Who answered, and sayd vnto the king, It is true, O king.

25 And he answered, and sayd, Loe, I see foure men loose, walking in the middes of the fire, and they haue no hurt, and the fourme of the fourth is like the k sonne of God.

26 Then the King Nebuchad-nezzar came neere to the mouth of the hote fiery fornace, and spake and sayd, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, the seruants of the high God, goe foorth and come hither: so Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego l came foorth of the middes of the fire.

27 Then the nobles, princes, and dukes, and the kings counsellers came together to see these men, because the fire had no power ouer their bodies: for not an haire of their head was burnt, neither were their coates changed, nor any smell of fire came vpon them.

28 Wherefore Nebuchad-nezzar spake and sayd, m Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who hath sent his Angel, and deliuered his seruaunts, that put their trust in him, and haue changed the kings commaundement, and yeelded their bodies rather then they would serue or worship any God, saue their owne God.

29 Therfore I make a decree, that euery people, nation, and language, which speake any n blasphemie against the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, shall bee hewen in peeces, and their houses shall be made a iakes, because there is no God that can deliuer after this sort.

30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, in the prouince of Babel.

31 Nebuchad-nezzar King vnto all people, nations and languages, that dwell in all the o world, Peace be multiplied vnto you:

32 I thought it good to declare the signes and wonders, that the high God hath wrought toward me.

33 How great are his signes, and howe mightie are his wonders! p his kingdome is an euerlasting kingdome, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

n If this heathen king moued by gods spirit, would not see blasphemie vnpunished, but made a law, and set a punishmēt to such transgressours, much more ought all they that professe religion, take order that such impietie reigne not, left according as their knowledge and charge is greater, so they suffer double punishment.

o Meaning so far as his dominion extended. p Reade Chap. 2. 44.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Another dreame of Nebuchad-nezzar which Daniel declareth. 29 The Prophet declareth how of a proude king hee should become as a beast. 31 After he confesseth the power of God, and is restored to his former dignitie.

1 Nebuchad-nezzar being at a rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace,

2 Saw a b dreame, which made mee afraide, and the thoughtes vpon my bed, and the visions of mine head troubled me.

3 Therefore made I a decree, that they should bring all the wise men of Babel before me, that they might declare vnto mee the interpretation of the dreame.

4 So came the inchanters, the astrologians, the Caldeans and the soothsayers, to whome I told the dreame, but c they could not shew me the interpretation thereof.

5 Till at the last Daniel came before me, (whose name was d Beltesshazzar, according to the name of my God, which hath the spirit of the holy gods in him) and before him I told the dreame, saying,

6 O Beltesshazzar, e chiefe of the inchanters, because I knowe that the spirit of the holy Gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dreame, that I haue seene, and the interpretation thereof.

7 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed. And beholde, I sawe a f tree in the middes of the earth, and the height thereof was great:

8 A great tree and strong, and the height thereof reached vnto heauen, and the sight thereof to the ends of all the earth.

9 The boughes thereof were faire and the fruite thereof much, and in it was meate for all: it made a shadowe vnder it for the beastes of the fielde, and the a There was no trouble that might cause me to dreame, and therefore it came onely of God.

b This was another dreame besides that which he sawe of the foure empires: for Daniel both declared what that dreame was and what it meant: and here, he onely expoundeth the dreame.

c In that that he sent abroad to others whose ignorance in times past he had experimented, and left Daniel which was euer ready at hand, it declareth the nature of the vngodly, which, neuer seeke to the seruants of God, but for very necessitie, and then they spare no flatterings.

d This no doubt was a great griefe to Daniel not onely to haue his name changed, but to be called by the name of a vile idole, which thing Nebuchad-nezzar did, to make him forget the true religion of God. e Which also was a great griefe to the Prophet to bee numbred among the sorcerers, and men whose practises were wicked and contrary to Gods worde. f By the tree, is signified the dignitie of a King, whome God ordeineth to be a defence for all kinde of men, and whose state is profitable for mankinde.

foules of the heauen dwelt in the boughes thereof, and all fleth feede of it.

10 I saw in the visions of mine head, vpon my head, and behold, a ᵍ watchman, and an holy one came downe from heauen, 11 And cryed aloude, and sayd thus, Hew downe the tree, and breake off his branches, shake off his leaues, and scatter his fruite, that the beasts may flee from vnder it, and the foules from his branches.

12 Neuertheles leaue the stumpe of his rootes in the earth, and with a band of yron and brasse binde it among the grasse of the field, and let it be wet with the dewe of heauen, and let his portion bee with the beasts among the grasse of the field.

13 ʰ Let his heart be changed from mans nature, and let a beastes heart be giuen vnto him, and let seuen times be passed ouer him.

14 ⁱ The sentence is according to the decree of the watchmen, and according to the worde of the holy ones: the demaund was answered, to the intent that liuing men may knowe, that the most High hath power ouer the kingdome of men, & giueth it to whomsoeuer hee will, and appointeth ouer it the most abiect among men.

15 This is the dreame, that I king Nebuchad-nezzar haue seene: therefore thou, O Beltethazzar, declare the interpretation thereof: for all the wise men of my kingdome are not able to shewe me the interpretation: but thou art able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

16 ¶ Then Daniel (whose name was Beltethazzar) helde his ᵏ peace by the space of one houre, and his thoughts troubled him, and the King spake and sayd, Beltethazzar, let neither the dreame, nor the interpretation thereof trouble thee. Beltethazzar answered, and sayd, My lord, the dreame be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

17 The tree that thou sawest, which was great and mightie, whose height reached vnto the heauen, and the sight thereof through all the world.

18 Whose leaues were faire and the fruite thereof much, and in it was meate for all, vnder the which the beastes of the field dwelt, and vpon whose branches the foules of the heauen did sit,

19 It is thou, O king, that art great and mightie: for thy greatnesse is growen, and reacheth vnto heauen, and thy dominion to the endes of the earth.

20 Whereas the king sawe a watchman, and an holy one, that came downe from heauen, and sayde, Hewe downe the tree, and destroy it, yet leaue the stumpe of the rootes thereof in the earth, and with a band of yron and brasse binde it among the grasse of the fielde, and let it be wet with the dewe of heauen, and let his portion be with the beastes of the fielde, ˡ till seuen times passe ouer him.

21 This is the interpretation, O King, and it is the decree of the most High, which is come vpon my lord the king, 22 That they shal driue thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eate grasse as the ᵐ oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dewe of heauen: and seuen times shall passe ouer thee, till thou knowe, that * the most High beareth rule ouer the kingdome of men, and giueth it to whomsoeuer he will.

23 Whereas they sayd, that one should leaue the stumpe of the tree rootes, thy kingdome shall remaine vnto thee: after that, thou shalt knowe, that the heauens haue the rule.

24 Wherefore, O king, let my counsell be acceptable vnto thee, and ᵒ breake off thy sinnes by righteousnesse, and thine iniquities by mercie toward the poore: loe, let there be an ᵖ healing of thine errour.

25 All these things shall come vpon the king Nebuchad-nezzar.

26 ¶ At the end of twelue ᵠ moneths, he walked in the royall pallace of Babel.

27 And the king spake and sayd, Is not this great Babel, that I haue built for the house of the kingdome by the might of my power, and for the honour of my maiestie?

28 While the worde was in the Kings mouth, a voyce came downe from heauen, saying, O king Nebuchad-nezzar, to thee bee it spoken, Thy kingdome is departed from thee, 29 And they shall driue thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beastes of the fielde: they shall make thee to eate grasse, as the oxen, and seuen times shall passe ouer thee, vntill thou knowest, that the most High beareth rule ouer the kingdome of men, and giueth it vnto whomsoeuer he will.

30 The very same houre was this thing fulfilled vpon Nebuchad-nezzar, and hee was driuen from men, and did eate grasse as the oxen, and his body was wet with the dewe of heauen, till his haires were growen as Egles feathers, and his nailes like birds clawes.

31 And at the ende of ʳ these ˢ dayes I Nebuchad-nezzar lift vp mine eyes vnto heauen, and mine vnderstanding was restored vnto me, and I gaue thankes vnto the most High, and I prayed and honoured him that liueth for euer, * whose power is an euerlasting power, and his kingdome is from generation to generation.

32 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and according to his ᵗ will hee worketh in the armie of heauen, and in the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, nor say vnto him, What doest thou?

33 At the same time was mine vnderstanding restored vnto me, and I returned to the honour of my kingdome: my glory and my beautie was restored vnto mee, and my counsellers ᵘ and my princes sought vnto mee, and I was established in my kingdome, and my glory was augmented toward me.

34 Now therefore, I Nebuchad-nezzar

ᵍ Meaning, the Angel of God, which neither eateth nor sleepeth, but is euer ready to doe Gods will, and is not infected with mans corruption, but is euer holy: & in that that he commandeth to cut downe this tree, he knew ʲ it should not be cut downe by man, but by God.

ʰ Hereby hee meaneth ʲ Nebuchad-nezzar should not onely for a time lose his kingdome, but be like a beast.

ⁱ God hath decreed this iudgemẽt, and ʲ whole armie of heauen haue as it were subscribed vnto it, like as also they desire the execution of his decree against all them that lift vp themselues against God.

ᵏ He was troubled for the great iudgement of God which he sawe ordained against the king: and so the Prophets vsed on the one part to denounce Gods iudgements for the zeale they bare to his glory, and on the other part to haue cõpassion vpon mẽ, and also to consider that they should be subiect to Gods iudgements, if he did not regard them with pitie.

ˡ Whereby he meaneth a long space, as seuen yeeres. Some interpret seuen moneths, and others seuen weekes: but it seemeth hee meant of yeeres.

ᵐ Not that his shape or forme was changed into a beast, but that he was either striken mad, and so auoyded mans company, or was cast out for his tyrannie, and so wandred among the beasts, and ate herbes and grasse.

ⁿ Daniel sheweth the cause why God thus punished him.

ᵒ Cease from prouoking God to anger any longer by thy sinnes, that hee may mitigate his punishment, if thou shewe by thine vpright life that thou hast true faith and repentance.

ᵖ Suffer the errour of thy former life to be redressed.

ᵠ After that Daniel had declared this vision: and this his pride declareth that it is not in man to conuert to God except his Spirit mooue him, seeing that these terrible threatnings could not mooue him to repent.

ʳ When the terme of these seuen yeeres was accomplished. Chap. 7. 14. macab 4. 7. Luke 1. 33.

CHAP. V.

5 Belshazzar King of Babylon seeth an hand writing on the wall. 8 The soothsayers called of the king, cannot expound the writing. 25 Daniel readeth it, and interpreteth it also. 30 The King is slaine. 31 Darius enioyeth the kingdome.

a Daniel recounteth this historie of king Belshazzar Euilmerodachs sonne, to shew Gods iudgements against the wicked, for the deliuerance of his Church, and how the prophecie of Ieremiah was true, that they should be deliuered after seuentie yeeres.

KIng a Belshazzar made a great feast to a thousand of his princes, and dranke wine b before the thousand.

b The Kings of the East partes then vsed to sit alone commonly, and disdayned that any should sit in their company: and now to shew his power, and how litle he set by his enemie, which then besieged Babylon, he made a solemne banket, and vsed exceſſe in their company, which is meant here by drinking wine: thus the wicked are most dissolute and negligent when their destruction is at hand.

2 And Belshazzar ‖ whiles hee tasted the wine, commanded to bring him the golden and siluer vessels, which his c father Nebuchad-nezzar had brought from the Temple in Ierusalem, that the King and his princes, his wiues, and his concubines might drinke therein.

c Meaning, his grandfather.

3 Then were brought the golden vessels, that were taken out of the Temple of the Lordes house at Ierusalem, and the King and his princes, his wiues, and his concubines dranke in them.

4 They dranke wine and praysed the d gods of golde, and of siluer, of braſſe, of yron, of wood, and of stone.

d In contempt. of the true God they prayſed their idoles, not that they thought that the golde or siluer were gods, but that there was a certaine vertue and power in them to doe them good, which is also the opinion of all idolaters.

5 At the same houre appeared fingers of a mans hand, which wrote ouer * against the candlestick vpon the playster of the wall of the kings palace, and the king sawe the palme of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the Kings countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the ioyntes of his loynes were loosed, and his e knees smote one against the other.

e That it might the better be beleeue. f So hee that before contemned God, was mooued by this sight to tremble for feare of Gods iudgements.

7 Wherefore the King cryed loude, that they should bring f the Astrologians, the Caldeans & the soothsayers. And the king spake and sayde to the wise men of Babel, Whosoeuer can reade this writing, and declare me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with purple, and shall haue a chaine of golde about his necke, and shall bee the third ruler in the kingdome.

8 Then came all the Kings wise men, but they could neither reade the writing, nor shew the King the interpretation.

9 Then was King Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his princes were astonied.

10 Now the g Queene by reason of the talke of the King and his Princes, came into the banket house, and the Queene spake, and sayde, O King, liue for euer: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed.

g Thus the wicked in their troubles seeke many meanes, who draw them from God, because they seeke not to him who is the onely comfort in all afflictions.

11 There is a man in thy kingdome, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods, and in the dayes of thy father, light and vnderstanding and wisedome like the wisedome of the gods, was found in him: whom the King Nebuchad-nezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made chiefe of the h Inchanters, Astrologians, Caldeans, and soothsayers, h Whom he had put to death, and also that he did not vse these vile practises, because he was not among them when all were called.

12 Because a more excellent spirite, and knowledge, and vnderstanding (for hee did expound dreames, and declare hard sentences, and dissolued doubts) were found in him, euen in Daniel, whom the king named Beltesshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will declare the interpretation.

13 ¶ Then was Daniel brought before the king, and the king spake, and sayde vnto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captiuitie of Iudah, whom my father the King brought out of Iewrie?

14 Now I haue heard of thee, that i the spirite of the holy gods is in thee, and that light and vnderstanding and excellent wisdome is found in thee.

i For the idolaters thought, that the Angels had power as God, and therefore had them in like estimation, as they had God, thinking that the spirite of prophesie, and vnderstanding came of them.

15 Now therefore, wise men, and Astrologians haue bene brought before mee, that they should reade this writing, and shewe mee the interpretation thereof: but they could not declare the interpretation of the thing.

16 Then heard I of thee, that thou couldest shewe interpretations, and dissolue doubts: now if thou canst reade the writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with purple, and shalt haue a chaine of gold about thy necke, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdome.

17 Then Daniel answered, and said before the king, Keepe thy rewardes to thy selfe, and giue thy gifres to another: yet I will reade the writing vnto the King, and shew him the interpretation.

18 O king, heare thou, The most High God gaue vnto k Nebuchad-nezzar thy father a kingdome, and maiestie, and honour and glory.

k Before he read the writing, he declareth to the king his great ingratitude toward God, who could not be mooued to giue him the glory considering his wonderful worke toward his grandfather, and so sheweth that he doeth not sinne of ignorance, but of malice.

19 And for the maiestie that he gaue him, all people, nations and languages trembled, and feared before him: hee put to death whom he would: he smote whom he would: whom hee would he set vp, and whom hee would he put downe.

20 But when his heart was puft vp, and his minde hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they tooke his honour from him.

21 And hee was driuen from the sonnes of men, and his heart was made like the beastes, and his dwelling was with the wilde asses: they feddе him with grasse like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the heauen, till hee knewe that the most High God bare rule ouer the kingdome of men, and that he appointeth ouer it, whomsoeuer he pleaseth.

22 And thou his sonne, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all these thinges,

23 But

23 But hast lift thy selfe vp against the Lord of heauen, and they haue brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou and thy princes, thy wiues and thy concubines haue dunke wine in them, and thou hast praysed the gods of siluer and gold, of brasse, yron, wood and stone, which neither see, neither heare, nor vnderstand: and the God in whose hand thy breath is and all thy wayes, him hast thou not glorified.

24 m Then was the palme of the hand sent from him, & hath written this writing.

25 And this is the writing that hee hath written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL VPHARSIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing, MENE, God hath nombred thy kingdome, and hath finished it.

27 TEKEL, thou art weighed in the balance, and art found ‖ too light.

28 PERES, thy kingdome is diuided, and giuen to the Medes and Persians.

29 Then at the commandement of Belshazzar, they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chaine of golde about his necke, and made a proclamation concerning him that hee should bee the third ruler in the kingdome.

30 The same night was Belshazzar the king of the Caldeans slaine.

31 And Darius o of the Medes tooke the kingdome, being threescore and two yeere olde.

m After that God had so long time deferred his anger, and patiently waited for thine amendment.

n This word is twise written for the certaintie of the thing: shewing that God had most surely counted: signifying also that God hath appoynted a terme for all kingdomes, and that a miserable ende shall come on all that raise themselues against him.

o Cyrus his sonne in lawe gaue him this title of honour, although Cyrus in effect had the dominion.

CHAP. VI.

1 Daniel is made ruler ouer the gouernours. 5 An act against Daniel. 16 He is put into a den of lyons by the commandement of the King. 23 He is deliuered by faith in God. 24 Daniels accusers are put vnto the lyons. 25 Darius by a decree magnifieth the God of Daniel.

IT pleased Darius to set ouer the kingdome a an hundreth and twentie gouernours, which should bee ouer the whole kingdome.

2 And ouer these, three rulers (of whom Daniel was one) that the gouernours might giue accompts vnto them, and the King should ‖ haue no domage.

3 Now this Daniel b was preferred aboue the rulers and gouernours, because the spirite was excellent in him, and the King thought to set him ouer the whole realme.

4 ¶ Wherefore the rulers and gouernours c sought an occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdome: but they could finde none occasion nor fault: for he was so faithfull that there was no blame nor fault found in him.

5 Then sayde these men, Wee shall not finde an occasion against this Daniel, except we finde it against him concerning the Law of his God.

6 Therefore the rulers and these gouernours went together to the King, and sayde thus vnto him, King Darius, liue for euer.

7 All the rulers of thy kingdome, the officers and gouernours, the counsellers, and dukes haue consulted together to make a decree for the king, and to establish a statute, that whosoeuer shall aske a petition of any god or man for thirtie dayes saue of thee, O king, he shalbe cast into the denne of lyons.

8 Now, O king, confirme the decree, and seale the writing, that it bee not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius d sealed the writing and the decree.

10 ¶ Now when Daniel vnderstoode that hee had sealed the writing, hee went into his house, and his e windowe being open in his chamber towarde Ierusalem, hee kneeled vpon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and prayed his God, as hee did afore time.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying, and making supplication vnto his God.

12 So they came, and spake vnto the King concerning the Kings decree, Hast thou not sealed the decree, that euery man that shall make request to any God or man within thirtie dayes, saue to thee, O King, shall bee cast into the denne of lyons? The king answered, and said, The thing is true, according to the Lawe of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they, and sayde vnto the king, This Daniel which is of the children of the captiuitie of Iudah, regardeth not thee, O King, nor the decree, that thou hast sealed, but maketh his petition three times a day.

14 When the King heard these wordes, he was sore displeased with himselfe, and set his heart on Daniel, to deliuer him: and hee laboured till the sunne went downe, to deliuer him.

15 Then these men assembled vnto the King, and sayd vnto the King, Vnderstand, O King, that the lawe of the Medes and Persians is, that no decree nor statute which the King confirmeth, may bee f altered.

16 ¶ Then the King commaunded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the denne of lyons: now the king spake, and said vnto Daniel, Thy God, whom thou alway seruest, euen he will deliuer thee.

17 And a stone was brought, and layde vpon the mouth of the denne, and the King sealed it with his owne signet, and with the signet of his princes, that the purpose might not bee changed, concerning Daniel.

18 Then the king went vnto his palace, and remayned fasting, neyther were the instruments of musicke brought before him, and his sleepe went from him.

19 ¶ Then the king arose early in the morning, and went in all haste vnto the denne of lyons.

20 And when hee came to the denne, hee cryed with a lamentable voice vnto Daniel:

d Herein is condemned the wickednesse of the king, who would be set vp as a god, and passed not what wicked lawes he approoued for the maintenance of the same.

e Because hee would not by his silence shew that he consented to this wicked decree, he set open his windowes toward Ierusalem, when hee prayed: both to stirre vp himselfe with the remembrance of Gods promises to his people when they should pray toward that Temple, and also that others might see, that hee would neither consent in heart nor deed for those fewe dayes to any thing that was contrary to Gods glory.

f Thus the wicked maintaine cuill lawes by constancie and authoritie, which is oft times either lightnesse, or stubburnesse, when as the innocents thereby perish: and therefore gouernours neither ought to feare nor be ashamed to breake such.

n Reade Esther Chap. 3. 1.

b This heathen King preferred Daniel a stranger to all his nobles and familiars, because the graces of God were more excellent in him then in others.

c Thus the wicked cannot abide the graces of God in others, but seeke by all occasions to deface them: therefore against such assaults there is no better remedy then to walke vprightly in the feare of God, and to haue a good conscience.

and the king ſpake, and ſayd to Daniel, O Daniel, the ſeruant of the liuing God, is not thy God (whom thou alway ſerueſt) able to deliuer thee from the lyons?

21 Then ſayd Daniel vnto the king, O king, liue for euer.

22 My God hath ſent his Angel, & hath ſhut the lyons mouthes, that they haue not hurt me: for [h] my iuſtice was founde out before him: and vnto thee, O King, I haue done [i] no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they ſhoulde take Daniel out of the den: ſo Daniel was brought out of the denne, and no maner of hurt was found vpon him, becauſe hee [k] beleeued in his God.

24 And by the commandement of the king theſe men which had accuſed Daniel, were brought, and were [l] caſt into the denne of lyons, euen they, their children, and their wiues: and the lyons had the maſterie of them, and brake all their bones in pieces, or euer they came at the grounde of the denne.

25 ¶ Afterwarde king Darius wrote, Vnto all people, nations and languages, that dwell in all the world: Peace be multiplied vnto you.

26 I make a decree, that in al the dominion of my kingdome, men tremble and feare [m] before the God of Daniel: for hee is the [n] liuing God, and remaineth for euer: and his kingdome ſhall not periſh, and his dominion ſhalbe euerlaſting.

27 Hee reſcueth and deliuereth, and hee worketh ſignes and wonders in heauen and in earth: who hath deliuered Daniel from the power of the lyons.

28 So this Daniel proſpered in the reigne of Darius and in the reigne of Cyrus of Perſia.

g This declareth that Darius was not touched with the true knowledge of God, becauſe he doubted of his power.

h My iuſt cauſe and vprightneſſe in this thing, wherein I was charged, is approued of God.

i For he did diſobey the kings wicked commandement to obey God, and ſo did no iniurie to the king, who ought to commaund nothing, whereby God ſhould be diſhonoured.

k Becauſe he cõmitted himſelfe wholy vnto God whoſe cauſe he did defend, he was aſſured, that nothing but good could come vnto him: wherein we ſee the power of faith, as Hebr. 11.33.

l This is a terrible example againſt al the wicked, which doe againſt their conſcience make cruell lawes to deſtroy the children of God, and alſo admoniſheth Princes howe to puniſh ſuch, when their wickednesſe is come to light: though not in euery poynt, or with like circumſtances, yet to execute true iuſtice vpon them.

m This proueth not that Darius did worſhip God aright, or els was conuerted: for then he would haue deſtroyed all ſuperſtition and idolatrie, and not onely giuen God the chiefe place, but alſo haue ſet him vp, and cauſed him to be honoured according to his word: but this was a certaine confeſſion of Gods power, whereunto hee was compelled by this wonderfull miracle.

n Which hath not onely life in himſelfe, but is the onely fountaine of life, and quickeneth all things, ſo that without him there is no life.

CHAP. VII.

3 A viſion of foure beaſtes is ſhewed vnto Daniel. 8 The ten hornes of the fourth beaſt. 27 Of the euerlaſting kingdome of Chriſt.

IN the firſt yeere of Belſhazzar King of Babel, Daniel ſawe a dreame, and there were viſions in his head, vpon his bed: [a] then hee wrote the dreame, and declared the ſumme of the matter.

2 Daniel ſpake and ſayd, I ſawe in my viſion by night, and beholde, the foure windes of the heauen ſtroue vpon [b] the great ſea:

3 And foure great beaſtes came vp from the ſea one diuers from another.

4 The firſt was as a [c] lion, and had egles wings: I beheld, till the wings thereof were pluckt off, and it was lifted vp from the earth, and ſet vpon his feete as a man, and a mans heart was giuen him.

5 And beholde, an other beaſt which was the ſecond, was like a [d] beare and ſtood vp on the [e] one ſide: and he had three ribs in his [f] mouth betweene his teeth, & they ſayd thus vnto him, Ariſe and deuoure much fleſh.

6 After this, I beheld, and loe, there was an other like a [h] leopard, which had vpon his backe [i] foure wings of a foule: the beaſt had alſo foure heads, and [k] dominion was giuen him.

7 After this, I ſaw in [ẏ] viſions by night, and beholde, the [l] fourth beaſt was fearefull, and terrible, and very ſtrong. It had great [m] yron teeth: it deuoured, & brake in pieces and ſtamped [n] the reſidue vnder his feete: and it was vnlike to the beaſtes that were before it: for it had [o] tenne hornes.

8 As I conſidered the hornes, beholde, there came vp among them another little [p] horne, before whom there were [q] three of the firſt hornes pluckt away: and beholde, a Whereas the people of Iſrael looked for a continuall quietneſſe after theſe ſeuẽtie yeeres, as Ieremiah had declared, hee ſheweth that this reſt ſhall not be a deliuerance from all troubles, but a beginning, and therefore encouraged them to looke for a continuall affliction till the Meſſiah be vttered and reueiled, by whome they ſhould haue a ſpirituall deliuerance, and all the promiſes fulfilled: whereof they ſhould haue a certaine token in the deſtruction of the Babylonicall kingdome.

b Which ſignified that there ſhould be hortible troubles, and afflictions in the worlde in all corners of the worlde and at ſundry times.

c Meaning, the Aſſyrian and Caldean Empire, which was moſt ſtrong and fierce in power, and moſt ſoone come to their authoritie, as though they had had wings to flie: yet their wings were pulled by the Perſians, and they went on their feete, and were made like other men, which is here meant by mans heart.

d Meaning the Perſians, which were barbarous and cruell.

e They were ſmall in the beginning, and were ſhutte vp in the mountaines and had no bruite.

f That is, deſtroyed many kingdomes, and was inſatiable.

g To wit, the Angels by Gods commaundement, who by this meanes puniſhed the ingratitude of the worlde.

h Meaning, Alexander the King of Macedonie.

i That is, his foure chiefe captaines, which had the Empire among them after his death. Seleucus had Aſia the great, Antigonus the leſſe, Caſſander and after him Antipater was King of Macedonie, and Ptolemeus had Egypt.

k It was not of himſelfe nor of his owne power that hee gate all theſe countreys: for his armie contained but thirtie thouſande men, and hee ouercame in one battell Darius, which had tenne hundred thouſand, when hee was ſo heauie with ſleepe, that his eyes were ſcarce open, as the ſtories report: therefore this power was giuen him of God.

l That is, the Romane Empire, which was as a monſter and couldo not bee compared to any beaſt, becauſe the nature of none was able to expreſſe it.

m Signifying the tyrannie and greedineſſe of the Romanes.

n That which the Romanes could not quietly enioy in other countreyes, they would giue it to other Kings and Rulers, that at all times when they would, they might take it againe: which liberalitie is here called the ſtamping of the reſt vnder the feete.

o That is, ſundry and diuers prouinces, which were gouerned by the deputies and proconſuls, whereof euery one might bee compared to a King.

p Which is meant of Iulius Cæſar, Auguſtus, Tiberius, Caligula, Claudius, and Nero, &c. who were as Kings in effect, but becauſe they could not rule, but by the conſent of the Senate, their power is compared to a little horne. For Mahomet came not of the Romane Empire, and the Pope hath no vocation of gouernement: therefore this cannot bee applyed vnto them. And alſo in this prophecie the Prophets purpoſe is chiefely to comfort the Iewes vnto the reuelation of Chriſt. Some take it for the whole body of Antichriſt.

q Meaning, a certaine portion of the tenne hornes: that is, a part from the whole eſtate was pluckt away. For Auguſtus tooke from the Senate the libertie of chuſing the deputies to ſend into the prouinces, and tooke the gouernement of certaine countreys to himſelfe.

in this horne were [r] eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking presumptuous things.

9 I beheld, till the [s] thrones were set vp, and the [t] Ancient of dayes did sitte, whose garment was white as snowe, and the haire of his head like the pure wooll: his throne was like the fierie flame, and his wheeles as burning fire.

10 A fierie streame issued, and came foorth from before him: thousande thousands ministred vnto him, and tenne thousande [u] thousandes stoode before him: the iudgement was set, and the [x] bookes opened.

11 Then I beheld, [y] because of the voyce of the presumptuous words, which the horne spake: I beheld, euen till the beast was slaine, and his body destroyed, and giuen to the burning fire.

12 As [z] concerning the other beastes, they had taken away their dominion: yet their liues were prolonged for a certayne time and season.

13 ¶ As I beheld in visions by night, beholde, [a] one like the sonne of man came in the cloudes of heauen, and [b] approched vnto the Ancient of dayes, and they brought him before him.

14 And he gaue him [c] dominion, and honour, and a kingdome, that all people, nations, and languages shoulde serue him: his dominion is an euerlasting dominion, which shall neuer bee taken away: and his kingdome shall neuer be destroyed.

15 ¶ I Daniel was [d] troubled in my spirite in the middes of my body, and the visions of mine heade made mee afraide.

16 Therefore I came vnto [e] one of them that stoode by, and asked him the trueth of all this: so hee tolde mee, and shewed mee the interpretation of these things.

17 These great beastes which are foure, are foure Kings, which shall arise out of the earth, 18 And they shall take the [f] kingdome of the Saints of the most High, which shall possesse the kingdome for euer, euen for euer and euer.

19 ¶ After this, I would know the trueth of the fourth beast, which was [g] vnlike to all the others, very fearefull, whose teeth were of yron, and his nailes of brasse: which deuoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the [h] residue vnder his feete.

20 Also to knowe of the ten hornes that were in his head, and of the other which came vp, before whome three fell, and of the horne that had eyes, and of the mouth that spake presumptuous things, whose [k] looke was more stout then his fellowes.

21 I beheld, and the same [l] horne made battell against the Saints, yea, and preuailed against them, 22 Until [m] the Ancient of dayes came, and iudgement was giuen to the Saints of the most High: and the time approched, that the Saints possessed the kingdome.

23 Then he said, The fourth beast shalbe the fourth kingdome in the earth, which shal be vnlike to all the kingdomes, and shall deuoure the whole earth, & shal tread it downe and breake it in pieces.

24 And the ten hornes out of this kingdome are ten Kings that shall rise: & another shall rise after them, and he shalbe vnlike to the first, and he shall subdue [n] three kings,

25 And shall speake wordes against [o] the most High, and shall consume the Saintes of the most High, and thinke that hee may [p] change times and lawes, and they shall be giuen into his hand, vntill a [q] time, and times, and the diuiding of time.

26 But the [r] iudgement shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and destroy it vnto the ende.

27 And the [s] kingdome, and dominion, yeerely, and the other Monarchies retained them also the Romanes were the strongest of all the other, and were neuer quiet among themselues. i Reade verse 7. k This is meant of the fourth beast, which was more terrible then the other. l Meaning, the Romane Emperours, who were most cruell against the Church of God both of the Iewes & of the Gentiles, m Till God shewed his power in the person of Christ, and by the preaching of the Gospell gaue vnto his some rest, and so obtained a famous name in the world, and were called the Church of God, or the kingdome of God. n Reade the exposition hereof verse 8. o That is, shall make wicked decrees and proclamations against Gods worde, and send throughout all their dominion, to destroy all that did professe it. p These Emperours shall not confider that they haue their power of God, but thinke it is in their owne power to change Gods lawes and mans, and as it were the order of nature, as appeareth by Octauius, Tiberius, Caligula, Nero, Domitianus, &c. q God shall suffer them thus to rage against his Saintes for a long time, which is meant by the time and times, but at length hee will asswage these troubles and shorten the times for his electes sake, Matth. 24. 22. which is here meant by the diuiding of time. r God by his power shall restore things that were out of order, and so destroy this little horne, that it shall neuer rise vp againe. s Hee sheweth wherefore the beast should bee destroyed, to wit, that his Church might haue rest and quietnesse, which though they doe not fully enioy here, yet they haue it in hope, and by the preaching of the Gospell enioy the beginning thereof, which is meant by these wordes, vnder the heauen, and therefore hee here speaketh of the beginning of Christes kingdome in this worlde, which kingdome the faithfull haue by the participation that they haue with Christ their head.

r These Romane Emperours at the first vsed a certaine humanitie, and gentlenesse, and were content that others, as the Consuls and Senate should beare the name of dignitie, so that they might haue the profite, & therefore in elections and counsels would behaue themselues according as did other Senators: yet against their enemies & those that would resist them, they were fierce and cruel, which is here meant by the proude mouth. l Meaning, the places where God and his Angels should come to iudge these Monarchies, which iudgement should begin at the first comming of Christ. t That is, God which was before all times, and is here described as mans nature is able to comprehend some portion of his glorie.

u That is, an infinite number of Angels, which were ready to execute his commaundement. x This is meant of the first comming of Christ, when as the will of God was plainely reuelled by his Gospel. y Meaning, that he was astonied, when hee sawe these Emperours in such dignitie and pride, and so suddenly destroyed at the comming of Christ, when this fourth Monarchie was subiect to men of other nations. z As the three former Monarchies had an ende at the time that GOD appointed, although they flourished for a time, so shall this fourth haue, and they that patiently abide Gods appointment, shall enioy the promises. a Which is meant of Christ, who had not yet taken vpon him mans nature, neither was the sonne of David according to the flesh, as hee was afterwarde: but appeared then in a figure, and that in the cloudes: that is, being separate from the common sort of men by manifest signes of his diuinitie. b To wit, when hee ascended into the heauens, and his diuine maiestie appeared, and all power was giuen vnto him in respect of that that hee was our Mediatour. c This is meant of the beginning of Christes kingdome when GOD the Father gaue vnto him all dominion, as to the Mediatour, to the intent that hee should gouerne here his Church in earth continually till the time that hee brought them to eternall life. d Through the strangenesse of the vision. e Meaning, of the Angels, as verse 20.

f Because Abraham was appointed heire of all the world, Rom. 4. 13. and in him all the faithfull, therefore the kingdome thereof is theirs by right, which these foure beasts or tyrants should inuade, and vsurpe vntill the world were restored by Christ: and this was to confirme them that were in troubles, that their afflictions should haue an ende at length. g That is, of the most hie things, because God hath chosen them out of this world that they should looke vp to the heauens, whereon all their hope dependeth. h For the other three Monarchies were gouerned by a king, and the Romane Empire by consuls: the Romanes changed their gouernours for terme of liues

t That is, some of euery sort that beare rule.
u Though he had many motions in his heart which mooued him to and fro to seeke out this matter curiously: yet he was content with that which God reueiled, and kept it in memorie, and wrote it for the vse of the Church.

and the greatnesse of the kingdome vnder the whole heauen shall be giuen to the holy people of the most High, whose kingdome is an euerlasting kingdome, and all t powers shall serue and obey him.

28 Euen this is the end of the matter, I Daniel had many u cogitations which troubled mee, and my countenance chaunged in me: but I kept the matter in mine heart.

CHAP VIII.

A vision of a battell betweene a ramme and a goate. 20 The vnderstanding of the vision.

a After the generall vision he commeth to certaine particular visions: as touching the destruction of the Monarchie of the Persians, and Macedonians: for the ruine of the Babylonians was at hand, and also he had sufficiently spoken thereof.
b That is, of Persia.
c Which represented the kingdome of the Persians and Medes, which were ioyned together.
d Meaning, Cyrus, which after grew greater in power then Darius his vncle and father in law.
e That is, no kings or nations.
f Meaning, Alexander that came from Grecia, with great speede and expedition.
g Though he came in the name of all Grecia, yet he bare the title and dignitie of the generall captaine, so that the strength was attributed to him, which is meant by this horne.
h Alexander ouercame Darius in two sundry battels, and so had the two kingdoms of the Medes & Persians.
i Alexanders great power was broken: for when he had ouercome al the East, he thought to returne toward Grecia to subdue them that there had rebelled, and so died by the way.
k That is, which were famous: for almost in the space of fifteene yere, there were fifteene diuers successors before this monarchy was deuided to these foure, whereof Cassander had Macedonia, Seleucus Syria, Antigonus Asia the lesse, and Ptolemeus Egypt.
l Which was Antiochus Epiphanes, who was of a seruile and flattering nature, and also there were other betweene him & the kingdom, & therefore is here called the litle horne, because neither princely conditions, nor any other thing was in him, why he should obteine this kingdome.

IN the third yeere of the reigne of King Belshazzar, a vision appeared vnto mee, euen vnto mee Daniel, a after that which appeared vnto mee at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision, and when I saw it, I was in the palace of Shushan, which is in the prouince b of Elam, and in a vision me thought I was by the riuer of Ulai.

3 Then I looked vp and saw, and behold, there stood before the riuer a c ramme, which had two hornes: and these two hornes were hie: but one was d higher then another, and the highest came vp last.

4 I sawe the ramme pushing against the West, and against the North, and against the South: so that no e beasts might stand before him, nor could deliuer out of his hand, but he did what he listed, and became great.

5 And as I considered, behold, f a goate came from the West ouer the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and this goat had an g horne that appeared betweene his eyes.

6 And he came vnto the ramme that had the two hornes, whome I had seene standing by the riuer, and ranne vnto him in his fierce rage.

7 And I saw him come vnto the ramme, and being mooued against him, hee h smote the ramme, and brake his two hornes: and there was no power in the ramme to stand against him, but he cast him downe to the ground, and stamped vpon him, and there was none that could deliuer the ramme out of his power.

8 Therefore the goate waxed exceeding great, and when he was at the strongest, his great i horne was broken: and for it came vp foure that k appeared toward the foure windes of the heauen.

9 And out of one of them came forth a l litle horne, which waxed very great toward the m South, and toward the n East, & toward the o pleasant land.

10 Yea, it grewe vp vnto the p hoste of heauen, and it cast downe some of the hoste, and of the starres to the ground, and troad vpon them,

11 And extolled himselfe against the q prince of the hoste from whom the r daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuarie was cast downe.

12 And s a time shall bee giuen him ouer the daily sacrifice for the vnquitie: and it shal t cast downe the trueth to the ground, and thus shall it do, and prosper.

13 Then I heard one of the u Saintes speaking, and one of the Saintes spake vnto a certeine one, saying, How long shall endure the vision of the daily sacrifice, and the iniquitie of the x desolation to treade both the Sanctuarie and the y armie vnder foote?

14 And z hee answered mee, Vnto the a euening, and the morning, two thousand and three hundreth: then shall the Sanctuarie be cleansed.

15 ¶ Now when I Daniel had seene the vision, and sought for the meaning, behold, there stoode before mee b like the similitude of a man.

16 And I heard a mans voyce betweene the bankes of Ulai, which called and said, Gabriel, c make this man to vnderstand the vision.

17 So he came where I stood: & when he came, I was afraid, & fell vpon my face: but he said vnto me, Vnderstand, O sonne of man: for d in the last time shalbe the vision.

18 Now as he was speaking vnto me, I being asleepe fell on my face to the ground: but he touched me, & set me vp in my place.

19 And he said, Behold, I will shew thee what shall be in the last e wrath: for in the end of the time appointed it shall come.

20 The ramme which thou sawest hauing two hornes, are the Kings of the Medes and Persians.

21 And the goate is the King of Grecia, and the great horne that is betweene his eyes, is the first King.

22 And that that is broken, and foure stood vp for it, are foure kingdomes, which shall stand vp f of that nation, but not g in his strength.

23 And in the end of their kingdome, when the rebellious shalbe consumed, a king of h fierce countenance, and vnderstanding m That is, toward Egypt.

n Whereby he meaneth Ptolemais.
o That is, Iudea.
p Antiochus raged against the elect of God, and trode his precious starres vnder feete, which are so called, because they are separated from the world.
q That is, God who gouerneth and maintaineth his Church.
r He laboured to abolish all religion, and therefore cast Gods seruice out of his Temple, which God had chosen as a litle corner from all the rest of the world to haue his name there truely called vpon.
s He sheweth that their sinnes are the cause of these horrible afflictions: and yet comforteth them, in that he appointeth this tyrant a time, whom he would not suffer vtterly to abolish his religion.
t This horne shall abolish for a time the true doctrine, and so corrupt Gods seruice.
u Meaning, that he heard one of the Angels asking this question of Christ, whom he calleth a certeine one, or a secret one, or a marueilous one.
x That is, the Iewes sinnes, which were cause of this destruction.
y That is, which suppresseth Gods religion, and his people.
z Christ answered mee for the comfort of the Church.
a That is, vntil so many naturall dayes be past, which make sixe yeeres, three moneths and an halfe: for so long vnder Antiochus was the Temple prophaned.
b Which was Christ, who in this maner declared himselfe to the olde fathers how he would be God manifested in flesh.
c This power to comm und the Angel, declared that he was God.
d The effect of this vision shall not yet appeare, but a long time after.
e Meaning that great rage which Antiochus should shew against the Church.
f That is, out of Grecia.
g They shall not haue like power as had Alexander.
h Noting that this Antiochus was impudent, and cruell, and also craftie that he could not be deceiued.

darke sentences, shall stand vp.

24 And his power shall bee mightie, but not in i his strength: and hee shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the k mightie, and the holy people.

25 And through his l policie also, he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand, and he shal extoll himselfe in his heart, and by m peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand vp against the n Prince of princes, but he shall be broken downe o without hand.

26 And the vision of the p euening and the morning, which is declared, is true: therefore seale thou vp the vision, for it shalbe after many dayes.

27 And I Daniel was striken and sicke q certeine dayes: but when I rose vp, I did the kings businesse, and I was astonished at the vision, but none vnderstood it.

CHAP. IX.

3 Daniel desireth to haue that performed of God, which he had promised concerning the returne of the people from their banishment in Babylon. 5 A true confession. 20 Daniels prayer is heard. 21 Gabriel the Angell expoundeth vnto him the vision of the seuentie weekes. 24 The anointing of Christ. 25 The building againe of Ierusalem. 26 The death of Christ.

IN the first yeere of Darius the sonne of a Ahasuerosh, of the seede of the Medes, which was made king ouer the b realme of the Caldeans,

2 Euen in the first yeere of his reigne, I Daniel vnderstood by c bookes the number of the yeeres, whereof the Lord had spoken vnto Ieremiah the Prophet, that he would accomplish seuentie yeeres in the desolation of Ierusalem.

3 And I turned my face vnto the Lord God, and d sought by prayer and supplications with fasting and sackcloth and ashes.

4 And I prayed vnto the Lord my God, and made my confession, saying, Oh Lord God, which art e great and fearefull, and keepest couenant and mercie toward them which loue ‡ thee, and toward them that keepe thy commandements,

5 Wee haue sinned, and haue committed iniquitie, and haue done wickedly, yea, wee haue rebelled, and haue departed from thy precepts, and from thy iudgements.

6 For wee would not obey thy seruants the Prophets, which spake in thy Name to our Kings, to our Princes, and to our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousnesse belongeth vnto thee, and vnto vs ‡ open shame, as appeareth this day vnto euery man of Iudah, and to the inhabitants of Ierusalem: yea, vnto all Israel, both neere and farre off, through all the countreyes, whither thou hast driuen them, because of their offences, that they haue committed against thee.

8 O Lord, vnto vs apperteineth open shame, to our g Kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we haue sinned against thee.

9 Yet compassion and forgiuenesse is in the Lord our God, albeit wee haue rebelled against him.

10 For wee haue not obeyed the h voyce of the Lord our God, to walke in his lawes, which hee had laid before vs by the ministerie of his seruants the Prophets.

11 Yea, all Israel haue transgressed thy Law, and are turned backe, and haue not heard thy voyce: therefore the i curse is powred vpon vs, and the othe that is written in the law of Moses the seruant of God, because we haue sinned against him.

12 And hee hath confirmed his wordes, which he spake against vs, and against our iudges that ‖ iudged vs, by bringing vpon vs a great plague: for vnder the whole heauen hath not bene the like, as hath bene brought vpon Ierusalem.

13 All this plague is come vpon vs, as it is written in the Law of Moses: yet made we not our prayer before the Lord our God, that wee might turne from our iniquities, and vnderstand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the Lord ‡ made ready the plague, and brought it vpon vs: for the Lord our God is righteous in all his workes which he doeth: for we would not heare his voyce.

15 * And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mightie hand, and hast gotten thee renowme, as appeareth this day, we haue sinned, we haue done wickedly.

16 O Lord, according to all thy k righteousnesse, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy wrath bee turned away from thy citie Ierusalem thine holy mountaine: for because of our sinnes, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Ierusalem and thy people are a reproch to all that are about vs.

17 Now therefore, O our God, heare the prayer of thy seruant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to l shine vpon thy Sanctuarie, that lieth waste for thy m Lords sake.

18 O my God, encline thine eare, and heare: open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the citie whereupon thy Name is called: for wee doe not present our supplications before thee for our owne a righteousnesse, but for thy great tender mercies.

19 O Lord, heare, O Lord forgiue, O Lord o consider, and doe it: deferre not, for thine owne sake, O my God: for thy Name is called vpon thy citie, and vpon thy people.

20 ¶ And whiles I was speaking and praying, and confessing my sinne, and the sinne of my people Israel, & did present my supplication before the Lord my God, for the

g He doeth not excuse the Kings because of their authoritie, but prayeth chiefly for them as the chiefe occasions of these great plagues.

m That is, for thy Christes sake, in whom thou wilt accept all our prayers.

n Declaring, that the godly flee onely vnto Gods mercies, and renounce their owne workes when they seeke for remission of their sinnes.

o Thus he could not content himselfe with any vehemencie of wordes: for he was so led with a feruent zeale, considering Gods promise made to the citie in respect of his Church, and for the aduancement of Gods glorie.

a Who was also called Astyages.

b For Cyrus led with ambition, went about warres in other countreyes, and therefore Darius had the title of the kingdome, though Cyrus was King in effect.

c For though he was an excellent Prophet, yet he daily increased in knowledge by the reading of the Scriptures.

d He speaketh not of that ordinarie prayer, which he vsed in his house thrise a day, but of a rare and vehement prayer, least their sinnes should cause God to delay the time of their deliuerance prophecied by Ieremiah.

e That is, hast all power in thy selfe to execute thy terrible iudgements against obstinate sinners, as thou art rich in mercie to comfort them which obey thy word and loue thee.

f He sheweth that whensoeuer God punisheth, hee doeth it for iust cause: and thus the godly neuer accuse him of rigour as the wicked doe, but acknowledge that in themselues there is iust cause why he should so inuenate them.

Chap.8.16.
p He alludeth to Ieremiahs prophesie, who prophesied that their captiuitie should be seuentie yeeres: but now Gods mercy should seuen fold exceede his iudgement, which should be foure hundred and ninety yeres, euen to the comming of Christ, and so then it should continue for euer.

r To shew mercie, and to put sinne out of remembrance.
s That is, from the time that Cyrus gaue them leaue to depart.
t These weekes make 49. yeere, whereof 46. are referred to the time of the building of the Temple, and 3. to the laying of the foundation.
u Counting from the sixt yeere of Darius who gaue the second commaundement for the building of the Temple, are 62. weekes, which make 434. yeeres, which comprehend the time from the building of the Temple, vnto the Baptisme of Christ. ‡ Ebr. In streites of time.
x In this last weeke of the seuentie shall Christ come & preach and suffer death.
y He shal seeme to haue no beauty, nor to be of any estimation, as Isa.53.2.
z Meaning, Titus, Vespasians sonne, who should come and destroy both the Temple & the people without all hope of recouery.
a By the preaching of the Gospel he confirmed his promise, first to the Iewes, and after to the Gentiles.
b Christ accomplished this by his death & resurrection.
c Meaning that Ierusalem & the Sanctuary should be vtterly destroyed for their rebellion against God, and their idolatry: as some reade, that the plagues shalbe so great, that they shalbe astonied at them.

the holy Mountaine of my God,

21 Yea, while I was speaking in prayer, euen the man * Gabriel whom I had seene before in the vision, came flying, and touched mee about the time of the euening oblation.

22 And hee informed mee, and talked with mee, and sayde, O Daniel, I am nowe come forth to giue thee knowledge and vnderstanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications, the commaundement came forth, and I am come to shewe thee, for thou art greatly beloued: therefore vnderstand the matter and consider the vision.

24 Seuentie p weekes are determined vpon q thy people, and vpon thine holy citie, to finish the wickednesse, and to seale vp thy r sinnes, & to reconcile the iniquitie, and to bring in euerlasting righteousnesse, and to seale vp the vision and prophesie, and to anoynt the most Holy.

25 Know therefore and vnderstand, that from the s going forth of the commandement to bring againe the people, and to build Ierusalem, vnto Messiah the prince, shall bee seuen t weekes, and u threescore and two weekes, and the streete shall be built againe, and the wall euen in a ‡ troublous time.

26 And after threescore & two x weekes, shall Messiah be slaine, and shall y haue nothing, and the people of z the prince that shall come, shall destroy the citie and the Sanctuarie, and the ende thereof shall bee with a flood: and vnto the ende of the battell it shall be destroyed by desolations.

27 And he shall a confirme the couenant with many for one weeke: and in the midst of the weeke he shall cause the sacrifice & the oblation to b cease, c and for the ouerspreading of the abominations, hee shall make it desolate, euen vntill the consummation determined shall be powred vpon the desolate.

CHAP. X.

There appeareth vnto Daniel a man clothed in linnen, 11 which sheweth him wherefore he is sent.

a He noteth this third yeere because at this time the building of the Temple began to be hindered by Cambyses. Cyrus sonne, when the father made warre in Asia minor against the Scythians, which was a discouraging to the godly, and a great feare to Daniel.
b Which is to declare that the godly should not haſten too much, but patiently to abide the issue of Gods promise.

IN the a third yeere of Cyrus king of Persia, a thing was reuealed vnto Daniel (whose name was called Baltesshazzar) and the word was true, but the time appointed was b long, and he vnderstood the thing, and had vnderstanding of the vision.

2 At the same time, I Daniel was in heauinesse foure threeweeks of dayes.

3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh, nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoynt my selfe at all, till three weekes of dayes were fulfilled.

4 And in the foure and twentie day of the c first moneth, as I d was by the side of that great riuer, euen Hiddikel,

5 And I lift vp mine eyes, and looked, and beholde, there was a man e clothed in linnen, whose loynes were girded with fine golde of * Vphaz.

6 His body also was like the Chrysolite, and his face (to looke vpon) like the lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his armes and his feet were like in colour to polished brasse, and the voice of his words was like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me, saw not the vision: but a great feare fell vpon them, so that they fled away and hid themselues.

8 Therefore I was left alone, & saw this great vision, & there remained no strength in me: for my f strength was turned in mee into corruption, and I reteined no power.

9 Yet heard I the voyce of his wordes: and when I heard the voyce of his words, I slept on my face: and my face was toward the ground.

10 And behold, an hand g touched mee, which set mee vp vpon my knees and vpon the palmes of my handes,

11 And he said vnto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloued, vnderstand the words that I speake vnto thee, and stand in thy place: for vnto thee am I now sent. And when hee had said this word vnto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he vnto me, Feare not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou diddest set thine heart to vnderstand, and to humble thy selfe before thy God, thy wordes were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the h prince of the kingdome of Persia withstood me one and twenty daies: but loe, i Michael one of the chiefe princes, came to helpe me, and I remained there by the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to shew thee what shall come to thy people in the latter dayes: for yet the k vision is for many dayes.

15 And when he spake these wordes vnto me, I set my face toward the ground, and held my tongue.

16 And behold, l one like the similitude of the sonnes of man touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said vnto him that stood before me, O my Lord, m by the vision my sorowes are returned vpon me, and I haue reteined no strength.

17 For how can the seruant of this my Lord talke with my Lord being such one? for as for mee, streight way there remained no strength in mee, neither is there breath left in me.

c Called Abib, which contayneth part of March, & part of April.
d Being caried by the spirit of prophesie to haue the sight of this riuer Tygris.
e This was the Angel of God, which was sent to assure Daniel in this prophesie that followeth. Iere.10.9.
f The word also signifieth comelinesse or beauty, so that for feare he was like a dead man for deformitie.
g Which declareth that when we are stricken downe with the maiestie of God, we cannot rise, except he also lift vs vp with his hand, which is his power.
h Meaning, Cambyses, who reigned in his fathers absence, and did not onely for this space hinder the building of the Temple, but would haue farther raged, if God had not sent me to resist him, and therefore haue I stayed for the prosite of the Church.
i Though God could by one Angel destroy all the world: yet to assure his children of his loue he sendeth foorth double power, euen Michael, that is, Christ Iesus the head of Angels.
k For though the Prophet Daniel should end and cease, yet this doctrine should continue till the comming of Christ for the comfort of his Church.

m I was ouercome with feare and sorow, when I saw the vision.

q For feare and astonishment.

CHAP. IX.

3 Daniel desireth to haue that performed of God, which he had promised concerning the returne of the people from their banishment in Babylon. 5 A true confession. 20 Daniels prayer is heard. 21 Gabriel the Angell expoundeth vnto him the vision of the seuentie weekes. 24 The anointing of Christ. 25 The building againe of Ierusalem. 26 The death of Christ.

IN the first yeere of Darius the sonne of a Ahashuerosh, of the seede of the Medes, which was made king ouer the b realme of the Caldeans,

2 Euen in the first yeere of his reigne, I Daniel vnderstood by c bookes the number of the yeeres, whereof the Lord had spoken vnto Ieremiah the Prophet, that he would accomplish seuentie yeeres in the desolation of Ierusalem.

3 And I turned my face vnto the Lord God, and d sought by prayer and supplications with fasting and sackcloth and ashes.

4 And I prayed vnto the Lord my God, and made my confession, saying, Oh Lord God, which art e great and fearefull, and keepest couenant and mercie toward them which loue ‡ thee, and toward them that keepe thy commandements,

5 Wee haue sinned, and haue committed iniquitie, and haue done wickedly, yea, wee haue rebelled, and haue departed from thy precepts, and from thy iudgements.

6 For wee would not obey thy seruants the Prophets, which spake in thy Name to our Kings, to our Princes, and to our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, f righteousnesse belongeth vnto thee, and vnto vs ‡ open shame, as appeareth this day vnto euery man of Iudah, and to the inhabitants of Ierusalem: yea, vnto all Israel, both neere and farre off, through all the countreyes, whither thou hast driuen them, because of their offences, that they haue committed against thee.

8 O Lord, vnto vs appertaineth open shame, to our g Kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we haue sinned against thee.

9 Yet compassion and forgiuenesse is in the Lord our God, albeit wee haue rebelled against him.

10 For wee haue not obeyed the h voyce of the Lord our God, to walke in his lawes, which hee had laid before vs by the ministerie of his seruants the Prophets.

11 Yea, all Israel haue transgressed thy Law, and are turned backe, and haue not heard thy voyce: therefore the i curse is powred vpon vs, and the othe that is written in the law of Moses the seruant of God, because we haue sinned against him.

12 And hee hath confirmed his wordes, which he spake against vs, and against our iudges that ‖ iudged vs, by bringing vpon vs a great plague: for vnder the whole heauen hath not bene the like, as hath bene brought vpon Ierusalem.

13 All this plague is come vpon vs, as it is written in the Law of Moses: yet made we not our prayer before the Lord our God, that wee might turne from our iniquities, and vnderstand thy trueth.

14 Therefore hath the Lord ‡ made ready the plague, and brought it vpon vs: for the Lord our God is righteous in all his workes which he doeth: for we would not heare his voyce.

15 * And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mightie hand, and hast gotten thee renowme, as appeareth this day, we haue sinned, we haue done wickedly.

16 O Lord, according to all thy k righteousnesse, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy wrath bee turned away from thy citie Ierusalem thine holy mountaine: for because of our sinnes, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Ierusalem and thy people are a reproch to all that are about vs.

17 Now therefore, O our God, heare the prayer of thy seruant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to l shine vpon thy Sanctuarie, that lieth waste for the m Lords sake.

18 O my God, encline thine eare, and heare: open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the citie whereupon thy Name is called: for wee doe not present our supplications before thee for our owne n righteousnesse, but for thy great tender mercies.

19 O Lord, heare, O Lord forgiue, O Lord o consider, and doe it: defferre not, for thine owne sake, O my God: for thy Name is called vpon thy citie, and vpon thy people.

20 ¶ And whiles I was speaking and praying, and confessing my sinne, and the sinne of my people Israel, & did present my supplication before the Lord my God, for the

a Who was also called Astyages.
b For Cyrus led with ambition, went about warres in other countreyes, and therefore Darius had the title of the kingdome, though Cyrus was King in effect.
c For though he was an excellent Prophet, yet he daily increased in knowledge by the reading of the Scriptures.
d He speaketh not of that ordinarie prayer, which he vsed in his house thrise a day, but of a rare and vehement prayer, least their sinnes should cause God to delay the time of their deliuerance prophecied by Ieremiah.
e That is, hast all power in thy selfe to execute thy terrible iudgements against obstinate sinners, as thou art rich in mercie to comfort them which obey thy word and loue thee.
† Ebr. him.
f He sheweth that whensoeuer God punisheth, hee doeth it for iust cause: and thus the godly neuer accuse him of rigour as the wicked doe, but acknowledge that in themselues there is iust cause why he should so inuiegle them.
‡ Ebr. confusion of face.

g He doeth not excuse the Kings because of their authoritie, but prayeth chiefly for them as the chiefe occasions of these great plagues.
h He sheweth that they rebell against God, which serue him not according to his commaundement and word.
i As Deut. 27. 15. or the curse confirmed by an othe.
‖ Or, gouerned vs.
‡ Ebr. watched vpon the euill. Exod. 14, 28. Baruc. 2, 11.
k That is, according to all thy mercifull promises and the performance thereof.
l Shew thy selfe fauourable.
m That is, for thy Christes sake, in whom thou wilt accept all our prayers.
n Declaring, that the godly flee onely vnto Gods mercies, and renounce their owne workes when they seeke for remission of their sinnes.
o Thus he could not content himselfe with any vehemencie of wordes: for he was so led with a feruent zeale, considering Gods promise made to the city in respect of his Church, and for the aduancement of Gods glorie.

Chap.8.16.
p He alludeth to Ieremiahs prophesie, who prophesied that their captiuitie should be seuentie yeeres: but now Gods mercy should seuen fold exceede his iudgement, which should be foure hundred and ninety yeres, euen to the comming of Christ, and so then it should continue for euer.
q Meaning, Daniels nation, ouer whom he was carefull.
r To shew mercie, and to put sinne out of remembrance.
s That is, from the time that Cyrus gaue them leaue to depart.
t These weekes make 49. yeere, whereof 46. are referred to the time of the building of the Temple, and 3. to the laying of the foundation.
u Counting from the sixt yeere of Darius who gaue the second commandement for the building of the Temple, are 62. weekes, which make 434. yeeres, which comprehend the time from the building of the Temple, vnto the Baptisme of Christ. ‡ Ebr. In streites of time.
x In this last weeke of the seuentie shall Christ come & preach and suffer death.
y He shal seeme to haue no beauty, nor to be of any estimation, as Isa.53.2.
z Meaning, Titus, Vespasians sonne, who should come and destroy both the Temple & the people without all hope of recouery.
a By the preaching of the Gospel he confirmed his promise, first to the Iewes, and after to the Gentiles.
b Christ accomplished this by his death & resurrection,
c Meaning that Ierusalem & the Sanctuary should be vtterly destroyed for their rebellion against God, and their idolatry: as some reade, that the plagues shalbe so great, that they shalbe astonied at them.

the holy Mountaine of my God,

21 Yea, while I was speaking in prayer, euen the man * Gabriel whom I had seene before in the vision, came flying, and touched mee about the time of the euening oblation.

22 And hee informed mee, and talked with mee, and sayde, O Daniel, I am nowe come forth to giue thee knowledge and vnderstanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications, the commaundement came forth, and I am come to shewe thee, for thou art greatly beloued: therefore vnderstand the matter and consider the vision.

24 Seuentie p weekes are determined vpon q thy people, and vpon thine holy citie, to finish the wickednesse, and to seale vp thy r sinnes, & to reconcile the iniquitie, and to bring in euerlasting righteousnesse, and to seale vp the vision and prophesie, and to anoynt the most Holy.

25 Know therefore and vnderstand, that from the s going forth of the commandement to bring againe the people, and to build Ierusalem, vnto Messiah the prince, shall bee seuen t weekes, and a threescore and two weekes, and the streete shall be built againe, and the wall euen in a ‡ troublous time.

26 And after threescore & two x weekes, shall Messiah be slaine, and shall y haue nothing, and the people of z the prince that shall come, shall destroy the citie and the Sanctuarie, and the ende thereof shall bee with a flood: and vnto the ende of the battell it shall be destroyed by desolations.

27 And he shall a confirme the couenant with many for one weeke: and in the midst of the weeke he shall cause the sacrifice & the oblation to b cease, c and for the ouerspreading of the abominations, hee shall make it desolate, euen vntill the consummation determined shall be powred vpon the desolate.

CHAP. X.

There appeareth vnto Daniel a man clothed in linnen, 11 which sheweth him wherefore he is sent.

a He noteth this third yeere because at this time the building of the Temple began to be hindered by Cambyses. Cyrus sonne, when the father made warre in Asia minor against the Scythians, which was a discouraging to the godly, and a great feare to Daniel.
b Which is to declare that the godly should not hasten too much, but patiently to abide the issue of Gods promise,

IN the a third yeere of Cyrus king of Persia, a thing was reuealed vnto Daniel (whose name was called Baltethazzar) and the word was true, but the time appointed was b long, and he vnderstood the thing, and had vnderstanding of the vision.

2 At the same time, I Daniel was in heauinesse for three weeks of dayes.

3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh, nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoynt my selfe at all, till three weekes of dayes were fulfilled.

4 And in the foure and twentie day of the c first moneth, as I d was by the side of that great riuer, euen Hiddikel,

5 And I lift vp mine eyes, and looked, and beholde, there was a man * clothed in linnen, whose loynes were girded with fine golde of * Aphaz.

6 His body also was like the Chrysolite, and his face (to looke vpon) like the lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his armes and his feet were like in colour to polished brasse, and the voice of his words was like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me, saw not the vision: but a great feare fell vpon them, so that they fled away and hid themselues.

8 Therefore I was left alone, & saw this great vision, & there remained no strength in me: for my f strength was turned in mee into corruption, and I reteined no power.

9 Yet heard I the voyce of his wordes: and when I heard the voyce of his words, I slept on my face: and my face was toward the ground.

10 And behold, an hand g touched mee, which set mee vp vpon my knees and vpon the palmes of my handes.

11 And he said vnto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloued, vnderstand the words that I speake vnto thee, and stand in thy place: for vnto thee am I now sent. And when hee had said this word vnto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he vnto me, Feare not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou diddest set thine heart to vnderstand, and to humble thy selfe before thy God, thy wordes were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the h prince of the kingdome of Persia withstood me one and twenty dates: but loe, i Michael one of the chiefe princes, came to helpe me, and I remained there by the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to shew thee what shall come to thy people in the latter dayes: for yet the k vision is for many dayes.

15 And when he spake these wordes vnto me, I set my face toward the ground, and held my tongue.

16 And behold, l one like the similitude of the sonnes of man touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said vnto him that stood before me, O my Lord, m by the vision my sorowes are returned vpon me, and I haue reteined no strength.

17 For how can the seruant of this my Lord talke with my Lord being such one? for as for mee, streight way there remained no strength in mee, neither is there breath left in me.

c Called Abib, which contemeth part of March, & part of April.
d Being caried by the spirit of prophesie to haue the sight of this riuer Tygris.
e This was the Angel of God, which was sent to assure Daniel in this prophesie that followeth. Iere.10.9.
f The word also signifieth comelinesse or beauty, so that for feare he was like a dead man for deformitie.
g Which declareth that when we are stricken downe with the maiestie of God, we cannot rise, except he also lift vs vp with his hand, which is his power.
h Meaning, Cambyses, who reigned in his fathers absence, and did not onely for this space hinder the building of the Temple, but would haue farther raged, if God had not sent me to resist him, and therefore haue I stayed for the profite of the Church.
i Though God could by one Angel destroy all the world: yet to assure his children of his loue he sendeth foorth double power, euen Michael, that is, Christ Iesus the head of Angels.
k For though the Prophet Daniel should end and cease, yet this doctrine should continue till the comming of Christ for the comfort of his Church.
l This was the same Angell that spake with him before in the similitude of a man.
m I was ouercome with feare and sorow, when I saw the vision.

18 Then

n He declareth hereby that God would be merciful vnto the people of Israel.

o Which declareth that when God smiteth downe his children, he doth not immediatly lift them vp at once (for nowe the Angel had touched him twise) but by little and little.

p Meaning, that he would not onely himselfe bridle the rage of Cambyses, but also the other kings of Persia by Alexander the king of Macedonia. q For this Angel was appoynted for the defence of the Church vnder Christ, who is the head thereof.

18 Then there came againe, and touched me, one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, 19 And sayde, O man, greatly beloued, feare not: [n] peace bee vnto thee: bee strong and of good courage. And when hee had spoken vnto me, [o] I was strengthened, and sayde, Let my Lord speake: for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then sayd hee, Knowest thou wherefore I am come vnto thee? but nowe will I returne to fight with the Prince of Persia: and when I am gone foorth, loe, the [p] prince of Grecia shall come.

21 But I will shewe thee that which is decreed in the Scripture of trueth: [q] and there is none that holdeth with mee in these things, but Michael your prince.

CHAP. XI.

A prophesie of the kingdoms which should be enemies to the Church of God, as of Persia, 3 Of Greece, 5 Of Egypt, 28 Of Syria, 36 And of the Romanes.

a The Angel assureth Daniel that God hath giuen him power to perfourme these things, seeing he appoynted him to assist Darius when he ouercame the Caldeans.

b Whereof Cambyses that now reigned, was the first, the second Smerdes, the third Darius the sonne of Hystaspis, and the fourth Xerxes, which all were enemies to the people of God, & stood against them.

c For he raised vp all the East countreys to fight against the Grecians: and albeit he had in his army nine hundred thousand men, yet in foure battels he was discomfited and fled away with shame. d That is, Alexander the great. e For when his estate was most flourishing, he ouercame himselfe with drinke, and so fell into a disease: or as some write, was poisoned by Cassander. f For his twelue chiefe princes first diuided his kingdome among themselues. g After this his monarchie was diuided into foure: for Seleucus had Syria, Antigonus Asia minor, Cassander the kingdome of Macedonia, and Ptolemeus Egypt. h Thus God reuenged Alexanders ambition and cruelty, in causing his posterity to be murthered, partly of the fathers chiefe friends, and partly one of another. i None of these foure shalbe able to be compared to the power of Alexander. k That is, his posterity hauing no part thereof. l To wit, Ptolemeus king of Egypt. m That is, Antiochus the sonne of Seleucus, and one of Alexanders princes shall be mor. mighty: for he should haue both Asia and Syria. n That is, Berenice the daughter of Ptolemeus Philadelphus shall be giuen in marriage to Antiochus Theos, thinking by this affinity that Syria and Egypt should haue a continuall peace together.

1 Also I, in the first yeere of Darius of the Medes, euen I [a] stoode to encourage and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the trueth. Beholde, there shall stand vp yet [b] three Kings in Persia, and the fourth shall bee farre richer then they all: [c] by his strength, and by his riches he shal stirre vp [c] al against the realme of Grecia.

3 But a [d] mightie King shall stand vp, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his pleasure.

4 And when hee shall stand vp, [e] his kingdome shall be broken, [f] and shall be diuided toward the [g] fourt windes of heauen: and not to his [h] posteritie, nor according to [i] his dominion, which he ruled: for his kingdome shall be pluckt vp, euen to be for others beside [k] those.

5 And the [l] King of the South shall bee mightie, and one of [m] his princes, and shall preuaile against him, and beare rule: his dominion shalbe a great dominion.

6 And in the end of yeres they shalbe ioyned together: for the kings [n] daughter of the South shall come to the King of the North to make an agreement, but she shall not reteine the power of the [o] arme, neither shall [p] he continue, nor his [q] arme: but shee shalbe deliuered to death, [r] they that brought her, and he [r] that begat her, and he that comforted her in these times.

7 But out of the budde of her [s] rootes shall one stand vp in his stead, [t] which shall come with an armie, and shall enter into the fortresse of the King of the North, and doe with them as hee list, and shall preuaile,

8 And shall also carrie captiues into Egypt their gods with their molten images, and with their precious vessels of siluer and of golde, and he shall continue [u] moe yeeres then the king of the North.

9 So the King of the South shall come into his kingdome, and shall returne into his owne land.

10 Wherefore his [x] sonnes shalbe stirred vp, and shall assemble a mighty great army: and one [y] shall come and ouerflow, and passe thorow: then shall [z] he returne, and be stirred vp at his fortresse.

11 And the King of the South shall bee angrie, and shall come forth, and fight with him, euen with the King of the North: for hee shall set foorth a great [a] multitude, and the multitude shall be giuen into his hand.

12 Then the multitude shall bee proude, and their heart shall bee lifted vp: for hee shall cast downe thousands: but he shall not still preuaile.

13 For the King of the North [b] shall returne, and shall set foorth a greater multitude then afore, and shall come foorth (after certeine yeeres) with a mightie armie, and great riches.

14 And at the same time there shall [c] many stand vp against the King of the South: also the rebellious children of thy [d] people shall exalt themselues to establish the vision, but they shall fall.

15 So the King of the North shall come, and cast vp a mount, and take the strong citie: and the armes of the South shall [e] not resist, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But hee that shall come, shall doe vnto him as hee list, and none shall stand afore him: and he shall stand in the [f] glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdome, and vprightnesse with him: thus shall he doe, and giue him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turne his face vnto the yles, and shall take many: but a [g] Prince shall cause the reproch that he made to cease against him, and shall cause his reproch to turne vpon him.

19 Then shall he turne his face toward the fortresses of his owne land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

20 Then shall stand vp in his roome a [h] raiser of taxes in the glorie of the kingdome: but within few dayes he shall be destroyed, neither in anger nor in battel.

21 And in his roome shall stand vp a [i] vile person, to whom they shall not giue the honour of the kingdome: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtaine the kingdome by flatteries.

22 And with the armes of a flood shall they be ouerflowen from before him, and broken: yea also the [k] Prince of the couenant.

23 And after the league made with him, he shall worke deceitfully: for he shall come vp, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter peaceably euen vpon the fattest places of the prouince, and shall do that which his fathers haue not done, nor his forefathers: he shall scatter among them the prey, the spoile, and the substance: yea and he shall forecast his deuices against the strongholds, but for a time.

25 And he shall stirre vp his power and his courage against the King of the South with a great armie: and the King of the South shall be stirred vp to battel with a very great and mightie armie: but he shall not stand, for they shall forecast deuices against him.

26 Yea they that eate of his meate shall destroy him, and his armie shall ouerflow: and many shall fall downe slaine.

27 And both these kings hearts shall be to doe mischiefe, and they shall speake lies at one table: but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he returne into his land with great substance, and his heart shall be against the holy couenant: and he shall doe his pleasure, and returne into his owne land.

29 At the time appointed he shall returne, and come toward the South: but it shall not be as the former or the latter.

30 For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieued, and returne, and haue indignation against the holy couenant, and doe his pleasure: he shall returne, and haue regard vnto them that forsake the holy couenant.

31 And armes shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the Sanctuarie of strength, and take away the continuall [l] sacrifice, and they shall set vp the abhomination that maketh desolate.

32 And such as doe wickedly against the couenant, shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that know their God, shall be strong, and doe great exploits.

33 And they that vnderstand among the people, shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captiuitie, and by spoile, many dayes.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little helpe: but many shall cleaue vnto them by flatteries.

35 And some of them that vnderstand, shall fall, to trie them, and to purge, and to make them white, euen to the time of the end: for it is yet for a time appointed.

36 And the King shall doe according to his will, and exalt himself, and magnifie himself against euery god, and shall speake marueilous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper, till the indignation be accomplished: for that which is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnifie himself against all.

38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not, shall he honour with golde, and siluer, and precious stones, and pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he doe in the strongest holdes with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge, and increase with honour: and cause them to rule ouer many, and shall diuide the land for gaine.

40 And at the time of the end shall the King of the South [m] push at him: and the King of the North shall come against him like a tempest, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships: and he shall enter into the countreys, and shall ouerflow, and passe thorow.

41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countreys shall be ouerthrowen: but these shall escape out of his hand, Edom, and Moab, and the chiefe of the children of Ammon.

42 He shall stretch out his hand also vpon countreys, and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 But he shall haue power ouer the treasures of golde and siluer, and ouer all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

44 But tidings out of the East and out of the North shall trouble him: therefore he shall come forth with great fury to destroy, and vtterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace betweene the sea and the glorious holy mountaine: yet shall he come to his end, and none shall helpe him.

CHAP. XII.

The time of the Church vnder Antichrist, 5 and the end of the same.

1 And at that time shall Michael stand vp, the great Prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as was not since there was a nation, euen to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be deliuered, euery one that shall be found written in the booke.

2 And many of them that sleepe in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to euerlasting life, and some to shame and euerlasting contempt.

3 And they that be wise, shall shine as the brightnesse of the firmament: and they that turne many to righteousnesse, as the starres for euer and euer.

4 But thou Daniel, shut vp the words, and seale the booke, euen to the time of the end: many shall runne to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

5 Then I Daniel looked, and behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the banke of the riuer, and the other on that side of the banke of the riuer.

6 And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was aboue the waters of the riuer, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was aboue the waters of the riuer, when he held vp his right hand and his left hand vnto heauen, and sware by him that liueth for euer, that it shall be for a time, times, and an halfe: and when he shall haue made an end to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

8 And I heard, but I vnderstood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

9 And he said, Goe thy way Daniel: for these words are shut vp and sealed vntill the time of the end.

10 Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried: but the wicked shall doe wickedly, and none of the wicked shall vnderstand, but the wise shall vnderstand.

11 And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abhomination that maketh desolate set vp, shall be a thousand two hundred and ninetie dayes.

12 Blessed is he that waiteth, and commeth to the thousand three hundred and fiue and thirtie dayes.

13 But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the dayes.

[a] Meaning, that God would be merciful vnto the people of Israel. [b] Which declareth that when God smiteth downe his children, he doth not immediatly lift them vp at once (for nowe the Angel had touched him twise) but by little and little. [o] That force and strength shall not continue: for soone after Berenice and her yoong sonne after her husbands death, was slaine of her stepsonne Seleucus Calinicus the sonne of Laodice, the lawfull wife of Antiochus, but put away for this womans sake. [p] Neither Ptolemeus, nor Antiochus. [q] Some reade, seed, meaning the childe begotten of Berenice. [r] Some reade, she that begate her, and thereby vnderstand her nurse, which brought her vp: so that all they that were occasion of this mariage, were destroyed. [s] Meaning, that Ptolemeus Euergetes, after the death of his father Philadelphus, should succeed in the kingdom, being of the same stocke that Berenice was. [t] To reuenge his sisters death against Antiochus Calinicus king of Syria. [u] For this Ptolemeus reigned f He sheweth that he shall not only afflict the Egyptians, but also the Iewes, and shall enter into their countrey, where of he admonisheth them before, that they may know that all these things come by Gods prouidence.

g This was the second battell that Antiochus fought against Ptolemeus Epiphanes.

h To wit, a beautifull woman, which was Cleopatra Antiochus daughter.

i For he regarded not the life of his daughter, in respect of the kingdome of Egypt.

k Shee shall not agree to his wicked counsell, but shall loue her husband, as her duetie requireth, and not seeke his destruction.

l That is, toward Asia, Grecia, and those yles which are in the sea called Mediterraneum: for the Iewes called all countreys yles, which were diuided from them by sea.

m For whereas Antiochus was wont to contemne the Romanes, and put their ambassadours to shame in all places, Attilius the Consull, or Lucius Scipio put him to flight, and caused his shame to turne on his owne head.

n By his wicked life and obeying of foolish counsell.

o For feare of the Romanes hee shall flee to his holdes.

p For when as vnder the pretence of pouertie he would haue robbed the Temple of Iupiter Dodonæus, the country men slewe him.

q That is, Seleucus shall succeede his father Antiochus.

r Not by foraine enemies, or battell, but by treason.

s Which was Antiochus Epiphanes, who as is thought, was the occasion of Seleucus his brothers death, and was of a vile, cruell and flattering nature, and defrauded his brothers sonne of the kingdome, and vsurped the kingdome without the consent of the people.

t Hee sheweth that great forraine powers shall come to helpe the yong sonne of Seleucus against his vncle Antiochus, and yet shall bee ouerthrowen.

u Meaning Ptolemeus Philometor Philopaters sonne, who was this childs Cousin Germane, and is here called the prince of the couenant, because he was the chiefe, and all other followed his conduct.

x For after the battell Philometor and his vncle Antiochus made a league.

y For he came vpon him at vnawares, and when he suspected his vncle Antiochus nothing.

z Meaning in Egypt.

a He will content himselfe with the small holdes for a time, but euer labour by craft to attaine to the chiefest.

b Hee shall be ouercome with treason.

against him: & he shall stand in the [f] pleasant land, which by his hand shalbe consumed.

17 Againe hee shall [z] set his face to enter with the power of his whole kingdome, and his confederates with him: thus shall he do, and he shall giue him the [h] daughter of women, to destroy [i] her: but [k] she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shall hee turne his face vnto the [l] yles, and shal take many, but a prince [m] shall cause his shame to light vpon him, beside that he shall cause his owne shame to turne vpon [n] himselfe.

19 For he shall turne his face toward the fortes of his [o] owne lande: but he shall be ouerthrowen & fall, and be no more [p] found.

20 [q] Then shall stand vp in his place in [ꝑ] glory of the kingdome, one that shall raise taxes: but after fewe dayes he shall bee destroyed, neyther in [r] wrath, nor in battell.

21 And in his place shall stand vp a [s] vile person, to whome they shall not giue the honour of the kingdome: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtaine the kingdome by flatteries.

22 And the [t] armes shall be ouerthrowen with a flood before him, and shall be broken: and also the prince of the [u] couenant.

23 And after [x] ꝑ league made with him, he shall worke deceitfully: for he shal come vp, and ouercome with a [y] small people.

24 He shall enter into the quiet and plentifull prouince, and hee shall doe that which his fathers [z] haue not done, nor his fathers fathers: he shal deuide among them the pray and the spoyle, and the substance, yea, and he shall forecast his deuises against the strong holds, euen for a [a] time.

25 Also hee shall stirre vp his power and his courage against the king of the South with a great armie, and the king of the South shall bee stirred vp to battell with a very great and mightie armie: but hee shall not [b] stand: for they shall forecast and practise against him.

26 Yea, they that feede of the portion of [c] his meate, shall destroy him: and his armie [d] shall ouerflowe: and many shall fall, and be slaine.

27 And both these kings hearts shall bee to doe [e] mischiefe, and they shall talke of deceite at one table: but it shall not auaile: for [f] yet the ende shall bee at the time appointed.

28 Then shall hee returne into his land with great [g] substance: for his heart shall be against the holy couenant: so shall he doe and returne to his owne land.

29 [h] At the time appointed hee shall returne, and come toward the South: but the last shall not be as the first.

30 For the [i] ships [k] of Chittim shall come against him: therefore hee shall bee sorie and returne, and freat against the holy couenant: so shall he doe, hee shall euen returne [l] and haue intelligence with them that forsake the holy couenant.

31 And armes [m] shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the Sanctuarie [n] of strength, and shall take away the dayly sacrifice, and they shall set vp the abominable desolation.

32 And such as wickedly [o] breake the couenant, shall hee cause to sinne by flatterie: but the people that doe know their God, shal preuaile and prosper.

33 And they that vnderstand among [p] the people, shall instruct many: [q] yet they shall fall by sword, and be slaine, by captiuitie and by spoyle, many dayes.

34 Nowe when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a [r] little helpe: but many shall cleaue vnto them [s] faindely.

35 And some of them [t] of vnderstanding shall fall to trie them, and to purge, and to make them white, till the time bee out: for there is a time appointed.

c Signifying his princes and the chiefe about him.

d Declaring that his souldiers shall burst out and venture their life to slay and to be slaine for the safegard of their prince.

e The vncle and the nephewe shall take truce, and banket together, yet in their hearts they shall imagine mischiefe one against another.

f Signifying, that it standeth not in the counsell of men to bring things to passe, but in the prouidence of God who ruleth the kings by a secret bridle, that they cannot doe what they list themselues.

g Which he shall take of the Iewes in spoyling Ierusalem.

h That is, the Romane power shall come against him: for P. Popilius the ambassadour appoynted him to depart in the Romanes name: to which thing he obeyed, although with griefe, and to reuenge his rage, he came against the people of God the second time.

i With the Iewes which shall forsake the couenant of the Lord: for first he was called against the Iewes by Iason the high Priest, and this second time by Menelaus.

k A great faction of the wicked Iewes shall bolde with Antiochus.

l So called, because the power of God was nothing diminished, although this tyrant set vp in the Temple the image of Iupiter Olympius, and so beganne to corrupt the pure seruice of God.

m Meaning, such as bare the name of Iewes, but in deede were nothing lesse: but they solde their soules, and betrayed their brethren for gaine.

n They that remaine constant among the people, shall teach others by their example, and edifie many in the true religion.

o Whereby hee exhorteth the godly to constancie, although they shoulde perish a thousand times, and though their miseries endure neuer so long.

p As God will not leaue his Church destitute, yet will hee not deliuer it all at once, but so helpe as they may still seeme to fight vnder the crosse, as bee did in the time of the Maccabees, whereof he here prophecieth.

q That is, there shall be euen of this small number many hypocrites.

r To wit, of them that feare God, and will lose their life for the defence of true religion, signifying also, that the Church must continually bee tryed and purged, and ought to looke for one persecution after another: for God hath appoynted the time: therefore we must obey.

f Because the Angels purpose is to shew the whole course of the persecutions of the Iewes vnto the comming of Christ, he now speaketh of the Monarchie of the Romanes, which he noteth by the name of a king, who were without all religion and contemned the true God.

t So long the tyrants shal preuaile as God hath appointed to punish his people: but he sheweth y it is but for a time.

u The Romanes shall obserue no certaine forme of religion as other nations, but shall change their gods at their pleasures, yea, contemne them, and preferre themselues to their gods.

x Signifying, that they should be without all humanitie: for the loue of women is taken for singular or great loue, as 2. Sam. 1. 26.

y That is, the god of power and riches: they shall esteeme their owne power aboue all their gods, and worship it.

36 And the f King shal do what him list: he shal exalt himselfe, and magnifie himselfe against al, that is God, and shall speake maruelious things against the God of gods, and shal prosper till the wrath t be accomplished: for the determination is made.

37 Neither shall he regard the u God of his fathers, nor the desires x of women, nor care for any god: for he shall magnifie himselfe aboue all.

38 But in his place shall hee honour the y god Mauzzim, and the god whome his fathers knew not, shall hee honour with z gold and with siluer, and with precious stones, and with pleasant things.

39 Thus shall hee doe in the a holdes of Mauzzim with a strange god whome hee shall acknowledge: he shall encrease his glorie, and shall cause them to rule ouer many, and shall deuide the land for gaine.

40 And at the ende of time shall the king of the b South push at him, and the king of the North shall come against him like a whirlewinde with charets, and with horsemen, and with many shippes, and hee shall enter into the countreys, and shall ouerflow and passe through.

41 He shall enter also into the c pleasant land, and many countreys shall bee ouerthrowen: but these shall escape out of his hand, euen Edom and Moab, and the chiefe of the children of Ammon.

42 He shall stretch forth his handes also vpon the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 But hee shall haue power ouer the treasures of golde and of siluer, & ouer all the precious things of Egypt, and of the Libyans, and of the blacke Mores where he shall passe.

44 But the tydings out of the East and the North shall d trouble him: therefore hee shall goe forth e with great wrath to destroy and roote out many.

45 And hee shall plant the tabernacles f of his palace betweene the seas in the glorious and holy mountaine, yet hee shall come to his ende, and none shall helpe him.

z Vnder pretence of worshipping the gods, they shall enrich their citie with the most precious iewels of all the world, because that hereby al men should haue them in admiration for their power and riches. a Although in their hearts they had no religion, yet they did acknowledge the gods and worshipped them in their temples, lest they shoulde haue bene despised as Atheists: but this was to increase their fame and riches: and when they gate any countrey, they so m. de others the rulers therof, that the profit euer came to the Romanes. b That is, both the Egyptians & the Syrians shall at length fight against the Romanes, but they shall be ouercome. c The Angel forewarneth the Iewes, that when they should see the Romans inuade them, and that the wicked should escape their hands, that then they should not thinke but that al this was done by Gods prouidence, for as much as hee warned them of it so long afore, and therefore hee would still preserue them. d Hearing that Crassus was slaine and Antonius discomfited. e For Augustus ouercame the Parthians, and recouered that which Antonius had lost. f The Romanes after this reigned quietly through all countreys, and from sea to sea, and in Iudea: but at length for their cruelties God shall destroy them.

CHAP. XII.

1 Of the deliuerance of the Church by Christ.

AND at that a time shall Michael stand vp, the great prince, which standeth for the children of thy people, and there shall be a time of trouble, such as neuer was since there began to bee a nation vnto that same time: and at that time the people shall be deliuered, euery one that shall bee found written in the booke.

2 And many b of them that sleepe in y dust of the earth, shal awake, some to euerlasting life, & some to shame & perpetuall contempt.

3 And they that be c wise, shall shine, as the brightnesse of the firmament: and they that d turne many to righteousnesse, shall shine as the starres, for euer and euer.

4 But thou, O Daniel, e shut vp the wordes, & seale the booke f till the end of the time: many shall runne to and fro, and knowledge shall be encreased.

5 ¶ Then I Daniel looked, and beholde, there stoode other two, the one on this side of the brinke of the g riuer, and the other on that side of the brinke of the riuer.

6 And one saide vnto the man clothed in linen, which was vpon the waters of the riuer, ¶ When shalbe the end of these wonders?

7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was vpon the waters of the riuer, when he helde vp his h right hand & his left hand vnto heauen, and sware by him that liueth for euer, that shall tary for a i time, two times and an halfe: and when hee shall haue accomplished k to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

8 Then I heard it, but I vnderstoode it not: then saide I, O my Lorde, what shall be the end of these things?

9 And he said, Goe thy way, Daniel: for the wordes are closed vp, and sealed, till the end of the time.

10 Many shall bee purified, made white, and tried: but the wicked shall doe wickedly, and none of the wicked shall haue vnderstanding: but the wise shall vnderstand.

11 And from the time that the l dayly sacrifice shall be taken away, & the abominable desolation set vp, there m shalbe a thousande two hundreth and ninetie dayes.

12 Blessed is he that waiteth and commeth to the thousande three hundreth and n fiue and thirtie dayes.

13 But goe o thou thy way till the ende bee: for thou shalt rest and stand vp in thy lot, at the end of the dayes.

a The Angel here noteth two things: first that the Church shall be in great affliction & trouble at Christs comming, and next that God wil send his Angel to deliuer it whom here he calleth Michael, meaning Christ, which is published by the preaching of the Gospel.

b Meaning, all shall rise at the generall resurrection, which thing he here nameth, because the faithfull should haue euer their respect to that: for in the earth there shalbe no sure comfort.

c Who haue kept the true feare of God and his religion.

d He chiefly meaneth the ministers of Gods word, and next all the faithful which instruct the ignorant, and bring them to the true knowledge of God.

e Though the most part despise this propheste, yet keepe thou it sure and esteeme it as a treasure.

f Till the time that God hath appointed for the full reuelation of these things: and then many shall run to & fro to search y knowledge of these mysteries, which things they obtaine now by the light of the Gospel. g Which was Tigris. h Which was as it were a double oth, and did the more confirme the thing. i Meaning, a long time, a longer time, and at length a short time: Signifying that their troubles should haue an end. k When the Church shalbe scattered and diminished in such sort as it shall seeme to haue no power. l From the time that Christ by his sacrifice shall take away the sacrifice & ceremonies of the Law. m Signifying that the time shalbe long of Christs second comming, and yet the children of God ought not to be discouraged, though it be deferred. n In this number he addeth a moneth & an halfe to the former number, signifying that it is not in man to appoint the time of Christs coming, but that they are blessed that patiently abide his appearing. o The Angel warneth the Prophet patiently to abide, til the time appointed come, signifying that he shoulde depart this life, and rise againe with the elect, when God had sufficiently humbled and purged his Church.

Hosea.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that the teane tribes had fallen away from God by the wicked and subtill counsell of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, and in stead of his true seruice commaunded by his worde, worshipped him according to their owne fantasies and traditions of men, giuing themselues to most vile idolatrie and superstition, the Lorde from time to time sent them Prophets to call them to repentance: but they grew euer worse and worse, and still abused Gods benefits. Therefore nowe when their prosperitie was at the highest vnder Ieroboam the sonne of Ioash, God sent Hosea and Amos to the Israelites (as hee did at the same time Isaiah and Micah to them of Iudah) to condemne them of their ingratitude: and whereas they thought themselues to be greatly in the fauour of God, and to bee his people, the Prophet calleth them bastards and children borne in adulterie: and therefore sheweth them that God would take away their kingdome, and giue them to the Assyrians to be led away captiues. Thus Hosea faithfully executed his office for the space of seuentie yeeres, though they remained still in their vices and wickednesse, and derided the Prophets, and contemned Gods iudgements. And because they should neither be discouraged with threatnings onely, nor yet flatter themselues by the sweetnesse of Gods promises, hee setteth before them the two principall parts of the Lawe, which are the promise of saluation, and the doctrine of life: for the first part hee directeth the faithfull to Messiah, by whome onely they should haue true deliuerance: and for the second, hee vseth threatnings and menaces to bring them from their wicked maners and vices, and this is the chiefe scope of all the Prophets, either by Gods promises to allure them to bee godly, or els by threatnings of his iudgements to feare them from vice: and albeit that the whole Lawe conteine these two points, yet the Prophets moreouer note peculiarly both the time of Gods iudgements, and the maner.

CHAP. I.

1 The time wherein Hosea prophesied. 2 The idolatrie of the people. 10 The calling of the Gentiles. 11 Christ is the head of all people.

THE worde of the Lord that came vnto Hosea the sonne of Beeri, in the dayes of [a] Vzziah, Iotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah [b] kings of Iudah, and in the dayes of Ieroboam the sonne of Ioash king of Israel.

2 At the beginning the Lorde spake by Hosea, and the Lord sayd vnto Hosea, Goe, take vnto thee a wife [c] of fornications, and children of fornications: for the land hath committed great whoredome, departing from the Lord.

3 So he went, and tooke [d] Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim, which conceiued and bare him a sonne.

4 And the Lord sayd vnto him, Call his name [e] Izreel: for yet a little, and I will visite the blood of Izreel vpon the house [f] of Iehu, and will cause to cease the kingdome of the house of Israel.

5 And at that [g] day will I also breake the bowe of Israel in the valley of Izreel.

6 She conceiued yet againe, and bare a daughter, and God sayd vnto him, Call her name [h] Lo-ruhamah: for I will no more haue pitie vpon the house of Israel: but I will vtterly [i] take them away.

7 Yet I will haue mercy vpon the house of Iudah, and will [k] saue them by the Lord their God, and will not saue them by bowe, nor by sword, nor by battell, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 Now when shee had weined Lo-ruhamah, she conceiued, and bare a sonne.

9 Then sayd God, Call his name [l] Lo-ammi: for ye are not my people: therefore will I not be yours.

10 Yet the number of the [m] children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor tolde: and in the place where it was sayd vnto them, Yee are not my people, it shalbe sayd vnto them, Yee are the sonnes of the liuing God.

11 Then shal the children of Iudah, and the children of Israel be [n] gathered together, and appoint themselues one head, and they shall come vp out of the land: for great is the [o] day of Izreel.

[a] Called also Azariah, who being a leper, was deposed from his kingdome.

[b] So that it may be gathered by the reigne of these foure kings, that hee preached aboue three score yeeres.

[c] That is, one that of long time hath accustomed to play the harlot: not that the Prophet did this thing in effect, but hee saw this in a vision, or else was commanded by God to set forth vnder this parable or figure the idolatrie of the Synagogue, and of the people her children.

[d] Gomer signifieth a consumption or corruption, and Diblaim clusters of figges, declaring, that they were all corrupt like rotten figges.

[e] Meaning, that they should bee no more called Israelites, of the which name they boasted, because Israel did preuaile with God: but that they were as bastards, and therefore should be called Izreelites, that is, scattered people, alluding to Izreel, which was the chiefe citie of the ten tribes vnder Ahab, where Iehu shed so much blood, 2. Kings 10.8, 11.

[f] I will be reuenged vpon Iehu for the blood that he shed in Izreel: for albeit God stirred him vp to execute his iudgements, yet hee did them for his owne ambition, and not for the glory of God, as the end declared: for hee built vp that idolatrie, which he had destroyed.

[g] When the measure of their iniquitie is full, and I shall take vengeance and destroy all their policie and force.

[h] That is, not obteining mercy: whereby he signifieth, that Gods fauour was departed from them.

[i] For the Israelites neuer returned, after that they were taken captiues by the Assyrians.

[m] Because they thought that God could not haue bene true in his promise, except he had preserued them, hee declareth that though they were destroyed, yet the true Israelites, which are the sonnes of the promise, should be without number, which stand both of the Iewes, and the Gentiles, Rom. 9.26.

[n] To wit, after the captiuitie of Babylon when the Iewes were restored: but chiefly this is referred to the time of Christ, who should be the head both of the Iewes and Gentiles.

[o] The calamitie and destruction of Izreel shall be so great, that to restore them shalbe as a miracle.

CHAP. II.

1 The people is called to repentance. 5 He sheweth their idolatrie and threatneth them except they repent.

SAy vnto your [a] brethren, Ammi, and to your sisters, Ruhamah,

2 Pleade with your [b] mother: pleade

[a] Seeing that I haue promised you deliuerance, it remaineth that you encourage one another to embrace the same, considering that yee are my people on whome I will haue mercy.

[b] God sheweth that the fault was not in him but in their Synagogue, and their idolatrie, that he forsooke them, Isa. 50.1, with her: for ſhee is not my wife, neither am I her huſband: but let her take away her fornications out of her ſight, and her adulteries c from betweene her breaſts,

3 d Leſt I ſtrip her naked, and ſet her as in the day that ſhee was e borne, & make her as a wilderneſſe, and leane her like a dry land, and ſlay her for thirſt.

4 And I will haue no pitie vpon her children: for they be the f children of fornications.

5 For their mother hath played the harlot: ſhee that conceiued them, hath done ſhamefully: for ſhe ſayd, I will go after my g louers that giue me my bread and my water, my wooll and my flaxe, mine oyle and my drinke.

6 Therefore beholde, I will ſtop h thy way with thornes, and make an hedge, that ſhe ſhall not finde her paths.

7 Though ſhee follow after her louers, yet ſhall ſhe not come at them: though ſhee ſeeke them, yet ſhall ſhe not finde them: then ſhall ſhe ſay, i I will goe and returne to my firſt huſband: for at that time was I better then now.

8 Now ſhee did not know that I k gaue her corne, and wine, and oyle, and multiplied her ſiluer and gold, which they beſtowed vpon Baal.

9 Therefore wil I returne, & take away l my corne in the time thereof, and my wine in the ſeaſon thereof, and will recouer my wooll and my flaxe lent to couer her ſhame.

10 And nowe will I diſcouer her m leudneſſe in the ſight of her louers, and no man ſhall deliuer her out of mine hand.

11 I wil alſo cauſe all her mirth to ceaſe, her feaſt dayes, her new moones, and her Sabbaths, and all her ſolemne feaſts.

12 And I will deſtroy her vines and her figtrees, whereof ſhe hath ſayd, Theſe are my rewards that my louers haue giuen mee: and I will make them as a foreſt, and the wilde beaſts ſhall eate them.

13 And I will viſit vpon her the dayes n of Baalim, whereto ſhee burnt incenſe to them: & ſhe decked her ſelfe with her o eare-rings and her iewels, and ſhee followed her louers, and forgate me, ſayth the Lord.

14 Therefore, behold, I wil p allure her, and bring her into the wilderneſſe, & ſpeake friendly vnto her.

15 And I will giue her her vineyardes from thence, & the valley q of Achor for the doore of hope, and ſhe ſhall ſing there as in the dayes of her youth, & as in the day when ſhe came vp out of the land of Egypt.

16 And at that day, ſayth the Lord, thou ſhalt call me r Ishi, and ſhalt call mee no more s Baali.

17 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they ſhall be no more remembred by their t names.

18 And in that day will I make a couenant for them, with the u wilde beaſts, and with the foules of the heauen, and with that that creepeth vpon the earth: and I will breake the bowe, and the ſword and the battell out of the earth, and will make them to ſleepe ſafely.

19 And I will marrie thee vnto mee for euer: yea, I will marrie thee vnto mee in righteouſneſſe, and in iudgement, and in mercie and in compaſſion.

20 I will euen marrie thee vnto mee in x faithfulneſſe, & thou ſhalt knowe the Lord.

21 And in that day I will heare, ſaieth the Lord, I will euen heare y the heauens, and they ſhall heare the earth.

22 And the earth ſhall heare the corne, and the wine, and the oyle, and they ſhall heare Iſreel.

23 And I will ſowe her vnto mee in the earth, and I will haue mercie vpon her, that was not pitied, & I will ſay to them which were not my people, * Thou art my people. And they ſhall ſay, Thou art my God.

CHAP. III.

1 The Iewes ſhall be caſt off for their idolatrie.
5 Afterward they ſhall returne to the Lord.

THen ſayd the Lord to me, a Goe yet, and loue a woman (beloued of her huſband, and was an harlot) according to the loue of the Lord toward the children of Iſrael: yet they looked to other gods, and b loued the wine bottels.

2 So c I bought her to mee for fifteene pieces of ſiluer, & for an homer of barley and an halfe homer of barley.

3 And I ſayd vnto her, Thou ſhalt abide with d me many dayes: thou ſhalt not play the harlot, and thou ſhalt be to none other man, and I will be ſo vnto thee.

4 For the children of Iſrael ſhall e remaine many dayes without a king, & without a f prince, and without an offering, and without an image, and without an Ephod, and without Teraphim.

5 Afterward ſhall the children of Iſrael conuert, and ſeeke the Lord their God, and g Dauid their King, & ſhall feare the Lord, and his goodneſſe in the latter dayes.

c Meaning, that their idolatrie was ſo great that they were not aſhamed, but boaſted of it, Ezek. 16.25.

d For though this people were as an harlot for their idolatries, yet he had left them with their apparel & dowry & certaine ſignes of his ſauour, but if they continued ſtill, he would vtterly deſtroy them.

e Whē I brought her out of Egypt, Ezek. 16.4.

f That is, baſtards, and begotten in adulterie.

g Meaning, the idols which they ſerued & by whō they thought they had wealth and abundance.

h I will puniſh thee, that then thou mayeſt trie whether thine idoles can helpe thee, and bring thee into ſuch ſtreitneſſe, that thou ſhalt haue no luſt to play the wanton.

i This he ſpeaketh of the faithfull which are truely conuerted, and alſo ſheweth the vſe and profite of Gods rods.

k This declareth that idolaters defraud God of his honour, when they attribute his benefits to their idoles.

l Signifying, that God will take away his benefites when man by his ingratitude doeth abuſe them.

m That is, all her ſeruice, ceremonies, and inuentions whereby ſhee worſhipped her idols.

n I will puniſh her for her idolatrie.

o By ſhewing how harlots trimme themſelues to pleaſe others, hee declareth howe the ſuperſtitious idolaters ſet a great part of their religion in decking themſelues on their holy dayes.

p By my benefites in offering her grace and mercie, euen in that place where ſhe ſhal thinke her ſelfe deſtitute of all helpe and comfort.

q Which was a plentifull valley, and wherein they had great comfort when they came out of the wilderneſſe, as Ioſh. 7.26. and is called the doore of hope, becauſe it was a departing from death, and an entrie into life.

r She ſhall then prayſe God as ſhe did when ſhe was deliuered out of Egypt.

ſ That is, mine husband, knowing that I am ioyned to thee by an inuiolable couenant.

t That is, my maſter: which name was applied to their idoles.

u No idolatrie ſhal once come into their mouth, but they ſhall ſerue me purely according to my word.

x Meaning, that he wil ſo bleſſe them, that all creatures ſhall fauour them.

y With a couenant that neuer ſhalbe broken.

z Then ſhall the heauen deſire raine for y earth which ſhall bring forth for the vſe of man. Rom. 9.25. 1. Pet. 2.10.

a Herein the Prophet repreſenteth the perſon of God, which loued his Church before hee called her, and did not withdrawe the ſame when ſhe gaue her ſelfe to idoles.

b That is, gaue themſelues wholly to pleaſures, and could not take vp, as they that are giuen to drunkenneſſe.

c Yet I loued her, and payed a ſmall portion for her, leſt ſhee perceiuing the greatneſſe of my loue, ſhould haue abuſed mee and not bene vnder dutie: for fifteene pieces of ſiluer were but halfe the price of a ſlaue, Exod. 21.32.

d I will trie thee a long time as in thy widowhood whether thou wilt bee mine or no.

e Meaning, not onely all the time of their captiuitie, but alſo vnto Chriſt.

f That is, they ſhould neither haue policie nor religion, and their idoles alſo wherein they put their confidence, ſhould be deſtroyed.

g This is meant of Chriſtes kingdome, which was promiſed vnto Dauid to be eternall, Pſal. 72.17.

CHAP. IIII.

A complaint againſt the people, and the Prieſtes of Iſrael.

Heare

HEare the word of the Lord, yee children of Israel: for the Lorde hath a controuersie with the inhabitantes of the land, because there is no trueth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and whoring, they breake out and blood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore shall the land mourne, and euery one that dwelleth therein, shall bee cut off, with the beasts of the field, and with the foules of the heauen, and also the fishes of the sea shall be taken away.

4 Yet let none rebuke, nor reproue another: for thy people are as they that rebuke the Priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the Prophet shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother.

6 My people are destroyed for lacke of knowledge: because thou hast refused knowledge, I will also refuse thee, that thou shalt bee no Priest to me: and seeing thou hast forgotten the Law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 As they were increased, so they sinned against mee: therefore will I change their glory into shame.

8 They eate vp the sinnes of my people, and lift vp their mindes in their iniquitie.

9 And there shall bee like people, like Priest: for I will visite their wayes vpon them, and reward them their deedes.

10 For they shall eate, and not haue ynough: they shall commit adultery, and shal not increase, because they haue left off to take heede to the Lord.

11 Whoredome, and wine, and newe wine, take away their heart.

12 My people aske counsell at their stockes, and their staffe teacheth them: for the spirit of fornications hath caused them to erre, and they haue gone a whoring from vnder their God.

13 They sacrifice vpon the toppes of the mountaines, and burne incense vpon the hils vnder the okes, and the poplar tree, and the elme, because the shadowe thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall be harlots, and your spouses shalbe whores.

14 I will not visite your daughters when they are harlots, nor your spouses when they are whores: for they themselues are separated with harlots, and sacrifice with whores: therefore the people that doth not vnderstand, shall fall.

15 Though thou, Israel play the harlot, yet let not Iudah sinne: come not yee vnto Gilgal, neither goe yee vp to Beth-auen, nor sweare, The Lord liueth.

16 For Israel is rebellious as an vnruly heyfer. Now the Lord will feede them as a lambe in a large place.

17 Ephraim is ioyned to idoles: let him alone.

18 Their drunkennesse stinketh: they haue committed whoredome: their rulers loue to say with shame, Bring ye.

19 The winde hath bound them vp in her wings, and they shall bee ashamed of their sacrifices.

CHAP. V.

1 Against the Priestes and rulers of Israel. 13 The helpe of man is in vaine.

HEe Priests heare this, and hearken ye, O house of Israel, and giue yee eare O house of the King: for iudgement is toward you, because yee haue bene a snare on Mizpah, and a net spred vpon Tabor.

2 Yet they were profound, to decline to slaughter, though I haue bene a rebuker of them all.

3 I knowe Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from mee: for nowe, O Ephraim, thou art become an harlot, and Israel is defiled.

4 They will not giue their mindes to turne vnto their God: for the spirite of fornication is in the middes of them, and they haue not knowen the Lord.

5 And the pride of Israel doeth testifie to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquitie: Iudah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall goe with their sheepe, and with their bullockes to seeke the Lorde: but they shall not finde him: for hee hath withdrawen himselfe from them.

7 They haue transgressed against the Lorde: for they haue begotten strange children: nowe shall a moneth deuoure them with their portions.

8 Blowe yee the trumpet in Gibeah, and the shaume in Ramah: crie out at Beth-auen, after thee, O Beniamin.

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel haue I caused to knowe the trueth.

10 The princes of Iudah were like them that remoue the bound: therefore will I powre out my wrath vpon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed, and broken in iudgement, a Because the people would not obey the admonitions of the Prophet, he citeth them before the iudgement seate of God, against whom they chiefly offended, Isa.7.13. Mica.6.1,2. Zech.12.10.

b In euery place appeareth a liberteie to most heinous vices, so that one followeth in the necke of another.

c As though he would say, that it were in vaine to rebuke them: for no man can abide it: yea, they will speake against the Prophets and Priests whose office it is chiefly to rebuke them.

d Ye shall perish all together: the one, because he would not obey, and the other, because he would not admonish.

e That is, the Synagogue wherein thou boastest.

f That is, the Priests shall be cast off, because that for lacke of knowledge, they are not able to execute their charge, and instruct others, Deut.33.3. Mala.2.7.

g Meaning, the whole body of the people, which were wearie with hearing the word of God.

h The more I was beneficiall vnto them.

i To wit, the Priestes seeke to eate the peoples offerings, and flatter them in their sinnes.

k Signifying that as they haue sinned together, so shall they bee punished together.

l Shewing that their wickednesse shall be punished on all sorts: for though they thinke by the multitude of wiues to haue many children, yet they shall be deceiued of their hope.

m In giuing themselues to pleasures, they become like bruite beasts.

n Thus he speaketh by derision in calling them his people, which now for their sinnes they were not: for they sought helpe of stockes and stickes.

o They are caried away with a rage.

p Because they take away Gods honour, and giue it to idoles, therefore he will giue them vp to their lustes, and they shall dishonour their owne bodies, Rom.1.28.

q I will not correct your shame to bring you to amendment, but let you runne headlong to your owne damnation.

r God complaineth that Iudah is infected, and willeth them to learne by their example to returne in time.

s For albeit the Lord had honoured this place in time past by his presence, yet because it was abused by their idolatrie, he would not that his people should the house of God, Beth auen, that is, the house of iniquitie, because of their abominations set vp there, signifying that no place is holy, where God is not purely worshipped.

t Hee calleth Beth el, that is, resort thither.

u God will so disperse them that they shall not remaine in any certaine place.

x They are so impudent in receiuing bribes, that they wil command men to bring them vnto them.

y To cary them suddenly away.

a The Priests and princes catched the poore people in their snares, as the foulers did the birds, in these two high mountaines.

b Notwithstanding they seemed to be giuen altogether to holinesse, and to sacrifices, which here he calleth slaughter in contempt.

c Though I had admonished them continually by my Prophets.

d They boasted themselues not onely to be Israelites, but also Ephraimites, because the king Ieroboam came of that tribe.

e Meaning their contemning of all admonitions.

f That is, their children are degenerate, so that there is no hope in them.

g Their destruction is not farre off.

h That is, all Israel comprehended vnder this part, signifying that the Lordes plagues shoulde pursue them from place to place, till they were destroyed.

i By the successe they shall knowe that I haue surely determined this.

k They haue turned vpside downe all politicall order, and all maner of religion.

iudgement, because hee willingly walked after the l commandement.

12 Therefore wil I be vnto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Iudah as a rottennesse.

13 When Ephraim sawe his sicknesse, and Iudah his wound, then went Ephraim vnto m Ashur, and sent vnto king n Iareb: yet could hee not heale you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will bee vnto Ephraim as a lyon, and as a lyons whelpe to the house of Iudah: I, euen I will spoyle, and go away: I will take away, and none shall rescue it.

15 I will goe, and returne to my place, till they acknowledge their fault, and seeke me: in their affliction they will seeke me diligently.

l To wit, after king Ieroboams commandement, and did not rather follow God.
m In stead of seeking for remedie at Gods hand.
n Who was king of the Assyrians.

CHAP. VI.

1 Affliction causeth a man to turne to God. 9 The wickednesse of the Priestes.

a He sheweth the people how they ought to turne to the Lord, that he might call backe his plagues.
b Though he correct vs from time to time, yet his helpe will not be farre off, if we returne to him.
c You seeme to haue a certaine holinesse, and repentance, but it is vpon the sudden, and as a morning cloude.
d I haue still laboured by my Prophets, and as it were framed you to bring you to amendment, but all was in vaine: for my word was not meate to feede them, but a sword to slay them.
e My doctrine which I taught thee, was most euident.
f He sheweth to what scope his doctrine tended, that they should ioyne the obedience of God, and the loue of their neighbour with outward sacrifice.
g That is, like light and weake persons.
h Which was the place where the Priestes dwelt, and which should haue bene best instructed in my word.
i That is, doth imitate thine idolatrie, and hath taken graffes of thy trees.

COme, and let vs a returne to the Lorde: for hee hath spoyled, and hee will heale vs: hee hath wounded vs, and he will binde vs vp.

2 After two dayes will b hee reuiue vs, and in the third day hee will raise vs vp, and we shall liue in his sight.

3 Then shall we haue knowledge, and indeuour our selues to knowe the Lorde: his going forth is prepared as the morning, and hee shall come vnto vs as the raine, and as the latter raine vnto the earth.

4 O Ephraim, what shall I doe vnto thee? O Iudah, howe shall I entreate thee? for c your goodnesse is as a morning cloude, and as the morning dewe it goeth away.

5 Therefore haue I d cut downe by the Prophets: I haue slaine them by the words of my mouth, and e thy iudgements were as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I desired f mercie, and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God more then burnt offrings.

7 But they like g men haue transgressed the couenant: there haue they trespassed against me.

8 h Gilead is a citie of them that worke iniquitie, and is polluted with blood.

9 And as theeues waite for a man, so the company of Priestes murder in the way by consent: for they worke mischiefe.

10 I haue seene villenie in the house of Israel: there is the whoredome of Ephraim: Israel is defiled.

11 Yea, Iudah hath set a i plant for thee, whiles I would returne the captiuitie of my people.

CHAP. VII.

1 Of the vices and wantonnesse of the people. 12 Of their punishment.

WHen I would haue healed Israel, then the iniquitie of Ephraim was discouered, and the wickednesse of Samaria: for they haue dealt falsely: and the a theefe commeth in, and the robber spoyleth without.

2 And they consider not in their hearts, that I remember all their wickednesse: now their owne inuentions haue beset them about: they are in my sight.

3 They make the b king glad with their wickednesse, and the princes with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, and as a very c ouen heated by the baker, which ceaseth from raising vp, and from kneading the dough vntill it be leauened.

5 This is the d day of our king: the princes haue made him sicke with flagons of wine: he stretcheth out his hand to scorners.

6 For they haue made ready their heart like an ouen whiles they lie in waite: their baker sleepeth all the night: in the morning it burneth as a flame of fire.

7 They are all hote as an ouen, and haue e deuoured their iudges: all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth vnto me.

8 Ephraim hath f mixt himselfe among the people. Ephraim is as a cake on the hearth not turned.

9 Strangers haue deuoured his strength, and hee knoweth it not: yea, g gray haires are here and there vpon him, yet hee knoweth not.

10 And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face, and they do not returne to the Lord their God, nor seeke him for all this.

11 Ephraim also is like a doue deceiued, without h heart: they call to Egypt: they goe to Ashur.

12 But when they shall goe, I will spread my net vpon them, and drawe them downe as the fowles of the heauen: I will chastice them as their i congregation hath heard.

13 Woe vnto them: for they haue fled away from me: destruction shalbe vnto them, because they haue transgressed against me: though I haue k redeemed them, yet they haue spoken lies against me.

14 And they haue not cryed vnto mee, with their hearts, l when they howled vpon their beds: m they assemble themselues for corne and wine, and they rebell against me.

15 Though I haue bound, and strengthened their arme, yet doe they imagine mischiefe against me.

16 They returne, but not to the most high: they are like a deceitfull bowe: their princes shall fall by the sworde, for the rage n of their tongues: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

a Meaning, that there was no one kinde of vice among them, but that they were subiect to all wickednesse, both secret and open.
b They esteeme their wicked King Ieroboam aboue God, and seeke but howe to flatter and please him.
c He compareth the rage of the people to a burning ouen which the baker heateth still till his dough be leauened and raysed.
d They vsed all riot and excesse in their feasts and solemnities, whereby their king was ouercome with surfet, and brought into diseases, and delited in flatteries.
e By their occasion, God hath depriued them of all good rulers.
f That is, he counterfaiteth, the religion of the Gentiles, yet is but as a cake baked on the one side, and rawe on the other: that is, neither through hote nor through colde, but partly a Iewe and partly a Gentile.
g Which are a token of his manifold afflictions.
h That is, without all iudgement, as they that cannot tell whether it is better to cleaue onely to God, or to seeke the helpe of man.
i According to my curses made to the whole congregation of Israel.
k That is, diuers times redeemed them, and deliuered them from death.
l When they were in affliction & cried out for paine, they sought not vnto mee for helpe.
m They onely seeke their owne commoditie and wealth, and passe not for me their God.
n Because they boast of their owne strength, and passe not what they speake against me and my seruants, Psal. 73. 9.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The destruction of Iudah and Israel, because of their idolatrie.

a God encourageth the Prophet to signifie the speedy comming of the enemie against Israel, which was once the people of God.
b They shall cry like hypocrites, but not from the heart, as their deedes declare.
c That is, Ieroboam by whome they sought their own libertie, and not to obey my will.
d That is vpright iudgement and godly life.
e Meaning, the calfe was inuented by themselues, and of their fathers in the wildernesse.
f Shewing that their religion hath but a shew, and in it selfe is but vanitie.
g They neuer cease but runne to and fro to seeke helpe.
h That is, for the tribute which the king and the princes shall lay vpon them: which meanes the Lord vseth to bring them to repentance.
i Thus the idolaters count the worde of God as strange in respect of their owne inuentions.
k Saying that they offer it to the Lord, but hee accepteth no seruice, which he himselfe hath not appointed.

SEt the trumpet to thy a mouth: hee shall come as an Egle against the house of the Lord, because they haue transgressed my couenant, and trespassed against my Law.
2 Israel shall b cry vnto me, My God, we know thee.
3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemie shall pursue him.
4 They haue set vp a c king, but not by me: they haue made princes, and I knew it not: of their siluer and their gold haue they made them idoles: therefore shall they be destroyed.
5 Thy calfe, O Samaria, hath cast thee off: mine anger is kindled against them: how long will they be without d innocencie!
6 e For it came euen from Israel: the workeman made it, therefore it is not God: but the calfe of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.
7 For they haue f sowen the wind, & they shal reape the whirle wind: it hath no stalke: the bud shall bring forth no meale: if so be it bring forth, the strangers shall deuoure it.
8 Israel is deuoured, now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.
9 For they are gone vp to Assyr: they are as a g wilde asse alone by himselfe: Ephraim hath hired louers.
10 Yet though they haue hired among the nations, nowe will I gather them, and they shall sorowe a little, for the h burthen of the king, and the princes.
11 Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sinne, his altars shall be to sinne.
12 I haue written to them the great things of my Law: but they were counted as a i strange thing.
13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eate it: but k the Lord accepteth them not: nowe will hee remember their iniquitie, and visite their sinnes: they shall returne to Egypt.
14 For Israel hath forgotten his maker, and buildeth temples, and Iudah hath increased strong cities: but I will send a fire vpon his cities, and it shal deuoure the palaces thereof.

CHAP. IX.

Of the hunger and captiuitie of Israel.

REioyce not, O Israel, for ioy, a as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God: thou hast loued b a reward vpon euery corne flooze.
2 c The flooze, & the winepresse shall not feede them, & the new wine shall faile in her.
3 They will not dwell in the Lords land, but Ephraim will returne to Egypt, and they will eate vncleane things in Assyr.
4 They shal not offer d wine to the Lord, neither shall their sacrifices be pleasant vnto him: but they shall bee vnto them as the bread of mourners: all that eate thereof, shall be polluted: for their bread e for their soules shall not come into the house of the Lord.
5 What will ye doe f then in the solemne day, and in the day of the feast of the Lord?
6 For lo, they are gone from g destruction: but Egypt shall gather them vp, & Memphis shall burie them: the nettle shall possesse the pleasant places of their siluer, and the thorne shall be in their tabernacles.
7 The dayes of visitation are come: the dayes of recompense are come: Israel shall know it: h the prophet is a foole: the spirituall man is madde, for the multitude of thine iniquitie: therefore the hatred is great.
8 The watchman of Ephraim i should be with my God: but the prophet is the snare of a fouler in all his wayes, and hatred in the house of his God.
9 They k are deepely set: they are corrupt as in the dayes of Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquitie, hee will visite their sinnes.
10 I found Israel like l grapes in the wildernesse: I sawe your fathers as the first ripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to Baal-peor, and separated themselues vnto that shame, and their abominations were according to m their louers.
11 Ephraim their glory shall flee away like a bird: from the birth n and from the wombe, and from the conception.
12 Though they bring vp their children, yet I wil depriue them from being men: yea, woe to them, when I depart from them.
13 Ephraim, as I sawe, is as a tree o in Tyrus planted in a cottage: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murtherer.
14 O Lord, giue them: what wilt thou giue them? giue them a p barren wombe and drie breasts.
15 All their wickednes is in q Gilgal: for there doe I hate them: for the wickednesse of their inuentions, I will cast them out of mine house: I will loue them no more: all their princes are rebels.
16 Ephraim is smitten, their roote is dried vp: they can bring no fruite: yea, though they bring forth, yet wil I slay euen the dearest of their body.
17 My God will cast them away, because they did not obey him: and they shall wander among the nations.

a For although all other people should escape, yet thou shalt be punished.
b Thou hast committed idolatrie in hope of reward, and to haue thy barnes filled, Ier. 44.17.
c The meate offering which they offered for themselues.
d When the Lord shall take away all the occasions of seruing him, which shall be the most grieuous point of your captiuitie, when you shall see your selues cut off from God.
e Though they thinke to escape by fleeing the destruction that is at hand, yet shall they be destroyed in the place whither they flee for succour.
f Then they shall know that they were deluded by them who chalenged to themselues to be their Prophets & spirituall men.
g The Prophets duetie is to bring men to God, and not to be a snare to pull them from God.
h This people is so rooted in their wickednes, that Gibeah which was like to Sodome, was neuer more corrupt, Iudg. 19.22
i Meaning, that, he so esteemed them and delited in them.
k They were as abominable vnto me as their louers the idols.
l Signifying, that meanes, and so consume them by little and little.
m Ashamed as an harlot that had rather liue by playing the whore then to be entertained of her owne husband.
n As they kept tender plants in their houses in Tyrus to preserue them from the cold ayre of the sea, so was Ephraim at the first vnto me, but nowe I will giue him to the slaughter.
o These outward things that thou seekest, shall be taken from thee.
p The Prophet seeing the great plagues of God toward Ephraim, prayeth to God to make them barren, rather then that this great slaughter should come vpon their children.
q The chiefe cause of their destruction is, that they commit idolatrie, and corrupt my religion in Gilgal.

CHAP. X.

1 Against Israel and his idols. 14 His destruction for the same.

ISrael is an [a] emptie vine, yet hath it brought forth frute vnto it selfe, and according to the multitude of the fruit thereof he hath increased the altars: according to the [b] goodnes of their land they haue made faire images.

2 Their heart is [c] diuided: now shal they be found faultie: he shall breake downe their altars: he shall destroy their images.

3 For nowe they shall say, Wee haue no king because we feared not the Lord: and what should a king doe to vs?

4 They haue spoken wordes, sweating falsly in making a [e] couenant: thus [f] iudgement groweth as wormewood in the furrowes of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall [g] feare because of the calfe of Beth-auen: for the people thereof shall mourne ouer it, and the [h] Themarims thereof, that reioyced on it for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also brought to Asshur, for a present vnto king Iareb: Ephraim shall receiue shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his owne counsell.

7 Of Samaria, the king thereof is destroyed, as the fome vpon the water.

8 The hie places also of [i] Auen shall be destroyed, euen the sinne of Israel: the thorne and the thistle shall grow vpon their altars, and they shal say to the mountaines, Couer vs, and to the hils, Fall vpon vs.

9 O Israel, thou hast [k] sinned from the dayes of Gibeah: there they [l] stood: the battel in Gibeah against the children of iniquitie did not [m] touch them.

10 It is my desire [n] that I should chastice them, and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall gather themselues in their [o] two furrows.

11 And Ephraim is as an heifer vsed to delite [p] in threshing: but I will passe by her [q] faire necke: I will make Ephraim to ride: Iudah shall plowe, and Iaakob shall breake his clods.

12 Sow to your selues in righteousnesse: reape after the measure of mercy: [r] breake vp your fallow ground: for it is time to seeke the Lord, till he come and raigne righteousnesse vpon you.

13 But you haue plowed wickednesse: ye haue reaped iniquitie: you haue eaten [s] the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thine owne wayes, & in the multitude of thy strong men,

14 Therefore shall a tumult rise among thy people, and all thy munitions shall be destroyed, as [t] Shalman destroyed Betharbel in the day of battell: the mother with the children was dashed in pieces.

15 So shall Beth-el doe vnto you, because of your malicious wickednesse: in a morning shall the king of Israel be destroyed.

CHAP. XI.

1 The benefites of the Lorde toward Israel. 5 Their ingratitude against him.

WHen Israel [a] was a childe, then I loued him, and called my sonne out of Egypt.

2 They called them, but they [b] went thus from them: they sacrificed vnto Baalim, and burnt incense to images.

3 I led Ephraim also, as one should beare them in his armes: but they knewe not that I healed them.

4 I led them with cordes [c] of a man, euen with bands of loue, and I was to them, as he that taketh off the yoke from their iawes, and I layde the meate vnto them.

5 He shall no more returne into the land of Egypt: but Asshur shalbe his [d] king, because they refused to conuert.

6 And the [e] sword shall fall on his cities, and shall consume his barres, and deuoure them, because of their owne counsels.

7 And my people are bent to rebellion against me: though [f] they called them to the most high, yet none at all would exalt him.

8 [g] How shall I giue thee vp, Ephraim? how shall I deliuer thee, [h] Israel? howe shall I make thee, as [i] Admah? howe shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me: [k] my repentings are rouled together.

9 I will not execute the fiercenesse of my wrath: I will not returne to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man, the holy one in the middes of thee, and I will not [l] enter into the citie.

10 They shall walke after the Lorde: he shall roare like a lyon: when hee shall roare, then the children of the West shall feare.

11 [k] They shall feare as a sparrow out of Egypt, and as a doue out of the land of Asshur, and I will place them in their houses, sayth the Lord.

12 Ephraim compasseth mee about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceite: but Iudah yet ruleth [l] with God, and is faithfull with the Saints.

a Whiles the Israelites were in Egypt and did not prouoke my wrath by their malice and ingratitude.
b They rebelled and went a contrary way when the prophets called them to repentance.
c That is, friendly and not as beasts or slaues.
d Seeing they contemne all this kindnesse, they shall be led captiue into Assyria.
e To wit, the Prophets.
f God considereth with himselfe, and that with a certaine griefe, how to punish them.
g Which were two of the cities that were destroyed with Sodome, Deut. 29.23.
h Meaning, that his loue wherewith he first loued them, made him betweene doubt and assurance what to doe: and herein appeareth his fatherly affection, that his mercy towarde his iudgements, as he declareth in the next verse.
i To consume thee, but will cause thee to yeeld and so receiue thee to mercy: and this is meant of the small number who shall walke after the Lord.
k The Egyptians and Assyrians shall be afraid when the Lorde maintaineth his people.
l Gouerneth their state according to Gods word, and doeth not degenerate.

CHAP. XII.

Hee admonisheth by Iaakobs example to trust in God and not in man.

EPhraim is fed [a] with the winde, and followeth after the East winde: hee increaseth dayly lies and destruction, and they doe make a couenant with Asshur, and [b] oyle is carried into Egypt.

2 The Lorde hath also a controuersie with [c] Iudah, and will visite Iaakob, according to his wayes: according to his workes will he recompense him.

a That is, flattereth himself with vaine confidēce.
b Meaning presents to get friendship.
c Which in these points was like to Ephraim, but not in idolatries.

a Whereof though [f] grapes were gathered, yet euer as it gathered newe strength, it encreased new wickednesse, so that the correction which should haue brought them to obedience, did but vtter their stubburnnesse.
b As they were rich and had aboundance.
c To wit, from God.
d The day shall come that God shall take away their king, and then they shall feele the fruit of their sinnes and howe they trusted in him in vaine, 2. Kings 17.6,7.
e In promising to be faithfull toward God.
f Thus their integritie and fidelitie which they pretended, was nothing but bitternesse and griefe.
g When the calfe shall be caried away.
h Chemarims were certaine idolatrous priests which did weare blacke apparell in their sacrifices, and cryed with a loude voyce: which superstitiō Eliiah derided, 1. King. 18.27. reade 2. Kings 23.5.
i This he speaketh in contempt of Beth-el, reade Chap. 4.15. Isa. 2.19. Luke 23.30. reuel. 6.16. & 9.6.
k In those dayes wast thou as wicked as the Gibeonites, as God there partly declared: for thy zeale could not be good in executing Gods iudgements, seeing thine owne deeds were as wicked as theirs.
l To wit, to fight, or the Israelites remained in that stubburnnesse from that time.
m The Israelites were not mooued by their example to cease from their sinnes.
n Because they are so desperate, I will delite to destroy them.
o That is when they haue gathered all their strength together.
p Wherein is pleasure, as in plowing is labour and paine.
q I wil lay my yoke vpon her fat necke.
r Reade Iere. 4.4.
s That is, Shalmanazzar in the destruction of that citie spared neither kinde nor age.

3 Hee tooke his brother by the heele in the wombe, and by his strength hee had [d] power with God.

4 And had [e] power ouer the Angel, and preuailed: hee wept and prayed vnto him: [f] he found him in Beth-el, and there he spake with vs.

5 Yea, the Lord God of hostes, the Lord is himself e his memoriall.

6 Therefore turne thou to thy God: keepe mercy and iudgement, and hope still in thy God.

7 He is [g] Canaan: the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loueth to oppresse.

8 And Ephraim said, Notwithstanding, I am riche, I haue found mee out riches in all my labours: they shal finde none iniquitie in me, [h] that were wickednesse.

9 Though I am the Lord thy God, from the land of Egypt, yet will I make thee to dwell in the tabernacles, as in [i] the dayes of the solemne feast.

10 I haue also spoken by the Prophets, and I haue multiplied visions, & vsed similitudes by the ministerie of the Prophets.

11 Is there [k] iniquitie in Gilead? surely they are vanitie: they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal, and their altars are as heapes in the furrowes of the field.

12 [l] And Iaakob fled into the countrey of Aram, and Israel serued for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheepe.

13 And by a [m] Prophet the Lord brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a Prophet was he reserued.

14 But Ephraim prouoked him with bitter places: therefore shall his blood be powred vpon him, and his reproche shall his Lorde reward him.

d Seeing that God did thus preferre Iaakob their father, Iudahs ingratitude was the more to be abhorred.

e Reade Gen. 32.31.

f God found Iaakob as hee lay sleeping in Beth-el, Gene. 28.12, and so spake with him there, that the fruite of that speach appertelned to the whole body of the people, whereof we are.

g As for Ephraim, he is more like the wicked Canaanites then godly Abraham or Iaakob.

h Thus the wicked measure Gods fauour by outward prosperitie, and like hypocrites, cannot abide that any should reproue their doings.

i Seeing thou wilt not acknowledge my benefites, I will bring thee againe to dwell in tents as in the feast of the Tabernacles, which thou doest now contemne.

k The people thought that no man durst haue spoken against Gilead that holy place, and yet the Prophet saith, that all their religion was but vanitie.

l If you boast of your riches and nobilitie, yee seeme to reproch your father who was a poore fugitiue & seruant.

m Meaning, Moses, whereby appeareth, that whatsoeuer they haue, it commeth of Gods free goodnesse.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The abomination of Israel, 9 And cause of their destruction.

WHen Ephraim spake, there was [a] trembling: hee [b] exalted himselfe in Israel, but hee hath sinned in Baal, [c] and is dead.

2 And now they sinne more and more, and haue made them molten images of their siluer, and idoles according to their owne vnderstanding: they were all the worke of the craftesmen: they say one to another whiles they sacrifice a [d] man, Let them kisse the calues.

3 Therefore they shalbe as the morning cloude, and as the morning dewe that passeth away, as the chaffe that is driuen with a whirlewinde out of the floore, and as the smoke that goeth out of the chimney.

a He sheweth the excellencie, and authoritie that this tribe had aboue all the rest.

b Hee made a king of his tribe.

c The Ephraimites are not farre from destruction and haue lost their authoritie.

d The false prophets perswaded the idolaters to offer their children after the example of Abraham, and he sheweth how they would exhort one another to the same, and to kisse and to worship these calues which were their idoles.

4 Yet I am the Lorde thy God [e] from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt knowe no God but mee: for there is no Sauiour beside me.

5 I did know thee in the wildernesse, in the land of wrought.

6 As in their pastures, so were they filled: they were filled, and their heart was exalted: therefore haue they forgotten me.

7 And I will be vnto them as a very lyon, and as a leopard in the way of Asshur.

8 I will meete them as a beare that is robbed of her whelps, and I will breake the kall of their heart, and there will I deuoure them like a lyon: the wilde beast shall teare them.

9 O Israel, one [f] hath destroyed thee, but in me is thine helpe.

10 [g] I am: where is thy King, that should helpe thee in all thy cities? and thy iudges, of whom thou saydest, Giue mee a King, and princes?

11 I gaue thee a King in mine anger, and I tooke him away in my wrath.

12 The iniquitie of Ephraim is [h] bound vp: his sinne is hid.

13 The sorowes of a trauailing woman shall come vpon him: he is an vnwise sonne, else would he not stand still at the time, euen at the [i] breaking forth of the children.

14 I will redeeme them from the power of the graue: I wil deliuer them from death: O [k] death, I will be thy death: O graue, I will be thy destruction: [l] repentance is hid from mine eyes.

15 Though hee grew vp among his brethren, an Eastwinde shall come, euen the winde of the Lorde shall come vp from the wilderneſſe, and drie vp his veine, and his fountaine shall be dryed vp: hee shall spoyle the treasure of all pleasant vessels.

e Hee calleth them to repentance, and reproueth their ingratitude.

f Thy destruction is certaine, and my benefites toward thee declare that it commeth not of me: therefore thine owne malice, idolatrie and vaine confidence in men must needes be the cause thereof.

g I am all one, Iames 1.17.

h It is surely layd vp to be punished, as Iere. 17.1.

i But would come out of the wombe, that is, out of this danger, wherein he is, and not tary to be stifeled.

k Meaning, that no power shal resist God when he wil deliuer his, because they wil not but euen in death will hee giue them life.

l Because they will not turne to me, I will not change my purpose.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The destruction of Samaria, 2 He exhorteth Israel to turne to God, who requireth prayse and thankes.

SAmaria shalbe desolate: for shee hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword: their infants shalbe dashed in pieces, and their women with child shalbe ript.

2 O Israel, [a] returne vnto the Lord thy God: for thou hast fallen by thine iniquitie.

3 Take vnto you wordes, and turne to the Lord, and say vnto him, [b] Take away all iniquitie, and receiue vs graciously: so will we render the calues of our [c] lippes.

4 Asshur shall [d] not saue vs, neither will we ride vpon horses, neither will wee say any more to the worke of our handes, Ye are our Gods: for in thee the fatherlesse findeth mercy.

5 [e] I will heale their rebellion: I will loue them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.

6 I will bee as the dewe vnto Israel: hee shall growe as the lillie, and fasten his a He exhorteth them to repentance, to auoid all these plagues, willing them to declare by wordes their obedience and repentance.

b Hee sheweth them how they ought to confesse their sinnes.

c Declaring, that this is the true sacrifice, that the faithfull can offer, euen thankes and prayse, Heb. 13.15.

d We will leaue off all vaine confidence and pride.

e He declareth how ready God is to receiue them that doe repent.

rootes as the trees of Lebanon.

7 His branches shall spread, and his beautie shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lebanon.

f Whosoever ioyne themselues to this people, shalbe blessed.

8 They that dwell vnder his f shadowe, shall returne: they shall revive as the corne, and flourish as the vine: the sente thereof shalbe as the wine of Lebanon.

9 Ephraim shall say, What haue I to doe any more with idoles? I e haue heard him, and looked vpon him: I am like a greene firre tree: vpon me is thy fruite found.

g God sheweth how prompt he is to heare his, when they repent, and to offer himselfe as a protection and sauegard vnto them, as a most sufficient fruite and profite.

10 Who is h wise, & he shall vnderstand these things? and prudent, and hee shall knowe them? for the wayes of the Lorde are righteous, and the iust shall walke in them: but the wicked shall fall therein.

h Signifying, that the true wisdome and knowledge consisteth in this, euen to rest vpon God.

Ioel.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe Prophet Ioel first rebuketh them of Iudah, that being now punished with a great plague of famine, remaine still obstinate. Secondly he threatneth greater plagues, because they grewe dayly to a more hardnesse of heart, and rebellion against God, notwithstanding his punishments. Thirdly he exhorteth them to repentance, shewing that it must be earnest, and proceede from the heart, because they had grieuously offended God. And so doing, hee promiseth that God will be mercifull, and not forget his couenant that hee made with their fathers: but will send his Christ, who will gather the scattered sheepe, and restore them to life, and libertie, though they seemed to be dead.

CHAP. I.

1 A prophesie against the Iewes. 2 He exhorteth the people to prayer and fasting, for the miserie that was at hand.

THe worde of the Lorde that came to Ioel the sonne of Pethuel.

2 Heare yee this, O a Elders, and hearken yee all inhabitants of the land, whether b such a thing hath bene in your dayes, or yet in the dayes of your fathers.

a Signifying, the princes, the Priestes, and the gouernours.

b He calleth the Iewes to the consideration of Gods iudgemẽts, who had now plagued the fruites of the ground for the space of foure yeere, which was for their sinnes, and to call them to repentance.

3 Tell you your children of it, and let your children shew to their children, and their children to another generation.

4 That which is left of the palmer worme, hath the grashopper eaten, and the residue of the grashopper hath the canker worme eaten, and the residue of the canker worme hath the caterpiller eaten.

5 Awake ye c drunkards, and weepe, and howle all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine: for it shall be pulled from your mouth.

c Meaning, that the occasion of their excesse and drunkennesse, was taken away.

6 For, d a nation commeth vpon my land, mightie, and without number, whose teeth are like the teeth of a lyon, and he hath the tawes of a great lyon.

d This was an other plague wherewith God had punished them, when he stirred vp the Assyrians against them.

7 He maketh my vine waste, and pilleth off the barke of my figge tree: hee maketh it bare, and casteth it downe: the branches thereof are made white.

8 Mourne like a virgine girded with sackecloth for the e husband of her youth.

e Mourne grieuously as a woman, which hath lost her husband to whom shee hath bene married in her youth.

9 The meate offering, and the drinke offring is f cut off from the house of the Lorde: the Priests the Lords ministers mourne.

f The tokens of Gods wrath did appeare in his Temple, in so much as Gods seruice was left off.

10 The fielde is wasted: the land mourneth: for the corne is destroyed: & the newe wine is dried vp, and the oyle is decayed.

11 Bee yee ashamed, O husbandmen: howle, O yee vine dressers for the wheate, and for the barly, because the haruest of the fielde is perished.

12 The vine is dried vp, and the fig tree is decayed: the pomegranate tree, and the palme tree, and the apple tree, euen all the trees of the field are withered: surely the ioy is withered away from the sonnes of men.

g All comfort and substance for nourishment is taken away.

13 h Gird your selues and lament, yee Priestes: howle yee ministers of the altar: come, and lye all night in sackecloth, yee ministers of my God: for the meate offering, and the drinke offering is taken away from the house of your God.

h Hee sheweth that the onely meanes to auoide Gods wrath, and to haue all things restored is vnfained repentance.

14 Sanctifie you a fast: call a solemne assembly: gather the Elders, and all the inhabitants of the lande into the house of the Lord your God, and cry vnto the Lord, 15 Alas: for the day, for the i day of the Lorde is at hand, and it commeth as a destruction from the Almightie.

i We see by these great plagues that vtter destruction is at hand.

16 Is not the meate cut off before our eyes? and ioy, and gladnesse from the house of our God?

17 The seede is rotten vnder their clods: the garners are destroyed: the barnes are broken downe, for the corne is withered.

18 How did the beastes mourne? the heards of cattell pine away, because they haue no pasture, and the flockes of sheepe are destroyed.

19 O Lord, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath deuoured the pastures of the wildernesse, and the flame hath burnt vp all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field cry also vnto thee: for the riuers of waters are dryed vp, and the k fire hath deuoured the pastures of the wildernesse.

k That is, drought.

CHAP. II.

Hee propheciesth of the comming and cruelnes of their enemies. 13 An exhortation to moouse them to conuert. 18 The loue of God toward his people.

BLowe a the trumpet in Zion, and sounde in mine holy mountaine: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the Lord is come: for it is at hand.

a He sheweth the great iudgements of God which are at hand, except they repent.

2 A b day of darkenesse, and of blackenesse, a day of cloudes, and obscuritie, as the morning spred vpon the mountaines, so is there a c great people, and a mightie: there was none like it from the beginning, neither shall bee any more after it, vnto the yeeres of many generations.

b Of affliction and trouble.

c Meaning, the Assyrians.

3 A fire

3 A fire deuoureth before him, and behinde him a flame burneth vp: the land is as the garden of [d] Eden before him, and behinde him a desolate wildernesse, so that nothing shall escape him.

4 The beholding of him is like the sight of horses, & like the horsmen, so shal they run.

5 Like the noyse of charrets in the toppes of the mountaines shall they leape, like the noyse of a flame of fire that deuoureth the stubble, and as a mightie people prepared to the battell.

6 Before his face shall the people tremble, all faces [e] shall gather blacknesse.

7 They shall runne like strong men, and goe vp to the wall like men of warre, and euery man shall goe forward in his wayes, and they shall not stay in their paths.

8 Neither shall one [f] thrust another, but euery one shall walke in his path: and when they fall vpon the sworde, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall runne to and fro in the citie: they shall runne vpon the wall: they shall clime vp vpon the houses, and enter in at the windowes like the theefe.

10 The earth shal tremble before him, the heauens shall shake, the [g] sunne and the moone shall bee darke, and the starres shall withdrawe their shining,

11 And the Lorde shall [h] vtter his voyce before his hoste: for his hoste is very great: for he is strong that doeth his worde: * for the day of the Lorde is great and very terrible, and who can abide it?

12 Therefore also nowe the Lorde saith, [k] Turne you vnto mee with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning, 13 And [l] rent your heart, and not your clothes: and turne vnto the Lord your God, for hee is gracious, and mercifull, slowe to anger, and of great kindenesse, and repenteth him of the euill.

14 Who knoweth, if he will [k] returne and repent and leaue a blessing behinde him, euen a meate offering, and a drinke offering vnto the Lord your God?

15 Blowe the trumpet in Zion, sanctifie a fast, call a solemne assemblie.

16 Gather the people: sanctifie the congregation, gather the Elders: assemble the [l] children, and those that sucke the breastes: let the bridegrome goe forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her bride chamber.

17 Let the Priestes, the ministers of the Lord weepe betweene the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lorde, and giue not thine heritage into reproche that the Heathen should rule ouer them. * Wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

18 Then will the Lorde be [m] iealous ouer his land and spare his people.

19 Yea, the Lord wil answere & say vnto his people, Beholde, I will send you corne, and wine, and oyle, and you shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproch among the heathen, 20 But I wil remoue farre off from you the [n] Northren armie, & I wil drive him into a land, barren and desolate with his face toward the [o] East sea, and his ende to the vtmost sea, and his stinke shall come vp, and his corruption shall ascend, because hee hath exalted himselfe to doe this.

21 Feare not O land, but be glad, and reioyce: for the Lord wil doe great things.

22 Be not afrayd, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wildernes are greene: for the tree beareth her fruite: the fig tree and the vine doe giue their force.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and reioyce in the Lord your God: for hee hath giuen you the raine of righteousnesse, * and hee will cause to come downe for you the raine, euen the first raine, and the latter raine in the first moneth.

24 And the barnes shalbe full of wheat, and the presses shal abound with wine & oile.

25 And I will render you the yeeres that the grashopper hath eaten, the canker worm, and the caterpiller, and the palmer worme, my great hoste which I sent among you.

26 So you shall eate and be satisfied, and praysle the Name of the Lorde your God, that hath dealt marueilously with you: and my people shall neuer be ashamed.

27 Yee shall also knowe, that I am in the middes of Israel, and that I am the Lorde your God and none other, and my people shall neuer be ashamed.

28 And afterward wil I powre [q] out my Spirit vpon all flesh: and your sonnes and your daughters shall prophesie: your olde men shall dreame [r] dreames, and your yong men shall see visions, 29 And also vpon the seruants, and vpon the maides in those dayes will I powre my Spirit.

30 And I will shew [s] wonders in the heauens and in the earth: blood and fire, and pillars of smoke.

31 The [s] sunne shalbe turned into darkenesse, and the moone into blood, before the great and terrible day of the Lord come.

32 But whosoeuer shall call [u] on the Name of the Lorde, shall be saued: for in mount Zion, and in Ierusalem shall be deliuerance, as the Lord hath sayd, and in the [x] remnant, whom the Lord shall call.

CHAP. III.

Of the iudgement of God against the enemies of his people.

b It appeareth that hee alludeth to that great victorie of Iehoshaphat, when as God without mans helpe destroyed the enemies, 2. Chro. 20. 26. also he hath respect to this word Iehoshaphat, which signifieth pleading, or iudgement, because God would iudge the enemies of his Church as he did there, c That which the enemies gate for the ſale of my people, he beſtowed vpon harlots and drinke.

Iehosha-

d He taketh the cauſe of his Church in hand againſt the enemie, as though the iniurie were done to himſelfe.
e Haue I done you wrong, that ye will render me the like?
f For afterward God ſold them by Nebuchad-nezzar, & Alexander the great for the loue he bare to his people, and therby they were comforted as though the price had bene theirs.
g When I ſhall execute my iudgements againſt mine enemies, I will cauſe euery one to be ready, and to prepare their weapons to deſtroy one another for my Church ſake.

Iehoſhaphat, and will pleade with them there for my people, and for mine heritage Iſrael, whome they haue ſcattered among the nations, and parted my land.
3 And they haue caſt lots for my people, and haue giuen the child c for the harlot, and ſold the girle for wine, that they might drink.
4 Yea, and d what haue you to doe with me, O Tyrus and Zidon, and all the coaſtes of Paleſtina? will yee render me e a recompenſe? and if yee recompenſe mee, ſwiftly and ſpeedily will I render your recompenſe vpon your head:
5 For yee haue taken my ſiluer and my golde, and haue caried into your temples my goodly and pleaſant things.
6 The children alſo of Iudah and the children of Ieruſalem haue you ſolde vnto the Grecians, that ye might ſend them farre from their border.
7 Beholde, I will raiſe them out of the place where yee haue ſolde them, and will render your reward vpon your owne head,
8 And I will ſell your ſonnes and your daughters into the hand of the children of Iudah, and they f ſhal ſell them to the Sabeans, to a people farre off: for the Lorde hath ſpoken it.
9 Publiſh this among the Gentiles: prepare warre, wake vp the mightie men: let all the men of warre draiwe neere and come vp.
10 gBreake your plowſhares into ſwords, and your ſithes into ſpeares: let the weake ſay, I am ſtrong.
11 Aſſemble your ſelues, and come all yee heathen and gather your ſelues together round about: there ſhall the Lord caſt downe thy mighty men.
12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come vp to the valley of Iehoſhaphat: for there will I ſit to iudge all the heathen round about.
13 Put in your h ſithes, for the harueſt is ripe: come, get you downe, for the wineprelle is full: yea, the winepreſſes runne ouer, for their wickednelle is great.
14 Multitude, O multitude, come into the valley of threſhing: for the day of the Lord is neere in the valley of threſhing.
15 The ſunne & moone ſhall be darkened, and the ſtarres ſhall withdraw their light.
16 The Lord alſo ſhal roare out of Zion, and vtter his voice from Ieruſalem, and the heauens and the earth ſhall ſhake, but the Lord will be the hope i of his people, and the ſtrength of the children of Iſrael.
17 So ſhall ye know that I am the Lord your God dwelling in Zion, mine holy mountaine: then ſhall Ieruſalem be holy, and there ſhal no ſtrangers go k through her any more.
18 And in that day ſhall the mountaines l drop downe new wine, and the hilles ſhall flowe with milke, and all the riuers of Iudah ſhall run with waters, and a fountaine ſhall come forth of the houſe of the Lorde, and ſhall water the valley of Shittim.
19 m Egypt ſhall be waſte, and Edom ſhall be a deſolate wildernes, for the iniuries of the children of Iudah, becauſe they haue ſhed innocent blood in their land.
20 But Iudah ſhall dwell for euer, and Ieruſalem from generation to generation.
21 For I will n cleanſe their blood, that I haue not cleanſed, & the Lord wil dwel in Zion.

h Thus he ſhall incourage the enemies when their wickednelle is full ripe, to deſtroy one another, which he calleth the valley of Gods iudgement.
i God aſſureth his againſt all troubles, that when hee deſtroyeth his enemies, his children ſhall be deliuered.
k The ſtrangers ſhall no more deſtroy his Church: which if they do, it is the people which by their ſinnes make the breach for the enemie.
l He promiſeth to his Church aboundance of graces, reade Ezekiel 47:1. which ſhould water and comfort the moſt barren places, Amos 9.13. m The malicious enemies ſhall haue no part of this grace. n He had ſuffered his Church hitherto to lie in their filthineſſe, but nowe promiſeth to cleanſe them and to make them pure vnto him.

Amos.

THE ARGVMENT.

AMong many other Prophets that God raiſed vp to admoniſh the Iſraelites of his plagues for their wickedneſſe and idolatrie, hee ſtirred vp Amos, who was an heardman or ſhepheard of a poore towne, and gaue him both knowledge and conſtancie to reprooue all eſtates and degrees, and to denounce Gods horrible iudgements againſt them, except they did in time repent: ſhewing them that if God ſpare not the other nations about them, who had liued as it were in ignorance of God in reſpect of them, but for their ſinnes will puniſh them, that they could looke for nothing, but an horrible deſtruction, except they turned to the Lord by vnfained repentance. And finally he comforteth the godly with hope of the comming of the Meſſiah, by whom they ſhould haue perfit deliuerance & ſaluation.

CHAP. I.

1 The time of the propheſie of Amos. 3 The word of the Lord againſt Damaſcus, 6 The Philiſtims, Tyrus, Idumea and Ammon.

a Which was a towne ſixe miles from Ieruſalem in Iudea, but he propheſied in Iſrael.
b In his dayes the king lome of Iſrael did moſt flouriſh.
c Which, as Ioſephus writeth, was when Vzziah would haue vſurped the Prieſtes office, and therefore was ſmitten with the leproſie.

THE woordes of Amos, who was among the heardmen a at Tecoa, which he ſaw vpon Iſrael, in the dayes of Vzziah King of Iudah, and in the dayes of b Ieroboam the ſonne of Ioaſh King of Iſrael, two yeere before the c earthquake.
2 And he ſaid, The Lord ſhal roare from Zion, and vtter his voyce from Ieruſalem, and the dwelling places of the ſhepheards ſhall periſh, and the top of d Carmel ſhall wither.
3 ¶ Thus ſayeth the Lord, For e three tranſgreſſions of Damaſcus, and for foure, I will not turne to it, becauſe they haue f threſhed Gilead with threſhing inſtruments of yron.
4 Therefore will I ſend a fire into the houſe of Hazael, and it ſhall deuoure the palaces of Ben-hadad.

d Whatſoeuer is fruitfull and pleaſant in Iſrael ſhall ſhortly periſh.
e He ſheweth firſt that all the people round about ſhould be deſtroyed for their manifolde ſinnes: which are meant by three and foure which make ſeuen, becauſe the Iſraelites ſhould the more deepely conſider Gods iudgements toward them.
f If the Syrians ſhall not bee ſpared for committing this crueltie againſt one citie, it is not poſſible that Iſrael ſhould eſcape puniſhment, which hath committed ſo many and grieuous ſinnes againſt God and man. g The antiquitie of their buildings ſhall not auoide thy iudgements, reade Ierem. 49.27.

5 I will breake also the barres of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant of Bikeath-auen: and him that holdeth the scepter out of Beth-eden, and the people of Aram shall goe into captiuitie vnto [b] Kir, sayth the Lord.

6 Thus sayth the Lord, For three transgressions of Azzah, and for foure, I will not turne to it, because they [i] caried away prisoners the whole captiuitie to shut them vp in Edom.

7 Therefore will I send a fire vpon the walles of Azzah, and it shall deuoure the palaces thereof.

8 And I wil cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the scepter from Ashkelon, and turne mine hand to Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistims shall perish, saith the Lord God.

9 ¶ Thus saith the Lord, For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for foure, I will not turne to it, because they shut the whole captiuitie in Edom, and haue not remembred the [k] brotherly couenant.

10 Therefore will I send a fire vpon the walles of Tyrus, and it shall deuoure the palaces thereof.

11 ¶ Thus saith the Lord, For three transgressions of Edom, and for foure, I will not turne to it, because hee did pursue his brother with the sword, and did [‡] cast off all pitie, and his anger spoyled him euermore, and his wrath watched him [l] alway.

12 Therefore will I sende a fire vpon Teman, and it shall deuoure the palaces of Bozrah.

13 ¶ Thus sayeth the Lorde, For three transgressions of the children of Ammon and for foure, I will not turne to it, because they [m] haue ript vp the women with childe of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border.

14 Therefore will I kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall deuoure the palaces thereof, with howling in the day of battell, and with a tempest in the day of the whirlewinde.

15 And their King shall goe into captiuitie, he and his princes together, sayth the Lorde.

CHAP. II.

Against Moab, Iudah, and Israel.

THus sayeth the Lord, For three transgressions of Moab, and for foure, I will not turne to it, because it burnt the [a] bones of the king of Edom into lime.

2 Therefore wil I send a fire vpon Moab, and it shall deuoure the palaces of Kerioth, and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of a trumpet.

3 And I will cut off the iudge out of the middes thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, sayth the Lord.

4 ¶ Thus saith the Lord, For three transgressions of Iudah, and for foure, I will not turne to it, because they haue cast away the Law of the Lord, and haue not kept his commandements, and their lies caused them to erre after the which their fathers haue walked.

5 Therefore will I send a fire vpon Iudah, and it shall deuoure the palaces of Ierusalem.

6 ¶ Thus saith the Lord, For three transgressions of [c] Israel, and for foure, I will not turne to it, because they sold the righteous for siluer, and the poore for [d] shooes.

7 They gape ouer the head of the poore in the [e] dust of the earth, and peruert the wayes of the meeke: and a man and his father will goe in to a maide to dishonour mine holy Name.

8 And they lye downe vpon clothes laid to pledge [f] by euery altar: and they [g] drinke the wine of the condemned in the house of their God.

9 Yet destroyed I the [h] Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and hee was strong as the okes: notwithstanding, I destroyed his fruite from aboue, and his roote from beneath.

10 Also I brought you vp from the land of Egypt, and led you fourtie yeeres through the wildernesse, to possesse the lande of the Amorite.

11 And I rayled vp of your sonnes for Prophets, and [i] of your yong men for Nazarites. Is it not euen thus, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord?

12 But yee gaue the Nazarites wine to drinke, and commanded the Prophets, saying, Prophesie not.

13 Behold, I am [k] pressed vnder you as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaues.

14 Therefore the flight shall perish from the [l] swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mightie saue his life.

15 Nor hee that handleth the bowe, shall stand, and hee that is swift of foote, shall not escape, neither shal hee that rideth the horse, saue his life.

16 And hee that is of mightie courage among the strong men, shall flee away naked in that day, saith the Lord.

CHAP. III.

Hee reproueth the house of Israel of ingratitude, 11 for the which God will punish them.

HEare this worde that the Lord pronounceth against you, O children of Israel, euen against the whole familie which I brought vp from the land of Egypt, saying,

2 You [a] onely haue I knowen of all the families of the earth: therefore I will visite you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walke together except they be [b] agreed?

4 Will a [c] lyon roare in the forest, when he hath no pray? or will a lyons whelpe cry out of his denne, if he haue taken nothing?

h Tiglath Pileser led the Syrians captiue, and brought them to Cyrene, which he calleth here Kir.

i They ioyned themselues with the Edomites their enemies, which caried them away captiues.

k For Esau (of whom came the Edomites) and Iaakob were brethren: therefore they ought to haue admonished them of their brotherly friendship, and not to haue prouoked them to hatred.

l He was a continuall enemie vnto him.

m He noteth the great crueltie of the Ammonites, that spared not the women, but most tyrannously tormented them, and yet the Ammonites came of Lot, who was of the houshold of Abraham.

a For the Moabites were so cruel against the King of Edom, that they burnt his bones after that he was dead: which declared their barbarous rage, seeing they would reuenge themselues of the dead.

b Seeing the Gentiles that had not so farre thus punished, Iudah which was so fully instructed of the Lords will, might not thinke to escape.

c If the spare not Iudah vnto whom his promises were made, much more he will not spare this degenerate kingdome.

d They esteemed most vile bribes more then mens liues.

e When they haue spoyled him and throwen him to the ground, they gape for his life.

f Thinking by these ceremonies, that is, by sacrificing, and being neere mine altar, they may excuse all their other wickednesse.

g They spoyle others and offer therof vnto God, thinking that he will dispense with them, when he is made partaker of their iniquitie.

h The destruction of their enemies, and his mercie toward them, should haue caused their hearts to melt for loue towarde him.

i Yee contemned my benefites, and abused my graces, and craftily went about to stoppe the mouthes of my Prophets.

k You haue wearied me with your sinnes, Isa. 1. 14.

l None shall be deliuered by any meanes.

a I haue onely chosen you to be mine among all other people, and yet you haue forsaken me.

b Hereby the Prophet signifieth that he speaketh not of himselfe, but as God guideth and moueth him, which is called the agreement betweene God and his Prophets.

c Will God threaten by his Prophets, except there be some great occasion?

5 d Can a birde fall in a snare vpon the earth, where no fouler is? or will hee take vp the e snare from the earth, and haue taken nothing at all?

6 Or f shall a trumpet be blowen in the citie, and the people be not afraide? or shall there g bee euill in a citie, and the Lord hath not done it?

7 Surely the Lord God wil doe nothing, but hee h reueleth his secrete vnto his seruants the Prophets.

8 The Lion hath roared: who will not be afraid? The Lord God hath spoken: who can but i prophesie?

9 Proclaime in the palaces at k Ashdod, and in the palaces in the lande of Egypt, and say, Assemble your selues vpon the mountaines of Samaria: so behold the great tumults in the middes thereof, and the oppressed in the middes thereof.

10 For they know not to doe right, saith the Lord: they store vp violence, and robberie l in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus sayth the Lord God, An aduersarie shall come euen round about the countrey, and shall bring downe thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoyled.

12 Thus sayeth the Lord, As the shepheard taketh m out of the mouth of the lyon two legges, or a piece of an eare: so shall the children of Israel bee taken out that dwell in Samaria in the coiner of a bedde, and in n Damascus, as in a couch.

13 Heare, and testifie in the house of Iaakob, sayth the Lord God, the God of hostes, 14 Surely in the day that I shall visite the transgressions of Israel vpon him, I will also visite the altars of Beth-el, and the homes of the altar shalbe broken off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I wil smite the winter house with the summer house, and the houses of yuorie shall perish, and the great houses shall bee consumed, saith the Lord.

l The fruit of their cruelties and theft appeareth by their great riches, which they haue in their houses. m When the Lion hath satiate his hunger, the shepheard findeth a legge or a tippe of an eare, to shew that the sheepe hath bene woried. n Where they thought to haue had a sure hold, and to haue bene in safetie.

CHAP. IIII.

Against the gouernours of Samaria.

HEare this worde yee a kine of Bashan, that are in the mountaine of Samaria, which oppresse the poore, and destroy the needie, and they say to their masters, b Bring, and let vs drinke.

2 The Lord God hath sworne by his holinesse, that loe, the dayes shall come vpon you, that hee will take you away with c thornes, and your posteritie with fishhookes.

3 And yee shall goe out at the breaches, euery kowe forward: and ye shall cast your selues out of the palace, saith the Lord.

a Thus he calleth the princes and gouernours, which being ouerwhelmed with the great abundance of Gods benefites, forgate God, and therefore he calleth them by the name of beasts and not of men.

b They incourage such as haue authoritie ouer the people, to powle them so that they may haue profite by it. c He alludeth to fishers which catch fish by hookes and thornes.

4 Come to d Beth-el, and transgresse: to Gilgal, and multiplie transgression, & bring your sacrifices in the morning, and your tithes after three e yeeres.

5 And offer a thanksg iuing f of leauen, publish and proclaime the free offerings: for this g liketh you, O yee children of Israel, saith the Lord God.

6 And therfore haue I giuen you h cleannesse of teeth in all your cities, and scarcenesse of bread in all your places, yet haue yee not returned vnto me, saith the Lord.

7 And also I haue withholden the raine from you, when there were yet three i monethes to the haruest, and I caused it to raine vpon one citie, and haue not caused it to raine vpon another citie: one piece was rained vpon, and the piece whereupon it rained not, withered.

8 So two or three cities wandred vnto one citie to drinke water, but they were k not satisfied: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, saith the Lord.

9 I haue smitten you with blasting, and mildew: your great gardens and your vineyards, and your figge trees, and your olive trees did the palmer worme deuoure: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, saith the Lord.

10 Pestilence haue I sent among you, after the maner of l Egypt: your yong men haue I slaine with the sword, and haue taken away your horses: and I haue made the stinke of your tentes to come vp euen into your nostrels: yet haue yee not returned vnto me, saith the Lord.

11 I haue ouerthrowen you, as God ouerthrew Sodome and Gomorah: and yee were as a m firebrand pluckt out of the burning: yet haue yee not returned vnto mee, saith the Lord.

12 Therefore, thus will I doe vnto thee, O Israel: and because I will doe this vnto thee, prepare to n meete thy God, O Israel.

13 For loe, hee that fourmeth the mountaines, and createth the winde, and declareth vnto man what is his thought: which maketh the morning darkenesse, and walketh vpon the hie places of the earth, the Lord God of hostes is his Name.

CHAP. V.

A lamentation for the captiuitie of Israel.

HEare ye this word, which I lift vp vpon you, euen a lamentation of the house of Israel.

2 The a virgine Israel is fallen, and shal no more rise: shee is left vpon her land, and there is none to raise her vp.

3 For thus saith the Lorde God, The citie which went out by a thousand, shall leaue an b hundreth: and that which went foorth by an hundreth, shall leaue ten to the house of Israel.

4 For thus saith the Lord vnto the house of Israel, Seeke ye me, and ye shall liue.

5 But seeke not Beth-el, nor enter into c Gilgal, and goe not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shal goe into captiuitie, and Beth-el shall come to nought.

6 Seeke the Lord, and ye shal liue, lest he 9 He strengtheneth the destroyer against the mightie: and the destroyer shall come against the fortresse.

10 They haue hated him, f that rebuked in the gate: and they abhorred him that speaketh vprightly.

11 Forasmuch then as your treading is vpon the poore, and g yee take from him burdens of wheate, yee haue built houses of hewen stone, but ye shall not dwell in them: yee haue planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drinke wine of them.

12 For I knowe your manifolde transgressions, and your mightie sinnes: they afflict the iust, they take rewards, and they oppresse the poore in the gate.

13 Therefore h the prudent shal keepe silence in that time, for it is an euill time.

14 Seeke good and not euill, that ye may liue: and the Lorde God of hosts shall bee with you, as you haue spoken.

15 Hate the euill and loue the good, and establish iudgement in the gate: it may bee that the Lorde God of hosts will be mercifull vnto the remnant of Ioseph.

16 Therefore the Lord God of hosts, the Lorde saieth thus, Mourning shall bee in all streetes: and they shall say in all the high wayes, Alas, alas: and they shall call the i husbandman to lamentation, and such as can mourne, to mourning.

17 And in all the vines shalbe lamentation: for I will passe through thee, saieth the Lorde.

18 Wo vnto you, that k desire the day of the Lord: what haue you to do with it? the day of the Lord is darkenesse and not light.

19 As if a man did flee from a lyon, and a beare met him: or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 Shal not the day of the Lord be darkenesse, and not light? euen darkenesse and no light in it?

21 I hate & abhorre your feast dayes, and I will not smell in your solemne assemblies.

22 Though yee offer mee burnt offerings and meate offerings, l I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beastes.

4 They lie vpon beds of yuorie, & stretch themselues vpon their beds, and eate the lambes of the flocke, and the calues out of the stall.

5 They sing to the sound of the viole: they inuent to themselues instruments of musicke like e Dauid.

6 They drinke wine in bowles, & anoint themselues with the chiefe ointments, but no man is f sory for the affliction of Ioseph.

7 Therefore now shall they goe captiue with the first that goe captiue, and g the sorowe of them that stretched themselues, is at hand.

4 ¶ Thus also hath the Lord God shewed vnto me, and beholde, the Lorde God called to iudgement by fire, d and it deuoured the great deepe, and did eate vp a part.

5 Then sayde I, O Lorde God, cease, I beseech thee: who shall raise vp Iaakob? for he is small.

6 So the Lord repented for this. This also shall not be, saith the Lord God.

7 ¶ Thus againe he shewed mee, and beholde, the Lorde stoode vpon a wall made by line e with a line in his hand.

e Am I more bound to you then to the Ethiopians or blacke Moores? yet haue I bestowed vpon you greater benefites.

f Reade Iere. 47.4.

8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are vpon the sinfull kingdome, and I will destroy it cleane out of the earth. Neuertheless I will not vtterly g destroy the house of Iaakob, saith the Lord.

g Though he destroy the rebellious multitude, yet he will euer reserue the remnant his Church to call vpon his name.

9 For loe, I will commaund, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corne is sifted in a siue: yet shall not the h least stone fall vpon the earth.

h Meaning, that none of his should perish in his wrath.

10 But all the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The euill shall not come, nor haften for vs.

11 In that day will I raise vp the i tabernacle of Dauid, that is fallen downe, and close vp the breaches thereof, and I will raise vp his ruines, and I will builde it, as in the dayes of olde, i I will send the Messiah promised, and restore by him the spirituall Israel, Actes 15.16.

12 That they may possesse the remnant of k Edom, and of all the heathen, because my Name is called vpon them, saith the Lord, that doeth this.

k Meaning, that the very enemies, as were the Edomites and others, should be ioyned with the Iewes in one societie and body, where of Christ should be the head.

13 Behold, the dayes come, saieth the Lorde, that the plowman shall l touch the mower, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seede: and the mountaines shall m drop sweete wine, and all the hilles shall melt.

l Signifying, that there shall be great plentie of all things, so that when one kinde of fruite is ripe, another should follow, and euery one in course. Leuiticus 26.5.

14 n And I will bring againe the captiuitie of my people of Israel: and they shall builde the waste cities, and inhabite them, and they shall plant vineyards, and drinke the wine thereof, they shall also make gardens, and eate the fruites of them.

m Reade Ioel 3.18.

15 And I will plant them vpon their land, and they shall no more be pulled vp againe out of their land, which I haue giuen them, saieth the Lord thy God.

n The accomplishment hereof is vnder Christ, when they are planted in his Church, out of the which they can neuer be pulled, after they are once grafted therein.

Obadiah.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe Idumeans, which came of Esau, were mortall enemies alway to the Israelites, which came of Iaakob, and therefore did not onely vexe them continually with sundry kindes of crueltie, but also stirred vp others to fight against them. Therefore when they were now in their greatest prosperitie, and did most triumph against Israel, which was in great affliction and miserie, God raised vp his Prophet to comfort the Israelites, forasmuch as God had nowe determined to destroy their aduersaries, which did so sore vexe them, and to send them such as should deliuer them, and set vp the kingdome of Messiah, which he had promised.

THe vision of Obadiah. Thus saieth the Lorde God against Edom, a We haue heard a rumor from the Lorde, and an ambassadour is sent among the heathen: arise, and b let vs rise vp against her to battell.

a God hath certainely reueiled to his Prophets that he will raise vp the heathen to destroy the Edomites, whereof the rumour is nowe published, Ieremie 49. 14.

b Thus the heathen encourage themselues to rise against Edom.

2 Behold, I haue made thee small among the heathen: thou art vtterly despised.

3 The c pride of thine heart hath deceiued thee: thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rockes, whose habitation is hie, that saith in his heart, who shall bring me downe to the ground?

c Which despiseth all others in respect of thy selfe, and yet art but an handfull in comparison of others, and art shut vp among the hilles, as separate from the rest of the world.

4 Though thou exalt thy selfe as the egle, and make thy nest among the starres, thence will I bring thee downe, saith the Lord.

5 d Came theeues to thee or robbers by night?

d God will so destroy them that he will leaue none, though theeues when they come, take but till they haue ynough, and they that gather grapes, euer leaue some behinde them, Iere. 49.9.

night? howe waſt thou brought to ſilence? would they not haue ſtollen, till they had enough? if the grape gatherers came to thee, would they not leaue ſome grapes?

6 Howe are the things of Eſau ſought vp, and his treaſures ſearched?

7 All the men of thy confederacie [e] haue driuen thee to the borders: the men that were at peace with thee, haue deceiued thee, and preuailed againſt thee: they that eate thy [f] bread, haue laid a wound vnder thee: there is none vnderſtanding in him.

8 Shal not I in that day, ſaith the Lord, euen deſtroy [g] wiſe men out of Edom, and vnderſtanding from the mount of Eſau?

9 And thy ſtrong men, O Teman, ſhall be afraide, becauſe euery one of the mount of Eſau ſhall be cut off by ſlaughter.

10 For thy crueltie againſt thy [g] brother Iaakob, ſhame ſhall couer thee, and thou ſhalt be cut off for euer.

11 When thou ſtoodeſt [h] on the other ſide, in the day that the ſtangers caried away his ſubſtance, and ſtrangers entred into his gates, and caſt lottes vpon Ieruſalem, euen thou waſt as one of them.

12 But thou ſhouldeſt not haue beholden the day of thy brother, in the day that he was made [i] a ſtranger, neither ſhouldeſt thou haue reioyced ouer the children of Iudah, in the day of their deſtruction: thou ſhouldeſt not haue ſpoken proudly in the day of affliction.

13 Thou ſhouldeſt not haue entred into the gate of my people in the day of their deſtruction, neither ſhouldeſt thou haue once looked on their affliction in the day of their deſtruction, nor haue laide hands on their ſubſtance in the day of their deſtruction.

14 Neither ſhouldeſt thou haue ſtood in the croſſe wayes to cut of them, that ſhould eſcape, neither ſhouldeſt thou haue ſhut vp the remnant thereof in the day of affliction.

15 For the day [k] of the Lord is neere, vpon all the heathen: as thou haſt done, it ſhall be done to thee: thy reward ſhall remaine vpon thine head.

16 For as ye haue [l] drunke vpon mine holy Mountaine, ſo ſhall all the heathen drinke continually: yea, they ſhall drinke and ſwallowe vp, and they ſhall be [m] as though they had not beene.

17 But vpon mount Zion ſhall be deliuerance, and it ſhall be holy, and the houſe of Iaakob ſhall poſſeſſe their poſſeſſions.

18 And the houſe of Iaakob ſhall be a [n] fire, and the houſe of Ioſeph a flame, and the houſe of Eſau as ſtubble, and they ſhall kindle in them and deuoure them: and there ſhall be no remnant of the houſe of Eſau: for the Lord hath ſpoken it.

19 And they ſhall poſſeſſe the Southſide of the [o] mount of Eſau, and the plaine of the Philiſtims: and they ſhall poſſeſſe the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria, and Beniamin ſhall haue Gilead.

20 And the captiuitie of this hoſte of the children of Iſrael, which were among the [p] Canaanites, ſhall poſſeſſe vnto Zarephath, and the captiuitie of Ieruſalem, which is in Sepharad, ſhall poſſeſſe the cities of the South.

21 And they [q] that ſhall ſaue, ſhall come vp to mount Zion to iudge the mount of Eſau, and the kingdome ſhalbe the Lords.

[e] They in whom thou diddeſt truſt, for to haue helpe and friendſhip of them, ſhall be thine enemies and deſtroy thee.
[f] That is, thy familiar friends and ghests haue by ſecret practiſes deſtroyed thee.
[g] He ſheweth the cauſe why the Edomites were ſo ſharply puniſhed: to wit, becauſe they were enemies to his Church, whom now he comforteth by puniſhing their enemies.
[h] When Nebuchad-nezzar came againſt Ieruſalem, thou ioyneditt with him, and haddeſt part of the ſpoile, and ſo diddeſt reioyce when my people, that is, thy brother, were afflicted, whereas thou ſhouldeſt haue pitied and holpen thy brother.
[i] When the Lorde depriued them of their former dignitie, and gaue them to be caried into captiuitie.
[k] When he will ſummon all the heathen, and ſend them to deſtroy thee.
[l] That is, reioyced and triumphed.
[m] The Edomites ſhalbe vtterly deſtroyed, and yet in deſpite of all the enemies I will reſerue my Church and reſtore it.
[n] God attributeth this power to conſume his enemies, to his Church, which power is onely proper to himſelfe, as Iſa. 10. 17. deut. 4.24. hebr 12.29.
[o] He deſcribeth how the Church ſhall be enlarged and haue great poſſeſſions, but this chiefly is accompliſhed vnder Chriſt, when as the faithfull are made heires and lordes of all things by him which is their head.
[p] By the Canaanites the Iewes meane the Dutchmen, and by Zarephah, France, and by Sepharad, Spaine.
[q] Meaning, that God will raiſe vp in his Church ſuch as ſhall rule and gouerne for the defence of the ſame, and deſtruction of his enemies vnder Meſſiah, whom the Prophet calleth here the Lord and head of this kingdome.

Ionah.

THE ARGVMENT.

WHen Ionah had long propheſied in Iſrael, and had little profited, God gaue him expreſſe charge to goe, and denounce his iudgements againſt Nineueh the chiefe citie of the Aſſyrians, becauſe he had appoynted, that they which were of the heathen, ſhould conuert by the mightie power of his word, and that within three dayes preaching, that Iſrael might ſee howe horribly they had prouoked Gods wrath, which for the ſpace of ſo many yeeres, had not conuerted to the Lorde for ſo many Prophets and ſo diligent preaching. He propheſied vnder Ioaſh, and Ieroboam, as 2. King. 14.25.

CHAP. I.

3 Ionah fled when hee was ſent to preach, 4 A tempeſt ariſeth, and he is caſt into the ſea for his diſobedience.

[a] After that he had preached a long time in Iſrael: and ſo Ezekiel, after that for a time he had propheſied in Iuda, he had viſions in Babylon, Ezek. 1. [b] For ſeeing the great obſtination of the Iſraelites, he ſent his Prophet to the Gentiles, that they might prouoke them to repentance, or at leaſt make them inexcuſable; for Nineueh was the chiefe citie of the Aſſyrians,

NOw the worde of the Lorde came [a] alſo vnto Ionah the ſonne of Amittai, ſaying,

2 Ariſe, and goe to [b] Nineueh, that [c] great citie, and crie againſt it: for their wickednes is come vp before me.

3 But Ionah roſe vp to [d] flee into Tarſhith from the preſence of the Lorde, and went downe to [e] Japho: and he found a ſhip going to Tarſhish: ſo hee paied the fare

[c] For as authours write, it contained in circuite about eight and fourtie mile, and had a thouſand and fiue hundred, and twentie thouſand children therein, Chap. 4. 11.
[d] Whereby he declareth his weakeneſſe, that would not promptly followe the Lords calling, but gaue place to his owne reaſon, which perſwaded him that he ſhould nothing at all profite there, ſeeing he had done ſo ſmall good among his owne people, Chap. 4. 2.
[e] Which was the hauen and port to take ſhipping thither, called alſo Ioppe.

fare thereof, and went downe into it, that he might go with them vnto Tarshish, from the [f] presence of the Lord.

4 But the Lorde sent out a great winde into the Sea, and there was a mightie tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraide, and cryed euery man vnto his god, and cast the wares that were in the shippe, into the sea to lighten it of them: but Ionah was gone downe [g] into the sides of the ship, and he lay downe, and was fast asleepe.

6 So the Shipmaster came to him, and said vnto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? Arise, call vpon thy [h] God, if so be that God will think vpon vs, that we perish not.

7 And they said euery one to his fellow, Come, and let vs cast [i] lots, that we may knowe, for whose cause this euill is vpon vs. So they cast lots, and the lot fell vpon Ionah.

8 Then said they vnto him, Tell vs for whose cause this euill is vpon vs: what is thine occupation? & whence commest thou? which is thy countrey? and of what people art thou?

9 And hee answered them, I am an Ebrew, and I feare the Lorde God of heauen, which hath made the sea, and the dry land.

10 Then were the men exceedingly afraide, and saide vnto him, Why hast thou done this? (for the men knew, that hee fled from the presence of the Lorde, because hee had told them)

11 Then saide they vnto him, What shal we do vnto thee, that the sea may be calme vnto vs? (for the Sea wrought and was troublous)

12 And he said vnto them, Take me, and cast me into the sea: so shall the sea be calme vnto you: for I know, that for my sake this great tempest is vpon you.

13 Neuertheless, the men rowed to bring it to the land, but they could not: for the sea wrought and was troublous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried vnto the Lorde, and said, [k] We beseech thee, O Lord, we beseech thee, let vs not perish for this mans life, and lay not vpon vs innocent blood: for thou, O Lord, hast done, as it pleased thee.

15 So they tooke vp Ionah, and cast him into the sea, & the sea ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men [l] feared the Lorde exceedingly, & offred a sacrifice vnto the Lord, and made vowes.

17 Now the Lorde had prepared a great fish to swallow vp Ionah: and Ionah was in the [m] belly of the fish three daies and three nights.

f From that vocation whereunto God had called him, and wherein hee would haue assisted him.

g As one that would haue cast off this care and solicitude by seeking rest and quietnesse.

h As they had called on their idoles: which declareth that idolaters haue no stay nor certaintie, but in their troubles seeke they can not tel to whom.

i Which declareth that the matter was in great extremitie and doubt, which thing was Gods motion in them for the triall of the cause: and this may not bee done but in matters of great importance.

k This declareth that the verywicked in their necessities flee vnto God for succour, and also that they are touched with a certaine feare to shead mans blood, whereas they know no manifest signe of wickednesse.

l They were touched with a certaine repentance of their life past, and began to worship the true God by whome they saw themselues so wonderfully deliuered: but this was done for feare and not of a pure heart and affection, neyther according to Gods worde.

m Thus the Lorde would chastise his Prophet with a most terrible spectacle of death, and hereby also confirmed him of his fauour and support in this his charge which was inioyned him.

CHAP. II.

1 Ionah is in the fishes belly, 2 His prayer, 10 He is deliuered.

THen Ionah prayed vnto the Lorde his God [a] out of the fishes belly,

2 And saide, I cryed in mine affliction vnto the Lorde, and he heard me: out of the belly [b] of hell cryed I, and thou heardst my voyce.

3 For thou hadst cast me into the bottom in the midst of the sea, and the floods compassed mee about: all thy surges, and all thy waues passed ouer me.

4 Then I saide, I am [c] cast away out of thy sight: yet will I looke againe towarde thine holy Temple.

5 The waters compassed me about vnto the soule: the depth closed me round about, and the weedes were wrapt about mine head.

6 I went downe to the bottome of the mountaines: the earth with her barres was about mee for euer, yet hast thou brought vp my [d] life from the pit, O Lorde my God.

7 When my soule fainted within me, I remembred the Lorde, and my prayer came vnto thee, into thine holy Temple.

8 They that wait vpon lying [e] vanities, forsake their owne [f] mercie.

9 But I will sacrifice vnto thee with the voyce of thanksgiuing, and will pay that that I haue vowed: saluation is of the Lord.

10 And the Lord spake vnto the fish, and it cast out Ionah vpon the dry land.

a Being nowe swallowed vp of death, and seeing no remedie to escape, his faith brast out vnto the Lord, knowing that out of the very hell he was able to deliuer him.

b For hee was now in the fishes belly as in a graue or place of darknesse.

c This declared what his prayer was, and howe he laboured betweene hope and despaire, considering the neglect of his vocation, and Gods iudgements for the same: but yet in the ende faith gare the victory.

d Thou hast deliuered me from the belly of the fish, and all these dangers, as it were raysing me from death to life.

e They that depend vpon any thing saue on God alone.

f They refuse their owne felicitie, add that goodnesse which they should else receiue of God.

CHAP. III.

1 Ionah is sent againe to Nineueh. 5 The repentance of the king of Nineueh.

ANd the worde of the Lorde came vnto [a] Ionah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, goe vnto Nineueh that great citie, and preach vnto it the preaching, which I bid thee.

3 So Ionah arose and went to Nineueh according to the word of the Lord: now Nineueh was a [b] great and excellent city of three dayes iourney.

4 And Ionah began to enter into the citie a [c] dayes iourney, and he cried, and saide, Yet fourtie dayes, and Nineueh shall be ouerthrowen.

5 So the people of Nineueh [d] beleeued God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth from the greatest of them euen to the least of them.

6 For worde came vnto the king of Nineueh, and hee arose from his throne, and layed his robe from him, and couered him with sackcloth, and sate in ashes.

7 And hee proclaimed and said through Nineueh, (by the counsell of the king & his nobles) saying, Let neither man, nor [e] beast, bullocke nor sheepe taste any thing, neither feede nor drinke water.

8 But let man and beast put on sackcloth, a This is a great declaration of Gods mercy, that he receiueth him againe & sendeth him forth as his Prophet, which had before shewed so great infirmitie.

b Reade Chap. 1.2.

c He went forward one day in the citie, & preached, & so he continued til the city was conuerted.

d For he declared that he was a Prophet sent to them from God to denounce his iudgements against them.

e Not that the dumbe beastes had sinned or could repent, but that by their example man might bee astonished, considering that for his sinne the anger of God hanged ouer all creatures.

He willed, hat the men hould earneſtly ſeek vnto God or mercie.

For partly by he threatning of the Prophet, nd partly by the notion of his wne conſcience, e doubted whether God would ſhew them mercie.

h That is, the fruits of their repentance, which did proceed of faith which God had planted by the miniſterie of his Prophet.

i Reade Iere. 18.8.

cloth, and crye mightily vnto God: yea, let euery man turne from his euill way, and from the wickednes that is in their hands.

9 ε Who can tell if God will turne, and repent & turne away from his fierce wrath, that we perish not?

10 And God ſawe their h workes that they turned from their euil wayes: & i God repented of the euill that hee had ſaide that he would doe vnto them, and he did it not.

CHAP. IIII.

The great goodneſſe of God toward his creatures.

THerefore it diſpleaſed a Ionah exceedingly, and he was angrie.

2 And he prayed vnto the Lord, and ſaid, I pray thee, O Lord, was not this my ſaying, when I was yet in my countrey? therefore I preuented it to flee vnto b Tarſhish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and mercifull, ſlowe to anger, and of great kindneſſe, and repenteſt thee of the euill.

3 Therefore nowe, O Lorde, take, I beſeech thee, my life c from mee: for it is better for me to die then to liue.

4 Then ſaide the Lorde, Doeſt thou well to be d angrie?

a Becauſe hereby he ſhould be taken as a falſe prophet, and ſo the Name of God which he preached ſhould be blaſphemed.

b Reade Chap. 1.3.

c Thus he prayed of griefe, fearing leſt Gods Name by this forgiueneſſe might be blaſphemed, as though he ſent his Prophets forth to denounce his iudgements in vaine.

d Wilt thou bee iudge when I doe things for my glorie, and when I doe not?

5 So Ionah went out of the citie & ſate on the Eaſt ſide of the citie, and there made him a boothe, and ſate vnder it in the ſhadow e till he might ſee what ſhould be done in the citie.

6 And the Lord God prepared a f gourd, and made it to come vp ouer Ionah, that it might be a ſhadow ouer his head, and deliuer him from his griefe. So Ionah was exceeding glad of the gourde.

7 But God prepared a worme when the morning roſe the next day: and it ſmote the gourde, that it withered.

8 And when the ſunne did ariſe, God prepared alſo a feruent Eaſt wind: and the ſunne beat vpon the head of Ionah, that hee fainted, and wiſhed in his heart to die, and ſaide, It is better for mee to die, then to liue.

9 And God ſaid vnto Ionah, Doeſt thou well to be angrie for the gourde? And he ſaide, I doe wel to be ε angrie vnto the death.

10 Then ſaide the Lorde, Thou haſt had pitie on the gourd for the which thou haſt not laboured, neither madeſt it growe, which came vp in a night, and periſhed in a night.

11 And ſhoulde h not I ſpare Nineueh that great citie, wherein are fiue ſcore thouſand perſons, that i cannot diſcern betweene their right hand, and their left hand, and alſo much cattell?

e For he doubted as yet whether God would ſhew them mercie or no: and therefore after fourtie dayes he departed out of the citie, looking what iſſue God would ſend.

f Which was a further meanes, to couer him from the heate of the ſunne, as he remained in his boothe.

g This declareth the great inconueniences whereinto Gods ſeruants doe fal when they giue place to their owne affections, and doe not in all things willingly ſubmit themſelues to God.

h Thus God mercifully reproueth him which would pitie himſelf and this gourd, and yet would reſtraine God to ſhew his compaſſion to ſo many thouſand people.

i Meaning, that they were children and infants.

Micah.

THE ARGVMENT.

MIcah the Prophet of the tribe of Iudah ſerued in the worke of the Lorde, concerning Iudah and Iſrael, at the leaſt thirtie yeeres, at what time Iſaiah propheſied. Hee declareth the deſtruction, firſt of the one kingdome, and then of the other, becauſe of their manifolde wickedneſſe, but chiefly for their idolatrie. And to this ende hee noteth the wickednesſe of the people, the crueltie of the princes and gouernours, and the permiſſion of the falſe prophets, and the delighting in them. Then hee ſetteth foorth the comming of Chriſt, his kingdome, and the felicitie thereof. This Prophet was not that Micah, which reſiſted Ahab, and all his falſe prophets, as 1. Kin. 22.8. but another of the ſame name.

CHAP. I.

1 The deſtruction of Iudah and Iſrael becauſe of their idolatrie.

THe worde of the Lorde, that came vnto Micah the a Morathite in the dayes of Iotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah kings of Iudah, which he ſawe concerning Samaria and Ieruſalem.

2 Heare, b all yee people: hearken thou O earth, and all that therein is, and let the Lord God be witneſſe againſt you, euen the Lord from his holy Temple.

3 For beholde, the Lorde commeth out of his place, and will come c downe, and treade vpon the hie places of the earth.

4 And the mountaines ſhall melt vnder him (ſo ſhall the valleys cleaue) as ware before the fire, & as the waters that are powred downward.

5 For the wickednes of Iaakob is all this, & for the ſinnes of the houſe of Iſrael: what is the wickednes of Iaakob? Is not d Samaria? and which are the hie e places of Iudah? Is not Ieruſalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria as an heape of the fielde, and for the planting of a vineyarde, and I will cauſe the ſtones thereof to tumble downe into the valley, and I will diſcouer the foundations thereof.

7 And all the grauen images thereof ſhal be broken, and all the f gifts thereof ſhall be burnt a Borne in Mareſhah a citie of Iudah.

b Becauſe of the malice and obſtinacie of the people whom he had ſo oft exhorted to repentance, he ſummoneth them to Gods iudgements, taking all creatures, and God himſelfe to witneſſe, that the preaching of his Prophets, which they haue abuſed, ſhalbe reuenged.

c Meaning hereby that God wil come to iudgment againſt the ſtrong cities and holds.

d Samaria which ſhould haue bene an example to all Iſrael of true religion & iuſtice, was the puddle & ſtewes of all idolatrie and corruption, and boaſted themſelues of their father Iaakob.

e That is, the idolatrie and infection.

f Which they gathered by euill practiſes, and thought that their idoles had enriched them therewith for their ſeruice vnto them.

burnt with the fire, and all the idoles thereof will I destroy: for shee gathereth it of the hyre of an harlot, and they shall returne ato the wages of an harlot.

8 Therefore I will mourne and howle: I will goe without clothes, and naked: I will make lamentation like the dragons, and mourning as the ostriches.

9 For her plagues are grieuous: for it is come into Iudah: the enemie is come vnto the gate of my people, vnto Ierusalem.

10 Declare yee it not at b Gath, neither weepe yee: for the house of i Aphzath roule thy selfe in the dust.

11 Thou that dwellest at k Shaphir, goe together naked with shame: the that dwelleth at Zaanan, shall not come forth in the mourning of Beth-ezel: the enemie shall l receiue of you for his standing.

12 For the inhabitant of Maroth wayted for good, but euill came from the Lord vnto the m gate of Ierusalem.

13 O thou inhabitant of Lachish, binde the charet to the beastes n of price: she o is the beginning of the sinne to the daughter of Zion: for the trangressions of Israel were found in thee.

14 Therefore shalt thou giue presents to Mozesheth p Gath: the houses of Achzib shalbe as a lie to the kings of q Israel.

15 Yet will I bring an r heire vnto thee, O inhabitant of Mareshah, hee shall come vnto Adullam, s the glory of Israel.

16 Make thee balde: and shaue thee for thy delicate children: enlarge thy baldnesse as the egle, for they are gone into captiuitie from thee.

g The gaine that came by their idols, shalbe consumed as a thing of nought: for as the wages or riches of harlots are wickedly gotten, so are they vilely and speedily spent.

h Lest the Philistims our enemies reioyce at our destruction.

i Which was a citie neere to Ierusalem. Iosh. 18. 23. there called Ophrah, and signifieth dust: therefore hee willeth them to mourne, & roule themselues in the dust, for their dustie citie.

k These were cities whereby the enemies should passe as he came to Iudah.

l He shall not depart before he hath ouercome you, and so you shall pay for his tarying.

m For Rabshaketh had shut vp Ierusalem, that they coulde not send to succour them.

n To flee away: for Sancherib laid siege first to that citie, and remained therein when hee sent his captaines, and armie against Ierusalem.

o Thou first receiuedst the idolatrie of Ieroboam, and so diddest infect Ierusalem.

p Thou shalt bribe the Philistims thy neighbours, but they shall deceiue thee, as well as they of Ierusalem.

q He prophecieth against his owne citie, and because it signified an heritage, he sayeth that God would send an heire to possesse it.

r For so they thought themselues for the strength of their citie.

CHAP. II.

1 Threatnings against the wanton and deintie people. 6 They would teach the Prophets to preach.

WOe vnto them, that imagine iniquitie, and worke wickednes vpon their beddes: a when the morning is light they practise it, because their hand ‡ hath power.

2 And they couet fieldes, and take them by violence, and houses, and take them away: so they oppresse a man and his house, euen man and his heritage.

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord, Beholde, against this familie haue I deuised a plague, wherout yee shall not plucke your neckes, and yee shall not goe so proudly, for this time is euill.

4 In that day shall they take vp a parable against you, and lament with a dolefull lamentation, and say, b We be vtterly wasted: hee hath changed the portion of my people: howe hath hee taken it away to restore it vnto mee? hee hath diuided our fieldes.

5 Therefore thou shalt haue none that shall cast a cord by lot c in the Congregation of the Lord.

6 d They that prophesied, Prophesie yee not. e They shall not prophesie to them, neither shall they take shame.

7 O thou that art named the house of Iaakob, is the Spirit of the Lord shortned? f are these his workes? are not my wordes good vnto him s that walketh vprightly?

8 But hee that was h yesterday my people, is risen vp on the other side, as against an enemie: they spoyle the i beautifull garment from them that passe by peaceably, as though they returned from the warre.

9 The women of my people haue ye cast out from their pleasant houses, and from their children haue ye taken away k my glory continually.

10 Arise and depart, for this is not your l rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, euen with a sore destruction.

11 If a man m walke in the spirit, and woulde lye falsely, saying, n I will prophesie vnto thee of wine, and of strong drinke, hee shall euen be the Prophet of this people.

12 I will surely o gather thee wholly, O Iaakob: I will surely gather the remnant of Israel: I will put them together as the sheepe of Bozrah, euen as the flocke in the middes of their folde: the cities shall be full of the braue of the men.

13 The p breaker out shall come vp before them: they shall breake out and passe by the gate, and goe out by it, and their king shall goe before them, and the Lord shall be q vpon their heads.

a That is, assoone as they rise, they execute their wicked deuices of the night, and according to their power hurt others.

b Thus the Iewes lament and say that there is no hope of restitution, seeing their possessions are diuided among the enemies.

c Ye shall haue no more lands to diuide, as you had in times past, and as you vsed to measure them in the Iubile.

d Thus the people warne the Prophets, that they speake to them no more: for they cannot abide their threatnings.

e God saith, that they shall not prophesie, nor receiue no more of their rebukes nor taunts.

f Are these your workes according to his lawe?

g Doe not the godly finde my wordes comfortable?

h That is, aforetime.

i The poore can haue no commoditie by them, but they spoyle them as though they were enemies.

k That is, their substance and liuing, which is Gods blessing, and as it were, part of his glory.

l Ierusalem shal not be your safegard: but the cause of your destruction.

m That is, shewe himselfe to bee a Prophet.

n Hee sheweth what prophets they delire in: that is, in flatterers, which tell them pleasant tales, and speake of their commodities.

o To destroy thee.

p The enemie shall breake the gates and walles, and leade them into Caldea.

q To driue them forward, and to helpe their enemies.

CHAP. III.

1 Against the tyrannie of princes & false prophets.

AND I sayd, Heare, I pray you, O heads of Iaakob, and ye princes of the house of Israel: Shoulde not yee knowe a iudgement?

2 But they hate the good, and loue the euil: they plucke off their skinnes from them, and their flesh from their bones.

3 And they eate also the b flesh of my people, and flay off their skinne from them, and they breake their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

4 Then c shall they crie vnto the Lord, but hee will not heare them: hee will euen hide his face from them at that time, because they haue done wickedly in their workes.

a That thing which is iust and lawfull, both to gouerne my people aright, and also to discharge your owne conscience?

b The Prophet condemneth the wicked gouernours not onely of couetousnesse, theft and murther, but compareth them to wolues, lyons, and cruell beastes.

c That is, when the godly before crie, Isa 65.24. yet I will not heare them though they crie, Isa.1.15. ezekiel 8.18. iames 2.13. 1.pet.3.12.

5 Thus ſaith the Lord, Concerning the prophets that deceiue my people, and [d] bite them with their teeth, and crie peace, but if a man put not into their mouthes, they prepare warre againſt him,

6 Therefore [e] night ſhall be vnto you for a viſion, and darkeneſſe ſhall be vnto you for a diuination, and the ſonne ſhall goe downe ouer the Prophets, and the day ſhalbe darke ouer them.

7 Then ſhall the Seers bee aſhamed, and the ſoothſayers confounded: yea, they ſhall all couer [f] their lippes, for they haue none anſwere of God.

8 Yet notwithſtanding I am full [g] of power by the Spirite of the Lord, and of iudgement, and of ſtrength to declare vnto Iaakob his tranſgreſſion, and to Iſrael his ſinne.

9 Heare this, I pray you, ye heads of the houſe of Iaakob, and princes of the houſe of Iſrael: they abhorre iudgement, and peruert all equitie.

10 They builde vp Zion with [h] blood, and Ieruſalem with iniquitie.

11 The heads thereof iudge for rewards, and the Prieſtes thereof teach for hire, and the Prophets thereof prophecie for money: yet will they [i] leane vpon the Lord, and ſay, Is not the Lord among vs? no euill can come vpon vs.

12 Therefore ſhall Zion for your ſake be [k] plowed as a fielde, and Ieruſalem ſhall be an heape, and the mountaine of the houſe, as the hie places of the forest.

d They deuour all their ſubſtance, and then flatter them, promiſing that all ſhall go well: but if one reſtraine from their bellies, then they inuent all wayes to miſchiefe.
e As you haue loued to walke in darkeneſſe, and to propheſie lies, ſo God ſhall reward you with groſſe blindneſſe, and ignorance, ſo that when all others ſhall ſee the bright beames of Gods graces, ye ſhall as blinde men grope as in the night.
f When God ſhal diſcouer them to the world, they ſhalbe afraid to ſpeake: for all ſhall know that they were but falſe prophets, and did belie the word of God.
g The Prophet being aſſured of his vocation by the Spirit of God, ſetteth himſelfe alone againſt all the wicked, ſhewing howe God both gaue him gifts, abilitie and knowledge to diſcerne betweene good and euill, and alſo conſtancie to reproue the ſinnes of the people, and not to flatter them. h They built them houſes by bribery, which hee calleth blood and iniquitie. i They will ſay, that they are the people of God, and abuſe his name, as a pretence to cloke their hypocriſie. k Reade Ieremiah 26.18.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Of the kingdome of Chriſt, and felicitie of his Church.

BVT in the [a] laſt dayes it ſhall come to paſſe, that the mountaine of the Houſe of the Lord ſhall be prepared in the toppe of the mountaines, and it ſhall be exalted aboue the [b] hilles, and people ſhall flowe vnto it.

2 Yea, many nations ſhall come and ſay, Come, and let vs goe vp to the mountaine of the Lord, and to the houſe of the God of Iaakob, and hee will [c] teach vs his wayes, and we will walke in his paths: for the [c] law ſhall goe forth of Zion, and the word of the Lord from Ieruſalem.

3 And he ſhall iudge among many people, and [d] rebuke mightie nations afarre off, and they ſhall breake their ſwords into mattockes, and their ſpeares into [e] ſithes: nation ſhall not lift vp a ſword againſt nation, neither ſhall they [f] learne to fight any more.

4 But they ſhall ſit euery man vnder his vine, and vnder his figge tree, and none ſhall make them afraide: for the mouth of the Lord of hoſtes hath ſpoken it.

5 For all people will walke [g] euery one in the name of his god, and wee will walke in the Name of the Lord our God, for euer and euer.

6 At the ſame day, ſaith the Lord, will I gather her that halteth, and I will gather her that is caſt out, and her that I haue afflicted.

7 And I will make her that halted, [h] a remnant, and her that was caſt farre off, a mightie nation: and the Lord ſhall reigne ouer them in mount Zion, from henceforth euen for euer.

8 And thou, O [i] towre of the flocke, the ſtrong holde of the daughter Zion, vnto thee ſhall it come, euen [k] the firſt dominion, and kingdome ſhall come to the daughter Ieruſalem.

9 Nowe why doeſt thou crie out with lamentation? is [l] there no king in thee? is thy counſeller periſhed? for ſorowe hath taken thee, as a woman in trauaile.

10 Sorow and mourne, O daughter Zion, like a woman in trauaile: for now ſhalt thou goe forth of the citie, and dwell in the field, and ſhalt goe into Babel, but there ſhalt thou bee deliuered: there the Lord ſhall redeeme thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 Nowe alſo many nations are gathered againſt thee, ſaying, Zion ſhall bee condemned, and our eye ſhall looke vpon Zion.

12 But they [m] knowe not the thoughts of the Lord: they vnderſtand not his counſell, for hee ſhall gather them as the sheaues in the barne.

13 Ariſe, and threſh, O daughter Zion: for I will make thine horne yron, and I will make thine hoofes braſſe, and thou ſhalt breake in pieces many people: and I will conſecrate their riches vnto the Lord, and their ſubſtance vnto the ruler of the whole world.

a When Chriſt ſhall come, and the Temple ſhall be deſtroyed.
b Reade Iſa. 2.2.
c He ſheweth that there is no true Church, but whereas the people are taught by Gods pure word.
d By his corrections and threatnings, hee will bring the people into ſubiection which are in the vtmoſt corners of the world.
e They ſhall abſtaine from all euill doing, and exerciſe themſelues in godlineſſe and in well doing to others. f Reade Iſa 2.4.
g He ſheweth that the people of God ought to remaine conſtant in their religion, albeit all the world ſhould giue themſelues to their ſuperſtition and idolatrie.
h I will cauſe that Iſrael, which is nowe as one lame and halting, and ſo almoſt deſtroyed, ſhall liue againe, and growe into a great people.
i Meaning, Ieruſalem, where the Lords flocke was gathered.
k The flouriſhing ſtate of the kingdome, as it was vnder Dauid and Salomon, which thing was accompliſhed to the Church by the comming of Chriſt.
l In the meane ſeaſon he ſheweth that they ſhould endure great troubles and tentations, when they ſawe themſelues neither to haue king nor counſell.
m Hee ſheweth that the faithfull ought not to meaſure Gods iudgements by the brags & threatnings of the wicked, but thereby are admoniſhed to lift vp their hearts to God to call for deliuerance.
n God giueth his Church this victorie, ſo oft as he ouercommeth their enemies: but the accompliſhment hereof ſhall be at the laſt comming of Chriſt.

CHAP. V.

1 The deſtruction of Ieruſalem. 2 The excellencie of Beth-lehem.

NOw aſſemble thy gariſons, O daughter of gariſons: he hath laid ſiege againſt vs: they ſhall ſmite the iudge of Iſrael with a rodde vpon the cheeke.

2 And thou Bethlehem Ephratah art [b] little to bee among the thouſands of Iudah, yet out of thee ſhall hee come forth vnto mee, that ſhall be the ruler in a He forewarneth them of the dangers that ſhall come, before they enioy theſe comforts, ſhewing that foraſmuch as Ieruſalem was accuſtomed with her gariſons to trouble others, the Lorde would now cauſe other gariſons to vexe her, & that her Rulers ſhould be ſmitten on the face moſt contemptuouſly.

b For ſo the Iewes diuided their countrey, that for euery thouſand there was a chiefe captaine: and becauſe Beth-lem was not able to make a thouſand, hee calleth it litle, but yet God wil raiſe vp his captaine & gouernor therin: and thus it is not the leaſt by reaſon of this benefit, as Mat. 2.6.

c He sheweth ỹ the comming of Christ and all his wayes were appointed of God from all eternity.

d He compareth the Iewes to women with childe, who for a time should haue great sorowes, but at length they should haue a comfortable deliuerance, Ioh.16.21.

e That is, Christs kingdome shalbe stable and euerlasting, & his people, as wel the Gētiles as the Iewes shall dwell in safetie.

f This Messiah shalbe a sufficient safegard for vs, & though the enemie inuade vs for a time, yet shall God stir vp many which shall be able to deliuer vs.

g These whom God shall raise vp for ỹ deliuerance of his Church, shall destroy all the enemies therof, which are meant heere by the Assyrians and Babylonians which were the chiefe at that time.

h By these gouernors wil God deliuer vs when the enemy commeth into our land.

i This remnant or Chur. h which God shal deliuer, shall only depend on Gods power and defence, as doth the grasse of the field, and not on the hope of man.

Israel: whose goings forth haue bene from the beginning and from euerlasting.

3 Therefore will hee giue them vp, vntill the time that d he which shal beare, shall trauaile: then the remnant of their brethren shall returne vnto the children of Israel.

4 And hee shall e stand, and feede in the strength of the Lorde, and in the maiestie of the Name of the Lorde his God, and they shall dwell still: for now shall he be magnified vnto the ends of the world.

5 And he f shalbe our peace when Asshur shall come into our lande: when hee shall treade in our palaces, then shall we rayse against him seuen shepheards, and eight principall men.

6 And they shall destroy g Asshur with the sworde, and the lande of Nimrod with their swords: thus shall he b deliuer vs from Asshur, when hee commeth into our lande, and when hee shall treade within our borders.

7 And the i remnant of Iaakob shall be among many people, as a dewe from the Lorde, and as the showres vpon the grasse, that waiteth not for man, nor hopeth in the sonnes of Adam.

8 And the remnant of Iaakob shall be among the Gentiles, in the middes of many people, as the Lyon among the beasts of the forrest, and as the Lyons whelpe among the flocks of sheepe, who when he goeth thorow, treadeth downe and teareth in pieces, and none can deliuer.

9 Thine hand shall be lift vp vpon thine aduersaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 And it shall come to passe in that day, saith the Lord, that I wil cut off thine k horses out of the middes of thee, and I will destroy thy charets.

11 And I wil cut off the cities of thy land, and ouerthrow all thy strong holdes.

12 And I will cutte off thine inchanters out of thine hand: and thou shalt haue no more Soothsayers.

13 Thine idoles also will I cut off, and thine images out of the middes of thee: and thou shalt no more worship the worke of thine hands.

14 And I will plucke vp thy groues out of the mids of thee: so will I destroy thine enemies.

15 And I will execute a vengeance in my wrath and indignation vpon the heathen, l which they haue not heard.

2 Heare ye, O mountaines, the Lords quarell, and yee mightie foundations of the earth: for the Lorde hath a quarell against his people, and he will pleade with Israel.

3 O my people, what haue I done vnto thee? or wherein haue I grieued thee? testifie against me.

4 Surely I b brought thee vp out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of seruants, and I haue sent before thee, Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab had deuised, & what Balaam the sonne of Beor answered him, from c Shittim vnto Gilgal, that yee may know the d righteousnesse of the Lord.

6 Wherewith e shall I come before the Lord, and bow my selfe before the hie God? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, and with calues of a yere olde?

7 Will the Lorde bee pleased with thousands of rammes, or with tenne thousand riuers of oile? shall I giue my f first borne for my transgression, euen the frut of my body for the sinne of my soule?

8 He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good, and what the Lord requireth of thee: surely to doe iustly, and to loue mercie, and to humble thy selfe, to walke with thy God.

9 The Lords voyce cryeth vnto the g citie, and the man of wisedome shall see thy name: Heare the rodde, and who hath appointed it.

10 Are yet the treasures of wickednesse in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure, that is abominable?

11 Shall I iustifie the wicked balances, and the bagge of deceitfull weights?

12 For the rich men i therof are full of crueltie, and the inhabitants therof haue spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitfull in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I make thee sicke in smiting thee, and in making thee desolate, because of thy sinnes.

14 Thou shalt eate and not be satisfied, and k thy casting downe shall be in the mids of thee, and thou l shalt take holde, but shalt not deliuer: and that which thou deliuerest, will I giue vp to the sword.

15 Thou shalt sowe, but not reape: thou shalt treade the Olues, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oile, and make sweet wine, but shalt not drinke wine.

16 For the m statutes of Omri are kept,

CHAP. VI.

An exhortation to the dumme creatures to heare the iudgement against Israel being vnkinde. 6 What maner of sacrifices do please God.

HEarken ye now what the Lord saith, Arise thou, and content before the a mountaines, and let the hilles heare thy voice.

a Hee taketh the high mountaines and hard rockes to witnesse against the obstinacie of his people.

b I haue not hurt thee, but bestowed infinite benefits vpon thee.

c That is, remember my benefits from the beginning how I deliuered you from Balaams curse, and also spared you fro Shittim, which was in the plaine of Moab, till I brought you into the land promised.

d That is, the trueth of his promise, and his manifolde benefits toward you.

e Thus the people by hypocritie aske how to please God, and are content to offer sacrifices, but will not change their liues.

f There is nothing so deare to man, but the hypocrites will offer it vnto God, if they thinke thereby to auoyd his anger: but they will neuer bee brought to mortifie their owne affections, and to giue themselues willingly to serue God as he commandeth.

g The Prophet in fewe wordes calleth them to the obseruation of the second table, to knowe if they will obey God aright or no, saying that God hath prescribed them to doe this.

h Meaning, that when God speaketh to any citie or nation, the godly will acknowledge his maiestie, and consider not the more all man that bringeth the threatning, but God that sendeth it.

i That is, of Ierusalem.

k Thou shalt be consumed with inward griefe and exils.

l Meaning, that the citie should goe about to saue her men as they that lay holde on that which they would preserue.

m You haue receiued all the corruption and idolatrie, wherewith the tenne tribes were infected vnder Omri and Ahab his sonne: and to excuse your doings, you allege the kings authoritie by his statutes, and also wisedome and policie in so doing, but you shall not escape punishment, but as I haue shewed you great fauour, & taken you for my people, so shal your plagues be accordingly, Luke 12.47.

and all the maner of the house of Ahab, and yee walke in their counsels, that I shoulde make thee waste, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall beare the reproch of my people.

CHAP. VII.

1 A complaint for the small number of the righteous. 4 The wickednesse of those times. 14 The prosperitie of the Church.

a The prophet taketh vpon him the person of the earth, which complaineth that all her fruits are gone, so that none is left: that is, that there is no godly man remaining: for all are giuen to crueltie & deceit, so that none spareth his owne brother.

WOe is me, for I am as a the Summer gatherings, and as the grapes of the vintage: there is no cluster to eate: my soule desired the first ripe fruits.

2 The good man is perished out of the earth, and there is b none righteous among men: b they all lie in wait for blood: euery man hunteth his brother with a net.

b Hee sheweth that the Prince, the Iudge, and the rich man are linked together, all to doe euill and to cloke the doings one of an other.

3 To make good for the euill of their hands, the Prince asked, and the Iudge iudgeth for a reward: therefore the c great man hee speaketh out the corruption of his soule: so c they wrap it vp.

c That is, the rich man that is able to giue money, ableineth from no wickednes, nor iniurie.

4 The best of them is as d a brier, and the most righteous of them is sharper then a thorne hedge: the day of e thy watchmen and thy visitation commeth: then shall be their confusion.

d These men agree among themselues, and conspire with one consent to doe euill.

5 Trust ye not in a friend, neither put ye confidence in a counseller: keepe the doores of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosome.

6 For the sonne reuileth the father: the daughter riseth vp against her mother: the daughter in law against her mother in law, and a mans enemies are the men of his owne house.

7 Therfore f I will looke vnto the Lord: I will wait for God my Sauiour: my God will heare me.

8 Reioyce not against me, g O mine enemie: though I fall, I shall arise: when I shall sit in darknesse, the Lord shall be a light vnto me.

9 I will beare the wrath of the Lord, because I haue sinned against him, vntill hee plead my cause, and execute iudgement for me: then will he bring me forth to the light, and I shall see his righteousnesse.

10 Then she that is mine enemie, shall looke vpon it, and shame shall couer her, which sayd vnto me, Where is the Lord thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall shee bee troden downe as the mire of the streets.

e To wit, when God shall shew himselfe a deliuerer of his Church, and a destroyer of his enemies.

11 This is h the day, that thy walles shalbe built: this day shall driue farre away k the decree.

12 In this day also they shall come vnto thee from l Ashur, and from the strong cities, and from the strong holdes euen vnto the riuer, and from sea to sea, & from mountaine to mountaine.

13 Notwithstanding, the land shalbe desolate because of them that dwell therein, and for the fruits of m their inuentions.

14 n Feed thy people with thy rodde, the flocke of thine heritage (which dwell solitarie in the wood) as in the mids of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in olde time.

15 o According to the dayes of thy comming out of the land of Egypt, will I shew vnto him marueilous things.

16 The nations shall see, and be confounded for all their power: they shall p lay their hand vpon their mouth: q their eares shall be deafe.

17 They shall r licke the dust like a serpent: they shall moue out of their holes like wormes: they shalbe afraid of the Lord our God, and shall feare because of thee.

18 Who is a God like vnto thee, that taketh away iniquitie, and s passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? He reteineth not his wrath for euer, because mercie pleaseth him.

19 He will turne againe, and haue compassion vpon vs: he will subdue our iniquities, and cast all t their sinnes into the bottome of the Sea.

20 Thou wilt performe thy u trueth to Iaakob, and mercie to Abraham, as thou hast sworne vnto our Fathers in olde time.

f To wit, when God shall shew himselfe a deliuerer of his Church, and a destroyer of his enemies.

g The Prophet sheweth that the onely remedie for the godly in desperate euils, is to flee vnto God for succour.

h This is spoken in the person of the Church, which called the malignant Church her enemie.

k Meaning, the cruell empire of the Babylonians.

l When the Church shalbe restored, they that were enemies afore, shall come out of all the corners of the world vnto her, so that neither holds, riuers, seas, nor mountaines shalbe able to let them.

m Afore this grace appeare, he sheweth howe grieuously the hypocrites themselues shall be punished, seeing that the earth it selfe, which can not sinne, shalbe made waste because of their wickednesse.

n The Prophet prayeth to God to be mercifull vnto his Church, when they should be scattered abroad as in solitarie places in Babylon, and to be beneficiall vnto them, as in time past.

o God promiseth to be fauourable to his people, as hee had bene aforetime.

p They shall be as dumme men, and dare bragge no more.

q They shall be astonished, and afrayed to heare men speake, least they shoulde heare of their destruction.

r They shall fall flatte on the ground for feare.

s As though he would not see it, but winke at it.

t Meaning of his elect.

u The Church is assured, that God will declare in effect the trueth of his mercifull promise, which he had made of olde to Abraham, and to all that shoulde apprehend the promise by faith.

Nahum.

THE ARGVMENT.

AS they of Nineueh shewed themselues prompt and readie to receiue the worde of God at Ionahs preaching and so turned to the Lorde by repentance: so after a certaine time rather giuing themselues to worldly meanes to increase their dominion, then seeking to continue in the feare of God, and trade wherein they had begun, they cast off the care of religion, and so returned to their vomite, and prouoked Gods iust iudgement against them in afflicting his people. Therefore their citie Nineueh was destroyed, Meroch-baladan king of Babel (or as some thinke Nebuchad-nezzar) enioyed the Empire of the Assyrians. But because God hath a continual care of his Church, he stirreth vp his Prophet to comfort the godly, shewing that the destruction of their enemies shoulde be for their consolation. And as it seemeth, he prophecied about the time of Hezekiah, and not in the time of Manasseh his sonne, as the Iewes write.

CHAP.

CHAP. I.

Of the destruction of the Assyrians, and of the deliuerance of Israel.

THe * burden of Nineueh. b The booke of the vision of Nahum the c Elkeshite.

2 God is d iealous, and the Lord reuengeth: the Lord reuengeth: euen the Lord * of anger, the Lord will take vengeance on his aduersaries, and he reserueth wrath for his enemies.

3 The f Lord is slow to anger, but hee is great in power, and will not surely cleare the wicked: the Lord hath his way in the whirle winde, and in the storme, and the cloudes are the dust of his feete.

4 He rebuketh the sea, and drieth it, and he drieth vp all the riuers: Bashan is wasted and Carmel, and the floure of Lebanon is wasted.

5 The mountaines tremble for him, and the hilles melt, and the earth is burnt at his sight, yea, the world and all that dwel therein.

6 g Who can stand before his wrath? or who can abide in the fiercenesse of his wrath? his wrath is powred out like fire, and the rockes are broken by him.

7 The Lord is good, h & as a strong hold in the day of trouble, and he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But passing ouer as with a flood, hee will vtterly destroy the i place thereof, and darkenesse shall pursue his enemies.

9 What doe yee k imagine against the Lord? he will make an vtter destruction: affliction shall not rise vp the second time.

10 For he shall come as vnto l thornes folden one in another, and as vnto drunkards in their drunkennesse: they shalbe deuoured as stubble fully dryed.

11 There m commeth one out of thee that imagineth euill against the Lord, euen a wicked counsellour.

12 Thus saith the Lord, Though they be n quiet, and also many, yet thus shall they be cut off when he shall passe by: though I haue afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now I will breake his yoke from thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the Lord hath giuen a commaundement concerning thee, that no more of thy name be * sowen: out of the house of thy gods, will I cut off the grauen and the molten image: I wil make it thy graue for thee, for thou art vile.

15 * Behold vpon the mountaines the feete of him that declareth and publisheth peace: O Iudah, keepe thy solemne feasts, performe thy vowes: for the wicked shal no more passe through thee: he is vtterly cut off.

a Reade Isa. 13.1.
b The vision or reuelation, which God commanded Nahum to write concerning the Ninuites.
c That is, borne in a poore village in the tribe of Simeon.
d Meaning, of his glory.
e With his, he is but angry for a time, but his anger neuer asswageth toward the reprobate, though for a time he deferre it.
f Thus the wicked woulde make Gods mercie an occasion to sinne, but the Prophet willeth them to consider his force and iustice.
g If all creatures bee at Gods commandement and none is able to resist his wrath, shall man flatter himselfe and thinke by any meanes to escape when he prouoketh his God to anger?
h Lest the faithfull should be discouraged by hearing the power of God, he sheweth them that his mercies apperteine vnto them, and that hee hath care ouer them.
i Signifying, that God will suddenly destroy Nineueh, and the Assyrians, in such sort, as they shall lie in perpetuall darkenesse, and neuer recouer their strength againe.
k He sheweth that the enterprises of the Assyrians against Iudah and the Church, were against God, and therefore he would so destroy them at once, that hee should not neede to returne the second time.
l Though the Assyrians thinke themselues like thornes that pricke on all sides, yet the Lord will set fire on them, and as drunken men are not able to stand against any force, so they shall bee nothing able to resist him.
m Which may bee vnderstood either of Sancherib, or of the whole body of the people of Nineueh.
n Though they thinke themselues in most safetie, and of greatest strength, yet when God shall passe by, hee will destroy them: notwithstanding he comforteth his Church, and promiseth to make an ende of punishing them by the Assyrians.
o Meaning Sancherib, who should haue no moe children, p Which peace the Iewes should enioy by the death of Sancherib.

CHAP. II.

Hee describeth the victories of the Caldeans against the Assyrians.

THe a destroyer is come before thy face: keepe the munition: looke to the way: make thy loines strong: increase thy strength mightily.

2 For the Lord hath b turned away the glorie of Iaakob, as the glory of Israel: for the emptiers haue emptied them out, and c marred their vine branches.

3 The shield of his mighty men is made redde: d the valiant men are in skarlet: the charets shall be as in the fire and flames in the day of his preparation, and e the firre trees shall tremble.

4 The charets shall rage in the streetes: they shall runne to and fro in the hie wayes: they shall seeme like lampes: they shal shoot like the lightning.

5 f Hee shall remember his strong men: they shall stumble as they goe: they shall make haste to the walles thereof, and the defence shalbe prepared.

6 The gates of the riuers shalbe opened, and the palace shall melt.

7 And Huzzab the Queene shall be led away captiue, and her maides shall leade her as with the voyce of doues smiting vpon their breasts.

8 But Nineueh is g of olde like a poole of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they crie: but none shall looke backe.

9 h Spoyle ye the siluer, spoyle the gold: for there is none end of the store, and glorie of all the pleasant vessels.

10 i She is emptie and void, and waste, and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and sorow is in all loynes, and the faces k of them all gather blacknesse.

11 Where is the l dwelling of the lyons, and the pasture of the lyons whelps? where the lyon and the lyonesse walked, and the lyons whelpe, and none made them afraid.

12 The lyon did teare in pieces enough for his whelpes, and wooged for his lyonesse, and filled his holes with praye, and his dennes with spoyle.

a That is, Nebuchad-nezzar is in a readinesse to destroy the Assyrians: and the Prophet derideth the enterprises of the Assyrians, which prepared to resist him.
b Seeing God hath punished his owne people Iudah and Israel, he wil now punish the enemies by whom hee scourged them: reade Isa. 10.12.
c Signifying, that the Israelites were vtterly destroyed.
d Both to feare the enemie, and also that they themselues should not soone espie blood one of another to discourage them.
e Meaning, their speares should shake and crash together.
f Then the Assyrians shall seeke by all meanes to gather their power, but all things shall faile them.
g The Assyrians will flatter themselues and say that Nineueh is so ancient that it can neuer perish, and is as a fishpoole, whose waters they that walke on the banks cannot touch: but they shalbe scattered, and shall not looke backe though men would call them.
h God commaundeth the enemies to spoyle Nineueh, and promiseth them infinite riches and treasures.
i That is, Nineueh and the men thereof shalbe after this sort.
k Reade Ioel 2.6.
l Meaning Nineueh, whose inhabitants were cruel like the lyons, and giuen to all oppression, and spared no violence or tyrannie to prouide for their wiues and children.

13 Behold,

13 Behold, I come vnto thee, ſaith the Lord of hoſtes, and I wil burne her charets in the m ſmoke, and the ſword ſhall deuoure the yong lyons, and I will cut off thy ſpoyle from the earth, and the voyce of thy n meſſengers ſhall no more be heard.

m That is, as ſoone as my wrath beginneth to kindle.
n Signifying the heraldes, which were accuſtomed to proclaime warre. Some reade of thy gumme teeth, wherewith Nineueh was wont to bruiſe the bones of the poore.

CHAP III.

Of the fall of Nineueh, 8 No power can eſcape the hand of God.

O Bloodie citie, it is all full of lyes, and robberie: a the praye departeth not:
2 The noyſe of a whip, b and the noiſe of the mouing of the wheeles, & the beating of the horſes, and the leaping of the charets.
3 The horſeman lifteth vp both the bright ſword, and the glittering ſpeare, and a multitude is ſlaine, and the dead bodies are many: there is none end of their coppes: they ſtumble vpon their coppes.
4 Becauſe of the multitude of the fornications of the c harlot that is beautifull, and is a miſtreſſe of witchcraft, and ſelleth the people through her whoredome, and the nations through her witchcrafts:
5 Behold, I come vpon thee, ſaith the Lord of hoſtes, and will diſcouer thy ſkirts, vpon thy face, and will ſhew the nations thy filthineſſe, and the kingdomes thy ſhame.
6 And I wil caſt filth vpon thee, & make thee vile, and wil ſet thee as a gaſing ſtocke.
7 And it ſhall come to paſſe, that all they that looke vpon thee, ſhall flee from thee, and ſay, Nineueh is deſtroyed, who will haue pitie vpon her? where ſhall I ſeeke comforters for thee?
8 Art thou better then d No, which was full of people, that lay in the riuers, and had the waters round about it? whoſe ditch was the ſea, and her wall was from the ſea?
9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her ſtrength, and there was none end: Put and Lubim were ‖ her helpers.
10 Yet was ſhee caryed away, and went into captiuitie: her yong children alſo were daſhed in pieces at the head of al the ſtreets: and they caſt lots for her noble men, and all her mightie men were bound in chaines.
11 Alſo thou ſhalt be dronken: thou ſhalt hide thy ſelfe, and ſhalt ſeeke helpe, becauſe of the enemie.
12 All thy ſtrong cities ſhalbe like figge trees with the firſt ripe figs: for if they bee ſhaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater.
13 Behold, thy people within thee are women: the gates of thy land ſhall be opened vnto thine enemies, and the fire ſhall deuoure thy barres.
14 Draw thee waters for the ſiege: fortifie thy ſtrong holdes: go into the clay, and temper the morter: make ſtrong bricke.
15 There ſhall the fire deuoure thee: the ſword ſhall cut thee off: it ſhall eate thee vp like the e locuſtes, though thou be multiplied like the locuſts, and multiplied like the graſhopper.
16 Thou haſt multiplied thy merchants aboue the ſtarres of heauen: the locuſt ſpoyleth and flieth away.
17 Thy princes are as the graſhoppers, and thy captaines as the great graſhoppers which remaine in the hedges in the colde day: but when the ſunne ariſeth, they flee away, and their place is not knowen where they are.
18 Thy f ſheepheards doe ſleepe, O King of Aſſhur: thy ſtrong men lie downe: thy people is ſcattered vpon the mountaines, and no man gathereth them.
19 There is no healing of thy wound: thy plague is grieuous: all that heare the bruite of thee ſhall clap the hands ouer thee: for vpon g whom hath not thy malice paſſed continually.

c He compareth Nineueh to an harlot, which by her beautie and ſubtiltie entiſeth yong men, and bringeth them to deſtruction.
d Meaning, Alexandria, which was in league with ſo many nations, and yet was now deſtroyed.
e Signifying that Gods iudgements ſhall ſuddenly deſtroy the Aſſyrians, as theſe vermine are with raine or change of weather.
f Thy princes and counſellers.
g Meaning, that there was no people to whom the Aſſyrians had not done hurt.

Habakkuk.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe Prophet complaineth vnto God, conſidering the great ſel citie of the wicked, and the miſerable oppreſſion of the godly, which endure al kinde of affliction and crueltie, and yet can ſee none end. Therefore he had this reuelation ſhewed him of God, that the Caldeans ſhould come and take them away captiues, ſo that they could looke for non end of their troubles as yet, becauſe of their ſtubburnneſſe and rebellion againſt the Lord. And leaſt the godly ſhould deſpaire, ſeeing this horrible confuſion, he comforteth them by this that God wil puniſh the Caldeans their enemies, when their pride and crueltie ſhalbe at height: wherefore he exhorteth the faithfull to patience by his owne example, and ſheweth them a forme of prayer, wherewith they ſhould comfort themſelues.

CHAP. I.

2 A complaint againſt the wicked that perſecute the iuſt.

THe burden which Habakkuk the Prophet did ſee.
2 O Lord, how long ſhall I crie, & thou wilt not heare! euen cry out vnto thee a for violence, & thou wilt not helpe!
3 Why doeſt thou ſhew me iniquitie, and cauſe mee to behold ſorow? for ſpoiling, and violence are before mee: and there are that raiſe vp ſtrife and contention.
4 Therefore the law is diſſolued, and iudgement doeth neuer go forth: for the wicked doeth b compaſſe about the righteous; therefore c wrong iudgement proceedeth.
5 Behold among the heathen, and regard, and wonder, and maruaile: for I will worke a worke in your dayes: d ye will not beleeue it, though it be told you.
6 For loe, I raiſe vp the Caldeans: that bitter and furious nation, which ſhall goe vpon the breadth of the land to poſſeſſe the dwelling places, that are not theirs.

a The Prophet complaineth vnto God, and bewaileth that among the Iewes is left none equitie nor brotherly loue: but in ſtead hereof reigneth crueltie, theft, contention and ſtrife.
b To ſuppreſſe him if any ſhould ſhew himſelfe zealous of Gods cauſe.
c Becauſe the iudges which ſhould redreſſe this exceſſe, are as euill as the reſt.
d As in times paſt you would not beleeue Gods word, ſo ſhall ye not now beleeue the ſtrange plagues which are at hand.

e They themselues shalbe your Iudges in this cause, and none shall haue authoritie ouer them, to controll them. Zeph. 3. 3.

f For the Iewes most feared this winde, because it destroyed their fruites.

g They shalbe so many in number.

h They shall cast vp mounts against it.

i The Prophet comforteth the faithful that God will also destroy the Babylonians, because they shall abuse his victory & become proud and insolent, attributing the praise hereof to their idoles.

k He assureth the godly of Gods protection, shewing that the enemie can doe no more then God hath appoynted, and also that their sinnes required such a sharpe rod.

l So that the great world.

7 They are terrible and fearefull: e their iudgement and their dignitie shall proceede of themselues.

8 Their horses also are swifter then the Leopards, & are more fierce then the wolues in the * euening: & their horsemen are many: & their horsemen shall come from farre: they shall flie as the eagle hasting to meate.

9 They come all to spoyle: before their faces shall be an f East winde, and they shall gather the captiuitie, as the sand.

10 And they shall mocke the Kings, and the Princes shall be a ieome vnto them: they shall deride euery strong hold: for they shall gather g dust, and take it.

11 Then shall they h take a courage, and transgresse and doe wickedly, imputing this their power vnto their god.

12 Art not thou of old, O Lord my God, mine holy one? we shall i not die, O Lord, thou hast ordeined them for iudgement, & O God, thou hast stablished them for correction.

13 Thou art of pure eyes, and canst not see euill: thou canst not beholde wickednesse: wherefore doest thou looke vpon the transgressors, and holdest thy tongue, when the wicked deuoureth the man, that is more righteous then he?

14 And makest men as the l fishes of the Sea, and as the creeping things, that haue no ruler ouer them.

15 They take vp all with the angle: they catch it in their net, and gather it in their yarne, whereof they reioyce and are glad.

16 Therefore they sacrifice vnto their m net, and burne incense vnto their yarne, because by them their portion is fat, and their meate plenteous.

17 Shal they therfore stretch out their net & not spare continually to slay n the nations?

l So that the great world. m Meaning, that the enemies flatter themselues, & glory in their owne force, power, & wit. n Meaning, that they should not deuoureth the small, and the Caldeans destroy all the world.

CHAP. II.

2 A vision, 5 against pride, e vnrighteousnesse, drunkennesse, and idolatrie.

a I wil renounce mine owne iudgment, and onely depend on God to be instructed what I shall answere them that abuse my preaching, and to be armed against all tentations.

b Write it in great letters, that he that runneth, may reade it.

c Which contei-

I Will stand vpon my a watch, and set mee vpon the towre, and will looke & see what he would say vnto me, and what I shall answere to him that rebuketh me.

2 And the Lord answered mee and sayd, Write the vision, and make it plaine vpon tables, that he may runne b that readeth it,

3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the c last it shall speake, and not lie: though it tarie, wait: for it shall surely come, and shall not stay.

4 Beholde, d he that lifteth vp himselfe, his minde is not vpright in him, but the iust shall liue by his faith.

5 Yea, in deede the proud man is as e hee that transgresseth by wine: therfore shall he not indure, because he hath inlarged his desire as the hell, and is as death, and can not be satisfied, but gathereth vnto him all nations, and heapeth vnto him all people.

6 Shall not all these take vp a parable against him, and a taunting prouerbe against him, & say, Ho, he that increaseth that which is not his: f how long? and hee that laden himselfe with thicke clay?

7 Shall s they not rise vp suddenly, that shall bite thee? and awake, that shall stirre thee? and thou shalt be their pray.

8 Because thou hast spoyled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoyle thee, because of mens blood, and for the wrong done in the lande, in the citie, and vnto all that dwell therein.

9 Ho, he that coueteth an euill couetousnesse to his house, that he may set his nest on hie, to escape from the power of euill.

10 Thou h hast consulted shame to thine owne house by destroying many people, and hast sinned against thine owne soule.

11 For the i stone shal crie out of the wal, and the beame out of the timber shall answere it.

12 Wo vnto him that buildeth a towne with blood, and erecteth a citie by iniquitie.

13 Behold, is it not of the k Lord of hosts, that the people shall labour in the very fire? the people shall euen wearie themselues for very vanitie.

14 For the earth shall be l filled with the knowledge of the glorie of the Lord, as the waters couer the sea.

15 Wo vnto him that giueth his neighbour m drinke: thou poynest thine heate, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest see their priuities.

16 Thou art filled with shame n for glorie: drinke thou also, and be made naked: the cup of the Lords right hand shall be turned vnto thee, and shamefull spuing shall be for thy glory.

17 For the o crueltie of Lebanon shall couer thee: so shall the spoyle of the beastes, which made them afraid, because of mens blood, and for the wrong done in the land, in the citie, and vnto all that dwell therein.

18 What profiteth the p image? for the maker thereof hath made it an image, and a teacher of lies, though he that made it, trust therein, when he maketh dumme idoles.

19 Wo vnto him that saith to the wood, Awake, and to the dumme stone, Rise vp, it shall teach thee: q behold, it is laide f Signifying, that all the world shall wish the destruction of tyrants, and that by their oppressiō & couetousnes, they heape but vpon themselues more heauy burdens: for the more they get, the more are they troubled.

g That is, the Medes and Persians, that should destroy the Babylonians?

h Signifying, that the couetous man is the ruine of his owne house, when as he thinketh to enrich it by crueltie and oppression, i The stones of the house shall cry, and say that they are buile of blood, and the wood shall answere and say the same of it selfe.

k Meaning, that God will not deferre his vengeance long, but will come and destroy all their labours, as though they were consumed with fire.

l In the destruction of the Babylonians his glory shall appeare through all the world.

m He reproacheth thus the King of Babylon, who as hee was drunken with couetousnesse and crueltie, so he prouoked others to the same, and inflamed them by his rage, and so in the ende brought them to shame.

n Whereas thou thoughtest to haue glory of these thy doings, they shall turne to thy shame: for thou shalt drinke of the same cuppe with others in thy turne.

o Because the Babylonians were cruell not onely against other nations, but also against the people of God, which is meant by Lebanon, and the beastes therein, hee sheweth that the like crueltie shall be executed against them.

p Hee sheweth that the Babylonians gods could nothing auaile them: for they were but blockes or stones, reade Ierem. 10. 8.

q If thou wilt consider what it is, and how that it hath neither breath nor life, but is a dead thing.

ouer with golde and siluer, and there is no breath in it.

20 But the Lord is in his holy Temple: let all the earth keepe silence before him.

CHAP. III.

A prayer for the faithfull.

A Prayer of Habakkuk the Prophet for the [a] ignorances.

2 [b] O Lord, I haue heard thy voyce, and was afraid: O Lord, reuiue thy [c] worke in the middes of the people, in the middes of the yeeres make it knowen: in wrath remember mercie.

3 God commeth from [d] Teman, and the holy one from mount Paran, Selah. his glorie coureth the heauens, and the earth is full of his praise,

4 And his brightnesse was as the light: [e] hee had hornes comming out of his handes, and there was the hiding of his power.

5 Before him went the pestilence, and burning coales went foorth before his feete.

6 Hee stoode and measured the earth: he beheld and dissolued the nations, and the euerlasting mountaines were broken, and the ancient hilles did bowe: his [f] wayes are euerlasting.

7 [g] For his iniquitie I sawe the tents of Cushan, and the curtaines of the land of Midian did tremble.

8 Was the Lord angry against the [h] riuers? or was thine anger against the floods? or was thy wrath against the sea, that thou diddest ride vpon thine horses? thy charets brought saluation.

9 Thy [i] bowe was manifestly reuealed, and the [k] othes of the tribes were a sure word, Selah. thou [l] diddest cleaue the earth with riuers.

10 The mountaines sawe thee, and they trembled: the streame of the water [m] passed by: the deepe made a noyse, and lift vp his hand on hie.

11 The [n] Sunne and Moone stood still in their habitation: [o] at the light of thine arrowes they went, and at the bright shining of thy speares.

12 Thou trodest downe [p] land in anger, and diddest thresh the heathen in displeasure.

13 Thou wentest foorth for the saluation of thy people, euen for saluation with thine [q] Anoynted: thou hast wounded the head of the house of the wicked, and discouered the foundations vnto the [r] necke, Selah.

14 Thou diddest [s] strike thorow with his owne staues the heads of his villages: they came out as a whirle winde to scatter mee: their reioycing was as to deuoure the poore secretly.

15 Thou diddest walke in the sea, with thine horses vpon the heape of great waters.

16 When I [t] heard, my belly trembled: my lippes shooke at the voyce: rottennesse entred into my bones, and I trembled in my selfe, that I might rest in [u] the day of trouble: for when he commeth vp [x] into the people, he shall destroy them.

17 For the figge tree shall not flourish, neither shall fruitte be in the vines: the labour of the Oliue shall faile, and the fields shall yeeld no meat: the sheepe shall be cutte off from the folde, and there shall be no bullocke in the stalles.

18 But [y] I will reioyce in the Lord: I will ioy in the God of my saluation.

19 The Lord God is my strength: he will make my [z] feete like hindes feete, and he will make mee to walke vpon mine hie places.

[z] To the chiefe singer on Neginoth.

a The Prophet instructeth his people to pray vnto God not onely for their great sinnes, but also for such as they had committed of ignorance.

b Thus the people were afraid when they heard Gods threatnings, & praied.

c That is, the state of thy Church which is now ready to perish, before it come to halfe a perfect age, which should be vnder Christ.

d Teman and Paran were neere Sinai where the Law was giuen: whereby is signified that his deliuerance was as present nowe as it was then.

e Whereby is meant a power that was ioyned with his brightnesse, which was hidde to the rest of the worlde, but was reuealed in mount Sinai to his people, Psalm 31.16.

f Signifying that God had wonderfull meanes, and euer had a marueilous power when hee woulde deliuer his Church.

g The iniquitie of this King of Syria in vexing the people, was made manifest by thy iudgement, to the comfort of thy Church, Iudg.3.10. and also of the Midianites, which destroyed themselues, Iudges 7. 22.

h Meaning, that God was not angrie with the waters, but that by this meanes he would destroy his enemies and deliuer his Church.

i And so diddest vse all the elements as instruments for the destruction of thine enemies.

k That is, thy power.

l For hee had not onely made a couenant with Abraham, but renued it with his posteritie.

m Reade Num. 20.11.

n He alludeth to the red sea and Iorden, which gaue passage to Gods people, & shewed signes of their obedience, as it were by lifting vp of their hands.

o As appeareth, Iosh.10.12.

p According to thy commandement the sunne was directed by the weapons of thy people, that fought in thy cause, as though it durst not goe forward.

q Signifying that there is no saluation but by Christ.

r From the top to the toe thou hast destroyed the enemies.

s God destroyed his enemies both great and small with their owne weapons, though they were neuer so fierce against his Church.

t He returneth to that which he spake in the second verse, and sheweth how he was afraid of Gods iudgements.

u Hee sheweth that the faithfull can neuer haue true rest, except they feele before the weight of Gods iudgements.

x That is, the enemie: but the godly thalbe quiet, knowing that all things shall turne to good vnto them.

y He declareth wherein stande h the comfort and ioy of the faithfull, though they see neuer so great afflictions prepared.

z The chiefe singer vpon the instruments of musicke shall haue occasion to praise God for this great deliuerance of his Church.

Zephaniah.

THE ARGVMENT.

SEeing the great rebellion of the people, and that there was now no hope of amendement, hee denounceth the great iudgement of God, which was at hand, shewing that their countrey should be vtterly destroyed, and they caried away captiues by the Babylonians. Yet for the comfort of the faithfull, he prophesied of Gods vengeance against their enemies, as the Philistims, Moabites, Assyrians and others, to assure them that God had a continual care ouer them. And as the wicked should be punished for their sinnes and transgressions: so he exhorteth the godly to patience, and to trust to finde mercie by reason of the free promise of God made vnto Abraham: & therefore quietly to abide till God shew them the effect of that grace, whereby in the ende they should be gathered vnto him, and counted as his people and children.

CHAP. I.

4 Threatnings againſt Iudah and Ieruſalem, becauſe of their idolatrie.

THe word of the Lorde which came vnto Zephaniah the ſonne of Cuſhi, the ſonne of Gedaliah, the ſonne of Amariah, the ſonne of Hizkiah, in the dayes of * Iosiah, the ſonne of * Amon king of Iudah.

2. King. 22. 1. 2. King. 21. 19.

2 I will ſurely deſtroy all things from off the land, ſaith the Lord.

3 I will deſtroy man and beaſt: I will deſtroy the [a] foules of the heauen, and the fiſhes of the ſea, and rumes ſhalbe to the wicked, & I will cut off man from off the land, ſaith the Lord.

a Not that God was angry with theſe dumme creatures, but becauſe man was ſo wicked for whoſe cauſe they were created, God maketh them to take part of the puniſhment with him.

4 I will alſo ſtretch out mine hande vpon Iudah, and vpon all the inhabitants of Ieruſalem, and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the [b] Chemarims with the Prieſts, b Which were an order of ſuperſtitious prieſts appointed to miniſter in the ſeruice of Baal, and were as his peculiar chaplaines, reade 2. King. 23. 5. Hoſea 10. 5.

5 And them that worſhip the hoſte of heauen vpon the houſe tops, and them that worſhip and ſweare by the Lorde, & ſweare by [c] Malcham, c He alludeth to their idole Molech, which was forbidden, Leuit. 20. 2. yet they called him their king, and made him as a God: therefore he here noteth them that will both ſay they worſhip God, and yet will ſweare by idoles, and ſerue them: which halting is here condemned, as Ezek. 20. 39. 1. Kings 18. 21. 2. Kings 17. 33.

6 And them that are turned backe from the Lord, and thoſe that haue not ſought the Lord, nor inquired for him.

7 Bee ſtill at the preſence of the Lorde God: for the day of the Lorde is at hand: for the Lord hath prepared a ſacrifice, and hath ſanctified his gheſts.

8 And it ſhalbe in the day of the Lords ſacrifice, that I will viſite the princes and the kings children, and all ſuch as are cloſhed with [d] ſtrange apparell.

d Meaning, the courtiers, which did imitate the ſtrange apparell of other Nations to winne their ſauour thereby, and to appeare glorious in the eyes of all other, Reade Ezek. 23. 14.

9 In the ſame day alſo will I viſite all thoſe that [e] dannce vpon the threſhold ſo proudly, which fill their maſters houſes by cruelty and deceite.

e Hee meaneth the ſeruants of the rulers which inuade other mens houſes, and reioyce and leape for ioy when they can get any pray to pleaſe their maſter withal.

10 And in that day, ſayeth the Lord, there ſhall bee a noyſe, and crye from the [f] fiſh gate, and an howling from the ſecond gate, and a great deſtruction from the hilles.

f Signifying that all the corners of the citie of Ieruſalem ſhould be ful of trouble.

11 Howle yee inhabitants of [g] the low place: for the company of the marchants is deſtroyed: all they that beare ſiluer are cut off.

g This is meant of the ſtreete of the marchants which was lower then the reſt of the place about it.

12 And at that time will I ſearch Ieruſalem with [h] lights, and viſite the men that are froſen [i] in their dregs, and ſay in their hearts, The Lord will neither doe good nor doe euill.

h So that nothing ſhal eſcape me.

i By their proſperitie they are hardened in their wickednes, Deut. 28. 30. Amos 5. 11.

13 Therefore their goods ſhalbe ſpoyled, and their houſes waſte: * they ſhall alſo builde houſes, but not inhabite them, and they ſhall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

14 The great day of the Lorde is neere: it is neere and haſteth greatly, euen the voyce of the day of the Lord: [k] the ſtrong man ſhall crye there bitterly.

k They that truſted in their owne ſtrength and contemned the Prophets of God.

15 * That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and beaumes, a day of deſtruction and deſolation, a day of obſcuritie & darkeneſſe, a day of cloudes and blackneſſe, Ier. 30. 7. Ioel. 2. 11. Amos 5. 18.

16 A day of the trumpet and alarme againſt the ſtrong cities, and againſt the hie towers.

17 And I will bring diſtreſſe vpon men, that they ſhal walke like blind men, becauſe they haue ſinned againſt the Lord, and their blood ſhall be powred out as duſt, and their fleſh as the doung.

18 * Neither their ſiluer nor their golde ſhalbe able to deliuer them in the day of the Lords wrath, but the * whole land ſhall bee deuoured by the fire of his iealouſie: for hee ſhall make euen a ſpeedie riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

Ezek. 7. 19. Chap. 3. 8.

CHAP. II.

He exhorteth to returne to God, 5 propheſying deſtruction againſt the Philiſtims, Moabites, and others.

GAther [a] your ſelues, euen gather you, O nation not worthy to be loued, a He exhorteth them to repentance, and willeth them to deſcend into themſelues and gather themſelues together, leaſt they bee ſcattered like chaffe.

2 Before the decree come forth, and ye be as chaffe that paſſeth in a day, and before the fierce wrath of the Lord come vpon you, and before the day of the Lords anger come vpon you.

3 Seeke yee the Lord all the meeke of the earth, which haue [b] wrought his iudgement: ſeeke righteouſneſſe, ſeeke lowlineſſe, if ſo be that yee may be hid in the day of the Lords wrath.

b That is, which haue liued vprightly, and godly, according as he preſcribeth by his word.

4 For [c] Azzah ſhall be forſaken, and Aſhkelon deſolate: they ſhall driue out Aſhdod at the noone day, and Ekron ſhall be rooted vp.

c He comforteth the faithfull in that, that God woulde change his puniſhments from them vnto the Philiſtims their enemies and other nations.

5 Woe vnto the inhabitants of the ſea [d] coaſt: the nations of Cherethims, the word of the Lord is againſt you: O Canaan, the land of the Philiſtims, I will euen deſtroy thee without an inhabitant.

d That is, Galilea: by theſe nations hee meaneth the people that dwelt neere to the Iewes, and in ſtead of friendſhip were their enemies: wherefore hee

6 And the ſea coaſt ſhalbe dwellings, and cottages for ſhepheards and ſhepefoldes.

7 And that coaſt ſhall be for the [e] remnant of the houſe of Iudah to feede thereupon: in the houſes of Aſhkelon ſhall they lodge toward night: for the Lorde their God ſhall viſit them, and turne away their captiuitie.

e He ſheweth why God would deſtroy their enemies, becauſe their countrey might be a reſting place for his Church.

8 I haue heard the reproch of Moab, and the rebukes of the children of Ammon, whereby they vpbraided my people, and [f] magnified themſelues againſt their borders.

f Theſe nations preſumed to take from the Iewes that countrey which the Lord had giuen them.

9 Therefore as I liue, ſayeth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, ſurely Moab ſhalbe calleth them Canaanites whome the Lorde appoynted to be ſlaine.

ſhalbe as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorah, euen the breeding of nettles and ſalt pits, and a perpetuall deſolation: the reſidue of my folke ſhall ſpoyle them, and the remnant of my people ſhal poſſeſſe them.

10 This ſhall they haue for their pride, becauſe they haue reproched, and magnified themſelues againſt the Lord of hoſts people.

11 The Lord will be terrible vnto thē: for he will conſume all the gods of the earth, and euery man ſhall worſhip him frō his place, euen all the yles of the heathen.

g When he ſhal deliuer his people and deſtroy their enemies and idoles, his glory ſhall ſhine throughout all the world.

12 Ye Morians alſo ſhalbe ſlaine by my ſword with them.

13 And hee will ſtretch out his hand againſt the North, and deſtroy Aſſhur, and will make Nineueh deſolate, and waſte like a wildernes.

14 And flockes ſhall lie in the middes of her, and all the beaſts of the nations, and the h pelicane, and the ‖ Owle ſhall abide in the vpper poſtes of it: the voyce of birdes ſhall ſing in the windowes, and deſolations ſhall bee vpon the poſtes: for the cedars are vncouered.

h Reade Iſa. 34.11. ‖ Or, hedgehogge.

15 This is the i reioycing citie that dwelt careleſſe, that ſaide in her heart, I am, and there is none beſides mee: howe is ſhe made waſte, and the lodging of the beaſts! euery one that paſſeth by her, ſhal hiſſe and wagge his hand.

i Meaning, Nineueh, which reioycing ſo much of her ſtrength and proſperity ſhould be thus made waſte and Gods people deliuered.

CHAP. III.

4 Againſt the gouernours of Ieruſalem, 8 Of the calling of all the Gentiles, 13 A comfort to the reſidue of Iſrael.

WOe to her that is filthie and polluted, to the robbing a citie.

a That is, Ieruſalem. Ezek. 22.25,27. micah 3.11. Habac. 1.8.

2 She heard not the voyce: ſhe receiued not correction: ſhee truſted not in the Lord: ſhe drew not neere to her God.

3 Her princes within her are as roaring * Lions: her iudges are as * Wolues in the euening, which b leaue not the bones till the morowe.

b They are ſo greedy that they eate vp bones and all.

4 Her prophets are light, & wicked perſons: her prieſts haue polluted the ſanctuarie: they haue wreſted the Lawe.

c The wicked thus boaſted that God was euer among them, but the Prophet anſwereth that that cannot excuſe their wickednes: for God wil not beare with their ſinnes: yet that he did patiently abide and ſent his prophets continually to call them to repentance, but he profited nothing.

5 The c iuſt Lord is in the mids thereof: hee will doe none iniquitie: euery morning doeth hee bring his iudgement to light, hee faileth not: but the wicked will not learne to be aſhamed.

6 I haue d cut off the nations: their towers are deſolate: I haue made their ſtreets waſte, that none ſhall paſſe by: their cities are deſtroyed without man and without inhabitant.

d By the deſtruction of other nations, he ſheweth that the Iewes ſhould haue learned to feare God, 7 I ſaid, Surely thou wilt feare me: thou wilt receiue inſtruction: ſo their dwelling ſhould not be deſtroied howſoeuer I viſited them, but e they roſe early and corrupted all their workes.

e They were moſt earneſt and ready to doe wickedly.

8 Therefore f waite ye vpon me, ſaith the Lord, vntill the day that I riſe vp to the pray: for I am determined to gather the nations, and that I will aſſemble the kingdoms to powre vpon them mine indignation, euen all my fierce wrath: for all the earth ſhalbe deuoured with the fire of my iealouſie.

f Seeing ye will not repent, you ſhall looke for my vengeance alwell as other nations.

9 Surely g then will I turne to the people a pure language, that they may all call vpon the name of the Lord, to ſerue him ‡ with one conſent.

g Leaſt any ſhould thinke then that Gods glorie ſhould haue periſhed when Iudah was deſtroyed, hee ſheweth that he wil publiſh his grace though all the world.

‡ Ebr. with one ſhoulder, as Hoſe. 6.9.

10 From beyonde the riuers of Ethiopia, the h daughter of my diſperſed, prayng vnto me, ſhal bring me an offering.

h That is, the Iewes ſhall come as well as the Gentiles: which is to be vnderſtood vnder the time of the Goſpel.

11 In that day ſhalt thou not be aſhamed for i all thy works, wherein thou haſt tranſgreſſed againſt me: for then I will take away out of the mids of thee them that reioyce of thy pride, and thou ſhalt no more be proud of mine holy mountaine.

i For they ſhall haue full remiſſion of their ſinnes: and the hypocrites which boaſted of the Temple, which was alſo thy pride in time paſt, ſhall be taken from thee.

12 Then will I leaue in the mids of thee an humble and poore people: and they ſhall truſt in the Name of the Lord.

13 The remnant of Iſrael ſhall doe none iniquitie, nor ſpeake lies: neither ſhall a deceitfull tongue be found in their mouth: for they ſhall be fedde, and lie downe, and none ſhall make them afrayed.

14 Reioyce, O daughter Zion: be pe ioyfull, O Iſrael: be glad and reioyce with all thine heart, O daughter Ieruſalem.

15 The Lorde hath taken away thy k iudgements: he hath caſt out thine l enemie: the King of Iſrael, euen the Lorde is in the mids of m thee: thou ſhalt ſee no more euill.

k That is, the puniſhment for thy ſinne.

l As the Aſſyrians, Caldeans, Egyptians and other nations.

16 In that day it ſhall be ſaid to Ieruſalem, Feare thou not, O Zion: let not thine hands be faint.

17 The Lorde thy God in the middes of thee is mighte: he will ſaue, he will reioyce ouer thee with ioy: he will quiet himſelfe in n his loue: hee will reioyce ouer thee with ioy.

m To defend thee, as by thy ſinnes thou haſt put him away and left thy ſelfe naked, as Exod. 32.25.

n Signifying, that God delighteth to ſhew his loue and great affection toward his Church.

18 After a certeine time will I gather the afflicted that were of thee, and them that bare the reproch for o it.

o That is, them that were had in hatred and reuiled for the Church, and becauſe of their religion.

19 Beholde, at that time I will bruiſe all that afflict thee, and I will p ſaue her that halteth, and gather her that was caſt out, and I will get them praiſe and fame in all the q lands of their ſhame.

p I will deliuer the Church which now is afflicted, as Micah. 4.6.

q As among the Aſſyrians & Caldeans which did mocke them, and put them to ſhame.

20 At that time wil I bring you againe, and then will I gather you: for I will giue you a name and a prayſe among all people of the earth, when I turne backe your captiuitie before your eyes, ſayth the Lord.

Haggai.

THE ARGVMENT.

WHen the time of the seuentie yeeres captiuitie propheſied by Ieremiah, was expired, God raiſed vp Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi to comfort the Iewes and to exhort them to the building of the Temple, which was a figure of the ſpirituall Temple and Church of God, whoſe perfection and excellencie ſtood in Chriſt. And becauſe that al were giuen to their owne pleaſures, & commodities, he declareth that that plague of famine, which God ſent then among them, was a iuſt reward of their ingratitude, in that they contemned Gods honour, who had deliuered them. Yet he comforteth them, if they will returne to the Lord, with the promiſe of greater felicitie, foraſmuch as the Lord will finiſh the worke that hee hath begun, and ſend Chriſt whom hee had promiſed, and by whom they ſhould attaine to perfite ioy and glory.

CHAP. I.

1 The time of the propheſie of Haggai. 8 An exhortation to build the Temple againe.

IN the ſecond yere of king [a] Darius, in the firſt moneth, the firſt day of the moneth, came the word of the Lord (by the miniſterie of the Prophet Haggai) vnto Zerubbabel the ſonne of Shealtiel, a prince of Iudah, and to Iehoſhua the ſonne of Iehozadak the hie Prieſt, ſaying,

2 Thus ſpeaketh the Lord of hoſts, ſaying, this people ſay, The time is not yet come, [c] that the Lords houſe ſhould be builded.

3 Then came the word of the Lord by the miniſterie of the Prophet Haggai, ſaying,

4 Is it time for you [d] ſelues to dwell in your ſeeled houſes, & this houſe lie waſte?

5 Now therefore thus ſaith the Lord of hoſts, Conſider your owne wayes in your hearts.

6 [e] Ye haue ſowen much, and bring in little: ye eate, but ye haue not enough: ye drinke, but ye are not filled: ye clothe you, but ye be not warme: and he that earneth wages, putteth the wages into a broken bag.

7 Thus ſaith the Lord of hoſts, Conſider your owne wayes in your hearts.

8 Goe [f] vp to the mountaine, and bring wood, and build this houſe, and [g] I will be fauourable in it, and I will [h] be glorified, ſaith the Lord.

9 Ye looked for much, and lo, it came to little: and when ye brought it home, I did blowe [i] vpon it. And why, ſaith the Lord of hoſts? Becauſe of mine houſe that is waſte, and ye runne euery man vnto his owne houſe.

10 Therefore the heauen ouer you ſtaied it ſelfe from dewe, and the earth ſtaied her fruite.

11 And I called for a drought vpon the land, and vpon the mountaines, and vpon the corne, and vpon the wine, and vpon the oyle, vpon al that the ground bringeth forth: both vpon men and vpon cattell, and vpon all the labour of the hands.

12 Then Zerubbabel the ſonne of Shealtiel, and Iehoſhua the ſonne of Iehozadak the hie Prieſt with all the remnant of the people, heard the [k] voyce of the Lord their God, and the words of the Prophet Haggai (as the Lord their God had ſent him) then the people did feare before the Lord.

13 Then ſpake Haggai the Lords meſſenger in the Lords meſſage vnto the people, ſaying, I am with you, ſaith the Lord.

14 And the Lord ſtirred vp the [l] ſpirit of Zerubbabel, the ſonne of Shealtiel a prince of Iudah, and the ſpirit of Iehoſhua the ſonne of Iehozadak the hie Prieſt, and the ſpirit of all the remnant of the people, and they came, and did the worke in the houſe of the Lord of hoſts their God.

a Who was the ſonne of Hyſtaſpes, and the third king of the Perſians, as ſome thinke.

b Becauſe the building of the Temple began to ceaſe by reaſon that the people were diſcouraged by their enemies: and if theſe two notable men had neede to be ſtirred vp and admoniſhed of their dueties, what ſhall we thinke of other gouernours, whoſe doings are either againſt God, or very colde in his cauſe?

c Not that they condemned the building thereof, but they preferred policie, and priuate profite to religion, being content w small beginnings.

d Shewing that they ſought not onely their neceſſities, but their very pleaſures, before Gods honour.

e Conſider the plagues of God vpon you for preferring your policies to his religion, and becauſe yee ſeeke not him firſt of all.

f Meaning, that they ſhoulde leaue off their owne commodities, and goe forward in the building of Gods Temple, and in the ſetting foorth of his religion.

g That is, I will heare your prayers according to my promiſe, 1. Kin. 8.21, 29.

h That is, my glory ſhall be ſet foorth by you, i And to bring it to nothing.

k This declared that God was the authour of the doctrine, & that he was but the miniſter, as Exo. 14.31. Iudg. 7. 20 Act. 15.28.

l Which declareth that men are vnapt and dull to ſerue the Lord, neither can they obey his word or his meſſengers before God reforme their hearts and giue them new ſpirits, Iohn 6,44.

CHAP. II.

Hee ſheweth that the glory of the ſecond Temple ſhall exceede the firſt.

IN the foure and twentieth day of the ſixt moneth, in the ſecond yeere of King Darius,

2 In the ſeuenth moneth, in the one and twentieth day of the moneth, came the word of the Lord by the miniſterie of the Prophet Haggai, ſaying,

3 Speake now to Zerubbabel the ſonne of Shealtiel prince of Iudah, and to Iehoſhua the ſonne of Iehozadak the high Prieſt, and to the reſidue of the people, ſaying,

4 Who is left among you, that ſaw this [a] House in her firſt glory, and how doe you ſee it now? Is it not in your eyes, in comparison of it, as nothing?

5 Yet now be of good courage, O Zerubbabel, ſaith the Lord, and be of good comfort, O Iehoſhua, ſonne of Iehozadak the hie Prieſt: and be ſtrong, all yee people of the land, ſaith the Lord, and [b] doe it: for I am with you ſaith the Lord of hoſts.

6 According to the word that I couenanted with you, when ye came out of Egypt: ſo my Spirite ſhall remaine among you, feare ye not.

7 For thus ſaith the Lord of hoſts, [c] Yet a little while, and I will ſhake the heauens and the earth, and the ſea, and the dry land:

a For the people, according as Iſa. 32.11. and Ezek. 41.1. had propheſied, thought this Temple ſhould haue been more excellent then Salomons Temple, which was deſtroyed by the Babylonians, but the Prophet ment the ſpirituall Temple, the Church of Chriſt.

b That is, goe forward in building the Temple.

c Herebyborteth them to patience though they ſee not as yet this Temple ſo glorious as the Prophets had declared: for this ſhould be accompliſhed in Chriſt by whom all things ſhould be renued.

8 And

d Meaning Christ, whom all ought to looke for and desire: or by desire, he may signifie all precious things, as riches and such like.

8 And I will moue all nations, and d the desire of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with glory, saith the Lord of hostes.

9 The e siluer is mine, and the golde is mine, saith the Lord of hostes.

10 The glory of this last house shall be greater then the first, saieth the Lord of hostes: and in this place will I giue f peace, saith the Lord of hostes.

11 ¶ In the foure and twentieth day of the ninth moneth, in the seconde yeere of Darius, came the word of the Lord vnto the Prophet Haggai, saying,

12 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, Aske now the Priests concerning the Law, & say, 13 If one beare g holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt doe touch the bread, or the pottage, or the wine, or oyle, or any meate, shall it be holy? and the Priests answered, and said, No.

14 Then said Haggai, If a polluted person touch any of these, shall it be vncleane? And the Priests answered, and said, It shall be vncleane.

15 Then answered Haggai, and saide, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the Lord: and so are all the workes of their hands, and that which they offer there, is vncleane.

16 And nowe, I pray you, consider in your mindes: from this h day, and afore, euen afore a stone was laide vpon a stone in the Temple of the Lord:

17 i Before these things were, when one came to an heape of twentie measures, there were but ten: when one came to the wine presse for to drawe out fifte vessels out of the presse, there were but twentie.

18 I smote you with blasting, and with mildewe, and with haile, in all the labours of your handes: yet you turned not to me, saith the Lord.

19 Consider, I pray you, in your minds, from k this day, and afore from the foure and twentieth day of the ninth moneth, euen from the day that the foundation of the Lordes Temple was laide: consider it in your minds.

20 Is the l seede yet in the barne? as yet the vine, and the figtree, and the pomegranate, and the olme tree hath not brought foorth: from this day will I blesse you.

21 And againe the worde of the Lorde came vnto Haggai in the foure and twentieth day of the moneth, saying, 22 Speake to Zerubbabel the prince of Iudah, and say, I m will shake the heauens and the earth.

23 And I will ouerthrowe the throne of kingdomes, and I will destroy the strength of the a kingdomes of the heathen, and I will ouerthrowe the charets, and those that ride in them, and the horse and the riders shall come downe, euery one by the sword of his brother.

24 In that day, saith the Lord of hostes, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel my seruant the sonne of Shealtiel, saith the Lord, and will make thee as a o signet: for I haue chosen thee, saith the Lord of hostes.

f Meaning, all spirituall blessings and felicitie purchased by Christ, Phil. 4.7.

g That is, the flesh of the sacrifices: whereby he signifieth that that thing, which of it selfe is good, cannot make another thing so: and therefore they ought not to iustifie themselues by their sacrifices and ceremonies: but contrary, he that is vncleane and not pure of heart, doeth corrupt those things and make them detestable vnto God, which else are good and godly.

h Consider howe God did plague you with famine afore you began to build the Temple.

i That is, before the building was beginne.

k From the time they began to build the Temple, he promiseth that God would blesse them: and albeit as yet the fruite was not come forth, yet in the gathering they should haue plentie.

l He exhorteth them to patience and to abide till the harueste came, and then they should see Gods blessings.

m I will make a change and renew all things in Christ of whom Zerubbabel here is a figure.

n Hereby he sheweth that there shalbe no let or hinderance when God will make this wonderful restitution of his Church.

o Signifying that his dignitie should be most excellent, which thing was accomplished in Christ.

Zechariah.

THE ARGVMENT.

TWo moneths after that Haggai had begunne to propheſie, Zechariah was alſo ſent of the Lord to helpe him in the labour, and to confirme the ſame doctrine. Firſt therefore hee putteth them in remembrance, for what cauſe God had ſo ſore puniſhed their fathers: and yet comforteth them, if they will repent vnfeinedly, and not abuſe this great benefite of God in their deliuerance, which was a figure of that true deliuerance, that all the faithfull ſhould haue from ſinne and death by Chriſt. But becauſe they ſtill remained in their wickednesſe and coldneſſe to ſet foorth Gods glory, and were not yet made better by their long baniſhment, hee rebuketh them moſt ſharply: yet for the comfort of the repentant, he euer mixeth the promiſe of grace, that they might by this meanes be prepared to receiue Chriſt, in whome all ſhould be ſanctified to the Lord.

CHAP. I.

2 He exhorteth the people to returne to the Lord, & to eſchew the wickednes of their fathers. 16 He ſignifieth the reſtitution of Ieruſalem and the Temple.

IN the eight moneth of the ſecond yeere of a Darius came the word of the Lord vnto b Zechariah the ſonne of Berechiah, the ſonne of Iddo the Prophet, ſaying, a Who was the ſonne of Hyſtaſpis.

b This was not that Zechariah, whereof is mention, 2. Chron. 24. 20. but had the ſame name, and is called the ſonne of Berechiah, as he was, becauſe he came of thoſe progenitors, as of Ioiada or Berechiah and Iddo.

2 The Lord hath bene ſore c diſpleaſed with your fathers.

c He ſpeaketh this to feare them with Gods iudgements that they ſhould not prouoke him, as their fathers had done, whome he ſo

3 Therefore ſay thou vnto them, Thus ſaith the Lord of hoſtes, d Turne you vnto mee, ſaith the Lord of hoſtes, and I will turne vnto you, ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes.

4 Be ye not as your fathers, vnto whom grieuouſly puniſhed.

d Let your fruites declare, that you are Gods people, and that he hath wrought in you by his ſpirit, and mortified you: for els man hath no power to returne to God, but God muſt conuert him, as Ierem. 31. 18. Lament. 5. 21. Iſaiah 21, 8. and 31, 6. and 45. 22.

the Iere. 3. 12. & Ezek. 18. 30. hose. 14. 2. ioel 2. 12.

the former * Prophets haue cryed, saying, Thus sayeth the Lorde of hostes, Turne you nowe from your euill wayes, and from your wicked workes: but they wouldne not heare, nor hearken vnto mee, sayeth the Lord.

5 Your fathers, where e are they? and do the Prophets liue for euer?

6 But did not my wordes and my statutes, which I commaunded by my seruants the Prophets, take holde of f your fathers? and s they returned, and sayde, As the Lorde of hostes hath determined to doe vnto vs, according to our owne wayes, and according to our workes, so hath hee dealt with vs.

7 Vpon the foure and twentieth day of the eleuenth moneth, which is the moneth h Shebat, in the second yeere of Darius, came the worde of the Lord vnto Zechariah the sonne of Berechiah, the sonne of Iddo the Prophet, saying,

8 I i sawe by night, and beholde k a man riding vpon a red horse, & hee stoode among the myrrhe trees that were in a bottome, and behinde him were there l redde horses speckled and white.

9 Then sayd I, O my Lorde, What are these? and the Angel that talked with mee, said vnto mee, I will shewe thee what these bee.

10 And the man that stoode among the myrrhe trees answered and sayde, These are they whome the Lorde hath sent to goe thorow the world.

11 And they answered the Angell of the Lorde, that stoode among the myrrhe trees, and sayd, We haue gone thorow the world: and beholde, all the worlde sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 Then the m Angel of the Lord answered and said, O Lorde of hostes, howe long wilt thou be vnmercifull to Ierusalem, and to the cities of Iudah, with whom thou hast bene displeased now, these threescore and ten yeeres?

13 And the Lorde answered the Angell that talked with me, with good wordes and comfortable words.

14 So the Angell that communed with me, sayde vnto mee, Crie thou, and speake, Thus sayeth the Lorde of hostes, I am n ielous ouer Ierusalem and Zion with a great zeale, 15 And am greatly angrie against the careleſſe heathen: for I was angrie but o a little, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord, I will returne vnto Ierusalem with tender mercie: mine house shall bee builded in it, sayeth the Lorde of hostes, and a line p shalbe stretched vpon Ierusalem.

17 Crye yet, and speake, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, My cities shall yet q bee blowen with plentie: the Lorde shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet chuse Ierusalem.

18 Then lift I vp mine eyes and sawe, and behold, r foure hornes.

19 And I sayde vnto the Angel that talked with mee, What be these? And hee answered me, These are the hornes which haue scattered Iudah, Israel, and Ierusalem.

20 And the Lord shewed me foure f carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he answered, and sayde, These are the hornes, which haue scattered Iudah, so that a man durst not lift vp his head: but these are come to fray them, and to cast out the hornes of the Gentiles, which lift vp their horne ouer the land of Iudah to scatter it.

e Though your fathers be dead, yet Gods iudgements in punishing them ought still to be before your eyes: and though the Prophets be dead, yet their doctrine remayneth for euer, 2. Pet. 1. 15.

f Seeing ye sawe the force of my doctrine in punishing your fathers, why doe not ye feare the threatnings conteyned in the same and declared by the Prophets?

g As men astonished with my iudgements, and not that they were touched with true repentance.

h Which conteineth part of Ianuarie and part of Februarie.

i This vision signifieth the restauration of the Church, but as yet it should not appeare to mans eyes, which is here meant by the night, by the bottome and by the myrrhe trees, which are blacke, and giue a darke shadowe: yet he compareth God to a King, who hath his postes and messengers abroad, by whom he still worketh his purpose & bringeth his matters to passe.

k Who was the chiefe among the rest of the horsemen.

l These signified the diuers offices of Gods Angels, by whom God sometime punisheth and sometime comforteth, and bringeth foorth his works in diuers sorts.

m That is, Christ the mediator prayed for the saluation of his Church, which was now troubled when all the countreys about them were at rest.

n Though for a time God deserte his helpe and comfort from his Church, yet this declareth that he loueth them still most deerly, as a most mercifull father his children, or an husband his wife, and when it is expedient for them, his helpe is euer ready.

o In destroying the reprobate I shewed my selfe but a litle angry toward my Church, but the enemie would haue destroyed them also, and considered not the ende of my chastisements.

p To measure out the buildings.

q The abundance shall be so great that the places of store shall not be able to conteine these blessings, that God will send, but shall euen breake for fulnesse.

r Which signified all the enemies of the Church, East, West, North, South.

f These carpenters or smithes are Gods instruments, which with their mallets and hammers break these hard and strong hornes, which would ouerthrow the Church, and declare that none enemies horne is so strong, but Christ hath an hammer to breake it in pieces.

CHAP. II.

The restoring of Ierusalem and Iudah.

I Lift vp mine eyes againe and looked, and beholde, a a man with a measuring line in his hand.

2 Then sayde I, Whither goest thou? And he sayd vnto me, To measure Ierusalem, that I may see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And behold, the Angel that talked with me, went foorth: and another Angel went out to meete him,

4 And sayde vnto him, Runne, speake to this b yong man, and say, c Ierusalem shall be inhabited without walles, for the multitude of men and cattell therein.

5 For I, saith the Lorde, will be vnto her a wall of d fire round about, and will e bee the glory in the middes of her.

6 Vo, ho, come f foorth, and flee from the land of the North, sayeth the Lorde: for I haue scattered you into the foure s windes of the heauen, saith the Lord.

7 h Saue thy selfe, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babel.

8 For thus saith the Lorde of hosts, After this i glory hath he sent me vnto the nations, which spoyled you: for hee that toucheth a That is, the Angel, who was Christ: for in respect of his office he is oft times called an Angell, but in respect of his eternal essence is God and so called.

b Meaning himselfe Zechariah.

c Signifying the spirituall Ierusalem and Church vnder Christ, which should be extended by the Gospel through all the world, and should neede no materiall walles, nor trust in any worldly strength, but should be safely preserued, d To defende my Church, to feare the enemies, and to destroy them if they approche neere.

e In me they shall haue their full felicitie and glory.

f He calleth to them, which partly for feare, and partly for their owne ease remained still in captiuitie, and so preferred their owne priuate commodities to the benefits of God promised in his Church.

g As it was I that scattered you, so haue I power to restore you.

h By flying from Babylon and comming to the Church.

i Seeing that God hath begunne to shewe his grace among you by deliuering you, he continueth the same still toward you, and therefore sendeth me his Angell, and his Christ to defende you from your enemies, that they shall not hurt you, neither by the way nor at home.

you, toucheth the k apple of his eye.

9 For beholde, I will lift vp mine hand l vpon them: and they m shall bee a spoyle to those that serued them, and yee shall knowe, that the Lord of hosts hath n sent me.

10 Reioyce, and bee glad, O daughter Zion: for loe, I come, and will dwell in the mids of thee, saith the Lord.

11 And many nations shall be ioyned to the Lorde in that day, and shalbe my people: and I will dwell in the middes of thee, and thou shalt knowe that the Lorde of hostes hath sent me vnto thee.

12 And the Lorde shall inherite Iudah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Ierusalem againe.

13 Let all flesh bee still before the Lorde: for he is raised vp out of his holy land.

k Yeare so deare vnto God, that he can no more suffer your enemies to hurt you, then a man can abide to be thrust in the eye, Psal. 17.8.

l Vpon the heathen your enemies.

m They shall be your seruants as you haue bene theirs.

n This must necessarily be vnderstoode of Christ, who being God equall with his Father, was sent as hee was Mediatour to dwell in his Church, and to gouerne them.

CHAP. III.

A prophesie of Christ and of his kingdome.

AND he shewed mee Iehoshua the high Priest, a standing before the Angell of the Lorde, and b Satan stoode at his right hand to resist him.

2 And the c Lorde said vnto Satan, The Lorde rebuke thee, O Satan: euen the Lorde that hath chosen Ierusalem, rebuke thee. Is not this a d brand taken out of the fire?

3 Nowe Iehoshua was clothed with filthie garments, and stoode before the Angel.

4 And he answered and spake vnto those that stoode before him saying, Take away the e filthie garments from him. And vnto him he saide, Beholde, I haue f caused thine iniquitie to depart from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of rayment.

5 And I sayd, Let them g set a faire diademe vpon his head. So they set a faire diademe vpon his head, and clothed him with garments, and the Angell of the Lorde stood by.

6 And the Angell of the Lorde testified vnto Iehoshua, saying,

7 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, If thou wilt walke in my wayes, and keepe my watch, thou shalt also h iudge mine Houle, & shalt also keepe my i courts, & I will giue thee place among k these that stand by.

8 Heare now, O Iehoshua the hie Priest, thou and thy fellowes that sit before thee: for they l are monstrous persons: but beholde, I will bring forth the m Branch my seruant.

9 For lo the n stone that I haue layd before Iehoshua, vpon one stone shall bee seuen eyes: beholde, I will o cut out the grauing thereof, saith the Lorde of hosts, and I will take p away the iniquitie of this lande in one day.

10 In that day, saith the Lorde of hosts, shall yee call every man his neighbour vnder the q vine, and vnder the figge tree.

a He prayed to Christ the Mediator for the state of the Church.

b Which declareth that the faithfull haue not onely warre with flesh and blood, but with Satan himselfe and spirituall wickednesses, Ephes. 6.12.

c That is, Christ speaketh to God as the Mediator of his Church that he would rebuke Satan: and here he sheweth himselfe to be the continuall preseruer of his Church.

d Meaning, that Iehoshua was wonderfully preserued in the captiuitie, and now Satan sought to afflict and trouble him, when hee was doing his office. e In respect of the glorious garmentes, and precious stones that the Priestes did weare before the captiuitie: and by this contemptible state the Prophet signifieth that these small beginnings shoulde bee made excellent when Christ shall make the full restitution of his Church. f Hee sheweth of what apparell hee speaketh, which is when our filthie sinnes are taken away, and we are cladde with Gods mercies, which is meant of the spirituall restitution. g The Prophet prayeth, that besides the rayment, the Priest might also haue tyre for his head accordingly, that is, that the dignitie of the Priesthoode might bee perfect: and this was fulfilled in Christ, who was both Priest and King: and heere all such are condemned that can content themselues with any meane reformation in religion, seeing the the Prophet desireth the perfection, and obtayneth it. h That is, haue rule and gouernement in my Church as thy predecessors haue had. i Whereby he meaneth, to haue the whole charge and ministerie of the Church.

k That is, the Angels who represented the whole number of the faithfull: signifying, that all the godly should willingly receiue him.

l Because they follow my word, they are contemned in ỹ world, & esteemed as monsters, Isa. 8.18.

m That is, Christ, who did so humble himselfe, that not onely hee became the seruant of God, but also the seruant of men: and therefore in him they should haue comfort, although in the world they were contemned, Isa. 11.1. iere. 23.5. and 33.14,15.

n Hee sheweth that the ministers cannot builde, before God lay the first stone, which is Christ, who is full of eyes, both because he giueth light vnto all others, and that all ought to seeke light at him, Chap. 4.10.

o That is, I will make it perfect in all points, as a thing wrought by the hand of God.

p Though I haue punished this land for a time, yet I will euen now be pacified, and visite their sinnes no more.

q Yee shall then liue in peace and quietnes, that is, in the kingdome of Christ, Isa. 2.2. micah. 4.4. hag. 2.10.

CHAP. IIII.

The vision of the golden candlestick, and the exposition thereof.

AND the Angell that talked with mee, a caine againe and waked mee, as a man that is raised out of his sleepe,

2 And sayde vnto mee, Whatseest thou? and I sayde, I haue looked, and beholde, a b candlestick all of golde with a bowle vpon the top of it, and his seuen lampes therein, and seuen b pipes to the lampes, which were vpon the top thereof.

3 And two olive trees ouer it, one vpon the right side of the bowle, and the other vpon the left side thereof.

4 So I answered, and spake to the Angell that talked with mee, saying, What are these, my Lord?

5 Then the Angell that talked with me, answered and said vnto me, Knowest thou not what these bee? And I sayde, No, my Lord.

6 Then he answered and spake vnto me, saying, This is the worde of the Lorde vnto c Zerubbabel, saying, Neyther by d an armie nor strength, but by my Spirite, saieth the Lord of hostes.

7 Who art thou, O e great mountaine, before Zerubbabel? thou shalt bee a plaine, and f her shall bring forth the head stone a Which was euer in the mids of the Temple, signifying that the graces of Gods Spirite should shine there in most abundance, and in all perfection.

b Which conueyed the oyle that dropped from the trees into the lampes, so that the light neuer failed: and this vision was to confirme the faithful that God had sufficient power in himselfe to continue his graces, and to bring his promise to passe, though he had no helpe of man.

c Who was a figure of Christ, and therefore this doctrine was directed to al the Churches who are his body & members. d He sheweth that Gods power only is sufficiēt to preserue his Church, though he vse not mans helpe therunto. e He compareth the power of the aduersaries to a great mountaine, who thought the Iewes nothing in respect of them, and would haue hindered Zerubbabel, who represented Christ, whoune the enemies dayly labour to let in the building of his spirituall Temple, but all in vaine. f Though the enemies thinke to stay this building, yet Zerubbabel shall lay the k first stone thereof, and bring it to perfection, so that all the godly shall reioyce, and pray vnto God that hee woulde continue his grace and fauour toward the Temple, thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace vnto it.

8 Moreouer, the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel haue layde the foundation of this house: his hands shall also finish it, and thou shalt know that the Lord of hostes hath sent me vnto you.

10 For who hath despised the day of the [b] small things? but they shall reioyce, and shall see the stone of [i] tinne in the hand of Zerubbabel: [k] these seuen are the eyes of the Lorde, which goe thorowe the whole world.

11 Then answered I, and said vnto him, What are these two olive trees vpon the right and vpon the left side thereof?

12 And I spake moreouer, and said vnto him, What be these two olive branches, which thorow the two golden pipes emptie themselues into the golde?

13 And he answered me, and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my Lord.

14 Then said he, These are the two [l] olive branches, that stand with the ruler of the whole earth.

g Meaning, the Prophet, that I am Christ sent of my Father for the building and preseruation of my spirituall Temple.

h Signifying, that all were discouraged at the small and poore beginnings of the Temple.

i Whereby he signifieth the plummet & line, that is, that Zerubbabel which represented Christ should go forward with his building to the ioy and comfort of the godly, though the world be against him, and though his for a while be discouraged, because they see not things pleasant to the eye.

k That is, God hath seuen eyes: meaning a continuall prouidence, so that neither Satan nor any power in the world can go about or bring any thing to passe to hinder his worke, Chap. 3. 9.

l Which were euer greene and full of oyle, so that still they powred foorth oyle into the lamps: Signifying, that God wil continually maintaine and preserue his Church, and indue it still with abundance and perfection of graces.

CHAP. V.

1 The vision of the flying booke, signifying the curse of theeues, and such as abuse the name of God. 6. By the vision of the measure is signified the bringing of Iudahs afflictions into Babylon.

THen I turned mee, and lifted vp mine eyes and looked, and beholde, a flying booke.

2 And he said vnto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying [a] booke: the length thereof is twentie cubites, and the breadth thereof ten cubites.

3 Then said hee, vnto mee, This is the curse that goeth forth ouer the whole earth: for euery one that [b] stealeth, shall be cut off aswell on this [c] side, as on that: and euery one that [d] sweareth shall be cut off, aswell on this side, as on that.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the Lord of hostes, and it shall enter into the house of the theefe, and into the house of him, that falsly sweareth by my Name: and it shall remaine in the middes of his house, and shall consume it, with the timber thereof, and stones thereof.

5 Then the Angel that talked with me, went forth and said vnto me, Lift vp nowe thine eyes, and see, what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an [e] Ephah that goeth forth. Hee said moreouer, This is the [f] sight of them, thorow all the earth.

7 And beholde, there was lift vp a [g] talent of lead: and this is a [h] woman that sitteth in the midst of the Ephah.

8 And hee said, This is [i] wickednesse, and hee cast it into the midst of the Ephah, and hee cast the weight of lead vpon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lift I vp mine eyes, and looked: and beholde, there came out two [k] women, and the winde was in their wings (for they had wings like the wings of a storke) and they lift vp the Ephah betweene the earth and the heauen.

10 Then said I to the Angel that talked with mee, Whither doe these beare the Ephah?

11 And hee said vnto mee, [l] To build it an house in the land of Shinar, and it shall be established and set there vpon her owne place.

a Because the Iewes had prouoked Gods plagues by contemning his word and casting off all iudgement and equitie, he sheweth that Gods curses written in this booke had iustly light both on them, and their fathers: but now if they would repent, God would send the same among the Caldeans their former enemies.

b That is, vseth any iniurie toward his neighbour.

c Meaning, wheresoeuer he be in the world.

d He that transgresseth the first table, and serueth not God aright, but abuseth Gods Name.

e Which was a measure in dry things containing about ten pottels.

f That is, all the wickednes of the vngodly is in Gods sight, which he keepeth in a measure, and can shut it, or open it at his pleasure.

g To couer the measure.

h Which representeth iniquitie, as in the next verse.

i Signifying that Satan should not haue such power against the Iewes to tempt them, as he had in time past, but that God would shut vp iniquitie in a measure as in a prison.

k Which declared that God would execute his iudgements by the meanes of weake and infirme meanes.

l To remoue the iniquitie and afflictions that came for the same from Iudah, to place it for euer in Babylon.

CHAP. VI.

By the foure charets he describeth the foure monarchies.

AGaine, I turned and lift vp mine eyes, and looked, and behold, there came foure [a] charets out from betweene [b] two mountaines, and the mountaines were mountaines of brasse.

2 In the first charet were [c] red horses, and in the second charet [d] blacke horses,

3 And in the third charet [e] white horses, and in the fourth charet horses of [f] diuers colours, and reddish.

4 Then I answered, and said vnto the Angel that talked with me, What are these my Lord?

5 And the Angel answered, and said vnto mee, These are the [g] foure spirits of the heauen, which go forth from standing with the Lord of all the earth.

6 That with the blacke horse went forth into the land of the North, and the white went out after them, and they of diuers colours went forth toward the [h] South country.

7 And the [i] reddish went out, and required to goe, and passe thorow the world. And he said, Goe, passe thorow the world. So they went thorowout the world.

8 Then cried hee vpon me, & spake vnto mee, saying, Behold, these that goe toward a By charets here, as by horses afore, hee meaneth the swift messengers of God to execute and declare his will.

b By the brasen mountaines hee meaneth the eternall counsell and prouidence of God, whereby he hath from before all eternitie decreed what shall come to passe, and that which neither Satan nor all the world can alter.

c Which signified the great crueltie and persecutions that the Church had endured vnder diuers enemies.

d Signifying, that they had endured great afflictions vnder the Babylonians.

e These represented their state vnder the Persians which restored them to libertie.

f Which signified that God would sometime giue his Church rest, and powre his plagues vpon their enemies, as hee did in destroying of Nineueh and Babylon, and other their enemies.

g Meaning, all the actions and motions of Gods Spirit, which according to his vnchangeable counsell hee causeth to appeare thorow all the world.

h That is, toward Egypt, and other countreys thereabout.

i That is, they of diuers colours, which aske leaue, to signifie that Satan hath no power to hurt or afflict till God giue it him, Iob 1. 12.

k By punishing the Caldeans mine anger ceased, and you were deliuered.

the North countrey, haue pacified my k spirit in the North countrey.

9 And the word of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

10 Take of them of the captiuitie, euen of Heldai, & of Tobiah, and Iedaiah, which are come from Babel, and come thou the same day, and goe vnto the house l of Iosiah, the sonne of Zephaniah.

11 Take euen siluer and golde, and make crownes, and set them vpon the m head of Iehoshua, the sonne of Iehozadak the high Priest, 12 And speake vnto him, saying, Thus speaketh the Lord of hostes, and sayth, Behold the man whose name is the n Branch, and he shall grow o vp out of his place, and he shall p build the Temple of the Lord.

13 Euen he shall build the Temple of the Lord, and he shal beare the q glory, and shall sit and rule vpon his throne, and hee shall be a Priest vpon his throne, and the counsell of peace shalbe betweene r them both.

14 And the crownes shall be to s Helem, and to Tobiah, and to Iedaiah, & to t Hen the sonne of Zephaniah, for a u memoriall in the Temple of the Lord.

15 And they that are x farre off, shall come and build in the Temple of the Lord, and yee shall knowe that the Lord of hostes hath sent me vnto you. And this shall come to passe, if yee will y obey the voyce of the Lord your God.

l To receiue of him and the other three, money to make the two crownes: which were men of great authoritie among the Iewes, & doubted of the restitution of the kingdome and of the priesthood, and hurt others by their example.

m Because this could not be attributed to any one according to the Lawe, therefore it followeth that Iehoshua must represent the Messiah, who was both Priest and King.

n Meaning Christ, of whome Iehoshua was the figure: for in Greeke they were both called Iesus.

o That is, of himselfe, without the helpe of man.

p Which declareth that none could build this temple, whereof Haggai speaketh, but onely Christ: and therefore it was spirituall, and not materiall, Haggai 2.10.

q Whereof Iehoshua had but a shadowe.

r The two offices of the kingdome and priesthood shalbe so ioyned together, that they shall be no more disseuered.

s Who was also called Heldai t He also was called Iosiah.

u That they may acknowledge their infirmitie, which looked that all things should haue bene restored incontinently: and of this their infidelitie these two crownes shall remaine as tokens, Act. 1.6.

x That is, the Gentiles by the preaching of the Gospel shall helpe toward the building of this spirituall Temple.

y If ye wil beleeue and remaine in the obedience of faith.

CHAP. VII.

5 The true fasting. 11 The rebellion of the people. 14 The cause of their affliction.

a Which conteined part of November and part of December.

b That is, the rest of the people that remained yet in Caldea, sent to the Church at Ierusalem, for the resolution of these questions, because these feasts were consented vpon by the agreement of the whole Church, the one in the moneth that the Temple was destroyed, and the other, when Gedaliah was slaine, Ier. 41.1,2.

c By weeping and mourning appeare what exercises they vsed in their fasting.

d That is, prepare my selfe with all deuotion to this fast.

e Which was now since the time the Temple was destroyed.

AND in the fourth yeere of king Darius, a the worde of the Lord came vnto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth moneth, euen in a Chisleu,

2 For b they had sent vnto the house of God Sharezer, and Regem-melech, and their men to pray before the Lord,

3 And to speake vnto the Priests, which were in the house of the Lord of hostes, and to the prophets, saying, Should I c weepe in the fift moneth, and d separate my selfe as I haue done these so many c yeeres?

4 Then came the worde of the Lord of hostes vnto me, saying,

5 Speake vnto all the people of the land, and to the f Priests, & say, When yee fasted, and mourned in the fift and seuenth moneth, euen these seuentie yeeres, did ye fast vnto me? g doe I approoue it?

6 And when ye did eate, and when ye did drinke, did ye not eate h for your selues, and drinke for your selues?

7 Should ye not heare the wordes, which the Lord i hath cried by the ministerie of the former Prophets when Ierusalem was inhabited, and in prosperitie, and the cities thereof round about her, when the South and the plaine was inhabited?

8 And the worde of the Lord came vnto Zechariah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the Lord of hostes, saying, k Execute true iudgement, and shewe mercie and compassion, euery man to his brother,

10 And oppresse not the widowe, nor the fatherlesse, the stranger nor the poore, and let none of you imagine euill against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and l pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their eares, that they should not heare.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should heare the law and the wordes which the Lord of hostes sent in his m spirit by the ministerie of the former Prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the Lord of hostes.

13 Therefore it is come to passe, that as hee cried, and they would not heare, so they cryed, and I would not heare, sayeth the Lord of hostes.

14 But I scattered them among all the nations, whome they knew not: thus the land was desolate n after them, that no man passed thorow nor returned: for they layed the pleasant land o waste.

f For there were both of the people, and of the Priests, which doubted as touching this controuersie, besides them which as yet remained in Caldea, and reasoned of it, as of one of the chiefe points of their religion.

g For they thought they had deserued toward God, because of this fast, which they inuented of themselues: and though fasting of it self be good, yet because they thought it a seruice toward God, and trusted therein, it is here reprooued.

h Did yee not eate and drinke for your owne commoditie and necessitie? and so likewise ye did abstaine according to your owne fantasies, and not after the prescript of my Law.

i Hereby he condemneth their hypocrisie, which thought by their fasting to please God, & by such things as they inuented, and in the meane season would not serue him as hee had commanded.

k Hee sheweth that they did not fast with a sincere heart, but for an hypocrisie, and that it was not done of a pure religion, because that they lacked these offices of charitie, which should haue declared that they were godly, Matth. 23.23.

l And would not carry the Lords burden, which was sweet and easie, but would beare their owne, which was heauie and grieuous to the flesh, thinking to merit thereby: which similitude is taken of Oxen, which shrinke at the yoke, Nehe. 9.29.

m Which declareth that they rebelled not onely against the Prophets, but against the Spirit of God that spake in them.

n That is, after they were caried captiue.

o By their sinnes whereby they prouoked Gods anger.

CHAP. VIII.

2 Of the returne of the people vnto Ierusalem, & of the mercie of God toward them. 16 Of good workes. 20 The calling of the Gentiles.

AGaine the worde of the Lorde of hostes came to me, saying,

2 Thus sayth the Lord of hostes, I was a ielous for Zion with great ielousie, and I was ielous for her with great wrath.

3 Thus sayth the Lord, I will returne vnto Zion, and will dwell in the middes of Ierusalem: and Ierusalem shall be called a b citie of trueth, and the Mountaine of the Lord a I loued my city with a singular loue, so that I could not abide that any should do her any iniury.

b Because shee shalbe faithful & loyall toward me her husband,

Lord of hostes, the holy mountaine.

4 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, There shall yet c old men and old women dwell in the streetes of Ierusalem, and euery man with his staffe in his hand for very age.

5 And the streetes of the citie shalbe full of boyes and girles, playing in the streetes thereof.

6 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, Though it be d vnpossible in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these dayes, should it therefore be vnpossible in my sight, saith the Lord of hostes?

7 Thus saith the Lorde of hostes, Beholde, I will deliuer my people from the East countrey, and from the West countrey.

8 And I will bring them, and they shall e dwell in the middes of Ierusalem, and they shall be my people, and I will be their God in trueth and in righteousnesse.

9 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, let your f hands be strong, ye that heare in these dayes these wordes by the mouth of the Prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the House of the Lorde of hostes was laide, that the Temple might be builded.

10 For before these dayes there was no hire for g man, nor any hire for beast, neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men, euery one against his neighbour.

11 But nowe, I will not intreate the residue of this people as aforetime, saieth the Lord of hostes.

12 For the seede shall be prosperous: the vine shall giue her fruite, and the ground shall giue her increase, and the heauens shall giue their dewe, and I will cause the remnant of this people to possesse all these things.

13 And it shall come to passe, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Iudah, and house of Israel, so will I deliuer you, and ye shall be a blessing: feare not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the Lord of hostes, As I thought to punish h you, when your fathers prouoked me vnto wrath, saith the Lord of hostes, and repented not,

15 So againe haue I determined in these dayes i to doe well vnto Ierusalem, and to the house of Iudah: feare ye not.

16 These are the things that ye shall doe. Speake ye euery man the trueth vnto his neighbour: execute iudgement truely and vprightly in your gates.

17 And let none of you imagine euill in your hearts against his neighbour, and loue no false othe: for all these are the things that I hate, saith the Lord.

18 And the worde of the Lorde of hostes came vnto me, saying,

19 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, The fast of the fourth moneth, and the fast of the fift, and the fast of the seuenth, and the fast of the k tenth shall bee to the house of Iudah ioy and gladnesse, and prosperous hie feastes: therefore loue the trueth and peace.

20 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, That there shall yet come l people, and the inhabitants of great cities.

21 And they that dwell in one citie, shall goe to another, saying, * Vp, let vs goe and pray before the Lord, and seeke the Lord of hostes: I will goe also.

22 Yea, great people and mighty nations shall come to seeke the Lord of hostes in Ierusalem, and to pray before the Lord.

23 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, In those dayes shall tenne men take holde out of all languages of the nations, euen take holde of the skirt of him that is a Iewe, and say, We will goe with you: for we haue heard, that God is with you.

c Though their enemies did greatly molest and trouble them, yet God would come and dwell among them, and so preserue them so long as nature would suffer them to liue, and encrease their children in great abundance.

d He sheweth wherein our faith standeth, that is, to beleeue that God can performe that which he hath promised, though it seeme neuer so vnpossible to man, Gen. 18. 14. Rom. 4. 20.

e So that their returne shall not be in vaine: for God wil accomplish his promise, and their prosperitie shall be sure and stable.

f Let neither respect of your priuate commodities, neither counsell of others, nor feare of enemies discourage you in the going forward with the building of the Temple, but be constant and obey the Prophets, which incourage you thereunto.

g For God cursed your worke, so that neither man nor beast had profite of their labours.

h Reade Ezek. 18. 20.

i Which declareth that man cannot turne to God till he change mans heart by his Spirit, and so begin to doe well, which is to pardon his sinnes, and to giue him his graces.

k Which fast was appointed when the citie was besieged, and was the first fast of these foure: and here § Prophet sheweth, that if the Iewes will repent, and turne wholly to God, they shall haue no more occasion to fast, or to shewe signes of heauinesse: for God will send them ioy & gladnesse.

l He declareth the great zeale that God should giue the Gentiles to come to his Church, and to ioyne with the Iewes in his true religion, which shoulde bee in the kingdome of Christ. Isa. 2. 2. micah. 4. 1.

CHAP. IX.

1 The threatning of the Gentiles, 9 The comming of Christ.

THE burden of the word of the Lord in the land of a Hadrach: and Damascus shall be his b rest: when the c eyes of man, euen of all the tribes of Israel shalbe toward the Lord.

2 And Hamath also shall border d thereby: Tyrus also and Zidon, though they be e very wise.

3 For Tyrus did build her selfe a strong hold, and heaped vp siluer as the dust, and gold as the myre of the streetes.

4 Beholde, the Lord will spoile her, and he will smite her f power in the Sea, and she shall be deuoured with fire.

5 Ashkelon shal see it, and feare, and Azzah also shall be very sorowfull, and Ekron: for her countenance shall be ashamed, and the king shall perish from Azzah, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 And the g stranger shall dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistims.

7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from betweene his h teeth: but hee that remaineth, euen he shall be for our God, and he shall be as a prince in Iudah, but i Ekron shall doe as a Iebusite.

8 And I will campe about k mine house against the armie, against him that passeth by, and against him that returneth, and no oppressour shall come vpon them a Whereby he meaneth Syria.

b Gods anger shall abide vpon their chiefe citie, and not spare so much as that.

c When the Iewes shall conuert and repent, then God will destroy their enemies.

d That is, by Damascus: meaning that Hamath or Antiochia should be vnder the same rod and plague.

e Hee secretly sheweth the cause of their destruction, because they deceiued all other by their craft and subtiltie, which they clocked with this name of Wisedome.

f Though they of Tyrus thinke them selues inuincible by reason of the Sea that compasseth them round about, yet they shall not escape Gods iudgements. g Meaning, that all should be destroyed saue a very fewe, that should remaine as strangers. h Hee promiseth to deliuer the Iewes when he shall take vengeance on their enemies for their crueltie, and wrongs done to them. i As the Iebusites had beene destroyed, so should Ekron and all the Philistims. k Hee sheweth that Gods power only shalbe sufficient to defend his Church against all aduersaries, be they neuer so cruell, or assemble their power neuer so often, any more: for nowe 1 haue I seene with mine eyes.

9 Reioyce greatly, O daughter Zion: shoute for ioy, O daughter Ierusalem: beholde, thy king commeth vnto thee: m he is iust and saued himselfe, poore and riding vpon an n asse, and vpon a colte the foale of an asse.

10 And I will cut off the o charets from Ephraim, and the horse from Ierusalem: the bowe of the battell shall be broken, and he shall speake peace vnto the heathen, and his dominion shal be from p sea vnto sea, and and from the q riuer to the end of the land.

11 r Thou also shalt be saued through the blood of thy couenant. I haue loosed thy s prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 Turne you to the t strong holde, ye u prisoners of hope: euen to day doe I declare, that I will render the x double vnto thee.

13 For Iudah haue I y bent as a bowe for me: Ephraims hand haue I filled, and I haue raised vp thy sonnes, O Zion, against thy sonnes, O Grecia, and haue made thee as a giants sword.

14 And the Lord shalbe seene ouer them, and his arrow shall goe foorth as the lightning: and the Lorde God shall blowe the trumpet, and shall come foorth with the whirlewindes of the South.

15 The Lord of hostes shall defend them, and they shall deuoure them, z and subdue them with sling stones, and they shal drinke, and make a noise as through wine, and they shall be filled like bowles, and as the hornes of the altar.

16 And the Lorde their God shall deliuer them in that day as the flocke of his people: for they shall be as the a stones of the crowne lifted vp vpon his land.

17 For howe great is his goodnesse! and howe great is his beautie! corne shall make the young men cheereful, and newe wine the maides.

1 That is, God hath nowe seene the great iniuries and afflictions wherewith they haue bene afflicted by their enemies.

m That is, he hath righteousnesse and saluation in himselfe for the vse and commoditie of his Church.

n Which declareth that they should not looke for such a king as should be glorious in the eyes of man, but should be poore, and yet in himselfe haue all power to deliuer his: and this is meant of Christ, as Mat. 21.5.

o No power of man or creature shall be able to let this kingdome of Christ, and he shall peaceably gouerne them by his word.

p That is, from the red sea, to the sea called Syriacum: and by these places which the Iewes knew he meant an infinite space and compasse ouer the whole world.

q That is, from Euphrates.

r Meaning, Ierusalem, or the Church which is saued by the blood of Christ, whereof the blood of the sacrifices was a figure, and is here called the couenant of the Church, because God made it with his Church, and left it with them for the loue that he bare vnto them.

s God sheweth that hee will deliuer his Church out of all dangers, seeme they neuer so great.

t That is, into the holy land, where the citie and the Temple are, where God will defend you.

u Meaning, the faithfull, which seemed to bee in danger of their enemies on euery side, and yet liued in hope that God would restore them to libertie.

x That is, double benefites, and prosperitie in respect of that which your fathers inioyed from Dauids time to the captiuitie.

y I will make Iudah and Ephraim, that is, my whole Church, victorious against all enemies, which he here meaneth by the Grecians.

z Hee promiseth that the Iewes shall destroy their enemies and haue abundance, and excesse of all things, as there is abundance on the altar when the sacrifice is offered: which things are not to mooue them to intemperancie, but to sobrietie, and a thankefull remembrance of Gods great liberalitie.

a The faithfull shall be preserued, and reuerenced of all, that the very enemies shall be compelled to esteeme them: for Gods glory shall shine in them, as Iosephus declareth of Alexander the great, when he met te Iadi the hie Priest.

CHAP. X.

2 The vanitie of idolatrie. 3 The Lord pro- miseth to visite and comfort the house of Israel.

ASke you of the a Lord raine in the time of the latter raine: so shall the Lorde make white cloudes, and giue you showres of raine, and to euery one grasse in the fielde.

2 Surely b the idoles haue spoken vanitie, and the soothsayers haue seene a lie, and the dreamers haue tolde a vaine thing: they comfort in vaine: therefore c they went away as sheepe: they were troubled, because there was no shepheard.

3 My wrath was kindled against the shepheards, and I did visite the d goates: but the Lorde of hostes will visite his flocke the house of Iudah, and will make them as e his beautifull horse in the battell.

4 Out f of him shall the corner come forth: out of him the naile, out of him the bowe of battell, and out of him euery g appointer of tribute also.

5 And they shall be as the mightie men, which treade downe their enemies in the myre of the streetes in the battell, and they shall fight, because the Lorde is with them, and the riders on horses shalbe confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Iudah, and I will preserue the house h of Ioseph, and I will bring them againe, for I pitie them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the Lord their God, and will heare them.

7 And they of Ephraim shall be as a giant, and their heart shall reioyce as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad: and their heart shall reioyce in the Lord.

8 I will i hisse for them, & gather them: for I haue redeemed them: and they shall encrease, as they haue encreased.

9 And I will k sowe them among the people, and they shall remember me in farre countreys: and they shall liue with their children and ! turne againe.

10 I will bring them againe also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Asshur: and I will bring them into the land of Gilead, and Lebanon, and place shall not be found for them.

11 And he m shall goe into the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waues in the sea, and all the depthes of the riuer shall drie vp: and the pride of Asshur shall be cast downe, and the scepter of Egypt shall depart away.

12 And I will strengthen them in the Lorde, and they shall walke in his Name, saith the Lord.

a The Prophet reprooueth the Iewes, because by their owne infidelitie they put backe Gods graces promised, and so famine came by Gods iust iudgement: therefore to auoid this plague, he willeth them to returne to God, and to pray in faith to him, and so he wil giue them abundance.

b He calleth to remembrance Gods punishments in times past, because they trusted not in him, but in their idoles and sorcerers who euer deceiued them.

c That is, the Iewes went into captiuitie.

d Meaning, the cruel gouernours which did oppresse the poore sheepe, Ezek. 34.16,17.

e Hee will be mercifull to his Church, and cherish them as a King or Prince doeth his best horse, which shall be for his owne vse in the warre.

f Out of Iudah shall the chiefe gouernour proceede, who shall be as a corner to vpholde the building, and as a nayle to fasten it together.

g Ouer their enemies.

h That is, the tenne tribes, which should be gathered vnder Christ to the rest of the Church.

i Whereby hee declareth the power of God, who needeth no great preparation when hee will deliuer his: for with a becke or hisse hee can call them from all places suddenly.

k Though they shall yet bee scattered and seeme to be lost, yet it shall be profitable vnto them: for there they shall come to the knowledge of my Name, which was accomplished vnder the Gospell, among whom it was first preached.

l Not that they should returne into their countrey, but bee gathered and ioyned in one faith by the doctrine of the Gospell.

m Hee alludeth to the deliuerance of the people out of Egypt, whereas the Angell smote the floods and riuers.

CHAP. XI.

1 The destruction of the Temple. 4 The care of the faithfull is committed to Christ. 7 A grieuous vision against Ierusalem and Iudah.

OPen thy doores, O a Lebanon, and the fire shall deuoure thy cedars.

2 Howle, b firre trees: for the cedar is fallen, because all the mightie are destroyed: howle ye, Okes of Bashan, for the c defenced forest is cut downe.

3 There is the voyce of the howling of the shepheards: for their d glorie is destroyed: the voyce of the roaring of lions whelpes: for the pride of Iorden is destroyed.

4 Thus saith the Lorde my God, Feede the sheepe of the e slaughter.

5 Whom they that possesse them, slay them, f and sinne not: and they that sell them, say, g Blessed be the Lorde: for I am rich, and their owne shepheards spare them not.

6. Surely I will no more spare those that dwell in the land saieth the Lorde: but loe, h I will deliuer the men euery one into his neighbours hande, and into the hand of his i king: and they shall smite the lande, and out of their hands I will not deliuer them.

7 For I fed the sheepe of slaughter, euen the k poore of the flocke, and I tooke vnto me l two staues: the one I called Beautie, and the other I called Bands, and I fedde the sheepe.

8 m Three shepheards also I cut off in one moneth, and my soule loathed n them, and their soule abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I will not feede you: that that dieth, let it die: and that that perisheth, let it perish: and let the remnant eate, euery one the flesh of his neighbour.

10 And I tooke my staffe, euen Beautie, and brake it, that I might disanull my couenant, which I had made with all people.

11 And it was broken in that day: and so the o poore of the sheepe that wayted vpon me, knew that it was the word of the Lord.

12 And I said vnto them, If yee thinke it good, giue mee p my wages: and if no, leaue off: so they weighed for my wages thirtie pieces of siluer.

13 And the Lord said vnto me, Cast it vnto the q potter: a goodly price, that I was valued at of them. And I tooke the thirtie pieces of siluer, and cast them to the potter in the house of the Lord.

14 Then brake I mine other staffe, euen the Bands, that I might dissolue the brotherhood betweene Iudah and Israel.

15 And the Lord said vnto me, Take to thee yet r the instruments of a foolish shepheard.

16 For loe, I will raise vp a shepheard in the lande, which shall not looke for the thing, that is lost, nor seeke the tender lambes, nor heale that that is hurt, nor feede that that ſ standeth vp: but hee shall eate the flesh of the fat, & teare their clawes in pieces.

17 O idole shepheard that leaueth the flocke: the sworde shall bee vpon his t arme, and vpon his right eye. His arme shall bee cleane dried vp, and his right eye shalbe vterly darkned.

a Because the Iewes thought themselues so strong by reason of this mountaine that no enemie could come to hurt them the Prophet sheweth that when God sendeth the enemies, it shall shew it selfe readie to receiue them.
b Shewing, that if the strong men were destroyed, the weaker were not able to resist.
c Seeing that Lebanon was destroyed, which was the strongest munition, the weaker places could not thinke to holde out.
d That is, the renowme of Iudah and Israel should perish.
e Which being now destinate to be slaine, were deliuered as out of the Lions mouth.
f Their gouernours destroy them without any remorse of conscience, or yet thinking that they doe euil.
g He noteth the hypocrites, which euer haue the name of God in their mouthes, though in their life and doings they deny God, attributing their gaine to Gods blessing, which commeth of the spoyle of their brethren.
h I wil cause one to destroy another.
i Their gouernours shal execute crueltie ouer them.
k That is, the smal remnant, whom he thought worthie to shewe mercy vnto.
l God sheweth his great benefits toward his people to conuince them of greater ingratitude, which would neyther be ruled by his most beautiful order of gouernment, neyther continue in the bands of brotherly vnitie, and therefore he breaketh both the one and the other. Some reade, for Bands destroyers, but in the 14. verse the first reading is confirmed.
m Whereby he sheweth his care and diligence that he would suffer them to haue no euill rulers, because they should consider his great loue.
n Meaning the people, because they would not acknowledge these great benefits of God.
o He sheweth that the least part euer profite by Gods iudgements.
p Besides their ingratitude God accuseth them of malice and wickednesse, which did not only forget his benefits, but esteemed them as things of nought.
q Shewing that it was too litle to pay his wages, which could scarce suffice to make a few tiles for to couer the Temple.
r Signifying, that they should haue a certaine kinde of regiment, and outward shew of gouernment: but in effect it should be nothing: for they should be wolues, and deuouring beasts in stead of shepheards.
ſ And is in health
t By the arme he signifieth strength, and by the eye, that is, the plague of God shall take away both thy strength and iudgement.

CHAP. XII.

Of the destruction & building againe of Ierusalem.

THe burden of the worde of the Lorde vpon a Israel, saith the Lord, which spread the heauens, and laide the foundation of the earth, and formed the spirite of man within him.

2 Behold, I wil make Ierusalem a b cup of poyson vnto all the people rounde about: and also with Iudah will he bee, in the siege against Ierusalem.

3 And in that day will I make Ierusalem an heaue stone for all people: all that lift it vp, shalbe torne, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the Lorde, I will smite euery horse with astonishment, and his rider with madnesse, and I will open mine eies vpon the house of Iudah, and will smite euery horse of the people with blindnesse.

5 And the princes of Iudah shall say in their hearts, The c inhabitants of Ierusalem shalbe my strength in the Lord of hosts their God.

6 In that day will I make the princes of Iudah like coles of fire amõg the wood, and like a fire brand in the sheafe, and they shal deuoure all the people round about on the right hand and on the left: and Ierusalem shall bee inhabited againe in her owne place, euen in Ierusalem.

7 The Lord also shal preserue the d tents of Iudah, as aforetime: therefore the glorie of the house of Dauid shall not boast, nor the glorie of the inhabitants of Ierusalem against Iudah.

8 In that day shall the Lorde defend the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and hee that is feeble among them, in that day shall be as Dauid: and the house of Dauid shall bee as Gods house, and as the Angell of the Lorde before them.

9 And in that day will I seeke to destroy all the nations that come against Ierusalem.

10 And I will powre vpon the house of a That is, the ten tribes which neglected Gods benefit in deliuering their brethren, and had rather remaine in captiuitie, then to returne home, when God called them.

b Ierusalem shal be defended against all her enemies, so shal God defend all Iudah also, and shal destroy the enemies
c Euery captaine that had many vnder him afore, shal now thinke that the small power of Ierusalem shalbe sufficient to defend them against all enemies, because the Lorde is among them.
d The people which are now as it were dispersed by the fields, and lie open to their enemies, shall be no lesse preserued by my power, then if they were vnder their kings, (which is meant by the house of Dauid) or in their defenced cities.

David, and vpon the inhabitants of Ieruſalem the Spirit of e grace and of compaſſion, & they ſhal looke vpon me, whom they haue f pearced, and they ſhall lament for him, as one mourneth for his onely ſonne, and be ſory for him as one is ſory for his firſt borne.

11 In that day ſhall there bee a great mourning in Ieruſalem, as the h mourning of i Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

12 And the k land ſhal bewaile euery familie l apart, the familie of the m houſe of Dauid apart, and their wiues apart: the familie of the houſe of Nathan apart, and their wiues apart:

13 The familie of the houſe of Leui apart, and their wiues apart: the familie of n Shemei apart, and their wiues apart:

14 All the families that o remaine, euerie familie apart, and their wiues apart.

e They ſhal haue the feeling of my grace by faith, and know that I haue compaſſion on them.

f That is, whom they haue continually vexed with their obſtinacie, and grieued my Spirit, Iohn 19.37. where it is referred to Chriſtes bodie, which here is referred to the Spirit of God.

g They ſhal turne to God by true repentance, whom before they had ſo grieuouſly offended by their ingratitude.

h They ſhall lament and repent exceedingly for their offences againſt God.

i Which was the name of a towne and place neere to Megiddo where Ioſiah was ſlayne, 2. Chron. 35. 22.

k That is, in al places where the Iewes ſhal remaine.

l Signifying, that this mourning or repentance ſhould not be a vaine ceremonie: but euery one touched with his owne griefe ſhal lament.

m Vnder theſe certaine families he conteineth all the tribes, and ſhewed that both ỹ Kings & the Prieſts had by their ſinnes pearced Chriſt.

n Called alſo Simeon.

o To wit, which were elect by grace, and preſerued from the common deſtruction.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Of the fountaine of grace. 2 Of the cleane riddance of idolatrie. 3 The zeale of the godly againſt falſe prophets.

1 IN that day there a ſhall bee a fountaine opened to the houſe of Dauid, and to the inhabitants of Ieruſalem, for ſinne and for vncleanneſſe.

2 And in that day, ſaith the Lord of hoſts, I will cut off the b names of the idoles out of the land: & they ſhal no more be remembred: and I will cauſe the c prophets, and the vncleane ſpirite to depart out of the land.

3 And when any ſhall yet d propheſie, his father and his mother that begate him, ſhall ſay vnto him, Thou ſhalt not liue: for thou ſpeakeſt lies in the name of the Lord: and his father and his mother that begate him, e ſhall thruſt him through, when hee propheſieth.

4 And in that day ſhall the prophets f be aſhamed euery one of his viſion, when hee hath propheſied: neither ſhall they weare a rough garment to deceiue.

5 But hee ſhall ſay, I am no g Prophet: I am an huſbandman: for man taught me to be an heardman from my youth vp.

6 And one ſhall ſay vnto him, What are theſe h wounds in thine hands? Then hee ſhal anſwere, Thus was I wounded in the houſe of my friends.

7 ¶ Ariſe, O ſword, vpon my i ſhepheard, and vpon the man, that is my fellowe, ſaith the Lord of hoſtes: ſmite the ſhepheard, and the ſheepe ſhalbe ſcattered: and I wil turne mine hand vpon the litle ones.

8 And in all the lande, ſayeth the Lorde, k two parts therein ſhall be cut off, and die: but the third ſhall be left therein.

9 And I will bring that third part thorow the fire, and will fine them as the ſiluer is fined, and will trie them as gold is tryed: they ſhall call on my name, and I wil heare them: I will ſay, It is my people, and they ſhall ſay, The Lord is my God.

a He ſheweth what ſhalbe the fruit of their repentance, to wit, remiſſion of ſinnes, by the blood of Chriſt, which ſhalbe a continual running fountaine, and purge them from al vncleanneſſe.

b He promiſeth that God wil alſo purge them from al ſuperſtition and that their religiõ ſhal be pure.

c Meaning, the falſe prophets and teachers, who are the corrupters of al religion, whome the Prophet heere calleth vncleane ſpirites.

d That is, when they ſhal propheſie lies, and make God, who is the authour of trueth, a cloke thereunto.

e He ſheweth what zeale the godly ſhal haue vnder the kingdome of Chriſt, Deuter. 13. 6. 9.

f God ſhal make them aſhamed of their errours and lies, and bring them to repentance, and they ſhal no more weare prophets apparel to make their doctrine ſeem more holy.

g They ſhal confeſſe their former ignorance, and be content to labour for their liuing.

h Hereby he ſheweth that though their parents and friends delt more gently with them and put them not to death, yet they would ſo puniſh their children, that became falſe prophets, that the marks and ſignes ſhould remaine for euer.

i The Prophet warneth the Iewes, that before this great comfort ſhould come vnder Chriſt, there ſhould be an horrible diſſipation among the people: for their Gouernours and paſtors ſhould be deſtroyed, & the people ſhould be as ſcattered ſheepe: and the Euangeliſt applieth this to Chriſt, becauſe hee was the head of all paſtors, Mat. 26. 31.

k The greateſt part ſhal haue no portion of theſe bleſſings, and yet they that ſhal enioy them, ſhall bee tryed with great afflictions, ſo that it ſhalbe knowen that onely Gods power and his mercies doe preſerue them.

CHAP. XIIII.

8 Of the doctrine that ſhall proceede out of the Church, and of the reſtauration thereof.

BEholde, the day of the Lorde commeth, and thy ſpoyle ſhall bee a diuided in the mids of thee.

2 For I will gather all nations againſt Ieruſalem to battel, and the citie ſhalbe taken, and the houſes ſpoyled, and the women defiled, and halfe of the citie ſhal go into captiuitie, and the reſidue of the people ſhal not be cut off from the citie.

3 Then ſhal the Lord go forth, and fight againſt thoſe nations, as when b he fought in the day of battell.

4 And his feete ſhall ſtande in that day vpon the c mount of oliues, which is before Ieruſalem on the Eaſt ſide, and the mount of olines ſhall cleaue in the middes thereof: toward the Eaſt & towarde the Weſt there ſhall bee a very great d valley, and halfe of the mountaine ſhall remooue towarde the North, and halfe of the mountaine towarde the South.

5 And yee ſhall flee vnto the e valley of the mountains: for the valley of the mountaines ſhal reach vnto Azal: yea, ye ſhall flee like as ye fled from the f earthquake in the dayes of Vzziah King of Iudah: and the Lord g my God ſhall come, and al the ſaints with thee.

6 And in that day ſhall there be no cleere light, but darke.

7 And there ſhalbe a day (it is known to the world they ſhal ſee Ieruſalem, which was before hidde with this mountaine: and this hee meaneth of the ſpiritual Ieruſalem the Church.

a He armeth the godly againſt the great tentations that ſhould come before they enioyed this proſperous eſtate promiſed vnder Chriſt, that when theſe dangers ſhould come, they might know that they were warned of them afore.

b As your fathers and you haue had experience both at the red ſea, & at al other times

c By this maner of ſpeach the Prophet ſheweth Gods power and care ouer his Church, and how he wil as it were by miracle ſaue it d So that out of all the parts of e He ſpeaketh of the hypocrites, which could not abide Gods preſence, but ſhould flee into all places, where they might hide them among the mountaines.

f Reade Amos 1. 1.

g Becauſe they did not credit the Prophets words, he turneth to God, and comforteth himſelfe in that that he knew that theſe things ſhould come, and ſaith, Thou, O God, with thine Angels wilt come to perform this great thing.

the h Signifying, that there ſhould be great troubles in the Church, and that the time hereof is in the Lords hands, yet at length (which is here meant by the euening) God would ſend comfort.

i That is, the ſpirituall graces of God, which ſhould euer continue in moſt abundance.

k All idolatrie and ſuperſtition ſhalbe aboliſhed, and there ſhalbe one God, one faith, and one religion.

l This newe Ieruſalem ſhalbe ſeene through all the world, and ſhall excel the firſt in excellencie, wealth and greatneſſe.

m God will not onely raiſe vp warre without, but ſedition at home to trie them.

n To hurt and oppreſſe him.

the Lord) h neither day nor night, but about the euening time it ſhalbe light.

8 And in that day ſhall there i waters of life goe out from Ieruſalem, halfe of them toward the Eaſt ſea, and halfe of them toward the vttermoſt ſea, and ſhalbe both in ſommer and winter.

9 And the Lord ſhall be king ouer all the earth: in that day ſhall there be one k Lord, and his Name ſhalbe one.

10 All the land ſhalbe turned l as a plain from Geba to Rimmon, toward the South of Ieruſalem, and it ſhalbe lifted vp, and inhabited in her place: from Beniamins gate vnto the place of the firſt gate, vnto the corner gate, and from the towre of Hananel, vnto the Kings wine preſſes.

11 And men ſhall dwell in it, and there ſhall be no more deſtruction, but Ieruſalem ſhalbe ſafely inhabited.

12 And this ſhall be the plague, wherewith the Lord will ſmite all people, that haue fought againſt Ieruſalem: their fleſh ſhall conſume away, though they ſtand vpon their feete, and their eyes ſhall conſume in their holes, and their tongue ſhall conſume in their mouth.

13 And in that day, m a great tumult of the Lord ſhalbe among them, and euery one ſhal take the n hand of his neighbour, and his hand ſhall riſe vp againſt the hande of his neighbour.

14 And Iudah ſhal fight alſo againſt Ieruſalem, and the armie of all the heathen ſhal be gathered round about, with o golde and ſiluer, and great abundance of apparell.

15 Yet this ſhalbe the plague of the horſe, of the Mule, of the Camell, and of the aſſe, and of all the beaſts that bee in theſe tents as this p plague.

16 But it ſhall come to paſſe that euerie one q of all of all the nations, which came againſt Ieruſalem, ſhall goe vp from yeere to yeere to worſhip the King the Lord of hoſtes, & to keepe the feaſt of Tabernacles.

17 And who ſo will not come vp of all the families of the earth vnto Ieruſalē to worſhip the King the Lord of hoſtes, euen vpon them ſhal come no raine.

18 And if the familie of r Egypt goe not vp, & come not, it ſhall not raine vpon them. This ſhalbe the plague wherewith the Lord will ſmite all the heathen, that come not vp to keepe the feaſt of Tabernacles.

19 This ſhall bee the punihment of Egypt, and the punihment of all the nations that come not vp to keepe the feaſt of Tabernacles.

20 In that day ſhall there be written vpon the ſ bridles of the horſes, The holineſſe vnto the Lord, and the t pots in the Lordes houſe ſhalbe like þ bowles before the altar.

21 Yea, euery pot in Ieruſalem and Iudah ſhalbe holy vnto the Lord of hoſtes, and all they that ſacrifice, ſhall come and take of them, and ſeethe therein: and in that day there ſhalbe no more the u Canaanite in the Houſe of the Lord of hoſtes.

o The enemies are rich, and therefore ſhall not come for a pray, but to deſtroy and ſhed blood.

p As the men ſhould be deſtroyed, verſ. 12.

q By the Egyptians, which were greateſt enemies to true religion, he meaneth all the Gentiles.

r Signifying, that to what ſeruice they were put now (whether to labour, or to ſerue in warre) they were nowe holy, becauſe the Lorde had ſanctified them.

ſ As precious the one as the other, becauſe they ſhal be ſanctified.

t But all ſhalbe pure and cleane, and there ſhall neither be hypocrite, or any that ſhal corrupt the true ſeruice of God.

Malachi.

THE ARGVMENT.

THis Prophet was one of the three, which God rayſed vp for the comfort of his Church after the captiuitie, and after him there was no more vntil Iohn Baptiſt was ſent, which was either a token of Gods wrath, or an admonition that they ſhould with more feruent deſires looke for the comming of Meſſiah. He confirmeth the ſame doctrine, that the two former doe, but chiefly hee reprooueth the Prieſts for their couetouſneſſe, and for that they ſerued God after their owne fantaſies, and not according to the preſcript of his word. He alſo noteth certaine peculiar ſinnes, which were then among them, as marying of idolatrous and many wiues, murmurings againſt God, impatiencie, and ſuch like. Notwithſtanding, for the comfort of the godly, he declareth that God would not forget his promiſe made vnto their fathers, but would ſend Chriſt his meſſenger, in whō the couenant ſhould be accompliſhed, whoſe comming ſhould be terrible to the wicked, and bring all conſolation and ioy vnto the godly.

CHAP. I.

A complaint againſt Iſrael and chiefly the Prieſts.

a Reade Iſai. 13.1

b Which declareth their great ingratitude that did not acknowledge this loue, which was ſo euident in that he choſe Abraham & om out of all the world, and next choſe Iaakob the yoonger brother of whom they came, and left Eſau the elder.

c For beſides that the ſignes of mine hatred appeared euen when he was made ſeruant vnto his yoonger brother, being yet in his mothers belly, and alſo afterward in that he was put from his birthright, yet euen now before your eyes the ſignes of hereof are euident, in that that his countrey lieth waſte, and he ſhall neuer returne to inhabit it, whereas ye my people, whom the enemie hated more then them, are by my grace and loue toward you deliuered, reade Rom. 9.13.

THe a burden of the word of the Lord to Iſrael by the miniſterie of Malachi.

2 I haue loued you, ſayth the Lord: yet ye ſay, b Wherein haſt thou loued vs? Was not Eſau Iaakobs brother, ſayth the Lord? yet I loued Iaakob,

3 And I c hated Eſau, and made his mountaines waſte, and his heritage a wilderneſſe for dragons.

4 Though Edome ſay, We are impouerriſhed, but we will returne, and builde the deſolate places, yet ſayth the Lord of hoſts, They ſhall build, but I will deſtroy it, and they ſhall call them, The border of wickedneſſe, and the people, with whom the Lorde is angry for euer.

5 And your eyes ſhall ſee it, and ye ſhall ſay, The Lord will be magnified vpon the border of Iſrael.

6 A ſonne honoureth his father, and a ſeruant his maſter. If then I be a father, where is mine honor? And if I be a maſter, where is my feare, ſayth the Lord of hoſts vnto you, d O Prieſts, that deſpiſe my Name? and ye ſay, e Wherin haue we deſpiſed thy Name?

d Beſides the reſt of the people he condemneth the Prieſts chiefly, becauſe they ſhould haue reproued others for their hypocriſie, and obſtinacie againſt God, and not haue hardened thē by their example to greater euils.

e He noteth their groſſe hypocriſie, which would not ſee their faults, but moſt impudently couered them, and ſo were blinde guides, f Ye receiue al maner offerings for your owne greedinesse, and doe not examine whether they be according to my Lawe or no.

g Now that they said that, but by their doings they declared no lesse.

h You make it no fault: wherby he condemneth them, that thinke it sufficient to serue God partly as he hath commanded, and partly after mans fantasie, and so come not to that puretnesse of religiō, which he requireth, and therefore in reproch he sheweth them that a mortal man would not be content to be so serued.

i He derideth the Priests who bare the people in hand, that they prayed for them, and shewed that they were the occasion, that these euils came vpon the people.

k Will God consider your office and state, because the Leuites who kept the doores, did not trye whether the sacrifices that came in, were according to the Lawe, God wisheth that they would rather shut the doores, then to receiue such as were not perfect.

m God sheweth that their ingratitude, and neglect of his true seruice, shal be the cause of the calling of the Gentiles: and here the Prophet that was vnder the Law, framed his words to the capacitie of the people, and by the altar and sacrifice he meaneth the spiritual seruice of God, which should be vnder the Gospel, when an end shalbe made to all these legall ceremonies by Christes onely sacrifice.

n Both the Priests, and the people were infected with this errour, that they passed not what was offered: for they thought that God was wel content with the leane as with the fat: but in the meane season they shewed not that obedience to God which he required, and so committed both impiety, and also shewed their contempt of God, and couetousnes.

o The Priests and people were both wearie with serving God, and passed not what manner of sacrifice and seruice they gaue to God, for that which was least profitable, was thought good enough for the Lorde.

p That is, hath sufficiencie to serue the Lord according to his worde, and yet wil serue him according to his couetous minde.

7 Yee offer f vncleane bread vpon mine altar, and you say, Wherein haue wee polluted thee? In that yee say the table of the Lord is not g to be regarded.

8 And if yee offer the blinde for sacrifice, it is h not euil: and if yee offer the lame and sicke, it is not euil: offer it now vnto thy Prince: will hee be content with thee, or accept thy person, saith the Lord of hostes?

9 And nowe, I pray you, i pray before God, that hee may haue mercy vpon vs: this hath bene by your meanes: will hee regard k your persons, saith the Lord of hostes?

10 Who is there euen among you, l that would shut the doores, and kindle not fire on mine altar in vaine? I haue no pleasure in you, saieth the Lorde of hostes, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11 For from the rising of the Sunne vnto the going downe of the same, my Name is m great among the Gentiles, and in euery place incense shall be offered vnto my Name, and a pure offering: for my Name is great among the heathen, saith the Lorde of hostes.

12 But yee haue polluted it, in that yee say, The table of the Lord is n polluted, and the fruit thereof, euen his meate is not to be regarded.

13 Ye saide also, Beholde, it is a o wearinesse and ye haue snuffed at it saith the Lord of hostes, and yee offered that which was torne, and the lame, and the sicke: thus yee offered an offering: should I accept this of your hand, saith the Lord?

14 But cursed bee the deceiuer, which hath in his flocke p a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth vnto the Lorde a corrupt thing: for I am a great king, saith the Lorde of hostes, and my Name is terrible among the heathen.

seeing you are so couetous and wicked?

l Because the Leuites who kept the doores, did not trye whether the sacrifices that came in, were according to the Lawe, God wisheth that they would rather shut the doores, then to receiue such as were not perfect.

m God sheweth that their ingratitude, and neglect of his true seruice, shal be the cause of the calling of the Gentiles: and here the Prophet that was vnder the Law, framed his words to the capacitie of the people, and by the altar and sacrifice he meaneth the spiritual seruice of God, which should be vnder the Gospel, when an end shalbe made to all these legall ceremonies by Christes onely sacrifice.

n Both the Priests, and the people were infected with this errour, that they passed not what was offered: for they thought that God was wel content with the leane as with the fat: but in the meane season they shewed not that obedience to God which he required, and so committed both impiety, and also shewed their contempt of God, and couetousnes.

o The Priests and people were both wearie with serving God, and passed not what manner of sacrifice and seruice they gaue to God, for that which was least profitable, was thought good enough for the Lorde.

p That is, hath sufficiencie to serue the Lord according to his worde, and yet wil serue him according to his couetous minde.

CHAP. II.

Threatnings against the Priestes being seducers of the people.

AND nowe, O yee a Priestes, this commandement is for you.

2 If yee will not heare it, nor consider it in your heart, to giue glorie b vnto my Name, saith the Lord of hostes, I will euen send a curse vpon you, and will curse your c blessings: yea, I haue cursed them alreadie, because yee doe not consider it in your heart.

3 Beholde, I will corrupt d your seede, and cast dung vpon your faces, euen the e dung of your solemne feastes, and you shall be like vnto it.

4 And ye shall know, that I haue f sent this commandement vnto you, that my couenant which I made with Leui, might stand, saith the Lord of hostes.

5 My g couenant was with him of life and peace, and I h gaue him feare, and hee feared mee, and was afraide before i my Name.

6 The law of k truth was in his mouth, and there was no iniquitie found in his lippes: hee walked with mee in peace and equitie, and did turne many away from iniquitie.

7 For the Priestes l lips should preserue knowledge, and they should seeke the Lawe at his mouth: for hee is the m messenger of the Lord of hosts.

8 But yee are gone out of the way: yee haue caused many to fall by the Lawe: yee haue broken the couenant of Leui, saith the Lord of hostes.

9 Therefore haue I also made you to be despised, and vile before all the people, because ye kept not my wayes, but haue bene partiall in the Law.

10 Haue we not all one n father? hath not one God made vs? why doe we transgresse euery one against his brother, and breake the couenant of o our fathers?

11 Judah hath transgressed, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem, for Judah hath defiled the holinesse of the Lord, which hee loued, and hath maried the p daughter of a strange god.

12 The Lorde will cutte off the man that doeth this: both the master and the seruant out of the Tabernacle of Jaakob and him that q offereth an offering vnto the Lorde of hostes.

13 And this haue yee done againe, and r couered the altar of the Lorde with teares, with weeping and with mourning:

a He speaketh vnto them chiefly, but vnder them he comprehendeth the people also.

b To serue me according to my worde.

c That is, the abundance of Gods benefits.

d Your seede sowen shal come to no profite.

e You boast of your holines, sacrifices & feasts, but they shall turne to your shame, and be as vile as doung.

f The Priests obiected against the Prophet that he could not reproue them, but hee must speake against the priesthood, & the office established of God by promise, but hee sheweth, that the office is nothing slandered, when these villaines and doung are called by their owne names.

g Hee sheweth what were the two conditions of the couenant made with the tribe of Leui: on Gods part, that hee would giue them long life & felicitie, and on their part, that they shoulde faithfully serue him according to his word, h I prescribed Leui a certeine Law to serue me.

i He serued me and set forth my glory with all humilitie and submission.

k He sheweth that the Priest ought to haue knowledge to instruct others in the word of the Lord.

l Hee is as the treasure house of Gods word and ought to giue to euery one according to their necessitie, & not to reserue it for himselfe.

m Shewing, that whosoeuer doeth not declare Gods will, is not his messenger, and Priest.

n The Prophet accuseth the ingratitude of the Iewes toward God and man: for seeing they were all borne of one father Abraham, and God had elected them to be his holy people, they ought neither to offend God nor their brethren.

o Whereby they had bound themselues to God to be an holy people.

p They haue ioyned themselues in marriage with them that are of another religion.

q That is, the Priests.

r Ye cause the people to lament, because that God doth not regard their sacrifices, so that they seeme to sacrifice in vaine.

because the offering is no more regarded, neither receiued acceptably at your hands.

14 Yet ye say, [f] Wherein? Because the Lord hath been witnesse betweene thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast transgressed: yet is she thy [t] companion, and the wife of thy [u] couenant.

15 And did not [x] he make one? yet had he [y] abundance of spirit: and wherefore one? because he sought a godly [z] seede: therefore keepe your selues in your [a] spirite, and let none transpasse against the wife of his youth.

16 If thou [b] hatest her, [b] put her away, saith the Lord God of Israel, yet he couereth [c] the iniurie vnder his garment, saith the Lorde of hostes: therefore keepe your selues in your spirit, and transgresse not.

17 Ye haue [d] wearied the Lord with your words: yet ye say, Wherein haue wee wearied him? When yee say, Euery one that [e] doeth euill, is good in the sight of the Lord, and he delighteth in them. Or where is the God of [f] iudgement?

f This is another fault, whereof he accuseth them, that is, that they brake the lawes of marriage.

t As the one halfe of thy selfe.

u She that was ioyned to thee by a solemne couenant, and by the inuocation of Gods Name.

x Did not God make man and woman as one flesh and not many?

y By his power and vertue he could haue made many women for one man.

z Such as should be borne in lawfull and moderate mariage wherein is no excesse of lusts.

a Conteine your selues within your bounds, and be sober in minde, and bridle your affections.

b Not that he doth allow diuorcement, but of the two faults he sheweth, which is the lesse.

c He thinketh it sufficient to keepe his wife still, albeit hee take others, and so as it were couereth his fault.

d Ye murmured against God, because he heard not you assoone as ye called.

e In thinking that God fauoured the wicked, and hath no respect to them that serue him.

f Thus they blasphemed God in condemning his power and iustice, because he iudged not according to their fantasies.

CHAP. III.

1 Of the messinger of the Lord Iohn Baptist, and of Christes office.

BEholde, I will send my [a] messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the [b] Lord whom ye seeke, shal speedily come to his Temple: euen the [c] messenger of the couenant whom ye desire: beholde, he shall come, saith the Lord of hostes.

2 But who [d] may abide the day of his comming? and who shall endure, when he appeareth? for he is like a purging fire, and like fullers sope.

3 And he shall sit downe to trie and fine the siluer: hee shall euen fine the sonnes of [e] Leui, and purifie them as gold and siluer, that they may bring offrings vnto the Lord in righteousnesse.

4 Then shall the offrings of Iudah and Ierusalem be acceptable vnto the Lord, as in old time, and in the yeeres afore.

5 And I will come neere to you in iudgement, and will be a swift witnesse against the soothsayers, and against the adulterers, and against falsewearers, and against those that wrongfully keepe backe the hirelings wages, and vexe the widowe and the fatherlesse, and oppresse the stranger, and feare not me, saith the Lord of hostes.

6 For I am the Lord: I change not, and ye sonnes of Iaakob [f] are not consumed.

a This is meant of Iohn Baptist, as Christ expounded it, Lu. 7. 27.

b Meaning, Messiah, as Psal. 40. 1, 7. dan. 9. 17, 25.

c That is, Christ by whom the couenant was made & ratified, who is called the Angel or messenger of the couenant, because he reconcileth vs to his father: and is Lord or King, because he hath the gouernment of his Church.

d He sheweth y the hypocrites which wish so much for y Lords comming, will not abide when he draweth nere: for he will consume them and purge his and make them cleane.

e He beginneth at the Priests that they might be lights and shine vnto others

f They murmured against God, because they sawe not his helpe euer present to defend them: & therefore he accuseth them of ingratitude & sheweth that in that they are not daily consumed, it is a token that he doth still defend them, and so his mercie toward them neuer changeth,

7 From the dayes of your fathers, ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and haue not kept them: [g] returne vnto me, and I will returne vnto you, saith the Lorde of hostes: but ye saide, Wherein shall we returne?

8 Will a [h] man spoile his gods? yet haue ye spoiled me: but ye say, Wherein haue we spoyled thee? In [i] tithes and offerings.

9 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye haue spoiled me, euen this whole nation.

10 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meate in mine House, and proone me nowe herewith, saith the Lorde of hostes, if I will not open the windowes of heauen vnto you, and powre you out a blessing [k] without measure.

11 And I will rebuke the [l] deuourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruit of your ground, neither shall your vine be barren in the field, saith the Lord of hostes.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shalbe a pleasant land, saith the Lord of hostes.

13 Your words haue bene stout [m] against me, saith the Lord: yet ye say, What haue we spoken against thee?

14 Yee haue said, It is in vaine to serue God: and what profite is it that we haue kept his commaundement, and that wee walked humbly before the Lord of hostes?

15 Therefore wee count the proud blessed: euen they that worke wickednesse, are set vp, and they that tempt God, yea, they are [n] deliuered.

16 [o] Then spake they that feared the Lord, euery one to his neighbour, and the Lord hearkened and heard it, and a [p] booke of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lorde, and that thought vpon his Name.

17 And they shalbe to mee, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day [q] that I shall do this, for a flocke, and I will [r] spare them, as a man spareth his owne sonne that serueth him.

18 Then shall you returne, and discerne betweene the righteous and the wicked, betweene him that serueth God, and him that serueth him not.

g Reade Zech. 1. 3.

h There are none of the heathen so barbarous, that wil defraud their gods of their honour, or deale deceitfully with them.

i Whereby the seruice of God should haue bin maintained, and the Priestes, and the poore relieued.

k Not hauing respect how much ye neede, but I will giue you in all abundance, so that ye shall lacke place to put my blessings in.

l Meaning, the caterpiller, and whatsoeuer destroyeth corne and fruites.

m The Prophet condemneth them of double blasphemie against God: first in that they said that God had no respect to them that serued him, and next that the wicked were more in his fauour then the godly.

n They are not onely preserued to honour, but also deliuered from dangers.

o After these admonitions of the Prophet some were liuely touched, and incouraged others to feare God.

p Both because the thing was strange: that some turned to God in that great and vniuersall corruption, and also that this might be an example of Gods mercies, to all penitent sinners.

q When I shall restore my Church according to my promise, they shalbe as mine owne proper goods.

r That is, forgiue their sinnes, and gouerne them with my spirit.

CHAP. IIII.

The day of the Lord, before the which Eliah should come.

FOr behold, the day commeth, that shall [a] burne as an ouen, and all the proud yea, and al that do wickedly, shalbe stubble, and the day that commeth, shall burne them vp, saith the Lord of hostes, and shall leaue them neither roote nor branch.

2 But vnto you that feare my Name, shal a He propheseth of Gods iudgements against the wicked, who would not receiue Christ, when as God should send him for the restauration of his Church.

the

the [b] ſunne of righteouſneſſe ariſe and healthe ſhalbe vnder his wings, and ye ſhall [c] goe forth, and growe vp as fat calues.

3 And ye ſhall treade downe the wicked: for they ſhall be duſt vnder the ſoles of your feete in the day that I ſhall doe this, ſayeth the Lord of hoſtes.

4 [d] Remember the law of Moſes my ſeruant, which I commaunded vnto him in Horeb for all Iſrael with the ſtatutes and iudgements.

5 Beholde, I will ſend you [e] Eliah the Prophet before the comming of the great and [f] fearefull day of the Lord.

6 And he ſhall [g] turne the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, leſt I come [h] and ſmite the earth with curſing.

b Meaning, Chriſt, who with his wings, or beames of his grace ſhould lighten and comfort his Church, Epheſ. 5.14 and he is called the ſunne of righteouſneſſe, becauſe in himſelfe he hath al perfection, and alſo the iuſtice of the father dwelleth in him: whereby he regenerateth vs into righteouſneſſe, cleanſeth vs from the filth of this world, and reformeth vs to the image of God. c Ye ſhall be ſet at libertie and increaſe in the ioy of the Spirit, 2.Corinth.3.17. d Becauſe the time was come, that the Iewes ſhould be deſtitute of Prophets vntil the time of Chriſt, becauſe they ſhould with more feruent mindes deſire his comming, the Prophet exhorteth them to exerciſe themſelues diligently in ſtudying the lawe of Moſes in the meane ſeaſon, whereby they might continue in the true religion, and alſo be armed againſt all tentations.

e This Chriſt expoundeth of Iohn Baptiſt, Mat.11.13,14. who both for his zeale, and reſtoring of religion is aptly compared to Eliiah. f Which as it is true for the wicked, ſo doeth it waken the godly and call them to repentance. g Hee ſheweth wherein Iohns office ſhould ſtand: in the turning of men to God and ioyning the father and children in one vnide of faith: ſo that the father ſhall turne to the religion of his ſonne which is conuerted to Chriſt, and the ſonne ſhall imbrace the faith of the true fathers Abraham, Izhak and Iakob. h The ſecond point of his office was to denounce Gods iudgements againſt them that woulde not receiue Chriſt.

The ende of the Prophets.

APOCRYPHA.

THE ARGVMENT.

THese bookes that follow in order after the Prophets vnto the new Testament, are called APOCRYPHA, that is, bookes, which were not receiued by a common consent to be read and expounded publikely in the Church, neither yet serued to prooue any poynt of Christian religion, saue in as much as they had the consent of the other Scriptures called Canonicall to confirme the same, or rather whereon they were grounded: but as bookes proceeding from godly men, were receiued to be read for the aduancement and furtherance of the knowledge of the historie, and for the instruction of godly maners: which bookes declare that at all times God had an especiall care of his Church, and left them not vtterly destitute of teachers and meanes to confirme them in the hope of the promised Messiah, and also witnesse that those calamities that God sent to his Church, were according to his prouidence, who had both so threatned by his Prophets, & so brought it to passe for the destruction of their enemies, and for the triall of his children.

CHAP. I.

2 Iosias appointeth Priests, & keepeth the Passeouer. 7 Offerings for the Priests and the people. 11 The order of the Leuites. 23 The vpright life of Iosias. 25 His death and the occasion thereof, and the lamentation for him. 34 Joachaz appointed king. 53 The destruction of Jerusalem.

2. King. 23. 21. 2. chron. 35. 1.

IOsias kept the *Passouer to his Lord in Ierusalem, and offered the Passeouer in the fourteenth day of the first moneth,

2 And appointed the Priests according to their dayly courses, being clothed with long garments in the Temple of the Lord.

3 And hee spake to the Leuites the holy ministers of Israel, that they should sanctifie themselues to the Lord, to set the holy Arke of the Lord in the house, which Salomon the sonne of king Dauid had built,

4 And sayd, Yee shall no more beare the Arke vpon your shoulders: now therefore serue the Lorde your God, and take the charge of his people of Israel, and prepare according to your families and tribes,

5 After the writing of Dauid king of Israel, and according to the maiestie of Salomon his sonne, and stand in the Temple (according to the order of the dignitie of your fathers the Leuites) which were appointed before your brethren the children of Israel.

6 Offer in order the Passeouer, & make ready the sacrifices for your brethren, and keepe the Passeouer after the Lordes commandement giuen to Moyses.

7 And Iosias gaue to the people that was present, thirtie thousand lambes and kids with three thousand calues.

8 These were giuen of the kings possessions according to the promise, to the people, and to the Priests, and to the Leuites. Then gaue Helkias and Zacharias and ‖ Syelus the gouernours of the Temple, to the priests for the Passeouer two thousand fiue hundreth sheepe, and three hundreth calues.

‖ Or, Iehiel.

9 Furthermore, Iechonias, & Samaias and Nathanael his brother, and ‖ Sabias, and ‖ Chelus, and ‖ Jozam captaines gaue to the Leuites for the Passeouer fiue thousand sheepe, and seuen hundreth calues.

‖ Or, Hasabias. ‖ Or, Iehiel. ‖ Or, Choraba.

10 And when these things were done, the Priests & the Leuites stood in order, hauing vnleauened bread according to y tribes, 11 And after the order of the dignitie of their fathers, before the people to offer to the Lorde, as it is written in the bookes of Moyses: and thus they did in the morning.

12 And they rosted the Passeouer with fire as *appertained, and they sod their offerings with perfumes in caldrons and pots, Exod. 12. 8.

13 And set it before all them that were of the people, and afterward they prepared for themselues, and for the Priestes their brethren the sonnes of Aaron.

14 For the Priests offered the fat vnto the euening, and the Leuites did make ready for themselues, and for the Priests their brethren the sonnes of Aaron.

15 And the holy singers the sonnes of Asaph, were in their orders, according to the appointed ordinances of Dauid, to wit, Asaph, and Azarias, and ‖ Eddinus, which was of the kings appointment.

‖ Or, Iedithun.

16 And the porters were at euery gate, so that it was not lawfull, that any should passe his ordinarie watch: for their brethren the Leuites made ready for them.

17 And in that day those things which appertained to the sacrifice of the Lord, were accomplished, that they might offer the Passeouer, 18 And offer sacrifices vpon the altar of the Lorde, according to the commandement of King Iosias.

19 So the children of Israel, which were present at that time, kept the Passeouer, and the feast of vnleauened bread seuen dayes.

20 And there was not such a Passeouer kept in Israel since the time of Samuel the Prophet.

21 And all the Kings of Israel did not offer such a Passeouer, as did Iosias, and the Priests, and the Leuites, and the Iewes, and all Israel, which were found to remaine in Ierusalem.

22 In the eighteenth yeere of the reigne of Iosias was this Passeouer kept.

23 The workes of Iosias were vpright before before his Lord with a heart full of godlinesse.

24 And concerning the things which came to passe in his time, they are written before, to wit, of those that sinned and did wickedly against the Lord, above every nation and kingdome, and grieued him with ‖sensible things, so that the wordes of the Lord stood vp against Israel.

‖Or, by worshipping sensible creatures.

25 ¶ *Now after all these acts of Iosias, it came to passe that when Pharaoh king of Egypt came to moue war at Carchamis vpon Euphrates, Iosias went out against him.

2. Chron. 35. 20.

26 But the king of Egypt sent to him, saying, What haue I to doe with thee, O king of Iudea.

27 I am not sent of the Lorde God against thee: but my warre is vpon Euphrates, and now the Lord is with mee, and the Lord hasteneth mee forward: depart from me, and be not against the Lord.

28 But Iosias would not turne backe his chariot from him, but prepared himselfe to fight with him, not regarding the wordes of Jeremias the Prophet, by the mouth of the Lord.

29 But hee set himselfe in battell aray against him in the field of Megeddo, and the Princes came downe to king Iosias.

30 And the king said vnto his seruants, Conuey me out of the battell, for I am very weake. And by and by his seruants brought him out of the battell.

31 So he gate vpō his second chariot, and being come againe to Jerusalem he changed his life, & was buried in his fathers graue.

32 And in all Iudea was Iosias bewayled, yea, Jeremias the Prophet did lament for Iosias, and the gouernours, and their wiues did lament him vnto this day: and this was ordeined in all the kindred of Israel, to be done continually.

33 But these things are written in the booke of the stories of ỹ kings of Iudea, and euery one of the acts that Iosias did, and his glory, and his knowledge in the law of the Lorde, and the things which hee did before, and the things now rehearsed are registred in the booke of the kings of Israel and Iudea.

34 Then they of the nation tooke * Joachaz the sonne of Iosias, and made him king in stead of his father Iosias, when he was three and twentie yeere olde.

2. King. 23. 30. 2. chron. 36. 1.

35 And he reigned in Iudea and in Jerusalem three moneths: for the king of Egypt deposed him from reigning in Jerusalem.

36 Hee tared also the people of an hundreth talents of siluer, & one talent of golde.

37 And the king of Egypt made Joacim his brother king of Iudea and Jerusalem.

38 And hee bound Joachaz and his gouernours: but when hee had taken Zaraces his brother, he led him away into Egypt.

39 Twentie and fiue yeere old was Joacim, when he reigned in Iudea and Jerusalem, and he did euill in the sight of the Lord.

40 Wherefore against him came vp Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, who when he had bound him with a chaine of brasse, led him away into Babylon.

41 Then Nabuchodonosor tooke of the holy vessels of the Lorde, and carryed them away, & set them in his temple at Babylon.

42 But all his acts, and his prophanation, and his reproch are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings.

43 And Joacim his sonne reigned for him: and when he was made king, hee was eightreene yeeres olde.

44 And hee reigned three moneths and ten dayes in Jerusalem, and hee did euill in the sight of the Lord.

45 ¶ So a yeere after Nabuchodonosor sent and brought him to Babylon with the holy vessels of the Lord.

46 And he made Sedecias king of Iudea and Jerusalem, when he was one and twentie yeere olde, and he reigned eleuen yeeres.

47 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lord, neyther did he feare the words spoken *by Jeremias the Prophet from the mouth of the Lord.

Ierem. 38. 22.

48 For after that he was sworne to king Nabuchodonosor, he forswore himselfe by the name of the Lord, and fell away, and hardned his necke and his heart, and transgressed the lawes of the Lord God of Israel.

49 Also the gouernors of the people, and the Priests committed many things against the Lawes, and passed all the pollutions of all nations, and polluted the Temple of the Lord, which was sanctified in Jerusalem.

50 Neuertheless the God of their fathers sent his messenger to call them back, because he spared them, and his owne Tabernacle.

51 But they derided his messengers, and in the day, that the Lorde spake vnto them, they mocked his Prophets, 52 So that he, being moued to anger against his people for their great wickednes, commaunded the kings of the Caldeans to inuade them.

53 These killed their yong men with the sword round about their holy Temple, neither did they spare yong man, nor mayden, neither olde man, nor childe among them.

54 But hee deliuered them all into their handes, and all the holy vessels of the Lord, both great and small, with the vessels of the Arke of God: and they tooke, and caryed away the kings treasures into Babylon.

55 And they set fire in the house of the Lord, and brake downe the walles of Jerusalem, and burnt their towres with fire.

56 They consumed also all the precious things thereof, and brought them to nought, and those that were left by the sword, he caried away into Babylon.

57 And they were seruants to him, and to his children till the Persians reigned, to fulfill the word of the Lord by the mouth of *Jeremias, Ierem. 25. 11. and 29. 10.

58 And that the lande might enioy her Sabbaths all the time, that it was desolate, till seuentie yeeres were accomplished.

2 The Lorde rayſed vp the ſpirit of Cyrus King of the Perſians, and hee made proclamation throughout all his kingdome, euen by expreſſe letters,

3 Saying, Thus ſaith Cyrus King of the Perſians, the Lorde of Iſrael, euen the moſt high Lorde, hath made me King ouer the whole worlde,

4 And he hath cõmanded me to build him an houſe in Ieruſalem, which is in Iudea.

5 If there bee any therefore of you of his people, let the Lord, euen his Lorde be with him, and let him go vp to Ieruſalem, which is in Iudea, and build the houſe of the Lorde of Iſrael: he is the Lorde which dwelleth in Ieruſalem.

6 All they then that dwell in the places round about, thoſe, I ſay, that are in his place, let them helpe him with gold and ſiluer,

7 With gifts, with horſes and cattell, and other things, which ſhall bee brought according to the vowes, into the Temple of the Lord, which is in Ieruſalem.

8 ¶ Then arose the chiefe of the families of Iudea, & of the tribes of Beniamin, and the Prieſts and Leuites, & all whoſe minde the Lord had mooued to goe vp, and builde an houſe to the Lord in Ieruſalem.

9 And thoſe that were about them, helped them in all things with ſiluer and gold, horſes, and cattell, and with diuers vowes of many whoſe minds were ſtirred vp.

10 Alſo king Cyrus brought out the holy veſſels of the Lorde, which Nabuchodonoſor had caried out of Ieruſalem, & had conſecrated them in the Temple of his idoles.

11 Now when Cyrus King of the Perſians had brought them out, hee deliuered them to Mithridates his treaſurer, 12 By whome they were giuen to ‖ Aſſar the gouernour of Iudea.

‖Or, Shaſh-baſar, or Sanabaſſar.

13 Whereof this was the number: a thouſand golden cups, and a thouſand ſiluer cups, baſins of ſiluer, for the ſacrifices, nine and twentie viales, of golde thirtie, and of ſiluer two thouſand foure hundreth and ten, and a thouſand other veſſels.

14 So all the veſſels of gold and ſiluer, which they carried away, were fiue thouſand, foure hundred, threeſcore and nine.

15 They were brought by Sanabaſſar with them of the captiuitie of Babylon to Ieruſalem.

Ezra 4.6.

16 ¶ But* in the time of Artaxerres king of the Perſians ‖ Belemus, and Mithridates, and Tabellius and Rathumus, and Beeltethmus, and ‖ Semellius the ſecretarie, and others which were ioyned to theſe, dwelling in Samaria and in other places, wrote vnto him this Epiſtle here following againſt them that dwelt in Iudea and Ieruſalem, TO THE KING ARTAXERXES OVR LORD.

‖Or, biſchlemus.

‖Or, Shimſhi.

17 Thy ſeruants, Rathumus the writer of things that come to paſſe, & Semellius the ſecretarie, and the reſt of their counſell, and the Iudges which are in Coeloſyria and Phenice.

18 Be it nowe therefore knowen to our lord the king, that the Iewes which came vp from you, are come to vs into Ieruſalem, that rebellious and wicked citie, and build the market places, and make vp the walles thereof, and lay the foundations of the Temple.

19 Therefore if this citie be built, and the walles be finiſhed, they will not onely not indure to pay tribute, but will alſo reſiſt Kings.

20 And becauſe the things pertaining to the Temple, go forward, wee thought it not meete to paſſe ouer ſuch a thing,

21 But to declare it to our lord the king, that if it be thy pleaſure, it may be ſought out in the bookes of thy fathers,

22 And thou ſhalt find in the Chronicles the writtings concerning theſe things, and ſhalt know that this citie did alwaies rebell, and did trouble both kings and cities,

23 And that ỳ Iewes are rebellious, raiſing alwayes warres therein: for the which cauſe alſo this citie was made deſolate.

24 Now therefore, O Lord the king, we declare it, that if this citie be built, and the walles thereof repayred, you ſhall haue no more paſſage into Coeloſyria, nor Phenice.

25 ¶ Then the king wrote againe to Rathumus, that wrote the things that came to paſſe, and to Beeltethmus, and to Semellius the ſecretarie, and to the reſt of thoſe that were ioyned with them, and to the dwellers of Samaria, Syria and Phenice, theſe things that follow.

26 I haue read the epiſtle, which ye ſent to me: therfore I commanded, that it ſhould be ſought out, and it was found, that this citie hath alwayes practiſed againſt kings, 27 And that the men thereof were giuen to rebellion and warres, and how that mightie kings and fierce haue reigned in Ieruſalem, which tooke tribute of Coeloſyria, and Phenice.

28 Now therefore I haue commanded to forbid theſe men to build vp the citie, and that it be taken heede that no more be done, 29 And that thoſe wicked things which ſhould moleſt the king, goe not forward.

30 Then when Rathumus, and Semellius the Secretary and the reſt, which were ioyned with them, had read the things, which King Artaxerres had written, they mooued their tents with ſpeede to Ieruſalem with horſes and men in aray, 31 And began to let them which built, ſo that the building of the Temple in Ieruſalem ceaſed vnto the ſecond yeere of the reigne of Darius King of the Perſians.

CHAP. III.

1 The feaſt of Darius. 16 The threewiſe ſentences.

NOw when Darius reigned, hee made a great feaſt to all his ſubiects, and to all thoſe of his owne houſe, and to all the Princes of Media and Perſia,

2 And to all the gouernours and captaines, and lieutenants that were with him, from India vnto Ethiopia of an hundreth and ſeuen and twentie prouinces.

3 And when they had eaten and drunke, and were ſatisfied, they departed, and King Darius went into his chamber, and ſlept, till he wakened againe.

4 ¶ In the meane time three yong men of the the garde, keepers of the kings bodie, sayde one to another,

5 Let euery one of vs speake a sentence, and hee that shall ouercome, and whose sentence shall appeare wiser then the others, Darius the king shall giue him great gifts, and great things in token of victorie,

6 As to weare purple, and to drinke in golde, and to sleepe in golde, and a chariot with bridles of golde, an head tyre of fine linnen, and a chaine about his necke.

7 And he shall sit next to Darius for his wisedome, and shalbe called Darius cousin.

8 Then euery man wrote his sentence and sealed it, and put it vnder the pillowe of King Darius, 9 And said, when ỹ king rose, they would giue him the writing, and whose sentence the king and the three princes of Persia should iudge to be wisest, to him should the victorie be giuen, as it was appointed.

10 One wrote, The wine is strongest.

11 The other wrote, The king is strongest.

12 The other wrote, Women are strongest, but truth ouercommeth all things.

13 ¶ And when the king rose, they tooke the writings and gaue them to him, and red them,

14 And sent and called all the noble men of Persia and of Media, and the gouernours and the captaines, and lieutenants, and the counsels, 15 And sate him downe in the Councell, and the writing was read before them.

16 Then he sayd, Call the yong men, that they may declare their owne sentences. So they called them, and they came in.

17 Then he said vnto them, Declare vnto vs the writings. So the first beganne, which had spoken of the strength of wine, 18 And sayde on this maner, O yee men, howe strong is wine! it deceiueth all men that drinke it.

19 It maketh the mind of the King and of the fatherlesse both one, of the bond man and of the free man, of the poore man and and of the rich man.

20 It turneth also euery thought into ioy and gladnesse, so that one remembreth no maner of sorow, nor debt.

21 It maketh euery heart rich, so that one remembreth neither king nor gouernor, and causeth to speake all things by talents.

Or, pounds.

22 When men haue drunke, they haue no minde to loue either friends or brethren, and a little after they draw out swords.

23 But when they are from the wine, they doe not remember what they haue done.

24 O ye men, is not wine strongest, which compelleth to doe such things? and hee held his peace when he had thus spoken.

CHAP. IIII.

Of the strength of a king. 13 Of the strength of women. 34 Of the strength of truth, which sentence is approued, 47 and his petition granted.

THen the second which had spoken of the strength of the king, began to say,

2 O ye men, are not men strongest, which beare rule by land and by sea, and ouer all things which are in them?

3 But the king is yet greater: for he ruleth all things, and is Lord of them, so that they doe all things which he commandeth them.

4 If he bid them make warre one against another, they doe it: if he send them out against the enemies, they goe and breake downe mountaines and walles and towers.

5 They kill & are killed, and do not passe the commandement of the king: if they ouercome, they bring all to the king, as well the spoyles as all other things.

6 And those also which goe not to warre and battell, but till the earth: for when they haue sowen it againe, they reape it, & bring it to the King, and compell one another to pay tribute to the King.

7 Yet he is but one man: if hee bid: Kill, they kill: if he say, Spare, they spare.

8 If he bid, Smite, they smite: if hee bid them, Make desolate, they make desolate: if he bid, Build, they build.

9 If he bid, Cut off, they cut off: if he bid, Plant, they plant.

10 So all his people, and all his armies obey one man: in the meane while he sitteth downe, he eateth, and drinketh, and sleepeth.

11 For these keepe him round about: neither can any one goe and doe his owne businesse, neither are they disobedient vnto him.

12 O yee men, how should not the King be strongest, seeing he is thus obeyed! So he held his tongue.

13 ¶ Then the third which had spoken of women and of the truth (this was Zorobabel) began to speake, 14 O ye men, neither the mightie King, nor many men, nor wine is strongest: who then ruleth them or hath dominion ouer them? are they not women?

15 Women haue borne the king, & all the people which beare rule by sea and by land.

16 Euen of them were they borne, and they nourished them which planted the vines of which the wine is made.

17 They also make mens garments and make them honourable, neither can men be without women.

18 And if they haue gathered together gold and siluer, or any goodly thing, doe they not loue a faire and beautifull woman?

19 Do they not leaue all those things and giue themselues wholly vnto her, and gape, and gaze vpon her, & all men desire her more then gold or siluer, or any precious thing?

20 A man leaueth his owne father which hath nourished him, and his owne country, and is ioyned with his wife.

21 And for the woman he leopardeth his life, and neither remembreth father nor mother nor country.

22 Therefore by this ye may knowe that the women beare rule ouer you: doe ye not labour and trauaile, and giue and bring all to the women?

23 Yea, a man taketh his sword and goeth forth to kil and to steale, and to saile vpon the sea, and vpon riuers, 24 And he seeth a Lion & goeth in darknesse, and when he hath stolen, rauished and spoyled, he bringeth it to his loue.

25 Wherefore a man loueth his owne wife more then father or mother.

26 Yea,

26 Yea, many haue runne mad for women, and haue bene seruants for them.

27 Many also haue perished and haue erred and sinned for women.

28 Now therefore doe you not beleeue me? is not the King great in his power? doe not all regions feare to touch him?

29 Yet I sawe him and Apame, the Kings concubine, the daughter of the famous Bartacus, sitting on the right hand of the King, 30 And shee tooke the crowne off the Kings head, and put it vpon her owne, and stroke the King with her left hand.

31 Yet in the meane season the King gaped and gazed on her: and if shee laughed at him hee laughed: and if shee were angry with him, hee did flatter her, that he might be reconciled with her.

32 How then, O ye men, are not women mighty, seeing they doe thus?

33 ¶ Then the King and the Princes looked one vpon another, and he began to speake of the trueth.

34 O ye men, are not women stronger? great is the earth, and the heauen is high, and the Sunne is swift in his course: for hee turneth round about heauen in one day, and runneth againe into his owne place.

35 Is not he great that maketh these things? therefore the trueth is greater and stronger then all.

36 All the earth calleth for trueth, and the heauen blesseth it: and all things are shaken and tremble, neither is there any vniust thing with it.

37 The wine is wicked, the King is wicked, women are wicked, and all the children of men are wicked, and all their wicked workes are such, and there is no trueth in them, and they perish in their iniquitie.

38 But trueth doeth abide, and is strong for euer, and liueth and reigneth for euer and euer.

39 With her there is no receiuing of persons nor difference: but shee doeth the things which are iust, and abstaineth from vniust and wicked things, and all men fauour her workes.

40 Neither is there any vniust thing in her iudgement, and she is the strength and the kingdome and the power, and maiestie of all ages. Blessed be the God of trueth.

41 So he ceased to speake, & then all the people cryed and sayd, Trueth is great and strongest.

42 Then the King said vnto him, Aske what thou wilt besides that which is appointed, and we will giue it thee, because thou art found the wisest, and thou shalt haue libertie to sit by me, and shalt be called my cousin.

43 ¶ Then hee sayde to the King, Remember the vowe that thou hast vowed to build Ierusalem, in the day that thou tookest ꝑ kingdome, 44 And to sende againe all the vessels that were taken out of Ierusalem, which Cyrus set apart when hee made a vowe to cut off Babylon, and vowed to send them thither.

45 Thou also hast vowed to builde the Temple, which the Idumeans burnt when Iudea was destroyed by the Chaldeans.

46 And nowe, O lord the King, this is that which I desire and require of thee, and this is the magnificence, which I require of thee: I require therefore that thou wouldest accomplish the vowe which thou hast vowed with thine owne mouth to doe to the King of heauen.

47 Then King Darius rising vp, kissed him, and wrote him letters to all the stewards and lieutenants, and captaines, and gouernours, that they should bring on the way both him, and all that were with him, which went vp to build Ierusalem.

48 And hee wrote letters to all the Lieutenants in Coelosyria, and Phenice, and to them that were in Libanus, that they should bring cedar wood from Libanus to Ierusalem, and build the citie with him.

49 And hee wrote for all the Iewes, which went vp out of the kingdome vnto Iudea, concerning their libertie, that no prince nor Lieutenant, nor gouernour, nor steward should enter into their doores,

50 And that all the region which they kept, should pay no tribute, and that the Idumeans should let goe the villages of the Iewes which they held,

51 And that euery yere there should be giuen for the building of the Temple twenne talents vntil it were built,

52 And to maintaine the burnt offrings vpon the altar euery day (as they had a commandement to offer seuenteene) other tenne talents euery yeere.

53 And that all they which went from Babylon to build the citie, should haue libertie, as well they as their posteritie, and all the Priests that went away.

54 Hee wrote also touching the charges, and the Priests garment, wherein they should minister.

55 And hee wrote that they should giue the Leuites their charges vntill the house were finished, and Ierusalem built.

56 Also hee wrote that they should giue pensions and wages to them that kept the citie.

57 And hee sent away all the vessels which Cyrus had set apart out of Babylon, & whatsoeuer Cyrus had commaunded to doe, hee also commanded to do it, and to send to Ierusalem.

58 And when the ‖ young man was gone forth, hee lift vp his face to heauen towardes Ierusalem, and gaue thankes to the King of heauen,

‖ Or, Zorobabel.

59 Saying, of thee is the victorie, and of thee is wisedome, and of thee is glory, and I am thy seruant.

60 Blessed be thou which hast giuen me wisdome: for vnto thee I acknowledge it, O Lorde of our fathers.

61 ¶ So hee tooke the letters, & went out and came to Babylon, and told all his brethren.

62 And they blessed the God of their fathers, because he had giuen them freedom and libertie.

63 To goe vp and to builde Ierusalem, and the Temple where his Name is renowned, and they reioyced with instruments of musike and ioy seuen dayes.

56 And in the second peere and second moneth came into the Temple of God in Jerusalem, Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, and Jesus the sonne of Josedec, and their brethren, and the Priests and Leuites, and all they that came out of captiuitie into Jerusalem, 57 And * layd the foundation of the house of God in the first day of the second moneth of the second peere, after their returne into Judea and Jerusalem. Esdras 4. 12.

58 And they appointed the Leuites from twentie peere olde ouer the workes of the Lord, and Jesus and his sonne, and his brethren, and his brother Cadmiel, and the sonnes of Hadiadon with the sonnes of Joda, the sonne of Heliadun, with their sonnes and brethren, euen all the Leuites with one accord did followe after the worke, calling vpon the workes in the house of God: thus the workemen built the Temple of the Lord.

59 And the Priests stoode clothed with their long garments with musicall instruments and trumpets, and the Leuites the sonnes of Asaph with cymbals, 60 Singing and blessing the Lord, according to the ordinance of Dauid king of Israell.

61 And they sung with loude voyce songes to the praise of the Lorde, because his mercie and glory is for euer in all Israell.

62 Then all the people blewe trumpets, and cryed with loude voyce, praysing the Lorde for the rayling vp of the house of the Lord.

63 Also some of the Priests and Leuites, and chiefe men, to wit, the Ancients, which had seene the former house,

64 Came to see the building of this with weeping and great crying, & many with trumpets and ioy cried with loude voyce,

65 So that the people could not heare the trumpets, because of the weeping of the people: yet there was a great multitude that blewe trumpets, so that they were heard farre off.

66 ¶ Wherefore when the enemies of the tribes of Juda, and Beniamin heard it, they came to know what noyse of trumpets it was,

67 And they knew that they of the captiuitie built the Temple to the Lord God of Israel.

68 Wherefore they comming to Zorobabel, and Jesus, and the chiefe of the families, said vnto them, Let vs build also with you.

69 For we obey your Lord, as you doe, and sacrifice vnto him since the dayes of ‖ Asbasareth king of the Assyrians, which brought vs hither.

‖Or, Assaresten, or, Asachadon.

70 Then Zorobabel, and Jesus, & the chiefe of the families of Israel said to them, It doeth not appertaine to vs, & to you to build an house to the Lord our God.

71 For we alone will build it to the Lord God

Eſra 4.3,4. of Iſrael, as it becommeth vs, & as * Cyrus the King of the Perſians bade vs.

72 Howbeit the people of ỹ land made them ſluggiſh that were in Judea, and letted them to builde the worke, and by their ambuſhmentes and ſeditions and conſpiracies hindred the finiſhing of the building.

73 All the time of King Cyrus like: ſo that they were let from the buildyng two yeere, vntil the reigne of Darius.

CHAP. VI.

1 Of Aggeus and Zacharias. 2 The building of the Temple. 3 Siſinnes would let them. 7 His Epiſtle to Darius. 23 The Kings anſwere to the contrary.

Eſra 5.1. nehe.1.1. BVt * in the ſecond yeere of the reigne of Darius, Aggeus and Zacharias the ſonne of Addo the Prophets prophecied to the Iewes, euen vnto them that were in Judea and Jeruſalem, in the Name of the Lord God of Iſrael, which they called ‡ vpon.

‡Greeke, vpon them.

2 Then Zorobabel ſonne of Salathiel, and Jeſus the ſonne of Joſedec ſtood vp, and began to build the houſe of the Lord, which is in Jeruſalem, the Prophets of the Lord being with thē, and helping them.

3 ¶ In that time Siſinnes the gouernour of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabouzanes with his companions came vnto them,

4 And ſaid vnto them, By whoſe commandement build you this houſe and this building, and enterpriſe all theſe other things? and who are the builders that enterpriſe ſuch things?

5 But the ancients of the Iewes had grace of the Lorde, after that hee had viſited the captiuitie,

6 That they were not letted to build, vntil it was ſignified vnto Darius of theſe matters, and an anſwere was receiued.

7 ¶ The copie of the Epiſtle, which hee did write and ſend to Darius: SISINNES gouernour of Syria and of Phenice, and Sathrabouzanes, and their companions, preſidents in Syria and Phenice, ſalute king Darius.

8 It may pleaſe the king our maſter plainely to vnderſtand, that when wee came to the countrey of Judea, and entered into the citie of Jeruſalem, wee found in the citie of Jeruſalem the ancients of the Iewes that were of the captiuitie, 9 Building an houſe to the Lorde, great and new, of hewen ſtones, & of great price, and the timber alreadp laid vpon the walles.

10 And theſe workes are done with great ſpede, pea, and the worke hath good ſucceſſe in their handes, ſo that it will be finiſhed with all glorp and diligence.

11 Then we aſked their ancients, ſaying, By whoſe commaundement build you this houſe, and lap the foundation of theſe workes?

12 Wee aſked them theſe things to the intent to notifie them to thee, and to write to thee the men that gouerned it: therefore we demaunded the names of the gouernours in writing.

13 But they anſwered, ſaping, Wee are the ſeruaunts of the Lord, which hath created the heauen and the earth.

1.King.6.2. 14 And * this houſe was built vp many yeeres agoe by a king of Iſrael great & ſtrong, and was finiſhed.

15 But when our fathers, prouoking God to wrath, ſinned againſt the Lorde of Iſrael, which is in heauen, * he deliuered them into the hands of Nabuchodonoſor king of Babylon of the Chaldeans, 2.Kyn.24.1.

16 Who brake downe the houſe and burnt it, and caried the people captiue to Babylon.

17 But in the firſt yeere of the reigne of Cyrus ouer the countrey of Babylon, king Cyrus wrote that this houſe ſhould be built vp 18 And the holy veſſels of golde and of ſiluer, which Nabuchodonoſor had caried out of the houſe at Jeruſalem, and had dedicated them at his owne temple, Cyrus the king tooke out of the Temple at Babylon, and they were giuen to Zorobabel, and to ‖ Sanaballarus ruler.

‖Or, Shaſhbaſar.

19 And a commandement was giuen vnto him, that he ſhould carp away thoſe veſſels, and put them in the Temple at Jeruſalem, and that this Temple of the Lord ſhould be built in this place.

20 Then the ſame Sanaballarus, being come hither, layde the foundations of the houſe of the Lorde at Jeruſalem, and ſince that time till nowe, it is in building, and is not finiſhed.

21 Nowe therefore if it pleaſe the king, let it bee ſought vp in the kings libraries concerning Cyrus.

22 And if it be found that the building of the houſe of the Lorde at Jeruſalem hath bene done by the conſent of king Cyrus, & if it ſeeme good to the lord our King, let him make vs anſwere concerning theſe things.

23 Then King Darius commaunded to ſearch in the Kings libraries that were in Babylon, and there was founde in Ecbatane, which is a tower in the region of Media, a place where ſuch things were laied vp for memorie.

24 In the firſt yeere of the reigne of Cyrus, King Cyrus commanded the houſe of the Lorde at Jeruſalem to bee builded, where they did ſacrifice with the continuall fire.

25 Of the which the height ſhould bee of three ſcore cubites, the breadth of three ſcore cubites, with three rowes of hewen ſtones, and one rowe of new wood of that countrp, and that the coſtes ſhould be paied out of the houſe of King Cyrus.

26 And that the holy veſſels of the houſe of the Lord, as well thoſe of gold as of ſiuer, which Nabuchodonoſor had caried out of the houſe in Jeruſalem, and brought into Babylon, ſhould be reſtored to the houſe, which is in Jeruſalem, and ſet in the place where they were afore.

27 Alſo he commanded that Siſinnes gouernour of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabouzanes, and their companions, and thoſe which were conſtitute captaines in Syria and Phenice, ſhould take heede to refraine from that place, and to ſuffer Zorobabel the ſeruant of the Lord, and gouernour of Judea, and the elders of the Iewes to build that houſe of the Lorde in that place.

28 And alſo haue commaunded to builde it cleane vp againe, & that they be diligent to helpe them of the captiuitie of the Iewes, till the houſe of the Lord be finiſhed,

29 And that ſome part of the tribute of Coeloſyria loſyna and Phenice ſhould be diligently giuen to theſe men for ſacrifice vnto the Lorde, and to Zorobabel the gouernour, for bulles, rammes, and lambes:

30 Alſo corne, and ſalt, and wine, and oyle continually euery yeere without fayle, as the Prieſtes which are in Jeruſalem ſhall teliſie to be ſpent euery day, 31 That offerings may be made to the hie God for the king and his children, and that they may pray for their liues.

32 Furthermore he commanded that whoſoeuer ſhould tranſgreſſe any thing afore ſpoken or written, or derogate any thing thereof, that a tree ſhould be taken out of his poſſeſſion, and he be hanged thereon, and that his goods ſhould be the Kings.

33 And therefore let the Lord whoſe name is there called vpon, deſtroy euery King and nation, which ſtretcheth out his hand to hinder or doe euill to that houſe of the Lorde which is in Jeruſalem.

Eſra 6.12. 34 * I Darius the King haue ordeined that it ſhould be diligently executed according to theſe things.

CHAP. VII.

1 Eſdras and his companions followe the Kings commaundement, and helpe the Iewes to builde the Temple. 5 The time that it was built. 10 They keepe the Paſſeouer.

Eſra 6.13. THen Stſinnes the *gouernour of Coeloſyria and Phenice, and Sathrabouzanes, and their companions obeying King Darius commandements, 2 Aſſiſted diligently the holy workes, working with the ancients and gouernours of the Sanctuarie.

3 And the holy workes proſpered by Aggeus and Zacharias the Prophets which prophecied.

4 So they finiſhed all things by the commaundement of the Lorde God of Iſrael, and with the conſent of Cyrus and Darius, and Artaxerres Kings of the Perſians.

5 Thus the holy houſe was finiſhed in the three and twentieth day of the moneth Adar in the ſixt yeere of Darius King of the Perſians.

6 ¶ And the children of Iſrael, and the Prieſtes and the Leuites, and the reſt, which were of the captiuitie, and had any charge, did according to the things written in the booke of Moyſes.

7 And they offered for the dedication of the Temple of the Lorde, an hundreth bulles, two hundreth rammes, foure hundreth lambes,

8 And twelue goates for the ſinne of all Iſrael, according to the number of the chiefe of the tribes of Iſrael.

9 And the Prieſtes and the Leuites ſtoode according to their kinreds, clothed with long robes in the workes of the Lord God of Iſrael, according to the booke of Moyſes, and alſo the porters in euery gate.

10 And the children of Iſrael offered the Paſſeouer together with them of the captiuitie, in the fourteenth day of the firſt moneth, after that the Prieſts & Leuites were ſanctified.

11 But all the children of the captiuitie were not ſanctified together, but all the Leuites were ſanctified together.

12 And they offered the Paſſeouer for all the children of the captiuitie, and for their brethren the Prieſtes, and for themſelues.

13 Then all the children of Iſrael which were of the captiuitie did eate, euen all they that had ſeparated themſelues from the abominations of the people of the land, and ſought the Lorde.

14 And they kept the feaſt of vnleauened bread ſeuen dayes, reioycing before the Lord, 15 Becauſe he had turned the counſell of the King of the Aſſyrians towards them to ſtrengthen their handes in the workes of the Lorde God of Iſrael.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Eſdras commeth from Babylon to Ieruſalem. 10 The copie of the commiſſion giuen by Artaxerres. 29 Eſdras giueth thankes to the Lorde. 32 The number of the heads of the people that came with him. 76 His prayer and confeſſion.

AND after theſe things when Artaxerres King of the Perſians reigned, Eſdras the ſonne of ‖ Saraias, the ſonne of Ezerias, the ſonne of Helcias, the ſonne of Salum, ‖ Or, Azarias.

2 The ſonne of Sadoc, the ſonne of Achitob, the ſonne of Amarias, the ſonne of ‖ Ezias, the ſonne of ‖ Memeroth, the ſonne of ‖ Zaraias, the ſonne of ‖ Saulas, the ſonne of Boccas, the ſonne of Abiſum, the ſonne of Phinees, the ſonne of Eleazar, the ſonne of Aaron was the hie Prieſt. ‖ Or, Meraioth. ‖ Or, Sama. ‖ Or, Azi.

3 This Eſdras went out of Babylon, and was a ſcribe well taught in the Lawe of Moyſes, giuen by the Lord God of Iſrael.

4 Alſo the King gaue him great honour, and he founde grace in his ſight in all his requeſtes.

5 With him alſo there departed ſome of the children of Iſrael, and of the Prieſtes and Leuites, and of the holy ſingers, and of the Porters, and of the miniſters of the Temple vnto Jeruſalem,

6 In the ſeuenth yeere of the reigne of Artaxerres, and in the fift moneth: this was the ſeuenth yeere of the King (for they went out of Babylon in the firſt day of the firſt moneth,

7 And came to Jeruſalem according as the Lord gaue them ſpeede in their iourney.)

8 For Eſdras had gotten great knowledge, ſo that he would let nothing paſſe that was in the Lawe of the Lorde, and in the commaundements, and he taught all Iſrael all the ordinances and iudgements.

9 So the Commiſſion written by King Artaxerres was giuen Eſdras the Prieſt, and reader of the Lawe of the Lorde: the copie thereof followeth.

10 King Artaxerres to Eſdras the Prieſt, and reader of the Law of the Lord, Saluation.

11 For as much as I conſider things with pitie, I haue commaunded that they that will and deſire of the nation of the Iewes, and of the Prieſtes and Leuites, which are in our kingdome, ſhould goe with thee vnto Iſrael.

12 Therefore as many as be willing, let them depart together, as it hath ſeemed good to me and my ſeuen friends the counſellers,

13 That they may viſite the things that are in Iudea and Ierusalem diligently, as it is contemned in the Law of the Lord.

14 And carp the giftes to the Lord of Israel in Ierusaleur, which I and my friends haue vowed: also all the gold and siluer, which shall be found in the countrey of Babylon apperteining to the Lord in Ierusalem, 15 With that which is giuen of the people to the Temple of the Lorde their God, that it might be brought to Ierusalem, as well siluer as golde, for bulles, and rammes, and lambes, and thinges thereunto perteining,

16 That they may offer sacrifices to ℔ Lord vpon the altar of the Lord their God, which is in Ierusalem.

17 And whatsoeuer thou and thy brethren will doe with the golde or siluer, accomplish it according to the will of thy God.

18 And the holy vessels of the Lorde, which are giuen thee for the vse of the Temple of thy God, which is in Ierusalem, thou shalt set before thy God in Ierusalem.

19 And what other things soeuer thou shalt remember for the vse of ℔ Temple of thy God, thou shalt giue it out of the Kings treasure.

20 And I also King Artarerres haue commanded the treasurers of Syria and Phenice, that whatsoeuer Esdras, the Priest and reader of the Lawe of the highest God, shall send for, they should giue it him with all speede, euen to the summe of an hundreth talents of siluer,

21 And likewise vnto an hundreth cores of corne, and an hundreth pieces of wine & other things in abundance.

22 Let al things be done to the highest God, according to the Lawe of God with diligence, that wrath come not vpon the kingdo|ne of the King and of his sonnes.

23 Also to you it is commaunded that of none of the Priests or Leuites, or holy singers or porters, or ministers of the Temple, or of the workemen of this Temple, no tribute nor tare be taken, nor that any haue power to tare them in any thing.

24 Thou also, Esdras, according to the wil-dome of God, ordeine iudges and gouernours that they may iudge in all Syria and Phenice all those which are well instructed in the Lawe of thy God, and teach those, which are not instructed.

25 And let all those which shall transgresse the Lawe of God and the King, be diligently punished, either with death, or other punishment, either with penaltie of money, or banishment.

26 ¶ Then Esdras the Scribe saide, Blessed be the onely Lorde God of my fathers, which hath put this in the heart of the King to glori-fie his house which is in Ierusalem.

27 And hath honoured me before the King, and the counsellers, and all his friends and gouernours.

Ezra 8.1. 28 ¶* Therefore I was incouraged by the helpe of the Lord my God, and gathered men of Israel to goe with me.

29 These are the guides after their families and order of dignities, which came vp with me out of Babylon in the reigne of Artarerres the King.

counted an hundreth and fifte men.

32 Of the sonnes of ‖ Salomon, Abeliacnias the sonne of Zacharias, and with him two hun-dreth men.

‖ Or, Pahath Moab, Elioenai.

33 Of the sonnes of Zathoe, Sechenias the sonne of ‖ Iezelus, and with him three hundreth men: of the sonnes of Adin, ‖ Obeth sonne of Ionathas, and with him two hundreth and fiftie men.

‖ Or, Ieziel. ‖ Or, Obed.

34 Of the sonnes of Elam, ‖ Iesias sonne of Gotholias, and with him seuentie men.

‖ Or, Iesaias.

35 Of the sonnes of Saphatias, Zarias, sonne of ‖ Dachael, and with him seuentie men.

‖ Or, Michael.

36 Of the sonnes of Ioab, ‖ Badias sonne of Iezelus, and with him two hundreth & twelue men.

‖ Or, Obadiah sonne of Iecziel.

37 Of the sonnes of ‖ Wanid, Assalimoth sonne of Iosaphias, and with him an hundreth and threescore men.

‖ Or, Banidh, Esdomith.

38 Of the sonnes of Babi, Zacharias sonne of Bebai, and with him twentie and eight men.

39 Of the sonnes of ‖ Astath, Iohannes sonne of Acatan, and with him an hundreth and tenne.

‖ Or, Asgad, Iohannan sonne of Ecatthan.

40 Of the sonnes of Adonicam the last: and these are the names of them, Eliphalat, ‖ Ie-uuel and ‖ Maias, and with them seuenty men:
of the sonnes of ‖ Bagouthi sonne of Iscacou-rus, and with him seuentie men.

‖ Or, Iehel. ‖ Or, Semaias. ‖ Or, Bagoi, Vti, sonne of Istacuri.

41 ¶ And I gathered them together to the flood called * Theras, and pitched our tents there three dayes, and mundred them.

Ezra 8.15.

42 But when I had founde there none of the Priests nor Leuites,

43 I sent to Eleazar, and behold, there came ‖ Maasman, and Alnathan, and Samaian, and ‖ Iozibon, and Nathan, Ennatan, Za-charian, and ‖ Mosollamon the chiefe, and best learned.

‖ Or, Masma, Alnathan, ‖ Or, Iorib, Elnathan, Zacharie, & Mesollam.

44 And I bade them to go to Daddeus the captaine which was in the place of the treasu-rie,

45 With charge to bidde Daddeus and his brethren, and the treasurers that were there, to send to vs them, which should offer sacrifice in the house of our Lord.

46 And they brought vnto vs by the mightie hand of our Lord learned men of the sonnes of Moli, the sonne of Leui, the sonne of Israel, to wit, ‖ Silebebian and his sonnes, and his brethren being eighteene.

‖ Or, Serebia.

47 And Asebia, and ‖ Annon, & Osaian his brethren of the sonnes of ‖ Canameus with their sonnes, twentie persons.

‖ Or, Anom, Iesaias. ‖ Or, Canaanmen.

48 And of the ministers of the Temple, which Dauid gaue, and those which were rulers ouer the worke of the Leuites, to wit, ministers of the Temple, two hundreth & twenty, of whom all the names were registred.

49 ¶ And* there I proclaimed a fast for the young men before the Lorde to aske of him a good iourney both for vs, and for them that were with vs, for our children, and for our cattell.

Ezra 8.21.

50 For I was ashamed to aske the King footemen or horsemen, or conduct for safe-gard

gard against our enemies.

51 Because we had saide to the king, that the power of our Lorde shoulde be with them that sought him, to direct them in all things.

52 Wherefore we prayed our Lorde againe, according to these things, whom we found fauourable.

53 Then I chose from among the chiefe of the tribes, and of the Priestes, twelue men, to wit, ‖Or, Serebias. ‖ Esebrias and Asamias, and with them ten of their brethren.

54 And I weighed them the siluer and the golde, and the holy vessels of the House of our Lord, which the king and his counsellers, and his princes, and all Israel had giuen.

55 And I weighed them, fiue hundreth and fiftie talents of siluer, and siluer vessels of an hundreth talents, and an hundreth talents of golde.

56 And twentie golden bassins, & twelue vessels of brasse, of fine brasse shining like golde.

57 And I said to them, You are also holy to the Lord, and the vessels are holy, and the golde, and the siluer is a vowe to the Lord of our fathers.

58 Watch and keepe them, till that you giue them to ꝑ heads of the families of the Priestes, and Leuites, and captaines of the families of Israel in Jerusalem in the chambers of the house of our God.

59 So the Priestes and Leuites tooke the siluer and the golde, and the vessels, and caried them to Jerusalem to the Temple of the Lord.

60 And wee departed from the flood Thera, in the twelfth day of the first moneth, and came to Jerusalem, according to the mightie power of our Lorde with vs: and the Lorde deliuered vs from the beginning of our iourney from all enemies. So wee came to Jerusalem.

61 And three dayes being past there, in the fourth day the siluer that was weighed, and the golde was deliuered in the house of our Lorde to ‖ Or, Marimoth the Marmoth the Priest, the sonne of Joure. sonne of Iori of Vrie.

62 And with him to Eleazar the sonne of Phinees: and there were with them, Josabad the sonne of Jesus, and ‖ Or, Noedia, sonnes of Banuus, Moeth sonne of Sabbanus, Leuites: all was deliuered them by number and weight.

63 And all the weight of them was written that same houre.

64 Afterwards those that were come out of the captiuitie, offered sacrifices to the Lord God of Israel, euen twelue bulles for all Israel, rammes fourescore and sixteene.

65 Lambes threescore and twelue, twelue goates for saluation, all in sacrifice to the Lord.

66 And they presented the commandements of the King to the Kings stewards, and to the gouernours of Coelosyria and Phenice, who honoured the people, and the Temple of God.

Ezra 9.1. 67 ¶ * When these things were done, the gouernours came to me, saying, The people of Israel, the Princes and the Priestes, and the Leuites haue not separated from them the strange people of the land,

68 For the pollutions of the Gentiles, to wit, of the Cananites, and Chetites, and Pherezites, and Jebusites, and Moabites, and Egyptians, and Idumeans, 69 For they haue dwelt with their daughters, both they and their sonnes, and the holy seede is mixed with the strange people of the land, and the gouernours and rulers haue bin partakers of this wickednesse from the beginning of the thing.

70 And as soone as I had heard these things, I rent my clothes, and the holy garment, and I pulled the haire of mine head, and off my beard, and sate me downe sorowful, and very sad.

71 Then also all they that were moued with the word of ꝑ Lord God of Israel, came to me whiles I wept for the iniquitie, but I sate very sad till the euening sacrifice.

72 Then I rose from the fast with my clothes torne, and the holy garment, and bowed my knees, and stretched foorth mine hands to the Lord, Ezra 9.6. 73 And said, *O Lorde, I am ashamed, and confounded before thy face.

74 For our sinnes are increased aboue our heads, and our ignorances are lifted vp to heauen.

75 Yea, euen from the time of our fathers we are in great sinne vnto this day.

76 For our sinnes therefore, and our fathers, wee with our brethren, with our Kings and Priests haue bene giuen vp to the kings of the earth, to the sword and to captiuitie, and for a pray with all shame vnto this day.

77 And nowe howe great hath thy mercie bene, O Lord, that there should be left vs a root and name in the place of thine holinesse!

78 And that thou shouldest reueile to vs a light in the house of the Lord our God, and giue vs meate in the time of our seruitude!

79 For when we were in bondage, we were not left of our God, but he gaue vs fauour before the kings of the Persians, that they should giue vs meate, 80 And that they should honour the Temple of our Lorde, and raise vp Sion that is desolate, and giue vs assurance in Judea and Jerusalem.

81 And nowe, O Lorde, what shall we say, hauing these things? for we haue transgressed thy commaundements, which thou hast giuen by the hands of thy seruants the Prophets, saying,

Deut. 7.3. 82 *Because the land, which ye goe to inherite, is a land polluted by the pollutions of the strangers of the land, which haue filled it with their filthinesse,

83 Therefore nowe ye shall not ioyne your daughters with your sonnes, neither giue your daughters to their sonnes, 84 Neither shall you desire to haue peace with the for euer, that ye may be made strong, and eate the good things of the land, and leaue it for an inheritance to your children for euer.

85 Therefore all that is come to passe, was done for our wicked workes, and for our great sinnes: yet, Lorde, thou hast forborne our sinnes.

86 And hast giuen vs such a roote: but wee againe haue turned backe to transgresse thy Law, and to mixe vs with the vncleannesse of the people of the land.

87 Wilt not thou bee angrie with vs to destroy vs, so that thou shouldest neither leaue vs roote, nor seede, nor name?

88 But, O Lord of Israel, thou art true: for there is a root left, euen vnto this day.

89 Beholde, wee are nowe before thee with our iniquities, neither can wee endure before thee for these things.

Ezra 10.1. 90 ¶ And * as Esdras prayed and confessed and wept, and lay vpon the ground before the Temple, a very great multitude was gathered vnto him out of Jerusalem of men & women, and yong children: for there was great lamentation among the multitude.

Or, Ieiel. 91 Then Iechonias the sonne of ‖ Jeel of the sonnes of Israel, crying out, said, O Esdras, we haue sinned against the Lord God: we haue taken in marriage strange women of the nations of the land.

92 And now all Israel is doubtfull: therefore let vs make an othe concerning this to the Lorde to put away all our wiues, which are strangers, with their children.

93 If it seeme good to thee, and to all them that obey the Lawe of the Lorde, rise vp and put it in execution.

94 For to thee doeth it apperteine, and wee are with thee to make thee strong.

95 Then Esdras arose, and made all the chiefe of the families of the Priests and Leuites of all Israel to sweare, that they would doe thus: and they sware.

CHAP. IX.

7 After Esdras had read the law for the strange wiues,
10 they promise to put them away.

Ezra 10.6. THen * Esdras rose from the court of the Temple, and went to the chamber of Joannan the sonne of Eliasib,

2 And being lodged there, hee did eate no bread nor drinke water, but mourned for the great iniquities of the multitude.

3 And there was a proclamation in all Iudea and Jerusalem, to all them that were of the captiuitie, that they should be gathered to Jerusalem,

4 And that all they which should not meete there within two or three dayes, according to the ordinance of the Elders, which bare rule, should haue their cattell confiscate to the Temple, and hee cast out from among them of the captiuitie.

5 Then all they which were of the tribe of Juda & Beniamin, came together within three dayes, into Jerusalem: this was the ninth moneth, and twentieth day of the moneth.

6 And all the multitude sate in the broade place of the Temple shaking, because of the extreme winter.

7 Then Esdras arose and said to them, Ye haue sinned: for yee haue married strange wiues, so that ye haue augmented the sinnes of Israel.

8 Nowe therefore confesse and glorifie the Lord God of our fathers, 9 And doe his will, and separate your selues from the people of the land, & from the strange wiues.

10 Then all the multitude cried out and said with a loud voyce, We will doe so as thou hast said.

11 But because the multitude is great, and the time is winter, so that wee cannot stande without, and the worke is not of one day nor of two, seeing that many of vs haue sinned in this matter,

12 Let the chiefe men of the multitude, and all they which haue strange wiues of our families, tarrie:

13 And let the Priestes and Judges come out of all places at the day appointed, till they haue appeased the wrath of the Lord against vs for this matter.

14 Then Jonathas Asaels sonne, and ‖ Ezecias sonne of ‖ Thecan were appointed concerning these things, and ‖ Mosollam and Sabbatens did helpe them. ‖ Or, Iahazias. ‖ Or, Thocan.

15 And they which were of the captiuitie, did after all these things.

16 Esdras the Priest also chose him certeine men, chiefe of their families, all by name: and they sate together in the first day of the tenth moneth to examine this matter.

17 And they made an end of the things perteining to them þ had married strange wiues in the first day of the first moneth. ‖ Or, Massias

18 And there were founde of the Priestes, which had married strange wiues, ‖ Or, Iedaliah ‖ Or, Anani, and Zabiah.

19 Of the sonnes of Jesus, the sonne of Josedec, and of his brethren ‖ Mathelas, and Eleazar, and Joribus, and ‖ Jonadan. ‖ Or, Phashur, Elionai, Maassias, Ismael.

20 Who also gaue their handes to cast out their wiues, and offered a ramme for their reconciliation in their purgation. ‖ Or, Obidel, and Alasa.

21 And of the sonnes of Emmer, ‖ Ananias, and Zabdeus, and Canes, and Samerus, and Hierael, and Azarias. ‖ Or, Josabad, Semei.

22 And of the sonnes of ‖ Phaisu, Ellionas, Masias, Esmaelus, and Nathanael, and ‖ Ocidelus, and Talsas. ‖ Or, Galias, Thathias, Iobudas.

23 And of the Leuites, ‖ Jozabadus, and Semis, and Colius, who was called ‖ Calitas, and Patheus, and Oondas, and Jonas. ‖ Or, Eliasib, and Bachur. ‖ Or, Sallum.

24 Of the holy Singers, ‖ Eliazurus, Baccharus. ‖ Or, Remias. ‖ Or, Banadias

25 Of the porters, ‖ Sallumus, & Tolbanes. ‖ Or, Elam.

26 Of them of Israel, of the sonnes of Phoros, ‖ Hiermas, & Eddias, and Melchias, and Maelus, and Eleazar, & Asibias, & ‖ Banaias. ‖ Or, Ishiel. ‖ Or, Ieremoth and Helias.

27 Of the sonnes of ‖ Ela, Matthanias, Zacharias, and ‖ Hierielas, and ‖ Hieremoth, and Aedias. ‖ Or, Zathoes, Eliodas, Elisib.

28 And of the sonnes of ‖ Zamoth, Eliadas, Eliasimus, Othonias, Jarimoth, and ‖ Sabatus, and Sardeus. ‖ Or, Sabad, and Sardai.

29 Of the sonnes of ‖ Bebai, Joannes, and Ananias, and ‖ Josabad, and Ematheas. ‖ Or, Bebe. ‖ Or, Iosabat, and Emah.

30 Of the sonnes of ‖ Pani, Olamus, Maamuchus, Jedaias, Jasubus, Jasael, and Jeremoth. ‖ Or, Bani, Olam, Malluch, Idaia, Iasub.

31 And of the sonnes of ‖ Addi, Naathus, Moosias, Laccunus, and Naidus, & Mathanias, and ‖ Sesthel, and Balmus, & Manasseas. ‖ Or, Addin, Naatus, Laccun, Banaias.

32 And of the sonnes of Annas, Elionas, and Aseas, and Melchias, and Sabbeus, and Simon a Chosamite. ‖ Or, Bezelel, Balnui, Manasses.

33 And of the sonnes of ‖ Asom, Altaneus, and ‖ Matthias, and Bannaias, Eliphalat, and Manasses, and Semei. ‖ Or, Hasam.

34 And of the sonnes of ‖ Maani, Jeremias, Momdis, Omairus, Juel, Mamai, and Pacsias, and Amos, Carabasion, and Enasibus, and Mamnitanaims, Eliasis, Bannus, Eliali, Samis, Selemias, Nathanias, and of the sonnes of Ozoias, Sesis, Esril, Azaelus, ‖ Or, Mathmas, Matathia.

‖ Or, Ban, Ieremias, Meaadi, Enuram.

Samatas,

Samatas, Saimbis, Iosiphus.

35 And of the sonnes of Ethna, Mazitias, Zabadias, Ethes, Inel, Banaias.

36 All these married strange wiues, and put them away with their children.

37 And the Priestes and the Leuites dwelt in Ierusalem, and in the countrey, the first day of the seuenth moneth, and the children of Israel in their owne houses.

Nehem.8.1. 38 ¶ * Then all the multitude assembled together with one consent into the broade place before the gate of the Temple toward the East, 39 And spake to Esdras the Priest, and reader, that hee should bring the Lawe of Moyses, which had bene giuen by the Lord God of Israel.

40 Then brought Esdras the chiefe priest the Law to all the multitude, both man & woman, and to all the Priests, that they might heare the Law the first day of the seuenth moneth.

41 And hee read in the first broade place of the gate of the Temple, from morning to midday, before the men and the women, and all the multitude harkened to the Law.

42 So Esdras the Priest and reader of the Lawe, stood vpon a pulpit of wood that was prepared.

‖Or, Matithias. 43 And there stoode by him ‖ Matgathias, Samnus, Ananias, Azarias, Ourias, Ezecias, Balasamus, at his right hand,

45 Then Esdras tooke the booke of the Lawe before the multitude (for hee sate honourably before them all)

46 And they all stoode vpright when he expounded the Law, and Esdras blessed the Lord the most High God, the most mightie God of hostes.

47 And the whole multitude cried, Amen.

48 Then Iesus, and ‖ Anus, and Sarabias, and Adinus, and Iacobus, Sabatatas, Autanias, Maianias, and Calitas, Azarias, and Ioazabdus, and Ananias, and Biatas the Leuites lift vp their hands, and fell downe on the ground, and worshipped the Lord, ‖Or, Banl.

49 And taught the Lawe of the Lorde, and stood also earnestly vpon the reading.

50 Then sayde ‖ Athetharates to Esdras the chiefe Priest and Reader, and to the Leuites, that taught the multitude in all things, This day is holy vnto the Lord, and all haue wept in hearing of the Law. ‖Or, Nehemias.

51 Goe therefore and eate the fatte meates, and drinke the sweet drinkes, and send presents to them that haue not.

52 For this day is holy to the Lorde, and be not sore: for the Lord God will glorifie you.

53 So the Leuites commaunded all these things to the people, saying, This day is holy to the Lord: be not sad.

54 Then they departed all to eat and drinke, and to reioyce, & to giue presents to them that had not, and to make good cheere.

55 For they were yet filled with the wordes wherewith they were instructed, when they were assembled together.

II. Esdras.

CHAP. I.

8 The people is reprooued for their vnfaithfulnesse.
30 God will haue another people, if these will not be reformed.

Ezra 7.1. THe second booke of the Prophet * Esdras, the sonne of Saraias, the sonne of Azarias, the sonne of Helcias, the sonne of Sadamias, the sonne of Sador, the sonne of Achitob,

2 The sonne of Achias, the sonne of Phinees, the sonne of Heli, the sonne of Amarias, the sonne of Asse, the sonne of Marimoth, the sonne of Arna, the sonne of Ozias, the sonne of Bozith, the sonne of Abiser, the sonne of Phinees, the sonne of Eleazar,

3 The sonne of Aaron (of the tribe of Leui) which Esdras was prisoner in the land of Medes, in the reigne of Artarerres king of Persia.

Isa.58.1. 4 * And the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

5 Goe, and shewe my people their sinnes, and their children their wickednesse, which they haue committed against me, that they may tell their childrens children.

6 For the sinnes of their fathers are increased in them, because they haue forgotten me, and haue offered vnto strange gods.

7 Haue not I brought them out of the land of Egypt from the house of bondage? but they haue prouoked me vnto wrath, and despised my counsels.

8 Pull thou off then the haire of thine head, and cast all euill vpon them: for they haue not beene obedient vnto my Lawe, but they are a rebellious people.

9 Howe long shall I forbeare them, vnto whom I haue done so much good?

10 * Many kings haue I destroyed for their sakes: Pharao with his seruants and all his armie haue I smitten downe. Exod.14,28.

11 All the nations haue I destroyed before them: * I haue destroyed the East, the people of the two countreys, Tyrus and Sidon, and haue slaine all their enemies. Num.21.24. Ioſh.8.12.

12 Speake thou therefore vnto them, saying, Thus sayth the Lord, 13 * I haue ledde you thorow the Sea, and haue giuen you a sure ‖way, since the beginning: * I gaue you Moyses for a guide, and Aaron for a Priest. Exod.14.29. ‖Or, streets. Exod.3.10.

14 * I gaue you light in a pillar of fire, and great woonders haue I done among you: yet haue ye forgotten me, saith the Lord. and 4.14. Exod.13.21.

15 Thus sayeth the Almightie Lorde, The quailes * were a token vnto you: I gaue you tents for safegard, wherein ye murmured: Exod.16.13.

16 And yee triumphed not in my Name for the destruction of your enemies, but yet murmure still. Pſal.104.40.

17 Where are the benefites that I haue done for you? when yee were hungrie in the wildernesse, * did ye not crie vnto me, Num.14.3.

18 Saying, Why hast thou brought vs into this wildernesse, to kill vs? It had bene better for vs to haue serued the Egyptians, then to die in this wildernesse.

*19 I had pitie vpon your mournings, and gaue you Manna to eate: * so yee did eate Wiſd.16.20.

you? from the heate I couered you with the leaues of the trees,

21 And I gaue you fatte countreys: I cast Isa.5.4. out the Cananites, the Pherezites, and Philistims before you: * What shall I doe more for Exod.15.23. you, sayth the Lord?

22 Thus saith the Almightie Lord, * When ye were in the wildernesse at the bitter waters, being athirst, and blaspheming my Name,

23 I gaue you not fire for the blasphemies, but cast a tree into the water, and made the ri-uer sweet.

24 What shall I doe vnto thee, O Iacob?
Exod.32.8. thou * Iuda wouldest not obey: I will turne me to other nations, and vnto those will I giue my Name, that they may keepe my lawes.

25 Seeing ye haue forsaken me, I will also forsake you: when ye aske mercie of me, I will not haue pitie vpon you.

Isa.1.15. 26 * When yee call vpon mee, I will not heare you: for ye haue defiled your hands with blood, and your feete are swift to commit mur-ther,

27 Although yee haue not forsaken mee, but your owne selues, sayth the Lord.

28 Thus sayth the Almightie Lorde, Haue I not prayed you, as a father his sonnes, and as a mother her daughters, and as a nurse her yong babes,

29 That ye would be my people, as I am your God, and that yee would be my children, as I am your Father?

Mat.23.37. 30 * I gathered you together as an henne gathereth her chickens vnder her wings: but nowe what shall I doe vnto you? I will cast you out from my sight.

Isa.1.13. 31 * When you bring gifres vnto me, I will turne my face from you: for your solemne feast dayes, your newe moones, and your circumci-sions haue I forsaken.

32 I sent vnto you my seruants the Prophets, whom ye haue taken & slaine, and torne their bodies in pieces, whose blood I will reuenge, sayth the Lord.

33 Thus sayth the Almighte Lorde, Your house shalbe desolate: I will cast you out as the winde doth the stubble.

34 Your children shall not haue generation:
for they haue despised my commandement, and done the thing that I hate, before me.

35 Your houses will I giue vnto a people to come, who shall beleeue me though they heare me not, and they, vnto whom I neuer shewed miracle, shall doe the things that I command them.

36 Though they see no Prophets, yet shall they hate their iniquities.

37 ¶ I will declare the grace that I will doe for the people to come, whose children reioyce in gladnesse, and though they haue not seene me with bodily eyes, yet in heart they beleeue
the things that I say.

38 Now therefore brother, behold what great glory, & see the people that come from the East.

39 Vnto whom I will giue for leaders, Abiahaam, Isaac, Iacob, Oseas, Amos, Micheas, Joel, Abdias, Jonas,

40 Naum, Abacuc, Sophonias, Aggeus, Zacharias, and Malachias (which is called also the *messenger of the Lord.) Malac.3.1.

CHAP. II.

The Synagogue findeth fault with her owne children.
18 The Gentiles are called.

THus sayth the Lord, I brought this people out of bondage: I gaue them also my com-mandements by my seruants the Prophets, whom they would not heare, but despised my counsels.

2 The mother that bare them, sayth vnto them, Goe you away, O children: for I am a widow and forsaken.

3 I brought you vp with gladnesse, but with sorrow and heauinesse haue I lost you: for ye haue sinned against the Lorde your God, and done the thing that displeaseth him.

4 But what shall I nowe doe vnto you? I am a widow and forsaken: goe ye, O my children, and aske mercie of the Lord.

5 And thee, O Father, I call for a witnesse for the mother of these children, which would not keepe my couenant,

6 That thou bring them to confusion, and their mother to a spoyle, that their kindred be not continued.

7 Let their names bee scattered among the heathen: let them be put out of the earth, for they haue despised my couenant.

8 Woe vnto thee, Assur: for thou hidest the vnrighteous in thee: O wicked people, remember * what I did vnto Sodom and Gomorah, Gen.19.24.

9 Whose land is mired with clouds of pitch and heapes of ashes: so will I doe vnto them, that heare me not, saith the Almightie Lord.

10 ¶ Thus saith the Lord vnto Esdras, Tell my people, that I will giue them the kingdome of Jerusalem, which I would haue giuen vnto Israel.

11 And I will get mee glory by them, & giue them the euerlasting tabernacles, which I had prepared for those.

12 They shall haue at will the tree of life, smelling of ointment: they shall neither labour nor be wearie.

13 Go ye, and ye shal receiue it: pray that the time, which is long, may be shortned: the kingdome is already prepared for you: watch.

14 Take heauen and earth to witnesse: for I haue abolished the euill, and created the good:
for I liue, sayth the Lord.

15 Mother, embrace thy children, and bring them vp with gladnesse: make their feet as fast as a pillar: for I haue chosen thee, sayeth the Lord.

16 And those that be dead, will I raise vp from their places, & bring the out of the graues:
for I haue knowen my name in Israel.

17 Feare not, thou mother of the children: for
I haue chosen thee, sayth the Lord.

18 I will sende thee my seruants Esai and Jeremie to helpe thee, by whose counsel I haue sanctified and prepared for thee twelue trees laden with diuers fruits,

19 And as many fountaines, flowing with milke and honie, & seuen mightie mountaines, whereupon there grow roses and lilies, whereby I will fill thy children with ioy.

20 Execute iustice for the widow: iudge the cause of the fatherlesse: giue to the poore: defend the fatherlesse: clothe the naked,

21 Heale

21 Heale the wounded, and ſicke: laugh not a lame man to ſcorne: defend the creeple, and let the blinde come into the light of my clearenesse.

22 Keepe the old and the yong that are within thy walles.

Tobi.1.17. 23 *Whereſoeuer thou findeſt the dead, take them and burye them, and I will giue thee the firſt place in my reſurrection.

24 Abide ſtill, O my people, and reſt: for thy quietneſſe ſhall come.

25 Nouriſh thy children, O thou good nurſe: ſtablith their feete.

26 None of the ſeruants that I haue giuen thee, ſhall periſh: for I will ſeeke them from among thy number, 27 Be not weary: for when the day of trouble and heauineſſe commeth, other ſhall weepe and bee ſorowfull, but thou ſhalt be merie, and haue abundance.

28 The heathen ſhall enuie thee, and ſhall doe nothing againſt thee, ſaith the Lord.

29 Mine hands ſhall couer thee, ſo that thy children ſhall not ſee hell.

30 Be ioyfull, O thou mother, with thy children: for I will deliuer thee, ſaith the Lord.

31 Remember thy children that ſleepe: for I will bring them out of the ſides of the earth, and will ſhewe mercie vnto them: for I am merciful ſaith the Lord Almightie.

32 Embrace thy children, vntill I come and ſhew mercie vnto them: for my fountaines run ouer, and my grace ſhall not faile.

33 I Eſdras receiued a charge of the Lorde vpon the mount Horeb, that I ſhoulde goe vnto them of Iſrael, but when I came to them, they caſt me off, and deſpiſed the commaundement of the Lord.

34 And therefore I ſay vnto you, O yee heathen, that heare and vnderſtand, Waite for your ſhepheard, who ſhall giue you euerlaſting reſt: for hee is neere at hande, that ſhall come in the end of the world.

35 Bee ready to the reward of the kingdome: for the euerlaſting light ſhall ſhine vpon you for euermore.

36 Flee the ſhadowe of this worlde: receiue the ioye of your glorie: I teſtifie my Sauiour openly.

37 Receiue the gift that is giuen you, and be glad, giuing thankes vnto him that hath called you to the heauenly kingdome.

38 Ariſe and ſtand vp, and beholde the number of thoſe that are ſealed for the feaſt of the Lorde, 39 Which are departed from the ſhadowe of the world, and haue receiued glorious garments of the Lord.

40 Take thy number, O Sion, and ſhut vp them that are clothed in white, which haue fulfilled the Lawe of the Lorde.

41 The number of thy children whome thou longeſt for, is fulfilled: beſeech the power of the Lorde, that thy people which haue beene called from the beginning, may be ſanctified.

Reue.7.9. 42 *I Eſdras ſaw vpon mount Sion a great people whome I could not number, and they all praiſed the Lord with ſongs.

43 And in the middes of them there was a yong man higher in ſtature then them all, and vpon euery one of their heads hee ſet crownes, and was higher then the others, which I much marueiled at.

44 So I asked the Angel, and ſaid, Who are theſe, my Lord?

45 Who anſwered, and ſaid vnto me, Theſe be they that haue put off the mortall clothing, & haue put on the immortall, and haue confeſſed ℔ name of God: now are they crowned, and receiue the palmes.

46 Then ſaid I vnto the Angel, What yong man is it, that ſetteth crowns on them, and giueth them the palmes in their hands?

47 And he anſwered, and ſaid vnto me, It is the ſonne of God, whom they haue confeſſed in the world. Then began I greatly to commend them, that had ſtood ſo ſtrongly for the name of the Lord.

48 Then the Angel ſaide vnto mee, Goe thy way, and tell my people, what, and how great wonders of the Lord God thou haſt ſeene.

CHAP. III.

4 The wonderous workes, which God did for the people, are recited. 31 Eſdras marueileth that God ſuffereth the Babylonians to haue rule ouer his people, which yet are ſinners alſo.

IN the thirtieth yeere after the fall of the citie, as I was at Babylon, I lay troubled vpon my bed, & my thoughts came vp to mine heart,

2 Becauſe I ſaw the deſolation of Sion, and the wealth of them that dwelt at Babylon.

3 So my ſpirite was ſore moued, ſo that I beganne to ſpeake fearefull wordes to the moſt High, and ſaid,

4 O Lord, Lorde, thou ſpakeſt at the beginning when thou alone plantedſt the earth, and gaueſt commandement vnto the people,

5 *And a body vnto Adam, without ſoule, who was alſo the workemanſhip of thine hands, and haſt breathed in him the breath of life, ſo that he liued before thee, Gene.2.7.

6 And leddeſt him into Paradiſe, which thy right hande had planted, or euer the earth ‖ brought forth. ‖ Or, went forward.

7 Euen then thou gaueſt him commaundement to loue thy way: but he tranſgreſſed it, and immediatly thou appointedſt death to him and his generation, of whome came nations, tribes, people, and kinreds out of number.

8 *And euery people walked after their own will, and did wonderful things before thee, and deſpiſed thy commandements. Gene.6.12.

9 *But at the time appointed thou broughteſt the flood vpon thoſe that dwelt in ℔ world, and deſtroyedſt them, Gen.7.10.

10 So that by the flood, that came to euery one of them, which came by death vnto Adam, 11 Yet thou leftest one, euen *Noe, with his houſhold, of whom came all righteous men. 1.Pet.3.20.

12 And when they ℔ dwelt vpon the earth, began to multiplie, and the number of the children, people, & many nations were increaſed, they began to be more vngodly then the firſt.

13 Howe when they liued wickedly before thee, * thou diddeſt chuſe thee a man from among them, whoſe name was * Abraham. Gen.12.1. Gen.17.5.

14 Whome thou louedſt, and vnto whome onely thou ſhewedſt thy will.

15 And madeſt an euerlaſting couenãt with him, promiſing him that thou wouldeſt neuer forſake his ſeede. Gen.21.2,3. Gen.25.25, 26.

16 *And vnto him thou gaueſt Iſaac, *vnto Iſaac alſo thou gaueſt Iacob and Eſau, * and diddeſt Mal.1.2.3. rom.9.13.

diddest chuse Jacob, and cast off Esau, and so Jacob became a great multitude.

17 And when thou leddest his seede out of Exod.19.1. deut.4.10. Egypt, * thou broughtest them vp to mount Sina, 18 And inclinedst the heauens, and bowedst downe the earth, & didst moue the ground, and cause the depths to shake, and diddest astonish the world.

19 And thy glory went thorow foure gates of fire, with earthquakes, winde and colde, that thou mightest giue the Law vnto the seed of Jacob, and that which the generation of Israel should diligently obserue.

20 Yet tookest thou not away from them the wicked heart, that thy Law might bring forth fruit in them.

Gene.3.6. 21 For * Adam first hauing a wicked heart, was ouercome and vanquished, and all they that are borne of him.

22 Thus remained weakenesse ioyned with the Lawe in the hearts of the people, with the wickednesse of the roote: so that the good departed away, and the euill abode still.

23 So the times passed away, and the yeres 1.Sam 16. 13. 2.Sam.5 1. and 7.5.13. were brought to an end, * till thou diddest arise thee vp a seruant called Dauid.

24 * Whom thou commandedst to builde a citie vnto thy Name, to call vpon thee therein with incense and sacrifice.

25 When this was done many yeeres, the inhabitants forsooke thee, 26 Following the wayes of Adam & all his generation: for they also had a wicked heart.

27 Therefore thou gauest thy citie ouer into the hands of thine enemies.

28 But do they that dwell at Babylon, any better, that they should haue the dominion of Sion?

29 For when I came thither, and saw their wicked deeds without number (for this is the thirtieth yeere that I see many trespassing) I was discouraged.

30 For I saw, how thou sufferedst them that sinne, and sparedst the wicked doers, whereas thou hast destroyed thine owne people, and preserued thine enemies, and thou hast not shewed it.

31 I cannot perceiue how this commeth to passe. Are the deedes of Babylon better then they of Sion?

32 Or is there any other people that knoweth thee besides Israel? or what generation hath so beleeued thy testimonies as Jacob?

33 And yet their reward appeareth not, and their labour hath no fruite: for I haue gone here and there thorowout the heathen, and I see them flourish, and thinke not vpon thy commandements.

34 Weigh thou therefore our wickednesse now in the ballance, and theirs also that dwell in the world, and no mention of thee shall be found but in Israel.

35 Or when is it that they that dwell on the earth haue not sinned in thy sight? or what people hath so kept thy commandements?

36 Thou shalt surely finde þ Israel by name hath kept thy precepts, but not the heathen.

CHAP. IIII.

2 The Angel reproueth Esdras, because he seemed to enter into the profound iudgements of God.

AND the Angel that was sent vnto mee, whose name was Vriel, answered,

2 And said, Thine heart hath taken too much vpon it in this world, and thou thinkest to comprehend the wayes of the Highest.

3 Then said I, Yea, my Lord. And he answered me, and said, I am sent to shew thee three wayes, and to set foorth three similitudes before thee,

4 Whereof if thou canst declare me one, I will shew thee also the way that thou desirest to see, and I will shew thee from whence the wicked heart commeth.

5 And I said, Tell on, my Lord. Then said he vnto mee, Goe thy way, weigh mee the weight of the fire, or measure me the blast of the winde, or call me againe the day that is past.

6 Then answered I, and said, what man is borne, that can doe that, which thou requirest me, concerning these things?

7 And hee said vnto me, If I should aske thee how deepe dwellings are in the middes of the sea, or how great springs are in the beginning of the depth, or how great springs are in the stretching out of the heauen, or which are the borders of Paradise,

8 Peraduenture thou wouldest say vnto me, I neuer went down to the deepe, nor yet to the hell, neither did I euer clime vp to heauen.

9 But nowe haue I asked thee but of fire and winde, and of the day, wherehy thou hast passed, and from the which things thou canst not be separated, and yet canst thou giue mee none answere of them.

10 He said moreouer vnto me, Thine owne things, and such as are growen vp with thee, canst thou not know:

11 Howe should thy vessell then be able to comprehend the wayes of the Highest, and now outwardly in the corrupt world, to vnderstand the corruption, that is endent in my sight?

12 Then said I vnto him, It were better that we were not at al, then that we should liue in wickednesse, and to suffer, and not to know wherefore.

13 And he answered me, and said, * I came to a forrest in the plaine where the trees held a councell, Iudges 9.8. 2.chro.25. 18.

14 And said, Come, let vs goe fight against the sea, that it may giue place to vs, and that we may make vs more woods.

15 Likewise the floods of the sea tooke counsell and said, Come, let vs goe vp and fight against the trees of the wood, that we may get another countrey for vs.

16 But the purpose of the wood was vaine: for the fire came and consumed it.

17 Likewise also the purpose of the floods of the sea: for the sand stood vp and stopped them.

18 If thou were iudge betweene these two, whom wouldest thou iustifie? or whom wouldest thou condemne?

19 I answered and said, Verily it is a foolish purpose, that they both haue deuised: for the ground is appointed for the wood, and the sea hath his place to beare his floods.

20 Then answered he me, and said, Thou hast giuen a right iudgement: but why iudgest thou not thy selfe also?

21 For like as the ground is appointed for the

Isa. 55. 1, 9. John 3. 31. 1. cor. 2. 13, 14.

the wood, and the sea for his floods, so * they that dwell upon earth, can understand nothing, but that which is upon earth: and they that are in the heavens, the things that are above the height of the heavens.

22 Then answered I, and saide, I beseeche thee, O Lord, let understanding be given me.

23 For I did not purpose to enquire of thine high things, but of such as wee daily meddle withall, namely, wherefore Israel is made a reproche to the heathen, and for what cause the people whom thou hast loved, is given over to wicked nations, and why the lawe of our fathers is abolished, and the written ceremonies are come to none effect, 24 Why wee are tossed to and fro through the world as the grashoppers, and our life is a verie feare, and wee are not thought worthy to obteine mercie.

25 But what will he doe to his name, which is called upon over us? Of these things have I asked the question.

26 Then answered he me, and said, The more thou searchest, the more thou shalt marvelle: for the world hasteth fast to passe away, 27 And cannot comprehende the things that are promised to the righteous in time to come: for this worlde is full of unrighteousnesse and weakenesse.

28 But to declare thee the things whereof thou askest, the evill is sowen, but the destruction therof is not yet come.

29 If the evill nowe that is sowen, bee not turned upside downe, and if the place where the evill is sowen, passe not away, then cannot the thing come, that is sowen with good.

30 For the corne of evil seede hath bin sowen in the heart of Adam from the beginning, and how much ungodlinesse hath he brought up unto this time? And howe much shall hee bring foorth until the harvest come?

31 Ponder with thy selfe, howe much fruite of wickednesse the corne of evill seede bringeth foorth, 32 And when the stalkes shall be cut downe which are without number, how great an harvest must be prepared.

33 Then I answered, and said, Howe, and when shall these things come to passe? wherefore are our yeeres fewe and evill?

34 And he answered me, saying, Haste not to bee above the most High: for thou labourest in vaine to be above him, though thou endevour never so much.

35 Did not the soules also of the righteous aske question of these things in their chambers, saying, Howe long shall I thus hope? and when commeth the fruite of my harne and our wages?

36 And upon this Jeremiel the Archangel answered, and sayde: When the number of the seedes is filled in you: for hee hath weighed the world in the ballance.

37 The measure of the times is measured: the ages are counted by number, and they shall not be moved or shaken, til the measure thereof be fulfilled.

38 Then answered I and said, O Lord, Lord, we are all even full of sinne, 39 And for our sake peradventure the harvest of the righteous is not fulfilled, because of the sinne of them that dwell upon earth.

40 So he answered me, and sayd, Goe and aske a woman with childe, when shee hath fulfilled her nine moneths, if her wombe may keepe the birth any longer within her.

41 Then sayd I, No, Lord, she cannot. And hee said unto mee, In the grave the places of soules are like the wombe.

42 For as she that is with childe, hasteth to escape the necessitie of the travell, so doe these places haste to deliver those things that are committed unto them.

43 That which thou desirest to see, shall bee shewed thee from the beginning.

44 Then answered I, and sayde, If I have found grace in thy sight, and if it bee possible, and if I be meete therefore, 45 Shewe mee whether there bee more to come then is past, or more things past, then are to come.

46 What is past, I know, but what is to come, I knowe not.

47 And he sayd unto me, Stand on the right side, and I will expounde thee this by example.

48 So I stoode, and beholde, a hot burning oven passed before me: and when the flame was gone by, I looked, and beholde, the smoke had the upper hand.

49 After this there passed before me a watrie cloude, and sent downe much raine with a storme: and when the stormie raine was past, the drops came after.

50 Then said he unto me, Consider with thy selfe, as the raine is more then the drops, and as fire exceedeth the smoake, so the portion that is past, hath the upper hand, and the drops and the smoake were much.

51 Then I prayed, and sayde, May I live, thinkest thou, until that time? Or what shall come to passe in those dayes?

52 He answered me, and sayd, Of the tokens whereof thou askest mee, I can tell thee a part: but I am not sent to shewe thee of thy life: for I doe not know it.

CHAP. V.

1 In the latter times truth shall be hid. 10 Unrighteousnesse and wickednesse shall reigne in the world. 23 Israel is reiected, and God delivereth them. 45 God doeth all things in season.

NEvertheless concerning the tokens, behold, the times shall come, that they which dwell upon earth, shall bee taken in a great number, and the way of the truth shall be hid, & the land shalbe barren from faith,

2 And * iniquitie shall bee increased more Mat. 24. 12. then thou hast seene nowe, or hast heard in time past.

3 And it shall come to passe that one shall see in foote, and thou shalt see the land desolate, which now reigneth.

4 Yea, if God grant thee to live, thou shalt see after the third trumpet, that the sunne shall suddenly shine againe in the night, & the Moone three times a day.

5 Blood shall drop out of the wood, and the stone shall give his voyce, and the people shall be moved.

6 And he shall rule, of whom they hope not that dwell upon earth, & the soules shall change places.

7 And

7 And the ſea of Sodome ſhall caſt out fiſh, and make a noiſe in the night, which many that not knowe, but they ſhall all yeare the voyce thereof.

8 There ſhalbee a confuſion in many places, and the fire ſhal oft breake foorth, and the wilde beaſtes ſhall change their places, and menſtruous women ſhall beare monſters,

9 And ſalt waters ſhalbe found in ꝑ ſweete, and all friendes ſhall fight one againſt another, then ſhall wit hide it ſelfe, and vnderſtanding depart into his ſecret chamber.

10 It ſhall be ſought of many, and yet not be found: then ſhall vnrighteouſnes and vnmyghtineſſe haue the vpper hand vpon earth.

11 One lande alſo ſhall aſke another, and ſay, Is righteous iuſtice gone thorowe thee? And it ſhall ſay, No.

12 At the ſame time ſhall men hope, but not obteine: they ſhall labour, but their enterpriſes ſhall not proſper.

13 To ſhewe thee ſuch tokens I haue leane, and if thou wilt pray againe, & weepe as nowe, and faſt ſeuen dayes, thou ſhalt yeare yet greater things then theſe.

14 ¶ Then I awaked, and a fearefulneſſe went thorow all my body, and my minde was feeble and fainted.

15 But the Angel that was come to talke with me, helde me, comforted me, and ſet me vp vpon my feete.

16 And in the ſeconde night, Salathiel the captaine of the people came vnto me, ſaying, Where haſt thou bene? and why is thy countenance ſo heauie?

17 Knoweſt thou not that Iſrael is committed vnto thee in the lande of their captiuitie?

18 Vp then and eate, and forſake vs not, as the ſhepheard that leaueth his flocke in the hands of the cruell wolues.

19 Then ſayde I vnto him, Goe thy wayes from me, and come not neere me: and when he heard it, he went from me.

20 And I faſted ſeuen dayes, mourning, and weeping, as Vziel the Angel had commaunded me.

21 And after ſeuen dayes the thoughtes of mine heart were very grieuous vnto mee againe.

22 And I had a deſire to reaſon againe, and I beganne to talke with the moſt High againe, 23 And ſaid, O Lorde, Lord: of euery forreſt of the earth, and of all the trees therof thou haſt choſen thee one onely vineyard.

24 And of all landes of the worlde thou haſt choſen thee one pit, and of all the flowres of the ground thou haſt choſen thee one lilie.

25 And of all the depthes of the ſea thou haſt filled thee one riuer, & of all builded cities thou haſt ſanctified Sion vnto thy ſelfe.

26 And of all the foules that are created, thou haſt named thee one doue, and of all the cattell that are made, thou haſt appointed thee one ſheepe.

27 And among all the multitude of people thou haſt gotten thee one people, and vnto this people whom thou louedſt, thou gaueſt a lawe, that is proued of all.

28 And nowe, O Lord, why haſt thou giuen this one people ouer vnto many? and vpon one roote thou haſt ſet others, & haſt ſcattered thine onely people among many.

29 They treade them downe, which haue withſtood thy promiſes, and beleeue not thy teſtimonies.

30 And if thou diddeſt ſo much hate thy people, they ſhould haue bene punished with thine owne hands.

31 ¶ Now when I had ſpoken theſe words, the Angel that came to me the night afore, was ſent vnto me, 32 And ſaid vnto mee, Yeare mee, and I will teach thee, & hearken that I may inſtruct thee further.

33 And I ſayd, Speake on, my Lorde. Then ſaid he vnto me, Thou art ſore vexed and troubled for Iſraels ſake. Loueſt thou them better, then he doeth that made them?

34 And I ſaid, No, Lord: but of very ſorrow haue I ſpoken: for my reines paine mee euery houre, while I labour to comprehend the way of the moſt High, and to ſeeke out part of his iudgement.

35 And hee ſayde vnto mee, Thou canſt not. And I ſayd, Wherefore, Lorde, wherefore was I borne? or why was not my mothers wombe then my graue? ſo had I not ſeene the trouble of Iacob, and the griefe of the flocke of Iſrael.

36 And he ſayd vnto me, Number vnto mee the things that are not yet come, or gather mee the drops that are ſcattered, or make me the withered flowers greene againe.

37 Open mee the places that are cloſed, and bring mee forth the windes, that are ſhut vp therein: ſhew me the image of a voyce, & then will I declare thee the thing, that thou aſkeſt and laboureſt to know.

38 And I ſaid, O Lord, Lorde, who can know theſe things, but hee that hath not his dwelling with men?

39 But I that am ignorant, howe can I ſpeake of theſe things, whereof thou aſkeſt me?

40 Then ſayd he vnto me, like as thou canſt doe none of theſe things, that I haue ſpoken of, ſo canſt thou not finde out my iudgement, nor the leaſt benefite, that I haue promiſed vnto my people.

41 Then I ſayde, Beholde, O Lorde, the laſt things are preſent vnto thee, & what ſhall they do that haue bene before me, or we that be now, or they that ſhall come after vs?

42 And he ſayde vnto mee, I will compare my iudgement vnto a ring: as there is no ſlackeneſſe of the laſt, ſo is there no ſwiftneſſe of the firſt.

43 Then I anſwered, and ſayde, Couldeſt thou not make at once thoſe that haue bene, thoſe that are nowe, and thoſe that ſhall come, that thou mighteſt ſhewe thy iudgement the ſooner?

44 Then anſwered hee mee, The creature, ſayd he, cannot preuent the creator, neither can the world hold them at once, that ſhall bee created therein.

45 And I ſayde, As thou haſt taught thy ſeruaunt, that thou, which giueſt ſtrength to all, haſt giuen life at once to all the worke created by thee, and haſt ſuſteined it, ſo might it

nowe

now also containe all men at once.

46 And he sayde vnto me, Aske the wombe of a woman, & say vnto her, Why must thou haue time before thou bringest sooth? require her to bring sooth ten at once.

47 And I sayde, Surely she cannot, but by distance of time.

48 Then sayd he vnto mee, So haue I deuided the number of the earth by times when seed is sowen vpon it.

49 For as a yong childe begetteth not that that belongeth to the aged, so haue I ordained the time which I haue created.

50 ¶ I asked againe, and sayde, Seeing thou hast nowe shewed mee the way, I will proceede to speake before thee: for our mother, whome thou hast tolde mee is yong, draweth shee neere vnto age?

51 He answered me, and said, Aske a woman that trauaileth, and she will tell thee:

52 Say vnto her, Wherefore are not they (whom thou hast now brought forth) like those that were before thee, but lesse of stature?

53 And shee shall answere thee, Some were borne in the floure of youth, others were borne in the time of age, when the wombe failed.

54 Consider nowe thy selfe, howe that ye are lesse of stature, then those that were before you.

55 And so are they that come after you, lesse then ye, as the creatures which now beginne to bee olde, and haue passed ouer the strength of youth.

56 Then saide I, Lorde, I beseech thee, If I haue founde fauour in thy sight, shewe thy seruant, by whome dorst thou gouerne thy workemanship?

CHAP. VI.

God hath foreseene all things in his secret counsell, and is author thereof, and hath created them for his children, 25 The felicitie of the age to come.

AND hee sayde vnto mee, In the beginning when the rounde worlde was made, and before the borders of the worlde were set, and before the windes blewe one against another:

2 Before the noyse of thunders sounded, before the bright lightning did shine forth, before the foundations of Paradise were layd:

3 Before the faire flowers did appeare, before the moueable powers were stablished, before the innumerable armies of Angels were gathered:

4 Before the heights of the ayre were lifted vp, before the measures of the heauens were named, before the chimneis in Sion were hote:

5 Before the present peeres were sought out, and before the affections of them that now sinne, were turned away, and they that haue layed vp the treasure of faith, were sealed.

6 Then did I purpose these things, and they were made by mee alone, and by none other: by me also they shall bee ended, and by none other.

7 Then answered I, and sayde, What shall be the deuision of times? or when shall be the ende of the first, and the beginning of it that followeth?

8 And hee sayde vnto mee, From Abraham vnto Isaac, when Jacob and Esau were borne of him, * Jacobs hand held first the heele of Esau. Gen.25.26.

9 For Esau is the end of this world, and Jacob is the beginning of it that followeth.

10 The hande of man is betwixt the heele and the hand. Other thing, Esdras, aske thou not.

11 ¶ I answered then, and said, O Lord, Lord, if I haue found fauour in thy sight, 12 I beseech thee, make an ende to shewe thy seruant thy tokens, whereof thou shewedst mee part the last night.

13 So he answered mee, and sayd, Stand vp vpon thy feete, and heare a mightie sounding voyce.

14 There shall come as an earthquake, but the place where thou standest shall not be moued.

15 And therefore when hee speaketh, bee not afrayd: for of the ende shall bee the worde, and of the foundation of the earth shall it bee vnderstood.

16 Therefore while one speaketh of them, it trembleth and is moued: for it knoweth that it must be changed at the ende.

17 And when I had heard it, I stood vp vpon my feete, and hearkened, & beholde, there was a voyce that spake, and the sounde of it was like the sound of many waters:

18 And it said, Behold, the dayes come, that I will come and enquire of them that dwell vpon the earth,

19 And when I beginne to inquire of them, why by their vnrighteousnesse haue hurt others, and when the affliction of Sion shall bee fulfilled,

20 And the world that shal vanish away, shal bee sealed, then will I shewe these signes: the bookes shall bee opened before the heauen, and they shall see it altogether.

21 And the children of a peere old shal speake with their voyces: the women with childe shall bring forth vntimely children of three or foure moneths olde, and they shall liue that are rayed vp.

22 Then suddenly shal the sowen places appeare as the vnsowen, and the full storehouses shall suddenly be found emptie.

23 And the trumpet shall sound, and all they that heare it, shalbe suddenly afraide.

24 At that time shall friendes fight with friendes, as with enemies, and the earth shal feare with them: the springs of the welles shall stand still, and in three houres they shall not runne.

25 Whosoeuer remayneth from all these things that I haue told thee, shall be saued and see my saluation, and the end of your world.

26 And the men that are receiued, shall see it: they that haue not tasted death from their birth, and the heart of the inhabitants shall bee changed, and turned to another meaning.

27 For euill shalbe put out, and deceit shalbe quenched.

28 But faith shall flourish: corruption shal be ouercome, and the trueth which hath bene so long without fruite, shall come forth.

29 ¶ And

29 ¶ And when hee talked with me, beholde, I looked a little vpon him before whome I stood.

30 And these wordes said hee vnto me, I am come to shew thee the time of the night to come.

31 If thou wilt pray againe, and fast seuen dayes more, I will tel thee more things, & greater then these, which I haue heard in the day.

32 For thy voyce is heard before the highest: sureley the mightie hath seene thy righteous dealing: he hath seene also thy chastitie, which thou hast kept since thy youth.

33 Therefore hath he sent me to shew thee all these things, and to say vnto thee, Bee of good comfort, and feare not,

34 And haste not in the vaine consideration of the first times, nor make haste to the latter times.

35 And after this I wept againe and fasted seuen dayes in like maner, that I might fulfill the three weekes which he had appointed me.

36 And in the eight night was mine heart vered within me againe, and I began to speake before the most High.

37 For my spirit was greatly set on fire, and my soule was in distresse.

38 And I said, O Lord, thou spakest expressly in the first creation (euen the first day) and commandedst * that the heauen & the earth should be made, and the worke followed thy word.

Gene. 1.1.

39 And then was there the spirite, and the darkenes was on euery side with silence: there was no mans voyce as yet created of thee.

40 Then commandedst thou a bright light to come forth out of thy treasures, that it might giue light to thy worke.

41 Vpon the second day thou createdst the heauenly aire, and commaundedst it, that going betweene, it should make a diuision betweene the waters, that the one part might remaine aboue, and the other beneath.

42 Vpon the third day thou commaundedst, that the waters should bee gathered together in the seuenth part of the earth: sire partes didst thou dry, and kept them to the intent that of these there should bee that should serue thee, being sowen of God and tilled.

43 Assoone as thy worde went forth, the worke was incontinently made.

44 For immediatly great and innumerable fruite did spring vp, and many and diuers pleasures for the taste, and flowers of vnchangeable colour, and odours of a most wonderfull smell, and these things were created the third day.

Gen. 1.14. 45 * Vpon the fourth day thou createdst the light of the Sunne, and of the Moone, and the order of the Starres,

Gen. 1.14,15 deut. 4.19.* 46 And gauest them a charge, to doe * seruice euen vnto man that was for to be made.

Gen. 1.20.* 47 And vpon the fift day thou saydest vnto the seuenth part * where the waters were gathered, that it should bring forth beasts, as fowles and fishes: and it was so.

48 For the dumme waters, And without life brought forth liuing things at the commandement of God, that the nations might praise thy wonderous workes.

49 Then diddest thou prepare two liuing things: the one thou calledst Behemoth, and the other thou calledst Liuiathan

Or, Enoch.

50 And diddest separate the one from the other: for the seuenth part, where the water was gathered, could not holde them.

51 Vnto Behemoth thou gauest one part, which was dried vp the thirde day, that hee should dwell in the same part, wherein are a thousand hils.

52 But vnto Liuiathan thou gauest the seuenth part, that is wet, and hast prepared him to deuoure what thou wilt, and when thou wilt.

53 Vpon the first day thou gauest commaundement vnto the earth, that before thee it should bring forth beasts, cattell and creeping things.

54 And besides this Adam, whome thou madest lorde ouer all the workes which thou hast created, of him come we all, and the people also, whom thou hast chosen.

55 All this haue I spoken before thee, O Lorde, because thou hast created the worlde for our sakes.

56 As for the other people, which also come of Adam, thou hast declared them that they are nothing before thee, but be like vnto spettle, and hast compared their riches vnto a droppe that falleth from a vessell.

57 And now, O Lorde, behold, these heathen which haue bene reputed as nothing, haue begun to be lords ouer vs, and to deuoure vs.

58 And we thy people (whom thou hast called the first borne, the onely begotten, and thy feruent louer) are giuen into their hands.

59 If the worlde then bee created for our sakes, why haue wee not the inheritance thereof in possession? or howe long shall wee suffer these things?

CHAP. VII.

5 Without tribulation none can come to felicitie. 12 God aduertiseth all in time. 21 The comming and death of Christ. 32 The resurrection and last iudgement 43 After the which all corruption shall cease. 48 All fell in Adam. 59 The true life. 62 The mercies and goodnesse of God.

AND when I had made an ende of these wordes, there was sent vnto me an Angel, which had bene sent downe to me the nights afore.

2 And hee sayde vnto mee, Vp, Esdras, and heare the wordes that I am come to tell thee.

3 And I sayde, Speake on, my God. Then sayd he vnto me, The sea is set in a wide place, that it might be deepe and great,

4 But presuppose that the entrance thereof were narrow, and like the riuers,

5 Who could goe into the sea to looke vpon it, and to rule it? If he went not thorow the narrow, how could he come into the broad?

6 There is also another thing: a citie is builded, and set vpon a broad fielde, and is full of all good things:

7 The entrance thereof is narrow, and in a dangerous place to fall, that there is fire at the right hand, and a deepe water at the left,

8 And there is but one path betwixt them, euen betwixt the fire and the water, so that there could but one man goe there.

9 If this citie were giuen vnto a man for an inheritance, if hee neuer went thorow the perill before it, howe could hee receiue his inheritance?

10 And

10 And I saide, It is so, Lorde. Then saide he, So is the portion of Israel.

11 Surely for their sakes haue I made the worlde: and when Adam transgressed my statutes, then came this thing to passe.

12 Then were the entrances of the worlde made narrowe, full of sorowe and trauaile: they are but fewe and euill, and full of perils, and very painefull.

13 For the entrances of the forworld were wide and sure, and brought immortall fruite.

14 If then they that are liuing, labour not to enter by these strait and brittle things, they cannot attaine to those things that are hid.

15 Why then disquietest thou thy selfe, seeing thou art corruptible? and why art thou moued, seeing thou art mortall?

16 And why hast thou not considered in thy mind the things to come, rather then them that are present?

Deut.8.2. 17 Then said I, O Lord, Lord, *seeing thou hast ordeined in thy Lawe, that the righteous should inherite these things, and that the vngodly should perish.

18 Should the righteous suffer straitnesse in hoping for large things? yet they that haue liued vngodly and suffered straitnesse, shall not see the large things.

19 Then he said vnto me, There is no iudge more iust then God, and there is none more wise then the most High.

20 For many perish in this life, because they despise the Law of God that is appointed.

21 For God hath diligently admonished such as came, so oft as they came, what they should doe to haue life, and what they should obserue to auoide punishment.

22 Neuertheselle, they were not obedient vnto him, but spake against him, and imagined vaine things, 23 And deceiued themselues by their wicked deedes, and denied the power of the most High, and regarded not his wayes.

24 But they despised his Law, and refused his promises: they haue vnfaithfully broken his ordinances, and haue not performed his workes.

25 And therefore, Esdras, vnto the emptie are emptie things, and to the full, full things.

26 Beholde, the time shall come, that these tokens which I haue tolde thee, shall come to passe, and the bride shall appeare, and she shall come forth, and be seene that now is vnder the earth.

27 And whosoeuer shall escape these euils, he shall see my wonders.

28 For my sonne Iesus shall appeare with those that be with him, and they that remaine, shall reioyce within foure hundreth yeeres.

29 After these same yeeres shall my sonne Christ die, and all men that haue life.

30 And the world shalbe turned into the olde silence for seuen dayes, as in the fore iudgements, so that no man shall remaine.

31 But after seuen dayes, the world that is yet asleepe, shall be raised vp: and that shall die, that is corrupt.

32 Then the earth shall restore those, that haue slept in her, and so shall the dust those that dwell therein in silence, and the secrete places shall deliuer the soules that were committed vnto them.

33 And the most High shall appeare vpon the seate of iudgement, and miseries shall vanish away, and long suffering shall haue an ende, 34 Iustice onely shall continue: the truethe shall remaine, and faith shall be strong.

35 The worke shall followe, and the reward shalbe shewed: the good deedes shall be of force, and vnrighteousnesse shall beare no more rule.

36 Then saide I, *Abraham prayed first for the Sodomites, and *Moyses for the fathers that sinned in the wildernesse: Gen.18.23. Exo.32.3,11

37 And they that came after him, for Israel in the time of Achas and Samuel, 38 And *Dauid for the destruction, * and Salomon for them that came into the Sanctuarie, 2.Sa.24.17. 2.Chr.6.14.

39 *And Elias for those that receiued raine, and for the dead that he might liue, 1.King.17. 21.& 18.

40 And *Ezechias for the people in the time of Sennacherib, and diuers other for many. 42.45. 2.Kin.19. 15.

41 Euen so nowe, seeing vice is increased, and wickednesse aboundeth, and the righteous haue prayed for the vngodly, wherefore shall not the same effect follow also nowe?

42 Then he answered me, and saide, This present life is not the ende: oft times honour is reserued in it: therefore haue they prayed for the weake.

43 But the day of iudgement shall be the end of this worlde, and the beginning of the immortalitie to come, wherein all corruption shall cease.

44 Intemperancie shall passe away: infidelitie shall be cut off: righteousnesse shall growe vp, and the veritie shall spring vp.

45 Then shall no man be able to saue him that is destroyed, nor oppresse him that hath gotten the victorie.

46 I answered then, and saide, This is my first and last saying, that it had beene better not to haue giuen the earth vnto Adam, or when it was giuen him, to haue kept him that he should not haue sinned.

47 For what profite is it for men in this present life to be in heauinesse, and after death to feare punishment? Rom.5,12.

48 O Adam, what hast thou done? * for in that that thou hast sinned, thou art not fallen alone, but the fall also redoundeth vnto vs that come of thee.

49 For what profite is it vnto vs, if there be promised an immortall life, when we doe the workes that bring death?

50 And that an euerlasting hope should be promised vs, seeing that we betrode our selues to deadly vanitie?

51 And that there should be appointed vs dwellings of healthy and safetie, if we haue liued wickedly?

52 And that the glory of the most High should be kept to defend them which haue led a patient life, if wee haue walked in the wicked wayes?

53 And that an eternall paradise should be shewed, whose fruite remaineth incorruptible, wherein is safetie and healthy, if we will not enter into life?

54 (For we haue bene conuersant in vnpleasant places)

55 And that the faces of them, which haue abſtained, ſhould ſhine more then ſtarres, if our faces be blacker then darkeneſſe?

56 For while we lived, we did not remember when we did vnrighteouſly, that we ſhould ſuffer after death.

57 Then anſwered he me, and ſaide, This is the maner of the battell, which man, that is borne in the earth, ſhall fight, 58 That if he be ouercome, he ſhould ſuffer as thou haſt ſaide: but if he get the victorie, he ſhould receiue the thing that I ſaid.

59 For this is the life, whereof Moyſes ſpake
Deut.30.19. vnto the people, while he lived, ſaying, * Chuſe thee life that thou mayeſt liue.

60 Neuertheleſſe, they beleeued him not, neither the Prophets after him, nor me alſo which haue ſaid vnto them, 61 That heauineſſe ſhould not ſo be to their deſtruction, as ioy ſhould come vnto them, to whom ſaluation is perſwaded.

62 I anſwered then and ſaid, I know, Lord, that the moſt high is called mercifull, in that he hath mercy vpon them, which are not yet come to that world,

63 And that he hath pitie on thoſe that walke in his Lawe,

Rom.2.4. 64 And that * he is patient: for he long ſuffereth thoſe that haue ſinned as his creatures,

65 And that he is liberall: for he will giue as much as needeth,

66 And that hee is of great mercy: for hee ouercommeth in mercy thoſe that are preſent, and that are paſt, and them which are to come.

67 For if he were not abundant in his mercies, the world could not continue, nor they that haue the poſſeſſion thereof.

68 He pardoneth alſo: for if hee gaue not of his goodneſſe, that they which haue done euill might be relieued from their wickednes, the ten thouſand part of men ſhould not remaine aliue.

69 And if he, being iudge, forgaue not thoſe that he healed with his word, and tooke away the multitude of ſinnes, 70 There ſhould peraduenture be very fewe left in an innumerable multitude.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The number of the godly is ſmall. 6 The workes of God are excellent. 20 Eſdras prayeth for him and for his people. 39 The promiſe of ſaluation to the iuſt. 55 The deſtruction of the vniuſt.

AND he anſwered me, ſaying, The moſt high made this world for many, but the world to come for fewe.

2 I will tell thee a ſimilitude, O Eſdras. As when thou aſkeſt the earth, it ſhall ſay vnto thee, that it giueth much earthy matter to make pots, but little duſt that golde commeth of, ſo is it with the worke of this world.

Mat.20.16. 3 * There be many created, but fewe ſhall be ſaued.

4 Then anſwered I, and ſaide, Then ſwallowe vp the wit, O my ſoule, and deuoure vnderſtanding.

5 For thou haſt promiſed to heare, and thou wilt prophecie: for thou haſt no longer ſpace, but the life giuen thee.

6 O Lord, if thou ſuffer not thy ſeruant, that we may entreate thee, that thou mayſt giue ſeede vnto our heart, and prepare our vnderſtanding, that there may come fruit of it, whereby euery one which is corrupt, may liue, who can ſet himſelfe for man?

7 For thou art alone, & we all are one worke-manſhip of thine hands as thou haſt ſaid.

8 For when the body is faſhioned nowe in the wombe, and thou haſt giuen it members, thy creature is preſerued by fire and water, and the worke created by thee, doeth ſuffer nine moneths the creature, which is faſhioned in it.

9 But the thing that conteineth, and that which is contained, ſhall both be preſerued, and when time is come, the wombe, being preſerued, deliuereth the things that grew in it.

10 For thou haſt commanded the members, euen the breaſts, to giue milke vnto the fruite appointed to the breaſtes, 11 That the thing, which is created, may be nouriſhed for a time, till thou diſpoſeſt it to thy mercie.

12 Thou bringeſt it vp with thy righteouſneſſe, nurtureſt it in thy lawe, and reformeſt it with thy iudgement.

13 Thou ſlayeſt it as thy creature, and giueſt it life as thy worke.

14 Seeing then that thou deſtroyeſt him, which with ſo great labours is facioned, it is an eaſie thing to appoint by thy commaundement, that the thing alſo which is made, might be preſerued.

15 Now therefore, O Lorde, I will ſpeake (as touching men in generall thou ſhalt rather prouide) but concerning thy people, for whoſe ſake I am ſory,

16 And for thine inheritance, for whoſe cauſe I mourne: for Iſrael, for whom I am wofull, and for Iacob, for whoſe ſake I am grieued:

17 For them will I pray before thee, aſwell for my ſelfe, as for them: for I ſee our faults that dwell in the land.

18 But I haue heard the ſudden comming of the iudge, which is to come.

19 Therefore heare my voyce, and vnderſtand my wordes, which I will ſpeake before thee. The beginning of the wordes of Eſdras, before he was taken vp:

20 O Lord, thou liueſt for euer, which beholdeſt from aboue that which is aboue, and in the aire,

21 Whoſe throne is ineſtimable, and his glory incomprehenſible, before whom the hoſte of the Angels ſtand with trembling,

22 Whoſe keeping is turned in winde and fire, whoſe word is true, and ſayings ſtedfaſt, whoſe commandement is ſtrong, and gouernement terrible, 23 Whoſe looke dryeth vp the depthes, and wrath maketh the mountaines to melt away as the thing beareth witneſſe.

24 Heare the prayer of thy ſeruant, and receiue into thine eares the petition of thy creature.

25 For while I liue, I will ſpeake, and ſo long as I haue vnderſtanding, I will anſwere.

26 Looke not vpon the ſinnes of thy people, rather then thy faithfull ſeruants.

27 Haue not reſpect vnto the wicked deedes of men, rather then to them that haue thy teſtimonies in afflictions.

28 Thinke not vpon thoſe that haue walked fainedly before thee, but remember them that reuerence thy will.

29 Let

29 Let it not bee thy will to destroy them, which haue liued like beastes, but looke vpon them which haue clerely taught thy law.

30 Take not displeasure with them, which appeare worse then beastes, but loue them, that alway put their trust in thy righteousnesse and glory.

31 For we and our fathers haue all the same sicknesse: but because of vs that are sinners, thou shalt be called mercifull.

32 If therefore thou wilt haue mercie vpon vs, thou shalt be called mercifull towards vs which haue no workes of righteousnesse.

33 For the righteous, which haue layde vp many good workes, let them receiue the reward of their owne deedes.

34 But what is man, that thou shouldest take displeasure at him? or what is this mortall generation, that thou shouldest be so grieued towards it?

1. King. 8. 46. 2. chro. 6. 36. 35 *For verely there is no man among them that be borne, but hee hath done wickedly, nor any that doeth confesse thee, which hath not done amisse.

36 For in this, O Lorde, thy righteousnesse and thy goodnesse shall be praysed, if thou be mercifull vnto them, which haue not the substance of good workes.

37 ¶ Then answered he me, and sayd, Some things hast thou spoken aright, and according to thy words it shalbe.

38 For I will not verely consider the workes of them, before the death, before the iudgement, before destruction:

Gen. 4. 4. 39 But *I will reioyce in the wayes of the righteous, & I will remember the pilgrimage, the saluation & the reward that they shall haue.

40 Like as I haue spoken nowe, so shall it come to passe.

41 For as the husbandman soweth much seede vpon the ground, & planteth many trees, and yet alway the thing that is sowen, commeth not vp in time, neither yet doeth all that is planted, take roote: so neither shall they all that are brought into the world, be saued.

42 I answered then and sayde, If I haue found grace, let me speake.

43 Like as the husbandmans seede perisheth, if it come not vp, and receiue not raine in due season, or if it be destroyed with too much raine:

44 So perisheth man which is created with thine handes, and thou art called his patterne, because he is created to thine image, for whose sake thou hast made all things, and likened him vnto the husbandmans seede.

45 Be not wroth with vs, O Lorde, but spare thy people, and haue mercy vpon thine inheritance: for thou wilt be mercifull vnto thy creature.

46 Then answered he me, & sayd, The things present are for the present, & the things to come for such as be to come.

47 For thou art farre off, that thou shouldest loue thy creature aboue mee: but I haue oft times drawen neere vnto thee and vnto it, but neuer to the vnrighteous.

48 In this also thou art marueilous before the Highest.

49 In that thou hast humbled thy selfe, as it becommeth thee, and hast not iudged thy selfe woorthie to haue praise greatly among the righteous.

50 For many miseries & calamities remaine for them, that shall liue in the latter time, because they shall walke in great pryde.

51 But learne thou for thy selfe, and seeke out the glory for such as be like thee.

52 For vnto you is paradise opened: the tree of life is planted: the time to come is prepared, plenteousnesse made readie: the citie is builded, and rest is prepared, perfect goodnesse and absolute wisedome.

53 The roote of euill is sealed vp from you: the weaknesse and moth is destroyed from you, and into hell fleeth corruption to be forgotten.

54 Sorowes are vanished away, and in the end is shewed the treasure of immortalitie.

55 Therefor aske thou no more questions concerning the multitude of them that perish:

56 For when they had libertie, they despised the most High: they contemned his lawe and forsooke his wayes.

57 Moreouer, they haue troden downe his righteous.

Psal. 14. 1. and 53. 1. 58 *Saying in their heart, that there was no God, though they knew that they should die.

59 For as the thing that I haue spoken of, is made ready for you: so is thirst and paine prepared for them: for God woulde not that man should not perish.

60 But they, after that they were created, haue defiled the name of him that made them, and are vnthankfull vnto him, which prepared life for them.

61 Therefore my iudgement is now at hand.

62 These things haue I not shewed vnto all men, but vnto thee, and to a few like thee: then I answered, and said, 63 Behold now, O Lord: thou hast shewed me the many wonders, which thou art determined to doe in the last time, but in what time, thou hast not shewed me.

CHAP. IX.

5 All things in this worlde haue a beginning and an end. 10 Torments for the wicked after this life. 15 The number of the wicked is more then of the good. 29 The Iewes ingratitude. 36 Therefore they perish. 38 The vision of a woman lamenting.

HE answered me then, and said, Measure the time with it selfe, and when thou seest that one part of the tokens come to passe, which I haue tolde thee before,

2 Then shalt thou vnderstand, that it is the time wherein the most High will begin to visite the worlde which he made.

3 Therefore when there shall bee seene an *earthquake in the worlde, and an vproare of the people, Mat. 24. 7.

4 Then shalt thou vnderstand that the most High spake of those things, from the dayes that were before thee, euen from the beginning.

5 For as all that is made in the worlde, hath a beginning and an end, and the end is manifest:

6 So the times also of the most High haue plaine beginnings in wonders and signes, and end in effect and miracles.

7 And euery one that shal escape safe, & that bee deliuered by his workes, and by the faith wherein ye haue beleeued,

8 Shall be preserued from the said perils and shall see my saluation in my lande, and within my borders: for I haue kept me holy from the world.

9 Then shall they haue pitie of themselues, which nowe haue abused my wayes: and they that haue cast them out despitefully, shall dwell in paines.

10 For such as in their life haue receiued benefits, and haue not knowen me,

11 But haue abhorred my lawe, while they were yet in libertie, and when they had yet leasure of amendment, and would not vnderstand but despised it,

12 They must bee taught it after death by paine.

13 And therefore be thou no more carefull, to knowe howe the vngodly shall be punished, but inquire howe the righteous shall be saued, and whose the world is, & for whom it is, and when.

14 Then answered I, and said,

15 I haue afore saide that which I say nowe and will speake it hereafter, that there be many moe of them which perish, then of them that shalbe * saued,

Chap. 8. 3. matth. 20. 16

16 As the flood is greater then a drop.

17 And he answered me, saying, As the field is, so is also the seede: as the flowers bee, so are the colours also: such as the workeman is, such is the worke: and as the husbandman is, so is his husbandrie: for it was the time of the world.

18 Surely when I prepared the world, which was not yet made for them to dwell in that now liue, no man spake against me.

19 For then euery one obeyed, but nowe the maners of them that are created in this world, that is made, are corrupted by a perpetuall seede, and by a lawe, whereout they cannot rid themselues.

20 So I considered the worlde, and behold, there was perill, because of the deuices, that were sprung vp into it.

21 Yet when I sawe it, I spared it greatly, and haue kept me one grape of the cluster, and a plant out of a great people.

22 Let therefore the multitude perish, which are borne in vaine: and let my grape bee kept, and my plant, which I haue dressed with great labour.

23 ¶ Neuertheless, if thou wilt cease seuen dayes moe (but thou shalt not fast in them,

24 But shalt goe into a faire fielde, where no house is builded, and shalt eate onely of the flowers of the field, & eate no flesh, nor drink wine, but the flowers onely,

25 And pray vnto the most High continually) then will I come, and talke with thee.

26 So I went my way, as hee had commanded mee, into the fielde, which is called Ardath, and there I sate among the flowers, and did eate of the hearbes of the field, and the meat of the same satisfied me.

27 And after seuen dayes, as I sate vpon the grasse, and mine heart was vexed within mee, as afore,

28 I opened my mouth, and began to talke before the most High, and to say,

29 O Lorde, when thou wondest shewe thy selfe vnto vs, * thou declaredst thy selfe vnto our fathers in the wildernesse, in a place where Exod. 19. 9. and 24. 3. deut. 4. 12.

no man dwelleth, in a barren place, when they came out of Egypt,

30 And expressely spakest vnto them, saying, Heare mee, O Israel, and marke my wordes, thou seed of Jacob.

31 For beholde, I sowe my law in you, that it may bring foorth fruite in you, and that yee may be honoured by it for euer.

32 But our fathers which receiued the Law, kept it not, neither obserued thine ordinances, neither did the fruit of the Law appeare, neither could it, for it was thine.

33 * For they that receiued it, perished because they kept not the thing that was sown in them.

Exod. 32. 28

34 And loe, it is a custome when the ground receiueth seed, or the sea a ship, or a vessell meat and drinke, if that perish wherein a thing is sowen, or wherein any thing is put,

35 Likewise the thing that is sowen, or is put therein, and the thinges that are receiued, must perish: so the things that are receiued, doe not remaine with vs: but in vs it commeth not so to passe.

36 For we that haue receiued the Lawe, perish in sinne, and our heart also which receiued it:

37 But the Lawe perisheth not, but remaineth in his force.

38 ¶ And when I spake these things in mine heart, I looked about me, and vpon the right side * I sawe a woman, which mourned sore, and lamented with a loud voice, and was grieued in heart, and rent her clothes, and she had ashes vpon her head.

Chap. 10. 44

39 Then I left my thoughts, wherin I was occupied, and turned me vnto her,

40 And said vnto her, Wherefore weepest thou? why art thou so sory in minde?

41 And shee said vnto me, Sir, let me alone, that I may bewaile my selfe, and increase sorrowe: for I am sore vexed in my minde, and brought very lowe.

42 Then I sayde vnto her, What ayleth thee? tell me.

43 And she said vnto me, I thy seruant haue bene barren, and haue had no childe, hauing an husband thirtie yeres.

44 And euery houre, and euery day these thirtie yeeres I pray to the most High day and night.

45 And after thirtie yeeres God heard mee thine handmayd, and looked vpon my miserie, considered my trouble, and gaue me a sonne, and I was glad of him: so was mine husband also, and all they of my countrey, and we gaue great honour vnto the Almighty.

46 And I nourished him with great trauell.

47 So when he grew vp, and came to take a wife, I made a feast.

CHAP. X.

Esdras and the woman that appeareth vnto him, commune together.

BVt when my sonne went into his chamber, he fell downe, and died.

2 Then we all ouerthrew the lights, and all my neighbours rose vp to comfort me: so I rested vntill the second day at night.

3 And when they had all left off to comfort mee, that I should be quiet, then I rose vp by night, and fledde, and am come into this field

fielde as thou seest,

4 And am not purposed to returne into the citie, but to remaine here, and neither to eat nor drinke, but continually to mourne and fast, until I die.

5 Then left I my purpose wherein I was, and spake to her angerly, and said,

6 Thou foolish woman above all other, seest thou not our heauinesse, and what commeth vnto vs?

7 For Sion our mother is all wofull and is sore afflicted, and mourneth extremely.

8 Seeing we bee all nowe in heauinesse, and make our mone (for we be all sorowful) art thou sory for one sonne?

9 Demaund the earth, and shee shall tell thee that it is she which ought to mourne for the fall of so many that grow vpon her.

10 For from the beginning all men are borne of her, and other shall come, and beholde, they walke almost all into destruction, and the multitude of them shalbe destroyed.

11 Who should then rather mourne, she that hath lost so great a multitude, or thou which art sory but for one?

12 But if thou wouldest say vnto mee, My mourning is not like the mourning of the earth (for I haue lost the fruite of my wombe, which I brought forth with heauinesse, and bare with sorowes.

13 But the earth is according to the maner of the earth, and the present multitude returneth into her as it came)

14 Then say I vnto thee, As thou hast borne with trauel, so the earth also from the beginning giueth her fruite vnto man, euen to him that laboured her.

15 Nowe therefore withholde thy sorow in thy selfe, and beare constantly that which commeth vnto thee.

16 For if thou allowest Gods purpose, and receiuest his counsell in time, thou shalt be commended therein.

17 Goe thy way then into the citie to thine husband.

18 ¶ Then she said vnto me, I will not, I wil not goe into the citie, but here will I die.

19 So I continued to speake more with her, and said, 20 Do not so, but be counselled: for how many falles hath Sion? Be of good comfort because of the sorow of Jerusalem.

21 For thou seest that our sanctuarie is layde waste: our altar is broken downe: our Temple is destroyed.

22 Our Psalterion fainteth, and the song ceaseth, and our mirth is banished away, and the light of our candlestick is quenched, and the Arke of our Couenant is taken away, and our holy things are defiled, and the Name that is called vpon ouer vs, is almost dishonoured, and our children are put to shame, and our Priests are burnt, and our Leuites are caried into captiuitie, and our virgins are defiled, and our wiues ramished, and our righteous men spoyled, and our children destroyed, and our young men are brought in bondage, and our strong men are become weake, 23 And, which is the greatest of all, Sion the seale hath lost her worship: for shee is deliuered into the hands of them that hate vs.

24 And therefore shake off thy great heauinesse, and put away the multitude of sorowes, that the Almightie may be mercifull vnto thee, and that the most High may giue thee rest and ease from thy labour.

25 And when I was talking with her, her face and beautie shined suddenly, and her countenance was bright, so that I was afraid of her, and mused what it might be.

26 And beholde, immediatly shee cast out a great voyce, very fearefull, so that the earth shooke at the noyse of the woman.

27 And I looked, and beheld, the woman appeared vnto mee no more: but there was a citie builded, & a place was shewed from the ground and foundation. Then was I afraid, and cried with a loud voyce, and said, 28 Where is Vriel the Angel * which came to me at the first? for he hath caused me to come into many and deepe considerations, and mine ende is turned into corruption, and my prayer to rebuke. *Chap.4.1.

29 And as I was speaking these words, beholde, he came vnto me, and looked vpon me.

30 And lo, I lay as one dead, and mine vnderstanding was altered, and hee tooke mee by the right hand and comforted mee, and set mee vpon my feete, and said vnto me, 31 What aileth thee? and why is thine vnderstanding vexed? and the vnderstanding of thine heart? and wherefore art thou sory?

32 And I sayde, Because thou hast forsaken mee, and I haue done * according vnto thy wordes: I went into the fielde, and there haue I seene things, and see that I am not able to expresse. *Chap.5.20.

33 Then said he vnto mee, Stand vp manly, and I will giue thee exhortation.

34 Then saide I, Speake vnto me, my Lord, and forsake me not, lest I die through rashnes.

35 For I haue seene that I knewe not, and heare that I doe not know.

36 Or is mine vnderstanding deceiued, or doeth my minde, being hautie, erre?

37 Nowe therefore I beseech thee that thou wilt shewe thy seruant of this wonder.

38 Then hee answered mee, and said, Heare me, and I wil enforme thee, and tel thee wherefore thou art afraid: for the most High hath reuealed many secret things vnto thee.

39 He hath seene thy good purpose, that thou art sory continually for thy people, and makest great lamentation for Sion.

40 This therefore is the vnderstanding of the vision, which appeared vnto thee a litle while agoe.

41 Thou sawest a woman mourning, and thou beganneste to comfort her:

42 But nowe seest thou the likenesse of the woman no more, but there appeared vnto thee a citie builded.

43 And whereas she tolde thee of the death of her sonne, this is the solution,

44 This woman, which thou sawest, shee is Sion: and where as shee tolde thee (euen shee which thou seest now as a citie builded)

45 And as touching that she sayd vnto thee, that shee was barren thirtie yeeres, this was concerning that there was euen thirtie yeeres wherein there was no offering offered in her.

46 But after thirtie yeeres, Salomon built the citie, and offered offrings: then bare the barren a sonne.

47 And whereas she tolde thee, that she nourished him with labour, that was the inhabiting of Jerusalem.

48 But where as thee tolde thee that her sonne, as his chance was, died when thee came into her chamber, that is the fall that is come to Jerusalem.

49 And when thou sawest her like one that mourned for her sonne, thou begannest to comfort her: of these things which have chaunced, these are to be opened unto thee.

50 For nowe the most High seeth, that thou art sory in thy minde, and because thou sufferest with all thine heart for her, hee shewed thee the clearenesse of her glory, and the fairenesse of her beautie.

51 And therefore I bade thee remaine in the fielde where no house was built.

52 For I knewe that the most High would shew these things unto thee.

53 Therefore I commaunded thee to go into the field, where no foundation nor building is.

54 For the worke of mans building cannot stande in that place where the citie of the most High should be shewed.

55 And therefore feare not, neither let thine heart be afrayde, but goe in, and see the beautie and greatnes of the building as much as thou art able to see with thine eyes.

56 And after this shalt thou heare, as much as thine eares may comprehend.

57 For thou art blessed above many, and art called with the most High among the few.

58 But to morrowe at night thou shalt remaine here,

59 And the most High shal shew thee visions of high things, which the most High will do unto them that dwel upon earth, in the last dayes. So I slept the same night and another, as hee had commaunded me.

CHAP. XI.

1 The vision of an eagle comming forth of the sea, and of her feathers. 37 Of a Lion comming out of the forest.

THen saw I a dreame, and behold, there came up from the sea an eagle, which had twelue feathered wings, and three heads.

2 And I saw, & behold, she spread her wings over all the earth, and all the windes of the aire blew on her, and gathered themselues.

3 And I beheld, and out of her feathers grew out other contrary feathers, and they became litle feathers and small.

4 But her heads remained stil, and the head in the midst was greater then the other heads, yet rested it with them.

5 Moreouer, I sawe that the eagle flew with his feathers, and reigned upon earth, and ouer them that dwel therein.

6 And I sawe that all things under heauen were subiect unto her, & no man spake against her, no not one creature upon earth.

7 I sawe also that the eagle stoode up upon her clawes, and spake to her feathers, saying,

8 Watch not all together: sleepe euery one in his owne place, and watch by course.

9 But let the heads be preserued for the last.

10 Neuertheless, I saw that the voyce went not out of her heades, but from the midst of her body.

11 Then I numbred her contrary feathers, and behold, there were eight of them.

12 And I looked, and beholde, upon the right side there arose one feather, and reigned ouer all the earth.

13 And when it had reigned, the ende of it came, and the place thereof appeared no more. So the next stoode up, and reigned: it continued a long time.

14 And when it had reigned, the ende of it came also, and as the first, is it appeared no more.

15 Then there came a voyce unto it, & sayd,

16 Heare thou that hast kept the earth so long: this I say unto thee, before thou beginnest to appeare no more,

17 There shall none after thee attaine unto thy time, neither to the halfe thereof.

18 Then arose the thirde and reigned as the other afore, and it appeared no more also.

19 So came it to all the others one after an other, so that euery one reigned, & then appeared no more.

20 Then I looked, and beholde, in processe of time the feathers that followed, stoode up on the right side, that they might rule also, & some of them ruled, but within a while they appeared no more.

21 For some of them were set up, but ruled not.

22 After this I looked, & beholde, the twelue feathers appeared no more, nor the two wings.

23 And there was no more upon the eagles body, but two heads that rested, and sire wings.

24 Then sawe I also that two wings deuided themselues from the sire, and remained under the head, that was upon the right side: for foure continued in their place.

25 So I looked, and behold, the vnderwings thought to set up themselues, and to haue the rule.

26 Then was there one set up, but shortly it appeared no more.

27 And the second were sooner gone then the first.

28 Then I beheld, and loe, the two that remained, thought also in themselues to reigne.

29 And when they so thought, beholde, there awaked one of the heads that were at rest, which was in the midst: for that was greater then the two.

30 Then I saw that the two heads were ioyned therewith.

31 And beholde, the head was turned with them, that were with it, and did eate up the two vnder wings that would haue reigned.

32 But this head put the whole earth in feare, & bare rule in it, ouer all those that dwelt upon earth with much labour, and it had the gouernance of the world, more then all ꝑ wings that had bene.

33 After this I looked, and beholde, the head that was in the middes, suddenly appeared no more, as did the wings.

34 But the two heads remained, which also ruled likewise upon earth, and ouer those that dwelt therein.

35 And I beheld, and loe, the head upon the right right Ade deuoured it that was vpon the lefte side.

36 ¶Then I heard a voce which saide vnto me, Looke before thee, and consider the thing that thou seest.

37 So I saw, and beholde, as it were a lyon that roareth, rumning hastily out of the wood: and I sawe that he sent out a mans voyce vnto the Eagle, and spake, and said,

38 Heare thou, I will talke with thee, and the most High shall say vnto thee,

39 Art not thou that that of ỹ foure beastes remained, whō I made to reigne in my world, that by them the ende of times might come,

40 And the fourth is come, and hath ouercome all the beastes that were past, & hath power ouer the worlde with great fearefulnesse, & ouer the whole compasse of the earth with most wicked oppression, and that dwelleth so long time in all the worlde with deceite?

41 For thou hast not iudged the earth with trueth.

42 Seeing thou hast troubled ỹ meeke, thou hast hurt the peaceable, and thou hast loued lyars, and destroyed the dwellings of them that brought forth fruite, and hast cast downe the walles of such as did thee no harme, 43 Therefore is thy wrongfull dealing come vp vnto the most High, and thy pride vnto the Mighty.

44 The most High also hath looked vpon the proud times, and beholde, they are ended, and their abominations are fulfilled.

45 Therefore appeare no more, thou Eagle, nor thine horrible winges, nor thy wicked feathers, nor thy malicious heades, and thy wicked clawes, nor all thy vayne bodie, 46 That all the earth may be refreshed, and come againe, as one deliuered from thy violence, and that shee may hope for the iudgement and mercie of him that made her.

CHAP. XII.

The declaration of the former visions.

AND when the Lion spake these wordes to the Eagle, I sawe,

2 And beholde, the head that had the vpper hand appeared no more, neither did the foure wings appeare any more, that came to it, and set vp themselues to reigne, whose kingdome was small and full of vproares.

3 And I sawe, and beholde, they appeared no more, and the whole body of the Eagle was burnt, so that the earth was in great feare. The I awaked out of the trouble and traunce of my minde, and from the great feare, and saide vnto my spirite, 4 Loe, this hast thou done vnto mee in that thou searchest out the wayes of the most High.

5 Loe, yet am I wearie in my minde, and very weake in my spirit, & little strength is there in mee, for the great feare that I receyued this night.

6 Therefore nowe, I will beseeche the most High, that he will comfort me vnto the ende.

7 And I sayd, O Lord, Lord, if I haue found grace before thy sight, and if I am iustified with thee before many other, and if my prayer in deede be come vp before thy face,

8 Comfort me, and shewe me thy seruant the interpretation and difference of this horrible sight, that thou mayest perfectly comforte my soule,

9 Seeing thou hast iudged mee worthy to shewe me the last times.

10 ¶Then he sayde vnto me, This is the interpretation of this vision, 11 The Eagle whome thou sawest come vp from the sea, is the *kingdom which was seene in the vision of thy brother Daniel. *Dan. 7. 7.

12 But it was not expounded vnto him: therefore nowe I declare it vnto thee.

13 Beholde, the dayes come, that there shall rise vp a kingdome vpon the earth, and it shall bee feared aboue all kingdomes that were before it.

14 In it shall twelue kings reigne one after an other,

15 Whereof the second shall begin to reigne, and shall haue more time then the twelue.

16 And this doe the twelue wings signifie which thou sawest.

17 As for the voyce that thou heardest speak, & that thou sawest not goe out from the heads, but from the middes of the body therof, this is the interpretation, 18 That after the time of that kingdome there shall arise great strife, and it shalbe in danger to fall; but it shall not then fall, but shall be restored againe to his beginning.

19 Concerning the eight vnderwings, which thou sawest hang vnto her winges, this is the interpretation, 20 In him, shal arise eight kings, whose time shall be but small, and their yeeres swift, and two of them shall perish.

21 But when the mid time commeth, there shall be foure kept a time, whiles his time beginneth to come, that it may be ended, but two shall be kept vnto the ende.

22 And whereas thou sawest three heades resting, this is the interpretation,

23 In his last daies shal the most High raise vp three kingdoms, and shall call againe many thinges into them, and they shall haue the dominion of the earth,

24 And of those that dwell therein, with much griefe aboue all those that were before them: therefore are they called the heads of the Eagle.

25 For they shall accomplish his wickednes, and shall finish his last ende.

26 And whereas thou sawest that the great head appeared no more, it signifieth that one of them shall die vpon his bed, and yet with payne.

27 For the two that remayne, the swords shall deuoure them.

28 For the sword of the one shall deuoure the other: but at the last shall hee fall by the sworde himselfe.

29 And whereas thou sawest two vnderwings, that went off towarde the head, which was on the right side, this is the interpretation.

30 These are they whom the most High hath preserued for their ende, whose kingdome is litle, and full of trouble as thou sawest.

31 And the Lion whome thou sawest rising vp out of the wood and roaring, and speaking vnto the Eagle, and rebuking her for her vnrighteousnesse with all the wordes that thou hast heard,

32 This is the winde which the most High hath kept for them, & for their wickednesse vnto the end, and he shall reprooue them, and cast before them their ydoples.

33 For he shall set them alive in the iudgement, and shall rebuke them and correct them.

34 For he will deliuer the residue of my people by affliction, which are preserued vpon my borders, and hee shall make them ioyfull, vntill the comming of the day of iudgement, whereof I haue spoken vnto thee from the beginning.

35 This is the dreame that thou sawest, and these are the interpretations.

36 Thou onely hast bene meete to know this secret of the most Hygh.

37 Therefore write all these things that thou hast seene in a booke, and hide them, 38 And teache them the wise of the people, whose hearts thou knowest may comprehend and keepe these secrets.

39 But wait thou here yet seuen dayes more, that it may be shewed thee whatsoeuer it pleaseth the most Hygh to declare vnto thee: & with that he went his way.

40 And when all the people perceiued, that the seuen dayes were past, and I not come againe into the citie, they gathered them all together, from the least vnto the most, and came vnto me, and spake vnto me, saying,

41 What haue we offended thee? or what euill haue we done against thee, that thou forsakest vs, and sittest in this place?

42 For of all the people thou onely art lefte vs as a grape of the vine, and as a candle in a darke place, and as an hauen or ship preserued from the tempest.

43 Are not the euilles which are come vnto vs, sufficient?

44 If thou then forsake vs, howe much better had it bene for vs, that wee had beene burnt also as Sion was burnt?

45 For we are no better then they that dyed there: and they wept with a loude voyce. Then answered I them, and sayde, 46 Be of good comfort, O Israel, and be not heauie thou house of Jacob.

47 For the most Hygh hath you in remembrance, & the Almightie hath not forgotten you in temptation.

48 As for me I haue not forsaken you, neither am I departed from you, but am come into this place to pray for the desolation of Sion, that I might seeke mercie for the lowe estate of your sanctuarie.

49 And now go your way home euery man, and after these dayes will I come vnto you.

50 So the people went their way into the citie, as I commaunded them:

51 But I remayned still in the fielde seuen dayes, as he had commaunded me, and did eate onely of the flowers of the fielde, and had my meate of the yearbes in those dayes.

CHAP. XIII.

2 The vision of a winde comming forth of the sea, 3 Which became a man. 5 His propertie & power against his enemies. 21 The declaration of this vision.

AND after the seuen dayes I dreamed a dreame by night.

2 And beholde, there arose a wind from the sea, and it moued all the waues thereof.

3 And I looked, & behold, there was a mightie man with the thousands of heauen: & when he turned his countenance to looke, all the things trembled that were seene vnder him.

4 And when the voyce went out of his mouth, all they burned that hearde his voyce, as the earth faileth when it feeleth the fire.

5 After these things I saw, and behold, there was gathered together a multitude of men out of number, fro the foure winds of the heauen, to fight against the man that came out from the sea.

6 And I looked, & beholde, he graued him selfe a great mountaine, and flewe vp vpon it.

7 But I would haue seene the countrey or place whereout the hill was grauen, and I coulde not.

8 I sawe after these thinges, and beholde, all they which came to fight against him, were sore afrayd, and yet they durst fight.

9 Nenertheless, when he saw the fiercenesse of the multitude that came, hee lifted not vp his hand: for he helde no sword nor any instrument of warre,

10 But onely, as I sawe, he sent out of his mouth, as it had bene a blast of fire, and out of his lippes the wind of the flame, and out of his tongue he cast out sparkes and stormes.

11 And they were all mixt together, euen this blast of fire, the wind of the flame, and the great storme, & fell with violence vpon the multitude which was prepared to fight, and burnt them vp all, so that of the innumerable multitude there was nothing seene, but onely dust & smell of smoke. When I saw this, I was afraid.

12 ¶ Afterward saw I the same man come downe from the mountaine, and calling vnto him another peaceable multitude.

13 And there came many vnto him, some with ioyfull countenance, and some with sad: some of them were bound, and some brought of them that were offered: & I was sicke through great feare, and awaked, and sayd, 14 Thou hast shewed thy seruant these wonders from the beginning, and hast counted mee worthy to receyue my prayer.

15 Shew me now therefore the interpretation of this dreame.

16 For thus I consider in mine vnderstanding, Woe vnto them that shall be left in those dayes, and much more woe vnto them that are not left behinde.

17 For they that were not left, were in heauinesse.

18 Nowe vnderstande I the things that are laid vp in the latter dayes, which shall come both vnto the and to those that are lefte behind.

19 Therefore are they come into great perils, and many necessities, as these dreames declare.

20 Yet is it easier, that he that is in danger, should fall into these, and forsee the things to come hereafter, then to passe away as a clouds out of the world.

21 ¶ Then answered he mee, and sayd, The interpretation of the vision will I shewe thee, and I will open to thee the thing that thou hast required.

22 Whereas thou hast spoken of them that are left behinde, this is the interpretation.

23 He that shall beare in danger in that time, hee shall keepe himselfe. They that bee fallen into danger, are such as haue workes and faith faith toward the moſt mightie.

24 Know therefore, that they which be left behind, are more bleſſed then they that be dead.

25 Theſe are the meanings of the viſion, Whereas thou ſaweſt a man comming vp frō the mids of the ſea.

26 The ſame is he whom the moſt High hath kept a great ſeaſon, who by his owne ſelfe ſhal deliuer his creature, & he ſhall order them that are left behind.

27 ¶ And where as thou ſaweſt, that out of his mouth there came a blaſt with fire and ſtorme, 28 And that he neither held ſword nor weapon, but that by his fierceneſſe he deſtroyed the whole multitude that came to fight againſt him, this is the interpretation.

29 Beholde, the dayes come that the moſt High will begin to deliuer them that are vpon the earth:

30 And he ſhall aſtonith the hearts of them that dwell vpon the earth:

31 And one ſhall purpare to fight againſt an other, citie againſt citie, and place againſt place, Mat.24.7. *and nation againſt nation, and realme, againſt realme.

32 When this commeth to paſſe, then ſhall the tokens come, that I ſhewed thee before, and the ſhall my ſonne be reuealed, whom thou ſaweſt go vp as a man.

33 And when all the people heare his voyce, euery man ſhall in their owne land leaue the battell that they haue one againſt another.

34 And an innumerable multitude ſhall bee gathered as one, as they that bee willing to come, and to fight againſt him.

35 But he ſhall ſtand vpon the top of mount Sion.

36 And Sion ſhall come, and ſhal be ſhewed to all, being prepared & builded, as thou ſaweſt the hill grauen forth without any hands.

37 And this my ſonne ſhall rebuke the wicked inuentions of thoſe nations, which for their wicked life are fallen into the tempeſt, 38 And into torments like to flame, whereby thy ſhall bee tormented: and without any labour will deſtroy them, euen by the Lawe, which is compared vnto the fire.

39 And whereas thou ſaweſt that he gathered another peaceable people vnto him,

40 Thoſe are the ten tribes which were caried away captiues out of their owne land * in
2.King.17.3 the time of Oſeas the king, whome Salmanaſar the king of the aſſyrians tooke captiue, and caried them beyond the riuer: ſo were they brought into another land.

41 But they tooke this counſell to themſelues, that they would leaue the multitude of the heathen, and goe forth into a further countrey, where neuer mankind dweit.

42 That they might there keepe their ſtatutes, which they neuer kept in their owne land.

43 And they entered in at the narow paſſages of the riuer Euphrates.

44 For the moſt High then ſhewed them
Exod.14.21. Ioſh.3.15,16 ſignes, * and ſtaied the ſpringes of the flood till they were paſſed ouer.

45 For thorowe the countrey there was a great iourney, euen of a yeere and a halfe, and ‖Or, Arareth. the ſame region is called ‖ Arſareth.

46 Then dwelte they there vntill the latter time: and when they come forth againe, 47 The moſt High ſhall hold ſtill the ſpringes of the riuer againe, that they may goe thorow: therefore ſaweſt thou the multitude peaceable.

48 But they that be left behinde of thy people, are thoſe that be found within my borders.

49 Now when hee deſtroyeth the multitude of the nations that are gathered together, hee ſhall defende the people that remayne.

50 And then ſhall hee ſhewe great wonders vnto them.

51 Then ſayd I, O Lord, Lord, ſhew me this, wherefore haue I ſeene the man comming vp from the mids of the ſea?

52 And he ſayde vnto me, As thou canſt neither ſeeke out, nor knowe theſe things, that are in the deepe of the ſea, ſo can no man vpon earth ſee my ſonne, or thoſe that be with him, but in the time of that day.

53 This is the interpretation of the dreame which thou ſaweſt, and whereby thou onely art lightened.

54 For thou haſt forſaken thine owne lawe, and applied thy diligence vnto mine, & ſought it.

55 Thy life haſt thou ordered in wiſedome & haſt called vnderſtanding thy mother.

56 Therefore haue I ſhewed thee þ rewards with the moſt High: and after three other dayes I will ſpeake other thinges vnto thee, and will declare vnto thee great and wonderous things.

57 Then went I forth vnto the field, glorifying and praiſing the moſt High for the wonders which he did in time, 58 Which he gouerneth, and ſuch things as come in their ſeaſons: & there I ſate three dayes.

CHAP. XIIII.

3 How God appeared to Moſes in the buſh. 10 All things decline to age. 15 The latter times worſe than the former. 29 The ingratitude of Iſrael. 35 The reſurrection and iudgement.

VPon the thirde day I ſate vnder an oke, and beholde, there came forth a voyce vnto me out of the buſhe, and ſayde, Eſdras, Eſdras.

2 And I ſayd, Here am I, Lord, and ſtoode vp vpon my feete.

3 Then ſayd he vnto mee, * In the buſh I reuealed my ſelfe, and ſpake vnto Moſes, when Exod.3.2,8. my people ſerued in Egypt.

4 And I ſent him, and led my people out of Egypt, and brought him vpon the mount Sinai, and I held him with me a long ſeaſon,

5 And I told him many wonders, & ſhewed him the ſecretes of the times and the ende, and commanded him, ſaying,

6 Theſe words ſhalt thou declare, and theſe ſhalt thou hide.

7 And now I ſay vnto thee, that thou lay vp in thine hearte the ſignes that I haue ſhewed, and the dreames that thou haſt ſeene, and the interpretations which thou haſt heard.

8 For thou ſhalt be taken away from all, and thou ſhalt remayne hencefoorth with my ſonne, & with ſuch as be like thee, vntill the times be ended.

9 For the worlde hath loſt his youth, and the times

times begin to ware old.

10 For the worlde is deuided into twelue parts, and tenne parts of it are gone alreadp, and halfe of the tenth part.

11 And there remaineth that which is after the halfe of the tenth part.

12 Therefore set thine house in order, and reforme thy people, and comfort such of them as be in trouble, and now renounce the corruptiõ.

13 Let goe from thee mortall thoughts: cast awap from thee the burdens of men, and put off now the weake nature, 14 And set aside þ most grieuous thoughtes, and haste thee to depart from these times.

15 For greater euils then those, which thou hast seene now, shall they commit.

16 For the weaker that the worlde is by reason of age, the more shall the euils be encreased vpon them that dwell therein.

17 For the truth is fled farre awap, and lies are at hand: for now hasteth the vision to come, that thou hast seene.

18 ¶ Then answerd I, and sapd before thee,

19 Beholde, O Lorde, I will goe as thou hast commanded me, and reforme the people, which are present: but they that shall bee borne afterward, who shall admonish them?

20 Thus the worlde is set in darkenesse, and they that dwell therein, are without light.

21 For thy law is burnt, therefore no man knoweth the things that are done of thee, or the works that shall be done.

22 But if I haue found grace before thee, send the holy Ghost into mee, and I will write all that hath bin done in the world since the beginning, which was written in thy Lawe, that men may finde the path, and that they which will liue in the latter dayes, may liue.

23 And he answered me, saping, Go and gather the people, and sap vnto them, that they seeke thee not for fourtie dapes,

24 But prepare thee many bore tables, and take with thee these fiue, Sarea, Dabria, Selemia, Ecanus, and Asiel, which are ready to write swiftly,

25 And come hither, and I will light a candle of understanding in thine heart, which shall not bee put out, till the things bee performed which thou shalt begin to write.

26 And then shalt thou declare some things openly vnto the perfect men, and some things shalt thou shewe secretly vnto the wise: to morowe this houre shalt thou begin to write.

27 Then went I forth, as hee commanded me, and gathered all the people together, & said,

28 Heare these words, O Israel,

Gene. 47. 4. 29 * Our fathers at the beginning were strangers in Egypt, from whence they were deliuered, Acts 7. 53. 30 And receiued the Law of life, *which they kept not, which ye also haue transgressed after them.

31 Then was the land, euen the land of Sion parted among you by lot: but your fathers and ye also haue done vnrighteously, and haue not kept the wayes, which the most High commanded you.

32 And for so much as hee is a righteous iudge, he tooke from you in time the thing that he hath giuen you.

33 And nowe are ye here, and your brethren among you.

34 Therefore if so be that ye will subdue your owne vnderstanding, and reforme your hearte, ye shall be kept alive, and after death ye shall obteine mercie.

35 For after death shall the iudgement come, when wee shall liue againe: and then shall the names of the righteous bee manifest, and the workes of the vngodly shall be declared.

36 Let no man therefore come now vnto me, nor seeke me these fourtie dapes.

37 So I tooke the fiue men, as he commanded me, and we went into the fielde, and remained there.

38 The nert day, beholde, a voyce called me, Ezech. 3. 2. saping, Esdras, * open thy mouth, and drinke that I giue thee to drinke.

39 Then opened I my mouth, and beholde, he reached me a full cuppe, which was full as it were with water: but the colour of it was like fire.

40 And I tooke it, and dranke, and when I had dronke it, mine hearte had vnderstanding, and wisedome grew in my breast: for my spirite was strengthened in memorie.

41 And my mouth was opened, and shut no more.

42 The most High gaue vnderstanding vnto the fiue men, that they wrote the vie things of the night, which they vnderstoode not.

43 But in the night they did eate bread, but I spake by day, and held not my tongue by night.

44 In fourtie dapes, they wrote two hundreth and foure bookes.

45 And when the fourtie dapes were fulfilled, the most High spake, saping, The first that thou hast written, publish openly, that the worthie and vnworthie may reade it.

46 But keepe the seuenty last, þ thou mayest giue them to the wise among thy people. Or, V

47 For in them is the veine of vnderstanding, and the fountaine of wisedome, and the riuer of knowledge: and I did so.

CHAP. XV.

1 The prophecie of Esdras is certaine. 5 The euilles that shall come on the worlde. 9 The Lorde will auenge the innocent blood. 12 Egypt shall lament. 16 Sedition, 20 and punishment vpon the Kinges of the earth. 24 Cursed are they that sinne. 29 Troubles and warres vpon the whole earth. 53 God is the reuenger of his elect.

BEholde, speake thou in the eares of my people the woordes of prophecie, which I will put in thy mouth, sapth the Lord:

2 And cause them to bee written in a letter: for they are faithfull and true.

3 Feare not the imaginations against thee: let not the vnfaithfulnesse of the speakers trouble thee, that spake against thee.

4 For euery vnfaithfull shall dye in his vnfaithfulnesse.

5 Beholde, sapth the Lorde, I will bring plagues vpon all the worlde, the sword, famine, death and destruction:

6 Because that iniquitie hath fully polluted all the earth, & their wicked works are fulfilled.

7 Therefore, saith the Lord, I will holde my tongue no more for their wickednesse, (they doe vngodly) neither will I suffer them in the things that they doe wickedly.

8 Beholde,

Reuel.6.10. and 19.2.

8 Behold, *the innocent and righteous blood crieth vnto mee, and the soules of the iust cry continually.

9 I will surely auenge them, saith the Lord, and receiue vnto me all the innocent blood from among them.

10 Behold, my people is ledde as a flocke to the slaughter: I will not suffer them nowe to dwell in the land of Egypt.

11 But I will bring them out with a mightie hand, and a stretched out arme, and smite it with plagues as afore, and will destroy all the land thereof.

12 Egypt shal mourne, and the foundations thereof shalbe smitten with the plague and punishment, that God shall bring vpon it.

13 The plowmen that till the ground, shall mourne: for their seedes shall faile through the blasting and haile, and by an horrible starre.

14 Wo to the world, and to them that dwell therein.

15 For the sworde, and their destruction draweth neere, and one people shall stande vp to fight against another with swordes in their handes.

16 For there shall bee sedition among men, and one shall inuade another: they shall not regard their King, and the princes shall measure their doings by their power.

17 A man shall desire to goe into a citie, and shall not be able.

18 Because of their pride the cities shall bee troubled, the houses shall bee afrayde, men shall feare.

19 A man shal haue no pitie vpon his neighbour, but shall destroy their houses with the sworde, and their goods shalbe spoyled for lacke of bread, and because of great trouble.

20 Behold, saith God, I cal together all the Kings of the earth to reuerence mee, which are from the ‖ East, and from the South, from the East, and from Libanus, to turne vpon them, and to repay the things that they haue done to them. ‖ Or, West.

21 As they doe yet this day vnto my chosen, so will I doe also, and recompense them in their bosome: thus saith the Lord God, 22 My right hand shal not spare the sinners, neither shall the sworde cease from them, that shead innocent blood vpon earth.

23 Then fire is gone out from his wrath, and hath consumed the foundations of the earth, and the sinners like the straw, that is kindled.

24 Woe to them that sinne, and keepe not my commandements, saith the Lord.

25 I will not spare them: depart, O children, from the power: defile not my Sanctuarie.

26 For the Lord knoweth all them that sinne against him, and therefore deliuereth hee them vnto death and destruction.

27 For nowe are the plagues come vpon the worlde, and ye shall remaine in them: for God will not deliuer you, because yee haue sinned against him.

28 Behold, an horrible vision commeth from the East, 29 Where generations of dragons of Arabia shall come out with many charets, and the multitude of them shall bee caried as the winde vpon the earth, that all they which heare them, may feare and tremble.

30 Euen the Carmanians raging in wrath, shall goe forth as the Beares of the forest, and shall come with great power, and stand against them in battel, and shall destroy a portion of the land of the Assyrians.

31 But after this shall the dragons haue the vpper hande, and remember their nature, and shal turne about, and conspire to consume them with a great power.

32 Then these shall be troubled, and keepe silence by their power, and shall flee.

33 From the lande of the Assyrians shall the enemie besiege them, & consume some of them, and in their hoste shall bee feare and dread, and strife among their Kings.

34 Behold clouds from the East, and from the North vnto the South, and they are very horrible to looke vpon, full of wrath and stormes.

35 They shall smite one vpon another: and they shall smite downe a great multitude of starres vpon the earth, euen their owne starre, and the blood shall be from the sworde vnto the belly, 36 And the doung of man vnto the Camels litter.

37 And there shall be great fearefulnesse and trembling vpon earth, and they that see the wrath, shall bee afraide, and a trembling shall come vpon them.

38 And then there shall come great stormes from the South, and from the North, and part from the West.

39 And from the East shall windes arise, and shall open it with the cloude, which hee rapsed vp in wrath, and the starre, rapsed to feare the East and West winde, shalbe destroyed.

40 And the great and mightie cloudes shall be lift vp, full of wrath, and the starre, that they may make all the earth afrayde, and them that dwel therein, and that they may powre out ouer euery hie place, and lifted vp, an horrible constellation, 41 As fire and haile, and flying swordes, and many waters, that all fieldes may bee full, and all riuers with the aboundance of great waters.

42 And they shall breake downe the cities, and walles, and mountaines, and hils, and the trees of the wood, & the grasse of the medowes, and their corne.

43 And they shall goe with a straight course vnto Babylon, and make it afraide.

44 They shall come to her and besiege her, and shall powre forth the constellation, and all the wrath against her: then shall the dust and smoke goe vp vnto the heauen, and all they that be about her, shall bewaile her.

45 And they that remaine vnder her, shall do seruice vnto them, that haue put her in feare.

46 ¶ And thou Asia, that art partaker of the hope of Babylon, and the glory of her person, 47 Woe vnto thee, O wretch, because thou hast made thy selfe like vnto her, and hast decked thy daughters in whoredome, that they might please and glorie in thy louers, which haue alway desired to commit whoredome with thee.

48 Thou hast followed her that is hated in all her workes, and in her inuentions: therefore saith God, 49 I will sende plagues vpon thee, widowhood, pouertie, and famine, and the sword, and pestilence, to waste thine houses with destruction and death.

50 And the glory of thy power shall be dried vp, as a flower when the heate riseth, that is sent vpon thee.

51 Thou shalt bee sicke as a poore wife that is plagued and beaten of women, so that the mightie and the louers shall not bee able to redeeme thee.

52 Would I thus hate thee, saith the Lord,

53 If thou hadst not alwap slaine my chosen, exalting the stroke of thine hands, and said ouer their death, when thou wast drunken,

54 Set forth the beautie of thy countenance?

55 The reward of thy whoredome shall be in thy bosome: therefore shalt thou receiue a reward.

56 As thou hast done vnto my chosen, saieth the Lord, so will God doe vnto thee, and will deliuer thee vnto the plague.

57 And thy children shall die of hunger, and thou shalt fall by the sword, and thy cities shall bee broken downe, and all thy men shall fall by the sword in the field.

58 And they that be in the mountaines shall die of hunger, and eate their owne flesh, and drinke their owne blood for want of bread and thirst of water.

59 And thou, as vnhappy, shalt come thorow the sea, and receiue plagues againe.

60 In the passage they shall cast downe the slaine citie, and shalt roote out one part of thy land, and consume the portion of thy glory, and shalt returne to her that was destroyed.

61 When thou shalt be cast downe, thou shalt bee to them as stubble, and they shall bee to thee as fire.

62 And they shall destroy thee, and thy cities, thy lande, and thy mountaines: all thy woods & all thy fruitfull trees shall they burne with fire.

63 Thy children shall they carp away captiue, and shall spoyle thy substance, and marre the beautie of thy face.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Against Babylon, Asia, Egypt and Syria, 18. 38 Of the euils that shal come vpon the world, with admonition how to gouerne themselues in afflictions. 54 To acknowledge their sinnes, and to commit themselues to the Lord, 55 Whose mightie prouidence and iustice is to bee reuerenced.

WOe to thee, Babylon, and Asia: woe to thee, Egypt and Syria.

2 Girde your selues with sacke and haire-cloth, and mourne your children, and bewayle: for your destruction is at hand.

3 A sword is sent vnto you, & who will turne it backe? a fire is sent among you, and who will quench it?

4 Plagues are sent vnto you, and who can driue them away?

5 Can any man driue away an hungry Lion in the wood? or quench the fire in stubble when it hath once begunne to burne? may one turne againe the arrowe, that is shot of a strong archer?

6 The mightie Lorde sendeth the plagues and who can driue them away? the fire is gone forth in his wrath, and who can quench it?

7 He shall cast lightnings, and who shall not feare? hee shall thunder, and who shall not be afraid?

8 The Lord shall threaten, and who shall not vtterly be broken in pieces at his presence? the earth quaketh, and the foundation thereof: the sea ariseth vp with waues from the deepe, and the waues thereof are troubled, and the fishes thereof, before the Lorde and the glory of his power.

9 For strong is his right hand, that bendeth the bowe: his arrowes that hee shooteth, are sharpe, and shall not misse, when they begin to be shot into the endes of the world.

10 Behold, the plagues are sent, and shal not turne againe till they come vpon earth.

11 The fire is kindled, and shal not be put out till it consume the foundations of the earth.

12 As an arrowe which is shot of a mightie archer, returneth not backeward, so the plagues that shall bee sent vpon earth, shall not turne againe.

13 Woe is me, woe is mee: who will deliuer me in those dayes?

14 The beginning of sorrowes and great mourning: the beginning of famine, and great death: the beginning of warres, and the powers shall feare: the beginning of euils, and all shall tremble. What shall I doe in these things, when the plagues come?

15 Behold, famine, and plague, and trouble, and anguish are sent as scourges for amendment.

16 But for all these things they wil not turne from their wickednesse, nor be alwap mindefull of the scourges.

17 Behold, vitailes shall be so good cheape vpon earth, that they shall thinke themselues to bee in good case: but then shall the euils bud forth vpon earth, euen the sworde, the famine, and great confusion.

18 For many of them that dwel vpon earth, shall perish with famine, and the other that escape the famine, shall the sword destroy.

19 And the dead shall bee cast out as doung, and there shall be no man to comfort them: for the earth shall be wasted, and the cities shall bee cast downe.

20 There shal be no man left to til the earth, and to sowe it: the trees shall giue fruite, but who shall gather them?

21 The grapes shall bee ripe, but who shall tread them? for all places shall bee desolate, so that one man shall desire to see another, or to heare his voyce.

22 For of one citie there shall be ten left, and two of the fielde which shall hide themselues in the thicke woods, and in the clefts of rockes.

23 As when there remaine three or foure olives in the place where olives grow, or among other trees,

24 Or as when a vineyard is gathered, there are left some grapes of them þ diligently sought though the vineyard:

25 So in those dayes there shall bee three or foure left vp them that search their houses with the sword.

26 And the earth shall bee left waste, and the fieldes thereof shall wax olde, and her wayes and all her pathes shall growe full of thornes, because no man shall trauaile therethorough.

27 The

27 The virgins shall mourne, hauing no bridegroomes: the women shall make lamentation, hauing no husbands: their daughters shall mourne, hauing no helpers.

28 In the warres shall their bridegromes be destroyed, and their husbands shall perish with famine.

29 But, ye seruants of the Lorde, heare these things, and marke them.

30 Beholde the word of the Lorde, receiue it: beleeue not the gods of whome the Lorde speaketh: beholde, the plagues draw neere, and are not slacke.

31 As a trauelling woman which in the ninth moneth bringeth forth her sonne, when the houre of birth is come, two or three houres afore the paines come vpon her body, and when the childe commeth to the birth, they tary not a whit:

32 So shal not the plagues be slacke to come vpon the earth, and the worlde shall mourne, and the sorowes shall come vpon it on euery side.

33 O my people, heare my worde: make you ready to the battell, and in the troubles be euen as strangers vpon earth.

34 Yee that selleth, let him be as he that fleeeth his way: and he that byeth, as one that wil lose.

35 Who so occupieth marchandise, as he that winneth not: and hee that buildeth, as hee that shall not dwell therein:

36 He that soweth, as one that shal not reap: he that cutteth the vine, as he that shall not gather the grapes:

37 They that marrie, as they that shall get no children: and they that marrie not, so as the widowes.

38 Therefore they that labour, labour in vaine.

39 For strangers shall reape their fruites, and spoyle their goods, and ouerthrowe their houses, and take their children captiue: for in captiuitie and famine shal they gette their children.

40 And they that occupie their marchandise with couetousnesse, the more they decke their cities, their houses, their possessions, & their owne persons, 41 So much more will I bee angry against them, for their sinnes, saith the Lord.

42 As a whore enuieth an honest and vertuous woman.

43 So shal righteousnes hate iniquity, when she decketh her selfe, and shall accuse her openly, when he shal come that shall bridle the authour of all sinne vpon earth.

44 And therefore bee ye not like therennto, nor to the works thereof: for or euer it bee long, iniquitie shall bee taken away out of the earth, and righteousnesse shall reigne among you.

45 Let not the sinner say, that hee hath not sinned: for coales of fire shall burne vpon his head, which saieth, I haue not sinned before the Lord God and his glory.

Luke 16.16. 46 Beholde, the Lord *knoweth al the works of men, their imaginations, their thoughts and their hearts.

Gene.1.1. 47 * For assoone as he said, Let the earth bee made, it was made: let the heauen be made, and it was created.

48 By his worde were the starres established, and he * knoweth the number of them. Psal.147.4

49 He searcheth the depth, and the treasures thereof; hee hath measured the sea, and what it conteineth.

50 Yee hath shut the sea in the middes of the waters, and with his word hath he hanged the earth vpon the waters.

51 He spreadeth out the heauen like a vault: vpon the waters hath he founded it.

52 In the desert hath he made springs of water, and pooles vpon the top of the mountaines, to powre out floods from the high rocks to water the earth.

53 Yee made man, and put his heart in the middes of the body, and gaue him breath, life, and vnderstanding.

54 And the spirit of the almighty God, which made all things, and hath searched all the hidde things in the secrets of the earth, 55 Yee knoweth your inuentions, and what yee imagine in your heart when yee sinne and would hide your sinnes.

56 Therefore hath the Lorde searched and sought out all your workes, and will put you all to shame.

57 And when your sinnes are brought forth before men, yee shall be confounded, and your owne sinnes shall stand as your accusers in that day.

58 What will yee doe, and how will yee hide your sinnes before God and his Angels?

59 Beholde, God himselfe is the Iudge: feare him: cease from your sinnes, and forgette your iniquities, and meddle no more from henceforth with them: so shall God leade you forth, and deliuer you from all trouble.

60 For beholde, the heate of a great multitude is kindled against you, and they shal take away certeine of you, and shal slay you for meat to the idoles.

61 And they that consent vnto them, shall bee had in derision, and in reproch, and troden vnder foot.

62 For in euery place & cities that are neere, there shalbe great insurrection against those that feare the Lord.

63 They shall be like madde men: they shall spare none: they shall spoyle, and waste such as yet feare the Lord.

64 For they then shall waste and spoile their goods, and cast them out of their houses.

65 Then shal the triall of my chosen appeare, as the golde is tried by the fire.

66 Heare, O ye my beloued, saieth the Lord, Beholde, the dayes of trouble are at hande, but I will deliuer you from them: bee not yee afraide: doubt not, for God is your captaine.

67 Who so keepeth my commaundements and precepts, saieth the Lord God, let not your sinnes weigh you downe, and let not your iniquities lift themselues vp.

68 Woe vnto them that are bownd with their sinnes, and couered with their iniquities, as a field is hedged in with bushes, & the paths therof couered with thornes, whereby no man may trauell: it is shut vp, and is appointed to be deuoured with fire.

Tobit.

CHAP. I.

1 Tobias parentage. 3 His godlineſſe. 6 His equitie. 8 His charitie and proſperitie. 23 Hee ſleeth, and his goods are confiſcate, 25 And after reſtored.

Tobias being captiue among the Aſſyrians did not leaue the way of trueth.

THe booke of the wordes of Tobit the ſonne of Tobiel, the ſonne of Anauel, the ſonne of Aduel, the ſonne of Gabael, of the ſeede of Aſael, and of the tribe of Nephthalim,

2 Who in the time of ‖Enemeſſar king of the Aſſyrians was * ledde awaye captiue out of Thiſbe, which is at the right hande of that citie, which is called properly Nephthalim, in Galile aboue Aſer.

‖ Or, Salmanaſar.

2. King. 17. 3

3 I Tobit haue walked all my life long in the waye of trueth and iuſtice, and I did many things liberally to my brethren, which were of my nation, and came with mee to Nineue into the land of the Aſſyrians.

Tobias was mercifull.

4 And when I was in mine owne countrey in the land of Iſrael, beeing but young, all the tribe of Nephthalim my father fell from the houſe of Ieruſalem, which was choſen out of all the tribes of Iſrael, that all the tribes ſhould ſacrifice there, where the Temple of the Tabernacle of the moſt High was conſecrated, and built vp for all ages.

1. King. 12. 30.

5 * Now all the tribes, which fell from God, yea, and my father Nephthalims houſe offered to the heifer called Baal.

He fled from idoles.

Exod. 22. 29. deut. 12. 6.

6 But I (as it was ordeined to all Iſrael by an euerlaſting decree) went alone often to Ieruſalem, at the feaſts, * bringing the firſt fruites, and the tenth of beaſtes, with that which was firſt ſhorne, and offered them at the altar to the Prieſts the children of Aaron.

7 The firſt tenth part I gaue to the Prieſts the ſonnes of Aaron, which miniſtred in Ieruſalem: the other tenth part I ſolde, and came and beſtowed it euery yeere at Ieruſalem.

8 The third tenth part I gaue vnto them to whome it was meete, as Deborа my fathers mother had commanded me: for my father left me as a pupill.

He marieth to wife Anna, which beareth to him Tobias.

Num. 36. 7. Gen. 43. 2.

9 ¶ Furthermore when I was come to the age of a man, I married Anna of * mine owne kinred, and of her I begate Tobias.

10 ¶ But when I was led captiue to Niueue, all my brethren, and thoſe which were of my kinred, did eate of the * bread of the Gentiles.

11 But I kept my ſelfe from eating.

Hee found grace in the ſight of Salmanaſar.

12 Becauſe I remembred God with al mine heart.

‖ Or, ſonne.

13 Therefore the moſt High gaue mee grace and fauour before Enemeſſar, ſo that I was his purueyour.

‖ Or, in Rages a citie of Media.

14 ¶ And I went into Media, and I deliuered vnto Gabael, the ‖ brother of Gabrias ‖ in the land of Media.

‖ Or, Salmanaſar.

15 But when Enemeſſar was dead, Sennacherib his ſonne reigned in his ſteade: whoſe ſtate becauſe it was troubled, I could not go into Media.

The charitie of Tobias.

16 ¶ But in the time of ‖ Enemeſſar, I gaue many almes to my brethren, and gaue my bread to them which were hungry, 17 And my clothes to the naked: and if I ſawe any of my kinred dead, or caſt about the walles of Nineue, I buried him.

18 And if the King Sennacherib had ſlaine any, when he * was come and fled from Iudea, I buried them priuily (for in his wrath he killeth many) but the bodies were not found when they were ſought for of the king.

2. King. 19. 35, 36, iſa. 37. 36, 37. eccluſ. 48. 18 22. 1. mac. 7. 41. 2. mac. 8. 19.

19 Therefore when a certaine Niniuite had accuſed mee to the king, becauſe I did burie them, I hid my ſelfe: and becauſe I knew that I was ſought to be ſlaine, I withdrew my ſelfe for feare.

Tobit fleeth from the face of Sennacherib.

20 Then all my goods were ſpoyled, neither was there any thing left mee beſides my wife Anna, and my ſonne Tobias.

21 Neuertheleſſe * within fiue & fiftie dayes, two of his ſonnes killed him, and they fled into the mountaines of Ararath, and Sarchedonus his ſonne reigned in his ſtead, who appointed ouer his fathers accounts and ouer all his domeſticall affaires Achiacharus my brother Anaels ſonne.

2. King. 19. 37. 2. chro. 32. 21.

22 And when Achiacharus had made a requeſt for me, I came againe to Nineue: now Achiacharus was cupbearer and keeper of the ſignet, and ſteward, and ouerſaw the accounts: So Sarchedonus appointed him next vnto him, and he was my brothers ſonne.

Tobit returneth.

CHAP. II.

2 Tobit calleth the faithfull to his table. 3 He leaueth the feaſt to burie the dead. 10 Howe hee became blinde. 13 His wife laboureth for her liuing. 14 Shee reproacheth him bitterly.

NOwe when I was come home againe, and my wife Anna was reſtored vnto me with my ſonne Tobias, in the feaſt of Pentecoſt, which is the holy feaſt of the ſeuen weekes, there was a great dinner prepared me, in the which I ſate downe to eate.

2 And when I ſawe abundance of meate, I ſaide to my ſonne, Goe, and bring what poore man ſoeuer thou ſhalt finde of our brethren, which doeth remember God, and loe I will tarie for thee.

Tobit doth bid to dinner thoſe which feare God.

3 But he came againe, and ſaide, Father, one of our nation is ſtrangled, and is caſt out in the market place.

4 Then before I had taſted any meate, I ſtart vp, and brought him into mine houſe vntill the going downe of the ſunne.

Tobit leauing his gheſts, taketh vp the dead body into his houſe to burie it.

Amos 8. 10. 1. mac. 1. 41.

5 Then I returned and waſhed, and ate my meate in heauineſſe,

6 Remembring that propheſie of * Amos which had ſaide, Your ſolemne feaſts ſhall bee turned into mourning, and your ioyes into wayling.

7 Therefore I wept, and after the going downe of the ſunne I went and made a graue and buried him.

8 But my neighbours mocked me, and ſaid, Doeth hee not feare to die for this cauſe, who * fledde away, and yet lo, he buriethe the dead againe?

Tobit is rebuked of his neighbours. Chap. 1. 19.

9 The ſame night alſo when I returned from the buriall, and ſlept at the wall of mine houſe, becauſe I was polluted, and hauing my face vncouered,

10 And

He is made blinde for an example of patience to his posteritie,

10 And I knew not that sparrowes were in the wall, and as mine eyes were open, the sparrowes cast downe warme doung into mine eyes, and a whitenesse came in mine eyes, and I went to the Physitions, but they helped me not. Moreouer Achiacharus did nourish me, vntill I went into Helemais.

The wife of Tobit labooreth for her liuing.

11 And my wife Anna did take womens workes to doe.

12 And when she had sent them home to the owners, they payed the wages, and gaue a kidde.

The innocencie of Tobit.

13 Which when it was at mine house, and began to bleate, I said vnto her, From whence is this kidde? is it not stollen? render it to the owners: for it is not lawfull to eate any thing that is stollen.

Deut.22,1.

14 But she said, It was giuen for a gift more then the wages: but I did not beleeue, and bad her to render it to the owners, and I did blush because of her. Furthermore she saide, * Where are thine almes, and thy righteousnesse? behold, they all now appeare in thee.

Iob 2,9.

CHAP. III.

3 The prayer of Tobit. 7 Sarra Raguels daughter, and the things that came vnto her. 12 Her prayer heard. 19 The Angel Raphael sent.

THen I, being sorowfull, did weepe, and in my sorowe prayed, saying,

2 O Lord, thou art iust, and all thy workes, and all thy wayes are mercie and trueth, and thou iudgest truely and iustly for euer.

3 Remember me, and looke on me, neither punish me according to my sinnes or mine ignorances, or my fathers, which haue sinned before thee.

Deut.28. 15,37.

4 For they haue not obeyed thy commandements: wherefore thou hast deliuered vs * for a spoyle, and vnto captiuitie, and to death, and for a prouerbe of reproche to all them among whom wee are dispersed, and nowe ‖ thou hast many and iust causes

‖Or, thy iudgements are many and true,

5 To doe with me according to my sinnes, and my fathers, because we haue not kept thy commaundements, neither haue walked in trueth before thee.

6 Now therefore deale with me as seemeth best vnto thee, and commaund my spirit to be taken from me, that I may be dissolued, and become earth: for it is better for me to die then to liue, because I haue heard false reproches, and am very sorowfull: commaund therefore that I may be dissolued out of this distresse, and goe into the euerlasting place: turne not thy face away from me.

Sarra is checked of her fathers maides.

7 ¶ It came to passe that same day that in Ecbatane a citie of Media, Sarra the daughter of Raguel was also reproched by her fathers maides.

8 Because shee had beene married to seuen husbands, whom Asmodeus the euill spirit had killed, before that they had lien with her. Doest thou not knowe, saide they, that thou hast strangled thine husbands? thou hast had nowe seuen husbands, neither wast thou named after any of them.

‖Or, when she beat them for their faults, they said,

9 Wherefore doest thou ‖beate vs for them? if they be dead, goe thy wayes hence to them, that wee may neuer see of thee either sonne or daughter.

10 When she heard these things, shee was very sorowfull, so that shee thought to haue strangled her selfe. And she said, I am the onely daughter of my father, and if I doe this, I shall slander him, and shall bring his age to the graue with sorowe.

Sarra prayeth and fasteth, that she may be deliuered from shame.

11 Then shee prayed toward the windowe and saide, Blessed art thou, O Lord my God, and thine holy and glorious Name is blessed, and honourable for euer: let all thy workes praise thee for euer.

12 And nowe, O Lorde, I set mine eyes, and my face toward thee, 13 And say, Take me out of the earth, that I may heare no more any reproch.

The innocencie of Sarra. Her chastitie.

14 Thou knowest, O Lorde, that I am pure from all sinne with man.

15 And that I haue neuer polluted my name, nor the name of my father in the lande of my captiuitie: I am the onely daughter of my father, neither hath hee any man childe to be his heire, neither any ‡ neere kinseman or childe borne of him, to whom I may keepe my selfe for a wife: my seuen husbands are nowe dead, and why should I liue? But if it please not thee that I should die, commaund to looke on me, and to pitie me that I doe no more heare reproche.

The prayers of Tobit, and Sarra are heard both at a time.

16 So the prayers of them both were heard before the maiestie of the great God.

17 And Raphael was sent to heale them both, that is, to take away the whitenesse of Tobits eyes, and to giue Sarra the daughter of Raguel for a wife to Tobias the sonne of Tobit, and to binde Asmodeus the euill spirit, because she belonged to Tobias by right. The selfe same time came Tobit home, and entred into his house, and Sarra ℘ daughter of Raguel came downe from her chamber.

CHAP. IIII.

Precepts and exhortations of Tobit to his sonne.

IN that day Tobit remembred * the sinne, which he had deliuered to Gabael in Rages a citie of Media,

Chap.1.14.

2 And saide with himselfe, I haue wished for death: wherefore doe I not call for my sonne Tobias that I may admonish him before I dye?

Tobits exhortation to his sonne, when he thought he should die.

3 And when he had called him, he saide, My sonne, after that I am dead, burie me, and despise not thy mother, but * honour her all the dayes of thy life, and doe that which shall please her, and anger her not.

The mother is to be reuerenced.

4 Remember, my sonne, how many dangers she susteined when thou wast in her wombe,

5 And when she dieth, burie her by me in the same graue.

Exod.20.12. eccles.7,27.

God must be in our hearts.

6 My sonne, set our Lord God alwayes before thine eyes, and let not thy will be set to sinne, or to transgresse the commandements of God. Doe vprightly all thy life long, and follow not the wayes of vnrighteousnesse: for if thou deale truely, thy doings shall prosperously succeede to thee, and to all them which liue iustly.

CHAP. V.

1 Tobias sent to Rages: 4 Hee meeteth with the Angel Raphael, which did conduct him.

Tobias sent by his father to Rages, seeketh a companion, and meeteth with Raphael, whom he bringeth to his father.

TObias then answered and said, Father, I will doe all things which thou hast commaunded me.
2 But how can I receiue the siluer, seeing I knowe him not?
3 Then he gaue him the handwriting, and said vnto him, Seeke thee a man, which may goe with thee, whiles I yet liue, and I will giue him wages, and goe and receiue the money.
4 Therefore when hee was gone to seeke a man, he found Raphael the Angel.
5 But hee knewe not, and saide vnto him,
May I goe with thee into the lande of Media?
and knowest thou those places well?
6 To whom the Angel said, I will goe with thee: for I haue remained with our brother Gabael.
7 Then Tobias saide to him, Tarry for me,
till I tell my father.
8 Then he said vnto him, Goe, and tary not:
so he went in, and saide to his father, Beholde, I haue found one, which will goe with me. Then he saide, Call him vnto me, that I may knowe of what tribe he is, and whether he be faithfull to goe with thee.
9 So he called him, and he came in, and they saluted one another.
10 Then Tobit saide vnto him, Brother, shewe me of what tribe and familie thou art.
11 To whom he said, Doest thou seeke a stocke or familie, or an hired man to goe with thy sonne? Then Tobit said vnto him, I would knowe, brother, thy kinred and thy name.
12 Then he saide, I am of the kinred of Az-arias and Ananias the great, and of thy brethren.
‖Or, thou commest happily. 13 Then Tobit saide, ‖ Thou art welcome, brother: be not nowe angrie with me, because I haue enquired to knowe thy kinred and thy familie: for thou art my brother of an honest and good stocke: for I knowe Ananias and Jonathas, sonnes of that great Samaias: for we went together to Jerusalem to worship, and offered the first borne, and the tenthes of the fruites, and they were not deceiued with the errour of our brethren: my brother, thou art of a great stocke.
14 But tell me, what wages shall I giue thee? wilt thou a groat a day and things neces-sarie, as to mine owne sonne?
15 Yea, moreouer, if ye returne safe, I will adde something to the wages.
16 So they agreed. Then said he to Tobias, Prepare thy selfe for the iourney, and goe you on Gods name. And when his sonne had prepared all things for the iourney, his father saide, Goe thou with this man, and God which dwelleth in heauen, prosper your iourney, and the Angel of God keepe you company. So they Tobias goeth went forth both and departed, and the dog of foorth the the yong man with them. Angel kee-peth him 17 But * Anna his mother wept, and saide company.
to Tobit, Why hast thou sent away our sonne? Chap.10.4. His mother is he not the staffe of our hand to minister vnto weepeth.
vs?
18 Would to God wee had not laide money vpon money, but that it had bene cast away in respect of our sonne.
19 For that which God hath giuen vs to liue with, doth suffice vs.
20 Then said Tobit, Be not carefull, my sister: he shall returne in safetie, and thine eyes shall see him.
21 For the good Angel doth keepe him company, and his iourney shall be prosperous, and he shall returne safe.
22 Then she made an ende of weeping.

CHAP. VI.

1 Tobias deliuered from the fish. 7 Raphael sheweth him certaine medicines, 10 He conducteth him toward Sara.

And

And as they went on their iourney, they came at night to the flood Tygris, and there abode.

Tobias inuaded of a fish, is deliuered by the Angel.

2 And when the yong man went to wash himselfe, a fish leaped out of the riuer, & would haue deuoured him.

3 Then the Angel saide vnto him, Take the fish. And the yong man tooke the fish, and drew it to land.

4 To whom the Angel said, Cut the fish, and take the heart, and the liuer, and the gall, and put them vp surely.

5 So the yong man did as the Angel commanded him: and when they had rosted the fish, they ate it: then they both went on their way, till they came to Ecbatane.

6 ¶ Then the yong man saide to the Angel, Brother Azarias, what auaileth the heart, and the liuer, and the gall of the fish?

7 And he said vnto him, Touching the heart and the liuer, if a deuil or an euill spirit trouble any, we must make a perfume of this before the man or the woman, and he shall be no more vexed.

8 As for the gall, annoint a man that hath whitenesse in his eyes, and he shall be healed.

9 ¶ And when they were come neere to Rages.

10 The Angel saide to the yong man, Brother, to day we shall lodge with Raguel, who is thy cousin: he also hath one onely daughter named Sarra: I will speake for her that she may be giuen thee for a wife.

Num. 27.8. and 36.8.

11 For to thee doeth † *right of her pertaine, seeing thou alone art the remnant of her kinred, 12 And the maide is faire and wise: now therefore heare me, and I will speake to her father, that we may make the mariage when we are returned from Rages: for I know that Raguel cannot marry her to another, according to the Law of Moses: else he should deserue death, because the right doth rather appertaine to thee then to any other man.

13 Then the yong man answered the Angel, I haue heard, brother Azarias, that this maide hath beene giuen to seuen men, who all died in the mariage chamber.

14 And I am the only begotten sonne of my father, and I am afraid, least I go in to her, and die as the other before: for a wicked spirit loueth her, which hurteth no body, but those which come in to her: wherefore I also feare least I die, and bring my fathers and my mothers life because of me to the graue with sorowe: for they haue no other sonne to burp them.

15 Then the Angel said vnto him, Doest thou not remember the precepts which thy father gaue thee, that thou shouldest marry a wife of thine owne kinred? wherefore, heare me, O my brother: for she shall be thy wife, neither be thou carefull of the euill spirite: for this same night shall she be giuen thee in mariage.

16 And when thou shalt goe into the mariage chamber, thou shalt take of the hote coales for perfumes, and make a perfume of the heart, and of the liuer of the fish, 17 Which if the spirit doe smell, he will flee away, and neuer come againe any more: but when thou shalt come to her, rise vp both of you, and pray to God which is mercifull, who will haue pitie on you, and saue you: feare not, for she is appointed vnto thee from the beginning, and thou shalt keepe her, and she shall goe with thee: moreouer, I suppose that she shall beare thee children: nowe when Tobias had heard these things, he loued her, and his heart, was effectually ioyned to her.

CHAP. VII.

Tobias marrieth Sarra Raguels daughter.

And when they were come to Ecbatane, Raphael and they came to the house of Raguel, & Sarra met them, and after they had saluted one another, she brought them into the house. Tobias come to Raguel.

2 Then said Raguel to Edna his wife, How like is this yong man to Tobit my cousin?

3 And Raguel asked, Whence are you, my brethren? To whom they saide, that they were of the tribe of Nephthalim, and of the captiues that dwelt at Ninene.

4 Then he said to them, Doe ye know Tobit our kinseman? And they saide, We know him. Then said he, Is he in good health?

5 And they saide, He is both aliue, & in good health: and Tobias said, He is my father.

6 Then Raguel leaped, & kissed him, & wept,

7 And blessed him, and said vnto him, Thou art the sonne of an honest and good man: but when he had heard that Tobit was blinde, he was sorowfull and wept.

8 And likewise Edna his wife, and Sarra his daughter wept. Moreouer they receiued them with a ready minde, and after that they had killed a ramme of the flocke, they set much meate on the table. Then saide Tobias to Raphael, Brother Azarias, put forth those things whereof thou spakest in the way, that this businesse may be dispatched. Tobias asketh Raguels daughter to wife.

9 So he communicated the matter with Raguel, and Raguel saide to Tobias, Eate, and drinke, and make merry.

10 For it is meete that thou shouldest marry my daughter: neuertheless, I will declare vnto thee the trueth.

11 I haue giuen my daughter in mariage to seuen men, who died that night which they came in vnto her: neuertheles, be thou of a good courage and merry. But Tobias said, I will eate nothing here, vntill ye bring her hither, and betroth her to me.

12 Raguel saide then, Marry her then according to the custome: for thou art her cousin, and she is thine. God which is mercifull, make this prosperous to you in all good things.

13 Then he called his daughter Sarra, and she came to her father, and he tooke her by the hand, and gaue her for wife to Tobias, saying, Behold, take her after the * Lawe of Moses, and leade her away to thy father: and he blessed them. Raguel giueth his daughter Sarra to Tobias. Num. 36.6.

14 And called his wife Edna, and he tooke a booke, and wrote a contract, and sealed it.

15 Then they began to eate.

16 After, Raguel called his wife Edna, and said vnto her, Sister, prepare another chamber, and bring her in thither.

17 Which when she had done, as he had bidden her, she brought her thither: then Sarra wept, and her mother wiped away her daughters teares,

18 And saide vnto her, Be of good comfort, my daughter: the Lorde of heauen and earth giue thee ioy for this thy sorowe: be of good comfort, my daughter.

CHAP. VIII.

Tobias driueth away the euill spirit. 4 He prayeth to God with his wife. 11 Raguel prepareth a graue for his sonne in lawe. 16 Raguel blesseth the Lord.

AND when they had supped, they brought Tobias in vnto her.

2 And as he went, he remembred the words of Raphael, and tooke coles for perfumes, and put the heart & liuer of the fish thereupon, and made a perfume.

Tobias followeth Raphaels counsell, as Chap. 6.7.

3 The which smell when the euill spirit had smelled, he fled into the ‖ vtmost parts of Egypt, whom the Angel bound. ‖ Or, vpmost.

4 And after that they were both shut in, Tobias rose out of the bed, and saide, Sister, arise and let vs pray, that God would haue pitie on vs.

Tobias prayer.

5 Then began Tobias to say, Blessed art thou, O God of our fathers, and blessed is thine holy and glorious Name for euer: let the heauens blesse thee, and all thy creatures.

Gen. 2, 7, 18, 22.

6 Thou madest Adam, & gauest him * Eua his wife for an helpe, and stay: of them came mankind: thou hast said, It is not good, that a man should be alone: let vs make vnto him an aide like vnto himselfe.

7 And nowe, O Lorde, I take not this my sister for fornication, but vprightly: therefore graunt me mercy, that we may become aged together.

8 And she said with him, Amen.

Raguel thinking Tobias was dead, made a graue for him.

9 So they slept both that night, and Raguel arose, and went and made a graue,

10 Saying, Is not he dead also?

11 But when Raguel was come into his house,

12 He saide to his wife Edna, Send one of the maides, and let them see whether he be aliue: if not, that I may burie him, and none knowe it.

13 So the maid opened the doore, and went in, and found them both asleepe, 14 And came foorth, and tolde them that he was aliue.

Raguel praiseth God for Tobias,

15 Then Raguel praised God, and saide, O God, thou art worthy to be prayed with all pure, and holy praise: therefore let thy saintes praise thee with all thy creatures, and let all thine Angels and thine elect praise thee for euer.

16 Thou art to be prayed, O Lord: for thou hast made me ioyfull, and that is not come to me which I suspected: but thou hast dealt with vs according to great mercy.

17 Thou art to be praised, because thou hast had mercy of two that were the onely begotten children of their fathers: graunt them mercy, O Lorde, and finish their life in health with ioy and mercy.

18 Then Raguel bade his seruants to fill the graue.

19 And he kept the wedding feast fourteene dayes.

Raguel giueth halfe of his goods toward the mariage of his daughter to Tobias.

20 For Raguel had saide vnto him by an othe, that he should not depart before that the fourteene dayes of the mariage were expired, 21 And then he should take the halfe of his goods and returne in safetie to his father, and should haue the rest, when he and his wife were dead.

CHAP. IX.

Raphael leadeth Gabael to Tobias mariage.

THen Tobias called Raphael, and said vnto him,

2 Brother Azarias, Take with thee a seruant and two camels, and goe to Rages of the Medes to Gabael, and bring me the money, and bring him to the wedding.

3 For Raguel hath sworne that I shall not depart.

4 But my father counteth the dayes: and if I tarry long, he will be very sory.

Tobits care for his sonne.

5 So Raphael went out and came to Gabael, and gaue him the hand writing, who brought foorth bags which were sealed vp, and gaue them to him.

The Angel goeth on Tobias message.

6 And in the morning they went forth both together, and came to the wedding. And Tobias begate his wife with childe.

CHAP. X.

1 Tobit and his wife thinke long for their sonne. 10 Raguel sendeth away Tobias and Sara.

NOwe Tobit his father counted euery day, and when the dayes of the iourney were expired, and they came not,

2 Tobit saide, Are they not mocked? or is not Gabael dead, and there is no man to giue him the money?

The father & mother are in heauinesse for Tobias tarying.

3 Therefore he was very sory.

4 Then his wife saide to him, My sonne is dead, seeing he tarieth: and she began to * bewaile him, and said,

Chap. 5.17.

5 Now I care for nothing, my sonne, since I haue lost thee the light of mine eyes.

6 To whom Tobit saide, Holde thy peace; be not carefull, for he is safe.

7 But she said, Hold thy peace, and deceiue me not: my sonne is dead: and thee went out euery day, by the way which they went, neither did she eate meate on the day time, and did consume whole nights in bewayling her sonne Tobias, vntill the fourteene dayes of the wedding were expired, which Raguel had sworne, that he should tary there. Then Tobias said to Raguel, Let me goe: for my father and my mother looke no more to see me.

8 But his father in law said vnto him, Tarie with me, and I will send to thy father, and they shall declare him thine affaires.

9 But Tobias saide, No, but let me goe to my father.

10 Then Raguel arose, and gaue him Sarra his wife, and halfe his goods, as seruants, and cattell, and money.

Raguel giueth Tobias and his wife leaue to depart.

11 And he blessed them, and sent them away, saying, The God of heauen make you, my children, to prosper before I die.

12 And he said to his daughter, Honour thy father, and thy mother in lawe, which are nowe thy parents, that I may heare good report of thee: and he kissed them. Edna also said to Tobias, The Lord of heauen restore thee, my deare brother, and grant that I may see thy children of my daughter Sarra, that I may reioyce before the Lord. Behold nowe, I commit to thee my daughter, as a pledge: doe not entreate her euill.

Sarra is instructed by her parents.

CHAP. XI.

1 The returne of Tobias to his father. 9 How he was receiued. 10 His father hath his sight restored, and prayseth the Lord.

After

AFter these things Tobias went his way, praising God that he had given him a prosperous iourney, and blessed Raguel and Edna his wife, and went on his way til he drew neere to Nineue.

2 Then Raphael saide to Tobias, Thou knowest brother, how thou didst leaue thy father.

3 Let vs haste before thy wife, and prepare the house,

The Angels counsell to Tobias.

4 And take in thine hand the gall of the fish. So they went their way, and the dogge followed them.

5 Now Anna sate in the way looking for her sonne

6 Whom when she saw comming, she saide to his father, Beholde, thy sonne commeth, and the man that went with him.

7 Then said Raphael, I know, Tobias, that thy father shal receiue his sight.

8 Therefore anoynt his eyes with the gall, and being pricked therewith, hee shall rubbe and make the whitenesse to fall away, and shal see thee.

9 Then Anna ranne foorth, and fell on the necke of her sonne, and saide vnto him, Seeing I haue seene thee, my sonne, from hence foorth I am content to die, and they wept both.

10 Tobit also went foorth toward the doore, and stumbled, but his sonne ranne vnto him, 11 And tooke holde of his father, and sprinkled of the gall on his fathers eyes, saying, Be of good hope, my father.

12 And when his eyes beganne to pricke, he rubbed them.

13 And the whitenesse pilled away from the corners of his eyes, & when he saw his sonne, he fell vpon his necke, 14 And he wept, and said, Blessed art thou, O Lorde, and blessed be thy name for euer, and blessed be all thine holy Angels.

15 For thou hast scourged mee, and hast had pitie on mee: for beholde, I see my sonne Tobias: and his sonne, being glad, went in, and tolde his father the great things that had come to passe in Media.

16 Then Tobit went out to meet his daughter in lawe, reioycing and praising God to the gate of Nineue: and they which saw him goe, marueiled, because he had receiued his sight.

17 But Tobit testified before them all, that God had had pitie on him. And when hee came neere to Sarra his daughter in lawe, hee blessed her, saying, Thou art welcome, daughter: God bee blessed, which hath brought thee vnto vs, and blessed bee thy father: and there was great ioy among all his brethren, which were at Nineue.

18 And Achiacharus and Nasbas his brothers sonne came.

19 And Tobias marriage was kept seuen dayes with great ioy.

CHAP. XII.

2 Tobias declareth to his father the pleasure that Raphael had done him. 5 The which he would recompense. 11. 15 Raphael declareth that he is an Angel sent of God.

THen Tobit called his sonne Tobias, and saide vnto him, Prouide, my sonne, wages for the man, which went with thee, and thou must giue him more.

2 And he said vnto him, O father, it shal not grieue mee to giue him halfe of those things which I haue brought.

3 For he hath brought mee againe to thee in safetie, and hath made whole my wife, & hath brought mee the money, and hath likewise healed thee.

4 Then the olde man sayde, It is due vnto him.

5 So he called the Angel, and said vnto him, Take halfe of all that yee haue brought, and go away in safetie.

6 But hee tooke them both apart, and saide vnto them, Praise God, and confesse him, and giue him the glorie, & praise him for the things which hee hath done vnto you before all them that liue. It is good to praise God, and to exalt his name, and to shewe foorth his endent workes with honour: therefore bee not wearie to confesse him.

7 It is good to keepe close the secrets of a king, but it is honourable to reueale the works of God: do that which is good, and no euil shall touch you.

8 Prayer is good with fasting, and almes, and righteousnesse. A little with righteousnesse is better then much with vnrighteousnesse: it is better to giue almes, then to lay vp golde.

9 For almes doeth deliuer from death, and doth purge all sinne. Those which exercise almes and righteousnesse, shalbe filled with life.

10 But they that sinne, are enemies to their owne life.

11 Surely I will keepe close nothing from you: neuertheless, I saide it was good to keepe close the secret of a king, but that it was honourable to reueale the works of God.

12 Nowe therefore when thou didst pray, and Sarra thy daughter in lawe, I did bring to memorie your prayer before the holy one: And when thou diddest burie the dead, I was with thee likewise.

13 And when thou wast not grieued to rise vp, and leaue thy dinner to burie the dead, thy good deede was not hidde from me: but I was with thee.

He that will be acceptable to God, must be proued with tentation.

14 And now God hath sent me to heale thee, and Sarra thy daughter in lawe.

15 I am Raphael one of the seuen holy Angels, which present the prayers of the Saints, and which goe forth before his holy Maiestie.

16 Then they were both troubled, and fell vpon their face: for they feared.

17 But he saide vnto them, Feare not, for it shall goe well with you: praise God therefore.

18 For I came not of mine owne pleasure, but by the good will of your God: wherefore praise him in all ages.

19 *All these dayes I did appeare vnto you, but I did neither eate nor drinke, but you sawe it in vision.

Gen.18.8. & 19.3. Iudges 13.16.

20 Nowe therefore giue God thanks: for I goe vp to him that sent me: but write all things which are done in a booke.

21 And when they rose, they sawe him no more.

22 Then they confessed the great and wonderfull workes of God, and how the Angel of the Lord had appeared to them.

CHAP. XIII.

A thankesgiuing of Tobit, who exhorteth all to praise the Lord.

THen Tobit wrote a prayer of reioycing, and sayde, Blessed be God that liueth for euer, and blessed be his kingdome.

2 For hee doeth scourge and hath pitie: hee leadeth to hell, and bringeth vp, neither is there any that can auoyd his hand. Deut.32.39. 1.sam.2.6. wisd.16,13.

3 Confesse him before the Gentiles, yee children of Israel: for he hath scattered vs among them.

4 There declare his greatnesse, and extoll him before all the liuing: for he is our Lord and our God, and our Father for euer.

5 Hee hath scourged vs for our iniquities, and will haue mercie againe, and will gather vs out of all nations, among whome wee are scattered.

6 If you turne to him with your whole heart, and with your whole minde, and deale vprightly before him, then will hee turne vnto you, and will not hide his face from you, but yee shall see what hee will doe with you: therefore confesse him with your whole mouth, and praise the Lorde of righteousnesse, and extoll the euerlasting King. I will confesse him in the land of my captiuitie, and will declare his power, and greatnesse to a sinful nation. O yee sinners, turne and doe iustice before him: who can tell if hee will receiue you to mercie, and haue pitie on you?

7 I will extoll my God, and my soule shall praise the King of heauen, and shal reioyce in his greatnesse.

8 Let all men speake, and let all praise him for his righteousnesse.

9 O Jerusalem the holy citie, he wil scourge thee for thy childrens woorkes, but hee will haue pitie againe on the sonnes of righteous men.

10 Giue praise to the Lorde duely, and prayse the euerlasting King, that his Tabernacle may bee builded in thee againe with ioy: and let him make ioyfull there in thee those that are captiues, and loue in thee for euer those that be miserable.

11 Many nations shall come from farre to the Name of the Lord God, with giftes in their handes, euen giftes to the King of heauen: all generations shall praise thee, and giue signes of ioy.

12 Cursed are all they which hate thee: but blessed are they for euer which loue thee.

13 Reioyce, and be glad for the children of the iust: for they shalbe gathered, and shall blesse the Lord of the iust.

14 Blessed are they which loue thee: for they shal reioyce in thy peace. Blessed are they which haue bene sorowful for all thy scourges: for they shall reioyce for thee, when they shall see all thy glory, and shall reioyce for euer.

15 Let my soule blesse God the great King.

16 For Jerusalem shal be built vp with Saphirs, and Emeraudes, and thy walles with precious stones, and thy towres, and thy bulwarkes with pure golde.

17 And the streets of Jerusalem shall be pa- ‖Or, Souphir. ued with Berall, and carbuncle, and stones of ‖Or, praise ye the Lord. ‖ Ophir.

18 And all her streetes shall say, ‖ Halleluiah, and they shall prayse him, saying, Blessed bee God which hath extolled ‖ it for euer. ‖That is, Jerusalem.

CHAP. XIIII.

4 Lessons of Tobit to his sonne. 4 He propheciesth the destruction of Nineue, 5 And the restoring of Jerusalem and the Temple. 13 The death of Tobit, and his wife 14 Tobias age and death.

SO Tobit made an end of praising God.

2 And hee was eight and fiftie yeere olde, when hee lost his sight, which was restored to him after eight yeere, and hee gaue almes, and hee continued to feare the Lorde God, and to praise him.

3 And when he was very aged, he called his sonne, and syre of his sonnes sonnes, and said to him, My sonne, take thy children (for beholde, I am aged, and am ready to depart out of this life)

4 Goe into Media, my sonne: for I surely beleeue those things which Jonas the Prophet spake of Ninive, that it shall bee destroied, and for a time peace shall rather bee in Media, and that our brethren shall bee scattered in the earth from that good lande, and Jerusalem shall bee desolate, and the house of God in it shall bee turned, and shall bee desolate for a time.

5 Yet againe God* will haue pitie on them, Ezra.3.8. and 6.14. and bring them againe into the land where they shall builde a Temple, but not like to the first, vntill the times of that age bee fulfilled, which being finished, they shall returne from euery place out of captiuitie, and build vp Jerusalem gloriously, and the house of God shalbe built in it for euer with a glorious building, as the Prophets haue spoken thereof.

6 And all nations shall turne, and feare the Lord God truely, and shall burie their idoles.

7 So shall all nations praise the Lorde, and his people shall confesse God, and the Lord shall exalt his people, & all those which loue the Lord in truth and iustice, shall reioyce, and those also which shew mercie to our brethren.

8 And now my sonne, depart out of Nineue, because that those things which the Prophet Jonas spake, shall surely come to passe.

9 But keepe thou the Lawe, and the commandements, and shewe thy selfe merciful and iust, that it may goe well with thee.

10 And burie mee honestly, and thy mother with mee: but tarie no longer at Nineue. Remember, my sonne, howe Aman handled Achiacharus that brought him vp, howe out of light he brought him into darkenesse, and how hee rewarded him againe: yet Achiacharus was saued, but the other had his reward: for he went downe into darknesse. Manasses gaue almes, & escaped the snare of death, which they had set for him, but Aman fel into the snare and perished.

11 Wherefore now, my sonne, consider what almes doeth, and howe righteousnesse doeth deliuer. When hee had said these things, ‖ he gaue vp the ghost in the bed, beeing an hundreth and eight and fiftie yeere olde, and he buried him honourably. ‖ Or, his soule failed him in the bed.

12 And when Anna was dead, hee buried her with his father: but Tobias went with his wife and children to Ecbatane to Raguel guel his father in lawe.

13 Where hee became olde with honour, and he buried his father and mother in law honorably, and he inherited their substance and Tobits his father.

14 And hee died at Ecbatane in Media, being an hundreth and fiuen and twentie peere olde.

25 But before hee died, hee heard of the destruction of Nineue, which was taken by Nabuchodonosor & Assuerus, and before his death he reioyced for Nineue.

¶ Iudeth.

CHAP. I.

1 The building of Ecbatane. 5 Nabuchodonosor made warre against Arphaxad, & ouercame him. 12 He threatneth them that would not helpe him.

IN the twelfth peere of the reigne of Nabuchodonosor, who reigned in Nineue the great citie (in the dayes of Arpharad, which reigned ouer the Medes in Ecbatane,

2 And built in Ecbatane the walles round about of hewed stone, three cubites broad, and fiue cubites long, and made the height of the wall seuentie cubits, and the breadth thereof fiftie cubites,

3 And made the towres thereof in the gates of it of an hundreth cubites, and the breadth thereof in the foundation threescore cubites,

4 And made the gates thereof, euen gates that were lifted vp on hie, seuentie cubites, and the breadth of them fourtie cubites, for the going foorth of his mightie armies, and for the setting in arap of his footemen)

5 Euen in those dayes, King Nabuchodonosor made warre with King Arpharad in the great fielde, which is the fielde in the coastes of Ragau.

6 Then came vnto him all they that dwelt in the mountaines, and all that dwelt by Euphrates, and Tygris, and Hydaspes, and the countrey of Arioch the king of the Elymeans, and very many nations assembled themselues to the battell of the sonnes of Chelod.

7 And Nabuchodonosor King of the Assyrians sent vnto all that dwelt in Persia, and to all that dwelt in the West, and to those that dwelt in Cilicia, and Damascus, and Libanus, and Antilibanus, and to all that dwelt vpon the sea coast,

8 And to the people, that are in Carmel, and Galaad, and the hier Galile, and the great fielde of Esdrelam,

9 And to all that were in Samaria, and the cities thereof, and beyond Jorden vnto Jerusalem, and Betane, and Chellus, and Cades, and the riuer of Egypt, and Taphnes, and Ramesse, and all the land of Gesem, 10 Vntill one come to Tanis, and Memphis, and to all the inhabitants of Egypt, and till one come to the mountaines of Ethiopia.

11 But all the inhabitants of this countrey did not passe for the commaundement of Nabuchodonosor King of the Assyrians, neither would they come with him to the battell: for they did not feare him: yea, he was before them as one man: therefore they sent away his ambassadours from them without effect, and with dishonour.

12 Therefore Nabuchodonosor was very angry with all this countrey, and sware by his throne and kingdome, that hee would surely be auenged vpon all those coastes of Cilicia and Damascus, and Syria, and that hee would slay with the sword all the inhabitants of the land of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and all Iudea, and all that were in Egypt, till one come to the borders of the two seas.

13 Then he marched in battell arap with his power against King Arpharad in the seuenteenth peere, and he preuailed in his battell: for he ouerthrew all the power of Arpharad, and al his horsemen, and all his charets.

14 And hee wanne his cities, and came vnto Ecbatane, and tooke the towers, and spoyled the streets thereof, and turned the beautie thereof into shame.

15 He tooke also Arpharad in the mountains of Ragau, & smote him through with his darts, and destroyed him vtterly that day.

16 So he returned afterward to Nineue, both he, and all his company with a very great multitude of men of warre, and there hee passed the time, and banketted, both hee and his armie, an hundreth and twentie dayes.

CHAP. II.

5 Nabuchodonosor commanded presumptuously that all people should be brought into subiection, 6 And to destroy those that disobeyed him. 15 The preparation of Holofernes armie. 23 The conquest of his enemies.

AND in the eightteenth peere, the two and twentieth day of the first moneth, there was talke in the house of Nabuchodonosor King of the Assyrians, that hee should auenge himselfe on all the earth, as he had spoken.

2 So hee called vnto him all his officers and all his Nobles, and communicated with them his secrete counsell, and set before them with his owne mouth all the malice of the earth.

3 Then they decreed to destroy all flesh, that had not obeyed the commaundement of his mouth.

4 And when hee had ended his counsell, Nabuchodonosor King of the Assyrians called Holofernes his chiefe captaine, and which was next vnto him, and said vnto him,

5 Thus sayeth the great King, the lorde of the whole earth, Beholde, thou shalt goe foorth from my presence, and take with thee men that trust in their owne strength, of footemen, an hundreth and twentie thousand, and the number of horses with their riders, twelue thousand,

6 And thou shalt goe against all the West countrey, because they disobeyed my commaundement.

7 And thou shalt declare vnto them, that they prepare for me the land and the water: for I will goe forth in my wrath against them, and will couer the whole face of the earth with the feete of mine armie, and I will giue them as a spoyle vnto them,

8 So that their wounded shall fill their valleys, and their riuers, and the flood shall ouerflowe, being filled with their dead.

9 And I will bring their captiuitie to the vtmost parts of all the earth.

10 Thou therefore shalt depart hence, and take vp for me all their countrey: and if they peelde vnto thee, thou shalt reserue them for me vntil the day that I rebuke them.

11 But concerning them that rebell, let not thine eye spare them, but put them to death, and spoyle them wheresoeuer thou goest.

12 For as I liue, and the power of my kingdome, whatsoeuer I haue spoken, that will I doe by mine hand.

13 And take thou heede that thou transgresse not any of the commandements of thy lord, but accomplish them fully, as I haue commanded thee, and deferre not to doe them.

14 ¶ Then Olofernes went forth from the presence of his lorde, and called all the gouernours, and captaines, and officers of the armie of Assur,

15 And hee mustered the chosen men for the battell, as his lorde had commanded him, vnto an hundreth and twentie thousande, and twelue thousand archers on horsebacke.

16 And hee set them in aray according to the maner of setting a great armie in aray.

17 And hee tooke camels and asses for their burdens, a very great number, and sheepe, and oxen, and goates without number for their prouision, 18 And vitaile for euery man of the armie, and very much gold and siluer out of the Kings house.

19 Then he went forth and all his power, to goe before in the voyage of King Nabuchodonosor, and to couer al the face of the earth Westwarde, with their charets, and horsemen, and chosen footemen.

20 A great multitude also of sundry sortes came with them like grashoppers, and like the grauel of the earth: for the multitude was without number.

21 And they went forth of Ninene three dayes iourney towarde the countrey of Bectileth, and pitched from Bectileth, neere the mountaine which is at the left hande of the vpper Cilicia.

22 Then he tooke all his armie, his footemen and horsemen, and charets, and went from thence into the mountaines, 23 And he destroyed Phud & Lud, and spoyled all the children of Rasses, and the children of Ismael, which were towarde the wildernesse at the South of the Chelians.

24 Then hee went ouer Euphrates, & went thorow Mesopotania, and destroyed al the hie cities that were vpon the riuer of Arbonai, vntil one come to the sea.

25 And hee tooke the borders of Cilicia, and destroyed all that resisted him, and came to the borders of Japheth, which were towarde the South, and ouer against Arabia.

26 He compassed also all the children of Madian, and burnt vp their tabernacles, and spoyled their lodges.

27 Then hee went downe into the countrey of Damascus, in the time of wheat harnest, and burnt vp all their fieldes, and destroyed their flockes and the heards: hee robbed their cities, and spoyled their countrey, and smote all their young men with the edge of the sword.

28 Therefore feare and trembling fell vpon all the inhabitants of the sea coast, which were in Sidon and Tyrus, and them that dwelt in Sur and Ocina, and all that dwelt in Jemnaan: and they that dwelt in Azotus and Ascalon feared him greatly.

CHAP. III.

The people subiect to Olofernes. 8 He destroyed their gods that Nabuchodonosor might onely be worshipped.

SO they sent ambassadours to him with messages of peace, saying,

2 Behold, we are the seruants of Nabuchodonosor the great King: wee lye downe before thee: vse vs as shall be good in thy sight.

3 Behold, our houses and al our places, and all our fields of wheat, and our flockes and our heards, and all our lodges and tabernacles lie before thy face: vse them as it pleaseth thee.

4 Behold, euen our cities and the inhabitants thereof are thy seruants: come, and take them as seemeth good to thee.

5 ¶ So the men came to Olofernes, and declared vnto them after this maner.

6 Then came he downe toward the sea coast, both hee and his armie, and set garisons in the hie cities, and tooke out of them chosen men for the warre.

7 So they and all the countrey round about receiued them with crownes, with dances, and with timbrels.

8 Yet hee brake downe all their borders, and cut downe their woods: for it was ordeyned him to destroy all the gods of the land, that all nations should worship Nabuchodonosor only, and that al tongues and tribes should cal vpon him as God.

9 And hee came against Esdraelon, neere vnto Judea, ouer against the great straite of Judea, 10 And he pitched betweene Geba, and a citie of the Scythians, and there hee tarried a moneth, that hee might assemble all the baggage of his armie.

CHAP. IIII.

The Israelites were afraid and defended their countrey. 6 Ioacim the Priest writeth to Bethulia, that they should fortifie themselues. 9 They cried to the Lord, and humbled themselues before him.

NOwe the children of Israel that dwelt in Judea, heard all that Olofernes the chiefe captaine of Nabuchodonosor King of the Assyrians had done to the nations, and howe hee had spoiled all their temples, and brought them to nought.

2 Therefore they feared greatly his presence, and were troubled for Jerusalem, and for the Temple of the Lord their God.

3 For they were newly returned from the captiuitie, and of late all the people was assembled assembled in Judea, and the vessels and the altar of the house had beene sanctified because of the pollution.

4 Therefore they sent into all coastes of Samaria, and the villages, and to Bethoron, and Belmen, and Jericho, and to Choba, and Esora, and to the valley of Salem,

5 And tooke all the toppes of the hie mountaines, and walled the villages that were in them, and put in vitaples for the provision of warre: for their fieldes were of late reaped.

6 Also Joacim the high Priest which was in those dayes in Jerusalem, wrote to them that dwelt in Bethulia and Betomesthaim, which is over against Esdraelon, towarde the open countrey neere to Dothaim,

7 Exhorting them to keepe the passages of the mountaines: for by them there was an entry into Judea, and it was easie to let the that would come vp, because the passage was strait for two men at the most.

8 And the children of Israel did as Joacim the high Priest had commanded them with the ancients of all the people of Israel, which dwelt in Jerusalem.

9 Then cryed every man of Israel to God with great fervency, & their soules with great affection.

10 Both they and their wives, & their children, and their cattell, and every stranger, and hireling, and their bought seruantes put sackecloth vpon their loynes.

11 Thus every man and woman, and the children, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the Temple, and sprinkled ashes vpon their heads, and spred out their sackcloth before the face of the Lorde: also they put sackcloth about the altar, 12 And cryed to the God of Israel, all with one consent most earnestly, that hee would not giue their children for a praye, and their wives for a spoyle, and the cities of their inheritance to destruction, and the Sanctuarie to pollution and reproche, and vnto derision to the heathen.

13 So God heard their prayers, and looked vpon their affliction: for the people fasted many daies in all Judea and Jerusalem before the Sanctuarie of the Lorde Almightie.

14 And Joacim the high Priest, and all the Priestes that stoode before the Lorde, and ministred vnto ꝓ Lord, had their loynes girt with sackcloth, and offered the continuall burnt offering, with prayers, and the free giftes of the people,

15 And had ashes on their mitres, and cryed vnto the Lorde with all their power for grace, and that he would looke vpon all the house of Israel.

CHAP. V.

Achior the Ammonite doeth declare to Holofernes of the maner of the Israelites.

THen was it declared to Holofernes the chiefe captaine of the armie of Assur, that the children of Israel had prepared for warre, and had shut the passages of the mountaines, and had walled all the tops of the hie hilles, and had laid impediments in the champion countrey.

2 Wherewith he was very angry, and called all the princes of Moab, and the captaines of Ammon, and all the governors of the sea coast.

3 And he sayd vnto them, Shew mee, O yee sonnes of Chanaan, Who is this people that dwelleth in the mountaines? and what are the cities that they inhabite? and what is the multitude of their armie? and wherein is their strength and their power? and what King or captaine is raised among them ouer their armie?

4 And why haue they determined not to come to meet me, more then all the inhabitants of the West?

5 ¶ Then *sayd Achior the captaine of all the sonnes of Ammon, Let my lord heare the word of the mouth of his seruant, and I will declare vnto thee the trueth concerning this people, that dwell in these mountaines, neere where thou remainest: and there shall no lie come out of the mouth of thy seruant. Chap.11.7,9

6 This people come out of the stocke of the Chaldeans.

7 And *they dwelt before in Mesopotamia, because they would not followe the gods of their fathers, which were in the lande of Chaldea. Gene.11,31.

8 But they went out of the way of their ancestors, and worshipped the God of heauen, the God whome they knewe: so they cast them out from the face of their gods, and they fledde into ¶ Mesopotamia, and soiourned there many dayes.

9 Then * their God commaunded them to departe from the place where they soiourned, and to go into the land of Chanaan, where they dwelt, and were increased with gold and siluer, and with very much cattell. Gene.12.1.

10 But when a famine covered all the lande of Chanaan, they went downe into Egypt, and dwelt there till they returned, and became there a great multitude, so that one could not number their linage.

11 *Therefore the King of Egypt rose vp against them, and vsed decette against them, and brought them low with labouring in bricke, and made them slaues. Exod.1,8.

12 Then they cryed vnto their God, and hee smote all the lande of Egypt with incureable plagues: so the * Egyptians cast them out of their sight, Exod.12.31, 33.

13 And * God dried the redde sea in their presence, Exod.14.21.

14 And * brought them into mount Sina and Cades Barnea, and cast foorth all that dwelt in the wildernesse. Exod.19,1.

15 So they dwelt in the land of the Amorites, and they destroyed by their strength all them of Esebon, and passing ouer Jordan, they inherited all the mountaines.

16 And they * cast foorth before them the Chanaanites, and the Pherestes, and the Jebusites, and them of Sichem, and all the Gergesites, and they dwelt in that countrey many dayes. Iosh.12.8.

17 And whiles they sinned not before their God, they prospered, because the God that hated iniquitie was with them.

18 But * when they departed from the way which hee appointed them, they were destroyed in many battels after a wonderful sort, * and were ledde captiues into a lande that was not theirs: and the Temple of Judg.2.11, and 3.8. 2.King.25, 2,11.

their God was cast to the ground, and their cities were taken by the enemies.

Ezra.1.1,3. 19 But *now they are turned to their God, and are come vp from the scattering wherein they were scattered, and haue possessed Ierusalem, where their temple is, and dwell in the mountaines which were desolate.

20 Now therefore, my lord and gouernour, if there be any fault in this people, so that they haue sinned against their God, let vs consider that this shall be their ruine, and let vs goe vp, and we shall ouercome them.

21 But if there be none iniquitie in this people, let my lord passe by, least their Lord defend them, and their God bee for them, and wee become a reproch before all the worlde.

22 ¶ And when Achior had finished these sayings, all the people, standing rounde about the tent, murmured: and the chiefe men of Holofernes, and all that dwelt by the sea side, and in Moab, spake that he should kill him.

23 For, say they, wee feare not the presence of the children of Israel: for loe, it is a people that haue no strength nor power against a mightie armie.

24 Let vs therefore goe vp, O lord Holofernes, and they shall be meate for thy whole armie.

CHAP. VI.

Holofernes blasphemeth God whome Achior confessed. 14 Achior is deliuered into the hands of them of Bethulia. 18 The Bethulians crie vnto the Lord.

AND when the tumult of the men that were about the counsell was ceassed, Holofernes the chiefe captaine of the armie of Assur, sayde vnto Achior before all the people of the straungers, and before all the children of Moab, and of them that were hired of Ephraim,

2 Because thou hast prophesied among vs to day, and hast sayd that the people of Ierusalem is able to fight, *because their God will defend them: and who is God but Nabuchodonosor?

Chap.5.5,21

3 He will sende his power, and will destroy them from the face of the earth, and their God shall not deliuer them: but we his seruants will destroy them as one man: for they are not able to sustayne the power of our horses.

4 For wee will treade them vnder feete with them, and their mountaines shall bee dronken with their blood, and their fieldes shall be filled with their dead bodies, and their footesteps shall not be able to stand before vs: but they shall vtterly perish.

5 The king Nabuchodonosor lord of all the earth hath sayd, euen he hath sayd, None of my wordes shall be in vayne.

6 And thou Achior an hireling of Ammon, because thou hast spoken these wordes in the day of thine iniquitie, thou shalt see my face no more from this day, vntill I take vengeance of that people that is come out of Egypt.

7 And then shall the sword of mine armie, and the multitude of them that serue mee, passe through thy sides, and thou shalt fall among their slayne, when I shall put them to flight.

8 And my seruants shall carrie thee into the mountaines, and they shall leaue thee at one of the hie cities: but thou shalt not perish, till thou be destroyed with them.

9 And if thou perswade thy selfe in thy mind, that they shall not be taken, let not thy countenance fall: I haue spoken it, and none of my wordes shall be in vayne.

10 Then commaunded Holofernes them concerning Achior, that they shoulde bring him to Bethulia, and deliuer him into the hands of the children of Israel.

11 So his seruants tooke him, and brought him out of the campe into the playne: and they went out from the middes of the playne into the mountaines, and came vnto the fountaines that were vnder Bethulia.

12 And when the men of the citie sawe them from the top of the mountaine, they tooke their armour, and went forth of the citie vnto the top of the mountaine, euen all the throwers with slings, and kept them from comming vp, by casting stones against them.

13 But they went priuily vnder the hill, and bound Achior, and left him lying at the foote of the hill, and returned to their lord.

14 Then the Israelites came downe from their citie, and stood about him, and loosed him and brought him into Bethulia, and presented him to the gouernours of their citie,

15 Which were in those dayes, Ozias the sonne of Micha, of the tribe of Simeon, and Chabris the sonne of Gothoniel, and Charmis the sonne of Melchiel.

16 And they called together all the ancients of the citie, and all their youth ran together, and their women to the assembly: and they set Achior in the middes of all their people. Then Ozias asked him of that which was done.

17 And he answered and declared vnto them the wordes of the counsell of Holofernes, and all the wordes that he had spoken in the middes of the princes of Assur, and whatsoeuer Holofernes had spoken proudly against the house of Israel.

18 Then the people fell downe and worshipped God, and cryed vnto God, saying, 19 O Lorde God of heauen, beholde their pride, and haue mercie on the basenesse of our people, and beholde this day the face of those that are sanctified vnto thee.

20 Then they comforted Achior, and praysed him greatly.

21 And Ozias tooke him out of the assembly into his house, and made a feast to the Elders, and they called on the God of Israel all that night for helpe.

CHAP. VII.

1 Holofernes doeth besiege Bethulia. 8 The counsell of the Idumeans and other against the Israelits. 23 The Bethulians murmure against their gouernours for lacke of water.

THE next day Holofernes commanded all his armie and all his people, which were come to take his part, that they should remoue their campes against Bethulia, and that they should take all the streits of the hill, and to make warre against the children of Israel.

2 Then their strong men remooued their campes in that day, and the armie of the men of warre was an hundreth thousande and seuentie footemen, and twelue thousand horsemen, beside the baggage and other men that were were afoote among them, a very great multitude.

3 And they camped in the plaine neere vnto Bethulia, by the fountaine, and they spread abroad toward Dothaim vnto Belbaim, and in length from Bethulia vnto Ciamon, which is ouer against Esdraelom.

4 Nowe the children of Israel, when they sawe the multitude, were greatly troubled, and saide euery one to his neighbour, Nowe will they shut vp all the whole earth: for neither the hie mountaines, nor the vallies, nor their hils are able to abide their burden.

5 Then euery one tooke his weapons of warre, and burning fires in their towres, they remained and watched all that night.

6 But in the second day, Holofernes brought foorth all his horsemen in the sight of the children of Israel, which were in Bethulia,

7 And viewed the passages vp to their citie, and came to the fountaines of their waters, and tooke them and set garrisons of men of warre ouer them, and remoued toward his people.

8 Then came vnto him all the chiefe of the children of Esau, and all the gouernours of the people of Moab, and all the captaines of the sea coast, and said, 9 Let our captaine nowe heare a worde, least an inconuenience come in thine armie.

10 For this people of the children of Israel doe not trust in their speares, but in the height of the mountaines, wherein they dwell, because it is not easie to come vp to the toppes of their mountaines.

11 Now therefore my lord, fight not against them in battell arap, and there shal not so much as one man of thy people perish.

12 Remaine in thy campe, and keepe all the men of thine armie, and let thy men keepe still the water of the countrie, that commeth foorth at the foot of mountaine.

13 For all the inhabitants of Bethulia haue their water thereof: so shall thirst kill them, and they shall giue vp their citie: and wee and our people will goe vp to the toppes of the mountaines that are neere, and will campe vpon them, and watch that none goe out of the citie.

14 So they and their wiues, and their children shall bee consumed with famine, and before the sworde come against them, they shall bee ouerthrowen in the streetes where they dwell.

15 Thus shalt thou render them an euill reward, because they rebelled and obeyed not thy person peaceably.

16 And these wordes pleased Holofernes and all his souldiers, and hee appointed to doe as they had spoken.

17 So the campe of the children of Ammon departed, and with them fiue thousande of the Assyrians, and they pitched in the valley, and tooke the waters, and the fountaines of the waters of the children of Israel.

18 Then the children of Esau went vp with the children of Ammon and camped in the mountaines ouer against Dothaim, and they sent some of themselues toward the South, and towarde the East, ouer against Kebel, which is neere vnto Chusi, that is vpon the riuer Mochmur: and the rest of the armie of the Assyrians camped in the fielde, and couered the whole lande: for their tentes and their baggage were pitched in a wonderfull great place.

19 Then the children of Israel cried vnto the Lord their God, because their heart fainted: for all their enemies had compassed them about, and there was no waye to escape out from among them.

20 Thus all the company of Assur remained about them, both their footemen, chariots and horsemen, foure and thirtie dayes: so that euen all the places of their waters failed all the inhabitants of Bethulia.

21 And the cisternes were emptie, and they had not water enough to drinke for one day: for they gaue them to drinke by measure.

12 Therefore their children swooned, and their wiues and young men fainted for thirst, & fell downe in the streetes of the citie, and by the passages of the gates, & there was no strength in them.

23 Then all the people assembled to Ozias, and to the chiefe of the citie, both young men & women, and children, and cryed with a loude voyce, and said before all the Elders, 24 The * Lorde bee iudge betweene vs and you: for you haue done vs great iniurie, in that wee haue not required peace of the children of Assur. *Exod. 5. 21.

25 For nowe wee haue no helper: but God hath soulde vs into their hands that we should be throwen downe before them with thrist and great destruction.

26 Nowe therefore call them together, and deliuer the whole citie for a spoyle to the people of Holofernes, and to all his armie.

27 For it is better for vs to be made a spoile vnto them, then to dye for thirst: for we will be his seruantes that we may liue, and not see the death of our infants before our eyes, nor our wiues, nor our children to dye.

28 We take to witnesse against you the heauen and the earth, and our God and Lord of our fathers which punisheth vs according to our sinnes, and the sinnes of our fathers, that he lay not these thinges to our charge.

29 Then there was a great crie of all with one consent in the middes of the assemblie, and they cryed vnto the Lorde God with a loude voyce.

30 Then said Ozias to them, Brethren, be of good courage: let vs wayt yet fiue dayes, in the which space the Lorde our God may turne his mercie toward vs: for he will not forsake vs in the ende.

31 And if these dayes passe, and there come not helpe vnto vs, I will doe according to your word.

32 So he separated the people, euery one vnto their charge, and they went vnto the walles and towres of their citie, and sent their wiues and their children into their houses, and they were very lowe brought in the citie.

CHAP. VIII.

The parentage, life and conuersation of Iudeth. 11 She rebuketh the faintnesse of the gouernors. 12 She sheweth that they shoulde not tempt God, but waite vpon him for succour. 33 Her enterprise against the enemies.

Nowe

NOwe at that time, Judeth heard thereof, which was the daughter of Merari, the sonne of Or, the sonne of Joseph, the sonne of Oziel, the sonne of Elcia, the sonne of Ananias, the sonne of Gedeon, the sonne of Raphaim, the sonne of Acito, the sonne of Eliu, the sonne of Eliab, the sonne of Nathanael, the sonne of Samael, the sonne of Salaladai, the sonne of Israel.

2 And Manasses was her husband, of her stocke and kinred, who died in the barely harueſt.

3 For as he was diligent ouer them that bound sheaues in the fielde, the heate came vpon his head, and hee fell vpon his bed, and died in the citie of Bethulia, and they buried him with his fathers in the fielde betweene Dothaim and Balamo,

4 So Judeth was in her house a widowe three yeeres and foure moneths.

5 And shee made her a tent vpon her house, and put on sackcloth on her loynes, and ware her widowes apparell.

6 And she fasted all the dayes of her widowhood, saue the day before the Sabbath, and the Sabbaths, & the day before the newe moones, and in the feasts & solemne dayes of the house of Israel.

7 Shee was also of a goodly countenance, and very beautiful to beholde: and her husband Manasses had left her gold and siluer, and men seruants, and maide seruants, and cattell, and possessions where she remained.

8 And there was none that could bring an euill report of her: for shee feared God greatly.

9 Now when shee heard the euill wordes of the people against the gouernour, because they fainted for lacke of waters (for Judeth had heard all the wordes that Ozias had spoken vnto them, and that he had * sworne vnto them to deliuer the citie vnto the Assyrians within fiue dayes.)

10 Then shee sent her maide that had the gouernment of all things that shee had, to call Ozias and Chabris and Charmis the ancients of the citie.

11 And they came vnto her, and shee sayde vnto them, Heare me, O ye gouernours of the inhabitants of Bethulia: for your wordes that yee haue spoken before the people this day, are not right, touching this othe which yee made and pronounced betweene God and you, and haue promised to deliuer the citie to the enemies, vnlesse within these dayes the Lord turne to help you.

12 And now who are you that haue tempted God this day, & set your selues in the place of God among the children of men?

13 So now ye seeke the Lord Almightie, but you shall neuer know any thing.

14 For you cannot find out the depth of the heart of man, neither can ye perceiue the things that he thinketh: then howe can you search out God, that hath made all these thinges, and know his minde, or comprehend his purpose? Nay my brethren, prouoke not the Lorde our God to anger.

15 For if hee will not helpe vs within these fiue dayes, he hath power to defend vs when he will, euen euery day, or to destroy vs before our enemies.

16 Doe not you therefore binde the counsels of the Lorde our God: for God is not as man that he may be threatned, neither as the sonne of man to be brought to indgement.

17 Therefore let vs wait for saluation of him, and call vpon him to helpe vs, and he will heare our voyce if it please him.

18 For there appeareth none in our age, neither is there any nowe in these dayes, neither tribe nor familie, nor people, nor citie among vs, which worship the gods made with hands, as hath bene afore time.

19 For the which cause our fathers were giuen to the sworde, and for a spoyle, and had a great fall before our enemies. Iudg.2.11. and 4,1.and 6.1.

20 But we know none other God: therefore we trust that hee will not despise vs, nor any of our linage.

21 Neither when we shall be taken, shall Iudea be so famous: for our Sanctuarie shall bee spoyled, and hee will require the prophanation thereof at our mouth, 22 And the feare of our brethren and the captiuitie of the countrey, and the desolation of our inheritance will hee turne vpon our heades among the Gentiles, whereseuer we shall be in bondage, and we shalbe an offence and reproch to all them that possesse vs.

23 For our seruitude shall not be directed by fauour, but the Lorde our God shall turne it to dishonour.

24 Now therefore, O brethren, let vs shewe an example to our brethren, because their hearts depend vpon vs, and the Sanctuarie, and the House, and the Altar rest vpon vs.

25 Moreouer, let vs giue thanks to the Lord our God, which tryeth vs euen as hee did our fathers.

26 Remember what thinges hee did to * Abraham, and howe he tryed Isaac, and all that hee did to * Jacob in Mesopotamia of Syria when he kept the sheepe of Laban his mothers brother. Gene.22.1. Gene.28.7.

27 For he hath not tryed vs as hee did them to the examination of their hearts, neither doth hee take vengeance on vs, but the Lorde punisheth for instruction them that come nere to him.

28 ¶ Then sayde Ozias to her, All that thou hast spoken, hast thou spoken with a good heart, and there is none that is able to resist thy wordes.

29 For it is not to day that thy wisedome is knowen, but from the beginning of thy life all the people haue knowen thy wisedome: for the deuise of thine heart is good.

30 But the people were very thirstie, and compelled vs to do vnto them as we haue spoken, and haue brought vs to an othe which we may not transgresse.

31 Therefore now pray for vs, because thou art an holy woman, that the Lorde may sende vs raine to fill our cisternes, and that wee may faynt no more.

32 Then sayde Judeth vnto them, Heare me, and I will doe a thing which shall be declared in all generations, to the children of our nation.

33 You shall stande this night in the gate, and I will goe forth with mine handmayde: and within the dayes that yee haue promised to deliuer the citie to our enemies, the Lord will visit Israel by mine hand.

34 But inquire not you of mine acte: for I will not declare it vnto you, till the things be finished that I doe.

35 Then sayde Ozias and the princes vnto her, Goe in peace, and the Lorde God bee before thee, to take vengeance on our enemies.

36 So they returned from the tent, and went to their wardes.

CHAP. IX.

1 Iudeth humbleth her selfe before the Lorde, and mak-eth her prayers for the deliuerance of her people, 7 against the pride of the Assyrians. 11 God is the helpe of the humble.

THen Iudeth fel vpon her face, & put ashes vpon her head, and put off the sackecloth wherewith shee was clothed. And about the time that the incense of that euening was offered in Jerusalem in the house of the Lord, Iudeth cried with a loude voyce, and sayd,

Gen.34.2,25 2 O Lorde God of my father *Simeon, to whom thou gauest a sworde to take vengeance of the strangers which opened the wombe of the mayde, and defiled her, and discouered the thigh with shame, and polluted the wombe to reproch (for thou haddest commaunded that it should not so be,

3 Yet they did things for the which thou gauest their princes to the slaughter, for they were deceiued and washed their beds with blood) and hast striken the seruants with the gouernours, and the gouernours vpon their throones,

4 And hast giuen their wiues for a pray, and their daughters to bee captiues, and all their spoyles for a bootie to the children that thou lo-uedst: which were moued with thy zeale, and abhorred the pollution of their blood, and called vpon thee for ayde, O God, O my God, heare me also a widow.

5 For thou hast wrought the things afore, and these, and the things that shall be after, and thou considerest the things that are present, and the things that are to come.

6 For the things which thou doest purpose, are present, and say, Beholde, we are here: for al thy wayes are ready, and thy iudgements are foreknowen.

7 Beholde, the Assyrians are multiplyed by their power: they haue exalted themselues with horses and horsemen: they glory in the strength of their footemen, they trust in shield, speare, and bow, and sling, and doe not know that thou art the Lorde that breakest the battels: the Lorde is thy Name.

8 Breake thou their strength by thy power, and breake their force by thy wrath: for they haue purposed to defile thy Sanctuary, and to pollute the Tabernacle where thy glorious Name resteth, and to cast downe with weapons the hornes of the Altar.

9 Beholde their pride, and sende thy wrath vpon their heades: giue into mine hande which am a widowe, the strength that I haue con-ceiued.

Iud.4.21. 10 *Smite by the deceite of my lippes the & 16.8, 11 *For thy power standeth not in the mul-

O Lorde art the helpe of the humble and litle ones, the defender of the weake, and the protector of them that are forsaken, and the Sauiour of them that are without hope.

12 Surely, surely thou art the God of my father, and the God of the inheritance of Israel, the Lorde of heauen and earth, the creator of the waters, the King of all creatures: heare thou my prayer,

13 And graunt mee wordes and craft, and a wound, and a stroke against them that enter-pryse cruel things against thy Couenant, and against thine holy House, and against the top of Sion, and against the house of the possession of thy children.

14 Shewe euidently among all thy people, and all the tribes, that they may knowe that thou art the God of all power and strength, and that there is none other that defendeth the people of Israel, but thou.

CHAP. X.

*1 Iudeth decketh herselfe, and goeth forth of the citie.
11 She is taken of the watch of the Assyrians and brought to Olofernes.*

NOwe after shee had ceased to crye vnto the God of Israel, and had made an ende of all these wordes,

2 Shee rose where she had fallen downe, and called her mayde, and went downe into the house, in the which shee abode in the Sabbath dayes, and in the feast dayes,

3 And putting away the sackecloth wherewith shee was cladde, and putting off the garments of her widowhood, she washed her body with water, and anointed it with much oynt-ment, and diessed the haire of her head, and put attire vpon it, and put on her garments of glad-nesse, wherewith she was clad, during the life of Manasses her husband.

4 And shee put slippers on her feete, and put on bracelets, and sleeues, and rings, and earerings, and all her ornaments, and shee decked her selfe brauely to allure the eyes of al men that should see her.

5 Then she gaue her mayd a bottell of wine, and a pot of oyle, & filled a scrip with flowre, and with dry figs, and with fine bread: so she lapped vp all these things together, and layde them vp-on her.

6 Thus they went forth to the gate of the citie of Bethulia, and found standing there Ozias, and the Ancients of the citie, Chabris and Charmis.

7 And when they saw her, that her face was changed, and that her garment was changed, they marueiled greatly at her wonderfull beau-tie, and said vnto her,

8 The God, the God of our fathers giue thee fauour, and accomplish thine enterpises to the glory of the children of Israel, and to the exaltation of Jerusalem. Then they worshipped God.

9 And she saide vnto them, Commaund the gates of the citie to bee opened vnto me, that I may goe forth to accomplish the things which you haue spoken to mee. So they commaunded the yong men to open vnto her, as shee had spoken.

10 And

10 And when they had done so, Judeth went out, she, and her mayd with her, and the men of the citie looked after her, vntill shee was gone downe the mountaine, and till shee had passed the valley, and could see her no more.

11 Thus they went streight forth in the valley, and the first watch of the Assyrians met her,

12 And tooke her, and asked her, Of what people art thou? and whence commest thou? and whither goest thou? and shee sayde, I am a woman of the Hebrewes, and am fledde from them: for they shall bee giuen vp to bee consumed.

13 And I come before Holofernes the chiefe captaine of your armie, to declare him true things, and I will shewe before him the way whereby hee shall goe and winne all the mountaines, without losing the body or life of any of his men.

14 Now when the men heard her words, and beheld her countenance, they wondered greatly at her beautie, and said vnto her,

15 Thou hast saued thy life, in that thou hast hasted to come down to the presence of our lord: now therefore come to his tent, and some of vs shall conduct thee vntill they haue deliuered thee into his hands.

16 And when thou standest before him, be not afraide in thine heart, but shewe vnto him accoording as thou hast to say, and he will intreat thee well.

17 Then they chose out of them an hundreth men, and prepared a charet for her and her mayde, and brought her to the tent of Holofernes.

18 Then there was a running to and fro throughout the campe: for her comming was bruited among the tentes: and they came and stoode rounde about her: for she stoode without the tent of Holofernes vntill they had declared vnto him concerning her.

19 And they marueiled at her beautie, and wondered at the children of Israel, because of her, and euery one sayde vnto his neighbour, Who would despise this people, that haue among them such women? surely it is not good that one man of them bee left: for if they should remaine, they might deceiue the whole earth.

20 Then Holofernes gard went out, and al his seruants, and they brought her into the tent.

21 Nowe Holofernes rested vpon his bed vnder a canopie, which was wouen with purple and golde and emeraudes, and precious stones.

22 So they shewed him of her, and hee came forth vnto the entrie of his tent, and they caried lampes of siluer before him.

23 And when Judeth was come before him and his seruants, they al marueiled at the beautie of her countenance, and she fell downe vpon her face, and did reuerence vnto him, and his seruants tooke her vp.

CHAP. XI.

1 Holofernes comforteth Iudeth, 3 And asketh the cause of her comming, 5 She deceiueth him by her faire wordes.

THen sayde Holofernes vnto her, Woman, bee of good comfort; feare not in thine heart: for I neuer hurt any that would serue Nabuchodonosor the King of all the earth.

2 Nowe therefore, if thy people that dwelleth in the mountaines, had not despised mee, I would not haue lifted vp my speare against them: but they haue procured these things to themselues.

3 But nowe tell mee wherefore thou art fled from them, and art come vnto vs: for thou art come for safegard: be of good comfort, thou shalt liue from this night, and hereafter.

4 For none shall hurt thee, but intreate thee well, as they doe the seruants of King Nabuchodonosor my lord.

5 Then Judeth sayde vnto him, Receiue the wordes of thy seruant, and suffer thine handmayde to speake in thy presence, and I will declare no lie to my lord this night.

6 And if thou wilt folow the words of thine handmayd, God will bring the thing perfectly to passe by thee, and my lord shal not faile of his purpose.

7 As Nabuchodonosor King of all the earth liueth, and as his power is of force, who hath sent thee to reforme all persons, not only men shall bee made subiect to him by thee, but also the beastes of the fieldes, and the cattell, and the foules of the heauen shall liue by thy power vnder Nabuchodonosor and all his house.

8 For wee haue heard of thy wisedome and of thy prudent spirit, and it is declared through the whole earth, that thou only art excellent in all the kingdome, and of a wonderfull knowledge, and in feates of warre marueilous.

9 Nowe as concerning the matter which Achior did speake in the counsel, we haue heard his wordes: for the men of Bethulia did take him, and he declared vnto them all that hee had spoken vnto thee. Chap. 5.

10 Therefore, O lorde and gouernour, reiect not his worde, but set it in thine heart, for it is true: for there is no punishment against our people, neither can the sworde preuaile against them, except they sinne against their God.

11 Nowe therefore least my lorde should bee frustrate, and voyde of his purpose, and that death may fall vpon them, and that they may be taken in their sinnewhiles they prouoke their God to anger, which is so oft times as they doe that which is not beseeming,

12 (For because their ditailes faile, and all their water is wasted, they haue determined to take their cattel, and haue purposed to consume all things that God had forbidden them to eate by his Lawes:

13 Yea, they haue purposed to consume the first fruites of the wheate, and the tithes of the wine, and of the ople which they had reserued and sanctified for the Priestes that serue in Jerusalem before the face of our God: the which things it is not lawfull for any of the people to touch with their hands.

14 Moreouer they haue sent to Jerusalem, because they also that dwell there, haue done the like, such as shoulde bring them licence from the Senate)

15 Now when they shall bring them worde, they will doe it, and they shall bee giuen thee to be destroyed the same day.

16 Wherefore I thine handmaid, knowing all this, am fled from their presence, and God hath sent me to worke a thing with thee, whereof all the earth shal wonder, and whosoeuer shal heare it.

17 For thy seruant feareth God, and worshippeth the God of heauen day and night, and nowe let me remaine with thee, my lord, and let thy seruant goe out in the night into the valley, and I will pray vnto God, that he may reueile vnto me when they shall commit their sinnes,

18 And I will come and shewe it vnto thee: then thou shalt goe forth with all thine armie, and there shall bee none of them that shall resist thee.

19 And I will leade thee through the middes of Iudea, vntill thou come before Ierusalem, and I will set thy throne in the middes therof, and thou shalt drive them as sheepe that haue no shepheard, and a dogge shall not barke with his mouth against thee: for these things haue bene spoken vnto me, and declared vnto me according to my foreknowledge, and I am sent to shew thee.

20 ¶ Then her wordes pleased Olofernes, and all his seruants, and they marueled at her wisedome, and saide, 21 There is not such a woman in all the world, both for beautie of face, and wisedome of wordes.

22 Likewise Olofernes saide vnto her, God ‖ hath done this, to sende thee before the people, that strength might be in our hands, & destruction vpon them that despise my lord.

‖ Or, hath done well.

23 And nowe thou art both beautiful in thy countenance, and wittie in thy wordes: surely if thou doe as thou hast spoken, thy God shalbe my God, and thou shalt dwell in the house of Nabuchodonosor, and shalt bee renowmed throughout the whole earth.

CHAP. XII.

2 Iudeth woulde not pollute her selfe with the meate of the Gentiles. 5 Shee maketh her request that shee might goe out by night to pray. 11 Olofernes causeth her to come to the banquet.

THen he commaunded to bring her in where his treasures were laide, and bade that they should prepare for her of his owne meates, and that she should drinke of his owne wine.

2 But Iudeth saide * I may not eate of them, least there shoulde bee an offence, but I can suffice my selfe with the things that I haue brought.

Gene.43.32. dan.1.8. tobit.1.11.

3 Then Olofernes saide vnto her, If the things that thou hast, should faile, howe should we gine thee the like? for there is none with vs of thy nation.

4 Then saide Iudeth vnto him, As thy soule liueth, my lorde, thine handmaide shall not spend those things that I haue, before the Lorde worke by mine hande the things that he hath determined.

5 Then the seruants of Olofernes brought her into the tent, and shee slept vntil midnight, and arose at the morning watch.

6 And sent to Olofernes, saying, Let my lord commaund that thy handmaide may go forth vnto prayer.

7 Then Olofernes commaunded his garde that they should not stay her: thus shee abode in the campe three dayes, and went out in the night into the valley of Bethulia, and washed her selfe in a fountain, euen in the water by the campe.

8 And when she came out, shee prayed vnto the Lorde God of Israel, that hee would direct her way to the exaltation of the children of her people.

9 So she returned, and remained pure in the tent, vntil she ate her meate at euening.

10 ¶ And in the fourth day, Olofernes made a feast to his owne seruaunts onely, and called none of them to the banquet, that had the affaires in hand.

11 Then saide he to Bagoas the eunuche who had charge ouer all that he had, Goe and perswade this Hebrewe woman, which is with thee, that she come vnto vs and eate, and drinke with vs.

12 For it were a shame for vs, if wee should let such a woman alone, and not talke with her, and if we do not allure her, she will mocke vs.

13 Then went Bagoas from the presence of Olofernes, and came to her, and saide, Let not this faire maide make difficultie to go in to my lorde, and to be honoured in his presence, and to drinke wine with vs ioyfully, and to be intreated as one of the daughters of the children of Assur, which remaine in the house of Nabuchodonosor.

14 Then said Iudeth vnto him, Who am I nowe, that I should gainesay my lord? Surely whatsoeuer pleaseth him, I will doe speedily, and it shall bee ioy vnto the day of my death.

15 So she arose and trimmed her with garments, and with all the ornaments of women, and her mayde went, and spredde foorth her skinnes on the ground ouer against Olofernes, which she had receiued of Bagoas for her daily vse, that she might sit and eate vpon them.

16 Nowe when Iudeth came and sate downe, Olofernes heart was rauished with her, and his spirite was moued, and he desired greatly her company: for he had waited for the time to deceiue her from the day that hee had seene her.

17 Then saide Olofernes vnto her, Drinke nowe and be merry with vs.

18 So Iudeth said, I drinke nowe, my lord, because my state is exalted this day more then euer it was since I was borne.

19 Then she tooke, and ate and dranke before him the things, that her maide had prepared.

20 And Olofernes reioyced because of her, & dranke much more wine then hee had drunke at any time in one day since he was borne.

CHAP. XIII.

4 Iudeth prayeth for strength. 8 She smiteth off Olofernes neck. 10 She returneth to Bethulia and reioyceth her people.

NOwe when the euening was come, his seruants made haste to depart, and Bagoas shut his tent without, and dismissed those that were present, from the presence of his lorde, and they went to their beds: for they were all wearie, because the feast had bene long.

2 And

2 And Judeth was left alone in the tent, and Holofernes was ſtretched along vpon his bed: for he was filled with * wine.

Eccles. 31. 19, 25.

3 ¶ Nowe Judeth had commaunded her mayde to ſtand without her chamber, and to waite for her comming forth as ſhee did daily: for ſhe ſaide, ſhe would goe forth to her prayers, and ſhe ſpake to Bagoas according to the ſame purpoſe.

4 So all went forth of her preſence, and none was left in the chamber, neither little nor great: then Judeth ſtanding by his bed, ſayde in her heart, O Lord God of all power, behold at this preſent the workes of mine hands for the exaltation of Jeruſalem.

5 For nowe is the time to helpe thine inheritance, and to execute mine enterpryſes, to the deſtruction of the enemies which are riſen againſt vs.

6 Then ſhe came to the poſte of the bed, which was at Holofernes head, and tooke downe his ſcauchin from thence,

7 And approched to the bed, and tooke hold of the haire of his head, and ſaide, Strengthen me, O Lord God of Iſrael this day.

8 And ſhee ſmote twiſe vpon his necke with all her might, and ſhe tooke away his head from him,

9 And rolled his bodie downe from the bed, and pulled downe the canopie from the pillars, and anon after ſhe went forth, and gaue Holofernes head to her maide,

10 And ſhe put it in her ſcrippe of meate: ſo they twaine went together according to their cuſtome vnto prayer, and preaſſing through the tents, went about by that valley, and went vp the mountaine of Bethulia, and came to the gates thereof.

11 ¶ Then ſaide Judeth a farre off to the watchmen at the gates, Open nowe the gate: God, euen our God is with vs to ſhewe his power yet in Jeruſalem, and his force againſt his enemies, as he hath euen done this day.

12 Nowe when the men of her citie heard her voyce, they made haſte to goe downe to the gate of their citie, and they called the Elders of the citie.

13 And they ranne al together both ſmall and great: for it was alone their expectation, that ſhee ſhould come. So they opened the gate and receiued her, & made a fire for a light, and ſtood round about them twaine.

14 Then ſhe ſaide to them with a lond voice, Praiſe God, praiſe God: for he hath not taken away his mercie from the houſe of Iſrael, but hath deſtroyed our enemies by mine hands this night.

15 So ſhee tooke the head out of the ſcrippe and ſhewed it, and ſaide vnto them, Beholde the head of Holofernes, the chiefe captaine of the armie of Aſſur, and beholde the canopie, wherein hee did lie in his drunkennes, and the Lorde hath ſmitten him by the hande of a woman.

16 As the Lord liueth, who hath kept mee in my way that I went, my countenaunce hath deceiued him to his deſtruction, and he hath not committed ſinne with mee by any pollution or villanie.

17 Then all the people were wonderfully aſtoniſhed, and bowed themſelues, and worſhyped God, and ſaide with one accord, Bleſſed bee thou, O our God, which haſt this day brought to nought the enemies of thy people.

18 Then ſaide Ozias vnto her, O daughter, bleſſed art thou of the moſt high God aboue all the women of the earth, and bleſſed bee the Lorde God, which hath created the heauens and the earth, which hath directed thee to the cutting off of the head of the chiefe of our enemies.

19 Surely this thine hope ſhal neuer depart out of the hearts of men: for they ſhall remember the power of God for euer.

20 And God turne theſe things to thee for a perpetuall praiſe, and viſite thee with good things, becauſe thou haſt not ſpared thy life, becauſe of the affliction of our nation, but thou haſt holpen our ruine, walking a ſtreight way before our God. And all the people ſaide, So bee it, ſo be it.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Iudeth cauſeth to hang vp the head of Holofernes, 10 Achior ioyneth himſelfe to the people of God, 11 The Iſraelites goe out againſt the Aſſyrians.

THen ſaid Judeth vnto them, Heare me alſo, my brethren, and * take this head, and hang it vpon the hieſt place of your walles.

2. Mac. 15. 35.

2 And ſo ſoone as the morning ſhall appeare, and the ſunne ſhall come forth vpon the earth, take you euerie one his weapons, and goe forth euery valiant man out of the citie, and ſet you a captaine ouer them, as though you would goe downe into the fielde, towarde the watche of the Aſſyrians, but goe not downe.

3 Then they ſhall take their armour, and ſhal goe into their campe, and raiſe vp the captaines of the armie of Aſſur, and they ſhall runne to the tent of Holofernes, but ſhall not finde him: then feare ſhall fall vpon them, and they ſhall flee before your face.

4 So you and all that inhabite the coaſts of Iſrael ſhall purſue them, and ouerthrowe them as they goe.

5 But before you doe theſe things, call mee Achior the Ammonite, that hee may ſee, & know him that deſpiſed the houſe of Iſrael, and that ſent him to vs to death.

6 Then they called Achior out of the houſe of Ozias, and when he was come and ſawe the head of Holofernes in a certaine mans hande in the aſſemblie of the people, he fell downe on his face, and his ſpirit failed.

7 But when they had taken him vp, hee fell at Judeths feete, and reuerenced her, and ſaid, Bleſſed art thou in all the Tabernacle of Juda, and in all nations, which, hearing thy name, ſhalbe aſtoniſhed.

8 Nowe therefore tell mee all the things, that thou haſt done in theſe dayes. Then Judeth declared vnto him in the mids of the people all that ſhee had done from the day that ſhe went forth, vntill that houre ſhee ſpake vnto them.

9 And when ſhee had left off ſpeaking, the people reioyced with a great voyce, and made a noyſe of gladneſſe through their citie.

10 And Achior, ſeeing all things that God had done for Iſrael, beleeued in God vnfainedly, nedly, and circumcised the foreskin of his flesh, and was ioyned vnto the house of Israel vnto this day.

11 ¶ Assoone as the morning arose, they hanged the head of Holofernes out at the wall, and euery man tooke his weapons, and they went forth by bands vnto the straites of the mountaine.

12 But when the Assyrians saw them, they sent to their captaines, which went to the gouernours and chiefe captaines, and to all their rulers.

13 So they came to Holofernes tent, and said to him that had the charge of all his things, Waken our lord: for the slaues haue beene bold to come downe against vs to battell, that they may be destroyed for euer.

14 Then went in Bagoas, and knocked at the doore of the tent: for he thought that he had slept with Judeth.

15 But because none answered, he opened it, and went into the chamber, and found him cast vpon the floure, and his head was taken from him.

16 Therefore he cried with a loud voice, with weeping and mourning, and a mighty crie, and rent his garments.

17 After, hee went into the tent of Judeth, where he vsed to remaine, and found her not: then he leaped out to the people and cried.

18 These slaues haue committed wickednes: one woman of the Hebrewes hath brought shame vpon the house of King Nabuchodonosor: for behold, Holofernes lieth vpon the ground without an head.

19 When the captaines of the Assyrians armie heard these words, they rent their coates, and their heart was wonderfully troubled, and there was a cry & a very great noise throughout the campe.

CHAP. XV.

1 The Assyrians are afraide and flee. 3 The Israelites pursue them. 8 Ioacim the hie Priest commeth to Bethulia to see Judeth and to prayse God for her.

AND when they that were in ꝑ tents, heard, they were astonished at the thing that was done.

2 And feare and trembling fell vpon them, so that there was no man that durst abide in the sight of his neighbour: but altogether amased, they fled by euery way of the plaine and of the mountaines.

3 They also that had camped in the mountaines round about Bethulia, were put to flight: then the children of Israel, euery one that was a warriour among them rushed out vpon them.

4 Then sent Ozias to Bethomasthem, and to Bebai, and Chobai, and Chola, and to all the coastes of Israel, such as should declare vnto them the things that were done, and that all should rush forth vpon their enemies to destroy them.

5 Nowe when the children of Israel heard it, they all fell vpon them together vnto Choba: likewise also they that came from Jerusalem and from all the mountaines: for men had told them what things were done in the campe of their enemies, and they that were in Galaad and in Galile chased them with a great slaughter, vntill they came to Damascus and to the coastes thereof.

6 And the residue that dwelt at Bethulia, fell vpon the campe of Assur and spoyled them, and were greatly enriched.

7 And the children of Israel that returned from the slaughter, had the rest: & the villages and the cities that were in the mountaines and in the plaine, had a great bootie, for the abundance was very great.

8 Then Joacim the hie Priest, and the ancients of the children of Israel that dwelt in Jerusalem, came to confirme the benefites that God had shewed to Israel, and to see Judeth, and to salute her.

9 And when they came vnto her, they blessed her with one accord, & said vnto her, Thou art the exaltation of Jerusalem: thou art the great glory of Israel: thou art the great reioycing of our nation.

10 Thou hast done all these things by thine hand: thou hast done much good to Israel, and God is pleased therewith: blessed be thou of the almightie Lord for euermore: and all the people said, So be it.

11 And the people spoiled ꝑ campe the space of thirtie dayes, and they gaue vnto Judeth Holofernes tent, and all his siluer, and beds, and basins, and all his stuffe, and she tooke it, and laied it on her mules, and made ready her charets, and laied them thereon.

12 Then all the women of Israel came together to see her, & blessed her, and made a daunce among them for euer, and she tooke branches in her hand, & gaue also to the women that were with her.

13 They also crowned her with olines, & her that was with her, & she went before the people in the dance, leading all the women: and all the men of Israel followed in their armour, with crownes, and with songs in their mouthes.

CHAP. XVI.

Judeth prayseth God with a song. 19 She offereth to the Lorde Holofernes stuffe. 23 Her continence, life and death. 25 All Israel lamenteth her.

THen Judeth began this confession in all Israel, and all the people sang this song with a loud voyce.

2 And Judeth saide, Begin vnto my God with tymbrels: sing to my Lorde with cymbals: tune vnto him a Psalme: exalt his praise, and call vpon his Name.

3 For God breaketh the battels, and pitched his campe in the mids of the people, and deliuered me out of the hand of the persecuters.

4 Assur came from the mountaines fourth of the North: hee came with thousands in his armie, * whose multitude hath shut vp the riuers, and their horsemen haue couered the valleys. (*chap. 2 11, 15.)

5 He saide that he would burne vp my borders, and kil my young men with the sword, and dash the sucking children against the ground, and make mine infants as a praie, and my virgins a spoile.

6 But the Almightie Lorde hath brought them to nought by the hand of a woman.

7 For the mightie did not fall by the young men, neither did the sonnes of Titan smite him, nor the hie giants inuade him, but Judeth Judeth the daughter of Merari did discomfite him by the beauty of her countenance.

8 For she put off the garment of her widowhood, for the exaltation of those that were oppressed in Israel, and anointed her face with ointment, & bound up her haire in a coife, and tooke a linnen garment to deceive him.

9 Her slippers ravished his eyes: her beautie tooke his minde prisoner, and the faulchin passed through his necke.

10 The Persians were astonished at her boldnesse, and the Medes were troubled with her hardinesse.

11 Then mine afflicted reioyced, and my feeble ones shouted: then they feared, they lifted up their voyce, and turned backe.

12 The children of maides pearced them, and wounded them as they fled away like children: they perished by the battell of the Lord.

13 I will sing unto the Lord a song & praysle, O Lorde, thou art great and glorious, marvellous and invincible in power.

Gen. 1.24. Psal. 33.9. 14 Let all thy creatures serue thee: *for thou hast spoken, and they were made: thou hast sent thy spirite, and he made them up: and there is none that can resist thy voyce.

15 For the mountaines leape up from their foundations with the waters: the rockes melt at thy presence like wax: yet thou art mercifull to them that feare thee.

16 For all sacrifice is too little for a sweete sauour, and all the fat is too little for thy burnt offering: but he that feareth the Lord, is great at all times.

17 Woe to the nations that rise up against my kinred: the Lord almightie will take vengeance of them in the day of iudgement, in sending fire and wormes upon their flesh, and they shall feele them and weepe for euer.

18 ¶ After, when they went unto Jerusalem, they worshipped the Lord, and as soone as the people were purified, they offered their burnt offerings, and their free offerings, and their gifts.

19 Judeth also offered all the stuffe of Olofernes, which the people had given her, and gaue the canopie which she had taken off his bed, for an oblation to the Lord.

20 So the people reioyced in Jerusalem by the Sanctuarie for the space of three moneths, and Judeth remained with them.

21 After this time, every one returned to his owne inheritance, and Judeth went to Bethulia, and remained in her owne possession, and was for her time honourable in all the countrey.

22 And many desired her, but none had her company all the dayes of her life, after that Manasses her husband was dead, and was gathered to ‖his people. ‖Or, her people.

23 But she increased more and more in honour, and waxed olde in her husbands house, being an hundreth and five yeere old, and made her maide free: so shee died in Bethulia, and they buried her in the graue of her husband Manasses.

24 And *the house of Israel lamented her seuen dayes, and before she died, she did distribute her goods to all them that were neerest of kinred to Manasses her husband, and to them that were the neerest of her kinred. Gen. 50.10.

25 And there was none that made the children of Israel any more afraide in the dayes of Judeth, nor a long time after her death.

Esther.

Certaine portions of the storie of Esther, which are found in some Greeke and Latine translations: which followe the tenth Chapter.

THen Mardocheus said, God hath done these things.

5 For I remember a dreame, which I sawe concerning these matters, and there was nothing thereof omitted.

6 A little fountaine which became a flood, and was a light, and as the sunne, and as much water, this flood was Esther whom the king maried, and made Queene.

7 And the two dragons are I and Aman.

8 And ꝑ people are they that are assembled to destroy the name of the Iewes.

9 And my people is Israel, which cried to God, and are saued: for the Lord hath saued his people, and the Lord hath deliuered vs from all these euils, and God hath wrought signes and great wonders, which haue not beene done among the Gentiles.

10 Therefore hath he made two lots, one for the people of God, and another for all the Gentiles.

11 And these two lots came before God for all nations, at the houre and time appointed, and in the day of iudgement.

12 So God remembred his own people, and iustified his inheritance.

13 Therefore those dayes shall be unto them in the moneth of Adar the fourteenth and fifteenth day of the same moneth, with an assemblie and ioy, and with gladnesse before God, according to the generations for euer among his people.

CHAP. XI.

IN the fourth yeere of the reigne of Ptolomeus and Cleopatra, Dositheus, who saide he was a Priest and Leuite, and Ptolomeus his sonne, that brought the former letters of Phurai, which the saide Lysimachus the sonne of Ptolomeus, which was at Jerusalem, interpreted, ‖Or, loosed.

2 In the second yeere of the reigne of great Artaxerxes, in the first day of the moneth Nisan, Mardocheus the sonne of Jarus, the sonne of Semei, the sonne of Cis of the tribe of Beniamin had a dreame:

3 A Iewe dwelling in the citie of Susis, a noble man, that bare office in the kings court.

4 He was also one of the captiuitie which Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon brought from.

from Jerusalem with Jechonias.

5 And this was his dreame, Beholde a noise of a tempest with thunders and earthquakes, and uproare in the land.

6 Behold, two great Dragons came forth ready to fight one against another.

7 Their crie was great, whereby all the heathen were ready to fight against the righteous people.

8 And the same day was full of darkenesse and obscuritie, and trouble, and anguish: yea, aduersitie, and great affliction was vpon the earth.

9 For then the righteous fearing their afflictions, were amazed, and being ready to die, cried vnto God.

10 And while they were crying, the litle well grew into a great riuer, and flowed ouer with great waters.

11 The light and the sunne rose vp, and the lowly were exalted, and deuoured the glorious.

12 Now when Mardocheus had seene this dreame, he awoke and rose vp, and thought in his heart vntill the night, what God would do, and so he desired to know all the matter.

CHAP. XII.

AT the same time dwelt Mardocheus in the Kings Court with Bagathas and Thara, the Kings eunuches and keepers of the palace.

Esther 2,21. and 6,2. 2 But when he heard their purpose, & their imaginations, he perceiued that they went about to lay their hands vpon the King Artaxerres, and so he certified the King thereof.

3 Then caused the King to examine the two eunuches with torments, and when they had confessed it, they were put to death.

4 This the King caused to bee put in the Chronicles, Mardocheus also wrote the same thing.

5 So the King commanded that Mardocheus should remaine in the Court, and for the aduertisement, he gaue him a reward.

6 But Aman the sonne of Amadathus the Agagite, which was in great honour and reputation with the King, went about to hurt Mardocheus and his people, because of the two eunuches of the King that were put to death.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The copie of the letters of Artaxerxes against the Iewes. 8 The prayer of Mardocheus.

Ioseph. antiq. lib. 11. cap. 6. THe copie of the letters was this. The great King Artaxerres writeth these things to the princes and gouernours that are vnder him from India vnto Ethiopia an hundreth and seuen and twentie prouinces.

2 When I was made Lord ouer many people, and had subdued the whole earth vnto my dominion, I would not exalt my selfe by the reason of my power, but purposed with equitie alway and gentlenesse to gouerne my subiects, and wholly to set them in a peaceable life, and thereby to bring my kingdome vnto tranquilitie, that men might safely goe thorowe on euery side, and to renew peace againe, which all men desire.

3 Now when I asked my counsellers how these things might be brought to passe, one that was conuersant with vs of excellent wisdome, and constant in good will, and shewed himselfe to be of sure fidelitie, which had the second place in the kingdome, euen Aman,

4 Declared vnto vs, that in all nations there was scattered abroade a rebellious people, that had lawes contrary to all people, and haue alway despised the commandements of Kings, and so that this generall empire, that we haue begun, cannot be gouerned without offence.

5 Seeing now we perceiue that this people alone are altogether contrary vnto euery man, vsing strange and other maner of lawes, and hauing an euill opinion of our doings, and goe about to stablish wicked matters, that our kingdome should not come to good estate,

6 Therefore haue we commanded that all they that are appointed in writing vnto you by Aman (which is ordered euer the affaires, and is as our second father) shall all with their wiues and children be destroyed and rooted out with the sword of their enemies without all mercie, and that none be spared the fourteenth day of the twelft moneth Adar of this yeere,

7 That they which of olde, and nowe also haue euer bene rebellious, may in one day with violence be thrust downe into the hell, to the intent that after this time our affaires may be without troubles and well gouerned in all points.

8 Then Mardocheus thought vpon all the workes and of the Lord, and made his prayer vnto him, 9 Saying, O Lord, Lord, the king almightie (for all things are in thy power) and if thou hast appointed to saue Israel, there is no man that can withstand thee.

10 For thou hast made heauen & earth, and all the wondrous things vnder the heauen.

11 Thou art Lord of all things, and there is no man that can resist thee, which art the Lord.

12 Thou knowest all things, and thou knowest, Lorde, that it was neither of malice, nor presumption, nor for any desire of glory, that I did this, and not bowe downe to proud Aman.

13 For I would haue kist content with good will for the saluation of Israel to haue kissed the sole of his feete.

14 But I did it, because I would not prefer the honour of a man abone the glory of God, and would not worship any but onely thee, my Lord, and this haue I not done of pride.

15 And therefore, O Lord God and King, haue mercie vpon thy people: for they imagine howe they may bring vs to nought, yea, they would destroy the inheritance, that hath beene thine from the beginning.

16 Despise not the portion which thou hast deliuered out of Egypt for thine owne selfe.

17 Heare my prayer, and be mercifull vnto thy portion: turne our sorrowe into ioye, that we may liue, O Lorde, and praise thy Name: shut not the mouthes of them that praise thee.

18 All Israel in like maner cried most earnestly vnto the Lord, because that death was before their eyes.

CHAP. XIIII.

The prayer of Eſther for the deliuerance of her, and her people.

QVeene Eſther alſo, being in danger of death, reſorted vnto the Lord,

2 And laied away her glorious apparell, and put on the garments of ſighing, and mourning. In the ſtead of precious ointment, ſhe ſcattered aſhes and dong vpon her head: and ſhe humbled her body greatly with faſting, and all the places of her ioy filled ſhe with the haire that ſhe plucked off.

3 And ſhe prayed vnto the Lord God of Iſrael, ſaying, O my Lord, thou only art our king: helpe me deſolate woman, which haue no helper but thee.

4 For my danger is at hand.

5 From my youth vp I haue heard in the kindred of my father, that thou, O Lord, tookeſt Iſrael from among all people, and our fathers from their predeceſſours for a perpetuall inheritance, and thou haſt performed that which thou didſt promiſe them.

6 Nowe Lord, we haue ſinned before thee: therefore haſt thou giuen vs into the handes of our enemies.

7 Becauſe we worſhipped their gods: O Lord, thou art righteous.

8 Neuertheleſſe, it ſatisfieth them not, that we are in bitter captiuitie, but they haue ſtroken hands with their idoles,

9 That they wil abolish the thing that thou with thy mouth haſt ordeined, & deſtroy thine inheritance, to ſhut vp the mouth of them that praiſe thee, & to quench the glory of thy Temple, and of thine altar,

10 And to open the mouthes of the heathen, that they may praiſe the power of the idoles, and to magnifie a fleſhly king for euer.

11 O Lorde, giue not thy ſcepter vnto them that be nothing, leaſt they laugh vs to ſcorne in our miſerie: but turne their deuice vpon themſelues, and make him an example, that hath begun the ſame againſt vs.

12 Thinke vpon vs, O Lord, and ſhewe thy ſelfe vnto vs in the time of our diſtreſſe, and ſtrengthen me, O King of gods, and Lord of all power.

13 Giue me an eloquent ſpeech in my mouth before the Lion: turne his heart to hate our enemie, to deſtroy him, and all ſuch as conſent vnto him.

14 But deliuer vs with thine hand, & helpe me that am ſolitarie, which haue no defence but onely thee.

15 Thou knoweſt all things, O Lorde: thou knoweſt, that I hate the glory of the vnrighteous, and that I abhorre the bed of the vncircumciſed, and of all the heathen.

16 Thou knoweſt my neceſſitie: for I hate this token of my preeminence, which I beare vpon mine head, what time as I muſt ſhewe my ſelfe, & that I abhorre it as a menſtruous cloth, and that I weare it not when I am alone by my ſelfe.

17 And that I thine handmaid haue not eaten at Amans table, & that I haue had no pleaſure in the Kings feaſt, nor drunke the wine of the drinke offerings, 18 And that I thine handmaid haue no ioy ſince the day that I was brought hither vntill this day, but in thee, O Lord God of Abraham.

19 O thou mighte God aboue all, heare the voyce of them, that haue none other hope, and deliuer vs out of the hand of the wicked, and deliuer me out of my feare.

CHAP. XV.

1 Mardocheus moueth Eſther to goe in to the King, and make interceſſion for her people. 9 And ſhe performeth his requeſt.

MArdocheus alſo bade Eſther to goe in vnto the king, and pray for her people, and for her countrey.

2 Remember, ſaith he, the dayes of thy low eſtate, howe thou waſt nouriſhed vnder mine hand: for Aman which is next vnto the King, hath giuen ſentence of death againſt vs.

3 Call thou therefore vpon the Lord, and ſpeake for vs vnto the King, & deliuer vs from death.

4 And vpon the third day when ſhe had ended her prayer, ſhe laied away the mourning garments, and put on her glorious apparell,

5 And decked her ſelfe goodly, after that ſhe had called vpon God, which is the beholder and Sauiour of al things, and tooke two handmaids with her.

6 Vpon the one ſhe leaned her ſelfe, as one that was tender:

7 And the other followed her, and bare the traine of her veſture.

8 The ſhine of her beautie made her face roſe coloured: and her face was cheerefull and amiable, but her heart was ſorrowfull for great feare.

9 Then ſhe went in thorow all the doores, and ſtood before the King, and the king ſate vpon his royall throne, and was clothed in his goodly arap, all glittering with golde and precious ſtones, and he was very terrible.

10 Then hee lift vp his face that ſhone with maieſtie, and looked fiercely vpon her: therefore the Queene fell downe, and was pale and faint, and leaned her ſelfe vpon the head of the maid that went with her.

11 Neuertheleſſe, God turned the Kings mind that he was gentle, who being carefull, leaped out of his throne, and tooke her in his armes, till ſhe came to her ſelfe againe: and comforted her with louing words, and ſaid,

12 Eſther, what is the matter? I am thy brother, be of good cheere, 13 Thou ſhalt not die: for our commaundement toucheth the commons, and not thee. Come neere.

14 And ſo he held vp his golden ſcepter, and laid it vpon her necke, 15 And kiſſed her, and ſaid, Talke with me.

16 Then ſaide ſhe, I ſawe thee, O lorde, as an angel of God, and mine heart was troubled for feare of thy maieſtie.

17 For wonderfull art thou, O lord, and thy face is full of grace.

18 And as ſhe was thus ſpeaking vnto him, ſhe fell downe againe for faintneſſe.

19 Then the king was troubled, and all his ſeruants comforted her.

CHAP. XVI.

The copie of the letters of Artaxerxes, whereby he reuoketh thoſe which he firſt ſent forth.

The

Iosiph. Ant. 11. cap. 6.

THe great king Artaxerres, which reigneth from India vnto Ethiopia, ouer an hundreth and seuen and twentie prouinces, sendeth vnto the princes & rulers that haue the charge of our affaires, Salutation.

2 There be many that through the goodnes of Princes and honour giuen vnto them, become very proude.

3 And indeuour not onely to hurt our subiects, but not content to liue in wealth, doe also imagine destruction against those that doe them good.

4 And take not onely all thankfulnes away from men, but in pride and presumption, as they that be vnmindful of benefites, they thinke to escape the vengeance of God, that seeth all things, and is contrary to euill.

5 And oft times many, which bee set in office, and vnto whome their friends causes are committed, by vaine intisements doe wrappe them in calamities, that cannot be remedied: for they make them partakers of innocent blood,

6 And deceitfully abuse the simplicitie and gentleneese of Princes with lying tales.

7 This may bee prooued not onely by olde histories, but also by those things that are before our eyes, and are wickedly committed of such pestilences as are not woorthie to beare rule.

8 Therefore wee must take heede hereafter that we may make the kingdome peaceable for all men, what change soeuer shall come,

9 And discerne the things that are before our eyes, to withstand them with gentleneese.

10 For Aman, a Macedonian, the sonne of Amadathus, being indeede a stranger from the Persians blood, and farre from our goodnesse, was receiued of vs, 11 And hath prooued the friendship that we beare toward all nations, so that he was called our father, and was honoured of euery man, as the next person vnto the king.

12 But he couldo not vse himselfe soberly in this great dignitie, but went about to deprive vs of the kingdome, and of our life.

13 With manifolde deceite also hath he desired to destroy Mardocheus our preserver, which hath done vs good in all things, and the innocent Esther the partaker of our kingdome, with all her nation.

14 For his minde was (when hee had taken them out of the way) to lay waite for vs, and by this means to translate the kingdome of the Persians vnto them of Macedonia.

15 But we find that the Iewes (which were accused of this most wicked man, that they might bee destroyed) are no euil doers, but vse most iust Lawes, 16 And that they be the children of the most high & almightie and euerliuing God, by whom the kingdome hath bene preserued vnto vs, and our progenitours in very good order.

17 Wherefore ye shall doe well, if ye doe not put in execution those letters that Aman the sonne of Amadathus did write vnto you.

18 For hee that inuented them, hangeth at Susis before the gates with all his familie, and God (which hath all things in his power) hath speedily rewarded him after his deserning.

19 Therefore yee shall publish the copie of this letter in all places, that the Iewes may freely liue after their owne Lawes.

20 And yee shall ayde them, that vpon the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth Adar they may bee auenged of them, which in the time of their trouble would haue oppressed them.

21 For Almightie God hath turned to ioye the day, wherein the chosen people should haue perished.

22 Moreouer, among other solemne dayes, ye shall keepe this day with all gladnesse, 23 That both now and in time to come, this day may bee a remembrance of deliuerance for vs and all such as loue the prosperitie of the Persians, but a remembrance of destruction to those that be seditious vnto vs.

24 Therefore all cities and countreyes that doe not this, shall horribly bee destroyed with sword and fire, and shall not onely not be inhabited of men, but be abhorred also of the wilde beasts and foules for euer.

The Wisedome of Salomon.

LOue * righteousnesse, yee that bee Iudges of the earth: thinke reuerently of the Lord, and seeke him in simplicitie of heart.

Deut. 4. 29. 2. chron. 15. 4.

2 * For he will be found of them that tempt him not, & appeareth vnto such as be not vnfaithfull vnto him.

3 For wicked thoughts separate from God: and his power when it is tried, reproueth the vnwise.

4 Because wisedome cannot enter into a wicked heart, nor dwell in the body that is subiect vnto sinne.

5 For the holy * Spirit of discipline fleeth Iere. 4. 22. from deceite, and withdraweth himselfe from the thoughts that are without vnderstanding, and is reproued when wickednesse commeth.

6 For the spirit of wisedome * is louing, and Gala. 5. 22. will not absolue him, that blasphemeth with his lippes: for God is a witnesse of his reines, and a true beholder of his heart, and an hearer of the tongue.

7 For the Spirit of the Lorde filleth all the world: and the same that maintaineth all things, hath knowledge of the voyce.

8 Therefore hee that speaketh vnrighteous things, cannot be hidde: neither shall the iudgement of reproch let him escape.

9 For inquisition shall bee made for the thoughts of the vngodly, and the sounde of his wordes shall come vnto God for the correction of his iniquities.

10 For the care of iealousie heareth all things, and the noyse of the grudgings shall not be hid.

11 Therefore beware of murmuring, which profiteth nothing, & refraine your tongue from slander: for there is no word so secret, that shall goe for nought, and the mouth that speaketh lies, slayeth the soule.

12 Seeke not death in the errour of your life: Deut.4.23. * destroy not your selues through the works of your owne hands.

Ezek.18.23. and 33.11. 13 * For God hath not made death, neither hath he pleasure in the destruction of the liuing.

14 For he created all things, that they might haue their being: and the generations of the world are preserued, and there is no poyson of destruction in them, and the kingdome of hell is not vpon earth.

15 For righteousnesse is immortall, but vnrighteousnesse bringeth death.

a To wit, death. 16 And the vngodly call a it vnto them both with hands and words: and while they thinke to haue a friend of it, they come to nought: for they are confederate with it: therefore are they worthy to be partakers thereof.

2 For wee are borne at all aduenture, and we shall be hereafter as though wee had neuer bene: for the breath is a smoke in our nostrils, and the words as a sparke raysed out of our heart,

3 Which beeing extinguished, the bodie is turned into ashes, and the spirite vanisheth as the soft ayre.

4 Our life shall passe away as the trace of a cloude, and come to nought as the mist that is driuen away with the beames of the sunne, and cast downe with the heate thereof. Our name also shall be forgotten in time, and no man shall haue our works in remembrance.

9 Let vs all bee partakers of our wantonnesse: let vs leaue some token of our pleasure in euery place: for that is our portion and this is our lot.

10 Let vs oppresse the poore that is righteous: let vs not spare the widow, nor reuerence the white haires of the aged, that haue liued many yeeres.

11 Let our strength be the lawe of vnrighteousnesse: for the thing that is feeble, is reproued as vnprofitable.

12 Therefore let vs defraude the righteous, for he is not for our profite, and hee is contrary to our doings: hee checketh vs for offending against the Lawe, and blameth vs as transgressours of discipline.

13 Hee maketh his boast to haue the knowledge of God: and he calleth himselfe the sonne of the Lord.

15 For glorious is the fruite of good labours, and the roote of wisedome shall neuer fade away.

16 But the children of adulterers shall not be partakers of the holy things, and the seede of the wicked bed shall be rooted out.

17 And though they liue long, yet shall they be nothing regarded, and their last age shall be without honour.

18 If they die hastily, they haue no hope, neither comfort in the day of triall.

19 For horrible is the ende of the wicked generation.

CHAP. IIII.

Of vertue and the commoditie thereof. 10 The death of the righteous and the condemnation of the vnfaithfull.

BEtter is barrennesse with vertue: for the memorial thereof is immortal: for it is known with God and with men.

2 When it is present, men take example thereat, and if it goe away, yet they desire it: it is alway crowned and triumpheth, and winneth the battell and the undefiled rewards.

3 But the multitude of the ungodly which abound in children is unprofitable: and the bastard plantes shall take no deepe roote, nor lay any fast foundation.

4 For though they bud forth in the branches for a time, * yet they shall be shaken with the winde: for they stand not fast, and through the vehemencie of the winde they shalbe rooted out. Mat.7.19.

5 For the unperfect branches shalbe broken, and their fruite shall be unprofitable and sowre to eate, and meete for nothing.

6 For all the children that are borne of the wicked bed, shall be witnesse of the wickednesse against their parents when they be asked.

7 But though the righteous be preuented with death, yet shall he be in rest.

8 For the honourable age is not that which is of long time, neither that which is measured by the number of yeeres.

9 But wisedome is the grap haire, and an undefiled life is the old age.

10 * He pleased God, and was beloued of him, so that where as he liued among sinners, he translated him. Gen.5.24. hebr.11.5.

11 He was taken away, least wickednesse should alter his vnderstanding, or deceit begnile his mind.

12 For wickednesse by bewitching obscureth the things that are good, & the vnstedfastnesse of concupiscence perverteth the simple mind.

13 Though he was soone dead, yet fulfilled he much time, 14 For his soule pleased God: therefore hasted he to take him away from wickednesse.

15 Yet the people see and vnderstand it not, and consider no such things in their hearts, howe that grace and mercy is upon his saints, and his prouidence ouer the elect.

16 Thus the righteous that is dead, condemneth the ungodly which are liuing: and the youth that is soone brought to an end, the long life of the unrighteous.

17 For they see the end of the wise, but they understand not what God hath deuised for him, and wherefore the Lord hath preserued him in safetie.

18 They see him & despise him, but the Lord will laugh them to scorne.

19 So that they shall fall hereafter without honour, and shal haue a shame among the dead for euermore: for without any voyce shall he burst them, and cast them downe, & shake them from the foundations, so that they shall be vterly wasted, and they shalbe in sorow, and their memoriall shall perish.

20 So they being afraide, shall remember their sinnes, and their owne wickednesse shall come before them to conuince them.

CHAP. V.

1 The constantnesse of the righteous before their persecutours. 14 The hope of the vnfaithfull is vaine. 15 The blessednesse of the Saints and godly.

THen shall the righteous stand in great boldnesse before the face of such as haue tormented him, and taken away his labours.

2 When they see him, they shalbe vered with horrible feare, and shall be amased for his wonderfull deliuerance,

3 And shall change their mindes, and sigh for griefe of minde, and say within themselues, This is he whom we sometime had in derision, and in a parable of reproch.

4 * We fooles thought his life madnesse, and his end without honour. Chap.3.2.

5 How is he counted among the children of God, and his portion is among the Saints!

6 Therefore we haue erred from the way of trueth, and the light of righteousnesse hath not shined unto vs, and the sunne of vnderstanding rose not upon vs.

7 We haue wearied our selues in the way of wickednesse and destruction, and we haue gone through dangerous wayes: but we haue not knowen the way of the Lord.

8 What hath pride profited vs? or what profite hath the pompe of riches brought vs?

9 All those things are * passed away like a shadow, and as a poste that passeth by: 1.Chro.29. 15.chap.2.5.

10 As a ship that passeth ouer the waues of the water, which when it is gone by, the trace thereof cannot be found, neither the path of it in the floods:

11 Or * as a bird that flieth through the aire, and no man can see any token of her passage, but onely heare the noyse of her wings, beating the light winde, parting the ayre through the vehemencie of her going, and flieth on shaking her wings, whereas afterward no token of her way can be found: Pro. 30.19.

12 Or as when an arrow is shot at a marke, it parteth the ayre, which immediatly commeth together againe, so that a man cannot knowe where it went thorow.

13 Euen so we, as soone as we were borne, we began to draw to our end, and haue shewed no token of vertue, but are consumed in our owne wickednesse.

Iob 8.9. psal. 1.4. & 143. 4. pro. 10.25. & 11.7. iam. 1.10,11.

14 For * the hope of the vngodly is like the dust that is blowen away with the winde, and like a thin fome that is scattered abroade with the storme, and as the smoke which is dispersed with the wind, and as the remembrance of him passeth, that tarieth but for a day.

15 But the righteous shall liue for euer: their reward also is with þ Lord, and the most High hath care of them.

16 Therefore shall they receiue a glorious kingdome, and a beautifull crowne of the Lords hand: for with his right hand shall hee couer them, and with his arme shall he defend them.

17 He shall take his iealousie for armour, and shall arme the creatures to be reuenged of the enemies.

18 He shall put on righteousnesse for a breastplate, and take true iudgement in stead of an helmet.

19 He will take holinesse for an inuincible shield.

20 He will sharpen his fierce wrath for a sword, & the world shall fight with him against the vnwise.

21 Then shall the thunderbolts goe straight out of the lightnings, and shall flie to the marke as out of the bent bowe of the cloudes, and out of his anger that throweth stones, shall thicke haile be cast, and the water of the sea shall be wroth against them, and the floods shall mightily ouerflow.

22 And a mighty wind shal stand vp against them, & like a storme shall scatter them abroad. Thus iniquitie shal bring all the earth to a wildernesse, and wickednesse shall ouerthrow the thrones of the mightie.

CHAP. VI.

The calling of Kings, Princes, and Iudges, which are also exhorted to seeke wisedome.

HEare therefore, O ye Kings, & vnderstand: learne ye that be Iudges of the ends of the earth.

2 Giue eare, ye that rule the multitudes and glory in the multitude of people.

Rom. 13.2.

3 For the * rule is giuen you of the Lord, and power by the most High, which will trie your workes, and search out your imaginations.

4 Because that ye being Officers of his kingdome haue not iudged aright, nor kept the Lawe, nor walked after the will of God,

5 Horribly and suddenly will hee appeare vnto you: for an hard iudgement shall they haue that beare rule.

6 For he that is most lowe, is worthy mercie, but the mightie shall be mightily tormented.

Deut. 10.17. 2. chro. 19.7. iob 34.19. eccles 35.12, 16. actes 10. 34. rom. 2.11. gal 2.6. ephe. 6.9 colos. 3. 25. 1. per. 1. 17.

7 For he that is Lord ouer all, will spare no * person, neither shall he feare any greatnesse: for he hath made the small and great, and careth for all alike,

8 But for the mighty abideth the surer trial.

9 Vnto you therefore, O tyrants, do I speak, that ye may learne wisedome, & not goe amisse.

10 For they that keepe holinesse holily, shall be holy, and they that are learned therein, shall finde a defence.

11 Wherefore set your delight vpō my words and desire them, and ye shalbe instructed.

12 Wisedome shineth & neuer fadeth away, and is easily seene of them that loue her, and found of such as seeke her, 13 She preuenteth them that desire her, that she may first shew her selfe vnto them.

14 Who so awaketh vnto her betimes, shall haue no great trauaile: for he shall finde her sitting at his doores.

15 To thinke vpon her then is perfite vnderstanding: and who so watcheth for her, shall be soone without care.

16 For she goeth about, seeking such as are meete for her, and sheweth her selfe cheerefully vnto them in the wayes, and meeteth them in euery thought.

17 For the most true desire of discipline is her beginning: and the care of discipline is loue:

18 And loue is the keeping of her lawes: and the keeping of the lawes is the assurance of immortalitie:

19 And immortalitie maketh vs neere vnto God.

20 Therefore the desire of wisedome leadeth to the kingdome.

21 If your delight be then in thrones, & scepters, O kings of the people, honour wisedome, that ye may reigne for euer.

22 Now I will tell you what wisedome is, and whence it commeth, and will not hide the mysteries from you, but will seeke her out from the beginning of her natiuitie, and bring the knowledge of her into light, and will not keepe backe the trueth.

23 Neither will I haue to doe with consuming enuie: for such a man shall not be partaker of wisedome.

24 But the multitude of the wise is the preseruation of the world, and a wise King is the stay of the people.

25 Be therefore instructed by my words, and ye shall haue profite.

CHAP. VII.

Wisedome ought to be preferred aboue all things.

I My selfe am also mortall and a man like all other, and am come of him that was first made of the earth.

2 And in my mothers wombe was I fashioned to be fleshy in tenne moneths: I was * brought together into blood of þ seed of man, and by the pleasure that commeth with sleepe. Iob 10.10, 11.

3 And when I was borne, I receiued the common aire, and fell vpon the earth, which is of like nature, crying and weeping at the first as all other doe.

4 I was nourished in swadling clothes, and with cares.

5 For there is no King that had any other beginning of birth.

6 All * men then haue one entrance vnto life, and a like going out. Iob 1.21. 1. tim. 6.7.

7 Wherefore I prayed, and vnderstanding was giuen me: I called, and the spirite of wisedome came vnto me.

8 I preferred her to scepters & thrones, and counted riches nothing in comparison of her.

9 * Neither did I compare precious stones vnto her: for all golde is but a little grauell in respect of her, and siluer shall be counted but Iob 28.15.

but clap before her.

10 I loued her aboue health and beautie, and purposed to take her for my light: for her light cannot be quenched.

1.King.3.13 matth.6.33. 11 All* good things therefore came to me together with her, and innumerable riches through her hands.

12 So I was glad in all: for wisedome was the author thereof, and I knewe not that shee was the mother of these things.

13 And I learned vnfainedly, and communicated without enuie, and I doe not hide her riches.

14 For she is an infinite treasure vnto men, which who so vse, become partakers of the loue of God, and are accepted for the gifts of knowledge.

15 God hath graunted mee to speake according to my minde, and to iudge worthily of the things, that are giuen me: for hee is the leader vnto wisedome, and the directer of the wise.

16 For in his hande are both wee and our wordes, and all wisedome, and the knowledge of the workes.

17 For he hath giuen me the true knowledge of the things that are. so that I know how the worlde was made, and the powers of the elements.

18 The beginning and the end, and the mids of the times: how the times alter, & the change of the seasons,

19 The course of the yeere, the situation of the starres, 20 The nature of liuing things, and the furiousnesse of beastes, the power of the windes, and the imaginations of men, the diuersities of plants, and the vertues of rootes.

21 And all things both secret and knowen do I knowe: for wisedome the worker of all things hath taught me it.

22 For in her is the spirite of vnderstanding, which is holy, the only begotten, manifold, subtil, moueable, cleare, vndefiled, eminent, not hurtfull, louing the good, sharpe, which cannot be letted, doing good,

23 Courteous, stable, sure, without care, hauing all power, circumspect in all thinges, and passing through all intellectuall, pure, and subtil spirits.

24 For wisedome is nimbler then all nimble things: shee goeth throwe and atteineth to all things, because of her pureness.

25 For she is the breath of ỹ power of God, and a pure influence that floweth from the glorie of the Almightie: therefore can no defiled thing come vnto her.

Hebr.1.3. 26 For* she is the brightnesse of the euerlasting light, the vndefiled mirrour of the Maiesty of God and the image of his goodnesse.

27 And being one, she can do all things, and remayning in her selfe, renneth all, and according to the ages she entreth into the holy soules, and maketh them the friends of God and Prophets.

28 For God loueth none, if he dwel not with wisedome.

29 For she is more beautifull then the sunne, and is aboue all the order of the starres, and the light is not to be compared vnto her.

30 For night commeth vpon it, but wickednesse cannot ouercome wisedome.

CHAP. VIII.

The effects of wisedome.

SHee also reacheth from one ende to another mightily, and comely doeth shee order all things.

2 I haue loued her, and sought her from my youth: I desired to marrie her, such loue had I vnto her beautie.

3 In that she is conuersant with God, it commendeth her nobilitie: yea, the Lord of all things loueth her.

4 For shee is the Schoolemistresse of the knowledge of God, and the chooser out of his workes.

5 If riches be a possession to be desired in this life, what is richer then wisedome, that worketh all things?

6 For if prudencie worketh, what is it among all things that worketh better then she?

7 If a man loue righteousnesse, her labours are vertuous: for she teacheth soberneſse and prudencie, righteousnes and strength, which are the most profitable things that men can haue in this life.

8 If a man desire great experience, shee can tell the things that are past, and discerne things to come: she knoweth the subtilties of wordes, and the solutions of darke sentences: shee foreseeth the signes and wonders, or euer they come to passe, and the successe of seasons and times.

9 Therefore I purposed to take her vnto my companie: knowing that shee would counsell mee good things, and comfort me in cares and griefes.

10 For her sake shal I haue glory among the multitude, & honour among the Elders though I be yong.

11 I shall bee founde of sharpe iudgement, so that I shall be maruelious in the sight of great men.

12 When I hold my tongue, they shall abide my leasure: when I speake, they shal heare diligently, and if I talke much, they shall lay their hands vpon their mouth.

13 Moreouer, by her I shall obteine immortalitie, and leaue an euerlasting memorial among them that come after me.

14 I shall gouerne the people, and the nations shalbe subdued vnto me.

15 Horrible tyrants shalbe afraid when they heare me: among the multitude I shalbe counted good, and mighty in battell.

16 When I come home I shal rest with her: for her companie hath no bitternesse, and her fellowship hath no tediousnesse, but mirth and ioy.

17 Nowe when I considered these things by my selfe, and pondered them in mine heart, how that to bee ioyned vnto wisedome is immortalitie, 18 And great pleasure is in her friendship, and that in the workes of her hands are infinite riches, and that in the exercise of talking with her is prudencie, & glory by communing with her, I went about, seeking howe I might take her vnto me.

19 For I was a wittie childe, and was of a good spirit.

20 Yea, rather being good, I came to an vndefiled body.

21 Neuertheleſſe, when I perceiued that I could not enioy her, except God gaue her (and that was a poynt of wiſedome alſo, to knowe whoſe gift it was) I went vnto the Lord, & beſought him, and with my whole heart I ſaide,

CHAP. IX.

A prayer of Solomon to obtaine wiſedome.

O God of fathers, and Lord of mercie, which haſt made all things with thy word,

2 And ordained man thorough thy wiſedome, that hee ſhould haue * dominion ouer the creatures which thou haſt made, Gen.1.1, 28.

3 And gouerne the world according to equitie and righteouſneſſe, and execute iudgement with an vpright heart:

4 Giue me * that wiſedome, which ſitteth by thy throne, and put me not out from among thy children. 1.King.3.9.

5 For I * thy ſeruant, and ſonne of thine handmaide, am a feeble perſon, and of a ſhort time, & yet leſſe in the vnderſtanding of iudgement and the lawes. pſal.116.16.

6 And though a man bee neuer ſo perfite among the children of men, yet if thy wiſedome be not with him, he ſhalbe nothing regarded.

7 * Thou haſt choſen me to be a King of thy people, and the iudge of thy ſonnes and daughters. 1.Chro.28.5. 2.chro.1.9.

8 Thou haſt commaunded mee to builde a Temple vpon thine holy mount, and an altar in the citie, wherein thou dwelleſt, a likeneſſe of thine holy Tabernacle, which thou haſt prepared from the beginning,

9 And thy * wiſedome with thee, which knoweth thy workes, which alſo was when thou madeſt the world, and which knewe what was acceptable in thy ſight, and right in thy commandements. Prou.8.22. ſohn 1.1,2, 3,10.

10 Send her out of thine holy heauens, and ſende her from the throne of thy Maieſtie, that ſhee may bee with mee, and labour, that I may know what is acceptable in thy ſight.

11 For ſhe knoweth and vnderſtandeth all things, and ſhee ſhall leade mee ſoberly in my workes, and preſerue me by her glory.

12 So ſhall my workes bee acceptable, and then ſhall I gouerne thy people righteouſly, and be meete for my fathers throne.

13 For * what man is he that can know the counſell of God? or who can thinke what the will of God is? Iſa.40.13. rom.11.34. 1.cor.2.16.

14 For the thoughts of mortal men are fearfull, and our forecaſts are vncertaine,

15 Becauſe a corruptible body is heauie vnto the ſoule, and the earthly manſion keepeth downe the minde that is full of cares:

16 And hardly can wee diſcerne the things that are vpon earth, and with great labour finde wee out the things which are before vs: who can then ſeeke out the things that are in heauen?

17 Who can know thy counſell, except thou giue him wiſedome, and ſend thy holy Spirite from aboue?

18 For ſo the wayes of them which are vpon earth, are reformed, and men are taught the things that are pleaſant vnto thee, and are preſerued thorough wiſedome.

CHAP. X.

The deliuerance of the righteous, and the deſtruction of the enemies commeth through wiſedome.

She preſerued the firſt father of the worlde, that was formed, and kept him when hee was created alone, and brought him out of his offence,

2 And * gaue him power to rule all things, Gen.2.20.

3 * But the vnrighteous in his wrath departed from her, and periſhed by killing his brother in his furie. Gen.4.8.

4 For whoſe cauſe the * earth was ouerflowen, but wiſedome preſerued it againe, gouerning the iuſt man by a litle wood. Gen.7.21.

5 Moreouer,* when the nations were ioined in their malicious confederacies, ſhe knewe the righteous, and preſerued him faultleſſe vnto God, and kept him ſure, becauſe ſhe loued him tenderly as a ſonne. Ge.11.1,31. and 12,1. ‖Or, kept him ſtrong in his tender loue toward his ſonne.

6 She preſerued the righteous, * when the vngodly periſhed, whē he fled from the fire that fell downe vpon the fiue cities. Gen.19,16.

7 Of whoſe wickednelle the waſte land that ſmoketh, yet giueth teſtimonie, and the trees that beare fruite that neuer commeth to ripeneſſe: and for a remembrance of the vnfaithfull ſoule, there ſtandeth a pillar of ſalt.

8 For all ſuch as regarded not wiſedome, had not onely this hurt, that they knew not the things which were good, but alſo left behinde them vnto men a memoriall of their fooliſhnes, ſo that in the things wherein they ſinned, they cannot lie hid.

9 But wiſdome deliuered them þ ſerued her. Gen.28.5.

10 * When the righteous fled becauſe of his brothers wrath, ſhee ledde him the right way, ſhewed him the kingdome of God, gaue him knowledge of holy things, made him rich in his labours, and made his paines profitable.

11 Againſt the couetouſnes of ſuch as defrauded him, ſhe ſtood by him and made him rich.

12 She ſaued him from the enemies, and defended him from them that lay in waite, and ſhee gaue him the price in mightie battell, that hee might knowe that the feare of God is ſtronger then all things.

13 * When the righteous was ſolde, ſhe forſooke him not, but deliuered him from ſinne: ſhe went downe with him into the dongeon, Gen.37.28, and 39.7. acts 7,10.

14 And failed him not in the bandes, till ſhee had brought him the ſcepter of the realme, and power againſt thoſe that oppreſſed him, & them that had accuſed him ſhee declared to be ſpars, and gaue him perpetuall glorie.

15 * Shee deliuered the righteous people and faultleſſe ſeede from the nations that oppreſſed them. Exod.1.10. and 12.42.

16 She entred into the ſoule of the ſeruant of the Lorde, and ſtoode * by him in wonders and ſignes againſt the terrible Kings. Exod.5.1.

17 She gaue the Saints the reward of their labours, and ledde them forth a marueilous way: on the day time ſhee was a ſhadowe vnto them, and a light of ſtarres in the night.

18 * Shee brought them thorough the red ſea, and caried them through the great water, Exod.14.21, 22.pſal.78. 13.

19 But ſhee drowned their enemies, and brought them out of the bottome of the deepe.

20 So the righteous tooke the ſpoyles of the vngodly, * and praiſed thine holy Name, O Lorde, and magnified thy victorious hand with one accord. Exod.15.1.

21 For wiſedome openeth the mouth of the dumbe, & maketh the tongues of babes eloquēt.

1 The miracles done for Israel. 13 The vengeance of sinners. 28 The great power and mercie of God.

SHe prospered their workes in the handes of thine holy Prophet.

Exod.16.1. 2 * They went through the wildernesse that was not inhabited, and pitched their tents in places where there lay no way.

Exod.17.10, 11. 3 * They stoode against their enemies, and were auenged of their aduersaries.

Num.20.11 4 * When they were thirstie they called vpon thee, and water was giuen them out of the hie rocke, and their thirst was quenched out of the hard Stone.

5 For by the things wherby their enemies were punished, by the same were the Israelites helped in their needs.

6 For in stead of a fountain of running water, the enemies were troubled at the corrupt blood, which was to rebuke the commaundement of the killing of the children, but thou gauest vnto thine owne, abundance of water vnlooked for,

Exod,7.20. 7 Declaring by the thirst that was at that time, * how thou hadst punished thine aduersaries.

8 For when they were tried and chastised with mercie, they knew how the vngodly were iudged and punished in wrath.

9 For these hast thou exhorted as a father, and prooued them: but thou hast condemned the other as a righteous king, when thou didst examine them.

10 Whether they were absent or present, their punishment was alike: for their grief was double with mourning, and the remembrance of things past.

11 For when they perceiued that through their torments good came vnto them, they felt the Lord.

12 And seeing the things that came to passe, at the last they wondred at him, whome afore they had cast out, denied and derided: for they had another thirst then the iust.

13 Because of the foolish deuices of their wickednes wherewith they were deceiued, and worshipped * serpents, that had not the vse of Chap.12.24. rom.1,23. reason, and vile beasts, thou sendedst a multitude of vnreasonable beasts vpon them for a vengeance, that they might knowe, that wherewith a man sinneth, by the same also shal he be punished.

14 For vnto thine almighty hand, that made the world of * nought, it was not vnpossible to

Gene.1.1. hebr.11.3. sende among them a multitude of * Beares, or Leuit.26.22. ier.8.16,17. chap.16.1. fierce Lions,

15 Or furious beasts newly created and vnknowen, which should breathe out blastes of fire, and cast out smoke as a tempest, or shoot horrible sparkes like lightnings out of their eyes.

16 Which might not only destroy them with hurting, but also kill them with their horrible sight.

17 Yea, without these might they haue bene cast downe with one winde, beeing persecuted by thy vengeance, and scattered abroade through the power of thy Spirite: but thou hast ordered all things in measure, number, and weight.

18 For thou hast euer had great strength and might, and who can withstande the power of thine arme?

19 For as the small thing that the ballance weigheth, so is the worlde before thee, and as a drop of the morning dewe, that falleth downe vpon the earth.

20 But thou hast mercie vpon all: for thou hast power of all things, and makest as though thou sawest not the sinnes of men, because they should amend.

21 For thou louest al the things that are, and hatest none of them whom thou hast made: for thou wouldest haue created nothing that thou hadst hated.

22 And howe might any thing endure, if it were not thy will? or howe could any thing be preserued, except it were called of thee?

23 But thou sparest all: for they are thine, O Lord, which art the louer of soules.

CHAP. XII.

2 The mercie of God toward sinners. 14 The workes of God are vnreprouable. 19 God giueth leasure to repent.

FOr thine incorruptible Spirite is in all things.

2 Therefore thou chastenest them measurably that goe wrong, and warnest them by putting them in remembrance of the things wherin they haue offended, that leauing wickednes, they may beleeue in thee, O Lord.

3 * As for those olde inhabitants of the holy land, thou didst hate them. Deut.9.3. and 12.31.

4 For the committed abominable workes, and 18.9,12. as sorceries and wicked sacrifices,

5 And slaying of their owne children without mercie, and eating of the bowels of mans flesh in banketting, where the raging Priests shed abominable blood.

6 And the fathers were the chiefe murtherers of the soules, destitute of all helpe, whome thou wouldest destroy by the hands of our fathers,

7 That the land which thou louest aboue al other, might bee a meete dwelling for the children of God.

8 * Neuertheless, thou sparedst them also, Exod.33.2. deut.2.22. as men, and sendedst the forerunners of thine hoste, euen hornets to destroy them by litle and litle,

9 Not that thou wast vnable to subdue the vngodly vnto the righteous in batttell, or with cruell beasts, or with one rough worde to destroy them together:

10 But in punishing them by litle and litle, thou gauest them space to repent, knowing well, that it was an vnrighteous nation and wicked of nature, and that their thought coulde neuer be altered.

11 For it was a cursed seede from the beginning: yet hast thou not spared them when they sinned, because thou fearedst any man.

12 For who dare say, * What hast thou Rom.9.20. done? or who dare stande against thy iudgement? or who dare accuse thee for the nations that perish, whome thou hast made? or who dare stande against thee to reuenge the wicked men?

13 For there is none other God but thou, 1.Tet.5.7. * that carest for all things, that thou mayest declare howe that thy iudgement is not vnright.

14 There

14 There dare neither king nor tyrant in thy sight require accompts of them whome thou hast punished.

15 For so much then as thou art righteous thy selfe, thou orderest all things righteously, * thinking it not agreeable to thy power to condemne him, that hath not deserued to bee punished. Iob.10.2,3.

16 For thy power is the beginning of righteousnes, & because thou art Lorde of all things, it causeth thee to spare all things.

17 When men thinke thee not to be of a perfite power, thou declarest thy power, and reprouest the boldnesse of the wise.

18 But thou ruling thy power, iudgest with equitie, and gouernest vs with great fauour: for thou mayest shewe thy power when thou wilt.

19 By such woorkes nowe hast thou taught thy people, that a man should be iust and louing, and hast made thy children to be of a good hope: for thou giuest repentance to sinners.

20 For if thou hast punished the enemies of thy children that had deserued death with so great consideration, and requesting vnto them, giuing them time and place that they might change from their wickednes,

21 With how great circumspection wilt thou punish thine owne children, vnto whose fathers thou hast swoorne and made couenants of good promises?

22 So when thou doest chasten vs, thou punishest our enemies a thousande times more, to the intent that when we iudge, wee should diligently consider thy goodnesse, and when we are iudged, we should hope for mercie.

23 Wherefore they that haue lined a dissolute life by their owne imaginations.

Chap.11.13. rom.1,23. 24 * For they went astray very farre in the wayes of errour, and esteemed the beasts, which their enemies despised, for gods, being abused after the maner of children, that haue none vnderstanding.

25 Therefore hast thou sent this punishment that they should be in derision as children without reason.

26 But they that will not bee reformed by those scornfull rebukes, shal feele the woorthy punishment of God.

27 For in those things when they suffered, they disdained: but in these whom they counted godly, when they sawe themselues punished by them, they all acknowledged the true God whom afore they had denied to know: therefore came extreme damnation vpon them.

CHAP. XIII.

1 All things bee vaine except the knowledge of God. 10 Idolaters and idoles are mocked.

Rom.1.19. SVrely all men are vaine by nature, and are ignorant of God, * and could not knowe him that is, by the good things that are seene, neither consider by the woorkes, the woorkemaister.

Deut.4.19. and 17.3. 2 * But they thought the fire or the wind, or the swift ayre, or the course of the starres, or the raging water, or the lights of heauen to bee gouernours of the world, and gods.

3 Though they had such pleasure in their beautie þ they thought them gods, yet shoulde they haue knowen, howe much more excellent hee is that made them: for the first author of beautie hath created these things.

4 Or if they marueiled at the power, & operation of them, yet should they haue perceiued thereby, howe much he that made these things, is mightier.

5 For by the greatnesse of their beautie, and of the creatures, the Creator being compared with them, may be considered.

6 But yet the blame is lesse in these, that seeke God and would finde him, and yet peradventure doe erre.

7 For they * go about by his woorks to seeke him, and are perswaded by the sight, because the things are beautifull that are seene. Rom.1.21.

8 Howbeit they are not to be excused.

9 For if they can knowe so much, that they can discerne the world, why doe they not rather finde out the Lord thereof?

10 But miserable are they, and among the dead is their hope, that call them gods, which are the woorks of mens hands, golde, and siluer, and the thing that is inuented by arte, and the similitude of beasts, or any vain stone that hath bene made by the hand of antiquity.

11 * Or as when a carpenter cutteth downe a tree meete for the woorke, and pareth off all the barke thereof cunningly, and by arte maketh a vessell profitable for the vse of life. Isa.44.13. Ierem.10.3.

12 And the things that are cut off from his woorke, hee bestoweth to dresse his meate to fill himselfe,

13 And that which is left of these things, which is profitable for nothing (for it is a crooked piece of wood and full of knobs) he carueth it diligently at his leasure, and according as he is expert in cunning, hee giueth it a proportion, and fashioneth it after the similitude of a man, 14 Or maketh it like some vile beast, and strake th it ouer with red, and painteth it, and coueret h euery spot that is in it.

15 And when he hath made a conuenient tabernacle for it, hee setteth it in a wall, and maketh it fast with yron, 16 Prouiding so for it, least it fall: for he knoweth that it cannot helpe it selfe, because it is an image, which hath neede of helpe.

17 Then he prayeth for his goods, and for his marriage, and for children: he is not ashamed to speake vnto it, that hath no life.

18 Hee calleth on him that is weake, for health: he prayeth vnto him that is dead for life: hee requireth him of helpe that hath no experience at all.

19 And for his iourney, him that is not able to goe, and for gaine, and woorke, and successe of his affaires, hee requireth furtherance of him, that hath no maner of power.

by cunning.

3 But thy prouidence, O father, gouerneth it: * for thou hast made a way, euen in the sea, and a sure path among the waues,

Exod.14,22.

4 Declaring thereby that thou hast power to helpe in all things, yea, though a man went to the sea without meanes.

5 Neuertheleſſe, thou wouldeſt not, that the workes of thy wiſedome ſhould be vaine, and therefore doe men commit their liues to a ſmall piece of wood, and paſſe ouer the ſtormie ſea in a ſhip and are ſaued.

6 * For in the old time alſo when the proud giants periſhed, the hope of the world went into a ſhip which was gouerned by thine hand, and ſo left ſeede of generation vnto the world.

Gen.6.4. and 7.10.

7 For bleſſed is the tree wherebp righteouſneſſe commeth.

8 But that is curſed that is made with hands, *both it, and he that made it: he becauſe he made it, and it being a corruptible thing, becauſe it was called god.

Pſal.115.8. Baruch 6.3.

9 * For the vngodly and his vngodlineſſe are both like hated of God: ſo truely the worke and he that made it, ſhalbe puniſhed together.

Pſal.5.5.

10 Therefore ſhal there be a viſitation for the idoles of the nations: for of the creatures of God they are become abomination, *and ſtumbling blockes vnto the ſoules of men, & a ſnare for the feete of the vnwiſe.

Ierem.10.8. Hoſea.4.18.

11 For the inuenting of idoles was the beginning of whoredome, and the finding of them is the corruption of life.

12 For they were not from the beginning, neither ſhall they continue for euer.

13 The vaine glory of men brought them into the world: therefore ſhall they come ſhortly to an end.

14 When a father mourned grieuouſly for his ſonne that was taken away ſuddenly, he made an image for him that was once dead, whom nowe he worſhippeth as a god, and ordeined to his ſeruants ceremonies and ſacrifices.

15 Thus by proceſſe of time this wicked cuſtome preuailed, and was kept as a lawe, and idols were worſhipped by the commandement of tyrants.

16 As for thoſe that were ſo farre off that men might not worſhip them preſently, they did counterfeit the viſage that was farre off, and made a goregeous image of a King, whom they would honour, that they might by all meanes flatter him that was abſent, as though he had bene preſent.

17 Againe the ambition of the craftſman thruſt forward the ignorant to increaſe the ſuperſtition.

18 For he peraduenture willing to pleaſe a noble man, laboured with all his cunning to make the image of the beſt faſhion.

19 And ſo through the beautie of the worke the multitude was allured, and ſo tooke him now for a god, which a little afore was but honoured as a man.

20 And this was the deceiuing of mans life, when men, being in ſeruitude through calamitie and tyrannie aſcribed vnto ſtones, & ſtockes the name, which ought not to be communicate vnto any.

21 Moreouer, this was not enough for them that they erred in the knowledge of God: but whereas they liued in great warres of ignorance, thoſe ſo great plagues called they peace.

22 For either *they ſlew their owne children in ſacrifice, or vſed ſecret ceremonies, or raging diſſolutenelle by ſtrange rites, Deut.18.10. Ierem.7.9. and 19.4.

23 And ſo keepe neither life nor marriage cleane: but either one ſlew another by treaſon, or els vexed him by adulterie.

24 So were all mixt together, blood, and ſlaughter, theft and deceit, corruption, vnfaithfulneſſe, tumults, periurie, 25 Diſquieting of good men, vnthankfulnes, defiling of ſoules, changing of birth, diſorder in mariage, adulterie and vncleanneſſe.

26 For the worſhipping of idoles, that ought not to be named, is the beginning and the cauſe, and the end of all euill.

27 For either they be mad when they be merie, or prophecie lies, or liue vngodly, or els lightly forſweare themſelues.

28 For in ſo much as their truſt is in the idoles, which haue no life, though they ſweare falſly, yet they thinke to haue no hurt.

29 Therefore for two cauſes ſhall they juſtly be puniſhed, becauſe they haue an euill opinion of God, addicting themſelues vnto idoles, and becauſe they ſweare vniuſtly to deceiue, and deſpiſe holineſſe.

30 For it is not the power of them by whom they ſweare, but the vengeance of them that ſinne, which puniſheth alwayes the offence of the vngodly.

CHAP. XV.

The voyce of the faithfull, prayſing the mercy of God, by whoſe grace they ſerue not idoles.

BVt thou, O our God, art gracious and true, long ſuffering, and gouerneſt all things by mercie.

2 Though we ſinne, yet are we thine: for we knowe thy power: but we ſinne not, knowing that we are counted thine.

3 For to know thee, is perfect righteouſnes, and to know thy power is the roote of immortalitie.

4 For neither hath the wicked inuention of men deceiued vs, nor the vnprofitable labour of the painters, nor an image ſpotted with diuers colours.

5 Whoſe ſight ſtirreth vp the deſire of the ignorant: ſo that her coueteth the ſome, that hath no life, of a dead image.

6 They that loue ſuch wicked things, are worthy to haue ſuch things to truſt to, and they that make them, & they that deſire them, and they that worſhip them.

7 The *potter alſo tempereth ſoft earth, and faſhioneth euery veſſell with labour to our vſe: but of the ſame clay he maketh both the veſſels that ſerue to cleane vſes, and the contrary likewiſe: but whereto euery veſſell ſerueth, the potter is the iudge.

Rom.9.21.

8 So by his wicked labour her maketh a vaine god of the ſame clay: euen he, which a little afore was made of earth himſelfe, & within a litle while after goeth thither againe whence he was taken, * when he ſhall make a count for the lone of his life.

Luke 12.20.

9 Notwithſtanding he careth not for the labour

bour he taketh, nor that his life is short, but he striueth with the goldsmithes, and siluersmithes, and counterfeiteth the coppersmithes, and taketh it for an honour to make deceiueable things.

10 His heart is ashes, and his hope is more vile then earth, and his life is lesse woorthy of honour then clay.

11 For he knoweth not his owne maker, that gaue him his soule, that had power and breathed in him the breath of life.

12 But they count our life to be but a passime, and our conuersation as a market, where there is gaine: for they say we ought to be getting on euery side, though it be by euill meanes.

13 Nowe he that of earth maketh fraile vessels and images, knoweth himselfe to offend aboue all other.

14 All the enemies of thy people, that holde them in subiection, are most vnwise, and more miserable then the very fooles.

15 For they iudge all the idoles of the nations to be gods, which neither haue eye sight to see, nor noses to smel, nor eares to heare, nor fingers of hands to grope, and their feete are slow to goe.

16 For man made them, & he that hath but a borowed spirite, fashioned them: but no man can make a god like to himselfe.

17 For seeing he is but mortall himselfe, it is but mortall that he maketh with vnrighteous hands: he himselfe is better then they whom he worshippeth: for hee liued, but they neuer liued.

18 Yea, they worshipped beasts also, which are their most enemies, & which are the worst, if they be compared vnto others, because they haue none vnderstanding.

19 Neither haue they any beautie to be desired in respect of other beasts, for they are destitute of Gods praise, and of his blessing.

2 In stead of the which punishment thou hast bene fauourable to thy people, and to satisfie their appetite, hast prepared a meate of a

3 To the intent that they that desired meate, by the things which were shewed and sent among them, might turne away their necessarie desire, and that they, which had suffered penurie for a space, should also feele a new taste.

4 For it was requisite, that they which vsed tyrannie, should fall into extreme penurie, and that to these onely it should be shewed, howe their enemies were tormented.

Num.21 6. 1.chro.10.9. 5 * For when the cruel fiercenes of the beasts came vpon them, and they were hurt with the stings of cruell serpents, Num,21 9. lawe.

7 For he that turned toward it, was not healed by the thing that he saw, but by thee, O Sauiour of all.

8 So in this thou shewedst our enemies, that it is thou, which deliuerest from all euill.

9 * For the biting of grashoppers and flies Exod.8.24. and 10.4. killed them, and there was no remedie found reuel.9.7. for their life: for they were woorthy to be punished by such.

10 But the teeth of the venemous dragons could not ouercome thy children: for thy mercie came to helpe them, and healed them.

11 For they were pricked, because they should remember thy wordes, and were speedily healed, least they should fall into so deepe forgetfulnesse, that they could not be called backe by thy benefite.

12 For neither herbe nor plaister healed them, but thy word, O Lord, which healeth all things.

13 For thou hast the power of life and death, * and leadest downe vnto the gates of hell, and Deut.32.39. 1.sam.2.6. tob,13.2. bringest vp againe.

14 A man in deede by his wickednesse may slay another: but when the spirit is gone forth, it turneth not againe, neither can he call againe the soule that is taken away.

15 But it is not possible to escape thine hand.

16 * For the vngodly that would not knowe Exod.9.23. thee, were punished by the strength of thine arme, with strange raine and with haile, and were pursued with tempest, that they could not auoide, and were consumed with fire.

17 For it was a wonderous thing that fire might doe more then water, which quencheth all things: but the world is the auenger of the righteous.

18 For sometime was the fire so tame, that the beasts, which were sent against the vngodly, burnt not: and that, because they should see, and knowe, that they were persecuted with the punishment of God.

19 And sometime burnt the fire in the mids of the water aboue the power of fire, þ it might destroy the generation of the vniust land.

20 * In the stead whereof thou hast fed thine Exod.16.14. num.11.7. psal.78.25. iohn 6 31. owne people with Angels foode, and sent them breade ready from heauen without their labour, which had abundance of all pleasures in it, and was meete for all tastes.

21 For thy sustenance declared thy sweetenes vnto thy children, which serued to the appetite of him that tooke it, and was meete to that that euery man would.

22 Moreouer the * snow and yce abode þ fire Exod.9.23. and melted not, that they might know, that the fire burning in the haile, and sparkling in the raine, destroyed the fruite of the enemies.

23 Againe it forgate his owne strength, that the righteous might be nourished.

24 For the creature that serueth thee which art the maker, is fierce in punishing the vnrighteous: but it is easie to doe good vnto such as put their trust in thee.

25 Therefore was it changed at þ same time vnto al fashions to serue thy grace, which nourisheth al things, according to the desire of them that had neede thereof.

26 That thy children whom thou louest, O Deut.8.3. Lord, might knowe, * that it is not the increase matth.4.4. of fruites that feedeth men, but that it is thy word, word, which preserueth the m that trust in thee.

27 For that which coulde not bee destroyed with the fire, being onely warmed a litle with the sunne beames, melted, 28 That it might be knowen that we ought to preuent the sunne rising to giue thankes vnto thee, and to salute thee before the day spring.

29 For the hope of the vnthankful shal melt as the winter yce, and flowe away as vnprofitable waters.

CHAP. XVII.

The iudgements of God against the wicked.

FOr thy iudgements are great, and cannot be expressed: therefore men do erre, that wil not be reformed.

2 For when the vnrighteous thought to haue thine holy people in subiection, they were bound with the bands of darknes, and long night, and being shut vp vnder the roofe did lie there to escape the euerlasting prouidence.

3 And while they thought to bee hid in their darke sinnes, they were scattered abroade in the darke couering of forgetfulnesse, fearing horrible and troubled with visions.

4 For the denne that hidde them, kept them not from feare: but the sounds that were about them troubled them, and terrible visions and sorowfull sights did appeare.

5 No power of the fire might giue light, neither might the cleare flames of the starres lighten the horrible night.

6 For there appeared vnto them only a sudden fire, very dreadfull: so that being afraide of this vision, ‖ which they coulde not see, they thought the things, which they sawe to bee worse. ‖ That is, the mightie vision.

7 * And the illusions of the Magicall artes were brought down, and it was a most shameful reproch for the boasting of their knowledge. Exod.7.12, and 8.7,19.

8 For they that promised to driue away feare and trouble from the sicke person, were sicke for feare, and worthy to be laughed at.

9 And though no fearefull thing did feare them, yet were they afraide at the beasts which passed by them, and at the hissing of the serpents: so that they died for feare, and saide they sawe not the ayre, which by no meanes can bee auoyded.

10 For it is a fearefull thing when malice is condemned by her owne testimonie: and a conscience that is touched, doeth euer forecast cruel things.

11 For feare is nothing else, but a betraying of the succours, which reason offereth.

12 And the lesse that the hope is within, the more doth he esteeme the ignorance of the thing, that tormenteth him, great,

13 But they that did endure the night that was intollerable, & that came out of the dungeon of hell, which is insupportable, slept the same sleepe, 14 And somtimes were troubled with monstrous visions, and sometime they swooned as though their owne soule should betrap them: for a sudden feare not looked for, came vpon them.

15 And thus, whosoeuer fell downe, he was kept, and shut in prison, but without chaines.

16 For whether he was an husbandman, or a shepheard, or one that was set to woorke alone, if he were taken, he must suffer this necessitie, that he could not auoyde:

17 (For with one chaine of darkenesse were they al bound) whether it were an hissing winde or a sweete song of the birdes among the thicke branches of the trees, or the vehemencie of hastie running water,

18 Or a great noyse of the falling downe of stones, or the running of skipping beasts, that could not be seene, or the noyse of cruell beasts, that roared, or the ‖ sounde that answereth againe in the hollow mountaines: these fearefull things made them to swoone. ‖ Or, Echo.

19 For all the world shined with cleare light, and no man was hindred in his labour.

20 Onely vpon them there fell an heauie night an image of that darkenesse that was to come vpon them: yea, they were vnto themselues more grieuous then darknesse.

BVt thy saints had a very great * light, whose voyce because ‖ they heard, and sawe not the figure of them, they thought them blessed, because they also had not suffered the like. Exod.10.23. ‖ Or, the Egyptians.

2 And because they did not hurt them, which did hurt them afore, they thanked them, and asked pardon for their enmitie.

3 * Therefore thou gauest them a burning pillar of fire to lead them in the vnknown way, and madest the sunne that it hurted not them in their honourable iourney. Exod.13.21, and 14.24. psal.78.14. and 105.39.

4 But they were worthie to bee deprined of the light, and to bee kept in darkenesse, which had kept thy children shutte vp, by whome the vncorrupt light of the lawe shoulde be giuen to the world.

5 * Whereas they thought to slay the babes of the Saints, by one childe that was cast out, and preserued to reproue them, thou hast taken away the multitude of their children, and destroyed them all together in the mightie water. Exod.1.16.

6 Of that night were our fathers certified afore, that they, knowing vnto what othes they had giuen credite, might be of good cheere.

7 Thus thy * people receiued the health of the righteous, but the enemies were destroyed. Exod.14.24, 25.

8 For as thou hast punished the enemies, so hast thou glorified vs whom thou hast called.

9 For the righteous children of the good men offered secretly, and made a lawe of righteousnesse by one consent, that the Saints should receiue good and euill in like maner, and that the fathers should first sing praises.

10 But a disagreeing crie was heard of the enemies, and there was a lamentable noyse for the children that were bewayled.

11 For the * master and the seruant were punished with like punishment, and the common people suffered alike with the king. Exod.11.5, and 12.29.

12 So they altogether had innumerable that died with one kinde of death: neither were the liuing sufficient to burye them: for in ỹ twinckling of an eye the noblest offspring of them was destroyed.

1 The death of the Egyptians, and the great ioy of the Hebrewes. 11 The meat that was giuen at the deſire of the people. 17 All the elements ſerue to the will of God.

AS for the vngodly, the wrath came vpon them without mercie vnto the ende: for hee knew what ſhould come vnto them.

2 That they (when they had conſented to let them go, and had ſent them out with diligence) would repent and purſue them.

3 For while yet ſorow was before them, and they lamented by the graues of the dead, they deuiſed another fooliſhneſſe, ſo that they perſecuted them in their fleeing, whome they had a call out afore with prayer.

a That is, the children of Iſrael whom they before had deſired and prayed to go their way.

4 For the deſtinie, whereof they were worthy, brought them to this end, and cauſed them to forget the things that had come to paſſe, that they might accompliſh the puniſhment, which remayned by torments,

5 Yorth that thy people might trie a maruelious paſſage, and that theſe might finde a ſtrange death.

6 For euery creature in his kinde was faſhioned of new, and ſerued in their owne offices inioyned them that thy children might be kept without hurt.

7 For the cloude ouerſhadowed their tents, and the dry earth appeared, where afore was water: ſo that in the red Sea there was a way without impediment, and the great deepe became a greene fielde,

8 Through the which all the people went that were defended with thine hand, ſeeing thy wonderous marueiles, 9 For they ‖ neied like horſes, and leaped like lambes, praiſing thee, O Lord, which hadſt deliuered them. ‖ Or, were fed.

10 For they were yet mindefull of thoſe things which were done in the lande where they dwelt, howe the grounde brought foorth flies in ſteade of cattell, and howe the riuer ſcrauled with the multitude of frogs in ſtead of fiſhes.

17 Thus the elements agreed among themſelues in this change, as when one time is changed vpon an inſtrument of muſicke, and the melodie ſtill remaineth, which may eaſily bee perceiued by the ſight of the things that are come to paſſe.

18 For the things of the earth were changed into things of the water, and the thing that did ſwimme, went vpon the ground.

19 The fire had power in the water contrary vnto his own vertue, and the water forgate his owne kind to quench.

The

The wiſedome of Ieſus the ſonne of Sirach, called Eccleſiaſticus.

This Argument was found in a certaine Greeke copie.

THis Ieſus was the ſonne of Sirach, and Sirachs father was alſo called Ieſus, and he liued in the latter times, after the people had beene led away captiue, and brought home againe, and almoſt after all the Prophets. Now his grandfather, as he himſelfe witneſſeth, was a man of great diligence, and wiſedome among the Hebrewes, who did not onely gather the graue ſentences of wiſe men, that had beene before him, but he himſelfe alſo ſpake many full of great knowledge and wiſedome. So this firſt Ieſus died, and left this which he had gathered, and Sirach afterward left it to Ieſus his ſonne, who tooke it & put it in order in a booke, and called it WISDOME, intituling it both by his owne name, his fathers name, & his grandfathers: thinking by this title of WISDOME to allure the Reader to reade this booke with more great deſire, and to conſider it more diligently. Therefore this booke conteineth wiſe ſayings, and darke ſentences, and ſimilitudes, with certaine diuine hiſtories which are notable and ancient, euen of men that were approued of God, and certaine prayers, and ſongs of the authour himſelfe: moreouer, what benefites the Lord had beſtowed vpon his people, and what plagues he had heaped vpon their enemies. This Ieſus did imitate Salomon, and was no leſſe famous in wiſedome and doctrine, who was therefore called a man of great knowledge, as he was in deede.

The Prologue of the wiſedome of Ieſus the ſonne of Sirach.

WHereas many and great things haue beene giuen vs by the Lawe, and the Prophets, and by others that haue followed them, (for the which things Iſrael ought to be commended by the reaſon of doctrine and wiſedome, whereby the readers ought not onely to become learned themſelues, but alſo may be able by the diligent ſtudie thereof to be profitable vnto ſtrangers, both by ſpeaking and writing) after that my grandfather Ieſus had giuen himſelfe to the reading of the Law and the Prophets, and other bookes of our fathers, and had gotten therein ſufficient iudgement, he purpoſed alſo to write ſomething pertaining to learning and wiſedome, to the intent that they which were deſirous to learne, and would frame themſelues to theſe things, might profit much more in liuing according to the Lawe. Wherefore, I exhort you to receiue it louingly, and to reade it with diligence, and to take it in good worth, though we ſeeme to come in ſome things not able to attaine to the interpretation of ſuch words as are hard to be expreſſed: for the things that are ſpoken in the Hebrew tongue, haue another force in themſelues then when they are tranſlated into another tongue: and not onely theſe things, but other things alſo, as the Law it ſelfe, and the Prophets, and other bookes haue no ſmall difference when they are ſpoken in their owne language. Therefore in the eight and thirtieth yeere, when I came into Egypt vnder king Euergetes, and continued there, I found a copie full of great learning, and I thought it neceſſarie to beſtowe my diligence and trauell to interprete this booke. So for a certaine time with great watching and ſtudie I gaue my ſelfe to the finiſhing of this booke, that it might be publiſhed, that they which remaine in baniſhment, and are deſirous to learne, might apply themſelues vnto good maners, and liue according to the Lawe.

CHAP. I.

1 Wiſedome commeth of God. 11 A praiſe of the feare of God. 29 The meanes to come by wiſedome.

ALl wiſdome *commeth of the Lord, [and hath beene euer with him] and is with him for euer.

1. King. 3. 9. and 4. 29.

2 Who can number the ſand of the ſea, and the drops of the raine, and the daies of the world? [who can meaſure] the height of heauen, the breadth of the earth, and the depth?

3 Who can finde the wiſedome [of God which hath beene before all things?]

4 Wiſedome hath beene created before all things, and the vnderſtanding of prudence from euerlaſting.

5 [The word of God moſt high is the fountaine of wiſdome, and the euerlaſting commandements are the entrance vnto her.]

Rom. 11. 34.

6 *Vnto whom hath the roote of wiſdome beene declared? or who hath knowen her wiſe counſels?

7 [Vnto whom hath the doctrine of wiſedome beene diſcouered and ſhewed? and who hath vnderſtood the manifolde entrance vnto her?]

8 There is one wiſe, [euen the moſt high Creator of all things, the Almightie, the King of power] and very terrible, which ſitteth vpon his throne.

9 He is the Lord that hath created her [through the holy Ghoſt:] he hath ſeene her, numbred her, [and meaſured her.]

10 He hath powred her out vpon all his works, and vpon all fleſh, according to his gift, and giueth her abundantly vnto them that loue him.

11 The feare of the Lord is glory, and gladneſſe, and reioycing, and a ioyfull crowne.

12 The feare of the Lorde maketh a merrie heart, and giueth gladneſſe, and ioy, & long life.

13 Who ſo feareth the Lord, it ſhall goe well with him at the laſt, and he ſhall finde fauour in the day of his death.

14 [The loue of God is honourable wiſedome, and vnto whom it appeareth in a viſion, they loue it for the viſion, & for the knowledge of the great workes thereof.]

15 *The feare of the Lord is the beginning of wiſedome, and was made with the faithfull in the wombe: [he goeth with the choſen women, and is knowen with the righteous & faithfull.

Pſal. 111. 10. prou. 9. 10. iob 28. 28.

16 The feare of the Lorde is an holy knowledge.

17 Holineſſe ſhall preſerue, and iuſtifie the heart, and giueth mirth and gladneſſe.

19 She hath built her euerlaſting foundations with men, and is giuen to bee with their ſeede.
20 To feare God is the fulneſſe of wiſedome, and filleth men with her fruites.
21 She filleth their whole houſe with [all] things deſireable, and the garners with the things that ſhe bringeth forth, and both twaine are guts of God.
22 The feare of the Lord is the crowne of wiſedome, and giueth peace and perfect health: he hath ſeene her and numbred her.
23 ‖ She rameth downe knowledge, and vnderſtanding of wiſdome, and hath brought vnto honour them that poſſeſſed her,
24 The feare of the Lord is the roote of wiſdome, and her branches are long life.
25 [In the treaſures of wiſedome is vnderſtanding, and holy knowledge, but wiſedome is abhorred of ſinners.]
26 The feare of ꝓ Lord driueth out ſinne: and when ſhe is preſent, ſhe driueth away anger.
27 ¶ For wicked anger cannot be iuſtified: for his raſhneſſe in his anger ſhall be his deſtruction.
28 ℟ patient man will ſuffer for a time, and then ſhall he haue the reward of ioy.
29 He will hide his words for a time, & many mens lips ſhall ſpeake of his wiſedome.
30 In the treaſures of wiſedome, are the ſecrets of knowledge, but the ſinner abhorreth the worſhip of God.
31 If thou deſire wiſedome, keepe the commandements, and the Lord ſhall giue her vnto thee, [and will fill her treaſures.]
32 For the feare of the Lord is wiſdome and diſcipline: he hath pleaſure in faith and meekeneſſe.
33 Be not diſobedient to the feare of ꝓ Lord, and come not vnto him with a double heart.
34 ¶ Be not an hypocrite that men ſhould ſpeake of thee, but take heede what thou ſpeakeſt.
35 Exalt not thy ſelfe, leaſt thou fall and bring thy ſoule to diſhonour, and ſo God diſcouer thy ſecrets, and caſt thee downe in the midſt of the congregation, becauſe thou wouldeſt not receiue the true feare of God, and thine heart is full of deceit.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth the ſeruants of God to righteouſneſſe, loue, vnderſtanding, and patience. 11 To truſt in the Lord. 13 A curſe vpon them that are faint hearted and impatient.

My ſonne, if thou wilt come into the ſeruice of God, [ſtand faſt in righteouſneſſe and feare, and] prepare thy ſoule to tentation.
2 Settle thine heart, and be patient: [bowe downe thine eare, and receiue the wordes of vnderſtanding] and ſhrinke not away, when thou art aſſailed, [but waite vpon God patiently.]
3 Ioyne thy ſelfe vnto him, and depart not away, that thou mayeſt be increaſed at thy laſt end.
4 Whatſoeuer commeth vnto thee, receiue it patiently, and be patient in the change of thine affliction.
5 *For as gold [and ſiluer are] tried in the fire, euen ſo are men acceptable in the fornace of aduerſitie. Wiſd.3.6. prou.17.3.
6 Beleeue in God, and he will helpe thee: order thy way aright, and truſt in him: [hold faſt his feare, and growe olde therein.]
7 Ye that feare the Lord, wait for his mercy: ſhrinke not away from him that ye fall not.
8 Ye that feare the Lord, beleeue him, and your reward ſhall not faile.
9 Ye that feare the Lord, truſt in good things, and in the euerlaſting ioy and mercy.
10 [Ye that feare the Lord, loue him, and your hearts ſhalbe lightened.]
11 Conſider the old generations [of men, ye children,] and marke them well: * was there Pſal.37.25. euer any confounded, that put his truſt in the Lord? or who hath continued in his feare, and was forſaken? or whom did he euer deſpiſe, that called vpon him.
12 For God is gracious and mercifull, and forgiueth ſinnes, and ſaueth in the time of trouble, [and is a defender for all them that ſeeke him in the truth.]
13 Woe vnto them that haue a ‖ fearefull heart, [and to the wicked lips] and to the faint hands, and to the ſinner that goeth two * manner of wayes. ‖Or, double. 1.King.18.21.
14 Woe vnto him that is faint hearted, for he beleeueth not: therefore ſhall he not be defended.
15 Woe vnto you that haue loſt patience, [and haue forſaken the right wayes, & are turned backe into frowarde wayes:] for what will ye doe when the Lord ſhall viſite you?
16 They that feare the Lord, will not diſobey his word: and they that * loue him, will keepe his wayes. Iohn 14.23, 24.
17 They that feare the Lord, will ſeeke out the things that are pleaſant vnto him: and they that loue him, ſhall be fulfilled with his lawe.
18 They that feare the Lorde, will prepare their hearts, & humble their ſoules in his ſight.
19 [They that feare the Lord, keepe his commandements, & will be patient till he ſee them, 20 Saying, If we doe not repent] we ſhall fall into the hands of the Lord, and not into the hands of men.
21 Yet as his greatneſſe is, ſo is his mercy.

CHAP. III.

2 To our father and mother ought we to giue double honour. 10 Of the bleſſing and curſe of the father and mother. 22 No man ought euer curiouſly to ſearch out the ſecrets of God.

[The children of wiſedome are the Church of the righteous, and their offspring is obedience and loue.]
2 Heare your fathers iudgement, O children, and doe thereafter, that ye may be ſafe,
3 For the Lord will haue the father honoured of the children, and hath confirmed the authoritie of the mother ouer the children.
4 Who ſo honoureth his father, his ſinnes ſhalbe forgiuen him, [and he ſhal abſteine from them, and ſhall haue his dayly deſires.]
5 And he that honoureth his mother, is like one that gathereth treaſure.
6 Who ſo honoureth his father, ſhall haue ioy of his owne children, and when he maketh his prayer, he ſhalbe heard.
7 He that honoureth his father, ſhall haue a long long life, and he that is obedient vnto the Lord, shall comfort his mother.

8 He that feareth the Lorde, honoureth his parents, and doeth seruice vnto his parents, as vnto lords.

Exod.20.12. deut.5.16. matt.15.4. ephes.6.2, 3. 9 * Honour thy father and mother in deede and in worde, [and in all patience,] that thou mayest haue ‖Gods blessing, [and that his blessing may abide with thee in the ende.]

‖Or, the blessing of men. 10 For the blessing of the father establisheth the houses of the children, & the mothers curse rooteth out the foundations.

11 Reioyce not at the dishonor of thy father: for it is not honour vnto thee, but shame, 12 Seeing that mans glory commeth by his fathers honour, and the reproch of the mother is dishonour to the children.

13 My sonne, helpe thy father in his age, and grieue him not, as long as he liueth.

14 And if his vnderstanding faile, haue patience with him, and despise him not when thou art in thy full strength.

15 For the good intreatie of thy father shall not be forgotten, but it shal be a fortresse for thee against sinnes, [and for thy mothers offence thou shalt bee recompensed with good, and it shalbe founded for thee in righteousnesse.]

16 And in the day of trouble thou shalt be remembred: thy sinnes also shal melt away as the yce in the faire weather.

17 He that forsaketh his father, shall come to shame, and hee that angreth his mother, is cursed of God.

18 ¶ My sonne, perfoorme thy doings with meekenes, so shalt thou be beloued of them that are approued.

Phil.2.3. 19 The * greater thou art, the more humble thy selfe [in all things,] and thou shalt find fauour before the Lord.

20 Many are excellent and of renoumme: but the secrets are reuealed vnto the meeke.

Psal.131,1. Pro.25,27. rom.12.3. 22 * Seeke not out the things that are too hard for thee, neither search the things rashly which are too mighty for thee.

23 [But] what [God] hath commaunded thee, thinke vpon that with reuerence, [and bee not curious in many of his workes:] for it is not needefull for thee to see with thine eyes the things that are secret.

24 Bee not curious in superfluous things: for many things are shewed vnto thee aboue the capacitie of men.

25 The medling with such hath beguiled many, & an euill opinion hath deceiued their iudgement.

26 Thou canst not see without eyes: professe not the knowledge therefore that thou hast not.

27 A stubberne heart shall fare euill at the last: and hee that loueth danger, shall perish therein.

28 An heart that goeth two wayes, shal not prosper: and hee that is frowarde of heart, shall stumble therein.

29 An obstinate heart shall be laden with sorowes: and the wicked man shall heape sinne vpon sinne.

30 The perswasion of the proud is without remedy, and his steps shall bee plucked vp: for the plant of sinne hath taken roote in him, [and he shall not be esteemed.]

31 The heart of him that hath vnderstanding, shall perceiue secret things, and an attentiue eare is the desire of a wise man.

32 [An heart that is wise & vnderstanding, will abstaine from sinne, and shall prosper in the workes of righteousnesse.]

33 Water quencheth burning fire, * & almes taketh away sinnes. Dan.4.24. psal.41.1.

34 And he that rewardeth good deedes, will remember it afterward, and in the time of his fall, he shall finde a stay.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Almes must be done with gentlenesse. 12 The studie of wisedome and her fruite. 20 An exhortation to eschew euil, and to doe good.

My sonne, defraude not the * poore of his liuing, and make not the needy eyes to wait long. Deut.15.7.

2 Make not an hungry soule sorowfull, neither vexe a man in his necessitie.

3 Trouble not the heart that is grieued, and deferre not the gift of the needy.

4 Refuse not the prayer of one that is in trouble: * turne not away thy face from the poore. Tobit 4.7.

5 Turne not thine eyes aside [in anger] from the poore, and giue him none occasion to speake euil of thee.

6 For if hee curse thee in the bitternesse of his soule, his prayer shalbe heard of him that made him.

7 Be curteous vnto the company [of poore, and humble thy soule vnto the Elder,] and bow downe thy head to a man of worthip.

8 Let it not grieue thee to bowe downe thine eare vnto the poore, [but pay thy det] and giue him a friendly answere.

9 ¶ Deliuer him that suffereth wrong, from the hand of the oppressor, & be not faint hearted ‖when thou iudgest. ‖Or, to defend him.

10 Be as a father vnto the fatherlesse, and as an husband vnto their mother: so shalt thou bee as the sonne of the most High: and he shall loue thee more then thy mother doeth.

11 Wisedome exalteth her children, and receiueth them that seeke her, [and will goe before them in the way of righteousnesse.]

12 He that loueth her, loueth life, and they that seeke life in the morning, shall haue great ioy.

13 He that keepeth her, shall inherite glory: for vnto whome she entreth, him the Lorde will blesse.

14 They that honour her, shalbe the seruants of the holy One, and them that loue her, the Lord doeth loue.

15 Who so giueth eare vnto her, shall iudge the nations, and hee that goeth vnto her, shall dwell safely.

16 He that is faithfull vnto her, shall haue her in possession, and his generation shall possesse her.

17 For first she wil walke with him by crooked wayes, and bring him vnto feare, & dread, and torment him with her discipline vntil shee haue tried his soule, and haue proued him by her iudgements.

18 Then will shee returne the straight way vnto him, and comfort him, and shewe him her secrets, [and heape vpon him the treasures of knowledge, and vnderstanding of righteousnesse.]

19 But if he goe wrong, she will forsake him, and giue him ouer into the handes of his destruction.

20 [¶ My sonne,] make much of time, and *eschewe the thing that is euil,

*Rom.12.9. 1.Thes.5.22.

21 And bee not ashamed [to say the trueth] for thy life: for there is a *shame that bringeth sinne, and a shame that bringeth worship and fauour.

h To be ashamed to confesse thy God, thy faith, to testifie the trueth, and to reproue sinne, doeth bring sinne vnto thee: the contrary shame bringeth worship.

22 Accept no person against thine owne conscience, that thou bee not confounded to thine owne decay, [and forbeare not thy neighbour in his fault.]

23 And keepe not backe counsell when it may doe good, neither hide thy wisedome when it may be famous.

24 For by the talke is wisedome knowen, and learning by the wordes of the tongue, [and counsell, wisedome and learning by the talking of the wise, and stedfastnesse in the workes of righteousnesse.]

25 In no wise speake against the worde of trueth, but be ashamed of the lies of thine owne ignorance.

26 Bee not ashamed to confesse thy sinnes, and resist not the course of the riuer.

27 Submit not thy selfe vnto a foolish man, neither accept the person of the mightie.

28 Striue for the trueth vnto death, [and defend iustice for thy life,] and the Lord God shall fight for thee [against thine enemies.]

29 Be not hastie in thy tongue, neither slacke and negligent in thy workes.

30 Bee not as a lyon in thine owne house, neither beate thy seruants for thy kantalle, [nor oppresse them that are vnder thee.]

Acts.20.35. 31 *Let not thine hand be stretched out to receiue, and shut when thou shouldest giue.

1 Riches may wee not put any confidence. 7 The vengeance of God ought to be feared, and repentance may not be deferred.

Luke 12.15, 19,20.chap. 11.18,19. prou.10.2. ezek.7.19. Zeph.1.18.

TRust not vnto thy *riches, and say not, I haue enough for my life: [for it shall not helpe in the time of vengeance & indignation.]

2 Follow not thine owne minde and thy strength to walke in the wayes of thine heart:

3 Neither say thou, [Howe haue I had strength?] or who will bring mee vnder for my workes? For God the auenger will reuenge the wrong done by thee.

4 And say not, I haue sinned, and what euill hath come vnto me? for the Almightie is a patient rewarder, but hee will not leaue thee vnpunished.

5 Because thy sinne is forgiuen, be not without feare, to heape sinne vpon sinne.

6 And say not, The mercie of God is great: he will forgiue my manifolde sinnes: for mercie and wrath come from him, and his indignation commeth downe vpon sinners.

7 Make no tarying to turne vnto the Lorde, and put not off from day to day: for suddenly shall the wrath of the Lord breake foorth, and in thy securitie thou shalt bee destroyed, and thou shalt perish in time of vengeance.

8 Trust not in wicked riches: for they shall not helpe thee in the day of punishment [and vengeance.]

9 Be not caried about with euery wind, and goe not into euery way: for so doeth the sinner that hath a double tongue.

10 Stand fast in thy sure vnderstanding [and in the way and knowledge of the Lorde] and haue but one maner of word, [and followe the word of peace and righteousnesse.

11 Be humble to heare the word of God, that thou mayest vnderstand it, and make a true answere with wisedome.]

12 *Bee swift to heare good things, and let thy life be pure, and giue a patient answere. James 1.19.

13 If thou hast vnderstanding, answere thy neighbour: if not, lay thine hande vpon thy mouth, [least thou be trapped in an vndiscreet word, and so be blamed.]

14 Honour and shame is in the talke, and the tongue of a man causeth him to fall.

15 Bee not counted a *talebearer, and lie not in waite with thy tongue: for shame [and repentance] folow the thiefe, and an euil condemnation is ouer him that is double tongued: [but he that is a backbiter shall be hated, enuied and confounded.] Leui.19.16, 16 Doe not rashly, neither in smal things nor in great.

CHAP. VI.

1 It is the propertie of a sinner to be euil tongued. 6 Of friendship. 33 Desire to be taught.

BE not of a friend [thy neighbours] *enemie: for such shall haue an euill name, shame and reproch, and he shall bee in infamie as the wicked that hath a double tongue.

a For that is against the rule of charitie, which loueth all, and hateth no thing but onely sinne,

2 Bee not proude in the denice of thine owne minde, least thy soule rent thee as ᵇa bull, b As a bull teareth in pieces a yong tree with his hornes, so thou trusting in thine own wisdome, and standing in thine owne conceit, because of thy wit, thy power, or riches, shouldest destroy thy selfe.

3 And eate vp thy leaues, and destroy thy fruite, and so thou bee left as a dry tree [in the wildernesse.]

4 For a wicked soule destroyeth him that hath it, and maketh him to bee laughed to scorne of his enemies, [and bringeth him to the portion of the vngodly.]

5 A sweet talke multiplieth the friends [and pacifieth them that be at variance,] and a sweet tongue increaseth much good talke.

6 Hold friendship with many, neuertheless, haue but one counseller of a thousand.

7 If thou gettest a friend, proue him first, and be not hastie to credite him.

8 For some man is a friend for his owne occasion, and will not abide in the day of thy trouble.

9 And there is some friende that turneth to enmitie, & taketh part against thee, and in contention he will declare thy shame.

10 Againe some *friend is but a companion at the table, and in the day of thine affliction he continueth not.

Chap.8 Chap.37.5.

11 But in thy prosperitie hee will be as thou thy selfe, and will vse libertie ouer thy seruants.

12 If thou be brought lowe, he will be against thee, and will hide himselfe from thy face.

Or, pure by. Psal.1.

13 Depart from thine enemies, and beware of thy friends.

14 A faithfull friend is a strong defence, and he that findeth such a one, findeth a treasure.

15 A faithfull friend ought not to be changed for any thing, and the weight [of golde and siluer] is not to be compared to the goodnesse [of his faith.]

16 A faith-

16 A faithfull friende is the medicine of life [and immortalitie,] and they that feare the Lorde, shall finde him.

17 Who so feareth the Lorde, shall direct his friendship aright, and as his owne selfe, so shall his friend be.

18 ¶ My sonne, receyue doctrine from thy youth vp: so shalt thou finde wisedome [which shall endure] till thine olde age.

19 Go to her as one that ploweth, and soweth, and waite for her good fruits: for thou shalt haue but litle labour in her woorke: but thou shalt eate of her fruites right soone.

20 Howe exceeding sharpe is shee to the vnlearned? hee that is without vnderstanding, will not remayne with her.

21 Vnto such one she is as a fine touchstone, and he casteth her from him without delay.

22 For they haue the name of wisedome, but there be but few that haue knowledge of her.

23 [For with them that knowe her, she abideth vnto the appearing of God.]

24 Giue eare, my sonne: receiue my doctrine, and refuse not my counsell, 25 And put thy feete into her linkes, and thy necke into her chaine.

26 Bowe downe thy shoulder vnto her, and beare her, and be not wearie of her bands.

27 Come vnto her with thy whole heart, and keepe her wayes with all thy power.

28 Seeke after her, and search her, and shee shalbe shewed thee: and when thou hast gotten her, forsake her not.

29 For at the last thou shalt finde rest in her, and that shalbe turned to thy ioy.

30 Then shall her fetters be a strong defence for thee, [and a sure foundation] & her chaines a glorious raiment.

31 For there is a golden ornament in her, and her bands are the laces of purple colour.

32 Thou shalt put her on as a robe of honour, and shalt put her vpon thee as a crowne of ioy.

33 My sonne, if thou wilt, thou shalt bee taught, and if thou wilt apply thy minde, thou shalt be wittie.

34 If thou loue to heare, thou shalt receiue [doctrine,] and if thou delight in hearing, thou shalt be wise.

35 Stand with the multitude of the elders, which are wise, and ioyne with him that is wise.

36 * Desire to heare all godly talke, and let not the graue sentences of knowledge escape thee. Chap 8.9.

37 And if thou seest a man of vnderstanding, get thee soone vnto him, and let thy foote weare the steps of his doores.

38 Let thy minde bee vpon the ordinances of the Lord, and be ‖ continually * occupied in his commaundements: so shall he establish thine heart, and giue thee wisedome at thine owne desire. *‖ Or, watch. * Psal.1, 2, 3.*

CHAP. VII.

2 We must forsake euil, & yet not iustifie our selues. 23 The behauior of the wise toward his wife, his friend, his children, his seruants, his father and mother.

DOe no euill: so shall no harme come vnto thee,

2 Depart from the thing that is wicked, and euil shall turne away from thee.

3 My sonne, sowe not vpon the furrowes of vnrighteousnes, least that thou reape them seuen fold.

4 Aske not of the Lord preeminence, neither of the King the seate of honour.

5 * Iustifie not thy selfe before the Lord: [for he knoweth thine heart,] and boast not thy wisdom in the presence of the King. Iob 9.2. psal.143.2. eccles.7 18.

6 Seeke not to be made a Iudge, least thou bee not able to take away iniquitie, and least thou, fearing the person of the mighty, shouldest commit an offence against thine vprightnesse. luke 18.11.

7 Offend not against the multitude of a city, and cast not thy selfe among the people.

8 * Bind not two sinnes together: for in one sinne shalt thou not be vnpunished. Chap.5.5.

CHAP. X.

1 Of Kings and Iudges. 7 Pride and couetouſneſſe are to be abhorred. 28 Labour is prayſed.

A Wiſe iudge will inſtruct his people with diſcretion: ℘ gouernance of a prudent man is well ordered.
2 As the Iudge of the people is himſelfe, ſo are his officers, and what maner of man the ruler of the citie is, ſuch are all they that dwell therein.
1. King. 12. 2. 13, 14.
3 * An vnwiſe King deſtroyeth his people, but where they that be in authoritie, are men of vnderſtanding, there the citie proſpereth.
4 The gouernement of the earth is in the hand of the Lord, [and all iniquitie of the nations is to be abhorred,] and when time is, he will ſet vp a profitable ruler ouer it.
5 In the hand of God is the proſperitie of man, and vpon the ſcribes will he lay his honour.
Leuit. 19, 17.
6 * Be not angry for any wrong, with thy neighbour, and doe nothing by iniurious practiſes.
7 Pride is hateful before God and man, and by both doeth one commit iniquitie.
Iere. 27. 6. dan, 4. 14.
8 * Becauſe of vnrighteous dealing, and wrongs and riches gotten by deceit, the kingdome is tranſlated from one people to another.
9 There is nothing worſe then a couetous man: [why art thou proude, O earth and aſhes: there is not a more wicked thing, then to loue money:] for ſuch one would euen ſell his ſoule, and for his life euery one is compelled to pull out his owne bowels.
10 [All tyrannie is of ſmall indurance, and the diſeaſe that is hard to heale is grieuous to the Phiſition.]
11 The Phiſition cutteth off the ſore diſeaſe, and he that is to day a King, to morrowe is dead.
12 Why is earth and aſhes proude, ſeeing that when a man dyeth, he is the heire of ſerpents, beaſtes and wormes?
13 The beginning of mans pride, is to fall away from God, and to turne away his heart from his maker.
14 For pride is the originall of ſinne, and he that hath it, ſhall powre out abomination, till at laſt he be ouerthrowen: therefore the Lorde bringeth the perſwaſions [of the wicked] to diſhonour, and deſtroyeth them in the end.
Luke 1. 52. & 14. 11. & 18. 14. 1. Samuel 2, 7, 8.
15 The Lord hath * caſt downe the thrones of the [proude] princes, and ſet vp the meeke in their ſtead.
16 The Lorde plucketh vp the rootes of the [proud] nations, and planteth the lowly with glory among them.
17 The Lord ouerthroweth the lands of the heathen, and deſtroyeth them vnto the foundations of the earth: he cauſeth them to wither away, and deſtroyeth them, and maketh their memoriall to ceaſe out of the earth.
18 [God deſtroyeth the memoriall of the proude, and leaueth the remembrance of the humble.]
19 Pride was not created in men, neither wrath in the generation of women.
20 There is a ſeede of man, which is an honourable ſeede: the honourable ſeede are they that feare the Lord: there is a ſeede of man, which is without honour: the ſeede without honour, are they that tranſgreſſe the commandements of the Lord: it is a ſeede that remaineth, which feareth the Lord, and a faire plant, that lone him: but they are ſeede without honour, that deſpiſe the lawe, and a deceiueable ſeede that breake the commandements.
21 He that is the chiefe among brethren, is honourable: ſo are they that feare the Lord in his ſight.
22 The feare of the Lorde cauſeth that the kingdome faileth not, but the kingdome is loſt by cruelte and pride.
23 The feare of the Lord is the glory as well of the rich and the noble, as of the poore.
24 It is not meete to deſpiſe the poore man that hath vnderſtanding, neither is it conuenient to magnifie the rich that is a wicked man.
25 The great man and the iudge, and the man of authoritie, are honourable, yet is there none of them greater, then he that feareth the Lord.

27 Seeke not excuſes when thou ſhouldeſt doe thy worke, neither be aſhamed thereof through pride in the time of aduerſitie.
Pro. 12, 9, 11
28 * Better is hee that laboureth and hath plenteouſneſſe of all things, then he that is gorgeous, and wanteth bread.
29 Thy ſonne, get thy ſelfe prayſe by meekeneſſe, and eſteeme thy ſelfe as thou deſerueſt.
30 Who will count him iuſt that ſinneth againſt himſelfe? or honour him, that diſhonoureth his owne ſoule?
31 The poore is honoured for his knowledge [and his feare,] but the rich is had in reputation becauſe of his goods.
32 He that is honourable in pouertie, howe much more ſhall he be when he is rich? and he that is vnhoneſt being rich, howe much more will he be ſo, when he is in pouertie?

God.]

Iob 1.21. eſek.28.4. 14 * Proſperitie and aduerſitie, life & death, pouertie and riches, come of the Lord.

15 Wiſedome and knowledge, and vnder-ſtanding of the Lawe are of the Lord: loue and good workes come of him.

16 Errour and darkeneſſe are appointed for ſinners, and they that exalt themſelues in euill, ware olde in euill.

17 The gift of the Lorde remaineth for the godly, and his good will giueth proſperitie for euer.

Luke 12.19. 18 ¶ Some man is rich by his care and ni-gardſhip, and this is the portion of his wages,

19 In that he ſaith, * I haue gotten reſt, and nowe will I eate continually of my goods, yet he conſidereth not that the time draweth neere, that he muſt leaue all theſe things vnto other men, and die himſelfe.

20 Stand thou in thy ſtate, and exerciſe thy ſelfe therein, and remaine in thy worke vnto thine age.

21 Marueile not at the workes of ſinners, but truſt in the Lord, and abide in thy labour:
for it is an eaſie thing in the ſight of the Lorde, ſuddenly to make a poore man rich.

22 The bleſſing of the Lord is in the wages of the godly, and he maketh his proſperitie ſoone to flouriſh.

23 ¶ Say not, What profite and pleaſure ſhall I haue? and what good things ſhall I haue hereafter?

24 Againe ſay not, I haue ynough, and poſſeſſe many things, and what euill can come to me hereafter?

Chap.18,24. 25 * In thy good ſtate remember aduerſitie, and in aduerſitie forget not proſperitie.

26 For it is an eaſie thing vnto the Lord in the day of death to reward a man according to his waies.

27 The aduerſitie of an houre maketh one to forget pleaſure: and in a mans ende, his workes are diſcouered.

28 Iudge none bleſſed before his death: for a man ſhalbe knowen by his children.

29 Bring not euery man into thine houſe:
for the deceitfull haue many trames, [and are like ſtomackes that belche ſtinkingly.]

30 As a partrich is taken vnder a baſket, [and the hinde is taken in the ſnare,] ſo is the heart of the proud man, which like a ſpie watcheth for thy fall.

31 For he lieth in waite and turneth good vnto euill, and in things worthy praiſe he will finde ſome fault.

32 Of one litle ſparke is made a great fire,
[and of one deceitfull man is blood increaſed:]
for a ſinfull man layeth waite for blood.

33 Beware of a wicked man: for he imagineth wicked things to bring thee into a perpetuall ſhame.

34 Lodge a ſtranger, and he will deſtroy thee with vnquietneſſe, and driue thee from thine owne.

CHAP. XII.

1. Vnto whom we ought to doe good. 10 Enemies ought not to be truſted

When thou wilt doe good, know to whom thou doeſt it, ſo ſhalt thou be thanked for thy benefites.

Gal.6.10. 1.tim.5.8. 2 * Doe good vnto the righteous, and thou ſhalt finde [great] reward, though not of him, yet of the moſt High.

3 He cannot haue good that continueth in euill, and giueth no almes: [for the moſt High hateth the ſinners, and hath mercie vpon them that repent.]

4 Giue vnto ſuch as feare God, and receiue not a ſinner.

5 Doe well vnto him that is lowly, but giue not to the vngodly: holde backe thy head, and giue it not vnto him, leaſt he ouercome thee thereby: elſe thou ſhalt receiue twiſe as much euill for all the good that thou doeſt vnto him.

6 For the moſt High hateth the wicked, and will repay vengeance vnto the vngodly, and keepeth them againſt the day of horrible vengeance.

7 Giue vnto the good, and receiue not the ſinner.

8 A friend cannot be knowen in proſperitie, neither can an enemie be vnknowen in aduer-ſitie.

9 When a man is in wealth, it grieueth his enemies, but in heauineſſe and trouble a mans verie friend will depart from him.

10 Truſt neuer thine enemie: for like as an yron ruſteth, ſo doeth his wickedneſſe.

11 And though he make much crouching and kneeling, yet aduiſe thy ſelfe, & beware of him, and thou ſhalt be to him, as he that wipeth a glaſſe, and thou ſhalt knowe that all his ruſt hath not bene well wiped away.

12 Set him not by thee, leſt he deſtroy thee, and ſtand in thy place.

13 Neither ſet him at thy right hand, leaſt he ſeeke thy roume, and thou at the laſt remember my wordes, and be pricked with my ſayings.

Chap.7.8. and 21,1. 14 * Who not two ſinnes together: for there ſhall not one be vnpuniſhed.

15 Who

15 Who will haue pitie of the charmer, that is stinged of the serpent? or of all such as come neere the beasts? so is it with him that keepeth companie with a wicked man, and wrappeth himselfe in his sinnes.

16 For a season will he bide with thee: but if thou stumble, he tarieth not.

Isre.41.6. 17 *An enemie is sweete in his lips: he can make many good words, & speake many good things: yea, he can weepe with his eyes, but in his heart he imagineth how to throw thee into the pit: and if hee may finde opportunitie, hee will not be satisfied with blood.

18 If aduersitie come vpon thee, thou shalt finde him there first, and though hee pretend to helpe thee, yet shall he undermine thee: he will shake his head, and clap his hands, & will make many words, and disguise his countenance.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The companies of the proud and of the rich are to be eschewed. 15 The loue of God, 17 Like doe companie with their like.

Deu.7.2. HE * that toucheth pitch, shal be defiled with it: and he that is familiar with the proud, shalbe like vnto him.

2 Burthen not thy selfe aboue thy power, whilest thou liuest, and companie not with one that is mightier, and richer then thy selfe: for howe agree the kettle and the earthen pot together? for if the one be smitten against the other, it shalbe broken.

3 The rich dealeth vnrighteously, & threatneth withall: but the poore being oppressed must intreat: if the rich haue done wrong, hee must yet be intreated: but if the poore haue done it, he shall straightwayes be threatned.

4 If thou be for his profite, he vseth thee: but if thou haue nothing, he will forsake thee.

5 If thou haue any thing, hee will liue with thee: yea, he will make thee a bare man, and will not care for it.

6 If hee haue neede of thee, he will defraude thee, and will laugh at thee, and put thee in hope, and giue thee all good wordes, and say, What wantest thou?

7 Thus will he shame thee in his meate, vntil hee haue spit thee cleane vp twise or thrise, and at the last he will laugh thee to scorne: afterward when he seeth thee, hee will forsake thee, and shake his head at thee.

8 [Submit thy selfe vnto God, and wait vpon his hand.]

9 Beware that thou bee not deceiued in thine owne conceite, and bethought downe by thy simplenesse: [be not too humble in thy wisdome.]

10 ¶ If thou be called of a mightie man, absent thy selfe: so shall he call thee the more oft.

11 Presse not thou vnto him, that thou bee not shut out, but goe not thou farre off, least he forget thee.

12 Withdraw not thy selfe from his speech, but beleeue not his many wordes: for with much communication will hee tempt thee, and laughingly will he grope thee.

13 He is vnmercifull, and keepeth not promise: hee will not spare to doe thee hurt, and to put thee in prison.

14 Beware, & take good heed: for thou walkest in perill of thine enterthrowing: when thou heareſt this, awake in thy sleepe.

15 Loue the Lorde all thy life, and call vpon him for thy saluation.

16 ¶ Euery beast loueth his like, and euery man loueth his neighbour.

17 All fleth will resort to their like, and euery man will keepe companie with such as hee is himselfe.

18 How can the wolfe agree with the lambe? no more can the vngodly with the righteous.

19 What felowship hath ‖ hyena with a dog? and what peace is betweene the riche and the poore?

20 As the wilde asse is the Lions praye in the wildernesse, so are poore men the meate of the rich.

21 As the proud hate humilitie, so do the rich abhorre the poore.

22 If a rich man fall, his friends set him vp againe: but when the poore falleth, his friends driue him away.

23 If a rich man offend, hee hath many helpers: hee speaketh proude wordes, and yet men iustifie him: but if a poore man faile, they rebuke him, and though he speake wisely, yet can it haue no place.

24 When the rich man speaketh, euery man holdeth his tongue: and looke what hee saieth, they praise it vnto the cloudes: but if the poore man speake, they say, What fellow is this? and if he do amisse, they will destroy him.

25 Riches are good vnto him that hath no sinne [in his conscience,] and pouertie is euill in the mouth of the vngodly.

26 The heart of a man changeth his countenance, whether it be in good or euill.

27 A cheerefull countenance is a token of a good heart: for it is an hard thing to know the secrets of the thought.

‖ Which is a wilde beast that counterfeiteth the voyce of men, and so entiseth the out of their houses and deuoureth them.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The offence of the tongue. 17 Man is but a vaine thing. 21 Happie is he that continueth in wisedome.

BLessed is the man * that hath not fallen by [the worde of] his mouth, and is not tormented with the sorow of sinne. Chap.19.6, 16, Iam.3.2.

2 Blessed is he that is not condemned in his conscience, and is not fallen from his hope in the Lord.

3 Riches are not comely for a nigarde, and what should an enuious man doe with money?

4 He that gathereth together from his own soule, heapeth together for others, that will make good cheere with his goods.

5 He that is wicked vnto himselfe, to whom will he be good? for such one can haue no pleasure of his goode.

6 There is nothing woorse, then when one enuieth himselfe: and this is a rewarde of his wickednesse.

7 And if he do any good, he doth it not knowing thereof, and against his will, and at the last he declareth his wickednesse.

8 The enuious man hath a wicked looke: he turneth away his face, and despiseth men.

12 Remember that death tarrieth not, and that the [a] couenant of the graue is not ſhewed vnto thee.

13 * Doe good vnto thy friend before thou die, and according to thine habilitie ſtretch out thine hand, and giue him.

14 Defraud not thy ſelfe of the good day, and let not the portion of the good deſires ouerpaſſe thee.

15 Shalt thou not leaue thy trauailes vnto another, and thy labours for the diuiding of the heritage?

16 Giue & take & ſanctifie thy ſoule: [worke thou righteouſnes before thy death:] for in the hell there is no meate to finde.

17 ¶ * All fleſh wareth olde, as a garment, and this is the condition of all times, Thou ſhalt die the death.

18 As the greene leaues on a thick tree, ſome fal, and ſome growe, ſo is the generation of fleſh and blood: one commeth to an end, and another is borne.

19 All corruptible things ſhall faile, and the worker therof ſhal go with all.

20 [Euery excellent worke ſhall be iuſtified, and he that worketh it, ſhal haue honour thereby.]

26 And hee ſhall remaine in the lodging of good men, and ſhall ſet his children vnder her couering, and ſhall dwell vnder her branches.

27 By her he ſhalbe couered from the heate, and in her glory ſhall he dwell.

CHAP. XV.

1 The goodnes that followeth him which feareth God. 8 God reiecteth & caſteth off the ſinner. 11 God is not the author of euill.

HE that feareth the Law, will doe good: and he that hath the knowledge of the Law, will keepe it ſure.

2 As an [honourable] mother ſhall ſhe meet him, and ſhe, [a] as his wife married of a virgin, will receiue him.

3 With the bread [of life] and vnderſtanding ſhall ſhe feede him, and giue him the * water of [wholeſome] wiſdome to drinke.

4 He ſhal aſſure himſelfe in her, and ſhal not be moued, and ſhall holde himſelfe faſt by her, and ſhall not be confounded.

5 She ſhall exalt him aboue his neighbours, and in the middes of the congregation ſhall ſhe open his mouth: [with the ſpirite of wiſdome, and vnderſtanding ſhall ſhe fill him, and clothe him with the garment of glory.]

6 Shee ſhall cauſe him to inherite ioy, and the crowne of gladneſſe, and an euerlaſting name.

7 But fooliſh men will not take holde vpon her: [but ſuch as haue vnderſtanding will meet her:] the ſinners ſhall not ſee her.

8 For ſhe is farre from pride [and deceit,] and men that lie, cannot remember her: [but men of truth ſhall haunt her, and ſhall proſper euen vnto the beholding of God.]

9 Praiſe is not ſeemely in the mouth of the ſinner: for that is not ſent of the Lord.

10 But if prayſe come of wiſdome, [and be plenteous in a faithfull mouth] then the Lorde will proſper it.

11 Say not thou, It is through the Lord that I turne backe: for thou oughteſt not to doe the things that he hateth.

12 Say not thou, He hath cauſed me to erre: for he hath no need of the vnfull man.

13 The Lord hateth all abomination [of error:] and they that feare God, loue it not.

14 * He made man from the beginning, and left him in the hand of his counſel [& gaue him his commandements and precepts.]

15 If thou wilt, thou ſhalt obſerue the commandements, and reſiſte thy good will.

16 He hath ſet water & fire before thee: ſtretch out thine hand vnto which thou wilt.

17 * Before man is life and death, [good and euill:] what him liketh, ſhalbe giuen him.

18 For the wiſdome of the Lord is great, and he is mighty in power, and beholdeth al things [continually.]

19 * And the eyes [of the Lorde] are vpon them that feare him, & he knoweth al the workes of man.

20 He hath commanded no man to doe vngodly, neither hath he giuen any man licence to ſinne: [for hee deſireth not a multitude of miſdeels, and vnprofitable children.]

CHAP. XVI.

1 Of vnhappie and wicked children. 17 No man can hide himſelfe from God. 24 An exhortation to the receiuing of inſtruction.

DEſire not the multitude of vnprofitable children, neither delight in vngodly children: though they be many, reioyce not in the, except the feare of the Lord be with them.

2 Truſt not thou to their life, neither reſt vpon their multitude.

3 For one that is iuſt, is better then a thouſand ſuch, and better it is to die without children, then to leaue behinde him vngodly children.

4 For by one that hath vnderſtanding, ſhall the citie be inhabited: but the ſtocke of the wicked ſhalbe waſted incontinently.

5 Many ſuch things haue I ſeene with mine eyes, and mine eare hath heard greater things then theſe.

6 * In the congregation of the vngodly ſhall a fire be kindled, and among vnfaithfull people ſhall the wrath be ſet on fire.

7 * Hee ſpared not the olde giants which were rebellious, truſting to their own ſtrength, 8 * Neither ſpared hee whereas Lot dwelt, thoſe whom he abhorred for their pride.

9 He had no pitie vpon the people that were deſtroyed, and puffed vp in their ſinnes.

11 Therefore if there be one stiffnecked among the people, it is maruell if hee scape unpunished: for mercie and wrath are with him: he is mightie to forgiue, and to powre out displeasure.

Chap.5.6. 12 *As his mercie is great, so is his punishment also: hee iudgeth a man according to his workes.

13 The ungodly shall not escape with his spoile, and the patience of the godly shall not be delayed.

14 He will giue place to all good deedes, and euery one shall finde according to his workes, [and after the vnderstanding of his pilgrimage.]

15 The Lorde hardened Pharao, that hee should not knowe him, and that his workes should be known vpon the earth vnder the heauen.

16 His mercie is knowen to all creatures: he hath separate his light from the darknes with an adamant.

17 Say not thou, I will hide my selfe from the Lord: for who will thinke vpon me from aboue? I shal not be knowen in so great an heape of people: for what is my soule among such an infinite number of creatures?

2.Pet.3.10. 1.king.8.27. 2.chro.6,18. 18 Beholde, the heauen, and the *heauen of heauens, which are for God, the depth, and the earth, and all that therein is, shall be moued when he shall visite.

19 All the world which is created and made by his will, the mountaines also, and the foundations of the earth shall shake for feare, when the Lord looketh vpon them.

20 These things doeth no heart vnderstand worthily, [but hee vnderstandeth euerie heart.]

21 And who vnderstandeth his wayes? and the storme that no man can see? for the most part of his works are hid.

22 Who can declare the workes of his righteousnesse? or who can abide them? for his ordinance is farre off, and the trying out of all things faileth.

23 He that is humble of heart, will consider these things: but an vnwise and erronious man casteth his minde vpon foolish things.

24 My sonne, hearken vnto me, and learne knowledge, and marke my wordes with thine heart.

25 I will declare thee weightie doctrine, and I will instruct thee exactly in knowledge.

26 The Lord hath set his workes in good order from the beginning, and part of them hath hee sundred from the other when hee first made them.

27 He hath garnished his workes for euer, and their beginnings so long as they shall endure, they are not hungrie nor wearied in their labours, nor cease from their offices.

28 None of them hindereth another, neyther was any of them disobient vnto his wordes.

29 After this the Lord looked vpon the earth, and filled it with his good things.

30 Withall maner of liuing beasts hath hee couered the face therof, and they returne into it againe.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The creation of man, and the goodnes that God hath done vnto him, 20 Of almes, 22 and repentance.

THe *Lord hath created man of the earth, and turned him vnto it againe. Gen.1.27.& 5.2.wisd.2.

2 He gaue him the number of dayes and certeine times, and gaue him power of the things that are vpon earth. 1.cor.11.7. col.3.10.

3 Hee clothed them with strength, as they had neede, and made them according to his image.

4 He made all flesh to feare him, so that hee had the dominion ouer the beasts, and foules.

5 [*He created out of him an helper like vnto himselfe,] and gaue them discretion, and tongue, and eyes, eares, and an heart to vnderstand, and stirip hee gaue them a spirite, and seuenthly hee gaue them speech to declare his works, Gen.2.22. 1.cor.11.9.

6 And he filled them with knowledge of vnderstanding, and shewed them good and euill.

7 He set his eye vpon their hearts, declaring vnto them his noble works,

8 And gaue them occasion to reioyce perpetually in his miracles, that they should prudently declare his workes, and that the elect should praise his holy name together.

9 Beside this, hee gaue them knowledge, and gaue them the Lawe of life for an heritage, that they might nowe knowe that they were amortall.

a Through their owne transgression.

10 Hee made an euerlasting couenant with them, and shewed them his iudgements.

11 Their eyes sawe the maiestie of his glory, and their eares heard his glorious voyce.

12 And hee saide vnto them, Beware of all vnrighteous things. * Hee gaue euery man also a commaundement concerning his neighbour. Exod.20.16, 17.& 22.23

13 Their wayes are euer before him, and are not hid from his eyes.

14 Euery man from his youth is giuen to euill, and their stonie heartes cannot become bflesh.

b That is, soft and gentle, for the holy Ghost to write his lawes in.

15 Hee appointed a ruler vpon euerie people, when hee diuided the nations of the whole earth.

16 * And hee did chuse Israel, as a peculiar people to himselfe, whom hee nourisheth with discipline as his first borne, and giueth him most louing light, and doth not forsake him. Deut.4.20, and 10.15.

17 All their woorkes are as the sunne before him, and his eyes are continually vpon their wayes.

18 None of their vnrighteousnesse is hidde from him, but all their sinnes are before the Lord.

19 And as he is mercifull, and knoweth his worke, he doth not leaue them nor forsake them, but spareth them.

20 * The almes of a man is as a thing sealed vp before him, and hee keepeth the good deedes of man as the apple of the eye, and giueth repentaunce to their sonnes and daughters. Chap.29.15

21 *At the last shall hee arise, and rewarde them, and shall repay their reward vpon their heads. Mat.25.35

22 *But vnto them that will repent, hee giueth them grace to returne, and exhorteth such Act.3.19

such as faile, with patience, [and sendeth them the portion of the righteous.]

Ierem.3,12. 23 *Returne then vnto the Lord, and forsake thy sinnes: make thy prayer before his face, and take away the offence.

24 Turne againe vnto the most High: for he will bring thee from darkenesse to wholesome light: forsake thine vnrighteousnesse, and hate greatly all abomination.

25 [Know the righteousnesse & iudgements of God: stand in the portion that is set forth for thee, and in the prayer of the most Hie God, and goe in the parts of the holy word with such as be liuing, and confesse God.]

Psa.6.5.isa.38.18,19. 26 *Who can prayse the most High in the hell, as doe all they that liue and confesse him?

27 [Abide not thou in the errour of the vngodly, but praise the Lord before death.]

28 Thanke-liuelesse perisheth from the dead, as though he were not: but the liuing, and hee that is sound of heart, prayseth the Lorde, [and reioyceth in his mercy.]

29 How great is the louing kindnesse of the Lord our God, and his compassion vnto such as turne vnto him in holinesse!

30 For all things cannot bee in men, because the sonne of man is not immortall, [and they take pleasure in the vanitie of wickednesse.]

31 What is more cleere then the sunne? yet shall it faile.

32 So flesh and blood that thinketh euill, [shalbe reputed.]

33 Hee seeth the power of the high heauen, and all men are but earth and ashes.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The marueilous workes of God. 6, 7 The miserie and wretchednesse of man. 9 Against God ought we not to complaine. 21 The performing of vowes.

Gen.1,1. HE that liueth for euer, *made all things together: the Lord who only is iust, and there is none other but he, [and hee remaineth a victorious king for euer.]

2 He ordereth the worlde with the power of his hand, and all things obey his will: for he gouerneth all things by his power, and diuideth the holy things from the prophane.

3 To whome hath hee giuen power to expresse his works? who will seeke out the ground of his noble acts?

4 Who shal declare the power of his greatnesse? or who will take vpon him to tell out his mercie?

5 As for the woonderous workes of the Lorde, there may nothing bee taken from them, neither can any thing bee put vnto them, neither may the ground of them bee founde out.

6 But when a man hath done his best, hee must beginne againe, and when hee thinketh to come to an ende, he must goe againe to his labour.

7 ¶ What is man? whereto serueth hee? what good or euill can he doe?

Psal.90,10. 8 * If the number of a mans dayes bee an hundreth yeeres, it is much: and no man hath certeine knowledge of his death.

9 As droppes of raine are vnto the Sea, and as a gravell stone is in comparison of the sand, so are a * thousand yeeres to the dayes eternitie. 2.Pet.3.8.

10 Therefore is [God] patient with them, and powreth out his mercie vpon them.

11 Hee sawe and perceiued, that [the arrogancie of their heart, and their ruine was euill: therefore heaped hee vp his mercie vpon them, and shewed them the way of righteousnesse.]

12 The mercie that a man hath, reacheth to his neighbour: but the mercie of the Lorde is vpon all flesh: he chasteneth, and nurtereth, and teacheth, and bringeth backe, as a shepheard his flocke.

13 He hath mercie on them that receiue discipline, and that diligently seeke after his iudgements.

14 ¶ My sonne, when thou doest good, reproue not: and whatsoeuer thou giuest, vse no discomfortable words.

15 Shall not the dewe asswage the heate? so is a word better then a gift.

16 Lo, is not a word better then a good gift? but a gracious man giueth them both.

17 A foole will reproch churlishly, and a gift of the enuious pineth out the eyes.

18 [Get thee righteousnes before thou come to iudgement:] learne before thou speake, and vse physicke or euer thou be sicke.

19 * Examine thy selfe before thou bee iudged, and in the day of the visitation thou shalt finde mercie. 1.Cor.11.31.

20 Humble thy selfe before thou be sicke, and whiles thou maist yet sinne, shewe thy conuersion.

21 Let nothing let thee to pay thy vowe in time, and deferre not vnto death to be reconciled: [for the rewarde of God endureth for euer.]

22 Before thou prayest, prepare thy self, and be not as one that tempteth the Lord.

23 Thinke vpon the * wrath, that shall be at the ende, and the houre of vengeance, when he shall turne away his face. Chap.7.17. 36.

24 * When thou hast enough, remember the time of hunger: and when thou art rich, thinke vpon pouertie and neede. Chap.11.25

25 From the morning vntill the euening the time is changed, and all such things are soone done before the Lord.

26 A wise man feareth in all things, and in the dayes of transgression hee keepeth himselfe from sinne: but the foole doeth not obserue the time.

27 ¶ Euery wise man knoweth wisedome, and knowledge, and prayseth him that findeth her.

28 They that haue vnderstanding, deale wisely in wordes: [they vnderstand the truth and righteousnesse,] and powre out wise modeste graue sentences for mans life.

29 The chiefe authorite of speaking is of the Lorde alone: for a mortall man hath but a dead heart.

30 ¶ * Follow not thy lusts, but turne thee from thine owne appetites. Rom.6.6. and 13,14.

31 For if thou giuest thy soule her desires, it shall make thine enemies that enuie thee, to laugh thee to scorne.

32 Take not thy pleasure in great voluptuousnesse, businesse, and intangle not thy selfe with such companye.

33 Become not a begger by making bankets of that that thou hast borowed, and so leave nothing in thy purse: else thou shouldest slanderously lye in waite for thine owne life.

CHAP. XIX.

2 Wine and whordome bring men to pouertie. 6 In thy wordes vse discretion. 22 The difference of the wisedome of God and man. 27 Whereby thou mayest know what is in man.

A labouring man that is giuen to drunkennesse, shall not be rich: and he that contemneth small things, shall fall by little and little.

2 *Wine and women leade wise men out of the way, [and put men of vnderstanding to reproofe.] Gen.19.33. 1.king.11.1, 2,4.

3 And he that companieth adulterers, shall become impudent: rottennesse and wormes shall haue him to heritage, and he that is too bolde, shall be taken away, and be made a publike example.

4 *He that is hastie to giue credite, is light minded, and he that erreth, sinneth against his owne soule. Iosh.22.11, 12.

5 Who so reioyceth in wickednesse, shall be punished: [he that hateth to be reformed, his life shall be shortened, and he that abhorreth babbling of wordes, quencheth wickednesse:] but he that resisteth pleasures, crowneth his owne soule.

6 He that refraineth his tongue, may line with a troublesome man, and he that hateth babbling, shall haue lesse euill.

7 Rehearse not to an other, that which is tolde vnto thee: so thou shalt not be hindred.

8 Declare not other mens maners, neither to friend nor foe: and if the sinne appertaine not vnto thee, reueile it not.

9 For he will hearken vnto thee, and marke thee, and when he findeth opportunitie, he will hate thee.

10 *If thou hast heard a word [against thy neighbour,] let it dye with thee, and be sure, it will not burst thee. Chap.22.22. and 27.17.

11 A foole trauaileth when he hath heard a thing, as a woman that is about to bring forth a childe.

12 As an arrow that sticketh in ones thigh, so is a word in a fooles heart.

13 *Reproue a friend least he doe euill, and if he haue done it, that he doe it no more. Leuit.19.17. matth.18,15

14 Reproue a friend that he may keepe his tongue: and if he haue spoken, that he say it no more.

15 Tell thy friend his fault: for oft times a slander is raysed, and giue no credence to euery word.

16 A man falleth with his tongue, but not with his will: *and who is he, that hath not offended in his tongue? Iames 3.2.

17 Reproue thy neighbour before thou threaten him, and being without anger, giue place vnto the Lawe of the most High.

18 The feare of the Lorde is the first degree to be receiued of him, and wisedome obteineth his loue.

19 The knowledge of the commaundements of the Lorde is the doctrine of life, and they that obey him, shall receiue the fruite of immortalitie.

20 The feare of the Lorde is all wisedome, and the performing of the Law is perfite wisdome, & the knowledge of his almighty power.

21 If a seruant say vnto his master, I will not doe as it pleaseth thee, though afterward he doe it, he shall displease him that nourisheth him.

22 The knowledge of wickednes is not wisdome, neither is there prudencie where as the counsell of sinners is: but it is rather execrable malice: and the foole is voide of wisdome.

23 He that hath small vnderstanding, and feareth God, is better then one that hath much wisedome, and transgresseth the Lawe of the most High.

24 There is a certaine subtiltie that is fine, but it is vnrighteous: & there is that wresteth the open and manifest lawe: yet there is that is wise and iudgeth righteously.

25 There is some that being about wicked purposes, do bowe downe themselues, and are sadde, whose inward partes burne altogether with deceite: he looketh downe with his face, and faineth himselfe deafe: yet before thou perceiue, he will be vpon thee to hurt thee.

26 And though he be so weake that he can doe thee no harme, yet when he may finde opportunitie, he will doe euill.

27 ¶ A man may be knowen by his looke, and one that hath vnderstanding, may be perceiued by the marking of his countenance.

28 * A mans garment, and his excessiue laughter, and going, declare what person he is. Chap.21.20, 23.

CHAP. XX.

Of correction and repentance. 6 To speake and keepe silence in time. 17 The fall of the wicked. 23 Of lying. 24 The thiefe and the murtherer. 28 Giftes blinde the eyes of the wise.

There is some rebuke that is not comely: a game, some man holdeth his tongue, and he is wise.

2 It is much better to reproue, then to beare euill will, and he that acknowledgeth his fault, shalbe preserued from hurt.

3 As * when a gelded man through lust would defile a maide, so is he that vseth violence in iudgement. Chap.30.20.

4 How good a thing is it, when thou art reproued, to shewe repentance! for so shalt thou escape wilfull sinne.

5 Some man keepeth silence, and is found wise, and some by much babbling becommeth hatefull.

6 Some man holdeth his tongue, because he hath not to answere: and some keepeth silence, wayting a conuenient * time. Eccle.3.7.

7 * A wise man will hold his tongue till he see opportunitie: but a triffler and a foole will regard no time. Chap.32.4.

8 He that vseth many wordes, shalbe abhorred, and he that taketh authoritie to himselfe, shalbe hated.

9 Some man hath oft times prosperitie in wicked things, and sometime a thing that is found, bringeth losse.

10 There is some gift that is not profitable for thee, and there is some gift, whose reward is double.

11 Some

11 Some man humbleth himselfe for glories sake, and some by humblenesse lifteth vp the head.

12 Some man buyeth much for a litle price: for the which he payeth seuen times more.

Chap.6.5. 13 *A wise man with his wordes maketh himselfe to be loued, but the merp tales of fooles shall be powred out.

14 The gift receiued of a foole, shall doe thee no good, neither yet of the enuious for his impoztunitie: for he looketh to receiue many things for one: he giueth little, and he vpbzaydeth much: he openeth his mouth like a towne crier: to day he lendeth, to morowe asketh he againe, and such one is to be hated of God and man.

15 The foole saith, I haue no friend: I haue no thanke for all my good dedes: and they that eate my bread, speake euill of me.

16 Howe oft, and of howe many shall he be laughed to scorne? for he comprehendeth not by right iudgement that which he hath: and it is all one as though he had it not.

17 The fall on a pauiment is very sudden: so shall the fall of the wicked come hastily.

18 A man without grace is as a foolish tale which is oft tolde by the mouth of the ignozant.

19 A wise sentence loseth grace when it commeth out of a fooles mouth: for he speaketh not in due season.

20 Some man sinneth not because of pouertie, and yet is not grieued when he is alone.

21 Some man there is that destroyeth his owne soule, because he is ashamed, and for the regard of persons loseth it.

22 Some man promiseth vnto his friende for shame, and getteth an enemie of him for nought.

Chap.25.2. 23 *A lie is a wicked shame in a man: yet is it oft in the mouth of the vnwise.

24 A theefe is better, then a man that is accustomed to lie: but they both shall haue destruction to heritage.

25 The conditions of liars are vnhoneft, and their shame is euer with them.

26 A wise man shal bring himselfe to honour with his wordes, and he that hath vnderstanding, shall please great men.

Pro. 12.11. and 28.19. 27 *He that tilleth his land, shall increase his heape: [he that worketh righteousnesse, shall be exalted,] and he that pleaseth great men, shall haue pardon of his iniquitie.

Exod.23.8. deut.16.19. 28 *Rewards and giftes blinde the eyes of the wise, and make them dumme, that they can not reprooue faultes.

29 Wisedome that is hid, and treasure that is hoarded vp, what profite is in them both?

30 Better is he that keepeth his ignozance secrete, then a man that hideth his wisedome.

31 The necessarie patience of him that followeth the Lozde, is better then he that gouerneth his life without the Lozd.

3 All iniquitie is as a two edged sword, the wounds whereof cannot be healed.

4 Strife and iniuries waste riches: so the house of the proud shall be desolate.

5 *The prayer of the poore going out of the mouth commeth vnto the eares of the Lord, and iustice is done him incontinently. Exod.3.9. and 22.23.

6 Who so hateth to bee reformed, is in the way of sinners: but hee that feareth the Lozde conuerteth in heart.

7 An eloquent talker is knowen afarre off: but he that is wise, perceiueth when he falleth.

9 *The congregation of the wicked is like towe wrapped together: their ende is a flame of fire to destroy them. Chap.16.6.

10 The way of sinners is made plaine with stones, but at the end thereof is hell, [darknesse and paines.]

11 He that keepeth the Law of the Lord, ruleth his owne affections thereby: and the increase of wisedome is the end of the feare of God. [Or, keepeth the vnderstanding thereof.

12 He that is not wise, will not suffer himselfe to be taught: but there is some wit that increaseth bitternesse.

13 The knowledge of the wise shall abound like water that runneth ouer, and his counsel is like a pure fount aine of life.

14 *The inner parts of a foole are like a broken vessell: he can keepe no knowledge whiles he liueth. Chap.33.5.

15 When a man of vnderstanding heareth a wise word, he will commend it, and increase it: but if an ignozant man heare it, he will disalow it, and cast it behind his backe.

16 The talking of a foole is like a burden in the way, but there is comelinesse in the talke of a wise man.

17 They inquire at the mouth of the wise man in the Congregation, and they shall ponder his wordes in their heart.

18 As is an house that is destroyed, so is wisdome vnto a foole, and the knowledge of the vnwise is as words without order.

19 Doctrine vnto fooles, is as fetters on the feete, and like manicles vpon the right hand.

20 *A foole lifteth vp his voyce with laughter, but a wise man doeth scarce smile secretly. Chap.19. 27,28.

21 Learning is vnto a wise man a iewell of gold, and like a bracelet vpon his right arme.

22 A foolish mans foote is soone in his [neighbours] house: but a man of experience is ashamed to looke in.

23 A foole will peepe in at the doore into the house: but he that is well nourtured, will stand without.

24 It is the point of a foolish man to hearken at the doore: for he that is wise, will be grieued with such dishonour.

25 The lips of talkers will be telling such things as pertaine not vnto them, but the words of such as haue vnderstanding are weighed in the ballance.

26 The heart of fooles is in their mouth: but the mouth of the wise is in their heart.

27 When

27 Whē the vngodly curseth Satan, he curseth his owne soule.

Chap.28,13. 28 * A backbiter defileth his owne soule, and is hated whereseuer he is: [but he that keepeth his tongue, and is discreete, shall come to honour.]

CHAP. XXII.

1 Of the sluggard. 12 Not to speake much to a foole. 16 A good conscience feareth not.

a,b. That is like as the idle stone gathereth mosse and filth: so doth the slouthful both sickness of body and corruption of minde. And as euery man doeth auoyd the filthinesse of doung, and shaketh it off: so doeth he auoyd the companie of idle loiterers, lest he be accounted like vnto them.

A Slouthfull mā is like a a filthie stone, which euery man mocketh at for his shame.

2 A slouthfull man is to be compared to the b dung of oxen, and euery one that taketh it vp, will shake it out of his hand.

3 An euill nurrured sonne is the dishonour of the father: and the daughter is least to be esteemed.

4 A wise daughter is an heritage vnto her husband: but shee that liueth dishonestly, is her fathers heauinesse.

5 Shee that is bolde, dishonoureth both her father and her husbande, [and is not inferiour to the vngodly,] but they both shall despise her.

6 A tale out of time is as musicke in mourning: but wisedome knoweth the seasons of correction and doctrine.

7 Who so teacheth a foole, is as one that gleweth a potsheard together, and as hee that waketh one that sleepeth, from a sound sleepe.

8 If children liue honestly, and haue wherewith, they shal put away the shame of their parents.

9 But if children be proude, with hautinesse and foolishnesse they defile the nobilitie of their kinred.

10 Who so telleth a foole of wisedome, is as a man which speaketh to one that is asleepe: when he hath tolde his tale, he saieth, What is the matter?

Chap.38,16 11 * Weepe for the dead, for hee hath lost the light: so weepe for the foole, for he wanteth vnderstanding: make small weeping for the dead, for he is at rest: but the life of the foole is worse then the death.

12 Seuen dayes doe men moure for him that is dead: but the lamentation for the foole and vngodly [should endure] all the dayes of their life.

13 Talke not much with a foole, and goe not Chap.12.12. to him that hath no vnderstanding, *beware of him least it turne thee to paine, and lest thou be defiled when he shaketh himselfe. Depart from him, and thou shalt finde rest, and shalt not receiue sorow by his foolishnesse.

14 What is heauier then leade? and what other name should a foole haue?

Prou.27.3. 15 * Sand and salt, and a lumpe of yron is easier to beare, then an vnwise, [foolish and vngodly man.]

16 As a frame of wood ioyned together in a building cannot bee loosed with shaking, so the heart that is stablished by aduised counsell, shal feare at no time.

17 The heart that is confirmed by discreete wisedome, is as a faire plaistring on a plaine wall.

18 As reedes that are set vp on high, cannot abide the winde, so the fearefull heart with foolish imagination can endure no feare.

19 Hee that hurteth the eye bringeth foorth teares, and hee that hurteth the heart, bringeth foorth the affection.

20 Who so casteth a stone at the birdes, frayeth them away: and hee that vpbraydeth his friende, breaketh friendship.

21 Though thou drewest a sworde at thy friende, yet despaire not: for there may be a returning to fauour.

22 If thou haue opened thy mouth against thy friend, feare not: for there may be a reconciliation, so that vpbraiding or pryde or disclosing of secrets, or a crafterous woumde doe not let: for by these things euery friend will depart.

23 Be faithfull vnto thy friend in his pouertie, that thou mayest reioyce in his prosperitie. Abide stedfast vnto him in the time of his trouble, that thou mayest bee heire with him in his heritage: for pouertie is not alwaies to be contemned, nor the riche that is foolish, to be had in admiration.

24 As the vapour, and smoke of the chimney goeth before the fire, so euill woordes, [rebukes and threatnings] goe before bloodsheddyng.

25 I will not be ashamed to defend a friend: neither will I hide my selfe from him, though he should doe me harme: whosoeuer heareth it, shall beware of him.

26 Who shall set *a watch before my mouth, Psal.141.3. and a seale of wisedome vpon my lippes, that I fall not suddenly by them, and that my tongue destroy me not?

CHAP. XXIII.

1 A prayer of the authour. 13 Of othes, blasphemie and vnwise communication. 16 Of three kindes of sinnes. 25 Many sinnes proceede of aduulterie. 27 Of the feare of God.

O Lorde, Father and gouernour of all my whole life, leaue mee not to their counsell, and let me not fall by ‖ them. ‖ Or, my lips.

2 Who will correct my thought, and put the doctrine of wisedome in mine heart, that they may not spare me in mine ignorance, neither let ‖ their faults passe? ‖ That is, of the tongue and lips.

3 Least mine ignorances increase, and my sinnes abounde to my destruction, and least I fall before mine aduersarie, and mine enemies reioyce ouer me, whose hope is farre from thy mercie.

4 O Lord, Father and God of my life, [leaue me not in their imagination] neither giue me a proud looke, but turne away from thy seruants a stout minde.

5 Take from me vaine hope, and concupiscence, and retaine him in obedience, that desireth continually to serue thee.

6 Let not the gredinesse of the belly, nor lust of the flesh hold me, and giue not me thy seruant ouer into an impudent minde.

7 ¶ Heare, O yee children, the instruction of a mouth that shal speake truth: who so keepeth it, shall not perish through his lips, [nor be hurt by wicked workes.]

8 The sinner shall be taken by his owne lips: for the euill speaker and the proud doe offend by them.

9 * Accustome not thy mouth to swearing: Exod. 20.7. [for in it there are many falles,] neyther take chap. 27.15. vp for a custome the naming of the Holy mat. 5.33,34. one:

olle: [for thou shalt not bee unpunished for such things.]

10 For as a seruant which is oft punished, cannot be without some starre, so he that sweareth, and nameth God continually, shall not bee faultlesse.

11 A man that vseth much swearing shall be filled with wickednesse, & the plague shal neuer goe from his house: when hee shall offende, his fault shall be vpon him, and if he knowledge not his sinne, he maketh a double offence: and if hee sweare in vaine, he shal not be innocent, but his house shalbe ful of plagues.

12 There is a worde which is clothed with death: God graunt that it bee not found in the heritage of Iacob: but they that feare God, escape all such, and are not wrapped in sinne.

13 Vse not thy mouth to ‖ignorant rashnesse: for therein is the occasion of sinne. ‖Or, inordinate sweating.

14 ¶ Remember thy father and thy mother when thou art set among great men, least thou bee forgotten in their sight, and so through thy custome become a foole, and wish that thou hadst not bene born and curse the day of thy nativitie.

15 * The man that is accustomed to opprobrious wordes, will neuer bee reformed all the dayes of his life. 4. Sam. 16.7.

16 There are two sorts [of men] that abound in sinne, and the thirde bringeth wrath [and destruction:] a minde hote as fire that cannot be quenched, till it bee consumed: an adulterous man that giueth his bodie no rest, till hee haue kindled a fire.

17 (All bread is sweet to a whoremonger: he will not leaue off till he perish)

18 A man that breaketh wedlocke, and thinketh thus in his heart, * Who seeth me? I am compassed about with darknesse: the walles couer me: no body seeth me: whom needs I to feare? the most High will not remember my sinnes: Isa. 29.15.

19 Such a man onely feareth the eyes of men, and knoweth not that the eyes of the Lord are ten thousand times brighter then the sunne, beholding al the waies of men, [and the ground of the deepe,] and considereth the most secrete partes.

20 He knewe all things or euer they were made, and after they be brought to passe also, he looketh vpon them all.

21 * The same man shall be punished in the streetes of the citie, [and shall be chased like a pong horse foale,] and when he thinketh not vpon it, he shall be taken: [thus shall he be put to shame of euery man, because he would not vnderstand the feare of the Lord.] Leuit. 20.10 Deut. 22, 22.

22 And thus shall it goe also with euery wife that leaueth her husband, and getteth inheritance by another.

23 * For first she hath disobeyed the Lawe of the most High, and secondly, she hath trespassed against her owne husband, and thirdly, she hath played the whore in adulterie, and gotten her children by another man. Exod. 20, 14.

24 She shalbe brought out into the Congregation, and examination shall be made of her children.

25 Her children shall not take roote, and her branches shall bring foorth no fruite.

26 A shamefull report shall she leaue, and her reproch shall not be put out.

27 And they that remaine, shall knowe that there is nothing better then the feare of the Lord, and that there is nothing sweeter then to take heed vnto the commandements of the Lord.

28 It is great glory to follow the Lord, and to be receiued of him is long life.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 A praise of wisdome proceeding forth of the mouth of God. 6 Of her workes and place where she resteth. 30 She is giuen to the children of God.

WIsedome shal praise her selfe, [and be honoured in God,] and reioyce in the mids of her people.

2 In the congregation of the most High shal shee open her mouth, and triumph before his power.

3 [In the midst of her people shall shee bee exalted, and wondred at in the holy assemblie.

4 In the multitude of the chosen she shall be commended, and among such as be blessed, shee shall be praised, and shall say,]

5 I am come out of the mouth of the most High, [first borne before all creatures.

6 I caused the light that faileth not, to arise in the heauen,] and couered the earth as a cloud.

7 My dwelling is above in the height, and my throne is in the pillar of the cloud.

8 I alone haue gone round about the compasse of heauen, & haue walked in the bottome of the depth.

9 I possessed the waues of the sea, and all the earth, and all people, and nation, [and with my power haue I troden downe the hearts of all, both high and lowe.] Prou. 8.23. Exod. 31.3. Psal. 132.8.

10 In all these things I sought rest, and a dwelling in some inheritance.

11 So the creatour of all things gaue mee a commandement, and he that made me, appointed me a tabernacle, and sayde, Let thy dwelling be in Iacob, and take thine inheritance in Israel, and roote thy selfe among my chosen.

12 *Hee created me from the beginning, and before the world, and I shall neuer faile: *In the holy habitation haue I serued before him, and so was I stablished in Sion.

13 *In the welbeloued citie gaue hee me rest, and in Ierusalem was my power.

14 I tooke root in an honourable people, euen in the portion of the Lords inheritance.

15 I am set vp on hie like a cedar in Libanus, and as a Cypres tree vpon the mountaines of Hermon.

16 I am exalted like a palme tree ‖about the banks, and as a rose plant in Iericho, as a faire olive tree in a pleasant fielde, and am exalted as a plane tree by the water.

17 I smelled as the cinamom, and as a bagge of spices: I gaue a sweete odour as the best myrre, as galbanum, and onix, and sweete storax, and perfume of incense in an house.

18 As the ‖terebinth, haue I stretched out my branches, and my branches are the branches of honour and grace.

19 *As the vine haue I brought forth [fruit] of sweete sauour, and my flowres are the fruite of honour and riches.

20 I am the mother of beautifull loue, and of ‖Or, in Cades. a Terebinth is a hard tree spread abroad with longboughs, whereout runneth the gumme called a pure turpentine, which clenseth the stomacke of putrified humours, and purifieth the eares: so the wisedome of God declared in his Scriptures, spreadeth abroad her manifolde branches of knowledge and vnderstanding, to purge the inward eares and corruption of the soule. John 15.1.

of feare, and of knowledge, and of holy hope: I giue eternall things to all my children to whom God hath commanded.

21 [In mee is all grace of life and trueth: in me is all hope of life and vertue.]

22 Come vnto me all yee that bee desirous of me, and fill your selues with my fruits.

Psal.19.10, 11. 23 * For the remembrance of mee is sweeter then hony, and mine inheritance [sweeter] then the hony combe: [the remembrance of mee endureth for euermore.]

24 They that eate mee, shall haue the more hunger, and they that drinke mee, shall thirst the more.

25 Who so heareth vnto me, shal not come to confusion, and they that worke by mee, shall not offende: [they that make me to be knowen, shall haue euerlasting life.]

26 All these things are the booke [of life,] and the Couenant of the most High God, [and the knowledge of the trueth,] * and the Lawe that Moses [in the precepts of righteousnes] commaunded for an heritage vnto the house of Iacob, [and the promises pertayning vnto Israel.]

Exod.20.1. and 24.3. deut.4.1. and 29.9.

27 Be not wearie to behaue your selues valiantly with the Lord, that he may also confirme you: cleaue vnto him: for the Lorde Almightie is but one God, and besides him there is none other Sauiour.

28 [Out of Dauid his seruant hee ordained to rayse vp a most mightie King that should sit in the throne of honour for euermore.]

29 Hee filleth all things with his wisedome,

Gen.2.11. as * Physon, and as Eygris in the time of the new fruites.

30 Hee maketh the vnderstanding to abound

Iosh.3.15. like Euphrates, and as * Iorden in the time of the harueſt.

31 Hee maketh the doctrine of knowledge to appeare as the light, and ouerfloweth as Geon in the time of the vintage.

32 The first man hath not knowen her perfitly: no more shall the last seeke her out.

33 For her considerations are more aboundant then the sea, and her counsell is profounder then the great deepe.

34 I wisdome [haue cast out floods:] I am as an arme of the riuer: I runne into Paradise as a water conduit.

35 I saide, I wil water my faire garden, and will water my pleasant grounde: and loe, my ditche became a flood, and my flood became a sea.

36 For I make doctrine to shine as the light of the morning, and I lighten it for euer.

37 [I will pearce thorowe all the lower partes of the earth: I will looke vpon all such as bee asleepe, and lighten all them that trust in the Lord.]

38 I will yet powre out doctrine, as prophecie, and leaue it vnto all ages for euer.

Chap.33.16. 39 * Beholde that I haue not laboured for my selfe onely, but for all them that seeke wisedome.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Of three things which please God, and of three which he hateth. 7 Of nine things that bee not to be suspected. 14 Of the malice of a woman.

THree things reioyce me, and by them am I beautified before God and men: * the vnitie of brethren, the loue of neighbours, a man and wife that agree together.

Gen 13.2,5. rom.12,10.

2 ¶ Three sortes of men my soule hateth, and I vtterly abhorre the life of them: a poore man that is proude, a riche man that is a liar, and an olde adulterer that doteth.

3 ¶ If thou hast gathered nothing in thy youth, what canst thou finde in thine age?

4 ¶ Oh how pleasant a thing is it when graye headed men minister iudgement, and when the Elders can giue good counsell!

5 Oh, how comely a thing is wisedome vnto aged men, and vnderstanding and prudencie to men of honour!

6 The crowne of olde men is to haue much experience, and the feare of God is their glory.

7 ¶ There be nine things, which I haue iudged in mine heart to be happy, and the tenth wil I pronounce with my tongue: a man that while hee liueth, hath ioy of his children, and seeth the fall of his enemies.

8 ¶ Well is him that dwelleth with a wife of vnderstanding, * and that hath not fallen with his tongue, and that hath not serued such as are vnworthy of him.

Chap.14.1. and 19.16. iames 3.2.

9 Well is him that findeth prudencie, and he that speaketh in the eares of them that will heare.

10 ¶ Oh, how great is hee that findeth wisedome! yet is there none aboue him that feareth the Lord.

11 The feare of the Lord passeth all things in clearenesse.

12 [Blessed is the man vnto whome it is granted to haue the feare of God,] Vnto whom shall he be likened that hath attained it?

13 The feare of the Lorde is the beginning of his loue, and faith is the beginning to be ioyned to him.

14 [¶ The greatest heauinesse is the heauinesse of the heart, and the greatest malice is the malice of a woman.]

15 Giue me any plague, saue only the plague of the heart, and any malice, saue the malice of a woman:

16 Or any assault saue the assault of them that hate, or any vengeance, saue the vengeance of the enemie.

17 There is not a more wicked head then the head of the serpent, and there is no wrath aboue the wrath of an enemie.

‖ Or, woman.

18 * I had rather dwell with a lion and dragon, then to keepe house with a wicked wife.

Prou.21.19.

19 The wickednesse of a woman changeth her face, and maketh her countenance blacke as ‖ a sacke.

‖ Or, a beare.

20 Her husband is sitting among his neighbours: because of her hee sigheth sore or hee beware.

21 All wickednesse is but litle to the wickednesse of a woman: let the portion of the sinner fall vpon her.

22 As the climing vp of a sandy way, is to the feete of the aged, so is a wife full of words to a quiet man.

23 * Stumble not at the beautie of a woman, and desire her not for thy pleasure.

Chap.42.12. 2 sam.11.2. and 13.2.

24 If a woman nourish her husband, shee is angry and impudent and full of reproch.

25 A wicked wife maketh a sory heart, an heauie

nie countenance, and a wounded minde, weake hands and feeble knees, and cannot comfort her husband in heauinesse.

Gen.3.6. 1.tim.2.14. 26 Of the * woman came the beginning of sinne, and through her we all die.

27 Giue the water no passage, [no not a little,] neither giue a wicked woman libertie to goe out.

28 If she walke not in thine obedience, [shee shall confounde thee in the sight of thine enemies.] Cut her off then from thy flesh: a Giue her, and forsake her.

a To wit, the bil of diuorcement.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The praise of a good woman. 5 Of the feare of three things, and of the fourth. 6 Of the sealous and drunken woman. 29 Of two things that cause sorow, and of the thirde which mooueth wrath.

BLessed is the man that hath a vertuous wife: for the number of his peeres shall be double.

2 An honest woman reioyceth her husband, and she shall fill the peeres of his life with peace.

3 A vertuous woman is a good portion, which shalbe giuen for a gift vnto such as feare the Lord.

4 Whether a man be rich or poore, he hath a good heart toward the Lord, and they shall at al times haue a cheerefull countenance.

5 ¶ There bee three things that mine heart feareth, and my face is afrayde of the fourth: treason in a citie: the assembly of the people, and false accusation: all these are heauier then death.

6 ¶ But the sorow and griefe of the heart is a woman that is ielous ouer another: and shee that communeth with all, is a scourge of the tongue.

7 An euil wife is as a yoke of oxen that draw diuers wayes: hee that hath her, is as though he helde a scorpion.

8 A drunken woman and such as cannot be tamed, is a great plague: for shee cannot couer her owne shame.

9 The whoredome of a woman may bee knowen in the pride of her eyes, and eye lids.

Chap.42.11. 10 ¶ * If thy daughter be not shamefast, hold her straitly, least shee abuse her selfe through ouermuch libertie.

11 Take heede of her that hath an vnshamefast eye: and marueile not if she trespasse against thee.

12 As one that goeth by the way, and is thirstie, so shall she open her mouth, and drinke of euery next water: by euery hedge shall shee sit downe, and open her quiuer against euery arrow.

13 The grace of a wife reioyceth her husband, and feedeth his bones with her vnderstanding.

14 A peaceable woman and of a good heart is a gift of the Lord, & there is nothing so much worth as a woman well instructed.

15 A shamefast & faithfull woman is a double grace, and there is no weight to be compared vnto her continent minde.

16 As the sunne when it ariseth in the high places of the Lorde, so is the beautie of a good wife the ornament of her house.

17 As the cleare light is vpon the holy candlestick, so is the beautie of the face in a ripe age.

18 As the golden pillars are vpon the sockets of siluer: so are faire feete with a constant minde.

19 [Perpetuall are the foundations that be layed vpon a strong rocke: so are the commandements of God in the heart of an holy woman.]

20 My sonne, keepe the strength of thine age stable, and giue not thy strength to strangers.

21 When thou hast gotten a fruitfull possession through all the fieldes, sowe it with thine owne seed, trusting in thy nobilitie.

22 So thy stocke that shall liue after thee, shall growe, trusting in the great liberalitie of their nobilitie.

23 An harlot is compared to a sowe: but the wife that is maried, is counted as a towze against death to her husband.

24 A wicked woman is giuen as a rewarde to a wicked man: but a godly woman is giuen to him that feareth the Lord.

25 A shameleſſe woman contemneth shame: but a shamefast woman will reuerence her husband.

26 A shameleſſe woman is compared to a dog: but shee that is shamefast, reuerenceth the Lord.

27 A woman that honoureth her husband, shall be iudged wise of all: but she that despiseth him, shalbe blazed for her pride.

28 A lowde crying woman and a babler, let her bee sought out to driue away the enemies: the minde of euery man that liueth with such, shall be conuersant among the troubles of warre.

29 There bee two things that grieue mine heart, and the thirde maketh me angry: a man of warre that suffereth pouertie: and men of vnderstanding that are not set by: and when one departeth from righteousnesse vnto sinne: the Lord appointeth such to the sword.

30 [There bee two things, which me thinke to bee hard and perilous,] a marchant cannot lightly keepe him from wrong, and a vitailer is not without sinne.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Of the poore that would be riche. 5 The probation of the man that feareth God. 13 The vncomlinesse of a foole. 16 The secrets of friends are not to be vttered. 26 The wicked imagineth euill which turneth vpon himselfe.

BEcause of pouertie haue many sinned: and * he that seeketh to bee rich, turneth his eyes aside. Prou.23.4. 1.tim.6.9.

2 As a naile in the wall sticketh fast betweene the ioynts of the stones, so doeth sinne sticke betweene the selling and the buying.

3 If hee holde him not diligently in the feare of the Lorde, his house shall soone bee ouerthrowen.

4 As when one sifteth, the filthinesse remaineth in the sieue, so the filth of man remaineth in his thought.

5 The fornace proueth the potters vessell: * so doeth [temptation] the mens thoughts. Prou.27.21.

6 * The fruite declareth if the tree haue bene trimmed: so the worde [declareth] what man hath in his heart. Mat.7.17.

7 Praise no man except thou haue heard his talke: for this is the trial of men.

8 ¶ If

8 ¶ If thou followest righteousnesse, thou shalt get her, and put her on as a faire garment, [and shalt dwell with her, and shee shall defend thee for euer: and in the day of knowledge thou shalt finde stedfastnesse.]

9 The birdes resort vnto their like: so doeth the truetly turne vnto them, that are practised in her.

10 As the lion waiteth for the beast, so doeth sinne vpon them that doe euill.

11 The talking of him that feareth God, is all wisedome: as for a foole, he changeth as the moone.

12 If thou be among the vndiscreete, obserue the time, but haunt still the assembly of them that are wise.

13 The talking of fooles is grieuous, & their sport is in the pleasure of sinne.

Chap. 13.9, 10. 14 * The talke of him that sweareth much, maketh the haire to stande vp: & to strine with such, stoppeth the eares.

15 The strife of the proude is bloodshedding, and their scoldings are grieuous to heare.

Chap. 19.10. and 22,22. 16 * Who so discouereth secretes, looseth his credite, and findeth no friend, after his will.

17 Loue thy friend, & bee faithfull vnto him: but if thou bewrayest his secrets, thou shalt not get him againe.

18 For as a man destroyeth his enemie, so doest thou destroy the friendship of thy neighbour.

19 As one that letteth a birde goe out of his hande, so if thou giue ouer thy friend, thou canst not get him againe.

20 Followe after him no more, for hee is too farre off: he is as a roe escaped out of the snare: [for his soule is wounded]

21 As for wounds, they may be bound vp again, and an euill word may be reconciled: but who so bewrayeth the secrets of a friende, hath lost all his credite.

Pro.10.10. 22 * Hee that winketh with the eyes, imagineth euil: and he that knoweth him, will let him alone.

23 When thou art present, hee will speake sweetly, and praise thy words: but at the last he will turne his tale, and slander thy saying.

24 Many things haue I hated, but nothing so euil as such one: for the Lord also hateth him.

25 Who so casteth a stone on hie, casteth it vpon his owne head: and hee that smiteth with guile, maketh a great wound.

Pſal. 7.15. pro.26.27. eccles.10, 8. 26 Who so * diggeth a pit, shall fall therein, [and hee that layeth a stone in his neighbours way, shall stumble thereon,] and he that layeth a snare for another, shalbe taken in it himselfe.

27 He that worketh euil, shall be wrapped in euil, and shal not know from whence they come vnto him.

28 Mockerie and reproch follow the proude, and vengeance lurketh for them as a lion.

29 They that reioyce at the fall of the righteous, shalbe taken in the snare, and anguish shall consume them before they die.

30 Despite & anger are abominable things, and the sinfull man is subiect to them both.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 We ought not to desire vengeance, but to forgiue the offence. 13 Of the vices of the tongue, and of the dangers thereof.

HE * that seeketh vengeance, shall finde vengeance of the Lorde, and he will surely keepe his sinnes. Deut.32, 35.rom.12. 19.

2 † Forgiue thy neighbour the hurt that hee hath done to thee, so shall thy sinnes be forgiuen thee also when thou prayest. † Man ought not to seeke vengeance.

3 Should a man bear hatred against man, and * desire forgiuenesse of the Lord?

4 He will shew no mercy to a man, which is like himselfe: and will he aske forgiuenesse of his owne sinnes? Mat.6.14.

5 If he that is but flesh, nourish hatred, [and aske pardon of God,] who will intreate for his sinnes?

6 Remember the ende and let enimitie passe: imagine not death and destruction to another through anger, but perseuere in the commandements.

7 Remember the commandements: so shalt thou not bee rigorous against thy neighbour: [consider diligently] the Couenant of the most High, and forgiue his ignorance.

8 * Beware of strife, and thou shalt make thy sinnes fewer: for an angry man kindleth strife. Chap.8.1.

9 And the sinfull man disquieteth friendes, and bringeth in false accusations among them that be at peace.

10 * As the matter of the fire is, so it burneth, and mans anger is according to his power: and according to his riches his anger increaseth, and the more vehement the anger is, the more is he inflamed. Prou.26.21.

11 An hastie brawling kindleth a fire, and an hastie fighting sheadeth blood: [a tongue that beareth false witnesse, bringeth death.]

12 If thou blowe the sparke, it shall burne: if thou spit vpon it, it shall be quenched, and both these come out of the mouth.

13 † * Abhorre the slanderer and double tongued: for such haue destroyed many that were at peace. † The tongue. Chap.21.28.

14 The a double tongue hath disquieted many, and driuen them from nation to nation: strong cities hath it broken downe, and ouerthrowen the houses of great men: [the strength of the people hath he brought downe, and bene the decay of mightie nations.] a That is, the tongue which saith, and vnsaith, or speaketh one thing, & thinketh an other.

15 The double tongue hath cast out many vertuous women, and robbed them of their labours. Or § tongue which speaketh neither out of the new or olde Testament, but of their owne braine.

16 Who so hearkeneth vnto it, shall neuer finde rest, and neuer dwell quietly.

17 The stroke of the rod maketh markes in the flesh, but the stroke of the tongue breaketh the bones.

18 There be many that haue perished by the edge of the sword, but not so many as haue fallen by the tongue.

19 Well is him that is kept from an euill tongue, and commeth not in the anger thereof, which hath not drawen in that yoke, neither hath bene bound in the bands thereof.

20 For the yoke thereof is a yoke of yron, and the bands thereof are bands of brasse.

21 The death thereof is an euill death: hell were better then such one.

22 It shal not haue rule ouer them that feare God, neither shall they be burnt with the flame thereof.

23 Such as forsake the Lord, shal fal therein:

and it ſhall burne them, and no man ſhall bee able to quench it: it ſhall fall vpon them as a lion, and deuour them as a leopard.

24 Hedge thy poſſeſſion with thornes, and make doores and barres for thy mouth.

25 Binde vp thy ſiluer and golde, and weigh thy woordes in a balance, and make a doore and a barre, [and a ſure bridle] for thy mouth.

26 Beware that thou ſlide not by it, and ſo fall before him that lieth in waite, [and thy fall be incurable, euen vnto death.]

CHAP. XXIX.

1 Doe lend money, and doe almes. 15 Of a faithfull man anſwering for his friend. 24 The poore mans life.

† Of well doing.

HEe that will be merciful, † lendeth to his neighbour: and hee that hath power ouer himſelfe, keepeth the commandements.

Deut.15.7,8 mat.5.42. luke 6.35.

2 * Lende to thy neighbour in time of his need, and pay thou thy neighbour againe in due ſeaſon.

3 Keepe thy word, and deale faithfully with him, and thou ſhalt alway find the thing that is neceſſary for thee.

4 Many when a thing was lent them, reckoned it to be found, and grieued them that had holpen them.

5 Till they receiue, they kiſſe his hands, and for their neighbours good they humble their voyce: but when they ſhoulde pay againe, they prolong the terme, and giue a careleſſe anſwere, and make excuſes by reaſon of the time.

6 And though he be able, yet giueth he ſcarce the halfe againe, and reckoneth the other as a thing found: elſe he deceiueth him of his money, and maketh him an enemy without a cauſe: hee payeth him with curſing and rebuke, and giueth him euil woords for his good deed.

7 There bee many which refuſe to lende becauſe of this inconuenience, fearing to bee defrauded without cauſe.

8 Yet haue thou patience with him that humbleth himſelfe, and deferre not mercy from him.

9 Helpe the poore for the commaundements ſake, and turne him not away, becauſe of his pouertie.

10 Loſe thy money for thy brothers & neighbours ſake, & let it not ruſt vnder a ſtone to thy deſtruction.

Dan.4.24. mat.6.20. luke 11.41. and 12.33. acts.10.4. 1.tim.6.18, 19.

11 *Beſtowe thy treaſure after the commandement of the moſt High, and it ſhall bring thee more profite then gold.

12 ‖ Lay vp thine *almes in thy ſecret chambers, and it ſhall keepe thee from all affliction.

‖Or, giue thine almes ſecretly. Tob.4.8,9, 10,11.

13 [A mans almes is as a purſe with him, and ſhall keepe a mans fauour as the apple of the eye, and afterward ſhall it ariſe, and pay euery man his reward vpon his head.]

14 It ſhall fight for thee againſt thine enemies, better then the ſhielde of a ſtrong man, or ſpeare of the mightie.

† Of ſuertiſhip.

15 An honeſt man is † ſuertie for his neighbour: but he that is impudent, forſaketh him.

16 Forget not the friendſhip of thy ſuertie: for he hath laped his life for thee.

a As he is a foole that is ſuretie for euery man: ſo is he vngodly that in no wiſe will be ſuretie for any man.

17 The a wicked deſpiſeth the good deede of his ſuertie.

18 The wicked will not become ſuertie: and he that is of an vnthankful mind, forſaketh him that deliuered him.

19 [Some man promiſeth for his neighbour: and when he hath loſt his honeſtie, hee will forſake him.]

20 Suertiſhip hath deſtroyed many a riche man, & remoued them as the waues of the ſea: mightie men hath it driuen away from their houſes, & cauſed them to wander among ſtrange nations.

21 A wicked man tranſgreſſing the commandements of the Lord, ſhal fal into ſuertiſhip: and hee that medleth much with other mens buſineſſe, is intangled in controuerſies.

22 ¶ Helpe thy neighbour according to thy power, and beware that thou thy ſelfe fall not.

23 *The chiefe thing of life is water, & bread, and clothing, and lodging to couer thy ſhame. Chap.39.26.

† Sober liuing.

24 † The poore mans life in his owne lodge, is better then delicate fare in another mans.

25 Be it little or much, holde thee contented, that the houſe ſpeake not euil of thee.

26 For it is a miſerable life to go from houſe to houſe: for where thou art a ſtranger, thou dareſt not open thy mouth.

27 Thou ſhalt lodge and feede vnthankefull men, and after ſhalt haue bitter woordes for the ſame, ſaying, 28 Come, thou ſtranger, & prepare the table, and feed me of that thou haſt readie.

29 Giue place, thou ſtranger, to an honourable man: my brother commeth to be lodged, and I haue need of mine houſe.

30 Theſe things are greeuous to a man that hath vnderſtanding, the vpbrayding of the houſe, and the reproch of the lender.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Of the correction of children. 14 Of the commoditie of health. 17 Death is better then a ſorowfull life. 22 Of the ioy and ſorow of the heart.

HEe that loueth his ſonne, * cauſeth him oft to feele the rod, that he may haue ioy of him in the ende. *Pro.13.24. and 23.13.

2 Hee that chaſtiſeth his ſonne, ſhall haue ioy in him, and ſhall reioyce of him among his acquaintance.

3 Hee that * teacheth his ſonne, grieueth the enemie, and before his friendes hee ſhall reioyce of him. Deut.6.7.

4 Though his father die, yet is he as though hee were not dead: for hee hath left one behinde him that is like him.

5 In his life he ſaw him, and had ioy in him, and was not ſory in his death, [neither was he aſhamed before his enemies.]

6 Hee left behind him an auenger againſt his enemies, and one that ſhould ſhew fauour vnto his friends.

7 Hee that flattereth his ſonne, bindeth vp his woundes, and his heart is grieued at euery cry.

8 An vntamed horſe will be ſtubburne, and a wanton childe will be wilfull.

9 If thou bring vp thy ſonne delicately, hee ſhall make thee afrayde: and if thou play with him, he ſhall bring thee to heauineſſe.

10 Laugh not with him, leaſt thou bee ſorie with him, and leaſt thou gnaſh thy teeth in the ende.

11 * Giue him no libertie in his youth, and winke not at his follie. Chap.7.23.

12 Bow

12 Bowe downe his necke while he is yong, and beate him on the sides, whiles he is a child, least he ware stubburne, and be disobedient vnto thee, and so bring sorow to thine heart.

13 Chastise thy childe, and bee diligent therein, least his shame grieue thee.

†The praise of health.

14 ¶ † Better is the poore being whole and strong, then a riche man that is afflicted in his body.

15 Health and strength is aboue all gold, and a whole body aboue infinite treasure.

16 There is no riches aboue a sound body, and no ioy aboue the ioy of the heart.

17 Death is better then a bitter life, [& long rest] then continuall sickenesse.

a Like as meate that is set vpon the graues of dead men is vnprofitable, for that they eate it not: euen so knowledge in him that openeth not his mouth to vtter it, is vnprofitable, Chap. 41. 14. Chap. 20. 3. Pro. 12. 25. and 15. 13. and 17. 22.

18 a The good things that are powred on a mouth shut vp, are as measles of meate set vpon a grane.

19 What good doeth the offering vnto an idole? for he can neither eate, nor smell: so is he that is persecuted of the Lord, [and beareth the reward of iniquitie.]

20 He seeth with his eyes, and groneth like *a gelded man, that lieth with a virgine and sigheth.

21 *Giue not ouer thy minde to heauinesse, and vexe not thy selfe in thine owne counsell.

22 The ioy of the heart is the life of man, and a mans gladnes is the prolonging of his daies.

23 Loue thine owne soule, and comfort thine heart: driue sorrow farre from thee: for sorrowe hath slaine many, and there is no profite therein.

24 Enuie & wrath shorten the life, and carefulnesse bringeth age before the time.

25 A noble and good heart will haue consideration of his meate and diet.

CHAP. XXXI.

Of couetousnesse. 2 Of them that take paine to gather riches. 8 The prayse of a rich man without a fault. 12 We ought to flee drunkennesse and follow soberneſſe.

†Couetousnesse. 1. Tim. 6, 9, 10,

WAking † after * richesse pineth away the body, and the care thereof driueth away sleepe.

2 This waking care breaketh the sleepe, as great sickenesse breaketh the sleepe.

3 The rich hath great labour in gathering riches together, and in his rest he is filled with pleasures.

4 The poore laboureth in liuing poorely, and when he leaueth off, he is still poore.

5 He that loueth gold, shall not bee iustified, & he that followeth corruptiō, shal haue inough thereof.

Chap. 8. 2. 6 *Many are destroied by the reason of gold, and haue found their destruction before them.

7 It is as a stumbling block vnto them that sacrifice vnto it, and euery foole is taken therewith.

Luke 6. 24. 8 Blessed is the *rich which is found without blemish, and hath not gone after gold, [nor hoped in money and treasures.]

9 Who is he, and we will commend him? for wonderful things hath he done among his people.

10 Who hath bene tried thereby, and found perfite? let him be an example of glorie, who might offend, and hath not offended, or do euil, and hath not done it.

11 Therefore shal his goods be stablished, and the congregation shal declare his almes.

12 If thou sit at a costly table, open not thy mouth wide vpon it, and say not, Behold much meate.

†Temperancie.

13 Remember that an euil eie is a shrew: and what thing created is worse then a wicked eie? for it weepeth for euery cause.

14 Stretch not thine hand whereſoeuer it looketh, and thrust it not with it into the dish.

15 Consider by thy selfe him that is by thee, and marke euery thing.

16 Eate modestly that which is set before thee, and deuoure not, least thou be hated.

17 Leaue thou off first for nourtures sake, and be not insatiable least thou offend.

18 When thou sittest among many, reach not thine hand out first of all.

19 *How little is sufficient for a man well taught? & therby he believeth not in his chamber, [nor feeleth any paine.] Chap. 37. 29.

20 A wholesome sleepe commeth of a temperate belly: he riseth vp in the morning, and is well at ease in himselfe: but paine in watching and choleriche diseases, and pangs of the belly are with an insatiable man.

21 If thou hast bene forced to eate, arise, goe foorth, a vomite, and then take thy rest: [so thou shalt bring no sickenesse vnto thy body.]

a This counsel only concerning the health of the body, is here alleaged, rather for a remedie to helpe digestion vnto a weake stomacke, then for an instruction to tolerate intemperancie: for surfetting is forbidden vs, Luke 21. 39.

22 Oh sonne, heare me, and despise mee not, and at the last thou shalt finde as I haue told thee: in all thy workes be quicke, so shall there no sickenesse come vnto thee.

23 *Who so is †liberall in his meat, men shal blesse him: and the testimonie of his honestie shalbe believed. Pro. 22. 9. † Liberalitie. Iudeth 13. 2, 8.

24 But against him that is a nigard of his meate, the whole citie shall murmure: the testimonies of his nigardnesse shall be sure.

25 Shew not thy valiantnesse in wine: for *wine hath destroyed many. Psal. 104. 15 Pro. 31. 4, 5, 6, 7.

26 The fornace proueth the edge in the tempering: so doeth wine the hearts of the proude by drunkennesse.

27 *Wine soberly drunken, is profitable for the life of man: what is his life that is ouercome with wine?

28 Wine was made [from the beginning] to make men glad, [& not for drunkennes.] Wine measurably drunke and in time, bringeth gladnesse and chearefulnesse of the mind.

29 But wine drunken with excesse, maketh bitternesse of minde with brawlings and scolbings.

30 Drunkennesse encreaseth the courage of a foole, till he offend: it diminisheth his strength and maketh wounds.

31 * Rebuke not thy neighbour at the wine, and despise him not in his mirth: giue him no despitefull words, & presse not vpon him with contrary wordes. Chap. 20. 1.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 An exhortation to modestie. 3 Let the auncient speake. 14 To giue thanks after the repast. 15 Of the feare, faith and confidence in God.

†Humblenesse,

IF thou be made the master of the feast, lift not thy selfe vp, but bee among them, as one of the rest: take diligent care for them, and so sit downe.

2 And when thou hast done all thy dueties, sit downe, that thou maiest bee merie with them, and receiue a crowne for thy good behauiour.

3 Speake thou that art the elder first, for it becommeth thee, but with sound iudgement, and hinder not musike.

4 Powre not out words, where there is no audience, * and shew not foorth wisdome out of time. Eccles.3.7. chap.20.7.

5 The consent of musicians at a banket, is as a signet of carbuncle set in gold.

6 And as the signet of an Emerauld well trimmed with gold, so is the melodie of musike in a pleasant banquet.

7 [Giue eare, and be still, and for thy good behauiour thou shalt be loued.]

8 Thou that art yong, speake if need be, and yet scarcely when thou art twise asked.

9 Comprehend much in few woordes: [in many things be as one that is ignorant:] bee as one that vnderstandeth, and yet holde thy tongue.

10 If thou be among * great men, compare not thy self vnto them: and when an elder speaketh, babble not much. Iob 32.6.

11 Before the thunder goeth lightning, and before a shamefast man goeth fauour.

12 Stand vp betimes, and be not the last: but get thee home without delay.

13 And there take thy pastime, and do what thou wilt, so that thou do none euil, or vse proud woords.

14 But aboue all things giue thankes vnto him that hath made thee, and replenished thee with his goods.

15 ¶ Who so feareth the Lorde, will receiue his doctrine, and they that rise early, shall find fauour.

16 Hee that seeketh the Lawe, shall bee filled therewith: but the hypocrite will be offended thereat.

17 They that feare the Lord, shall finde that which is righteous, and shal kindle iustice as a light.

18 An vngodly man will not bee reformed, but findeth out excuses according to his will.

19 A man of vnderstanding despiseth not counsell: but a lewde and proude man is not touched with feare, euen when hee hath done rashly.

20 [Vse counsel] do nothing without aduisement: so shall it not repent thee after the deed.

21 Goe not in the way where thou mayest fall, nor where thou mayest stumble among the stones, neither trust thou in the way that is plaine.

22 And beware of thine own children, [and take heede of them, that be thine owne household.]

23 In euery good worke bee of a faithfull heart: for this is the keeping of the commaundements.

24 Who so beleeueth in ‖ the Lorde, keepeth the commaundements: and he that trusteth in the Lord, shall take no hurt. ‖ Or, the law.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 The deliuerance of him that feareth God. 4 The answere of the wise. 12 Man is in the hand of God, as the clay is in the hand of the potter. 23 Of euill seruants.

THere shall no euill come vnto him that feareth the Lord: but when he is in tentation, he will deliuer him againe. † The feare of God.

2 A wise man hateth not the Lawe: but hee that is an hypocrite therein, is as a shippe in a tempest.

3 A man of vnderstanding walketh faithfully in the Lawe, and the Lawe is faithfull vnto him.

4 As the question is made, prepare the answere, and so shalt thou be heard: be sure of the matter, and so answere.

5 The heart of the * foolish is like a cart wheele: and his thoughts are like a rolling axetree. Chap.21.16

6 As a wilde horse neyeth vnder euery one that sitteth vpon him, so is a scornefull friend.

7 Why doeth one day excell another, seeing that the light of the dayes of the yeere come of the sunne?

8 The knowledge of the Lord hath parted them asunder, and he hath by them disposed the times and solemne feastes.

9 Some of them hath he chosen and sanctified, and some of them hath hee put among the dayes to number.

10 And all men are of the * ground, and Adam was created out of the earth: but the Lord hath deuided them by great knowledge, and made their wayes diuers. Gene.1.27. and 2.7.

11 Some of them hath he blessed and exalted, and some of thē hath he sanctified, and appropriate to himself: but some of them hath he cursed, and brought them lowe, and put them out of their estate.

12 *As the clay is in the potters hand, to order it at his pleasure, so are mē also in the hand of their Creator, so that hee may reward them as liketh him best. Isai.45.9. rom.9.20,21.

13 Against euill is good, and against death is life: so is the godly against the sinner, and the vngodly against the faithful.

14 So in all the workes of the most High thou mayest see that there are euer two, one against another.

15 ¶ I am awaked vp last of all, as one that gathereth after them in the vintage. In ꝺ blessing of the Lord I am increased, and haue filled my winepresse, like a grape gatherer.

16 *Behold, how I haue not laboured only for my selfe, but for all them that seeke knowledge. Chap.24.39.

17 Heare me, O yee great men of the people, and hearken with your eares, ye rulers of the congregation.

18 Giue not thy sonne and wife, thy brother and friend, power ouer thee while thou liuest, and giue not away thy substaunce to another, lest it repent thee, and thou intreat for the same againe.

19 As long as thou liuest, and hast breath, a giue not thy selfe ouer to any person. a That is, let no man vse thee as his seruant, when thou hast committed al thy goods into his hand.

20 For better it is that thy children should pray vnto thee, then that thou shouldest looke vp to the hands of thy children.

21 In all thy workes bee excellent, that thy honour be neuer stained.

22 At the time when thou shalt ende thy dayes, and finish thy life, distribute thine inheritance.

23 ¶ The fodder, the whip, and the burden, belong vnto the asse, and meate, correction and worke vnto thy seruant.

24 If thou set thy seruant to labour, thou shalt shalt finde rest: but if thou let him goe idle, hee shall seeke libertie.

25 The yoke and the whip bowe downe the hard necke: so tame thyne euil seruant with the whips and correction.

26 Send him to labour, that he goe not idle: for idleneſſe bringeth much euill.

†How slaues were ordered in old time.

27 Set him to worke, for that belongeth vnto him: if he be not obedient, † put on more heauie fetters.

28 But bee not exceſſiue toward any, and without diſcretion doe nothing.

Chap.7.20.

29 * If thou haue a faithfull seruannt, let him be vnto thee as thine owne soule: for in blood hast thou gotten him. If thou haue a seruant, intreat him as thy brother: for thou hast neede of him, as of thy selfe. If thou intreat him euill, and he runne away, wilt thou seeke him?

CHAP. XXXIIII.

Of dreames. 13 The praiſe of them that feare God. 18 The offerings of the wicked. 22 The bread of the needy. 27 God doeth not allow the workes of an vnfaithfull man.

† Dreames.

THe hope of a foolish man is vaine and false, † and dreames make fooles to haue wings.

2 Who so regardeth dreames, is like him that will take hold of a shadow, and folow after the wind.

3 Euen so is it with the appearings of dreames, as the likeneſſe of a face is before another face.

4 Who can be cleansed by the vncleane? or what trueth can be spoken of a lier?

5 Southsayings, witchcraft, and dreaming is but vanitie, and a mind that is occupied with fantasies, is as a woman that trauaileth.

6 Whereas such visions come not of the most High to try thee, set not thine heart vpon them.

7 For dreames haue deceiued many, and they haue failed that put their trust therein.

8 The law shall be fulfilled without lyes, and wisedome is sufficient to a faithfull mouth: [what knowledge hath he that is not tryed?]

9 A man that is instructed, vnderstandeth much, and he that hath good experience, can talke of wisedome.

10 He that hath no experience, knoweth litle, and he that erreth, is full of craft.

11 When I wandred to and fro, I sawe many things, and mine vnderstanding is greater then I can expreſſe.

12 I was oft times in danger of death, yet I was deliuered by these things.

13 ¶ The spirite of those that feare the Lorde, shall liue: for their hope is in him that can helpe them.

† The feare of the Lord.

14 Who so † feareth the Lord, feareth no man, neither is afraid: for he is his hope.

15 Blessed is the soule of him that feareth the Lord: in whome putteth he his trust? who is his strength?

vnto them that loue him: he is their * mightie protection, and strong ground, a defence from the heate, and a shadowe for the noone day, a succour from stumbling, and an helpe from falling.

17 He setteth vp the soule, and lightneth the eyes: he giueth health, life, and blessing.

18 ¶ He that * giueth an offering of vnrighteous goods, offereth a mocking sacrifice, and the gifts of the vnrighteous, please not him. Pro.21.27.

19 [But the Lord is theirs onely, that patiently abide him in the way of trueth and righteouſneſſe.]

20 The most High doeth not allow the † offrings of the wicked, * neither is he pacified for sinne by the multitude of sacrifice. † The offerings of the wicked and their prayer.

21 Who so bringeth an offering of the goods of the poore, doeth as one that sacrificeth the sonne before the fathers eyes. Pro.15,8.

22 The bread of the needefull is the life of the poore: he that defraudeth him thereof, is a murtherer.

23 He that taketh away his neighbours liuing, slayeth him, * and he that defraudeth the labourer of his hire, is a bloodshedder. Deut.24.14, 15.chap.7.20

24 ¶ When one buildeth, & another breaketh downe, what profite haue they then but labour?

25 When one prayeth, and another curseth, whose voyce will the Lord heare?

26 * He that washeth himselfe because of a dead body, and toucheth it againe, what auaileth his washing? Num 19. 11,12.

27 * So is it with a man that fasteth for his sinnes, and committeth them againe: who will heare his prayer? or what doeth his fasting helpe him? 2 Pet.2.20, 21,22.

CHAP. XXXV.

1 Of true sacrifices. 14 The prayer of the fatherleſſe, and of the widow, and him that humbleth himselfe.

WHo so keepeth the Lawe, * bringeth offerings inowe, hee that holdeth fast the commandements, † offereth an offering of salnation. 1.Sam.15. 22.iere.7.3, 5,6,7. † True sacrifices.

2 He that is thankefull to them that haue well deserued, offereth fine flower: * and he that giueth almes, sacrificeth praiſe. Phil.4.18.

3 To depart from euill is a thankfull thing to the Lord, and to forsake vnrighteouſneſſe, is a reconciling vnto him.

4 * Thou shalt not appeare emptie before the Lord. Exod.23.15, and 34.20. deut.16,16.

5 For all these things are done because of the commandement.

6 * The offering of the righteous maketh the altar fat, and the smell thereof is sweete before the most High. Gen.4.4,5.

7 The sacrifice of the righteous is acceptable, and the remembrance thereof shall neuer be forgotten.

8 Giue the Lord his honour with a good and and liberall eye, and diminish not the first fruites of thine hands.

9 * In all thy giftes shewe a toplull countenance, and dedicate thy tithes with gladneſſe. 2.Cor.9.7.

10 Giue vnto the most High according as he hath enriched thee, * and looke what thine hand is able, giue with a cheerefull eye. Tob.4.8. Leuit.22,23, 22.deut.15.

11 For the Lord recompenceth, and will giue thee seuen times as much. 21. Deut.10.17.

12 * Diminish nothing of thine offering: for he will not receiue it, and abſteine from wrongfull sacrifices: for the Lord is the iudge and regardeth no * mans person. 2.chro.19.6. iob.34.19. wiſd.6.7. actes.10.34. rom.2.11. galat.2.6.

13 He accepteth not the person of the poore, but he heareth the prayer of the oppreſſed.

14 Hee deſpiseth not the desire of the fatherleſſe nor the widow, when she powreth out her prayer. ephes.6.9. coloſ.3.25. 1.pet.1,17.

15 Doeth not the teares run downe the widowes cheeke? and her cry is against him that caused them: [for from her cheekes doe they goe up vnto heauen, and the Lord which heareth them, doeth accept them.]

16 He that serueth the Lord shall be accepted with fauour, and his prayer shall reach vnto the cloudes.

17 The prayer of him that humbleth himselfe, goeth thorow the cloudes, and ceaseth not till it come neere, & will not depart till the most High [haue respect thereunto to iudge righteously, and to execute iudgement.

18 And the Lorde will not be slacke, nor the Almightie will tarie long from them, till hee hath smitten in sunder the loynes of the vnmercifull, and auenged himselfe of the heathen, till hee haue taken away the multitude of the cruel, and broken the scepter of the vnrighteous, till hee giue euery man after his workes, and rewarde them after their deuises, till hee haue iudged the cause of his people, and comforted them with his mercie.

19 Oh, howe faire a thing is mercie in the time of anguish & trouble! It is like a cloud of raine, that commeth in the time of a drought.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 A prayer to God in the person of all faithfull men, against those that persecute his Church. 22 The praise of a good woman.

HAue mercie vpon vs, O Lorde God of all things, and behold vs, and [shewe vs the light of thy mercies,]

† Against the wicked. 2 And send thy feare † among the nations, which seeke not after thee, [that they may know that there is no God but thou, and that they may shew thy wonderous workes.]

Iere.10.25. 3 Lift vp thine *hand vpon the strange nations, that they may see thy power.

4 As thou art sanctified in vs before them, so be thou magnified among them before vs,

5 That they may knowe thee, as we knowe thee: for there is none other God but onely thou, O Lord.

6 Renewe the signes, and change the wonders: shewe the glorie of thine hand, and thy right arme, that they may shewe forth thy wonderous actes.

7 Raise vp thine indignation, and powre out wrath: take away the aduersarie, and smite the enemie.

8 Make the time short: remember thine othe, that thy wonderous workes may be praised.

9 Let the wrath of the fire consume them that escape, and let them perish that oppresse the people.

10 Smite in sunder the heades of the princes that be our enemies, and say, There is none other but we.

† A prayer for the godly. 11 † Gather all the tribes of Iacob together, [that they may knowe that there is none other God but onely thou, and that they may shewe thy wonderous workes,] and inherite thou them as from the beginning.

12 O Lord, haue mercy vpon the people, that is called by thy Name, & vpon Israel * whome thou hast likened to a first borne sonne.

Exod.4.22. 13 Oh, be mercifull vnto Ierusalem the citie of thy sanctuarie, the citie of thy rest.

14 Fill Sion, that it may magnifie thine oracles, and fill thy people with thy glory.

15 Giue witnesse vnto those that thou hast possessed from the beginning, and raise vp the prophecies that haue bene shewed in thy name.

16 Reward them that waite for thee, that thy Prophets may be found faithfull.

17 O Lorde, heare the prayer of thy seruants, according to the * blessing of Aaron ouer thy people, [and guide thou vs in the way of righteousnesse,] that all they which dwell vpon the earth, may knowe that thou art the Lord the eternall God. Num.6.23.

18 ¶ The belly deuoureth all meates, yet is one meate better then another.

19 As the throte tasteth venison, so doeth a wise minde discerne false words.

20 A frowarde heart bringeth griefe, but a man of experience will resist it.

21 A woman is apt to receiue euery man: yet is one daughter better then another.

22 The beautie of a woman cheereth the face, and a man loueth nothing better.

23 If there bee in her tongue gentlenesse, meekenesse, and wholesome talke, then is not her husband like other men.

† The praise of a good woman. 24 He that hath † gotten a [vertuous] woman, hath begun to get a possession: shee is an helpe like vnto himselfe, and a pillar to rest vpon.

25 Where no hedge is, there the possession is spoyled: and he that hath no wife, wandreth to and fro, mourning.

26 Who will trust a thiefe that is alway readie and wandereth from towne to towne? and likewise him, that hath no rest, and lodgeth wheresoeuer the night taketh him?

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 Howe a man should knowe friends and counsellers. 12 To keepe his company that feareth God.

EVery friend saith, † I am a friend vnto him also: but there is some friend, which is only a friend in name. † Of friendship.

2 Remaineth there not heauinesse vnto death, when a companion and friend is turned to an enemie?

3 O wicked presumption, from whence art thou sprung vp to couer the earth with deceit?

4 * There is some companion which in prosperitie reioyceth with his friend: but in the time of trouble he is against him. Chap.6.10.

5 There is some companion that helpeth his friend for the bellies sake, and taketh vp the buckler against the enemie.

6 Forget not thy friend in thy minde, and thinke vpon him in thy riches.

† Of whom we should take counsel, Chap.8.19. and 9.16. 7 Seeke † no counsell at him of whome thou art suspected, and disclose not thy counsell vnto such as hate thee.

8 * Euery counseller praiseth his owne counsell: but there is some that counselleth for himselfe.

9 Beware of the counseller, and be aduised afore ‖ whereto thou wilt vse him: for he will counsell for himselfe, least hee cast the lot vpon thee,

‖ Or, what need he hath.

10 And say vnto thee, Thy way is good, and afterward he stand against thee, and looke what shall become of thee.

11 [Aske no counsell for religion of him, that is without religion, nor of iustice, of him that hath no iustice,] nor of a woman touching thing her of whome thee is ielous, nor of a couard in matters of warre, nor of a marchant concerning exchange, nor of a buyer for the sale, nor of an enuious man touching thankfulnesse, nor of the vnmercifull touching kindnesse, [nor of an vnhoneſt man of honeſtie] nor of ſ̃ flouthfull for any labour, nor of an hireling for the finishing of a worke, nor for an idle seruaunt for much businesse: hearken not vnto these in any matter of counsell.

12 But bee continuall with a godly man whom thou knowest to keepe the commaundements of the Lorde, whose minde is according to thy minde, and is sorie for thee when thou stumblest.

13 Take counsell of thine owne heart: for there is no man more faithfull vnto thee, then it.

14 For mans minde is sometimes more accustomed to shewe more then seuen watchmen that sit aboue in an hie towre.

15 And aboue all this pray to the most High, that he will direct thy way in trueth.

16 Let reason goe before euery enterpryse, and counsell before euery action.

17 ¶ The [changing] of the countenance is a signe of the changing of the heart: foure things appeare, good and euill, life and death, but the tongue hath euermore the gouernement ouer them.

18 ¶ Some man is wittie, and hath instructed many, and yet is vnprofitable vnto himselfe.

19 Some man will be wise in wordes, and is hated, yea, he is destitute of all ‖ food. ‖ Or, wisdome.

20 Because grace is not giuen him of the Lord: for he is destitute of all wisedome.

21 Another is wise for himselfe, and the fruites of vnderstanding are faithfull in his mouth.

22 A wise man instructeth his people, and the fruits of his wisedome faile not.

23 A wise man shalbe plentifully blessed, and all they that see him, shall thinke him blessed.

24 The life of man standeth in the number of dayes: but the dayes of Israel are innumerable.

25 A wise man shal obteine credit among his people, and his name shalbe perpetuall.

26 My sonne, proue thy soule in thy life, and see what is euill for it, and permit it not to do it.

27 For all things are not profitable for all men, neither hath euery soule pleasure in euery thing.

† Of temperancie. Chap 31.19, 20. 28 Be not † greedy in all delights, and be not too hastie vpon all meates.

29 * For exceſſe of meates bringeth sicknesse, and gluttonie commeth into cholericke diseases.

‖ Or, taketh heed. 30 By surfet haue many perished: but hee that ‖ beareth himselfe, prolongeth his life.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 A Physician is commendable. 16 To burie the dead. 24 The wisedome of him that is learned.

† Of Physicians and physicke. HOnour the † Physician with that honour that is due vnto him, because of necessitie: for the Lord hath created him.

2 For of the most Hie commeth healing, and he shall receiue gifts of the king.

3 The knowledge of the Physician lifteth vp his head, and in the sight of great men hee shalbe in admiration,

4 The Lorde hath created medicines of the earth, and hee that is wise, will not abhorre them.

5 * Was not the water made sweete with wood, that men might knowe the vertue thereof? Exod. 15.25.

6 So hee hath giuen men knowledge, that hee might bee glorified in his woonderous workes.

7 With such doeth hee heale men, and taketh away their paines.

8 Of such doeth the apothecarie make a confection, & yet he cannot finish his owne workes: for of the Lord commeth prosperitie and wealth ouer all the earth.

9 My sonne, faile not in thy sickenesse, but * pray vnto the Lorde, and hee will make thee whole. Isa. 38.2, 5.

10 Leaue off from sinne, & order thine hands aright, and cleanse thine heart from all wickednesse.

11 Offer sweete incense, and fine flowre for a remembrance: make the offering fatte, for thou art not the † first giuer. † God beſtoweth first his benefits, and we must render a portion thereof, to such vses as hee appointeth.

12 Then giue place to the Physician: for the Lorde hath created him: let him not goe from thee, for thou hast need of him.

13 The houre may come, that their enterprises may haue good successe.

14 For they also shall pray vnto the Lorde, that hee would prosper that, which is giuen for ease, and their physicke for the prolonging of life.

15 Hee that sinneth before his maker, let him fall into the hands of the physician.

16 My sonne, * powre foorth teares ouer the dead, † and begin to mourne, as if thou haddest suffered great harme thy selfe, and then couer his body according to ‖ his appointment, and neglect not his burial. Chap. 22. 11. † Of mourning. ‖ Or, the ceremonie.

17 Make a grieuous lamentation, and be earnest in mourning, and vse lamentation as hee is woorthy, and that a day or two, least thou be euill spoken of, and then comfort thy selfe for thine heauinesse.

18 * For of heauinesse commeth death, and the heauines of the heart breaketh the strength. Pro. 15.13. and 17.22.

19 Of the affection of the heart commeth sorrow, and the life of him that is afflicted, is according to his heart.

20 Take no heauines to heart: driue it away and remember the last end.

21 Forget it not: for there is no turning againe: thou shalt doe him no good, but hurt thy selfe.

22 Remember his iudgement: thine also shall be likewise, vnto me yesterday, and vnto thee to day.

23 * Seeing the dead is at rest, let his remembrance rest, and comfort thy selfe againe for him, when his spirit is departed from him. 2. Sam. 12. 20.

24 ¶ The wisedome of a learned man commeth by liing well his vacant time: and he that easeth from his owne matters and labour, may come by wisedome.

25 Howe can hee get wisedome that holdeth the plough, and hee that hath pleasure in the goade, and in driuing oxen, and is occupied in their labours, and talketh but of the breede of bullocks?

26 Hee giueth his minde to make furrowes, and is diligent to giue the kine fodder.

27 So is it of euery carpenter, and workemaſter that laboureth night and day: and they that cut and graue ſeales, and make ſundry diuerſities, and giue themſelues to counterfeit imagerie, and watch to perfourme the worke.

28 The ſmith in like maner abideth by his anuill, and doeth his diligence to labour the yron: the vapour of the fire dryeth his fleſh: and hee muſt fight with the heate of the fornace: the noyſe of the hammer is euer in his eares, and his eyes looke ſtill vpon the thing that hee maketh: hee ſetteth his minde to make vp his workes: therefore he watcheth to poliſh it perfectly.

29 So doeth the potter ſit by his worke: hee turneth the wheele about with his feete: hee is carefull alwap at his worke, and maketh his worke by number.

30 He faſhioneth the clap with his arme, and with his feet hee tempereth the hardneſſe thereof: his heart imagineth howe to couer it with lead, and his diligence is to clenſe the ouen.

31 All theſe hope in their handes, and euery one beſtoweth his wiſedome in his worke.

32 Without theſe cannot the cities be maintained, nor inhabited, nor occupied.

33 And yet they are not aſked their iudgement in the counſell of the people, neither are they hie in the congregation, neither ſit they vpon the iudgement ſeates, nor vnderſtand the order of iuſtice: they cannot declare matters according to the forme of the Lawe, and they are not meet for hard matters.

34 But they maintaine the ſtate of the world, and their deſire is concerning their worke and occupation.

CHAP. XXXIX.

2 A wiſe man. 16 The workes of God. 24 Vnto the good, good things profite, but vnto the euill, euen good things are euill.

† Of true wiſdome.

HE onely that applieth his minde to the Law of the moſt High, and is occupied in the meditation thereof, ſeeketh out the wiſedome of all the auncient, and exerciſeth himſelfe in the propheſies.

2 Hee keepeth the ſayings of famous men, and entreth in alſo to the ſecrets of darke ſentences.

3 He ſeeketh out the myſtery of graue ſentences, and exerciſeth himſelfe in darke parables.

4 Hee ſhall ſerue among great men, and appeare before the prince: he ſhall trauele through ſtrange countreyes: for hee hath tried the good and the euill among men.

5 Hee will giue his heart to reſort earely vnto the Lorde that made him, and to pray before the moſt High, and will open his mouth in prayer, and pray for his ſinnes.

6 When the great Lord will, he ſhall be filled with the Spirit of vnderſtanding, that hee may powre out wiſe ſentences, and giue thankes vnto the Lord in his prayer.

‖Or, the Lord.

7 ‖ Hee ſhall direct his counſell and knowledge: ſo ſhall he meditate in his ſecrets.

8 Hee ſhall ſhewe forth his ſcience and learning, and reioyce in the Lawe and couenant of the Lord.

9 Many ſhall commend his vnderſtanding, and his memorie ſhall neuer be put out, nor depart away: but his name ſhall continue from generation to generation.

10 * The congregation ſhall declare his wiſdome, and ſhew it. Chap.44.15.

11 Though hee be dead, he ſhall leaue a greater fame then a thouſand: and if hee liue ſtill, he ſhall get the ſame.

12 Yet will I ſpeake of moe things: for I am full as the moone.

13 Hearken vnto mee, ye holy children, and bring forth fruit as the roſe that is planted by the brookes of the field.

14 And giue ye a ſweet ſmell as ‖ incenſe, and bring forth flowers as the lillie: giue a ſmell, and ſing a ſong of praiſe: bleſſe the Lord in all his workes. ‖Or, Libanus,

15 Giue honour vnto his Name, and ſhewe forth his praiſe with the ſongs of your lippes, and with harpes, and ye ſhall ſay after this maner, 16 * All the workes of the Lord are exceeding good, and all his commaundements are done in due ſeaſon. Gene.1.31. mar.7.37.

17 And none may ſay, What is this? wherefore is that? for at time conuenient, they ſhall all bee ſought out: at his commaundement the water ſtood as an heape, and at the word of his mouth the waters gathered themſelues.

18 His whole fauour appeared by his commandement, and none can diminiſh that which he will ſaue.

19 The workes of all fleſh are before him, and nothing can be hid from his eyes.

20 Hee ſeeth from euerlaſting to euerlaſting, and there is nothing wonderfull vnto him.

21 A man needs not to ſay, What is this? wherefore is this? for hee hath made all things for their owne vſe.

22 His bleſſing ſhall run ouer as the ſtreame, and moyſten the earth like a flood.

23 As hee hath turned the waters into ſaltneſſe, ſo ſhall the heathen feele his wrath. Chap.30.

24 As his wayes are plaine and right vnto the iuſt, ſo are they ſtumbling blockes to the wicked. Gene.7. Gene.3. chap.4. Eccles.

25 ¶ For the good are good things created from the beginning, and euill things for the ſinners.

26 * The principall things for the whole vſe of mans life is water, fire, and yron, and ſalt, and meale, wheate and honp, and milke, the blood of the grape, and oyle, and clothing. Chap.29.23. † Faithneſſe.

27 All theſe things are for good to the godly: but to the ſinners they are turned vnto euill.

28 There be ſpirits that are created for vengeance, which in their rigor lay on ſure ſtrokes: in the time of deſtruction they ſhew forth their power, and accompliſh the wrath of him that made them.

29 * Fire, and haile, and famine, and death: all theſe are created for vengeance. Chap.40.9, 10.

30 The teeth of wilde beaſts, & the ſcorpions, and the ſerpents, and the ſwoorde execute vengeance for the deſtruction of the wicked. Phil.4.1 1.tim.6.

31 They ſhall be glad to doe his commandements: and when neede is, they ſhall be ready vpon earth: and when their houre is come, they ſhall not ouerpaſſe the commandement.

32 There-

32 Therefore haue I taken a good courage vnto me from the beginning, and haue thought on these things, and haue put them in writing.

Gene.1.31. 33 * All the workes of the Lord are good, and wee giueth euery one in due season, and when need is:

34 So that a man neede not to say, This is worse then that: for in due season they are all worthy praise.

35 And therefore praise the Lord with whole heart and mouth, and blesse the Name of the Lord.

CHAP. XL.

1 Many miseries in mans life. 14 Of the blessing of the righteous and prerogatiue of the feare of God.

† The miseries of mans life.

GReat † trauaile is created for all men, and an heauie yoke vpon the sonnes of Adam from the day that they goe out of their mothers wombe, till the day that they returne to the mother of all things,

2 Namely their thoughtes, and feare of the heart, and their imagination of the things they wait for, and the day of death,

3 From him that sitteth vpon the glorious throne, vnto him that is beneath in the earth and ashes:

4 From him that is clothed in blewe silke, and weareth a crowne, euen vnto him that is clothed in simple linnen.

5 Wrath and enuie, trouble, and vnquietnes, and feare of death, and rigour, and strife, and in the time of rest, the sleepe in the night vpon his bed, change his knowledge.

6 A little or nothing is his rest, and afterward in sleeping he is as in a watch rowre in the day: he is troubled with the visions of his heart, as one that runneth out of a battell.

7 And when all is safe, he awaketh, and marueileth that the feare was nothing.

8 Such things come vnto all flesh, both man and beast, but seuen folde to the vngodly:

9 Moreouer, * death and blood, and strife, and sworde, oppression, famine, destruction, and punishment.

Chap.39.29, 30.

10 These things are all created for the wicked, and for their sakes came the * flood also.

Gene.7.11.

11 * All things that are of the earth, shall turne to earth againe: and they that are of the * waters, shall returne into the sea.

Gene.3.19. chap.41.10. Eccles.1.7.

12 All bribes and vnrighteousnesse shall be put away: but † faithfulnesse shall endure for euer.

† Faithfulnesse.

13 The substance of the vngodly shalbe dried vp like a riuer, and they shall make a sound like a great thunder in the rame.

14 When he openeth his hand, he reioyceth: but all the transgressours shall come to nought.

15 The children of the vngodly shall not obteine many branches: for the vncleane rootes are as vpon the hie rocks.

16 Their tender stalke by what water soeuer it be or water banke, it shall be pulled vp before all other herbes.

17 Friendlines is as a most plentifull garden of pleasure, and mercie endureth for euer.

Phil.4.12. 1.tim.6,6.

18 * To labour and to bee content with that a man hath, is a sweet life: but hee that findeth a treasure, is aboue them both.

19 Children, and the building of the citie maketh a perpetuall name: but an honest woman is counted aboue them both.

20 Wine and musicke reioyce the heart: but the loue of wisedome is aboue them both.

21 The pipe and the psalterion make a sweet noyse: but a pleasant tongue is aboue them both.

22 Thine eye desireth fauor and beautie: but a greene seed time, rather then them both.

23 A friend, and companion come together at opportunitie: but aboue them both is a wife with her husband.

24 Friends and helpe are good in the time of trouble: but almes shall deliuer more then them both.

25 Golde and siluer fasten the feet: but counsell is esteemed aboue them both.

26 Riches and strength lift vp the minde: but the feare of the Lorde is aboue them both: there is no want in the feare of the Lorde, and it needeth no helpe.

27 The feare of the Lorde is a pleasant garden of blessing, and there is nothing so beautifull as it is.

28 My sonne, leade not a beggers life: for better it were to die then to begge.

29 The life of him that dependeth on another mans table, is not to be counted for a life: for he tormenteth himselfe after other mens meate: but a wise man and well nourtured will beware thereof.

30 Begging is sweet in the mouth of the vnshamefast, and in his belly there burneth a fire.

CHAP. XLI.

1 Of the remembrance of death. 3 Death is not to be feared. 8 A curse vpon them that forsake the Lawe of God. 12 Good name and fame. 14 An exhortation to giue heed vnto wisdome. 17 Of what things a man ought to be ashamed.

† Of death.

O † Death, how bitter is the remembrance of thee to a man that liueth at rest in his possessions, vnto the man that hath nothing to vexe him, and that hath prosperity in all things: yea, vnto him that yet is able to receiue meate!

2 O death, how acceptable is thy iudgement vnto the needfull, vnto him whose strength faileth, and that is now in the last age, and is vexed with all things, and to him that despaireth, and hath lost patience!

3 Feare not the iudgement of death: remember them that haue bene before thee, and that come after: this is the ordinance of the Lorde ouer all flesh.

4 And why wouldest thou bee against the pleasure of the most High? whether it be tenne, or an hundreth, or a thousand yeeres, there is no defence for life against the graue.

5 The children of the vngodly are abominable children, and so are they that keepe companie with the vngodly.

6 The inheritance of vngodly children shall perish, and their posteritie shall haue a perpetuall shame.

7 The children complaine of an vngodly father, because they are reproched for his sake.

8 Woe be vnto you, O ye vngodly, which haue forsaken the lawe of the most High God: for though you increase, yet shall you perish.

9 If ye be borne, ye shall be borne to cursing: if ye die, the curse shall be your portion.

10 * All that is of the earth, shall turne to earth Chap.40.11. againe:

againe: so the vngodly goe from the curse to destruction.

11 Though men mourne for their body, yet the wicked name of the vngodly shalbe put out.

12 Haue regarde to thy name: for that shall continue with thee aboue a thousand treasures of golde.

13 A good life hath the dayes numbred: but †a good name endureth euer.

†A good name. Chap.20.29.

14 My children, keepe wisdome in peace: * for wisdome that is hid, and a treasure that is not seene, what profit is in them both?

15 A man that hideth his foolishnesse, is better then a man that hideth his wisdome.

16 Therfore beare reuerence vnto my words: for it is not good in all things to bee †ashamed: neither are all things allowed as faithfull in all men.

†Of shamefastnesse.

17 Bee ashamed of whoredome before father and mother: be ashamed of lies before the prince and men of authoritie:

18 Of sinne before the iudge and ruler: of offence before the congregation and people: of vnrighteousnesse before a companion and friend:

19 And of theft before the place where thou dwellest, and before the truth of God and his couenant, and to leane with thine elbowes vpon the ‖ bread, or to bee reproued for giuing or taking.

‖Or, table.

20 And of silence vnto them that salute thee, and to looke vpon an harlot,

21 And to turne away thy face from thy kinsman: or to take away a portion or a gift, or to be euill minded toward another mans wife,

22 Or to solicite any mans mayd, or to stand by her bedde, or to reproch thy friendes with words, 23 Or to vpbrayde when thou giuest any thing, or to report a matter that thou hast heard, or to reueale secret words.

24 Thus mayest thou well be shamefast, and shalt finde fauour with all men.

CHAP. XLII.

1 The Lawe of God must be taught. 9 A daughter. 14 A woman. 18 God knoweth all things, yea, euen the secrets of thine heart.

†In what things we ought not to be ashamed.

OF these things be not thou †ashamed, neither haue regard to offend for any person:

2 Of the Law of the most Hie and his couenant, and of iudgement to iustifie the godly:

3 Of the cause of thy companion, & of strangers, or of distributing the heritage among friendes:

4 To bee diligent to keepe true balance, and weight, whether thou haue much or little:

5 To sell marchandise at an indifferent price, and to correct thy children diligently, and to beate an euill seruant to the blood:

6 To set a good locke where an euill wife is, and to locke where many hands are:

7 If thou giue any thing by number, and weight, to put al in writing, both that that is giuen out, and that that is receiued againe:

8 To teach the vnlearned, and the vnwise, and the aged, that contend against the young: thus shalt thou be well instructed, and approoued of all men liuing.

‖Or, is a secret watch to the father.

9 ¶ The daughter ‖ maketh the father to watch secretly, and the carefulnesse that hee hath for her, taketh away his sleepe in the youth, least she should passe the flower of her age: and when shee hath an husband, least she should bee hated:

10 In her virginitie, least shee should be defiled, or gotten with childe in her fathers house, and, when shee is with her husband, least shee misbehaue her selfe: and when shee is married, least she commme vnfruitfull.

11 * If thy daughter bee vnshamefast, keepe her straitly, least she cause thine enemie to laugh thee to scorne, and make thee a common talke in the citie, and diffame thee among the people, and bring thee to publike shame. Chap.26,10, 12 * Beholde not euery bodies beautie, and companye not among women. Chap.25.23.

13 For as the mothe commeth out of garments: * so doeth wickednesse of the woman. Gene.3.6.

14 The wickednesse of a man is better then the good intreatie of a woman, to wit, of a woman that is in shame, and reproch.

15 ¶ I wil remember the workes of the Lorde, and declare the thing that I haue seene: by the word of the Lord are his workes.

16 The sunne that shineth, looketh vpon all things, and all the worke thereof is full of the glory of the Lord.

17 Hath not the Lorde appointed that his Saintes shoulde declare all his wonderous works, which the almighty Lord hath stablished to confirme all things by in his maiestie.

18 Hee seeketh out the depth, and the heart, and hee knoweth their practises: for their Lord knoweth all science, & he beholdeth the signes of the world.

19 He declareth the things that are past, and for to come, and discloseth the pathes of thinges that are secret.

20 * No thought may escape him, neither may any word be hid from him. Iob.41.4. Isa.29.15.

21 He hath garnished the excellent workes of his wisdome, and he is from euerlasting to euerlasting, and for euer: vnto him may nothing bee added, neither can hee be minished: hee hath no neede of any counseller.

22 Oh, how delectable are all his works, and to be considered euen vnto the sparkes of fire!

23 They liue all and endure for euer: and whensoeuer neede is, they are all obedient.

24 They are all double one against another: he hath made nothing that hath any fault.

25 The one ‖ commendeth the goodnes of the other, and who can bee satisfied with beholding Gods glory?

‖Or, stablisheth.

CHAP. XLIII.

The summe of the creation of the works of God.

†The woonderfull works of God.

THis high ornament † the cleare firmament, the beautie of the heauen so glorious to beholde,

2 The sunne also, a marueilous instrument when it appeareth, declareth at his going out, the worke of the most High.

3 At noone it burneth the countrey, and who may abide for the heate thereof?

4 The sunne burneth the mountaines three times more then fire that keepeth a furnace with continuall heate: it casteth out the fierie vapours, and with the shining beames blindeth the eyes.

5 Great is the Lord that made it, and by his commandement he causeth it to run hastily.

6* The

Gen.1.16. 6 * The moone also hath hee made to appeare accoyding to her season, that it should be a declaration of the time, & a signe for the world.

Exod.12,2. 7 * The feasts are appointed by the moone: the light thereof diminisheth vnto the end.

8 The moneth is called after the name thereof, and groweth wonderously in her changing.

9 It is a campe pitched on high, shining in the firmament of heauen: the beautie of heauen are the glorious starres, and the ornament that shineth in the high places of the Lord.

10 By the commandement of the Holy one they continue in their order, & faile not in their watch.

Gen.9.13,14 11 ¶ * Looke vpon the raine bow, and praise him that made it: very beautifull is it in the brightnesse thereof.

Isa,40.12. 12 * It compasseth the heauen about with a glorious circle, and the hands of the most High haue bended it.

13 ¶ Through his commandement hee maketh the snowe to haste, and sendeth swiftly the lightning of his iudgement.

14 Therefore he openeth his treasures, and the cloudes flie foorth as the foules.

15 In his power hath hee strengthened the cloudes, and broken the haile stones.

16 The mountaines leape at the sight of him: the Southwind bloweth according to his will.

17 The sound of his thunder breaketh the earth: so doeth the storme of the North: the whirlwind also, as birds that flie, scattereth the snowe, and the falling downe thereof is as the grasshoppers that light downe.

18 The eye marueileth at the beautie of the whitenesse thereof, and the heart is astonished at the raine of it.

19 Hee also powreth out the frost vpon the earth like salt, and when it is frosen, it sticketh on the tops of pales.

20 When the cold Northwinde bloweth, and yce is frosen of the water, it abideth vpon all the gatherings together of water, and clotheth the waters as with a brestplate.

21 It deuoureth the mountaines, and burneth the wildernesse, and destroyeth that, that is greene, like fire.

22 The remedie of all these is when a cloude commeth hastily, and when a dewe commeth vpon the heate, it refresheth it.

23 [By his word he stilleth the winde:] by his counsell he appeaseth the deepe, and planteth ylands therein.

24 They that saile ouer the sea, tell of the perils thereof, and when wee heare it with our eares, we marueil thereat.

25 For there bee strange, and wonderous workes, diuers maners of beasts, and the creation of Whales.

26 Through him are all things directed to a good end, and are stablished by his word.

27 And when we haue spoken much, we can not attaine vnto them: but this is the summe of all, that he is all.

28 What power haue we to praise him? for he is aboue all his workes.

Psal.96.4. 29 The Lord is terrible, and very * great, and marueilous is his power.

30 Praise the Lorde, and magnifie him as much as ye can, yet doeth he farre exceed: exalt him with all your power, and bee not wearie, yet can ye not attaine vnto it.

31 * Who hath seene him, that hee might tell vs? and who can magnifie him as he is? Iohn 1.18. psal.106.2.

32 For there are hid yet greater things then these bee, and wee haue seene but a fewe of his workes.

33 For the Lord hath made all things, and giuen wisedome to such as feare God.

CHAP. XLIIII.

The praise of certaine holy men, Enoch, Noe, Abraham, Isaac and Iacob.

LEt vs now commend the famous men, and our fathers, of whom we are begotten.

2 The Lord hath gotten great glory by them, and that through his great power from the beginning.

3 They haue borne rule in their kingdomes, and were renowmed for their power, and were wise in counsell, and declared prophecies.

4 * They gouerned the people by counsell, Exod.18,25. and by the knowledge of learning meete for the people, in whose doctrine were wise sentences.

5 They inuented the melodie of musike, and expounded the verses that were written.

6 They were rich and mightie in power, and liued quietly at home.

7 All these were honourable men in their generations, and were well reported of in their times.

8 There are of them that haue left a name behind them, so that their praise shall be spoken of.

9 There are some also which haue no memoriall, * and are perished as though they had Gen.7,22. neuer bene, and are become as though they had neuer bene borne, and their children after them.

10 But the former were merciful men, whose righteousnesse hath not bene forgotten.

11 For whose posteritie a good inheritance is reserued, and their seed is conteined in the couenant.

12 Their stocke is conteined in the couenant, and their posteritie after them.

13 Their seed shall remaine for euer, and their praise shall neuer be taken away.

14 Their bodies are buried in peace, but their name liueth for euermore.

15 * The people speake of their wisedome, and Chap.39.10. the congregation talke of their praise.

16 † * Enoch pleased the Lord God: therefore † Enoch. was he translated for an ensample of repentance Gen.5.24. to the generations. hebr.11.5.

17 † * Noe was found perfite, and in the time † Noe. of wrath he had a reward: therefore was hee Gen.6.9. left as a remnant vnto the earth, when the flood and 7.1. came. hebr.11.7.

18 An euerlasting couenant was made with him, that all flesh should * perish no more by the Gen.9.11. flood.

19 † Abraham was a * greater father of many † Abraham. people: in glory was there none like vnto him. Gene.12.3.

20 He kept the Lawe of the most High, and and 15.5. was in couenant with him, and he set the cou- and 17.4. nant * in his flesh, and in tentation hee was Gene.21.4. found faithfull.

of the earth, and exalt his seede as the starres, and cause them to inherite from sea to sea, and from the riuer vnto the end of the world.

Gen.26.2,3. † Isaac. 22 * With † Isaac did hee confirme likewise for Abrahams his fathers sake, the blessing of all men, and the couenant, † Iacob. ‖ Or, knew him. Gen.27.28. and 28.1. Gen.28.14. † Ioseph. 23 And caused it to rest vpon the head of † Iacob, and ‖ made himselfe knowen by * his blessings, and gaue him an heritage and diuided his portions, * and parted them among the twelue tribes.

24 And he brought out of him a † mercifull man, which found fauour in the sight of al flesh.

CHAP. XLV.

The praise of Moyses, Aaron and Phinees.

† Moses. Exod.1.1.3. acts.7.22. AND † Moyses the * beloued of God and men, brought hee foorth, whose remembrance is blessed,

2 Hee made him like to the glorious Saintes, and magnified him by the feare of his enemies

3 By his wordes hee caused the wonders to cease, and he made him * glorious in the sight of Kings, and gaue him commandements for his people, and shewed him his glory.

Exod.6.7.8. 9.chapters. Num.12.3. 4 * He sanctified him with faithfulnesse, and meekenesse, and chose him out of all men.

5 Hee caused him to heare his voyce, and brought him into the darke cloude, * and there hee gaue him the commaundements before his face, euen the Lawe of life and knowledge, that he might teach Iacob the couenant, and Israel his iudgements.

Exod.19.7. † Aaron. Exod.4.22. 6 He exalted † Aaron an holy man like vnto him, euen his * brother of the tribe of Leui.

7 An euerlasting couenant made hee with him, and gaue him the Priesthoode among the people, and made him blessed thoughe his comely ornament, and clothed him with the garment of honour.

8 Hee put perfection vpon him, and girded him with ornaments of strength, as with breeches, and a tunicle, and an ephod.

9 Hee compassed him about with belles of gold, and with many bels round about, * that when he went in, the sound might be heard, and might make a noyse in the Sanctuarie, for a remembrance to the children of Israel his people,

Exod.28.35. 10 And with an holy garment, with gold also, and blue silke, and purple, and diuers kindes of workes, and with a brest lap of iudgement, and with the † signes of truth,

† Vrim and Thummim. 11 And with worke of skarlet cunningly wrought, and with precious stones grauen like seales, and set in gold by goldsmiths worke for a memorial, with a writing grauen after the number of the tribes of Israel, a That was, either put into his hand the booke of the Lawe written to read vnto the people, or els some sacrifice that he might offer vnto God for their offences. 12 And with a crowne of gold vpon the mitre, bearing the marke or forme of holinesse, an ornament of honour, a noble worke garnished, and pleasant to looke vpon.

13 Before him were there no such faire ornaments: there might no stranger put them on, but onely his children, and his childrens children perpetually.

Leuit.8.12. 14 Their sacrifices were wholy consumed euery day twise continually.

15 Moyses filled his hands, * and anointed him with holy oyle: this was appointed vnto him by an euerlasting couenant, and to his seed, so long as the heauens should remaine, that hee should minister before him, and also to execute the office of the Priesthood, and bless his people in his name.

16 Before all men liuing the Lorde chose him that he should present offerings before him, and a sweete sauour for a remembrance to make reconciliation for his people.

Deut.17.10. and 21.5. 17 * He gaue him also his commandements and authoritie according to the Lawes appointed, that he should teach Iacob the testimonies, and giue light vnto Israel by his Law.

Num.16.1,2 18 * Strangers stoode vp against him, and enuied him in the wildernesse, euen the men that tooke Dathans and Abirams part, & the compasse of Core in furie and rage.

19 This the Lord sawe, and it displeased him, and in his wrathfull indignation were they consumed: he did wonders vpon them, and consumed them with the fierie flame.

Num.17.8. 20 * But he made Aaron more honourable, and gaue him an heritage, and parted the first fruites of the first borne vnto him: vnto him specially he appointed bread in abundance.

21 For the Priestes did eate of the sacrifices of the Lorde, which hee gaue vnto him and to his seede.

Deut.12,13. and 18.1. 22 * Els had he none heritage in the land of his people, neither had hee any portion among the people: for the Lord is the portion of his inheritance.

† Phinees. Num.25.12, 13. 1.mac.2. 54. 23 The third in glory is † * Phinees the sonne of Eleazar, because hee had zeale in the feare of the Lorde, and stoode vp with good courage of heart, when the people were turned backe, and made reconciliation for Israel.

24 Therefore was there a couenant of peace made with him, that hee should bee the chiefe of the Sanctuarie and of his people, and that hee and his posteritie should haue the dignitie of the priesthood for euer.

25 And according to the couenant made with Dauid, that the inheritance of the kingdome should remaine to his sonne of the tribe of Iuda: so the heritage of Aaron should bee to the onely sonne of his sonne, and to his seede. God giue vs wisedome in our heart to iudge his people in righteousnesse, that the good things that they haue, be not abolished, and that their glory may endure for their posteritie.

CHAP. XLVI.

The praise of Iosue, Caleb and Samuel.

† Iosue. Num.27.18. deut.34.9. iosh.1.2.and 12.7. IEsus † * the sonne of Naue was valiant in the warres, and was the successour of Moses in prophecies, who according vnto his name was a great sauiour of the elect of God, to take vengeance of the enemies that rose vp against them, and to set Israel in their inheritance.

Iosh.8.1,2. 2 * What glory gate he, when hee lift vp his hand, & drew out his sword against the cities?

3 Who was there before him, like to him? for he fought the battels of the Lord, Iosh.10.12, 13,14. 4 * Stood not the Sunne still by his meanes, and one day was as long as two?

5 He called vnto the most high Gouernour, when the enemies pressed vpon him on euery side, and the mightie Lord heard him with the haile stones, and with mightie power.

Iosh.10.11. 6 Hee rushed in vpon the nations in battell, and in the * going downe of Bethoron hee destroyed stroyed the aduersaries, that they might knowe his weapons, and that he fought in the sight of the Lord: for he ‖followed the Almightie.

‖Or, that the Lord fauoured his battel.

7 * In the time of Moyses also he did a good worke: hee and † Caleb the sonne of Jephune stoode against the enemie, and withheld the people from sinne, and appeased the wicked murmuring.

‖Or, pursued the mightie men.

Num. 14. 6.

8 *And of sixe hundred thousand people of foot, they two were preserued to bring them into the heritage, euen into the land that floweth with milke and honie.

1 mac. 2. 55, 56.

† Caleb.

Num. 26. 65.

9 * The Lord gaue strength also vnto Caleb, which remained with him vnto his olde age, so that he went vp into the hie places of the land, and his seed obteined it for an heritage.

deu. 1. 35, 36. Iosh. 14. 11.

10 That all the children of Israel might see, that it is good to follow the Lord.

11 Concerning the † Judges, euery one by name, whose heart went not a whoring, nor departed from the Lorde, their memorie be blessed.

†Iudges,

12 Let * their bones flourish out of their place, and their names by succession remaine to them that are most famous of their children.

Chap. 49. 10.

13 ¶ †Samuel the Prophet of the Lord, beloued of the Lord: *ordeined kings, and anointed the princes ouer his people.

† Samuel.

1. Sam. 10. 1. and 16. 13.

14 By the Lawe of the Lorde hee iudged the congregation, and the Lorde had respect vnto Jacob.

15 This Prophete was approoued for his faithfulnes, and he was knowen faithful in his words and visions.

16 * He called vpon the Lord Almighty, when his enemies preased vpon him on euery side, when he offred the sucking lambe.

1. Sam. 7. 9, 10, 11.

17 And the Lord thundred from heauen, and made his voyce to be heard with a great noyse.

18 So he discomfited the princes of the Tyrians, and all the rulers of the Philistims.

19 *And before his long sleepe he made protestation, in the sight of the Lorde, and his anointed, that he tooke no substance of any man, no not so much as a shoe, and no man could accuse him.

2. Sam. 12. 3.

20 *After his sleepe also he told of the kings death, and from the earth lift he vp his voyce, and prophesied that the wickednesse of the people should perish.

1 Sam. 28, 18, 19.

CHAP. XLVII.

The praise of Nathan, Dauid, and Salomon.

AFter him rose vp † * Nathan to prophesie in the time of Dauid.

† Nathan.

2. Sam. 12. 1.

2 For as the fatte is taken away from the peace offering, so was † Dauid chosen out of the children of Israel.

† Dauid.

3 * He played with the lions, as with kids, and with beares, as with lambes.

1. Sam. 17. 34.

4 *Slew he not a giant when he was yet but yong, and tooke away the rebuke from the people, when hee lift vp his hand with the stone in the sling, to beate downe the pride of Goliah?

1. Sam. 17. 49, 50, 51.

5 For he called vpon the most High Lorde, which gaue him strength in his right hand, to slay that mightie warriour, and that hee might set vp the horne of his people againe.

1. Sam. 18. 7. ‖Or, the people.

6 * So † he gaue him the praise of ten thousand, and honoured him with ‖ great praises, and gaue him a crowne of glory.

‖Or, with blessings of the Lord.

7 * For he destroyed the enemies on euery side, and rooted out the Philistims his aduersaries, and brake their horne in sunder vnto this day.

2. Sam. 5. 7.

8 In all his works he praised the Holy one, and the most High with honorable words, and with his whole heart he sung songs, and loued him that made him.

9 * Hee set singers also before the altar, and according to their time hee made sweete songs, that they might praise God daply with their songs.

1. Chro. 16. 4.

10 Hee ordained to keepe the feast dayes comely, and appointed the times perfectly, that they might praise the holy Name of God, and make the Temple to sound in the morning.

11 *The Lorde tooke away his sinnes, and exalted his horne for euer: hee gaue him the couenant of the kingdome, and the throne of glorie in Israel.

2. Sam. 12. 13.

12 After him rose vp a wise sonne, who by him dwelt in a large possession.

13 †*Salomon reigned in a peaceable time, and was glorious: for God made all quiet round about, that hee might builde an house in his Name, & prepare the Sanctuarie for euer.

† Salomon. 1. King. 4. 21, 24.

14 * How wise wast thou in thy youth, and wast filled with vnderstanding as with a flood.

1. King. 4. 29, 30.

15 Thy minde couered the whole earth, and hath filled it with graue and darke sentences.

16 Thy name went abroade in the ples, and for thy peace thou wast beloued.

17 *The countreys marueiled at thee for thy songs, and prouerbes, and similitudes, and interpretations.

1. Kin. 10. 31, 32.

18 By the Name of the Lorde God, which is called the God of Israel, thou hast * gathered golde as tinne, and hast had as much siluer as lead.

1. King. 10. 27.

19 *Thou diddest bowe thy loynes to women, and wast ouercome by thy body.

1. King. 11. 1.

20 Thou diddest staine thine honour, and hast defiled thy posteritie, & thou brought wrath vpon thy children, and hast felt sorrow for thy folly.

21 *So the kingdome was deuided, and Ephraim began to be a rebellious kingdome.

1. King. 12. 15, 16, 17.

22 * Neuertheless the Lorde left not off his mercy, neither was he destroyed for his works: neither did hee abolish the posteritie of his elect, nor tooke away the seed of him that loued him, but hee left a remnant vnto Jacob, and a roote of him vnto Dauid.

2. Sam. 7. 15.

23 Thus rested Salomon with his fathers, and of his seede hee left behinde him † Roboam, euen ‖the foolishnesse of the people, and one that had no vnderstanding, *who turned away the people through his counsell, and † Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, * which caused Israel to sinne, and shewed Ephraim the way of sinne.

† Roboam. ‖Or, a most euident foole 1. King. 12. 10, 11, 13, 14.

24 So that their sinnes were so much increased, that they were driuen out of the land.

† Ieroboam. 1. King. 12. 28, 30.

25 For they sought out all wickednesse, till the vengeance came vpon them.

CHAP. XLVIII.

The praise of Elias, Eliseus, Ezekias and Isaias.

THen stood vp † * Elias the Prophet as a fire, and his word burnt like a lampe.

† Elias. 1. Kin. 17. 1.

2 He

2 He brought a famine vpon them, and by his zeale hee diminished them: [for they might not awap with the commaundements of the Lord.]

1.*Kin.*18. 38. & 2.kin. 1.10,12. 3 By the word of the Lord he shut the heauen, * and three times brought he the fire from heauen.

4 O Elias, how honourable art thou by thy wonderous deedes! who may make his boast to be like thee!

1.*King.*17. 21,22. 5 *Which hast raised vp the dead from death, and by the worde of the most High out of the graue:

6 Which hast brought Kings vnto destruction, and the honourable from their seate:

1.*King.*19. 16,17. †The wickednes of Achab and Iezabel. 8 *Which diddest annoint Kings that they might †recompense, and Prophets to bee thy successours:

2.*Kin.*2.11. *Mala.*4.5. 9 *Which wast taken vp in a whirlwind of fire, and in a charet of fierie horses:

10 Which was appointed *to reprooue in due season, and to pacifie the wrath of the Lords indgement before it kindled, and to turne the hearts of the fathers vnto the children, and to set vp the tribes of Iacob.

11 Blessed were they that saw thee, and slept in loue: for *we shall liue.

a That is, they that are such.

2.*King.*2. 12,15. †Eliseus. 12 * When Elias was couered with the storme, †Eliseus was filled in his spirit: while he liued, he was not moued for any prince, neither could any bring him into subiection.

2.*King.13. 21. 13 Nothing could ouercome him, and after his death his body prophecied.

14 Hee did wonders in his life, and in death were his workes marueilous.

2.*King.*18. 11,12. 15 For all this the people repented not, neither departed they from their sinnes: * till they were caried awap prisoners out of their lande, and were scattered through all the earth, so that there remained but a verp fewe people with the prince vnto the house of Dauid.

16 Howbeit some of them did right, and some heaped vp sinnes.

†Ezekias. 2.*King.*18.2 17 †*Ezekias made his citie strong, and conueped water into the middes thereof, he digged through the rocke with yron, and made fountaines for waters.

2.*King.*18. 13. 18 *In his time came Sennacherib vp, and sent Rabsaces, and lift vp his hand against Sion, and boasted proudly.

19 Then trembled their heartes and handes, so that they sorrowed like a woman in trauell.

20 But they called vpon the Lord, which is mercifull, and lift vp their handes vnto him, and immediatly the Holy one heard them out of heauen.

21 [Hee thought no more vpon their sinnes, nor gaue them ouer to their enemies,] but deliuered them by the hand of Esai.

2.*Kin.*19.35 *Isa.*37.36. *Tob*1.18. 1.*mac.*7.41. 2.*mac.*8.19. 22 *He smote the hoste of the Assyrians, and his Angel destroyed them.

†Isaias. 2.*King.*20. 10,11. *Isa.*38.8. 23 For Ezekias had done the thing that pleased the Lord, and remained stedfastly in the wapes of Dauid his father, as †Esai the great Prophete and faithfull in his vision had commaunded him.

24 *In his time the sunne went backward, and he lengthened the Kings life.

25 He saw by an excellent spirit what should come to passe at the last, and he comforted them that were sorowfull in Sion.

26 He shewed what should come to passe for euer, & secret things, or euer they came to passe.

CHAP. XLIX.

Of Iosias, Hezekiah, Dauid, Ieremie, Ezechiel, Zorobabel, Iesus, Nehemias, Enoch, Ioseph, Sem, and Seth.

THe remembraunce of †* Iosias is like the composition of the perfume that is made by the arte of the Apothecarie: it is sweete as honp in all mouthes, and as musike at a banquet of wine. †Iosias. 2.*Kin.*22.1, and 23.2. 2.*chro.*34.3, 3 In his dayes the places to receive water, that were decayed, were restored, and the brasse was about in measure as the a sea.

a Which Salomon made, 1.Kin. 7.23.

4 Hee tooke care for his people, that they should not fall, and fortified the citie against the siege.

5 How honourable was his conversation among the people, and when hee came out of the house covered with the vaile!

6 He was as the morning starre in the mids of a cloud, and as the moone when it is full,

7 And as the sunne shining vpon the Temple of the most High, and as the rainebow that is bright in the faire cloudes,

8 And as the floure of the roses in the spring of the yeere, and as lilies by the springs of waters, and as the branches of the frankincense tree in the time of summer,

9 As a fire and incense in the censer, and as a vessel of massie gold, set with all maner of precious stones,

10 And as a faire olive tree that is fruitfull, and as a cypresse tree, which groweth vp to the cloudes.

11 When hee put on the garment of honour and was clothed with all beautie, he went vp to the holy altar, and made the garment of holinesse honourable.

12 When hee tooke the portions out of the Priests hands, he himselfe stood by the herth of the altar compassed with his brethren round about, as the branches do the cedar tree in Libanus, and they compassed him as the branches of the palme trees.

13 So were all the sonnes of Aaron in their glory, and the oblations of the Lorde in their hands before all the congregation of Israel.

14 And that hee might accomplish his ministerie vpon the altar, and garnish the offering of the most High, and Almightie, 15 He stretched out his hand to the drinke offring, and powred of the blood of the grape, and he powred at the foote of the altar a perfume of good savour vnto the most high King of all.

16 Then shouted the sonnes of Aaron, and blowed with brasen trumpets, & made a great noyse to be heard, for a remembrance before the most High.

17 Then all the people together hasted, and fell downe to the earth vpon their faces to worship their Lord God almightie, and most high.

18 The singers also sang with their voices, so that the sound was great, & the melodie sweete.

19 And the people prayed vnto the Lord most high with prayer before him that is mercifull, till the honour of the Lord were performed, and they had accomplished his service.

20 Then went hee downe, and stretched out his hands ouer the whole Congregation of the children of Israel, that they should giue praise with their lips vnto the Lord, and reioyce in his Name.

21 He began againe to worship, that he might receiue the blessing of the most High.

22 Now therfore giue praise al ye vnto God, that worketh great things euery where, which hath increased our dayes from the wombe, and dealt with vs according to his mercy,

23 That hee would giue vs ioyfulnesse of heart, and peace in our dayes in Israel, as in old time, 24 That he would confirme his mercy with vs, and deliuer vs at his time.

25 ¶ There be two maner of people, that my heart abhorreth, and the third is no people:

27 ¶ Iesus the sonne of Sirach, the sonne of Eleazarus of Ierusalem, hath written the doctrine of vnderstanding and knowledge in this booke, and hath powred out the wisdome of his heart.

28 Blessed is he that exerciseth himselfe therin: and he that layeth vp these in his heart, shall be wise.

29 For if he do these things, he shalbe strong in all things: for hee setteth his steps in the light of the Lord, which giueth wisedome to the godly. The Lord be praysed for euermore. So be it, so be it.

CHAP. LI.

A prayer of Iesus the sonne of Sirach.

I Will confesse thee, O Lord & King, and prayse thee, O God my sauiour: I will giue thankes vnto thy Name.

2 For thou art my defender and helper, and hast preserued my body from destruction, and from the snare of the slaunderous tongue, and from the lips that are occupied with lies: thou hast holpen me against mine aduersaries,

3 And hast deliuered mee according to the multitude of thy mercy, & for thy Names sake, from the roaring of them that were ready to deuour me, and out of the hands of such as sought after my life, and from the manifold afflictions which I had,

4 And from the fire that choked mee round about, and from the mids of the fire that I burned not,

5 And from the bottome of the belly of hell, from an vncleane tongue, from lying wordes, from false accusation to the King, and from the slander of an vnrighteous tongue.

6 [My soule shal prayse the Lord vnto death:] for my soule drew neere vnto death: my life was neere to the hell beneath.

7 They compassed mee on euery side, & there was no man to helpe mee: I looked for the succour of men, but there was none.

8 Then thought I vpon thy mercy, O Lord, and vpon thine acts of old, how thou deliuerest such as waite for thee, and sauest them out of the hands of the ‖enemies.

‖ Or, nations.

9 Then lifted I vp my prayer frō the earth, and prayed for deliuerance from death.

10 I called vpon the Lorde the Father of my Lord, that hee would not leaue me in the day of my trouble, and in the time of the proude without helpe.

11 I will prayse thy Name continually, and will sing prayse with thanksgiuing: and my prayer was heard.

12 Thou sauedst me from destruction, & deliueredst me from the euil time: therefore will I giue thanks, and praise thee, & bless the Name of the Lord.

13 When I was yet young, or euer I went abroad, abroad, I desired wisedom openly in my praier.

14 I prayed for her before the Temple, and sought after her vnto farre countries, & she was as a grape that wareth ripe out of the flower.
15 Mine heart reioyced in her: my foote walked in the right way, and from my youth vp sought I after her.
16 I bowed somewhat downe mine eare, and receiued her, and gate me much wisedome:
17 And I profited by her: therefore will I ascribe the glory vnto him, that giueth me wisedome.
18 For I am aduised to do thereafter: I will be iealous of that that is good: so shal I not be confounded.
19 My soule hath wrestled with her, and I haue examined my workes: I lifted vp mine handes on hie, and considered the ignorances thereof.
20 I directed my soule vnto her, & I found her in pureneſſe: I haue had mine heart ioyned with her from the beginning: therefore shall I not be forsaken.
21 My bowels are troubled in seeking her: therefore haue I gotten a good possession.
22 The Lord hath giuen me a tongue for my reward, wherewith I will praise him.
23 Draw neere vnto mee, yee vnlearned, and dwell in the house of learning.
24 Wherefore are you slowe? and what say you of these things, seeing your soules are very thirstie?
25 I opened my mouth, and said, *Buy her Isa.55.1. for you without money.
26 Bow downe your necke vnder the yoke, and your soule shall receiue instruction: shee is ready that ye may finde her.
27 Beholde with your eyes, * howe that I Chap.6.18. haue had but little labour, and haue gotten vnto me much rest.
28 Get learning with a great summe of money: for by her ye shall possesse much golde.
29 Let your soule reioyce in the mercy of the Lord, and be not ashamed of his praise.
30 Doe your dueties betimes, and he will giue you a reward at his time.

¶ Baruch.

CHAP. I.

1 Baruch wrote a booke during the captiuitie of Babylon, which hee read before Iechoniah and all the people. 10 The Iewes sent the booke with money vnto Ierusalem to their other brethren, to the intent that they should pray for them.

AND these are the words of the Booke, which Baruch the sonne of Nerias, the sonne of Maasias, the sonne of Sedecias, the sonne of ‖Asadias, the sonne of Helcias wrote in at Babylon, ‖Or, Sedeias.

2 In the fift yeere, and in the seuenth day of the moneth, what time as the Chaldeans tooke Ierusalem, and burnt it with fire.
3 And Baruch did reade the wordes of this booke, that Iechonias the sonne of Joacim king of Juda might heare, & all the people that were come to heare the booke,
4 And in the audience of the gouernour, and of the kings sonnes, and before the Elders, and before the whole people, from the lowest vnto the highest, before all them that dwelt at Babylon by the riuer ‖ Sud.

‖Or, Sodi.

5 Which when they heard it, wept, fasted, and made prayers before the Lord.
6 They made a collection also of money, according to euery mans power,
7 And sent it to Jerusalem vnto Joacim the sonne of Helcias the sonne of Salom Priest, and vnto the other Priestes, and to all the people, which were with him at Jerusalem,
8 When hee had receiued the vessels of the Temple of the Lorde, that were taken away out of the Temple, to bring them againe into the land of Juda, the tenth day of the moneth ‖ Siuan, to wit, siuer vessels, which Sedecias the sonne of Josias king of Juda had made.

‖Or, Sibun.

9 After that Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon had led away Iechonias from Jerusalem, and his princes, and his nobles, prisoners, and the people, and caried them to Babylon,
10 And they said, Beholde, we haue sent you money, wherewith yee shall buy burnt offerings for sinne, and incense, and prepare a ‖meat offering, and offer vpon the altar of the Lorde our God,

‖Or, Manna. for Minhah which was the euening and morning sacrifice.

11 And pray for the life of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, & for the life of Baltasar his sonne, that their dayes may bee vpon earth, as the dayes of heauen, 12 And that God would giue vs strength and lighten our eyes, that wee may liue vnder the shadow of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, & vnder the shadow of Baltasar his sonne, that we may long do them seruice, and find fauour in their sight.
13 Pray for vs also vnto the Lord our God, (for wee haue sinned against the Lord our God, and vnto this day the furie of the Lord, and his wrath is not turned from vs.)
14 And reade this booke (which wee haue sent to you to be rehearsed in the Temple of the Lord) vpon the feast dayes, and at time conuenient.
15 Thus shall ye say, *To the Lord our God Chap.2.6. belongeth righteousnesse, but vnto vs the confusion of our faces, as it is come to passe this day vnto them of Juda, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem,
16 And to our kings, and to our princes, and to our priests, and to our prophets, and to our fathers,
17 Because we haue * sinned before the Lord Dan.9.5. our God,
18 And haue not obeied him, neither hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde our God, to walke in the commandements that he gaue vs openly.
19 From the day that the Lord brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, euen vnto this day, wee haue bene disobedient vnto the Lorde our God, and wee haue bene negligent to heare his voyce,

20 *Where-

Deu. 28,15. 20 * Wherefore these plagues are come vpon vs, and the curse which the Lord appointed by Moyses his seruant at the time þ he brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt to giue vs a land that floweth with milke and hony, as appeareth this day.

21 Nevertheless, wee haue not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lord our God, according to all the wordes of the Prophets, whom he sent vnto vs.

22 But euery one of vs followed the wicked imagination of his owne heart, to serue strange gods, and to doe euill in the sight of the Lord our God.

CHAP. II.

1 The Iewes confesse that they suffer iustly for their sinnes. The true confession of the Christians. 11 The Iewes desire to haue the wrath of God turned from them. 32 He promiseth that hee will call againe the people from captiuitie, and giue them a new and euerlasting Testament.

THerefore the Lord our God hath performed his worde, which he pronounced against vs, and against our iudges that gouerned Israel, and against our Kings, and against our Princes, and against the men of Israel and Iuda,

2 To bring vpon vs great plagues, such as neuer came to passe vnder the whole heauen, as they that were done in Ierusalem, according to things, that were written in the Lawe of Moyses,

Deu. 28,53. 3 That some among vs should * eate þ flesh of his owne sonne, and some the flesh of his owne daughter.

4 Moreouer, he hath deliuered them to be in subiection to all the kingdomes, that are round about vs, to be as a reproch and desolation among all the people round about where the Lord hath scattered them.

5 Thus they are brought beneath and not aboue, because we haue sinned against the Lord our God, and haue not heard his voyce.

Chap. 1. 15. 6 * To the Lord our God appertaineth righteousnesse, but vnto vs and to our fathers open shame, as appeareth this day.

7 For all these plagues are come vpon vs, which the Lord hath pronounced against vs.

8 Yet haue wee not prayed before the Lord, that wee might turne euery one from the imaginations of his owne wicked heart.

9 So þ Lord hath watched ouer þ plagues, and the Lorde hath brought them vpon vs: for the Lord is righteous in all his workes, which he hath commanded vs.

10 Yet we haue not hearkened vnto his voyce, to walke in the commandements of the Lord that he hath giuen vs.

Dan. 9. 15. 11 * And nowe, O Lord God of Israel, that hast brought thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mightie hand, and an hie arme, and with signes, and with wonders, and with great power, and hast gotten thy selfe a Name, as appeareth this day, 12 O Lord our God, we haue sinned: we haue done wickedly: we haue offended in all thine ordinances.

13 Let thy wrath turne from vs: for we are but a fewe left among the heathen, where thou hast scattered vs.

14 Heare our prayers, O Lord, and our petitions, and deliuer vs for thine owne sake, and giue vs fauour in the sight of them, which haue led vs away.

15 That all the earth may knowe that thou art the Lord our God, and that thy Name is called vpon Israel, and vpon their posteritie.

16 Therefore looke downe from thine holy Temple, and thinke vpon vs: encline thine eare, O Lord, and heare vs.

17 * Open thine eyes, and beholde: for the dead that are in the graues, and whose soules are out of their bodies, * giue vnto the Lorde, neither ‖praise nor righteousnesse. Deu. 26. 15. isa. 63. 15. Psal. 6. 5, 6. and 115. 17, 18. isa. 38. 18, 19. ‖Or, glory, nor praise of righteousnesse.

18 But the soule that is vexed for the greatnesse of sinne, and he that goeth crookedly, and weake, and the eyes that faile, and the hungry soule will giue thee praise and righteousnesse, O Lord.

19 For we do not require mercie in thy sight, O Lord our God, for the righteousnesse of our fathers, or of our Kings,

20 But because thou hast sent out thy wrath and indignation vpon vs, as thou hast spoken by ‖ thy seruants the Prophets, saying,

21 * Thus saith the Lord, Bow downe your shoulders, and serue the King of Babylon: so shall ye remaine in the land, that I gaue vnto your fathers. ‖Or, by the hand of thy seruants. Ier. 27. 7.

22 But if ye will not heare the voyce of the Lord, to serue the King of Babylon, 23 I will cause to ceale in the cities of Iuda, and in Ierusalem, I will cause to cease the voyce of mirth, and the voyce of ioy, and the voyce of the bridegroome, and the voyce of the bride, and the land shall be desolate of inhabitants.

24 But wee wouldе not hearken vnto thy voyce, to serue the King of Babylon: therefore hast thou performed the wordes that thou spakest by thy seruants the Prophets: namely, that the bones of our Kings, and the bones of our fathers should be caried out of their places.

25 And loe, they are cast out to the heate of the day, and to the colde of the night, and are dead in great miserie with famine, and with the sword, and in banishment.

26 And the Temple wherein thy Name was called vpon, thou hast brought to the state, as appeareth this day, for the wickednesse of the house of Israel, and the house of Iuda.

27 O Lord our God, thou hast intreated vs according to equitie, and according to all thy great mercie,

28 As thou spakest by thy seruant Moyses, in the day when thou diddest commaund him to write thy Lawe before the children of Israel, saying,

29 * If ye will not obey my voyce, then shall this great swarme and multitude be turned into a very fewe among the nations where I will scatter them. Leui. 26. 14. deut. 28. 15.

30 For I knowe that they will not heare me: for it is a stiffnecked people: but in the land of their captiuitie they shall remember themselues, 31 And know that I am the Lord their God: then wil I giue them an heart to vnderstand, and eares.

32 And they shall heare, and prayse me in the land of their captiuitie, and thinke vpon my Name.

33 Then ſhall they turne them from their hard backes, and from their euill workes: for they ſhall remember the way of their fathers, which ſinned before the Lord.

34 And I will bring them againe into the land, which I promiſed with an othe vnto their fathers, Abraham, Iſaac, and Jacob, and they ſhall be lords of it: and I will increaſe them, and they ſhall not be diminiſhed.

35 And I wil make an euerlaſting couenant with them, that I will be their God, and they ſhall be my people: and I will no more driue my people of Iſrael out of the land that I haue giuen them.

CHAP. III.

1 The people continueth in their prayer begunne for their deliuerance. 9 He prayſeth wiſedome vnto the people, ſhewing that ſo great aduerſities came vnto them for the deſpiſing thereof. 36 Onely God was the finder of wiſedome. 37 Of the incarnation of Chriſt.

O Lorde Almighty, O God of Iſrael, the ſoule that is in trouble, and the ſpirite that is vexed, crieth vnto thee.

2 Heare, O Lord, and haue mercy: for thou art mercifull, and haue pitie vpon vs, becauſe we haue ſinned before thee.

3 For thou endureſt for euer, and we vtterly periſh.

4 O Lorde Almighty, the God of Iſrael, heare nowe the prayer of the dead Iſraelites, and of their children, which haue ſinned before thee, and not hearkened vnto the voyce of thee their God, wherefore theſe plagues hang vpon vs.

5 Remember not the wickedneſſe of our fathers, but thinke vpon thy power, and thy Name at this time.

6 For thou art the Lord our God, and thee, O Lord, will we prayſe.

7 And for this cauſe haſt thou put thy feare in our hearts, that we ſhould call vpon thy Name, and praiſe thee in our captiuitie: for we haue conſidered in our mindes all the wickedneſſe of our fathers, that ſinned before thee.

8 Behold, we are yet this day in our captiuitie, where thou haſt ſcattered vs, to be a reproch and a curſe, and ſubiect to paiments, according to all the iniquities of our fathers, which are departed from the Lord their God.

9 O Iſrael, heare the commandements of life: hearken vnto them, that thou mayeſt learne wiſedome.

10 What is the cauſe, O Iſrael, that thou art in thine enemies land, and art waxen olde in a ſtrange countrey, 11 And art defiled with the dead, and art counted with them, that goe downe to the graues?

12 Thou haſt forſaken the fountaine of wiſedome.

13 For if thou haddeſt walked in the way of God, thou ſhouldeſt haue remained ſafe for euer.

14 Learne where is wiſedome, where is ſtrength, where is vnderſtanding, that thou mayeſt know alſo from whence commeth long continuance, and life, and where the light of the eyes, and peace is.

15 Who hath found out her place? or who hath come into her treaſures?

16 Where are the princes of the heathen, and ſuch as ruled the beaſtes vpon the earth?

17 They that had their paſtime with the foules of the ayren, that hoarded vp ſiluer and golde, wherein men truſt and made none end of their gathering?

18 For they that coyned ſiluer, and were ſo carefull of their worke, and whoſe inuention had none ende, 19 Are come to nought, and gone downe to hell, and other men are come vp in their ſteades.

20 When they were yong, they ſawe the light, and dwelt vpon the earth: but they vnderſtood not the way of knowledge, 21 Neither perceiued the pathes thereof, neither haue their children receiued it: but they were farre off from that way.

22 It hath not beene heard of in the land of Chanaan, neither hath it beene ſeene in Theman, 23 Nor the Agarines that ſought after wiſedome vpon the earth, nor the merchants of Merran, and of Theman, nor the expounders of fables, nor the ſearchers out of wiſedome haue knowen the way of wiſedome, neither doe they thinke vpon the pathes thereof.

24 O Iſrael, howe great is the houſe of God! and howe large is the place of his poſſeſſion!

25 It is great, and hath none ende: it is hie, and vnmeaſurable.

26 There were the giants, famous from the beginning: that were of ſo great ſtature, and ſo expert in warre.

27 Thoſe did not the Lord chuſe, neither gaue he the way of knowledge vnto them.

28 But they were deſtroyed, becauſe they had no wiſedome, and periſhed through their owne foolihneſſe.

29 Who hath gone vp into heauen, to take her, and brought her downe from the clouds?

30 Who hath gone ouer the ſea to finde her, and hath brought her, rather then fine golde?

31 No man knoweth her wayes, neither conſidereth her paths.

32 But he that knoweth al things, knoweth her, and he hath found her out with his vnderſtanding: this ſame is he which hath prepared the earth for euermore, and hath filled it with foure footed beaſtes.

33 When he ſendeth out the light, it goeth: and when he calleth it againe, it obeyeth him with feare.

34 And the ſtarres ſhine in their watch, and reioyce. When he calleth them, they ſay, Here we be: and ſo with cheerefulneſſe they ſhewe light vnto him that made them.

35 This is our God, and there ſhall none other be compared vnto him.

36 He hath found out all the way of knowledge, and hath giuen it vnto Jacob his ſeruant, and to Iſrael his beloued.

37 Afterward he was ſeene vpon earth, and dwelt among men.

CHAP.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The reward of them that keepe the Law, and the punishment of them that despise it. 12 A comforting of the people being in captiuitie. 19 A complaint of Ierusalem, and vnder the figure thereof the Church. 25 A consolation and comforting of the same.

THis is the booke of the commaundements of God, and the Law that endureth for euer: all they that keepe it, shall come to life: but such as forsake it, shall die.

2 Turne thee, O Iacob, and take holde of it: walke by this brightnesse before the light thereof.

3 Giue not thine honour to another, nor the things that are profitable vnto thee, to a strange nation.

4 O Israel wee are blessed: for the things that are acceptable vnto God, are declared vnto vs.

5 Be of good comfort, O my people, which art the memorial of Israel.

6 Yee are solde to the nations, not for your destruction: but because ye prouoked God to wrath, ye were deliuered vnto the enemies.

7 For ye haue displeased him that made you, offering vnto deuils, and not to God.

8 Ye haue forgotten him that created you, euen the euerlasting God, and ye haue grieued Ierusalem, that nourished you.

9 When shee saw the wrath comming vpon you from God, she said, Yearken, ye that dwell about Sion: for God hath brought mee into great heauinesse.

10 I see the captiuitie of my sonnes & daughters, which the Euerlasting will bring vpon them.

11 With ioy did I nourish them, but I must leaue them with weeping and mourning.

12 Let no man reioyce ouer me a widow, and forsaken of many, which for the sinnes of my children am desolate, because they departed from the Law of God.

13 They would not know his righteousnes, nor walke in the wayes of his commaundements: neither did they enter into the paths of discipline, thought his righteousnesse.

14 Come, yee that dwell about Sion, and cal to remembraunce the captiuitie of my sonnes and daughters, which the Euerlasting hath brought vpon them.

15 For hee hath brought vpon them a nation from farre, an impudent nation, & of a strange language, 16 Which neither reuerence the aged, nor pitie the yong: these haue carried away the deare beloued of the widowes, leaning me alone, and destitute of my daughters.

17 But what can I helpe you?

18 Surely hee þ hath brought these plagues vpon you, can deliuer you from the hands of your enemies.

19 Goe your way, O children, go your way: for I am left desolate.

20 I haue put off the clothing of peace, and put vpon me the sackcloth of prayer, and so long as I liue, I will call vpon the Euerlasting.

21 Be of good comfort, O children: cry vnto God, and he will deliuer you from the power, and hand of the enemies.

22 For I haue hope of your saluation thorow the Euerlasting, and ioy is come vpon me from the Holy one, because of the mercy which shall quickly come vnto you from our euerlasting Sauiour.

23 For I sent you away with weeping, and mourning: but with ioy and perpetuall gladnesse will God bring you againe vnto me.

24 Like as now the neighbours of Sion saw your captiuitie, so shall they also see shortly your saluation from God, which shal come vnto you with great glory, and brightnes from the Euerlasting.

25 My children, suffer patiently the wrath that is come vpon you from God: for thine enemie hath persecuted thee, but shortly thou shalt see his destruction, and shalt treade vpon his necke.

26 My darlings haue gone by rough waies, and were led away as a flocke that is scattered by the enemies.

27 Be of good comfort, my children, and cry vnto God: for hee that led you away, hath you in remembrance.

28 And as it came into your minde to go astray from your God: so endeuour your selues tenne times more, to turne againe and to seeke him.

29 For hee that hath brought these plagues vpon you, will bring you euerlasting ioy againe, with your saluation.

30 Take a good heart, O Ierusalem: for hee which gaue thee that name, will comfort thee.

31 They are miserable that afflict thee, and such as reioyce at thy fall.

32 The cities are miserable whom thy children serue: miserable is she that hath taken thy sonnes.

33 For as shee reioyced at thy decay, and was glad of thy fall, so shall she be sory for her owne desolation.

34 For I will take away the reioycing of her great multitude, and her ioy shalbe turned into mourning.

35 For a fire shal come vpon her from the Euerlasting, long to endure, and she shal be inhabited of deuils for a great season.

36 O Ierusalem looke toward the East, and beholde the ioy that commeth vnto thee from thy God.

37 Loe, thy sonnes (whom thou hast let goe) come gathered together from the East vnto the West, reioycing in the worde of the Holy one vnto the honour of God.

CHAP. V.

1 Ierusalem is mooued vnto gladnesse for the returne of her people, and vnder the figure thereof the Church.

PVt off thy mourning clothes, O Ierusalem, and thine affliction, and decke thee with the worship and honour, that commeth vnto thee from God, for euermore.

2 Put on the garment of righteousnesse, that commeth from GOD, and set a crowne vpon thine head of the glorie of the Euerlasting.

3 For God will declare thy brightnesse to euery countrey vnder the heauen.

4 And God will name thee by this name for euer, The peace of righteousnesse, and the gloyp of the woyshipp af God.

5 Arise, O Jerusalem, and stand vp on hie, and looke about thee toward the East, and beholde thy children gathered from the East vnto the West vp the woyd of the holy one, reioycing in the remembrance of God.

6 For they departed from thee on foote, and were led awap of their enemies: but God will bring them againe vnto thee, exalted in gloyp, as children of the kingdome.

7 For God hath determined to bring downe euery high mountaine, and the long enduring rocks, and to fill the valleis, to make the ground plaine, that Israel map walke safelp vnto the honour of God.

8 The woods and all sweete smelling trees shall ouershadowe Israel at the commaundement of God.

9 For God shall bring Israel with ioy in the light of his maiestie, with the mercie and righteousnesse that commeth of him.

CHAP. VI.

A COPIE OF THE EPISTLE THAT Jeremias sent vnto them that were led awap captiues into Babylon bp the King of the Babylonians, to certifie them of the thing that was commanded him of God.

In this chapter are the makers and mainteiners of images mightily confuted.

BEcause of the sinnes, that ye haue committed against God, yee shalbe ledde awap captiues vnto Babylon, bp Nabuchodonosor, king of the Babylonians.

2 So when yee bee come into Babylon, yee shall remaine there manp yeres, and a long season, euen a seuen generations, and after that wil I bring you awap peaceably from thence.

a That is, seuentie yeeres. Isa. 44. 8, 9, 10, & 46. 5, 7. Psal. 115. 4. wis. 13. 10.

3 * Now shall ye see in Babylon gods of siluer, and of gold, and of wood, borne vpon mens shoulders, to cause the people to feare.

4 Beware therefore that yee in no wise bee like the strangers, neither be ye afraid of them, when yee see the multitude before them and behinde them woyshipping them,

5 But say yee in your hearts, O Lorde, wee must woyship thee.

6 For mine Angel shall bee with you, and shall care for your soules.

7 As for their tongue, it is polished bp the carpenter, and they themselues are gilded and laide ouer with siluer: yet are they but lies, and cannot speake.

8 And as they take gold for a maide that loueth to be deckt.

9 So make they crownes for the heads of their gods: sometimes also the Priests themselues conuey awap the golde and siluer from their gods, and bestow it vpon themselues.

10 Yea, they giue of the same vnto the harlots, that are in their houses: againe, they deck these gods of siluer, and gods of golde, and of wood, with garments like men,

11 Yet cannot they bee preserued from rust and wormes,

12 Though they haue couered them with clothing of purple, and wipe their faces because of the dust of the Temple, whereof there is much vpon them.

13 One holdeth a scepter, as though he were a certaine iudge of the countrey: yet can he not slap such as offend him.

14 Another hath a dagger or an axe in his right hand: yet is hee not able to defend himselfe from battell, nor from theeues: so then it is euident that they be no gods.

15 Therefore feare them not: for as a vessell that a man vseth, is nothing worth when it is broken,

16 Such are their gods: when they be set vp in their temples, their eyes bee full of dust bp reason of the feet of those that come in:

17 And as the ‖ gates are shutte in rounde about vpon him that hath offended the King: or as one that should be led to be put to death, so the Priestes keepe their temples with doores, and with locks, and with barres, least their gods should be spoyled bp robbers.

‖ Or, court.

18 They light vp candles before them: yea, more then for themselues, whereof they cannot see one: for they are but as one of the postes of the temple.

19 They confesse, that euen their hearts are gnawen vpon: but when the things that creep out of the earth, eate them and their clothes, they feele it not.

20 Their faces are blacke through the smoke that is in the temple.

21 The owles, swallowes & birdes flie vpon their bodies, and vpon their heads, yea, and the cattes also.

22 Bp this ye may be sure, that they are not gods: therefore feare them not.

23 Notwithstanding the golde, that is about them to make them beautifull, except one wipe off the rust, they cannot shine: neither when they were molten, did they feele it.

24 The things wherein is no breath, are bought for a most high price.

25 * They are borne vpon mens shoulders, because they haue no feete, whereby they declare vnto men, that they be nothing worth: yea, and they that woyship them, are ashamed.

Isa. 46. 7.

26 For if they fall to the ground at any time, they cannot rise vp againe of themselues, neyther if one set them vpright, can they moue of themselues, neuerie they be bowed downe can they make themselues straight: but they set gifts before them, as vnto dead men.

27 As for the things that are offered vnto them, their Priests sell them, and abuse them: likewise also the women lay vp of the same: but vnto the poore and sicke they giue nothing.

28 The menstruous women, and they that are in childebed, touch their sacrifices: by these things yee may knowe that they are no gods: feare them not.

29 From whence commeth it then, that they are called gods? because the women bring gifts to the gods of siluer, and gold, and wood.

30 And the priests sit in their Temples, hauing their clothes rent, whose heads & beards are shauen, and being bare headed,

31 They roare and crie before their gods, as men doe at the feast of one that is dead.

32 The Priests also take awap of their garments, and clothe their wiues and children.

33 Whether it bee euill that one doeth vnto them, or good, they are not able to recompense it: they can neither set vp a king, nor put him downe.

34 In like maner they can neither giue riches, nor money: though a man make a vow vnto them, and keepe it not, they will not require it.

35 They

35 They can saue no man from death, neither deliuer the weake from the mighty.

36 They cannot restore a blinde man to his sight, nor helpe any man at his neede.

37 They can shew no mercy to the widowe, nor doe good to the fatherlesse.

38 Their gods of wood, golde, and siluer, are as stones that bee hewen out of the mountaine, and they that worship them, shall bee confounded.

39 How should a man then thinke or say, that they are gods?

40 Moreouer the Chaldeans themselues dishonour them: for when they see a dumme man, that cannot speake, they present him to Bel, 41 And desire that hee would make him to speake, as though hee had any feeling: yet they that vnderstande these things, cannot leaue them: for they also haue no sense.

42 Furthermore the women, girded with coardes, sit in the streetes, and burne strawe.

[Or, branne.

43 And if one of them bee drawen away, and lye with any such as come by, shee casteth her neighbour in the teeth, because shee was not so worthily reputed, nor her coarde broken.

44 Whatsoeuer is done among them, is lies: how may it then bee thought or sayd, that they are gods?

45 Carpenters and goldsmiths make them, neither be they any other thing, but euen what the workeman will make them.

46 Yea, they that make them, are of no long continuance: howe should then the things that are made of them, be gods?

47 Therefore they leaue lyes, and shame for their posterite.

48 For when there commeth any warre or plague vpon them, the Priestes imagine with themselues, where they may hide themselues with them.

49 Howe then can men not perceiue, that they be no gods, which can neither defend themselues from warre, nor from plagues?

*Psal. 115.4. wisd. 13.10.

50 For * seeing they bee but of wood, and of siluer, and of golde, men shall knowe hereafter that they are but lyes, and it shal be manifest to al nations and kings, that they be no gods, but the workes of mens hands, and that there is no worke of God in them.

51 Whereby it may be knowen, that they are no gods.

52 They can set vp no King in the lande, nor giue raine vnto men.

53 They can giue no sentence of a matter, neither preserue from iniurie: they haue no power, but are as crowes betweene the heauen and the earth.

54 When there falleth a fire vpon the house of those gods of wood, and of siluer, and of gold, the Priestes will escape and saue themselues, but they burne as the balkes therein.

55 They cannot withstand any King or enemies: how can it then be thought or say de that they be gods?

56 Moreouer, these gods of wood, of golde, and of siluer can neither defende themselues from theeues and robbers.

57 For they that are strongest, take away their golde and siluer, and apparel, wherewith they bee clothed: and when they haue it, they get them away: yet can they not helpe themselues, 58 Therefore it is better to be a King, and so to shewe his power, or else a profitable vessell in an house, whereby he that vseth it, might haue profite, then such false gods: or to bee a doore in an house, to keepe such things safe as be therein, then such false gods: or a pillar of wood in a palace, then such false gods.

59 For the Sunne, and the Moone, and the starres that shine, when they are sent downe for necessary vses, obey.

60 Likewise also the lightning when it shineth, it is endent: and the wind bloweth in euery countrey.

61 And when God commandeth the cloudes to goe about the whole world, they doe as they are bidden.

62 When the fire is sent downe from aboue to destroy hils and woods, it doeth that which is commaunded: but these are not like any of these things, neither in forme nor power.

63 Therefore men shoulde not thinke, nor say that they bee gods, seeing they can neither giue sentence in iudgement, nor doe men good.

64 For so much now as ye are sure, that they be no gods, feare them not.

65 For they can neither curse, nor bleese Kings:

66 Neither can they shewe signes in the heauen among the heathen, neither shine as the moone.

67 The beastes are better then they: for they can get them vnder a couert, and do themselues good.

68 So ye may bee certified that by no maner of meanes they are gods: therefore feare them not.

69 For as a scarrowe in a garden of cucumers keepeth nothing, so are their gods of wood, and of siluer, and of golde:

70 And likewise their gods of wood, and gold, and siluer, are like to a white thorne in an orchard, that euery birde sitteth vpon, and as a dead body that is cast in the darke.

71 By the purple also and brightnesse which fadeth vpon them, ye may vnderstand, that they be no gods: yea, they themselues shall be consumed at the last, and they shall bee a shame to the countrey.

72 Better therefore is the iust man, that hath none idoles: for hee shall be farre from reproofe.

¶ The ſong of the three holy children, which followeth in the third Chapter of Daniel after this place, They fel downe bound into the middes of the hote fierie fornace.

25 The prayer of Azarias. 46 The crueltie of the King. 48 The flame deuoureth the Caldeans. 49 The Angell of the Lorde was in the fornace. 51 The three children praiſe the Lorde and prouoke all creatures to the ſame.

24 AND they walked in the mids of the flame, praiſing God, and magnified the Lord.

25 Then Azarias ſtood vp, and prayed on this maner, and opening his mouth in the middes of the fire, ſayde, 26 Bleſſed bee thou, O Lorde God of our fathers: thy Name is worthy to bee prayſed and honoured for euermore.

27 For thou art righteous in all the things, that thou haſt done vnto vs, and all thy workes are true, and thy wayes are right, and all thy iudgements certaine.

28 In all the things that thou haſt brought vpon vs, and vpon Jeruſalem, the holy citie of our fathers, thou haſt executed true iudgments: for by right and equitie haſt thou brought all theſe things vpon vs, becauſe of our ſinnes.

29 For wee haue ſinned and done wickedly, departing from thee: in all things haue we trеſpaſſed, 30 And not obeyed thy commaundements, nor kept them, neither done as thou haſt commaunded vs, that we might proſper.

31 Wherefore in all that thou haſt brought vpon vs, and in euery thing that thou haſt done to vs, thou haſt done them in true iudgement:

32 As in deliuering vs into the hands of our wicked enemies, and moſt hateful traitors, and to an vnrighteous king, and the moſt wicked in all the world.

33 And now we may not open our mouthes: wee are become a ſhame and reproofe vnto thy ſeruants, and to them that worſhip thee.

34 Yet for thy Names ſake we beſeech thee, giue vs not vp for euer, neither breake thy Couenant.

35 Neither take away thy mercy from vs, for thy beloued Abrahams ſake, and for thy ſeruant Iſaacs ſake, and for thy holy Iſraels ſake, 36 To whom thou haſt ſpoken and promiſed, that thou wouldeſt multiply their ſeede as the ſtarres of heauen, and as the ſande, that is vpon the ſea ſhore.

37 For we, O Lord, are become leſſe then any nation, and bee kept vnder this day in all the world, becauſe of our ſinnes:

38 So that now we haue neither prince, nor prophet, nor gouernour, nor burnt offering, nor ſacrifice, nor oblation, nor incenſe, nor place to offer the firſt fruites before thee, that we might finde mercie.

39 Neuertheleſſe in a contrite heart, and an humble ſpirit, let vs be receiued.

40 As in the burnt offering of rammes and bullocks, and as in ten thouſand of fat lambes, ſo let our ſacrifice be in thy ſight this day, that it may pleaſe thee: for there is no confuſion vnto them, that put their truſt in thee.

41 And nowe wee followe thee with all our heart, and feare thee, and ſeeke thy face.

42 Put vs not to ſhame, but deale with vs after thy louing kindneſſe, and according to the multitude of thy mercies.

43 Deliuer vs alſo by thy myracles, and giue thy Name the glory, O Lord, 44 That all they that doe thy ſeruants euill, may be confounded: euen let them bee confounded by thy great force and power, and let their ſtrength be broken,

45 That they may know, that thou only art the Lord God, & glorious ouer the whole world.

46 ¶ Now the kings ſeruants that had caſt them in, ceaſſed not to make the ouen hote with [a] naphtha, and with pitche, and with towe, and with fagots, 47 So that the flame went out of the fornace fourtie and nine cubites.

48 And it blake forth, and burnt thoſe Chaldeans, that it found by the fornace.

49 But the Angel of the Lorde went downe into the fornace with them that were with Azarias, and ſmote the flame of the fire out of the fornace, 50 And made in the middes of the fornace like a moiſt ſiſſing winde, ſo that the fire touched them not at all, neither grieued, nor troubled them.

51 Then theſe three (as out of one mouth) praiſed, and glorified, and bleſſed God in the fornace, ſaying, 52 Bleſſed bee thou, O Lorde God of our fathers, and prayſed, and exalted aboue all things for euer, and bleſſed bee thy glorious and holy Name, and praiſed aboue all things, and magnified for euer.

53 Bleſſed be thou in the Temple of thine holy glory, and praiſed aboue all things, and exalted for euer.

54 Bleſſed be thou, that beholdeſt the depths, and ſitteſt vpon the Cherubims, and praiſed aboue all things, and exalted for euer.

55 Bleſſed bee thou in the glorious throne of thy kingdome, and praiſed aboue all things, and exalted for euer.

56 Bleſſed bee thou in the firmament of heauen, and prayſed aboue all things, and glorified for euer.

57 All yee workes of the Lorde, bleſſe yee the Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all things for euer.

58 O heauens, bleſſe yee the Lorde: prayſe him, and exalt him aboue all things for euer. Pſal. 148.4

59 O Angels of þ Lord, bleſſe ye þ Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all things for euer.

60 All ye waters that bee aboue the heauen, bleſſe ye the Lord: prayſe him, and exalt him aboue all things for euer.

61 All yee powers of the Lorde, bleſſe yee the Lorde: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all things thinges for euer.

62 O Sunne and Moone, bleſſe yee the Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

63 O Starres of heauen, bleſſe yee the Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

64 Euery ſhowre and dewe, bleſſe yee the Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

65 All yee windes, bleſſe yee the Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

66 O fire and heate, bleſſe yee the Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

‖Or, colde. 67 O ‖ Winter and Summer, bleſſe yee the Lord: praiſe him and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

‖Or, froſts. 68 O dewes and ‖ ſtormes of ſnowe, bleſſe ye the Lorde: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

69 O froſt and colde, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

70 O yce and ſnowe, bleſſe yee the Lorde: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

71 O nightes and dayes, bleſſe yee the Lorde: praiſe him and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

72 O light and darkneſſe, bleſſe yee the Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

73 O lightninges and clondes, bleſſe yee the Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue al things for euer.

74 Let the earth bleſſe the Lorde: let it praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

75 O mountaines and hilles, bleſſe yee the Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all things for euer.

76 All things that growe on the earth, bleſſe yee the Lorde: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

77 O fountaines, bleſſe yee the Lorde: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

78 O ſea, and floods, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

79 O whales, and all that moue in the waters, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

80 All yee foules of heauen, bleſſe yee the Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all things for euer.

81 All yee beaſtes and cattell, bleſſe yee the Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all things for euer.

82 O children of men, bleſſe yee the Lorde: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

83 Let Iſrael bleſſe the Lorde, praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

84 O Prieſtes of the Lord, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

85 O ſeruants of the Lord, bleſſe ye the Lord: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

86 O ſpirites and ſoules of the righteous, bleſſe ye the Lorde: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

87 O Saintes and humble of heart, bleſſe ye the Lorde: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer.

88 O Ananias, Azarias, and Miſael, bleſſe yee the Lorde: praiſe him, and exalt him aboue all thinges for euer: for hee hath deliuered vs from the hell, and ſaued vs from the hande of death, and delimered vs out of the middes of the furnace, and burning flame: euen out of the middes of the fire hath hee deliuered vs.

89 Confeſſe vnto the Lorde, that he is gracious: for his mercie endureth for euer.

90 All yee that worſhip the Lorde, bleſſe the God of gods: praiſe him, and acknowledge him: for his mercie endureth worlde without ende.

‖Or, Soſanna.

The hiſtorie of ‖ Suſanna, which ſome ioyne to the end of Daniel, and make it the thirteenth chapter.

8 The two gouernours are taken with the loue of Suſanna. 19 They take her alone in the garden. 20 They ſolicite her to wickednes. 23 Shee chuſeth rather to obey God, though it be to the danger of her life. 34 She is accuſed. 45 Daniel doth deliuer her. 62 The gouernours are put to death.

THere dwelt a man in Babylon called Joacim,

2 And he tooke a wife, whoſe name was Suſanna, the daughter of Helcias, a verp faire woman, and one that feared God.

3 Her father and mother alſo were godlp people, and taught their daughter according to the law of Moſes.

4 Nowe Joacim was a great rich man, and had a faire garden ioyning vnto his houſe, and to him reſorted the Iewes, becauſe hee was more honourable then all others.

5 The ſame yeere were appointed two of the ancients of the people to be iudges, ſuch as the Lorde ſpeaketh of, that the iniquitie came from Babylon, and from the ancient iudges, which ſeemed to rule the people.

6 Theſe haunted Joacims houſe, & all ſuch as had anp thing to doe in the law, came thither vnto them.

7 Nowe when the people departed awap at noone, Suſanna went into her huſbandes garden to walke.

8 And the two elders ſaw her that ſhe went in daplp and walked, ſo that their luſt was inflamed towarde her.

9 Therefore they turned awap their mind, and caſt downe their eyes, that they ſhoulde not ſee heauen, nor remember iuſt iudgements.

a To wit, from God.

10 And albeit they were both wounded with her lone, yet durſt not one ſhewe another his griefe.

11 For they were aſhamed to declare their luſt, that they deſired to haue to do with her:

12 Yet they watched diligently from day to day to ſee her.

13 And the one ſayd to the other, Let vs go now home, for it is dinner time.

14 So they went their way, and departed one from another: yet they returned againe, and came into the ſame place, and after that they had aſked one another the cauſe, they acknowledged their luſt: then appointed they a time both together, when they might finde her alone.

15 Nowe when they had ſpied out a conuenient time, that ſhee went in, as her manner was, with two maides onely, and thought to waſh her ſelfe in the garden, (for it was an hote ſeaſon)

16 And there was no body there, ſaue ỳ two Elders that had hid themſelues, and watched for her:

17 Shee ſayd to her maydes, Bring me oyle and ſope, and ſhut the garden doores, that I may waſh me.

18 And they did as ſhee bade them, and ſhut the garden doores, and went out themſelues at a backe doore, to fet the thing that ſhe had commaunded them: but they ſawe not the Elders, becauſe they were hid.

19 Now when the maids were gone forth, the two Elders roſe vp and ranne vnto her, ſaying, 21 Beholde, the garden doores are ſhut, that no man can ſee vs, and wee burne in loue with thee: therefore conſent vnto vs, and lie with vs.

21 If thou wilt not, we will beare witneſſe againſt thee, that a yoong man was with thee, and therefore thou didſt ſend away thy maides from thee.

22 Then Suſanna ſighed, and ſayd, I am in trouble on euery ſide: for if I doe this thing, it is death vnto me: and if I doe it not, I cannot eſcape your hands.

23 It is better for me to fal into your hands, and not doe it, then to ſinne in the ſight of the Lord.

24 With that Suſanna cryed with a loude voyce, & the two Elders cryed out againſt her.

25 Then ranne the one, and opened the garden dooze.

26 ¶ So when ỳ ſeruants of the houſe heard the crie in the garden, they ruſhed in at the backe dooze, to ſee what was done vnto her,

27 But when the Elders had declared their matter, the ſeruaunts were greatly aſhamed: for there was neuer ſuch a report made of Suſanna.

28 On the morrow after, came the people to Joacim her huſband, and the two Elders came alſo, full of miſchieuous imagination againſt Suſanna, to put her to death, 29 And ſaid before the people, Send for Suſanna the daughter of Helcias Joacims wife. And immediatly they ſent.

30 So ſhe came with her father and mother, her children and all her kinred.

31 Nowe Suſanna was very tender, and faire of face.

32 And theſe wicked men commaunded to vncouer her face, (for ſhe was couered) that they might ſo be ſatisfied with her beautie.

33 Therefore they that were about her, and all they that knew her, wept.

34 Then the two Elders ſtoode vp in the middes of the people, and layd their handes vpon her head, 35 Which wept, and looked vp toward heauen: for her heart truſted in the Lord.

36 And the Elders ſayd, As wee walked in the garden alone, ſhe came in with two maids, whom ſhe ſent away from her, & ſhut the garden doores.

37 Then a yong man, which there was hid, came vnto her, and lay with her.

38 Then wee which ſtoode in a corner of the garden, ſeeing this wickedneſſe, ran vnto them, and we ſaw them as they were together.

39 But we could not holde him: for he was ſtronger then we, and opened the dooze and leaped out.

40 Nowe when we had taken this woman, we aſked her what yong man this was, but ſhe would not tell vs: of theſe things are wee witneſſes.

41 Then the aſſembly beleeued them, as thoſe that were the Elders & Iudges of the people: ſo they condemned her to death.

42 Then Suſanna cryed out with a loude voyce, and ſaid, O euerlaſting God, that knoweſt the ſecrets, and knoweſt all things afore they come to paſſe, 43 Thou knoweſt, that they haue borne falſe witneſſe againſt mee, and beholde, I muſt die, whereas I neuer did ſuch things as theſe men haue maliciouſly inuented againſt me.

44 And the Lord heard her voyce.

45 ¶ Therefore when ſhee was led to be put to death, the Lord raiſed vp the holy ſpirit of a yong childe, whoſe name was Daniel.

46 Who cried with a loud voice, I am cleane from the blood of this woman.

47 Then all the people turned them toward him, and ſayd, What meane theſe wordes, that thou haſt ſpoken?

48 Then Daniel ſtoode in the middes of them, and ſayd, Are ye ſuch fooles, O Iſraelites, that without examination, or knowledge of the truth, ye haue condemned a daughter of Iſrael?

49 Returne againe to iudgement: for they haue borne falſe witneſſe againſt her.

50 Wherefore the people turned againe in al haſte, and the Elders ſaid vnto him, Come, ſit downe among vs, and ſhewe it vs, ſeeing God hath giuen thee the office of an Elder.

51 Then ſayd Daniel vnto them, Put theſe two aſide, one farre from another, and I will examine them.

52 So when they were put aſunder one from another, hee called one of them and ſayd vnto him, O thou that art olde in a wicked life, now thy ſinnes which thou haſt committed afore time, are come to light.

53 For thou haſt pronounced falſe iudgements, and haſt condemned the innocent, and haſt let the guiltie goe free, albeit the Lorde ſayth, * The innocent and righteous ſhalt thou nor ſlay. *Exod. 23.7.

54 Nowe then, if thou haſt ſeene her, tell me, Vnder what tree ſaweſt thou them companying together? Who answered, Under a lentiske tree.

55 Then said Daniel, Verily thou hast lyed against thine owne head: for loe, the Angell of God hath receiued the sentence of God, to cut thee in two.

56 So put hee him asside, and commanded to bring the other, and said vnto him, O thou seede of Chanaan, and not of Iuda, beautie hath deceiued thee, & lust hath subuerted thine heart.

57 Thus haue yee dealt with the daughters of Israel, and they for feare companied with you: but the daughter of Iuda would not abide your wickednesse.

58 Nowe therefore tell me, Vnder what tree didyest thou take them companying together? Who answered, Vnder a ‖ pyine tree.

59 Then said Daniel vnto him, Verely thou hast also lyed against thine head: for the Angell of God waiteth with the sworde to cut thee in two, and so to destroy you both.

60 ¶ With that all the whole assembly cried with a loud voyce, and praised God, which saueth them that trust in him.

61 And they arose against the two Elders, (for Daniel had conuicted them of false witnesse by their owne mouth)

62 * And according to the Lawe of Moyses they dealt with them, as they dealt wickedly against their neighbour, and put them to death. Thus the innocent blood was saued the same day.

63 Therefore Helcias, and his wife praised God for their daughter Susanna, with Joacim her husband, and all the kinred, that there was no dishonestie found in her.

64 From that day forth was Daniel had in great reputation in the sight of the people.

Deut. 19. 19. prou. 19. 5.

The historie of Bel and the Dragon, which is the fourteenth Chapter of Daniel after the Latine.

NOwe when King Astyages was laide with his fathers, Cyrus the Persian receiued his kingdome.

2 And Daniel did eate at the Kings table, and was honoured aboue all his friends.

3 Nowe the Babylonians had an idole, called Bel, and there were spent vpon him euery day, twelue [a] great measures of fine floure, and fourtie sheepe, and sixe great [b] pots of wine.

4 And the King worshipped it, and went daily to honour it: but Daniel worshipped his owne God. And the King said vnto him, Why doest not thou worship Bel?

5 Who answered, and said, Because I may not worship idoles made with handes, but the liuing God, which hath created the heauen and the earth, and hath power vpon all flesh.

6 Then saide the King vnto him, Thinkest thou not that Bel is a liuing God? seest thou not howe much hee eateth and drinketh euery day?

7 Then Daniel smiled and sayde, O King, be not deceiued: for this is but clay within, and brasse without, and did neuer eate any thing.

8 So the king was wroth, and called for his Priestes, and said vnto them, If yee tell me not who this is that eateth vp these expenses, yee shall die:

9 But if ye can certifie mee that Bel eateth them, then Daniel shall die: for hee hath spoken blasphemie against Bel. And Daniel said vnto the King, Let it bee according to thy word.

10 (Nowe the Priestes of Bel were threescore and ten, beside their wiues and children: and the King went with Daniel into the Temple of Bel.

11 So Bels Priests sayd, Beholde, wee will goe out, and set thou the meate there, O King, and let the wine be filled: then shut the doore fast, and seale it with thine owne signet:

12 And to morrowe when thou comest in, if thou findest not that Bel hath eaten vp al, we will suffer death, or els Daniel that hath lyed vpon vs.

13 Nowe they thought themselues sure enough: for vnder the table they had made a priuie entrance, and there went they in euer, and tooke away the things.

14 So when they were gone forth, the King set meates before Bel. Now Daniel had commanded his seruants to bring ashes, and these they strowed throughout all the Temple, in the presence of the King alone: then went they out, and shut the doore, and sealed it with the Kings signet, and so departed.

15 Now in the night came the Priests with their wiues and children, (as they were woont to doe) and did eate and drinke vp all.

16 In the morning betimes, the King arose and Daniel with him.

17 And the King said, Daniel, are the seales whole? who answered, Yea, O King, they bee whole.

18 And assoone as hee had opened the doore, the King looked vpon the table, and cryed with a loud voyce, Great art thou, O Bel, and with thee is no deceite.

19 Then laughed Daniel, and held the King that he should notgoe in, and saide, Beholde now the pauement, and marke well whose footesteps are these.

20 And the King saide, I see the footesteps of men, women, and children: therefore the king was angrie, 21 And tooke the Priests, with their wiues, and children, and they shewed him the priuie doores, where they came in, and consumed such things as were vpon the table.

22 There-

a Called Artaba, whereof euery one conteined somewhat more then nine gallons, which make in al an hundreth and eight gallons at the least.

b Called Metreta, and euery one of these measures conteined about ten gallons, which in all make threescore.

22 Therefore the King slew them, and deliuered Bel into Daniels power, who destroyed him and his temple.

23 ¶ Moreouer in that same place there was a great Dragon, which the Babylonians worshipped.

24 And the King said vnto Daniel, Sayest thou that this is of brasse also? loe, he liueth, and eateth and drinketh, so that thou canst not say, that he is no liuing God: therefore worship him.

25 Then said Daniel vnto the King, I will worship the Lord my God: for he is the liuing God.

26 But giue me leaue, O King, and I will slay this Dragon without sword or staffe. And the King said, I giue thee leaue.

27 Then Daniel tooke pitch, and fatte, and haire, and did seethe them together, and made lumpes thereof: this he put in the Dragons mouth, and so the Dragon burst in sunder. And Daniel said, Behold, whom ye worship.

28 When the Babylonians heard it, they were wonderfull wroth, and gathered them together against the King, saying, The King is become a Iewe: for he hath destroyed Bel, and hath slaine the Dragon, and put the Priests to death.

29 So they came to the King, and said, Deliuer vs Daniel, or else we wil destroy thee and thine house.

30 Nowe when the King sawe, that they pressed sore vpon him, and that necessitie constrained him, hee deliuered Daniel vnto them:

31 Who cast him into the Lions den, where he was sixe dayes.

32 In the denne there were seuen Lyons, and they had giuen them euery day two bodies and two sheepe, which then were not giuen them, to the intent that they might deuoure Daniel.

33 ¶ Now there was in Iewrie a Prophet called Abbacuc, which had made pottage, and broken bread into a bowle, and was going into the field, for to bring it to the reapers.

34 But the Angel of the Lord said vnto Abbacuc, Goe, carie the meate that thou hast, into Babylon vnto Daniel, which is in the Lyons denne.

35 And Abbacuc said, Lorde, I neuer sawe Babylon, neither doe I know where the denne is.

36 Then the Angel tooke him by the crowne of the head, and bare him by the haire of the head, and thorow a mightie winde set him in Babylon vpon the denne.

37 And Abbacuc cryed, saying, O Daniel, Daniel, take the dinner that God hath sent thee.

38 Then sayde Daniel, O God, thou hast thought vpon me, and thou neuer failest them that seeke thee and loue thee.

39 So Daniel arose, and did eate, and the Angel of the Lorde set Abbacuc in his owne place againe immediatly.

40 Vpon the seuenth day, the King went to bewaile Daniel: and when hee came to the denne, he looked in, and beholde, Daniel sate in the mids of the Lyons.

41 Then cryed the king with a lond voyce, saying, Great art thou, O Lord God of Daniel, and there is none other besides thee.

42 And he drewe him out of the denne, and cast them that were the cause of his destruction into the denne, and they were deuoured in a moment before his face.

CHAP. I.

¶ The death of Alexander the King of Macedonia, 11 Antiochus taketh the kingdome. 12 Many of the children of Israel make couenant with the Gentiles. 21 Antiochus subdueth Egypt and Ierusalem vnto his dominion, 50 Antiochus setteth vp idoles.

AFter that Alexander the Macedonian, the sonne of Philip, went forth of the land of Chettim, and [a] slew Darius King of the Persians and Medes, and reigned for him, as he had before in Grecia.

a The first battell with the Carthaginenses was fought at this time.

2 He tooke great warres in hand, and wanne strong holdes, and slew the Kings of the earth.

3 So he went thorowe to the endes of the world, and tooke spoyles of many nations, in so much that the worlde stoode in awe of him: therefore his heart was puffed vp and was hautie.

b The beginning of the kingdome of Egypt.

4 [b] Now when hee had gathered a mightie strong hoste,

5 And had reigned ouer regions, nations and kingdomes, they became tributaries vnto him.

6 After these things he fell sicke, and knewe that he should die.

7 Then he called for his chiefe of his seruants, which had beene brought vp with him of children, and parted his kingdome among them, while he was yet alyue.

8 So Alexander had reigned twelue yeeres when he died,

9 [c] And his seruants reigned euery one in his roome.

c The beginning of the kingdome of Syria.

10 And they all caused themselues to bee crowned after his death, and so did their children after them many yeeres, & much wickednesse increased in the world.

11 For out of these came the wicked roots, [e] euen Antiochus [f] Epiphanes, the sonne of King Antiochus, which had bin an hostage at Rome, and hee reigned in the hundreth and seuen and thirtieth yere of the kingdome of the Grecians.

[e] Or, noble.

d The beginning of the kingdom of the Parthians.

the heathen that are rounde about vs: for since wee departed from them, wee haue had much sorrow.

13 So this deuice pleased them wel.

14 And certaine of the people were ready, and went to the King, which gaue them licence to doe after the ordinances of the heathen.

e The wicked fal headlong into mischiefe.

15 e Then set they vp a place of exercise at Jerusalem, according to the facions of the heathen, f By drawing the skin ouer the part that was circumcised, as Cels.7. cap.15. Epiph.lib.de ponderibus, & mensuris.

16 And made themselues f vncircumcised, and forsooke the holy Conenant, and ioyned themselues to the heathen, and were solde to do mischiefe.

17 So when Antiochus kingdome was set in order, hee went about to reigne ouer Egypt, that hee might haue the dominion of two Realmes.

18 Therefore hee entred into Egypt with a mightie company, with charets and Elephants, and with horsemen, and with a great nauie, g The second battell with the Carthaginenses.

19 g And moued warre against Ptolemeus King of Egypt: but Ptolemeus was afrayde of him, and fledde, and many were wounded to death.

20 Thus Antiochus wanne many strong cities in the land of Egypt, and tooke away the spoples of the land of Egypt.

21 And after that Antiochus had smitten Egypt, hee turned againe in the hundreth fourtie and three yeere,

22 And went vp toward Israel and Jerusalem with a mightie people,

23 And entred proudly into the Sanctuarie, and tooke away the golden altar, and the candlesticke for the light, and all the instruments thereof, and the table of the shewbread, and the powring vessels, and the bowles, and the golden basons, and the vaile, and the crownes, and the golden apparell, which was before the Temple, and brake all in pieces.

24 Hee tooke also the siluer and golde, and the precious iewels, and hee tooke the secrete treasures that hee founde, and when hee had taken away all, hee departed into his owne land, 25 After he had murthered many men, and spoken very proudly.

26 Therefore there was a great lamentation in euery place of Israel.

27 For the Princes and the Elders mourned: the yong women, and the yong men were made feeble, and the beautie of the women was changed.

28 Euery bridegrome tooke him to mourning, and she that sate in the marriage chamber was in heauinesse.

29 The land also was moued for the inhabitants thereof: for all the house of Jacob was couered with confusion.

h The battell of Macedonia.

30 h After two yeres the King sent his chiefe tare master into the cities of Juda, which came to Jerusalem with a great multitude, 31 Who spake peaceable words vnto them in deceit, and they gaue credite vnto him.

32 Then he fell suddenly vpon the citie, and smote it with a great plague, & destroyed much people of Israel.

33 And when he had spoyled the citie, hee set fire on it, casting downe the houses thereof, and walles thereof on euery side.

34 The women and their children tooke they captiue, and led away the cattell.

35 Then fortified they the city of Dauid with a great & thicke wall, and with mighty towres, and made it a strong hold for them.

36 Moreouer they set wicked people there, and vngodly persons, and fortified themselues therein.

37 And they stored it with weapons and victailes, and gathered the spoile of Jerusalem, and layd it vp there.

38 Thus became they a sore snare and were in ambushment for the Sanctuarie, and were wicked enemies euermore vnto Israel.

39 For they shedde innocent blood on euery side of the Sanctuarie, and defiled the Sanctuarie, 40 In so much that the citizens of Jerusalem fled away because of them, and it became an habitation of strangers, being desolate of them whome thee had borne: for her owne children did leaue her.

41 Her Sanctuarie was left waste as a wilderne: her holy dayes were turned into mourning, her Sabbaths into reproch, and her honor brought to nought.

42 As her glory had bene great, so was her dishonour, and her excellencie was turned into sorow.

43 Also the King wrote vnto all his kingdome, that all the people should bee as one, and that euery man should leaue his lawes. Joseph. Antiq.12.cap. 6.& 7.

44 And all the heathen agreed to the commandement of the King.

45 Yea, many of the Israelites consented to his religion, offering vnto idoles, and defiling the Sabbath.

46 So the King sent letters by the messengers vnto Jerusalem, and to the cities of Juda, that they should folow the strange lawes of the countrey, 47 And that they should forbid the burnt offerings and sacrifices, and the ‖ offerings in the Sanctuarie,

‖ Or, drinke offerings.

48 And that they should defile the Sabbaths and the feastes,

49 And pollute the Sanctuarie and the holy men,

50 And to set vp altars and groues, & chappels of idoles, and offer vp swines flesh, and vncleane beastes,

51 And that they should leaue their children vncircumcised, and defile their soules with vncleanesse, and pollute themselues, that they might forget the Lawe, and change all the ordinances, 52 And that whosoeuer would not doe according to the commandement of the King, should suffer death.

53 In like maner wrote hee throughout all his kingdomes, and set ouerseers ouer all the people, for to compell them to doe these things.

54 And hee commaunded the cities of Juda to do sacrifice, citie by citie.

55 Then went many of the people vnto them by heapes, euery one that forsooke the Law, and so they committed euil in the land.

56 And

56 And they drone the Iſraelites into ſecret places, euen whereſoeuer they could flee for ſuccour.

57 The fifteenth day of Caſleu, in the hundzieth and fine and fourtieth yere, they ſet vp the abomination of deſolation vpon the altar, and they built altars throughout the cities of Juda on euery ſide.

58 And before the doores of the houſes, and in the ſtreetes they burnt incenſe.

59 And the bookes of the Lawe, which they found, they ‖ burnt in the fire, and cut in pieces.

‖ It is a manifeſt note of the enemies of God to burne the bookes of the Lawe. Hiſt. eccleſ. lib. 8. cap. 2.

60 Whoſoeuer had a booke of the Teſtament founde by him, or whoſoeuer conſented vnto the Lawe, the Kings commaundement was, that they ſhoulde put him to death by their authoritie.

61 And they executed theſe things euery moneth vpon the people of Iſrael that were found in the cities

62 And in the fine and twentieth day of the moneth, they did ſacrifice vpon the altar, which was in the ſtead of the altar of ſacrifices.

63 And according to the commaundement, they put certaine women to death, which had cauſed their children to be circumciſed, 64 And they hanged vp the children at their neckes, and they ſpoyled their houſes, and ſlewe the circumciſers of them.

65 Yet were there many in Iſrael, which were of courage, and determined in themſelues, that they would not eate vncleane things, 66 But chooſe rather to ſuffer death, then to bee defiled with thoſe meates: ſo becauſe they would not breake the holy couenant, they were put to death.

‖ Or, rage.

67 And this ‖ tyrannie was very ſore vpon the people of Iſrael.

CHAP. II.

1 The mourning of Mattathias and his ſonnes for the deſtruction of the holy citie. 19 They refuſe to doe ſacrifice vnto idoles. 24 The zeale of Mattathias for the Law of God. 33 They are ſlaine and will not fight againe becauſe of the Sabbath day. 49 Mattathias dying commaundeth his ſonnes to ſticke by the words of God, after the example of the fathers.

Joſeph. Ant. 12. cap. 7.

IN thoſe dayes ſtoode vp Mattathias the Prieſt, the ſonne of Joannes, the ſonne of Simeon, of the ſonnes of Joarib of Jeruſalem, and dwelt in Modin.

2 And hee had fiue ſonnes, Joanan called Gaddis,

3 Simon called Thaſſi,

4 Judas which was called Maccabeus,

5 Eleazar called ‖ Abaron, and Jonathan, whoſe name was Apphus.

‖ Or, Auaran.

6 Now he ſaw the blaſphemies, which were committed in Juda and Jeruſalem:

7 And he ſaid, Woe is me: wherefore was I borne, to ſee the deſtruction of my people, and the deſtruction of the holy citie, and thus to ſit ſtill? it is deliuered into the handes of the enemies,

8 And the Sanctuarie is in the handes of ſtrangers: her temple is as a man that hath no renowme.

9 Her glorious veſſels are caried away into captiuitie: her infants are ſlaine in the ſtreetes, and her young men are fallen by the ſwoorde of the enemies.

10 What people is it, that hath not ſome poſſeſſion in her kingdome, or hath not gotten of her ſpoyles?

11 All her glory is taken away: of a free woman, ſhe is become an handmayd.

12 Beholde, our ſanctuarie, and our beautie, and honour is deſolate, and the Gentiles haue defiled it, 13 What helpeth it vs then to line any lōger?

14 And Mattathias rent his clothes, he, and his ſonnes, and put ſackcloth vpon them, and mourned very ſore.

15 ¶ Then came men from the King to the citie of Modin, to compell them to forſake God, and to ſacrifice.

16 So many of the Iſraelites conſented vnto them: but Mattathias and his ſonnes aſſembled together.

17 Then ſpake the cōmiſſioners of the king, and ſaide vnto Mattathias, Thou art the chiefe and an honourable man, and great in this citie, and haſt many children and brethren.

18 Come thou therefore firſt and fulfill the Kings commaundement, as all the heathen haue done, and alſo the men of Juda, and ſuch as remaine at Jeruſalem: ſo ſhalt thou and thy familie be in the Kings fauour, and thou and thy children ſhall be enriched with ſiluer and golde, and with many rewards.

19 Then Mattathias anſwered and ſayde with a loud voyce, Though all nations that are vnder the Kings dominion, obey him, and fall away euery man from the religion of their fathers, and conſent to his commaundements, 20 a Yet will I and my ſonnes, and my brethren, walke in the couenant of our fathers.

a The father promiſeth for his children, that they ſhall ſerue God: ſo doeth Joſhua for his houſhold, Ioſh. 24. 15.

21 God be mercifull vnto vs, that we forſake not the Lawe and the ordinances.

22 Wee will not hearken vnto the Kings words to tranſgreſſe our religion, neither on the right ſide, nor on the left.

23 And when hee had left off ſpeaking theſe words, there came one of the Iewes, in the ſight of al, to ſacrifice vpon the altar which was at Modin, according to the Kings commaundement.

24 Now when Mattathias ſawe it, hee was ſo b inflamed with zeale, that his reines ſhooke, and his wrath was kindled according to the ordinance of the lawe: therefore he ranne vnto him, and killed him by the altar:

b It is a griefe to the godly to ſee the people offend.

25 And at the ſame time he ſlewe the Kings commiſſioner, that compelled him to doe ſacrifice, and deſtroyed the altar.

26 Thus bare he a zeale to the Lawe of God, * doing as Phinees did vnto Zambri the ſonne of Salom. Num. 25. 7.

27 ¶ Then cryed Mattathias with a loude voyce in the citie, ſaying, Whoſoeuer is zealous of the Lawe, and will ſtande by the couenant, let him come forth after me.

28 So he, and his ſonnes fled into the mountaines, and left all that they had in the citie.

29 Then many that ‖ ſought after iuſtice and iudgement,

‖ Or, that ſued iuſtly and vprightly.

30 Went downe into the wildernes to dwel there, both they, and their children, and their wiues, and their cattel: for the afflictions increaſed ſore vpon them.

31 ¶ Now when it was told vnto the Kings ſeruants, seruants, and to the garisons, which were in Jerusalem in the citie of Dauid, that men had broken the Kings commaundement, and were gone downe into the secret places in the wildernesse, 32 Then many pursued after them: and hauing ouertaken them, they camped against thē and set the battell in arap against them on the Sabbath day.

33 And saide vnto them, Let this now be sufficient: come forth and do according to the commandement of the king, and ye shal liue.

34 But they answered, Wee will not goe forth, neither will we doe the kings commandement, to defile the Sabbath day.

35 Then they gaue them the battell.

36 But the other answered them nothing, neither cast any one stone at them, nor stopped the priuie places, 37 But saide, Wee will die all in our innocencie: the heauen and earth shall testifie for vs, that ye destroy vs wrongfully.

38 Thus they gaue them the battel vpon the Sabbath, and slewe both men and cattell, their wiues and their children to the number of a thousand people.

39 ¶ When Mattathias and his friends vnderstood this, they mourned for them greatly,

40 And saide one to another, If we al doe as our brethren haue done, and fight not against the heathen for our liues, and for our lawes, then shall they incontinently destroy vs out of the earth.

41 Therefore they concluded at the same time, saying, Whosoeuer shall come to make battell with vs vpon the Sabbath day, we will fight against him, that wee die not all, as our brethren that were murthered in the secret places.

42 Then came vnto them the assemblie of the Assideans, which were of the strongest men of Israel, all such as were well minded toward the Lawe.

43 And all they that were fled for persecution, ioyned themselues vnto them, and were an helpe vnto them.

44 So they gathered a power, and smote the wicked men in their wrath, and the vngodly in their anger: but the rest fled vnto the heathen, and escaped.

45 Then Mattathias and his friends went about and destroyed the altars,

46 And circumcised the children by force that were vncircumcised, as many as they found within the coasts of Israel, 47 And they pursued after the proude men: and this act prospered in their hands.

48 So they recouered the Lawe out of the hand of the Gentiles, and out of the hand of kings, and gaue not place to the wicked.

49 Now when the time drewe neere, that Mattathias should die, he said vnto his sonnes, Nowe is pride and persecution increased, and the time of destruction, and the wrath of indignation.

50 Now therefore, my sonnes, be ye zelous of the law, and giue your liues for the couenant of your fathers.

51 Call to remembrance what actes our fathers did in their time: so shall ye receiue great honour and an euerlasting name, 52 * Was not Abraham found faithfull in tentation, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse? Gene.22.9. 10.rom.4 3.

53 * Joseph in the time of his tronble kept the commaundement, and was made the lord of Egypt. Gen.41.40.

54 * Phinehes our father, because he was zelous and feruent, obteined the couenant of the euerlasting Priesthood. Num.25.13, eccluu.45. 23,24.

55 * Jesus for fulfilling the word, was made the gouernour of Israel. Iosh.1.2.

56 * Caleb, because he bare witnes before the congregation, receiued the heritage of the land. Num.14.6,7 iosh.14.13.

57 * Dauid, because of his mercie, obteined the throne of the kingdome for euermore. 2.Sam.2,4.

58 * Elias, because hee was zealous and feruent in the Lawe, was taken vp euen vnto heauen. 3.King.2,11

59 * Ananias, Azarias, and Misael by their faith were deliuered out of the flame. Dan.3.16, 17,18,36.

60 * Daniel, because of his innocencie, was deliuered from the mouth of the Lions. Dan.6,22.

61 And thus ye may consider throughout all ages, that whosoeuer put their trust in him, shal not want strength.

62 * Feare not ye then the words of a sinful man: for his glory is but dung and wormes. Mat.10.16, 28,31.isa. 40.6,7,8. & 51.7,8.

63 To day is he set vp, and to morow he shal * not be found: for hee is turned into his dust, and his purpose perisheth. Iam.1.10.

64 Wherefore my sonnes, take good hearts, and shew your selues men for the Lawe: for by it shall you obteine glory. 1.pet.1.24. eccluu.14,18

65 And beholde, I know that your brother Simon is a man of counsell: giue eare vnto him alway: he shalbe a father vnto you.

66 And Judas Maccabeus hath bene mightie and strong, euen from his youth vp: let him be your captaine, and fight you the battell for the people.

67 Thus shal ye bring vnto you al those that obserue the Lawe, and shall auenge the iniuries of your people.

68 Recompense fully the heathen, and giue your selues to the commandement of the Law.

69 So hee blessed them, and was laide with his fathers,

70 And died in the hundreth fourtie and first yeere, and his sonnes buried him in his fathers sepulchre at Modin, and all Israel made great lamentation for him.

CHAP. III.

1 Judas is made ruler ouer the Iewes. 11 Hee killeth Apollonius and Seron the princes of Syria. 44 The confidence of Iudas toward God. 55 Iudas determineth to fight against Lysias, whom Antiochus had made captaine ouer his hoste.

THen Judas his sonne, called Maccabeus, rose vp in his place.

2 And all his brethren helped him, and all they that held with his father, and fought with courage the battell of Israel.

3 So he gate his people great honour: he put on a brest plate as a gyant, and armed himselfe, and set the battell in arap, & defended the campe with the swoorde.

4 In his actes he was like a lyon, and as a lyons whelpe roaring after the pray.

5 For hee pursued the wicked, and sought them out, and burnt vp those that vexed his people,

6 So

6 So that the wicked ſedde for feare of him, and all the woorkers of iniquitie were put to trouble: and ſaluation proſpered in his hand.

7 And he grieued diuers kings, but Jacob reioyced by his acts, and his memoriall is bleſſed for euer.

8 Yee went alſo thorow the cities of Juda, and deſtroyed the wicked out of them, and turned away the wrath from Iſrael.

9 So was her renowmed vnto the endes of the earth, and hee aſſembled together thoſe that were ready to periſh.

10 ¶ But [a] Apollonius gathered the Gentiles, and a great hoſte out of Samaria, to fight againſt Iſrael.

11 Which when Judas perceiued, hee went foorth to meete him, and ſmote him, and ſlewe him, ſo that many fell downe ſlaine, and the reſt fled.

12 So Judas tooke their ſpoyles, and tooke alſo Apollonius ſwoorde, and fought with it all his life long.

13 ¶ Nowe when Seron a prince of the armie of Syria, heard that Judas had gathered vnto him the congregation, and Church of the faithfull, and went foorth to the warre, 14 Hee ſaid, I will get me a name, and will be glorious in the realme: for I will go fight with Judas, and them that are with him, which haue deſpiſed the Kings commaundement.

15 So he made him ready to goe vp, & there went with him a mightie hoſte of the vngodly to helpe him, and to be auenged of the children of Iſrael.

16 And when hee came neere to the going vp of Beth-horon, Judas went foorth to meet him with a ſmall companie.

17 But when they ſawe the armie comming againſt them, they ſaid to Judas, How are we able, being ſo fewe, to fight againſt ſo great a multitude, and ſo ſtrong, ſeeing we be ſo weary, and haue faſted all this day?

18 Then ſaide Judas, It is an eaſie thing for many to bee ſhut vp in the hands of fewe, and there is no difference before the God of heauen, to deliuer by a great multitude, or by a ſmall companie.

19 For the victorie of the battell ſtandeth not in the multitude of the hoſte, but the ſtrength commeth from heauen.

20 They come againſt vs with a cruell and proud multitude, to deſtroy vs, and our wiues, and our children, and to robbe vs.

21 But we do fight for our liues, and for our Lawes.

22 And God himſelf will deſtroy them before our face: therefore be not ye afraide of them.

23 And when hee had left off ſpeaking, hee leapt ſuddenly vpon them: ſo was Seron and his hoſte deſtroyed before him.

24 And they purſued them from the going downe of Beth-horon vnto the plaine: where there were ſlaine eight hundreth men of them, & the reſidue fled into the land of the Philiſtims.

25 Then the feare and terrour of Judas and his brethren fell vpon the nations round about, 26 So that his fame came vnto the King: for all the Gentiles could tell of the warres of Judas.

27 ¶ But when king Antiochus heard theſe tidings, hee was angrie in his minde: wherefore he ſent forth, and gathered all the power of his Realme, a verie ſtrong armie.

28 And opened his treaſurie, and gaue his hoſte a yeeres wages in hand, commaunding them to be ready for a yeere for all occaſions.

29 Neuertheleſſe, when hee ſawe that the money of his treaſures failed, and that the tributes in the countrey were ſmall, becauſe of the diſſenſion, and plagues that he had brought vpon the lande, in taking away the Lawes which had bene of olde time,

30 He feared leaſt he ſhould not haue now at the ſecond time, as at the firſt, for the charges and gifts that he had giuen with a liberall hand afore: for in liberalitie he farre paſſed the other Kings that were before him.

31 Wherefore hee was heauie in his minde, and thought to goe into Perſia, for to take tributes of the countreys, and to gather much money.

32 So he left Lyſias a noble man and of the Kings blood to ouerſee the kings buſines, from the riuer of Euphrates vnto the borders of Egypt, 33 And to bring vp his ſonne Antiochus, till he came againe.

34 Moreouer, he gaue him halfe of his hoſte and Elephants, and gaue him the charge of all things that he would haue done.

35 And concerning thoſe which dwelt in Juda and Jeruſalem, that he ſhould ſend an armie againſt them, to deſtroy & roote out the power of Iſrael and the remnant of Jeruſalem, and to put out their memoriall from that place, 36 And to ſet ſtrangers for to inhabit al their quarters, and part their land among them.

37 And the King tooke halfe of the hoſte that remained, and departed from Antiochia his royall citie, in the yeere an hundreth fourtie and ſeuen, & paſſed the riuer Euphrates, and went thorow the hie countreys.

38 Then Lyſias choſe Ptolomeus the ſonne of Dorimmus, and Nicanor, and Gorgias, mightie men and the kings friends, 39 And ſent with them fourtie thouſande footemen, and ſeuen thouſand horſemen, to goe into the land of Juda, and to deſtroy it, as the King commanded.

40 So they went forth with all their power, and came and pitched by † Emmaus in the plaine countrey. † Emmaus

41 Nowe when the marchants of the countrey heard the rumour of them, they tooke very much ſiluer and golde, and ſeruants, and came into the campe to buy the children of Iſrael for ſlaues, and the ſtrength of Syria and of ſtrange nations ioyned with them.

42 ¶ Nowe when Judas and his brethren ſawe that trouble increaſed, and that the hoſte drewe neere vnto their borders, conſidering the kings words, whereby he had commaunded to deſtroy the people, and vtterly aboliſh them, 43 They ſaide one to another, Let vs redreſſe the decay of our people, and let vs fight for our people, and for our Sanctuarie.

44 Then the congregation were ſoone ready gathered to fight, & to pray, and to deſire mercie and compaſſion.

45 As for Jeruſalem, it was not inhabited, but was as a wildernes. There went none that was borne in it, in or out at it, and the Sanctuarie

[a] Who was gouernour of Syria, Ioſeph. Antiq. 12. cap. 9.

Sanctuarie was troden downe, and the ſtrangers kept the fortreſſe, and it was the habitation of the heathen: and the mirth of Iacob was taken awaye: the pipe and the harpe ceaſed.

46 So they gathered themſelues together, and came to Maſpha before Ieruſalem: for in Maſpha was the place where they prayed aforetime in Iſrael.

47 And they faſted that day, and put ſackecloth vpon them, & caſt aſhes vpon their heads, and rent their clothes,

48 And opened the booke of the law, wherein the heathen ſought to paint the likeneſſe of their idoles, 49 And brought the Prieſts garments, and the firſt fruites, and the tithes, and ſet there the Nazarites, which accompliſhed their dayes.

50 And they cried with a loude voyce toward heauen, ſaying, What ſhall we doe with theſe? and whither ſhall we carry them away?

51 For thy Sanctuarie is troden downe and defiled, and thy Prieſts are in heauineſſe, and brought downe.

52 And behold, the heathen are come againſt vs, to deſtroy vs: thou knoweſt what things they imagine againſt vs.

53 Howe can wee ſtand before them, except thou helpe vs?

54 Then they blewe the trumpets, and cryed with a loud voyce.

55 And after this Iudas ordeined captaines ouer the people, euen captaines ouer thouſands, and captaines ouer hundreths, and captaines ouer fifties, and captaines ouer tenne.

56 And they commanded them that builded houſes, or married wiues, or planted vineyards, or were fearefull, that they ſhould returne euery owne to his owne houſe, according *to the Lawe.

Deut.20.5. iudg.7.3.

57 So the hoſte remoued, and pitched vpon the Southſide of Emmaus.

58 And Iudas ſaide, Arme your ſelues, and be valiant men, and be ready againſt the morning to fight with theſe nations, which are gatherred together againſt vs, to deſtroy vs and our Sanctuarie.

59 For it is better for vs to die in battel, then to ſee the calamities of our people and of our Sanctuarie.

60 Neuertheleſſe, as the will of God is in heauen, ſo be it.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Iudas goeth againſt Gorgias which lieth in waite. 14 He putteth Gorgias and his hoſt to flight. 28 Lyſias inuadeth Iudea. 29 But Iudas driueth him out. 43 Iudas purifieth the Temple and dedicateth the altar.

Ioſeph. lib. 12. cap. 10.

THen tooke Gorgias fiue thouſand foote men, and a thouſand of the beſt horſemen, and departed out of the campe by night,

2 To inuade the campe of the Iewes, and to ſlay them ſuddenly: and the men of the fortreſſe were his guides.

3 Now when Iudas heard it, he remoued, and they that were valiant men, to ſmite the Kings armie which was at Emmaus,

4 Whiles yet the armie was diſperſed from the campe.

5 In the meane ſeaſon came Gorgias by night into Iudas campe: and when he found no man there, he ſought them in the mountaines: for ſaid he, they flee from vs.

6 But aſſoone as it was day, Iudas ſhewed himſelfe in the fielde with three thouſand men, which had neither harneſſe nor ſwordes to their mindes.

7 And they ſaw that the armies of the heathen were ſtrong and well armed, and their horſemen about them, and that theſe were expert men of warre.

8 Then ſaide Iudas to the men that were with him, Feare ye not their multitude, neither be afraid of their aſſault.

9 Remember how our fathers were deliuered * in the red Sea, when Pharaoh purſued them with an armie. Exod.14. 9,39.

10 Therefore nowe let vs crie vnto heauen, and the Lord will haue mercie vpon vs, and remember the Couenant of our fathers, and will deſtroy this hoſte before our face this day:

11 So ſhall all the heathen know, that there is one, which deliuereth and ſaueth Iſrael.

12 Then the ſtrangers lift vp their eyes, and ſawe them comming againſt them, 13 And they went out of their tents into the battell, and they that were with Iudas blewe the trumpets.

14 So they ioyned together, and the heathen were diſcomfited and fled by the plaine.

15 But the hindmoſt of them fell by the ſword, and they purſued them vnto ‖ Gazeron, and into the plaines of Idumea, and of Azotus, and of Iamnia, ſo that there were ſlaine of them about three thouſand men. ‖Or, Aſſemeth.

16 So Iudas turned againe with his hoſte from purſuing them,

17 And ſaid vnto the people, Be not greedy of the ſpoiles: for there is a battell before vs.

18 And Gorgias and the armie is here by vs in the mountaine: but ſtand ye now faſt againſt your enemies, and ouercome them: then may ye ſafely take the ſpoiles.

19 As Iudas was ſpeaking theſe wordes, there appeared one part which looked from the mountaines.

20 But when Gorgias ſawe that his were fled, and that Iudas ſouldiers burnt the tents: (for the ſmoke that was ſeene, declared what was done.)

21 When they ſawe theſe things, they were ſore afraide, and when they ſawe alſo that Iudas and his hoſte were in the fielde readye to ſet themſelues in arap, 22 They fledde euery one into the land of ſtrangers.

23 So Iudas turned againe to ſpoyle the tents, where he gate much gold and ſilver, and precious ſtones, and purple of the ſea, and great riches.

24 Thus they went home, & ſung pſalmes and praiſed toward the heauen: for he is gracious, and his mercie endureth for euer.

25 And ſo Iſrael had a great victorie in that day.

26 ¶ Now al the ſtrangers that eſcaped, came, and tolde Lyſias all the things that were done.

27 Who when he heard theſe things, was ſore afraid and diſcouraged, becauſe ſuch things came not vpon Iſrael as he would, neither ſuch things as the King had commanded him, came to paſſe.

28 Therefore the next yeere folowing, gatherred Lyſias threeſcore thouſand choſen foote men, men, and fiue thousand horsemen to fight against Jerusalem.

‖Or, Judea. ‖Or, Bethoron.

29 So they came into ‖Idumea, and pitched their tents at ‖Beth sura, where Judas came against them with ten thousand men.

30 And when he sawe that mighty armie, he prayed, and saide, Blessed be thou, O Saniour of Israel, * which diddest destroy the assault of the mightie man by the hand of thy seruant Dauid, * and gauest the hoste of the strangers into the hand of Jonathan, the sonne of Saul, and of his armour bearer:

1. Sam. 17. 50, 51. 1. Sam. 14. 13, 14.

31 Shut vp this armie in the hand of thy people of Israel, and let them be confounded with their power, and with their horsemen.

32 Make them afraide, and consume their boldnesse and strength, that they may be astonished at their destruction.

33 Cast them downe by the swoord of them that loue thee: then shall all they that know thy Name, praise thee with songs.

34 So they ioyned together, and there were slaine of Lysias hoste, fiue thousand men, and they fell before them.

35 Then Lysias, seeing his armie put to flight, and the manlinesse of Judas souldiers, and that they were ready, either to liue or die valiantly, he went into Antiochia, and gathered strangers, and when he had furnished his armie, he thought againe (being prepared) to come against Judea.

36 Then saide Judas and his brethren, Behold, our enemies are discomfited: let vs nowe goe vp to cleanse, and to repaire the Sanctuarie.

37 So all the hoste gathered them together, and went vp into the mountaine of Sion.

38 Now when they saw the Sanctuarie laid waste, and the altar defiled, & the doores burnt vp, and the shrubbes growing in the courtes, as in a forest or as on one of the mountains, and that the Priests chambers were broken downe,

39 They rent their clothes, and made great lamentation, and cast ashes vpon their heads, 40 And fell downe to the ground on their faces, and blewe an alarme with the trumpets, and cryed toward heauen.

41 Then Judas commanded certaine of the men to fight against those which were in the castle, till he had cleansed the Sanctuarie.

42 So he chose Priests that were vndefiled, such as delighted in the lawe,

43 And they cleansed the Sanctuarie, & bare out the defiled stones into an vncleane place, 44 And consulted what to doe with the altar of burnt offerings which was polluted.

45 So they thought it was best to destroy it, least it should be a reproch vnto them, because the heathen had defiled it: therefore they destroyed the altar, 46 And laide vp the stones vpon the mountaine of the Temple in a conuenient place, till there should come a Prophet, to shewe what should be done with them.

47 So they tooke whole stones according to the Law, and builded a newe altar according to the former,

48 And made vp the Sanctuarie, and the things that were within the Temple, and the courts, and all things.

49 They made also newe holy vessels, and brought into the Temple the candlesticke, and the altar of burnt offerings, and of incense, and the table.

50 And they burnt incense vpon the altar, and lighted the lampes which were vpon the candlesticke, that they might burne in the Temple.

51 They set also the shewbread vpon the table, and hanged vp the vailes, and finished all the workes that they had begun to make.

52 And vpon the fiue and twentieth day of the ninth moneth, which is called the moneth of Chasleu, in the hundreth and eight and fourtieth yere they rose vp betimes in the morning, 53 And offered sacrifice according to the Lawe, vpon the newe altar of burnt offerings, that they had made.

54 According to the time, and according to the day, that the heathen had defiled it, in the same day, was it made newe with songs, and harpes, and lutes, and cymbals.

55 And all the people fell vpon their faces, worshipping and praysing toward the heauen him that had giuen them good successe.

56 So they kept the dedication of the altar eight dayes, offering burnt offrings with gladnes, & offered sacrifices of deliuerance & praise, 57 And decke the forefront of the Temple with crownes of golde and shieldes, and dedicated the gates and chambers, and hanged doores vpon them.

58 Thus there was very great gladnesse among the people, and the reproch of the heathen was put away.

59 So Judas and his brethren with the whole congregation of Israel ordeined that the dayes of dedication of the altar should be kept in their season from yeere to yeere, by the space of eight dayes, from the fiue and twentieth day of the moneth Chasleu, with mirth and gladnesse.

60 And at the same time builded they vp mount Sion with hie walles & strong towres round about, least the Gentiles should come, and treade it downe, as they had done afore.

61 Therefore they set a garison there to keepe it, and fortified Beth-sura to keepe it, that the people might haue a defence against Idumea.

CHAP. V.

3 Judas vanquisheth the heathen that goe about to destroy Israel, and is holpen of his brethren Simon and Ionathan. 50 He ouerthroweth the citie of Ephron, because they denied him passage through it.

NOw when the nations round about heard, that the altar was builded, and the Sanctuarie renewed as afore, they were sore grieued. Ioseph. lib. 13 cap. 12.

2 Therefore they thought to destroy the generation of Jacob that was among them, and began to slay and destroy the people.

3 Then Judas fought against the children of Esau in Idumea at ‖Arabathene, because they besieged the Israelites, and he smote them with a great plague, and droue them to straites, and tooke their spoiles. ‖Or, Arabathane.

4 He thought also vpon the malice of the children of Bean, which had beene a snare and an hinderance vnto the people, when they lay in waite for them in the hie way.

5 Wherefore he shut them vp in towres, and besieged besieged them, and destroyed them vtterly, and burnt their towers with fire, with all that were in them.

6 Afterward, went he against the children of Ammon, where hee found a mightie power, and a great multitude with Timotheus their captaine.

7 So he had many battels with them, but they were destroyed before him, and so hee discomfited them,

8 And tooke Gazer with the townes thereof, and so turned againe into Iudea.

9 ¶ Then the heathen that were in Galaad, gathered them together against the Israelites that were in their quarters, to slay them: but they fled to the castle of Datheman,

10 And sent letters to Iudas, and to his brethren, saying, The heathen that are about vs, are gathered against vs, to destroy vs.

11 And they make them ready for to come, and to take the fortresse, whereinto we are fled, and Timotheus is captaine of their hoste.

12 Come nowe therefore, and deliuer vs out of their handes: for many of vs are slaine:

13 And all our brethren that were at Tubin, are slaine, & they haue taken away their wiues and their children, and their goods, and destroyed there almost a thousand men.

14 While these letters were yet a reading, beholde, there came other messengers from Galile, with their clothes rent, which tolde the same tidings, 15 And saide, that they of Ptolemais, and of Tyrus, and of Sidon, and of all Galile of the Gentiles were gathered against them to destroy them.

16 When Iudas and the people heard these wordes, a great congregation came together, to consult what they might doe for their brethren that were in trouble, and whome they besieged.

17 Then said Iudas to Simon his brother, Chuse thee out men, and goe & deliuer thy brethren in Galile, and I and my brother Ionathan wil goe into the countrey of Galaad.

18 ¶ So hee left Iosephus the sonne of Zacharias, and Azarias to bee captaines of the people, and to keepe the remnant of the hoste in Iudea, 19 And commanded them, saying, Take the ouerslight of this people, and make no warre against the heathen, vntil we come againe.

20 And vnto Simon were giuen three thousand men, to goe into Galile, and to Iudas eight thousand men for the countrey of Galaad.

21 Then went Simon into Galile, and gaue diuers battels to the heathen, and the heathen were discomfited by him.

22 And hee pursued them vnto the gates of Ptolemais: and there were slaine of the heathen almost three thousande men: so hee tooke their spoyles.

23 Thus they rescued them that were in Galile and in Arbattis with their wiues, and their children, and al that they had, and brought them into Iudea with great ioy.

24 ¶ Iudas Maccabeus also, & his brother Ionathan went ouer Iorden, & trauelled three dayes iourney in the wildernesse,

25 Where they mette with the Nabathites, who receiued them louingly, & tolde them euery thing that was done vnto their brethren in the countrey of Galaad, 26 And howe that many of them were besieged in Bosora, and Bosor, in Alemis, ‖ Chaspon, Maged and Carnaim (all these cities are strong, and great) ‖ Or, Chaſpon.

27 And that they were kept in other cities of Galaad, and to morowe they are appointed to bring their hoste vnto these fortes, and to take them, and to destroy them all in one day.

28 So Iudas & his hoste turned in all haste by the way of the wildernesse toward Bosora, and wanne the city, and slew all the males with the edge of the sword, and tooke all their spoyle, and set fire vpon the citie.

29 And in the night he remoued from thence, and went toward the fortresse.

30 And betimes in the morning when they looked vp, beholde, there was an innumerable people bearing ladders, and instruments of warre, to take the forte, and had assaulted them.

31 When Iudas sawe that the battell was begunne, and that the cry of the citie went vp to heauen with trumpets, and a great sound, 32 Then he said vnto the armie, Fight this day for your brethren.

33 So he went forth behind them with three companies, and they blewe the trumpets, and cried with prayer.

34 Then the hoste of Timotheus knew, that it was Maccabeus, and they fled from him, and hee smote them with a great slaughter, so that there was killed of them the same day, almost eight thousand men.

35 ¶ Then departed Iudas vnto Maspha, and layde siege vnto it, and wanne it, and slewe all the males thereof, and spoyled it, and set fire vpon it.

36 From thence went hee and tooke Chasbon, Maged, and Bosor, and the other cities in Galaad.

37 After these things gathered Timotheus another hoste, and he camped before Raphon beyond the flood.

38 Nowe Iudas had sent to espie the hoste, and they brought him word againe, saying, All the heathen that be rounde about vs, are gathered vnto him, and the hoste is very great,

39 And hee hath hired the Arabians to helpe them, and they haue pitched their tents beyonde the flood, and are ready to come & fight against them. So Iudas went to meete them.

40 Then Timotheus said vnto the captains of his hoste, When Iudas and his hoste come neere the flood, if he passe ouer first vnto vs, wee shall not be able to withstand him: for he will be too strong for vs.

41 And if he be afraid, and campe beyond the flood, wee will goe ouer vnto him, and shall preuaile against him.

42 Now when Iudas came neere to ỹ flood, hee caused the gouernours of the people to remaine by the flood, and commanded them, saying, Suffer none to pitche a tent, but let euery man come to the battell.

43 So hee went first ouer toward them, and all the people after him: and all the heathen were discomfited before him, & cast away their weapons, and fledde into the temple that was at Carnaim.

44 Which citie Judas wanne, and burnt the Temple with all that were in it: so was Carnaim subdued, and might not withstande Judas.

45 ¶ Then Judas gathered al the Israelites that were in the countrey of Galaad, from the least vnto the most, with their wiues and their children, and their baggage a very great hoste, to come into the land of Juda.

46 So they came vnto Ephron, which was a great citie by the way, and strongly defenced: they coulde not passe, neither at the right hande nor at the left, but must goe thorow it.

47 But they that were in the citie, shut themselues in, and stopped vp the gates with stones: and Judas sent vnto them with peaceable words, saying,

48 Let vs passe thorowe your land, that wee may goe into our owne countrey, and none shall hurt you: we will but onely goe thorow on foote: but they would not open vnto him.

49 Wherefore Judas commanded a proclamation to bee made thorowout the hoste, that euery man should assault it according to his standing.

50 So the valiant men set vpon it, & assaulted the citie all that day, and all that night, and the citie was giuen ouer into his hands:

51 Who slew all the males with the edge of the sword, and destroyed it, and tooke the spoyle thereof, and went thorowe the citie ouer them that were slaine.

52 Then went they ouer Jorden into the great plaine before Bethsan.

53 And Judas gathered together them that were behinde, and gaue the people good exhortation all the way thorow, till they were come into the land of Juda.

54 Thus they went vp with ioy, and gladnes vnto mount Sion, where they offered burnt offrings, because there were none of them slain, but came home againe in safetie.

55 ¶ Nowe whiles Judas & Jonathan were in the land of Galaad, and Simon their brother in Galile before Ptolemais, 56 Joseph the sonne of Zacharias, & Azarias the captaines, hearing of the valiant actes, and battels which they had atchieued, sayd, 57 Let vs get vs a name also, and goe fight against the heathen that are round about vs.

58 So they gaue their hoste a commaundement, and went toward Jamnia.

59 But Gorgias and his men came out of the citie to fight against them.

60 And Joseph and Azarias were put to flight, and pursued vnto the borders of Judea: and there were slaine that day of the people of Israel about two thousande men: so that there was a great ouerthrowe among the people of Israel.

61 Because they were not obedient vnto Judas and his brethren, but thought to do some valiant thing.

62 Also they came not of the stocke of these men, by whose handes deliuerance was giuen to Israel.

63 But the man Judas, and his brethren were greatly commended in the sight of al Israel, and of al the heathen, wheresoeuer their name was heard of.

64 And the people came vnto them, bidding them welcome.

65 Afterwarde went Judas forth with his brethren, & fought against the children of Esau in the land toward the South, where he wanne Hebron, and the townes thereof, & he destroyed the castle thereof, and burnt the towers thereof round about. Ioseph. Ant. 12. cap. 11. & 12.

66 Then remooued he to goe into the land of the ‖ strangers, and went thorow Samaria. ‖ Or, Philistims.

67 At the same time were the Priestes of the cities slaine in the battell, which would shewe their valiantnesse, & went forth to battell without counsell: and when Judas came to Azotus in the strangers land, hee brake downe their altars, and burnt with fire the images of their gods, and tooke away the spoyles of the cities, and came into the land of Juda.

CHAP. VI.

1 Antiochus willing to take the citie of Elimais, is driuen away of the citizens. 8 He falleth into sicknes, and dieth. 17 His sonne Antiochus is made King. 34 The maner to prouoke elephants to fight. 43 Eleazarus valiant acte. 48 The siege of Sion.

NOwe when king Antiochus trauelled thorow the hie countreis, he heard that Elimais in the countrey of Persia was a city greatly renowmed for riches, siluer and golde, Ioseph. Ant. 12. cap. 13.

2 And that there was in it a very riche temple, whereas were couerings of golde, coate armours, and harnesse, which Alexander King of Macedonia the sonne of Philip (that reigned first in Grecia) had left there.

3 Wherefore he went about to take the citie, and to spoyle it, but he was not able: for the citizens were warned of the matter,

4 And rose vp against him in battel, and hee fled and departed thence with great heauinesse, and came againe into Babylon.

5 Moreouer, there came one which brought him tidings in the countrey of Persia, that the armies that went against the lande of Juda, were driuen away,

6 And that Lysias, which went forth first with a great power, was driuen away of the Jewes, and that they were made strong by the armour, and power, and diuers spoyles which they had gotten of the armies whome they had destroyed,

7 And that they had pulled downe the abomination, which hee had set vp vpon the altar at Jerusalem, and fensed the Sanctuarie with high walles, as it was afore, and Beth-sura his citie.

8 So when the King had heard these words, he was astonished, and lore mooued: therefore he layd him downe vpon his bed, and fell sicke for very sorow, because it was not come to passe as he had thought.

9 And there continued hee many dayes: for his griefe was euer more and more, so that hee saw he must needes die.

10 Therefore he sent for all his friendes, and sayde vnto them, The sleepe is gone from mine eyes, and mine heart faileth for very care.

11 And I thinke with my selfe, Into what aduersitie am I come? and into what floods of miserie am I fallen nowe, whereas afore time I was in prosperitie, and greatly set by, by reason of my power?

12 And nowe doe I remember the euils, that

I

I haue done at Ierusalem: for I tooke all the vessels of gold and of siluer that were in it, and sent to destroy the inhabitants of Iuda without cause.

13 I knowe that these troubles are come vpon mee for the same cause, and beholde, I must die with great sorow in a strange land.

14 Then called hee for Philip, one of his friends, whom hee made ruler ouer his realme, 15 And gaue him the crowne, and his robe, and the ring, that hee shoulde instruct his sonne Antiochus, and bring him vp, till hee might reigne himselfe.

16 So king Antiochus died there in the hundreth fourtie and ninth yere.

Ioseph. Anti. 12. chap. 14.

17 ¶ When Lysias knewe that the king was dead, he ordeined Antiochus his sonne (whome he had brought vp) to reigne in his fathers stead and called him Eupator.

18 Nowe they that were in the castle at Ierusalem, kept in the Israelites rounde about the Sanctuary, and sought alwayes their hurt, and the strengthening of the heathen.

19 Therefore Iudas thought to destroy thē, and called all the people together to besiege them.

20 So they came together, and besieged thē in the hundreth & fiftie yeere, and made instruments to shoote, and other engins of warre.

21 But certaine of them that were besieged, gate footh, (vnto whom some vngodly men of Israel ioyned themselues)

22 And they went vnto the King, saying, How long wilt thou ceale frō executing iudgement, and auenge our brethren?

23 Wee haue bene ready to serue thy father, and to go forward in those things, that hee appointed, and to obey his commandements.

24 Therefore they of our nation fell from vs for this cause, and wherelouer they founde any of vs, they slewe them, and spoyled our inheritance.

25 And they haue not onely laid hande vpon vs, but vpon all about their borders.

26 And beholde, this day are they besieging the castle at Ierusalem to take it, and haue fortified the Sanctuarie, and Beth-sura.

27 And if thou doest not preuent them quickly, they will doe greater things then these, and thou shalt not be able to ouercome them.

28 When the king heard this, hee was very angry, and called all his friendes, the captaines of his armie, and his horsemen, 29 And bandes that were hired, came vnto him from the kings, that were confederate, and from the yles of the sea.

30 So the number of his armie was an hundreth thousand footemen, and twentie thousand horsemen, and two and thirtie Elephants exercised in battell.

31 These came through Idumea, and drewe neere to Beth-sura, and besieged it a long season, and made engins of warre, but they came out, and burnt them with fire, and fought valiantly.

32 Then departed Iudas from the castle, and remooued the hoste toward Beth-zacarias, ouer against the Kings campe.

33 So the king arose very early, and brought the armie and his power towarde the way of Beth-zacarias, where the armie set themselues in aray to the battell, and blew the trumpets.

34 And to prouoke the Elephants for to fight, they shewed them the blood of grapes and mulberies,

35 And they set the beastes according to the ranges: so that by euery Elephant there stoode a thousande men armed with coates of maile and helmets of brasse vpon their heads, and vnto euery beast were ordeined fiue hundreth horsmen of the best,

36 Which were ready at all times wherelouer the beast was: and whitherlouer the beast went they went also, & departed not from him.

37 And vpon them were strong towres of wood that couered euery beast, which were fastened thereon with instruments, and vpon euerie one were two and thirtie men that fought in them, and the Indian that ruled him.

38 They set also the remnant of the horsemen vpon both the sides in two wings of the hoste, to stirre them vp, and to keepe them in the valleys.

39 And when the sunne shone vpon the golden shields, the mountaines glistred therewith, and gaue light as lampes of fire.

40 Thus part of the kings armie was spread vpon the hie mountaines, and part beneath: so they marched forward warily, and in order.

41 And all they that heard the noyse of their multitude, and the marching of the companie and the rating of the harnesse, were astonied: for the armie was very great and mightie.

42 Then Iudas and his hoste entred into the battell, and they slewe fiue hundreth men of the kings armie.

43 ¶ Nowe when Eleazar, the sonne of ‖ Abaron, sawe one of the Elephants armed with royall harnesse, and was more excellent then all the other beasts, he thought that the king should be vpon him.

‖ Or, Saurā.

44 Wherefore hee ieopared himselfe to deliuer his people, & to get him a perpetuall name, 45 And ranne boldly vnto him through the middes of the hoste, slaying on the right hande and on the left, so that they departed away on both sides.

46 So went hee to the Elephants feete, and gate him vnder him, and slewe him: then fell the Elephant downe vpon him & there hee died.

a This example is not to be followed, because it is contrary to the commādement.

47 But the other, seeing the power of ỹ king and the fiercenesse of his armie, departed from them.

48 ¶ And the kings armie went vp to meet them towarde Ierusalem, and the king pitched his tent in Iudea toward mount Sion.

49 Moreouer the King tooke truce with them that were in Beth-sura: but when they came out of the citie, because they had no vitailes there, and were shut vp therein, and the land had rested,

50 The king tooke Beth-sura, and set there a garison to keepe it, 51 And besieged the Sanctuarie many daies, and made instruments to shoote, and other engins of warre, and instruments to cast fire and stones, and peices to cast darts and slings.

52 ‖ They also made engins against their engins, and fought a long season.

‖ Or, the Iewes.

53 But in the garners there were no vitailes: for it was the seuenth yeere, and then they that were in Iudea, and were deliuered from the Gentiles, had eaten vp the reſidue of the ſtore,

54 So that in the Sanctuarie were few men left: for the famine came ſo vpon them, that they were ſcattered euery man to his owne place.

55 ¶ Now when Lyſias heard that Philip, (whome Antiochus the King, whiles hee liued, had ordeined to bring vp Antiochus his ſonne, that he might be king)

56 Was come againe out of Perſia, & Media, and the Kings hoſte with him, and thought to take vnto him the rule of things, 57 Hee and his haſted, & were ſtirred forward by them in the caſtle to goe and tell the King, and the captaines of the hoſte, and to others, ſaying, We decreaſe dayly, and our vitailes are but ſmall: and the place that we lay ſiege vnto, is ſtrong, and the affaires of the realme depend vpon vs.

58 Nowe therefore let vs ‖agree with theſe men, and take truce with them, and with all their nation,

‖Or, giue hands.

59 And grant them to liue after their Law, as they did afore: for they bee grieued, and doe all theſe things, becauſe wee haue broken their Lawes.

60 So the King and the Princes were content, and ſent vnto them to make peace, & they receiued it.

61 When the king and the princes had made an othe vnto them, they came vpon this out of the fortreſſe.

62 And the king went vp to mount Sion: but when hee ſawe that the place was well defenced, he brake his othe that he had made, and commaunded to breake downe the wall rounde about.

63 Then departed he in all haſte, and returned vnto Antiochia, where hee founde Philip hauing dominion of the citie: ſo hee fought againſt him, and tooke the citie by force.

CHAP. VII.

1 Demetrius reigned, after hee had killed Antiochus and Lyſias. 5 He troubleth the children of Iſrael through the counſell of certaine wicked perſons. 37 The prayer of the Prieſts againſt Nicanor. 41 Iudas killeth Nicanor, after he had made his prayer.

Ioſeph. Anti. 12. chap. 5.

IN the hundreth, and one and ſixtieth yeere departed Demetrius the ſonne of Seleucus from Rome, and came vp with fewe men vnto a citie of the coaſt and reigned there.

2 And when he came into the poſſeſſion of his fathers kingdome, his ſouldiers tooke Antiochus and Lyſias, and brought them vnto him.

3 But when it was told him, he ſayd, Shew me not their faces.

4 So they put them to death. Nowe when Demetrius was ſet vpon the throne of his kingdome,

5 There came vnto him all the wicked and vngodly men of Iſrael, whoſe captaine was Alcimus, that would haue beene the hie Prieſt.

6 Theſe men accuſed the people vnto the king, ſaying, Iudas & his brethren haue ſlaine all thy friendes, and driuen vs out of our owne land.

7 Wherefore ſende nowe ſome man, whome thou truſteſt, that hee may goe and ſee all the deſtruction, which hee hath done vnto vs, and to the kings lande, and let them punith them with all their partakers.

8 Then the king choſe Bacchides a friend of his, which was a great man in the realme, and ruled beyond the flood, and was faithfull vnto the king, and ſent him,

9 And that wicked Alcimus, whom he made hie Prieſt, and commanded him to bee auenged of the children of Iſrael.

10 So they departed, and came with a great hoſt vnto the land of Iuda, and ſent meſſengers to Iudas and his brethren, deceitfully with peaceable words.

11 But they beleeued not their ſaying: for they ſaw that they were come with a great hoſt.

12 Then a company of the gouernours aſſembled vnto Alcimus and Bacchides to intreate of reaſonable points.

13 And the ‖Aſideans were the firſt that required peace among the children of Iſrael.

‖Or, Haſidims.

14 For ſayde they, He that is a Prieſt of the ſeede of Aaron, is come with this armie: therefore he will not hurt vs.

15 Then he ſpake vnto them peaceably, and ſware vnto them and ſayd, Wee will doe you no harme, neither your friendes:

16 And they beleeued him: but hee tooke of them threeſcore men, and ſlewe them in one day, according to the words that were written,

17 * They haue caſt the bodies of thy Saints, and their blood rounde about Ieruſalem, and there was no man that would burie them.

Pſalm. 79. 2.

18 So there came a feare and a trembling among all the people: for they ſaid, There is neither trueth nor righteouſneſſe in them: for they haue broken the appoyntment and othe that they made.

19 Then Bacchides remooued from Ieruſalem, and pitched his tent at ‖Beth-zecha, where he ſent forth & tooke many of the men that had forſaken him, and certaine of the people whom he ſlew and caſt into the great pit.

‖Or, Bethſeth, or Bazeth.

20 Then committed hee the countrey vnto Alcimus, and left men of warre with him to helpe him: ſo Bacchides went vnto the king.

21 Thus Alcimus ſtroue for the Prieſthood.

22 And all ſuch as troubled the people, reſorted vnto him: in ſo much that they obtained the lande of Iuda, and did much hurt in Iſrael.

23 Now when Iudas ſawe all the miſchiefe that Alcimus and his companie had done among the Iſraelites more then the heathen, 24 He went foorth rounde about all the borders of Iudea, and puniſhed thoſe that were fallen away, ſo that they came no more abroade in the countrey.

25 But when Alcimus ſawe that Iudas and his people had gotten the vpper hande, & knewe that he was not able to abide them, hee went againe to the King and accuſed them of wicked things.

26 Then the King ſent Nicanor one of his chiefe Princes, which hated Iſrael deadly, and commaunded him that hee ſhoulde deſtroy the people.

Ioſeph. Ant. 12. chap. 16.

27 ¶ So Nicanor came to Ieruſalem with a great hoſte, and ſent vnto Iudas, and his brethren deceitfully with friendly wordes, ſaying, 28 Let there be no warre betweene mee, and you: I will come with fewe men, to ſee how ye doe, friendly.

29 So

29 So he came vnto Judas, and they saluted one another peaceably: but the enemies were prepared to take away Judas.

30 Neuertheleſſe, it was tolde Judas, that he came vnto him vnder deceit: therefore he feared him, and would see his face no more.

31 When Nicanor perceiued that his counsell was bewraied, he went out to fight against Judas, beside ‖Carpha-salama, ‖Or, Caphar-ſarama.

32 Where there were slaine of Nicanors hoste about fiue thousand men: so they fled vnto the citie of Dauid.

33 After this came Nicanor vp vnto mount Sion, and some of the Priests with the Elders of the people went foorth of the Sanctuarie to salute him peaceably, & to shewe him the burnt offering that was offered for the King.

34 But he laughed at them, & mocked them, and counted them prophane, & spake proudly, 35 And swore in his wrath, saying, If Judas and his hoste be not deliuered nowe into mine hands, if euer I come againe in saſetie, I will burne vp this house. With that, went he out in a great anger.

36 Then the Priests came in, and stood before the altar in the Temple, weeping & saying,

37 For so much as thou, O Lord, hast chosen this *House, that thy Name might be called vpon therein, and that it should be an house of prayer, and petition for thy people,

*Iſa.56.5,7.

38 Be auenged of this man and his hoste, and let them be slaine by the sword: remember their blasphemies, and suffer them not to continue.

39 ¶ When Nicanor was gone from Jerusalem, he pitched his tent at Beth-horon, and there an hoste met him out of Syria.

40 And Judas pitched in ‖Adasa, with three thousand men, where Judas prayed, saying,

‖Or, Adarſa.

41 O Lord, * because the messengers of King Sennacherib blasphemed thee, thine Angel went foorth, and slew an hundreth, fourescore and fiue thousand of them.

*2.Kin.19. 35. 1ob.1.18. eccluſ.48.22. iſa.37.36. 2.mac.8.19.

42 So destroy thou this hoste before vs to day, that all other may know that he hath spoken wickedly against thy Sanctuarie, and punish him according to his malice.

43 So the armes ioyned together in battell, the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar: but Nicanors hoste was discomfited, and he himselfe was first slaine in the battell.

44 Nowe when his armie sawe that Nicanor was slaine, they cast away their weapons and fled.

45 But they pursued after them a dayes iourney from Adasa, vnto Gasera, blowing an alarme with the trumpets after them.

46 So they came foorth of all the townes of Judea round about, & rushed vpon them, and threwe them from one to another, so that they all fell by the sword, and there was not one of them left.

47 Then they tooke the spoiles, & the praye, and smote off Nicanors head, & his right hand, which he helde vp so proudly, and brought it with them, and hanged them vp afore Jerusalem.

48 So the people reioyced greatly, and kept that day as a day of great gladnesse.

49 And they ordeined to keepe yeerely that day on the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar, 50 Thus the land of Juda was in rest a litle while.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Judas considering the power and policie of the Romanes, maketh peace with them. 22 The conditions of mutuall friendship sent to the Iewes.

IUdas heard also the fame of the Romanes, that they were mightie, and baltant, and agreeable to all things, that were required of them, and made peace with all that came vnto them,

*Ioſeph. Ant. lib.12.cap. 18.

2 And that they were men of great power, and they tolde him of their battels, and their worthy actes, which they did among the ‖Galatians whom they had conquered, and made to pay tribute,

‖Or, Frenchmen.

3 And what they had done in the countrey of Spaine: how that they had wonne there the mines of siluer and gold,

4 And that by their counsell and gentle behauiour they were rulers in euery place, though the place was farre from them, and that they had discomfited, and giuen great ouerthowes to the Kings that came against them, from the vttermost parte of the earth, and that others gaue them tribute euery yeere,

5 How they had also discomfited by battell Philip and Perses kings of the ‖Macedonians, and others, that rose against them, and howe they ouercame them,

‖Or, Citims.

6 And howe great Antiochus king of Asia that came against them in battell, hauing an hundreth and twentie Elephants, with horsemen and charets, and a very great armie, was discomfited by them,

7 And how they tooke him aliue, and ordeined him, with such as should reigne after him, to pay a great tribute, and to giue hostages, and a separate portion,

8 Euen the countrey of India, and Media, and Lydia, and of his best countreys, which they tooke of him and gaue them to King Eumenes.

9 Againe when it was tolde them that the Grecians were comming to destroy them,

10 They sent against them a captaine, which gaue them battell, and slewe many of them, and tooke many prisoners with their wiues, and children, and spoyled them, and conquered their land, and destroyed their strong holdes, and subdued them to be their bondmen vnto this day:

11 Moreouer, how they destroyed & brought into subiection other kingdomes & Iles, whosoeuer hath withstand them.

12 But that they kept amitie with their owne friends, and those that staied vpon them: finally, that they conquered kingdomes, both farre and neere, in so much that whosoeuer heard of their renoumme, was afraid of them.

13 For whom they would helpe to their kingdomes, those reigned: & whom they would, they put downe: thus were they in most high authoritie.

14 Yet for all this that none of them ware a crowne, neither was clothed in purple, to be magnified thereby,

15 But that they had ordained themselues a councill, wherein three hundreth and twentie men consulted daply, and prouided for the common affaires, to gouerne them well, 16 And that they committed their gouernment to one man euery yeere, who did rule ouer all their countrey, to whom euery man was obedient: and there was neither hatred nor enuy among them.

17 ¶ Then Judas chose Eupolemus the sonne of John, the sonne of Accus, and Jason the sonne of Eleazar, and sent them vnto Rome, to make friendship, and mutual fellowship with them,

18 That they might take from them the yoke (for they sawe that the kingdome of the Grecians would keepe Israel in bondage.)

19 So they went vnto Rome, which was a very great iourney, and came into the ‖ Senate where they spake and said,

‖Or, councill.

20 Judas Maccabeus with his brethren, and the people of the Jewes hath sent vs vnto you, to make a bond of friendship & peace with you, and we to register vs as your partakers and friends.

21 And the matter pleased them.

22 And this is the copie of the Epistle that they wrote in tables of brasse and sent to Jerusalem, that they might haue by them a memoriall of the peace, and mutuall fellowship.

23 Good successe be to the Romanes, and to the people of the Jewes, by sea, and by land for euer, and the sword, and enemie be from them.

24 If there come first any warre vpon the Romanes, or any of their friends throughout all their dominion, 25 The people of the Jewes shal helpe them, as the time shall be appointed, with all their heart.

26 Also ‖ they shal giue nothing to them that come to fight for them, nor serue them with wheate nor weapons, nor money, nor ships, as it pleaseth the Romanes, but ‖ they shall keepe their couenants without taking any thing of them.

‖Or, the Romanes.

‖Or, the Jewes.

27 Likewise also if warre come first against the nation of the Jewes, the Romanes shal helpe them with a good will, according as the time shall be appointed them.

28 Neither shal wheate be giuen vnto them, that take their part, nor weapons, nor money, nor ships, as it pleaseth the Romanes, who will keepe these couenants without deceit.

29 According to these articles the Romanes made the bond with the people of the Jewes.

30 If after these points the one partie, or the other will adde or diminish, they may doe it at their pleasures, or whatsoeuer they shall adde or take away, shalbe ratified.

31 And as touching the euil that Demetrius hath done vnto the Jewes, we haue written vnto him, saying, Wherefore lapest thou thine heauie yoke vpon our friends, and confederates the Jewes?

32 If therefore they complaine any more against thee, we will doe them iustice, and fight with thee by sea and by land.

CHAP. IX.

1 After the death of Nicanor, Demetrius sendeth his armie against Iudas. 18 Iudas is slaine. 31 Ionathan is put in the stead of his brother. 47 The battell betweene Ionathan and Bacchides. 55 Alcimus is smitten with the palsie, and dieth. 68 He commeth vpon Ionathan by the counsell of certaine wicked persons, and is ouercome. 70 The truce of Ionathan with Bacchides.

IN the meane season when Demetrius had heard how Nicanor, and his hoste had giuen the battell, he sent Bacchides, and Alcimus againe into Judea, and his ‖ chiefe strength with them.

Ioseph. Antiq. 12. ca. 18

‖Or, the right horne.

2 So they went forth by the way that is toward Galgala, and pitched their tents before Mesaloth which is in Arbelis, and wan it, and slew much people.

3 And in the first moneth of the hundreth, fifte and two yeere, they laied their siege against Jerusalem.

4 But they raised their campe, and came to Berea, with twentie thousand foote men, and two thousand horsemen.

5 Now Judas had pitched his tent at ‖ Eleasa, and three thousand chosen men with him.

‖Or, Laisa.

6 And when they saw that the multitude of the armie was great, they were sore afraid, and many conueied themselues out of the hoste, so that there abode no moe of them, but eight hundreth men.

7 When Judas sawe that his hoste fayled him, and that he must needes fight, he was sore troubled in mind that he had no time to gather them together, and was discouraged.

8 Neuerthelesse, he saide vnto them that remained, Let vs rise, and goe vp against our enemies, if peraduenture we may be able to fight with them.

9 But they would haue staied him, saying, We are not able: but let vs rather saue our liues: turne backe now, seeing our brethren are departed: for shall we fight against them that are so fewe?

10 Then Judas said, a God forbid, that we should doe this thing, to flee from them: if our time be come, let vs die manfully for our brethren, and let vs not staine our honour.

a He that was wont to pray and ouercome, is ouercome when he trusted in his strength, and omitteth prayer.

11 Then the hoste remoued out of the tents, and stood against them, who had diuided their horsemen into two troupes, & they that threwe with slings, and the archers marched in the foreward, and they that fought in the foreward, were all valiant men.

12 And Bacchides was in the right wing. So the armie drewe neere on both sides, and blew the trumpets.

13 They of Judas side blewe the trumpets also, and the earth shooke at the noise of the armies, and the battell continued from morning to night.

14 And when Judas sawe that Bacchides and the strength of his armie was on the right side, he tooke with him all the hardy men, 15 And brake the right wing, and followed vpon them vnto mount Azotus.

16 Nowe when they which were of the left wing, sawe that the right wing was discomfited, they folowed Judas behind, and them that were with him hard at the heeles.

17 Then was there a sore battell: for many were slaine of both the parties.

18 Judas also himselfe was killed, and the remnant fled.

19 So Jonathan and Simon tooke Judas their brother, and buried him in his fathers sepulchre ſepulchre in the citie of Modin.

20 And all the Iſraelites wept for him, and mourned greatly for him, and lamented many dayes, ſaying, 21 How is the valiant man fallen which deliuered Iſrael!

22 Concerning the other things of Judas, both the battels and the valiant actes that hee did, and of his worthines, they are not written: for they were very many.

Ioſeph Ant. li. 13. cap. 1. and 3.

23 ¶ Nowe after the death of Judas, wicked men came vp in all the coaſts of Iſrael, and there aroſe all ſuch as gaue themſelues to iniquitie.

24 In thoſe daies was there a very great famine in the land, and all the countrey gaue ouer themſelues with them.

25 And Bacchides did chuſe wicked men, and made them lords in the land.

26 Theſe ſought out, and made ſearch for Judas friends, and brought them vnto Bacchides, which auenged himſelfe vpon them, and mocked them.

27 And there came ſo great trouble in Iſrael, as was not ſince the time that no Prophet was ſeene among them.

28 Then came all Judas friends together, and ſaid vnto Jonathan,

29 Seeing thy brother Judas is dead, and there is none like him to goe forth againſt our enemies, euen againſt Bacchides, and ‖againſt them of our nation that are enemies vnto vs,

‖ Or, againſt the enemies of our nation.

30 Therefore, this day wee chuſe thee that thou mayeſt bee our prince and captaine in his place to order our battell.

31 So Jonathan tooke the gouernance vpon him at the ſame time, and ruled in ſtead of his brother Judas.

32 But when Bacchides knew it, he ſought for to ſlay him.

33 Then Jonathan and Simon his brother, perceiuing that, fled into the wildernes of Thecua with all their companie, and pitched their tents by the water poole of Aſphar.

34 Which when Bacchides vnderſtood, hee came ouer Jorden with all his hoſte vpon the Sabbath day.

35 (Nowe had Jonathan ſent his brother Iohn a captaine of the people, to pray his friends, the Nabathites, that they would keepe their baggage which was much.

36 But the children of ‖Ambri came out of Medaba, and tooke John, and all that he had, and when they had taken it, went their way.

‖ Or, Iambri.

37 After this came worde vnto Jonathan, and to Simon his brother, that the children of Ambri made a great marriage, & brought the bride from ‖Medaba with great pompe: for ſhe was daughter to one of the nobleſt princes of Canaan.

‖ Or, Nadabath.

38 Therefore they remembred John their brother, and went vp, and hid themſelues vnder the couert of the mountaine.

39 So they lift vp their eyes, and looked, and behold, there was a great noyſe, and much preparation: then the bridegrome came forth, and his friends and his brethren mette them with tymbrels, and inſtruments of muſick, and many weapons.

40 Then Jonathans men that lay in ambuſh, roſe vp againſt them, and ſlewe many of them, and the remnant fledde into the mountaines, ſo that they tooke all their ſpoyles.

41 Thus the marriage was turned to mourning, and the noyſe of their melodie into lamentation.

42 And ſo when they had auenged the blood of their brother, they turned againe vnto Jorden.

43 When Bacchides heard this, hee came vnto the border of Jorden with a great power vpon the Sabbath day.)

44 Then Jonathan ſaid vnto his company: Let vs riſe now, and fight againſt our enemies, for it is not to day as in time paſt.

45 Behold, the battell is before vs, and behinde vs, and the water of Jorden on this ſide and that ſide, and the mariſe and foreſt, ſo that there is no place for vs to turne aſide.

46 Wherefore cry now vnto heauen, that ye may be deliuered from the power of your enemies: ſo they ioyned battell.

47 Then Jonathan ſtretched out his hand to ſmite Bacchides: but he turned aſide from him and recoyled.

48 Then Jonathan, & they that were with him, lept into Jorden, and ſwimmed ouer vnto the further banke: but the other would not paſſe through Jorden after them.

49 So in that day were ſlaine of Bacchides ſide about a thouſand men.

50 Then he turned againe to Jeruſalem, and built vp the ſtrong cities in Juda, as the caſtle of Jericho, and Emmaus, & Beth-horon, and Bethel, and Thamnatha, ‖Pharathoni, and ‖Tephoh, with hie walles, with gates, and with barres,

‖ Or, Phara.
‖ Or, Thopo.

51 And ſet garriſons in them, that they might vſe their malice vpon Iſrael.

52 Hee fortified alſo the citie Beth-ſura, and Gazara, and the caſtle, and ſet a gariſon in them with prouiſion of victailes.

53 He tooke alſo the chiefeſt mens ſonnes in the countrey for hoſtages, and put them in the caſtle at Jeruſalem to kept.

54 ¶ Afterwarde in the hundreth, fiftie and three yeere, in the ſecond moneth, Alcimus commaunded that the walles of the inner court of the Sanctuarie ſhould be deſtroyed, and he pulled downe the monuments of the prophets, and began to deſtroy them.

55 But at the ſame time Alcimus was plagued, and his enterpriſes were hindred, and his mouth was ſtopped: for he was ſmitten with a palſie, and could no more ſpeake, nor giue order concerning his houſe.

56 Thus died Alcimus with great torment at the ſame time.

57 And when Bacchides ſawe, that Alcimus was dead, hee turned againe to the King, and ſo the lande of Juda was in reſt two yeeres.

58 Then all the vngodly men held a counſel, ſaying, Beholde, Jonathan and his company dwell at eaſe, and without care: wherefore let vs bring Bacchides hither, and he will take them all in one night.

59 So they went and conſulted with him,

60 Who aroſe and came with a great hoſte, and ſent letters priuily to his adherents, which were in Judea, to take Jonathan, and thoſe that were with him: but they could not, for their counsell was knowen vnto them.

‖ Or, Ionathan. 61 And ‖ they tooke fiftie men of the countrey, which were the chiefe workers of this wickednesse, and slew them.

‖ Or, Bethbessen. 62 ¶ Then Jonathan and Simon with their company departed vnto ‖ Beth-basin which is in the wildernes, and repayred the decay thereof, and made it strong.

63 When Bacchides knew this, he gathered all his hoste, and sent word to them that were of Judea.

64 Then came hee and laide siege to Beth-basin, and fought against it a long season, and made instruments of warre.

65 But Jonathan had left his brother Simon in the citie, and went forth into the countrey, and came with a certaine number,

‖ Or, Odares. 66 And slewe ‖ Odomeras and his brethren, and the children of Phasiron in their tents: so he began to slay, and increased in power.

67 Simon also & his companie went out of the citie, & burnt vp the instruments of warre, 68 And fought against Bacchides, and discomfited him, and vexed him sore, so that his counsell and iourney was in vaine.

69 Wherfore he was very wroth at the wicked men, b that gaue him counsell to come into the countrey, and slew many of them, and purposed to returne into his owne countrey.

b Wicked counsell falleth on the counsellers.

70 Whereof when Jonathan had knowledge, hee sent ambassadours vnto him, to intreate of peace with him, and that the prisoners should be deliuered.

71 Which thing he accepted, & did according to his desire, and made an othe, that hee would neuer doe him harme all the dayes of his life.

72 So hee restored vnto him the prisoners that hee had taken afore time out of the lande of Juda, and so returned and went into his own lande, neither did hee come any more vnto their borders.

73 Thus the sworde ceased from Israel, and Jonathan dwelt at Machmas, and began there to gouerne the people, and destroyed the vngodly men out of Israel.

CHAP. X.

4 Demetrius desireth to haue peace with Ionathan. 18 Alexander also desireth peace with the Jewes. 48 Alexander maketh warre against Demetrius. 50 Demetrius is slaine, 51 The friendship of Ptolomeus and Alexander.

Ioseph. Ant. 13. cap. 3.

IN the hundreth and threescore yeere came Alexander the sonne of Antiochus Epiphanes, and took Ptolemais, and they receiued him, and there he reigned.

2 Nowe when Demetrius the king heard it, hee gathered an exceeding great hoste, and went forth against him to fight.

3 Also Demetrius sent letters vnto Jonathan, with louing words, as though he would preferre him.

4 For hee saide, We will first make peace with him, before hee ioyne with Alexander against vs.

5 Els he will remember all the euill that we haue done against him, and against his brethren and his nation.

6 And so hee gaue Jonathan leaue to gather an hoste, and to prepare weapons, and to bee confederate with him, and commaunded the hostages that were in the castle, to be deliuered vnto him.

7 ¶ Then came Jonathan to Jerusalem, and read the letters in the audience of all the people, and of them that were in the castle.

8 Therefore they were sore afraide, because they heard that the king had giuen him licence to gather an armie.

9 So they that were of the castle, deliuered the hostages vnto Jonathan, who restored them to their parents.

10 Jonathan also dwelt at Jerusalem, and began to builde, and repaire the citie.

11 And hee commaunded the workemen to builde the walles, and the mount Sion round about with hewen stone, to fortifie it: and so they did.

12 Then the strangers that were in the castles which Bacchides had made, fled.

13 So that euery man left his place, and went into his owne countrey.

14 Onely at Beth-sura remained certaine which had forsaken the law, and the commaundements, for it was their refuge.

15 ¶ Now when King Alexander had heard of the promises that Demetrius had made vnto Jonathan: and when it was told him of the battels and noble acts, which hee and his brethren had done, and of the paines that they had endured, 16 Hee saide, Might we finde such a man: now therefore we wil make him our friend and confederate.

17 Vpon this hee wrote a letter, and sent it vnto him with these words, saying, 18 KING ALEXANDER to his brother Jonathan sendeth salutation.

19 We haue heard of thee, that thou art a very valiant man, and worthy to be our friend.

20 Wherefore this day we ordeine thee to be the hie Priest of thy nation, and to be called the Kings friend: (and hee sent him a purple robe, and a ‖ crowne of gold,) that thou mayest ‖ consider what is for our profite, and keepe friendship toward vs.

‖ Or, mitre. ‖ Or, take our part.

21 So in the seuenth moneth of the hundreth and threescore yere, vpon the feast day of the tabernacles, Jonathan put on the holy garment, and gathered an hoste, & prepared many weapons.

22 ¶ Which when Demetrius heard, he was marueilous sory, and said, Iosephus Antiq. 13. chap. 3.

23 What haue wee done, that Alexander hath preuented vs in getting the friendship of the Jewes for his strength?

24 Yet will I write and exhort them, and promise them dignities and rewards, that they may helpe me.

25 Whereupon hee wrote vnto them, these words, KING DEMETRIVS vnto the nation of the Jewes sendeth greeting.

26 Wee haue heard that yee haue kept your couenant toward vs, & continued in our friendship, and haue not ioyned with our enemies, whereof we are glad.

27 Now therefore remaine still, and keepe fidelitie toward vs, and we will recompense you for the good things that ye haue done for vs, 28 And wil release you of many charges, and giue you rewards.

29 And now I discharge for your sake all the Jewes from tributes, and free you from the customes cuſtomes of ſalt, and the crowne tares, & from the third part of the ſeede.

30 And from the halfe of the fruit of the trees which is mine owne duetie, I ſo releaſe them, that from this day foorth, none ſhall take any thing of the land of Juda, or of the three governments, which are added thereunto, as of Samaria and of Galile, a from this day foorth for euermore.

a And of the countrey beyond Iorde, as Ioſephus writeth.

31 Jeruſalem alſo with all things belonging thereto, ſhall bee holy and free from the tenths and tributes.

32 Alſo I releaſe the power of the caſtle which is at Jeruſalem, and giue it vnto the hie Prieſt, that he may ſet in it ſuch men, as he ſhal chuſe to keepe it.

33 Moreouer, I freely deliuer euery one of the Jewes that were taken away priſoners out of the land of Juda throughout al my realme, and euerie one of them ſhall bee free from tributes, yea, euen their cattell, 34 And all the feaſts, and Sabbaths, & new moones, and the daies appointed, and the three dayes before the feaſt, and the three dayes after the feaſt, ſhall be dayes of freedome and libertie for all the Jewes in my Realme.

35 So that in them no man ſhall haue power to doe any thing, or to vexe any of them in any maner of cauſe.

36 Alſo thirtie thouſand of the Jewes ſhal be written vp in the kings hoſte, and haue their wages paied them as appertaineth to all them that are of the kings armie: and of them ſhall bee ordeyned certaine to keepe the kings ſtrong holds.

37 And ſome of them ſhall bee ſet ouer the kings moſt ſecret affaires, and their gouernors and their princes ſhall be of themſelues, & they ſhall liue after their owne lawes, as the King hath commanded in the land of Juda.

38 And the three gouernments that are added vnto Judea from the countrey of Samaria, ſhall be ioyned vnto Judea, and they ſhalbe as vnder one, and obey none other power, but the hie Prieſt.

39 And I giue Ptolemais and the borders thereof vnto the Sanctuarie at Jeruſalem, for the neceſſarie expenſes of the holy things.

40 Moreouer, I will giue euery yere fifteene thouſand ſicles of ſiluer of the Kings reuenues out of the places appertaining vnto me.

41 And all the ouerplus which they haue not payed for the things due, as they did in the former yeares, from henceforth they ſhall giue it toward the works of the Temple.

42 And beſides this, the fiue thouſand ſicles of ſiluer which they receiued yeerely of the account appointed for the entertainement of the Sanctuarie, theſe yeeres paſſed, euen theſe things ſhall be releaſed becauſe they appertene to the Prieſts that miniſter.

43 Item, whoſoeuer they bee that flee vnto the Temple at Jeruſalem, or within the liberties thereof, and are indetted to the king for any maner of thing, they ſhall be pardoned, and all that they haue in my Realme.

44 For the building alſo and repayring of the workes of the Sanctuarie, expenſes ſhalbe giuen of the kings reuenues.

45 And for the making of the walles of Jeruſalem, and fortifying it round about, that the holds in Judea may bee built vp, ſhall alſo the coſts be giuen out of the kings reuenues.

46 ¶ But when Jonathan and the people heard theſe words, they gaue no credite vnto them, neither receiued them: for they remembred the great wickednes that hee had done in Iſrael, and how ſore he had vexed them.

47 Wherefore they agreed vnto Alexander: for hee was the firſt that had intreated of true peace with them, and ſo were confederate with him alway.

48 Then gathered King Alexander a great hoſte, and camped ouer againſt Demetrius.

49 So the two kings ioyned battel, but Demetrius hoſte fled, and Alexander purſued him, and preuailed againſt them.

50 So that ſore battell continued til the ſunne went downe, and Demetrius was ſlaine the ſame day.

51 ¶ Then Alexander ſent Ambaſſadors vnto Ptolomeus the King of Egypt with theſe words, ſaying, Ioſephus Antiq. 13. chap. 5.

52 For ſo much as I am come againe to my realme, and am ſet in the throne of my fathers, and haue gotten the dominion, and haue deſtroyed Demetrius, and eaſed my countrey,

53 Seeing that I haue euen giuen him the battell, and hee and his armie is diſcomfited by me, and I ſit in the throne of his kingdome, 54 Let vs now make friendſhip together, and giue mee now thy daughter to wife: ſo ſhall I bee thy ſonne in lawe, and giue thee rewardes, and vnto her things according to thy dignitie.

55 Then Ptolomeus the king gaue anſwere, ſaying, Happie bee the day, wherein thou art come againe vnto the lande of thy fathers, and ſitteſt in the throne of their kingdome.

56 Now therefore will I fulfill thy writing: but meete me at Ptolemais that wee may ſee one another, & that I may make thee my ſonne in lawe, according to thy deſire.

57 So Ptolomeus went out of Egypt with his daughter Cleopatra, and came vnto Ptolemais in the hundreth threeſcore and two yeere.

58 Where king Alexander met him, and hee gaue vnto him his daughter Cleopatra, and married them at Ptolemais with great glorie, as the maner of kings is.

59 ¶ Then wrote king Alexander vnto Jonathan, that he ſhould come and meete him.

60 So he went honourably vnto Ptolemais, and there he met the two kings, & gaue them great preſents of ſiluer and golde, and to their friends, and found fauour in their ſight.

61 And there aſſembled certeine peſtilent fellowes of Iſrael, and wicked men to accuſe him: but the king would not heare them.

62 And the king commaunded that they ſhould take off the garments of Jonathan, and clothe him in purple: and ſo they did: and the king appointed him to ſit by him,

63 And ſaid vnto his princes, Go with him into the mids of the citie, and make a proclamation, that no man complaine againſt him of any matter, and that no man trouble him for any maner of cauſe.

64 So when his accuſers ſawe his honour according as it was proclaimed, and that hee was clothed in purple, they fled all away.

65 And the king preferred him to honour, and wrote wrote him among his chiefe friends, and made him a duke, and partaker of his dominion.

66 Thus Jonathan returned to Jerusalem with peace and gladnesse.

67 ¶ In the hundreth, threescore and five yere came Demetrius the sonne of Demetrius, from Creta into his fathers land.

68 Whereof when King Alexander heard, he was very sory, and returned unto Antiochia.

69 Then Demetrius appointed Apollonius the gouernour of Coelosyria, who gathered a great hoste, and camped in Jamnia, and sent unto Jonathan the hie Priest, saying, 70 Darest thou, being but alone, lift up thy selfe against us? and I am laughed at, and reproched, because of thee: nowe therefore why doest thou braunt thy self against us in the mountaines?

71 Nowe then if thou trust in thine owne strength, come downe to us in the plaine fields, and there let us trie the matter together: for I haue the strength of cities.

72 Aske and learne who I am, and they shall take my part: and they shall tell thee that your foote is not able to stand before our face: for thy fathers haue bene twise chased in their owne land.

73 And now how wilt thou be able to abide so great an hoste of horsemen and footmen in the plaine, where is neither stone, nor rocke, nor place to flee unto?

74 When Jonathan heard the words of Apollonius: he was moued in his mind: wherefore he chose tenne thousand men, and went out of Jerusalem, and Simon his brother met him for to helpe him.

75 And hee pitched his tents at Joppe: but they shut him out of the citie: for Apollonius garison was in Joppe.

76 Then they fought against it, and they that were in the citie, for very feare let him in: so Jonathan wanne Joppe.

77 Apollonius hearing of this, tooke three thousand horsemen with a great hoste of foote men, and went toward Azotus, as though hee would goe forward, and came immediatly into the plaine fielde, because hee had so many horsemen, and put his trust in them.

78 So Jonathan followed upon him to Azotus, and the armie skirmished with his arriere band.

79 For Apollonius had left a thousand horsmen behinde them in ambush.

80 And Jonathan knewe that there was an ambushment behind him, and though they had compassed in his hoste, and shot dartes at the people from the morning to the euening, 81 Yet the people stood stil, as Jonathan had commanded them, til their horses were wearie.

82 Then brought Simon forth his hoste, and set them against the band: but the horses were wearie, and he discomfited them, and they fled:

83 And they fled to Azotus, & came into the temple of Dagon their idole, that they might there saue themselues.

84 But Jonathan set fire upon Azotus and all the cities rounde about, and tooke their spoyles, and burnt with fire the temple of Dagon with all them that were fled into it.

85 Thus were slaine and burnt about eight thousand men.

86 So Jonathan remooued the hoste from thence, and camped by Ascalon, where the men of the citie came forth, and met him with great honour.

87 After this went Jonathan and his hoste againe to Jerusalem with great spoyles.

88 And when King Alexander heard these things, he began to do Jonathan more honour, 89 And sent him a collar of golde, as the use is to be giuen unto such as are of the Kings blood: he gaue him also Accaron, with the borders thereof in possession.

CHAP. XI.

1 The dissention betweene Ptolomeus and Alexander his sonne in lawe. 17 The death of Alexander. 19 Demetrius reigneth after the death of Ptolomeus. 22 Sion is besieged of Ionathan. 42 Demetrius seeing that no man resisted him, sendeth his armie againe. 54 Tryphon moueth Antiochus against Demetrius.

AND the King of Egypt gathered a great hoste, like the sande that lyeth upon the sea shore, and many ships, & went about through deceite to obtaine the kingdome of Alexander, and to ioyne it unto his owne Realme. Ioseph. Ant. 13. cap. 7.

2 Upon this he went into Syria with friendly words, and was let into the cities, and men came forth to meete him: for King Alexander had commanded them to meete him, because he was his father in lawe.

3 Nowe when hee entred into the citie of Ptolemais, he left bands and garisons in euery citie.

4 And when hee came neere to Azotus, they shewed him the Temple of Dagon that was burnt, and Azotus, and the suburbes thereof that were destroied, and the bodies cast abroad, and them that hee had burnt in the battell: for they had made heapes of them by the way where he should passe.

5 And they tolde the King what Jonathan had done, to the intent they might get him euill will: but the King held his peace.

6 And Jonathan met the king with great honour at Joppe, where they saluted one another, and lay there.

7 So when Jonathan had gone with the king unto the water that was called Eleutherus, he turned againe to Jerusalem.

8 So King Ptolomeus gate the dominion of the cities by the sea unto Seleucia upon the sea coast, imagining wicked counsels against Alexander, 9 ¶ And sent Ambassadours unto king Demetrius, saying, Come, let us make a league betweene us, and I will giue thee my daughter, which Alexander hath, and thou shalt reigne in thy fathers kingdome.

10 For I repent that I gaue Alexander my daughter: for he goeth about to slay me.

11 Thus he slandered Alexander, as one that should desire his Realme.

12 And he tooke his daughter from him, and gaue her unto Demetrius, and forsooke Alexander, so that their hatred was openly knowen.

13 Then Ptolemeus came to Antiochia, where he set two crownes upon his own head, of Asia and of Egypt.

14 In the meane season was King Alexander in Cilicia: for they that dwelt in those places, had rebelled against him:

15 But

15 But when Alexander heard it, he came to warre against him, and Ptolemeus brought forth his hoste, and met him with a mightie power, and put him to flight.

16 Then fled Alexander into Arabia, there to be defended: so Ptolemeus was exalted.

17 And Zabdiel the Arabian smote off Alexanders head, and sent it vnto Ptolemeus.

18 But the third day after, king Ptolemeus died, & they that were in the holds, were slaine one of another.

19 And Demetrius reigned in the hundreth, threescore and seuenth yeere.

20 ¶ At the same time gathered Jonathan them that were in Judea, to lay siege vnto the castle, which was at Jerusalem, and they made many instruments of warre against it.

21 Then went there certaine vngodly persons (which hated their owne people) vnto king Demetrius, and told him that Jonathan besieged the castle.

22 So when he heard it, he was angry, and immediatly came vnto Ptolemais, and wrote vnto Jonathan, that he should lay no more siege vnto it, but that he should meete him, and spake with him at Ptolemais in all haste.

23 Neuertheles when Jonathan heard this, he commaunded to besiege it: he chose also certaine of the Elders of Israel, and the Priestes, and put himselfe in danger, 24 And tooke with him siluer and gold, and apparell, and diuers presents, and went to Ptolemais vnto the King, and found fauour in his sight.

25 And though certaine vngodly men of his owne nation had made complaints vpon him,

26 Yet the King intreated him as his predecessours had done, & promoted him in the sight of all his friends, 27 And confirmed him in the hie Priesthood with all the honourable things, that he had afore, and made him his chiefe friend.

28 Jonathan also desired the King, that he would make Judea free with the three gouernments, and the countrey of Samaria, and Jonathan promised him three hundreth talents.

29 Wherevnto the King consented, and gaue Jonathan writing of the same, conteining these words, 30 KING DEMETRIVS vnto his brother Jonathan, and to the nation of the Jewes sendeth greeting.

31 We send you here a copie of the letter, which we did write vnto our cousin Lasthenes concerning you, that ye should see it.

32 King Demetrius vnto Lasthenes his father, sendeth greeting,

33 For the faithfulnesse that our friends the nation of the Jewes keepe vnto vs, & for their good will toward vs, we are determined to doe them good.

34 Wherefore we assigne to them the coasts of Judea, with the three gouernements, Apherema, and Lydda, and Ramathe (which are added vnto Judea from the countrey of Samaria) and all that appertaineth to all them that sacrifice in Jerusalem: both concerning the paiments which the king tooke yeerely afortime, both for the fruites of the earth, & for the fruites of the trees.

35 As for the other things appertaining vnto vs of the tenthes and tributes, which were due vnto vs, and the customes of salt, & crowne tares, which were paid vnto vs, we discharge them of all from henceforth.

36 And nothing hereof shall be reuoked from this time forth and for euer.

37 Therefore see that yee make a copie of these things, and deliuer it vnto Jonathan, that it may be set vp vpon the holy mount in an open place.

38 After this when Demetrius the King saw that his land was in rest, and that no resistance was made against him, he sent away all his hoste, euery man to his owne place, except certaine bandes of strangers, whom he brought from the yles of the heathen: wherefore all his fathers hoste hated him.

39 Now was there one Tryphon, that had bene of Alexanders part afore, which when he sawe that all the hoste murmured against Demetrius, he went to || Simalcue þ Arabian, that brought vp Antiochus the sonne of Alexander, || Or, Emal-cual.

40 And lay fore vpon him, to deliuer him this yong Antiochus, that he might reigne in his fathers stead: he told him also what great euill Demetrius had done, and how his men of warre hated him, and he remained there a long season.

41 Also Jonathan sent vnto King Demetrius to driue them out which were in the castle at Jerusalem, and those that were in the fortresses: for they fought against Israel.

42 So Demetrius sent vnto Jonathan, saying, I will not onely doe these things for thee and thy nation, but if opportunitie serue, I will honour thee and thy nation.

43 Now therefore shalt thou doe me a pleasure, if thou wilt send me men to helpe me: for all mine armie is gone from me.

44 So Jonathan sent him three thousand strong men vnto Antiochia, and they came vnto the King: wherefore the King was very glad at their comming.

45 ¶ But they that were of the citie, euen an hundreth and twentie thousand men, gathered them together in the mids of the citie, & would haue slaine the King.

46 But the King fled to the palace, and the citizens kept the streetes of the citie, and began to fight.

47 Then the King called to the Jewes for helpe, which came to him altogether, and went abroad through the citie, 48 And slew the same day an hundreth thousand, and set fire vpon the citie, and tooke many spoyles in that day, and deliuered the King.

49 So when the Citizens sawe that the Jewes had gotten the vpper hand of the citie, and that they themselues were disappointed of their purpose, they made their supplication vnto the King, saying,

50 || Graunt vs peace, and let the Jewes cease from vexing vs and the citie. || Or giue vs the right hand.

51 So they cast away their weapons, and made peace, and the Jewes were greatly honoured before the King, and before all that were in his Realme, and they came againe to Jerusalem with great prayse.

52 Then King Demetrius sate in the throne of his kingdome, and had peace in his land.

53 Neuertheles he dissembled in al that euer he he ſhake, and withdrew himſelfe from Jonathan, neither did he reward him according to the benefites which he had done for him, but troubled him very ſore.

54 ¶ After this returned Tryphon with the yong child Antiochus, which reigned, and was crowned.

55 Then there gathered vnto him all the men of warre, whom Demetrius had ſcattered, and they fought againſt him, who fled, and turned his backe.

‖Or, Elephants.

56 So Tryphon tooke the ‖beaſts, and wan Antiochia.

57 And yong Antiochus wrote vnto Jonathan, ſaying, I appoint thee to be the chiefe Prieſt, and make thee ruler ouer the foure gouernments, that thou maieſt be a friend of the Kings.

58 Vpon this he ſent him golden veſſels to be ſerued in, and gaue him leaue to drinke in gold, and to weare purple, and to haue a collar of gold.

59 He made his brother Simon alſo captaine from the coaſtes of Tyrus vnto the borders of Egypt.

60 Then Jonathan went forth, and paſſed thorow the cities beyond the flood, and all the men of warre of Syria gathered vnto him for to helpe him: ſo he came vnto Aſcalon, and they of the citie receiued him honourably.

61 And from thence went he vnto Gaza: but they of Gaza ſhut him out: wherefore he layed ſiege vnto it, and burned the ſuburbes thereof with fire, and ſpoiled them.

62 Then they of Gaza made ſupplication vnto Jonathan, and he made peace with them, and tooke of the ſonnes of the chiefe men for hoſtages, and ſent them to Jeruſalem, and went thorow the countrey vnto Damaſcus.

63 And when Jonathan heard that Demetrius Princes were come into Cades, which is in Galile, with a great hoſte, purpoſing to driue him out of the countrey, 64 He came againſt them, and left Simon his brother in the countrey.

65 And Simon beſieged Beth-ſura, and fought againſt it a long ſeaſon, and ſhut it vp.

66 So they deſired to haue peace with him, which he granted them, & afterward put them out from thence, and tooke the citie, and ſet a garriſon in it.

67 Then Jonathan with his hoſte, came to the water of Genelar, and betimes in the morning came to the plaine of Aſor.

‖Or, heathen.

68 And beholde, the hoſtes of the ‖ſtrangers met him in the plaine and had layed ambuſhments for him in the mountaines.

69 So that when they came againſt them, the ambuſhment roſe out of their places and skirmiſhed.

70 So that all that were on Jonathans ſide, fled: and there was not one of them left, except Mattathias the ſonne of ‖Abſalomus, and Judas the ſonne of Calphi the Captaines of the hoſte.

‖Or, Abeſſalomus.

71 Then Jonathan rent his clothes, and caſt earth vpon his head, and prayed, 72 And turned againe to them to fight, and put them to flight, ſo that they fled away.

73 Now when his owne men that were fled, ſaw this, they turned againe vnto him, and helped him to follow after all vnto their tentes at Cades, and there they camped.

74 So there were ſlaine of the ſtrangers the ſame day about three thouſand men, and Jonathan turned againe to Jeruſalem.

CHAP. XII.

1 Jonathan ſendeth ambaſſadours to Rome, 2 And to the people of Sparta, to renew their couenant of friendſhip. 24 Jonathan purſueth to fight the Princes of Demetrius. 40 Tryphon taketh Ionathan by deceit.

IOnathan now ſeeing that the time was meete for him, choſe certaine men, and ſent them vnto Rome, to ſtablith and renewe the friendſhip with them. Ioſeph. Antiq. 13. cap. 8.

2 He ſent letters alſo vnto the ‖Spartians and to other places, for the ſame purpoſe. ‖Or, Lacedemonians.

3 So they went vnto Rome, and entred into the Senate, and ſaide, Jonathan the hie Prieſt and the nation of the Jewes ſent vs vnto you, for to renew friendſhip with you, and the bond of loue, as in times paſt.

4 So the Romanes gaue them free paſports, that men ſhould leade them home into the land of Juda peaceably.

5 ¶ AND THIS is the copie of the letters that Jonathan wrote vnto the Spartians, 6 Jonathan the hie Prieſt with the Elders of the nation, and the Prieſts, and the reſt of the people of the Jewes, ſend greeting vnto the Spartians their brethren.

7 Heretofore were letters ſent vnto Onias the hie Prieſt, from ‖Arius, which then reigned among you, that you would be our brethren, as the copy here vnder written ſpecifieth. Ioſeph. Antiq. 12. cap. 5. ‖Or, Darius.

8 And Onias intreated the Ambaſſadour honourably, and receiued the letters: wherein there was mention made of the bond of loue and friendſhip.

9 But as for vs, we neede no ſuch writings, for we haue the holy bookes in our hands for comfort.

10 Neuertheleſſe we thought it good to ſend vnto you, for the renewing of the brotherhood and friendſhip, leaſt we ſhould be ſtrange vnto you: for it is long ſince the time that ye ſent vnto vs.

11 Wherefore we remember you at all ſeaſons continually, & in the feaſts & other dayes appointed, when we offer ſacrifices & prayers, as it is meete and conuenient to thinke vpon our brethren.

12 And we reioyce at your proſperous eſtate.

13 And though we haue bin enuironed with great troubles and warres, ſo that the Kings round about vs haue fought againſt vs, 14 Yet would we not be grieuous vnto you, nor to other of our confederates and friends in theſe warres.

15 For we haue had helpe from heauen, that hath ſuccoured vs, and wee are deliuered from our enemies, and our enemies are ſubdued.

16 Yet haue we choſen Numenius the ſonne of Antiochus, and Antipater the ſonne of Jaſon, and ſent them vnto the Romanes, for to renew the former friendſhip with them, and league.

17 We commaunded them alſo to goe vnto you, and to ſalute you, and to deliuer you our letters, concerning the renewing of our brotherhood.

18 And

18 And nowe yee shall doe vs a pleasure to giue vs an answere of these things.

19 ¶ And this was the copy of the letters, which Arius the King of Sparta sent vnto Onias.

20 THE KING of the Spartians vnto Onias the high Priest sendeth greeting.

21 It is founde in writing, that the Spartians and Iewes are brethren, and come out of the generation of Abraham.

22 And now for so much as this is come to our knowledge, yee shall doe well to write vnto vs of your prosperitie.

23 As for vs we haue written vnto you, that your cattell and goods are ours, and ours are yours: these things haue we commaunded to be shewed vnto you.

24 ¶ Now when Ionathan heard that Demetrius Princes were come to fight against him, with a greater hoste then before, 25 He went from Ierusalem, and met them in the land of Hamath: for hee gaue them not space to come into his owne countrey.

26 And he sent spies vnto their tents, which came againe and told him, that they were appointed to come vpon him in the night.

27 Wherefore, when the sunne was gone downe, Ionathan commaunded his men to watch, and to bee in armes ready to fight all the night, and set watchmen rounde about the hoste.

28 But when the aduersaries heard that Ionathan was ready with his men to the battell, they feared, and trembled in their heartes, and kindled fires in their tents, and fled away.

29 Neuertheless Ionathan and his companie knewe it not till the morning: for they sawe the fires burning.

30 Then Ionathen followed vpon them, but he could not ouertake them: for they were gone ouer the flood Eleutherus.

31 So Ionathan turned to the Arabians, which were called Zabedei, and slew them, and tooke their spoile.

32 Hee proceeded further also, and came vnto Damascus, and went thorowe all the countrie.

33 But Simon his brother went foorth, and came to Ascalon and to the next holdes, departing vnto Ioppe, and wanne it.

34 For he heard that they would deliuer the holde to them that tooke Demetrius part: wherefore he set a garison there to keepe it.

35 ¶ After this came Ionathan home, and called the Elders of the people together, and deuised with them for to builde vp the strong holdes in Iudea, 36 And to make the walles of Ierusalem hier, and to make a great mount betwixt the castle and the citie, for to separate it from the citie, that it might be alone, and that men should neither buy, nor sell in it.

37 So they came together to build vp the citie: for part of the wall vpon the brooke of the East side was fallen downe, and they repaired it, and called it Caphenatha.

38 Simon also set vp Adida in Shepela, and made it strong with gates and barres.

Ioseph. Anti. 13. chap. 9.

39 ¶ In the meane time Tryphon purposed to reigne in Asia, and to bee crowned when hee had slaine the king Antiochus.

40 But hee was afraide that Ionathan would not suffer him, but fight against him: wherefore he went about to take Ionathan, and to kill him: so he departed and came vnto Bethsan.

41 Then went Ionathan forth against him to the battell with fourtie thousand chosen men, and came vnto Bethsan.

42 But when Tryphon saw that Ionathan came with so great an hoste, hee durst not lay hand vpon him,

43 But receiued him honourably, and commended him vnto all his friends, and gaue him rewardes, and commaunded his men of warre to be obedient vnto him, as to himselfe,

44 And said vnto Ionathan, Why hast thou caused this people to take such trauaile, seeing there is no warre betweene vs?

45 Therefore send them nowe home againe, and chuse certaine men to waite vpon thee, and come thou with mee to Ptolemais: For I will giue it thee, with the other strong holdes, and the other garisons, and all them that haue the charge of the common affaires: so will I returne, and depart: for this is the cause of my comming.

46 Ionathan beleeued him, and did as hee sayde, and sent away his hoste, which went into the land of Iuda, 47 And retained but three thousande with him, whereof he sent two thousand into Galilee, and one thousand went with himselfe.

48 Nowe assoone as Ionathan entred into Ptolemais, they of Ptolemais shut the gates, and tooke him, and slewe all them with the sword, that came in with him.

49 Then sent Tryphon an host of footemen and horsemen into Galile, and into the great plaine, to destroy all Ionathans company.

50 But when they knewe that Ionathan was taken, and slaine, and thole that were with him, they encouraged one another, and came forth against them ready to the battell.

51 But when they which followed vpon them, saw that it was a matter of life, they turned backe againe.

52 By this meanes all they came into the land of Iuda peaceably, and bewailed Ionathan, and them that were with him, and feared greatly, and all Israel made great lamentation.

53 For all the heathen that were rounde about them, sought to destroy them.

54 For they sayde, Now haue they no captaine, nor any man to helpe them: therefore let vs nowe fight against them, and roote out their memorie from among men.

CHAP. XIII.

1 After Ionathan was taken, Simon is chosen captaine. 17 Tryphon, taking his children and money for the redemption of Ionathan, killeth them and his childrē 31 Tryphon killeth Antiochus, and possesseth the Realme, 36 Demetrius taketh truce with Simon. 43 Simo winneth Gaza. 50 He possesseth the tower of Sion. 53 He maketh his sonne Iohn captaine.

NOwe when Simon heard that Tryphon gathered a great host to come into the land of Iuda, and to destroy it, Ioseph. Anti. 13. chap. 9.

2 And sawe that the people was in great trembling and feare, he came vp to Ierusalem, and gathered the people together,

3 And gaue them exhortation, saying, Yee knowe knowe what great things I, and my brethren, and my fathers house haue done for the Lawe, and the Sanctuarie, and the battels, and troubles that we haue seene.

4 By reason whereof all my brethren are slaine for Israels sake, and I am left alone.

5 Nowe therefore God forbid, that I should spare mine owne life in any time of trouble: for I am not better then my brethren.

6 But I will auenge my nation, and the Sanctuarie, and our wiues and our children: for all the heathen are gathered together to destroy vs of very malice.

7 In hearing these wordes the hearts of the people were kindled,

8 So that they cryed with a loud voice, saying, Thou shalt bee our captaine in stead of Judas and Jonathan thy brethren.

9 Fight thou our battels, and whatsoeuer thou commandest vs, we will doe it.

10 ¶ So he gathered all the men of warre, making haste to finish the walles of Jerusalem, and fortified it round about.

11 Then sent he Jonathan the sonne of Absolomus with a great hoste vnto Joppe, which droue them out that were therein, and remayned there himselfe.

12 Tryphon also remooued from Ptolemais with a great armie, to come into the land of Juda, and Jonathan was with him as prisoner.

Or, Addus. 13 And Simon pitched his tents at ‖ Addis vpon the open plaine.

14 But when Tryphon knew that Simon stood vp in stead of his brother Jonathan, and that he would fight against him, he sent messengers vnto him, saying,

15 Whereas wee haue kept Jonathan thy brother, it is for money that he is owing in the kings account concerning the businesse that he had in hand.

16 Wherefore send now an hundreth talents of siluer, and his two sonnes for hostages, that when he is let goeth he will not turne from vs, and we will send him againe.

17 Neuertheless Simon knewe that he dissembled in his wordes, yet commaunded he the money and children to bee deliuered vnto him, least he should be in greater hatred of the people of Israel:

18 Who might haue sayde, Because hee sent him not the money and the children, therefore is Jonathan dead.

19 So hee sent the children and an hundreth talents: but hee dissembled, and would not let Jonathan goe.

20 ¶ Afterward came Tryphon into ỹ land to destroy it, and went round about by the way, that leadeth vnto Adora: but whersoeuer they went, thither went Simon and his hoste.

21 Nowe they that were in the castle, sent messengers vnto Tryphon, that he should make haste to come by the wildernesse, and to sende them vitailes.

22 So Tryphon made ready all his horsemen: but the same night fell a very great snow, so that he came not, because of the snowe: but he remooued & went into the countrey of Galaad, 23 And when he came neere to Baskama, hee slew Jonathan, and he was buried there.

24 So Tryphon returned, and went into his owne land.

25 ¶ Then sent Simon to take the bones of Jonathan his brother, and they buried him in Modin his fathers citie.

26 And all Israel bewayled him with great lamentation, and mourned for him very long.

27 And Simon made vpon the sepulchre of his father and his brethren, a building high to looke vnto of hewen stone behinde and before,

28 And set vp seuen pillars vpon it, one against another, for his father, his mother, and foure brethren, 29 And set great pillars roundе about them, and set armes vpon the pillars for a perpetuall memorie, and carued shippes beside the armes, that they might bee seene of men sayling in the Sea.

30 This sepulchre which hee made at Modin, standeth yet vnto this day.

31 ¶ Nowe as Tryphon went forth with the yong King Antiochus, hee slewe him traiterously. Ioseph. Ant. 13. chap. 10.

32 And reigned in his steade, and crowned himselfe King of Asia, and brought a great plague vpon the land.

33 Simon also built vp the castles of Judea, and compassed them about with high towres, and great walles, euen with towres, and gates, and barres, and layed vp vitailes in the strong holds.

34 Moreouer Simon chose certaine men and sent them to King Demetrius, that hee would discharge the lande: for all Tryphons doings were robberies.

35 Whereupon Demetrius the King answered him and wrote vnto him after this maner.

36 DEMETRIVS the King vnto Simon the hie Priest: and the friend of Kings, and to the Elders, and to the nation of the Jewes sendeth greeting.

37 The golden crowne, and ‖ precious stone that ye sent vnto vs, haue wee receiued, and are ready to make a stedfast peace with you, and to write vnto the officers, to release you of the things wherein we made you free. ‖ Or, collar of baudricke: in Greeke Banen, or baneu.

38 So the things that we haue granted you, shall be stable: the streng holdes which ye haue builded, shall be your owne.

39 Also wee forgiue the ouersights, and faults committed vnto this day: & the crowne taxe that yee ought vs: and whereas was any other tribute in Jerusalem, it shall bee nowe no tribute.

40 And they that are meete among you to be written with our men, let them bee written vp, that there may be peace betweene vs.

41 Thus the yoke of the heathen was taken from Israel in the hundreth and seuentie yeere.

42 And the people of Israel began to write in their letters and publike instruments, IN THE FIRST yeere of Simon, the hie and chiefe Priest, gouernour and prince of the Jewes.

43 In those dayes Simon camped against Gaza, and besieged it round about, where hee set vp an engine of warre, and approched neere the citie, and beat a towre, and tooke it.

44 So they that were in the engine, leapt into the citie, and there was great trouble in the city,

45 In so much that the people of the city rent their clothes and climed vp vpon the walles with with their wiues, and children, and cryed with a loude voyce, beseeching Simon to grant them peace, saying, 46 Deale not with vs according to our wickednesse, but according to thy mercy.

47 Then Simon pitied them, & would fight no more against them, but put them out of the citie, and cleansed the houses, wherein the idoles were, & so entred thereunto with Psalmes and thanksgiuing.

48 So when he had cast all the filthines out, hee set such men in it as kept the Lawe, and fortified it, and builded there a dwelling place for himselfe.

49 Nowe, when they in the castle at Ierusalem were kept, that they coulde not come foorth nor goe into the countrey, neither buy nor sell, they were very hungry, and many of them were famished to death,

50 In so much that they besought Simon to make peace with them: which he granted them, and put them out from thence, and cleansed the castle from filthinesse.

51 And vpon the three and twenty day of the second moneth, in the hundreth seuentie and one yeere, they entred into it with thanksgiuing, & branches of palme trees, and with harpes, and with cymbals, and with viols, & with psalmes, and songs, because the great enemie of Israel was ouercome.

52 And he ordeined that the same day should be kept euery yeere with gladnesse.

53 And hee fortified the mount of the Temple that was beside the castle where hee dwelt himselfe with his company.

54 Simon also seeing that John his sonne was now a man, he made him captaine of al the hostes, and called him to dwel in ‖Gazaris.

‖Or, Gaza.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Demetrius is ouercome of Arsaces. 11 Simon being captaine, there is great quietnesse in Israel. 18 The couenant of friendship with the Romanes, and with the people of Sparta is renued.

IN the hundreth, seuentie and two yeere gathered King Demetrius his hoste, and departed vnto Media, to get him helpe to fight against Tryphon.

2 But when Arsaces the king of Persia and Media heard, that Demetrius was entred within his borders, he sent one of his princes to take him aliue.

3 So hee went & ouercame the armie of Demetrius, and tooke him, and brought him to Arsaces, which kept him in ward.

4 Thus all the lande of Iuda was in rest, so long as Simon liued: for hee sought the wealth of his nation: therefore were they glad to haue him for their ruler, and to doe him worship alway.

5 Simon also wanne the citie of Ioppe to his great honour to bee an hauen towne, and made it an entrance vnto the yles of the sea.

6 He enlarged also the borders of his people, and conquered the countreys.

7 Hee gathered vp many of their people that were prisoners, & he had the dominion of Gazaris, and Beth-sura, and ỹ castle, which he cleered from filthinesse, and there was no man that resisted him,

8 So that euery man tilled his ground in peace, and the lande gaue her fruites, and the trees gaue their fruite.

9 The Elders sate in the open places, and consulted altogether for the common wealth, and the yong men were honourably clothed and armed.

10 He prouided victailes for the cities, and all kinde of munition, so that his glorious fame was renoumed vnto the ende of the world.

11 Hee made peace throughout the land, and Israel had perfite mirth and ioy.

12 For euery man sate vnder his vine, & the figtrees, and there was no man to fray them.

13 There was none in the lande to fight against them: for then the kings were ouercome.

14 He helped all those that were in aduersitie among his people: hee was diligent to see the Law kept, and he tooke away the vngodly, and wicked.

15 He beautified the Sanctuary, and increased the vessels of the Temple.

16 When the Romanes heard, & the Spartians had knowledge that Ionathan was dead, they were very sory.

17 But when they heard, that Simon his brother was made hie Priest in his stead, and how hee had wonne the land againe with the cities in it, 18 They wrote vnto him in tables of brasse, to renue the friendship and bond of loue, which they had made with Iudas and Ionathan his brethren.

19 Which writings were read before the congregation at Ierusalem, and this is the copy of the letters that the Spartians sent, 20 THE SENATORS and city of Sparta vnto Simon the great Priest, and to the Elders, and to the Priestes, and to the residue of the people of the Iewes their brethren sende greeting.

21 When your ambassadours that were sent vnto our people, certified vs of your glory and honour, we were glad of their comming,

22 And haue registred their ambassage in the publike records in this maner, NVMENIVS the sonne of Antiochus, and Antipater the sonne of Iason the Iewes ambassadours came vnto vs, to renew amitie with vs.

23 And it pleased the people, that the men should bee honourably intreated, and that the copie of their ambassage should bee registred in the publike records, that it might bee for a memorial vnto the people of Sparta: and a copie of the same was sent to Simon the chiefe Priest.

24 After this, Simon sent Numenius to Rome, with a great shield of gold of a thousand pound weight to confirme the friendship with them.

25 Which when the people vnderstood, they said, What thankes shall we recompence againe vnto Simon and his children?

26 For hee and his brethren, and the house of his father haue stablished Israel, and ouercome their enemies, and haue confirmed the libertie thereof: therefore they wrote this in tables of brasse, and set it vpon pillars in mount Sion.

27 The copy of the writing is this, In the eight and twentie day of the moneth † Elul, in the hundreth seuentie and two yeere, in the third yeere of Simon the high Priest, † August.

28 In

28 In ‖ Saramel in the great congregation of the Priestes, and of the people, and of the gouernours of the nation, and of the elders of the countrey, we would signifie vnto you, that many battels haue bene fought in our countrey.

‖ Or, Ierusalem.

29 Wherein Simon the sonne of Mattathias (come of the children of Iarib) and his brethren put themselues in danger, and resisted the enemies of their nation, that their Sanctuarie, and Lawe might bee maintained, and did their nation great honour.

30 For Ionathan gathered his nation together, and became their high Priest, and is layed with his people.

31 After that would their enemies haue inuaded their countrey, and destroyed their land, and lay their hands on their Sanctuarie.

32 Then Simon resisted them, and fought for his nation, and spent much of his owne substance, and armed the valiant men of his nation, and gaue them wages.

33 Yee fortified also the cities of Iudea, and Bethsura that lyeth vpon the borders of Iudea (where the ordinance of their enemies lay sometime) and set there a garison of the Iewes.

34 And he fortified Ioppe, which lyeth vpon the sea, and ‖ Gazara that bordereth vpon Azotus (where the enemies dwelt afore) and there he placed Iewes, & furnished them with things necessary for the reparation thereof.

‖ Or, Gaza, or Gazara.

35 Nowe when the people sawe the faithfulnesse of Simon, and to what glory hee thought to bring his nation vnto, they made him their gouernour, and the chiefe Priest, because he had done all these things, and for the vprightnesse, and fidelitie that hee had kept to his nation, and that sought by all meanes to exalt his people.

36 For in his time they prospered well by him, so that the heathen were taken out of their countrey, and they also which were in the cite of Dauid at Ierusalem, where they had made them a castle, out of the which they went, and defiled all things that were about the Sanctuarie, and did great hurt vnto Religion.

37 And he let Iewes in it, and fortified it, for the assurance of the land, and cite, and raised vp the wals of Ierusalem.

38 And King Demetrius confirmed him in his high Priesthood for these causes, 39 And made him one of his friendes, & gaue him great honour.

40 For it was reported that the Romanes called the Iewes their friendes & confederates, and that they honourably receiued Simons ambassadours,

41 And that the Iewes and Priests consented that Simon should be their prince, and high Priest perpetually, till God raysed vp the true Prophet,

42 And that he should be their captaine, and haue the charge of the Sanctuarie, and so set men ouer the workes, and ouer the countrey, and ouer the weapons, and ouer the fortresses, and that shoulde make prouision for the holy things,

43 And that hee should bee obeyed of euery man, and that all the writings in the countrey should be made in his name, and that hee should be clothed in purple, and weare golde,

44 And that it should not be lawfull for any of the people, or Priestes to breake any of these things, or to withstand his words, or to call any congregation in the country without him, or bee clothed in purple, or weare a collar of golde:

45 And if any did contrary to these things, or brake any of them, he should be punished.

46 So it pleased all the people to agree that it should be done to Simon according vnto these wordes.

47 Simon also accepted it, and was content to be the high Priest, and the captaine, and the Prince of the Iewes and of the Priestes, and to be the chiefe of all.

48 And they commanded to set vp this writing in tables of brasse, and to fasten it to the wall that compassed the Sanctuarie in an open place, 49 And that a copie of the same shoulde bee layed vp in the treasurie, that Simon and his sonnes might haue it.

CHAP. XV.

1 Antiochus maketh a couenant of friendship with Simon. 11 Tryphon is pursued. 15 The Romanes write letters vnto Kings and nations in the defence of the Iewes. 27 Antiochus refusing the helpe that Simon sent him, breaketh his couenant.

MOreouer King Antiochus the sonne of Demetrius sent letters from the yles of the sea, vnto Simon the Priest, & prince of the Iewes, and to all the nation,

2 Conteining these words, ANTIOCHVS the King vnto Simon the great Priest, and to the nation of the Iewes sendeth greeting.

3 For so much as certaine pestilent men haue vsurped the kingdome of our fathers, I am purposed to chalenge the Realme againe, and to restore it to the old estate: wherefore I haue gathered a great hoste, and prepared ships of warre,

4 That I may goe thorow the countrey, and bee auenged of them, which haue destroyed our country, and wasted many cities in the Realme.

5 Nowe therefore I doe confirme vnto thee all the liberties, whereof all the Kings my progenitours haue discharged thee, and all the payments, wherof they haue released thee.

6 And I giue thee leaue to coyne money of thine owne stampe within thy countrey,

7 And that Ierusalem and the Sanctuarie be free, and that all the weapons that thou hast prepared, and the fortresses, which thou hast builded, and keepest in thine handes, shall bee thine.

8 And all that is due vnto the King, and all that shalbe due vnto the King, I forgiue it thee, from this time forth for euermore.

9 And when wee haue obteined our kingdome, we will giue thee and thy nation, and the temple great honour, so that your honour shall be knowen throughout the world.

10 ¶ In the hundreth, seuentie & foure yeere, went Antiochus into his fathers land, and all the bandes came together vnto him, so that fewe were left with Tryphon. Ioseph. Ant. 13. cap. 14.

11 So the King Antiochus pursued him, but he fledde and came to Doza, which lyeth by the sea side.

12 For hee sawe that troubles were toward him, him, and that the armie had forsaken him.

13 Then camped Antiochus against Dora with an hundreth & twentie thousande fighting men, and eight thousand horsemen.

14 So hee compassed the citie about, and the ships came by the sea. Thus they pressed the citie by land, and by sea, in so much that they suffered no man to goe in nor out.

15 In the meane season came Numenius, and his company from Rome, having letters written unto the Kings and countreys, wherein were contained these wordes, 16 LVCIVS the Consul of Rome unto King Ptolemeus sendeth greeting.

17 The ambassadors of the Iewes are come unto us as our friendes and confederats from Simon the hie Priest, and from the people of the Iewes, to renewe friendship, and the bond of loue, 18 Who haue brought a shield of golde weping a thousand pound.

19 Wherefore wee thought it good to write unto the Kings and countreis, that they should not goe about to hurt them, nor to fight against them, nor their cities, nor their countrey, neither to maintaine their enemies against them.

20 And wee were content to receiue of them the shielde.

21 If therefore there be any pestilent felowes fled from their countrey unto you, deliuer them unto Simon the hie Priest, that he may punish them according to their owne lawe.

22 The same things were written to Demetrius the King, and to Attalus, and to Arathes, and to Arsaces, ‖Or, Sampsace.

23 And to al the countreys, as ‖Samsames, and to them of Sparta, and to ‖Delus, and to ‖Mindus, and to Sycion, and to Caria, & to Samos, and to Pamphilia, and to Lycia, & to Halicarnassus, and to Rhodus, & to Phaselis, and to Cos, and to Siden, and to Coitma, and to Gnidon, and to Cyprus, and to Cyrene.

‖Or, Delo.

‖Or, Mydo, or, Mydus.

24 And they sent a copie of them to Simon the hie Priest.

25 ¶ So Antiochus the king camped against Dora the seconde time euer ready to take it, and made diuers engins of warre, and kept Tryphon in, that he could neither goe in nor out.

26 Then Simon sent him two thousand chosen men to helpe him with siluer and golde, and much furniture.

27 Neuertheless, he would not receiue them, but brake all the Couenant, which he had made with him afore, and withdrewe himselfe from him,

28 And sent unto him Athenobius one of his friends, to commune with him, saying, Ye withhold Ioppe, and Gazara, with the castle that is at Ierusalem, the citie of my Realme, 29 Whose borders ye haue destroyed & done great hurt in the lande, and haue the gouernement of many places of my kingdome.

30 Wherefore nowe deliuer the cities, which ye haue taken, with the tributes of the places, that ye haue rule ouer without the borders of Iudea, 31 Or els giue mee for them fiue hundreth talents of siluer, and for the harme that ye haue done, and for the tributes of the places other fiue hundreth talents: if not, wee will come, and fight against you.

32 So Athenobius the kings friend came to Ierusalem, and when he saw the honour of Simon, and the cupbord of golde and siluer plate, and so great preparation, hee was astonished, and tolde him the Kings message.

33 Then answered Simon, and sayde unto him, We haue neither taken other mens landes, nor withholden that which appertaineth to others: but our fathers heritage, which our enemies had unrighteously in possession a certaine time.

34 But when we had occasion, we recouered the inheritance of our fathers.

35 And whereas thou ‖requirest Ioppe and Gazara, they did great harme to our people, and thorow our countrey, yet will we giue an hundreth talents for them. But Athenobius answered him not one word,

‖Or, complained concerning.

36 But turned againe angry unto the King, and tolde him all these wordes, and the dignitie of Simon, with all that hee had seene: and the King was very angry.

37 ¶ In the meane time fledde Tryphon by ship unto Dythosias.

38 Then the king made Cendebeus captaine of the sea coast, and gaue him bands of footmen and horsemen, 39 And commanded him to remoue the hoste toward Iudea, and to builde up Cedron, and to fortifie the gates, and to warre against the people: but the King pursued Tryphon.

40 So Cendebeus came unto Iamnia, and began to vexe the people, and to inuade Iudea, and to take the people prisoners, & to slay them.

41 And he built up Cedron, where he set horsemen and garisons, that they might make outrodes by the wayes of Iudea, as the King had commanded him.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Cendebeus the captaine of Antiochus hoste is put to flight by the sonnes of Simon. 11 Ptolemeus the sonne of Abubus killeth Simon and his two sonnes at a banket. 23 Iohn killeth them that lie in waite for his life.

THen came Iohn up from Gazara, and tolde Simon his father, what Cendebeus had done. Ioseph. Ant. 13. cap. 11.

2 So Simon called two of his eldest sonnes, Iudas and Iohn, and sayde unto them, I, and my brethren, and my fathers house, haue euer from our youth unto this day fought against the enemies of Israel, and the matters haue had good successe under our hands, and we haue deliuered Israel oftentimes.

3 But I am nowe olde, and ye by Gods mercie are of a sufficient age: be ye therefore in stead of me, and my brother, & goe forth and fight for our nation, and the help of heauen be with you.

4 So hee chose twentie thousande fighting men of the countrey with the horsemen, which went forth against Cendebeus, and rested at Modin.

5 In the morning they arose, and went into the plaine field: and behold, a mighty great host came against them both of footemen, and horsemen: but there was a riuer betwixt them.

6 And Iohn ranged his army ouer against him, and when hee sawe that the people was afrayd to goe ouer the riuer, hee went ouer first himselfe, & the men seeing him, passed through after him.

7 Then hee deuided his men, & set the horsemen in the mids of the footemen.

8 For their enemies horsemen were very many: but when they blewe the trumpets, Cendebeus fled with his hoste, whereof many were slaine, and the remnant gate them to the fortresse.

9 Then was Judas Johns brother woumded: but John followed after them, till hee came to Cedron, which Cendebeus had built.

10 Also they fled vnto the towres, that were in the fields of Azotus, and those did Ionathan burne with fire: thus were there slaine two thousand men of them, so hee returned peaceably into the land of Juda.

11 ¶ Now in the fielde of Jericho was Ptolemeus the sonne of Abubus made captaine, and he had abundance of siluer and golde.

12 (For hee had married the daughter of the hie Priest)

13 Therefore he waxed proude in his minde, and thought to rule the lande, & thought to slay Simon and his sonnes by deceit.

14 Now as Simon went about through the cities of the countrey, and studied carefully for them, hee came downe to Jericho with Mattathias, and Judas his sonnes in the hundreth, seuentie and seuen yere, in the eleuenth moneth, which is the moneth Sabat.

15 Then the sonne of Abubus receiued them by treason into a little holde, called Dochus, which he had built, where he made them a great banket, and hid men there.

16 So when Simon & his sonnes had made good cheere, Ptolemeus stoode vp with his men, and tooke their weapons, and entred in to Simon in the banket house, and slew him with his two sonnes and certaine of his seruants.

17 Whereby hee committed a great villenie, and recompensed euil for good.

18 Then wrote Ptolemeus these things and sent to the King, that he might send him an hoste to helpe him, & so woulde deliuer him the countrey with the cities.

19 Hee sent other men also vnto Gazara, to take John, and sent letters vnto the captaines to come to him, and hee would giue them siluer, and golde, and rewards.

20 And to Jerusalem, hee sent other to take it, and the mountaine of the Temple.

21 But one ranne before, and tolde John in Gazara, that his father, and his brethren were slaine, and that Ptolemeus had sent to slay him.

22 When hee heard this, hee was sore astonished, and layde handes of them that were come to slay him, and slew them: for hee knewe that they went about to kill him.

23 Concerning other things of John, both of his warres, and of his noble actes (wherein hee behaued himselfe manfully) of the building of walles which hee made, and other of his deedes, 24 Beholde, they are written in the Chronicles of his Priesthood, from the time, that hee was made high Priest after his father.

¶ The second booke of the Maccabees.

CHAP. I.

1 An Epistle of the Iewes that dwelt at Jerusalem, sent vnto them that dwelt in Egypt, wherein they exhort them to giue thankes for the death of Antiochus. 19 Of the fire that was hid in the pit. 24 The prayer of Neemias.

THE brethren the Jewes, which be at Jerusalem, and they that are in the countrey of Judea, vnto the brethren the Jewes that are throughout Egypt, sende salutation, and prosperitie.

2 God bee gratious vnto you and remember his Couenant made with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob his faithfull seruants,

3 And giue you all an heart, to worship him, and to doe his will with a whole heart & with a willing minde,

4 And open your hartes in his Lawe, and commandements, and send you peace,

5 And heare your prayers, & be reconciled vnto you, and neuer forsake you in time of trouble.

6 Thus now we pray here for you.

7 When Demetrius reigned in the hundreth, threescore and ninth yeere, wee Iewes wrote vnto you in the trouble, and violence that came vnto vs in those yeeres, after that Jason, and his company departed out of the holy land and kingdome,

8 And burnt the porch, and shedde innocent blood. Then we prayed vnto the Lord, and were heard: wee offered sacrifices and fine flowre, and lighted the lampes, and set forth the bread.

9 Nowe therefore keepe yee the dayes of the feast of the tabernacles in the moneth Chasleu.

10 ¶ In the hundreth, fourescore & eight yere, the people that was at Jerusalem, & in Judea, and the counsell, and Judas, vnto Aristobulus King Ptolemeus master, which is of the stocke of the anoynted Priests, and to the Jewes that are in Egypt, sendeth greeting and health.

11 Insomuch as God hath deliuered vs from great perils, wee thanke him highly, as though we had ouercome the King.

12 For hee brought them into Persia by heapes, that fought against the Holy citie.

13 For albeit the Captaine & the armie, that was with him, seemed inuincible, yet they were slaine in the Temple of Nanea, by the deceite of Naneas Priestes.

14 For Antiochus, as though he would diuel with her, came thither, he, and his friends with him, to receiue money vnder ꝓ title of a dowry.

15 But when the Priests of Nanea had laid it forth, and hee was entred with a small company within the Temple, they shut the Temple, when Antiochus was come in,

16 And by opening a priuie doore of ꝓ vaut, they cast stones, as it were thunder, vpon the captaine and his, and hauing bruised them in pieces, they cut off their heads and threwe them to those that were without.

17 God be blessed in all things, which hath deliuered vp the wicked.

18 Whereas we are nowe purposed to keepe the the purification of the Temple vpon the fine & twentie day of þ moneth Chaſleu, we thought it neceſſarie to certifie you thereof that ye alſo might keepe the feaſt of the Tabernacles, & of the fire which was giuen vs when Neemias offered ſacrifice, after that he had built the Temple, and the altar.

19 For when as our fathers were led away vnto Perſia, the Prieſts, which fought the honour of God, tooke the * fire of þ altar priuily, and hid it in an hollow pitte, which was dye in the bottome, and therein they kept it, ſo that the place was vnknowen vnto euery man.

Leuit. 6.13. and 10.2. and 16,12.

20 Now after many yeeres when it pleaſed God that Neemias ſhould be ſent from the king of Perſia, he ſent of the poſteritie of thoſe Prieſts, which had hid it, to ſeeke the fire, and as they tolde vs, they found no fire, but thicke water.

21 Then commaunded hee them to drawe it vp, and to bring it: and when the things apperteining to the ſacrifices were brought, Neemias commaunded the Prieſts to ſprinkle the wood, and the things layde thereupon with water.

22 When this was done, and the time came that the Sunne ſhone, which afore was hid in the cloud, there was a great fire kindled, ſo that euery man marueiled.

23 Now the Prieſtes, and all prayed, while the ſacrifice was conſuming: Jonathan began, and the other anſwered thereunto.

24 And the prayer of Neemias was after this manner, O Lorde, Lorde God maker of all things, which art fearefull & ſtrong, and righteous, and mercifull, and the onely and gracious king,

25 Onely liberall, onely iuſt and almightie and euerlaſting, thou that deliuereſt Iſrael from all trouble, and haſt choſen the fathers, and ſanctified them, 26 Receiue the ſacrifice for thy whole people of Iſrael, and preſerue thine owne portion, and ſanctifie it.

27 Gather thoſe together, that are ſcattered from vs: deliuer them that ſerue among the heathen: looke vpon them that are deſpiſed, & abhorred, that the heathen may knowe that thou art our God.

28 Puniſh them that oppreſſe vs, and with pride doe vs wrong.

29 Plant thy people againe in thine holy place, *as Moyſes hath ſpoken.

Deu. 30.5.

30 And the Prieſts ſang pſalmes thereunto.

31 Now when the ſacrifice was conſumed, Neemias commaunded the great ſtones to bee ſprinkled with the reſidue of the water.

32 Which when it was done, there was kindled a flame, which was conſumed by the light, that ſhined from the altar.

33 ¶ So when this matter was knowen, it was told the king of Perſia, that in the place where the Prieſtes, which were led away, had hid fire, there appeared water, wherewith Neemias and his company had purified the ſacrifices.

34 The king tried out the thing, and cloſed the place about, and made it holy.

35 And to them that the king fauoured, hee gaue and beſtowed many gifts.

36 And Neemias called þ ſame place Ephthar, which is to ſay, purification: but many men call it Nephthar.

a That is to ſay, a ſhining, it is alſo called Nephi, or Nephthar, which is a cleanſing.

CHAP. II.

4 How Ieremie had the Tabernacle, the Arke & the Altar in the hill. 23 Of the fiue bookes of Iaſon contained in one.

IT is found alſo in the writtings of Jeremias the Prophet, that he commanded the, which were caried away, to take fire, as was declared, and as the Prophet commaunded them that were led into captiuitie,

2 * Giuing them a law, that they ſhould not forget the commandements of the Lord, & that they ſhould not erre in their minds, when they ſawe images of gold and ſiluer, with their ornaments.

Baruch 6.

3 Theſe and ſuch other things commanded he them, and exhorted them that they ſhould not let the law goe out of their hearts.

4 It is written alſo, howe the Prophet, by an oracle that hee had, charged them to take the Tabernacle and the Arke, and follow him: and when hee came vp into the mountaine where Moyſes went vp, * and ſawe the heritage of God,

Deut. 34.1.

5 Jeremias went forth, and found an hollow cane, wherein he laid the Tabernacle, and the Arke, and the Altar of incenſe, and ſo ſtopped the doore.

6 And there came certaine of thoſe that followed him, to marke the place: but they could not find it.

7 Which when Jeremias perceiued, he reproued them, ſaying, As for that place, it ſhall be vnknowen, vntill the time that God gather his people together againe, and that mercie be ſhewed.

8 Then ſhal the Lord ſhew them theſe things, and the maieſtie of the Lord ſhall appeare & the cloud alſo, as it was ſhewed vnder Moyſes, and as *when Salomon deſired, that þ place might be honourably ſanctified.

1. King. 8. 14.23,30.

9 For it is manifeſt that hee, being a wiſe man, offered the * ſacrifice of dedication, and confecration of the Temple.

2. chro. 6 21. 1. King. 8. 62, 65. 2. chro. 7. 4,5.

10 * And as when Moyſes prayed vnto the Lord, the fire came downe from heauen, & conſumed the ſacrifice: ſo when Salomon prayed, *the fire came downe from heauen, and conſumed the burnt offering.

Leuit. 9.24. and 10.16. 2. Chro. 7.1.

11 And Moyſes ſaid, Becauſe the ſinne offering was not eaten, therefore is it conſumed.

12 So Salomon kept thoſe eight dayes.

13 Theſe things alſo are declared in the writings and regiſters of] Neemias, and how hee made a liberarie, and how he gathered the actes of the Kings, and of the Prophets, and the acts of Dauid, and the epiſtles of the Kings concerning the holy gifts.

[Some read Ieremie.

14 Euen ſo Judas alſo gathered all things that came to paſſe by the warres that were among vs, which things we haue.

15 Wherefore if ye haue neede thereof, ſend ſome to fetch them vnto you.

16 Whereas wee then are about to celebrate the purification, we haue written vnto you, and ye ſhall do well, if ye keepe the ſame dayes.

17 Wee hope alſo that the God which deliuered all his people, and gaue an heritage to them all and the kingdome, and the Prieſthood, and the Sanctuarie,

Deu. 30. 5. 18 *As he promised in the Law, will shortly haue mercy vpon vs, and gather vs together from vnder the heauen into his holy place: for hee hath saued vs from great perils, and hath cleansed the place.

19 As concerning Iudas Maccabeus & his brethren, the purification of the great Temple, and the dedication of the altar,

20 And ỹ warres against Antiochus Epiphanes, and Eupator his sonne,

21 And the manifest signes that came from heauen vnto those, which manfully stoode for the Iewes religion: (for though they were but few, yet they ran thorow whole countreys, and pursued the barbarous armies, 22 And repaired the Temple that was renowned thorowout all the worlde, and deliuered the citie, and established the Lawes, that were like to be abolished, because the Lord was mercifull vnto them with all lenitie)

23 We will assay to abridge in one volume those things that Iason the Cyrenian hath declared in fiue bookes.

24 For considering the wonderfull number, and the difficultie that they haue that would be occupied in the rehearsall of stories, because of the diuersitie of the matters,

25 Wee haue endeuoured, that they that would reade, might haue pleasure, & that they which are studious, might easily keepe them in memory, & that wholoeuer reade them, might haue profite.

26 Therefore to vs that haue taken in hand this great labour, it was no easie thing to make this abridgement, but required both sweat, and watching.

27 Like as he that maketh a feast, & seeketh other mens commoditie, hath no small labour: so wee also for many mens sakes are very well content to vndertake this great labour.

28 Leauing to the author the exact diligence of euery particular, wee will labour to goe forward according to the prescript order of an abridgement.

29 For as he that will build a newe house, must prouide for the whole building, but he that setteth out the plat or goeth about to paint it, seeketh but only what is comely for the decking thereof:

30 Euen so I thinke for vs, that it appertaineth to the first writer of a story to enter deeply into it, and to make mention of all things, and to be curious in euery part.

31 But it is permitted to him that will shorten it, to vse few words, & to auoid those things that are curious therein.

32 Here then will we begin the story, adding thus much to our former words, that it is but a foolish thing to abound in words before the storie, and to be short in the storie.

CHAP. III.

2 Of the honour done to the Temple by the Kings of the Gentiles. 6 Simon vttereth what treasure is in the Temple. 7 Heliodorus is sent to take them away. 26 He is stricken of God, and healed at the prayer of Onias.

WHat time as the holy city was inhabited with all peace, and when the lawes were very well kept, because of the godlines of Onias the hie Priest, and hatred of wickednesse,

2 It came to passe that euen the Kings did honour the place, & garnished the Temple with great gifts.

3 Insomuch that Seleucus King of Asia of his owne rents, bare all the costes belonging to the seruice of the sacrifices.

4 But one Simon of the tribe of Beniamin being appointed ruler of ỹ Temple, contended with the high Priest concerning ‖ the iniquitie committed in the citie. ‖ Or, the place & prouision.

5 And when he could not ouercome Onias, he gate him to Apollonius the sonne of Thraseas, which then was gouernour of Coelosyria, and Phenice,

6 And told him that the treasurie in Ierusalem was full of innumerable money, which did not belong to the prouision of the sacrifices, & that it were possible that these things might come into the kings hands.

7 Now when Apollonius came to the king, and had shewed him of the money, as it was told him, ỹ king chose out Heliodorus his treasurer, and sent him with a commaundement, to bring him the foresaid money.

8 Immediatly Heliodorus tooke his iourney as though he would visit the cities of Coelosyria and Phenice, but in effect to fulfill the kings purpose.

9 So when he came to Ierusalem, and was courteously receiued of the high Priest into the citie, hee declared what was determined concerning the money, and shewed the cause of his comming, and asked if these things were so in deed.

10 Then the hie Priest tolde him that there were such things laied vp by the widowes and fatherlesse,

11 And that a certaine of it belonged vnto Hircanus the sonne of Tobias a noble man, and not as that wicked Simon had reported, & that in all, there were but foure hundred talents of siluer, and two hundred of gold, 12 And that it were altogether impossible to doe this wrong to them that had committed it of trust to the holines of the place and Temple, which is honoured thorow the whole world for holinesse and integritie.

13 But Heliodorus because of ỹ kings commandement giuen him, sayd that in any wise it must be brought into the kings treasurie.

14 So hee appointed a day, & went in to take order for these things: then there was no small griefe thorowout the whole citie.

15 For the Priests fel downe before the altar in the Priests garments, and called vnto heauen vpon him which had made a Law concerning things giuen to bee kept, that they should bee safely preserued for such as had committed them to be kept.

16 Then they that looked the hie Priest in the face, were wounded in their heart: for his countenance, and the changing of his colour declared the sorrow of his mind.

17 The man was so wrapped in feare and trembling of the body, that it was manifest to them that looked vpon him, what sorow he had in his heart.

18 Others also came out of their houses by heapes vnto the common prayer, because the place was like to come vnto contempt.

19 And

19 And the women, girt with sackecloth vnder their breastes, filled the streetes, and the virgins that were kept in, ranne some to ꝑ gates, and some to the walles, and others looked out of the windowes.

20 And all helde vp their handes toward heauen, and made prayer.

21 It was a lamentable thing to see the multitude, that fell downe of all sortes, and the expectation of ꝑ hie Priest being in such anguith.

22 Therefore they called vpon the Almighty Lorde, that hee would keepe safe and sure the things, which were laide vp for those that had deliuered them.

23 Neuertheleſſe, the thing that Heliodorus was determined to doe, that did he persome.

24 And as he and his souldiers were nowe there present by the treasurie, he that is the Lord of the spirits, and of all power, shewed a great vision, so that all they which presumed to come with him, were astonished at the power of God, and fell into feare and trembling.

25 For there appeared vnto them an horse with a terrible man sitting vpon him, most richly barbed, and he ranne fiercely and smote at Heliodorus with his forefeete, and it seemed that he that sate vpon the horse, had harneſſe of golde.

26 Moreouer, there appeared two young men, notable in strength, excellent in beautie, and comely in apparell, which stoode by him on either side, & scourged him continually, and gaue him many sore stripes.

27 And Heliodorus fell suddenly vnto the ground, and was couered with great darkneſſe: but they that were with him, tooke him vp, and put him in a litter.

28 Thus he that came with so great company, and many souldiers into the saide treasurie, was borne out: for he could not helpe himselfe with his weapons.

29 So they did know the power of God manifestly, but he was dumme by the power of God, and lay destitute of all hope and health.

30 And they praysed the Lord that had honoured his owne place: for the Temple which a litle afore was full of feare and trouble, when the Almighty Lord appeared, was filled with ioy and gladneſſe.

31 Then straightwayes certaine of Heliodorus frieneds prayed Onias, that he would call vpon the most High to graunt him his life, which lay ready to giue vp the ghost.

32 So the high Priest, considering that the King might suspect that the Iewes had done Heliodorus some ª euill, he offered a sacrifice for the health of the man.

ª In working some trecherie or forcerie against him.

33 Nowe when the hie Priest had made his prayer, the same young men in the same clothing appeared, and stoode beside Heliodorus, saying, Giue Onias ꝑ hie Priest great thanks: for, for his sake hath the Lord graunted thee thy life:

34 And seeing that thou hast beene scourged from heauen, declare vnto all men the mightie power of God: and when they had spoken these wordes, they appeared no more.

35 So Heliodorus offered vnto the Lord sacrifice, and made great vowes vnto him which had graunted him his life, and thanked Onias, and went againe with his hoste to the king.

36 Then testified he vnto euery man of the great workes of God that he had seene with his eyes.

37 And when the King asked Heliodorus, who were meete to be sent yet once againe to Ieruſalem, he said, 38 If thou hast any enemie or traitour, send him thither, and thou shalt receiue him well scourged, if he escape with his life: for in that place, no doubt, there is a speciall power of God.

39 For he that dwelleth in heauen, hath his eye on that place, and defendeth it, and he beateth and destroyeth them that come to hurt it.

40 This came to passe concerning Heliodorus, and the keeping of the treasurie.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Simon reporteth euill of Onias. 7 Iason obteineth the office of the hie Priest by corrupting the king, 27 And was by Menelaus defrauded by like bribing. 34 Onias is slaine traiterously by Andronicus.

THis Simon nowe, of whom we spake afore, being a bewraper of the money, and of his owne naturall countrey, reported euill of Onias, as though he had moued Heliodorus vnto this, and had beene the inuenter of the euill.

2 Thus was he bold to call him a traitour that was so beneficiall to the citie, & a defender of his nation, and so zealous of the Lawes.

3 But when his malice encreased so farre, that though one that belonged to Simon, murders were committed,

4 Onias considering the danger of this contention, and that Apollonius, as he that was the gouernour of Coelosyria, and Phenice, did rage, and increased Simons malice,

5 He went to the king not as an accuser of the citizens, but as one that intended the common wealth both priuately and publikely.

6 For he saw it was not possible, except the king tooke order, to quiet the matters, and that Simon would not leaue off his folly.

7 But after the death of Seleucus, when Antiochus called Epiphanes, tooke the kingdome, Iason the brother of Onias laboured by vnlawfull meanes to be hie Priest.

8 For he came vnto the King, and promised him three hundreth and threescore talents of siluer, and of another rent fourescore talents.

9 Besides this he promised him an hundred and fifte, if hee might haue licence to set vp a place for exercise, and a place for the youth, and that they would ‖ name them of Ieruſalem Antiochians.

‖ Or, that he would write the Antiochians that were at Ieruſalem, among them.

10 The which thing when the King had graunted, and he had gotten the superiorite, he began immediatly to draw his kinsemen to the customes of the Gentiles.

11 And abolished the friendly priuiledges of the kings, that the Iewes had set vp by John the father of Eupolemus, which was sent ambassadour vnto Rome, to become frienos and confederates: he put downe their lawes and policies, and brought vp newe statutes, and contrary to the Lawe.

12 For he presumed to builde a place of exercise vnder the castle, & brought the chiefe young men vnder his subiection, and made them weare ‖ hattes.

‖ Or, hauking in token of wantonneſſe as the Gentiles did.

13 So there began a great desire to followe the maners of the Gentiles, and they tooke vp the fashions of strange nations by the exceeding wickednesse of Jason, not the hie Priest, but the vngodly person, 14 So that the Priestes were nowe no more diligent about the seruice of the altar, but despised the Temple, and regarded not the sacrifices, but made haste to be partakers of the wicked expenses at the play a after the casting of the stone.

15 For they did not set by the honour of their fathers, but liked the glory of the Gentiles best of all.

16 By reason whereof great calamitie came vpon them: for they had them to be their enemies and punishers, whose custome they followed so earnestly, and desired to be like them in all things.

17 For it is not a light thing to transgresse against the lawes of God, but the time following shall declare these things.

18 ¶ Now when the ‖games that were vsed euery fift yeere, were played at Tyrus, the King being present, 19 This wicked Jason sent from Jerusalem men to looke vpon them, as though they had beene Antiochians, which brought three hundreth drachmes of siluer for a sacrifice to Hercules: albeit they that caried them, desired they might not be bestowed on the sacrifice (because it was not comely) but to be bestowed for other expenses.

20 So he that sent them, sent them for the sacrifice of Hercules: but because of those that brought them, they were giuen to the making of gallies.

21 ¶ Now Apollonius the sonne of Menestheus was sent into Egypt because of the coronation of King Ptolemeus Philometor: but when Antiochus perceiued that he was euil affectioned toward his affaires, he sought his owne assurance, and departed from thence to Joppe, and so came to Jerusalem, 22 Where he was honourably receiued of Jason, and of the city, and was brought in with torchlight, and with great shoutings, and so he went with his hoste vnto Phenice.

23 Three yeere afterward Jason sent Menelaus, the foresaid Simons brother, to beare the money vnto the King, and to bring to passe certaine necessary affaires, whereof he had giuen him a memoriall.

24 But he, being commended to the King, magnified him for b appearance of his power, and turned the Priesthood vnto himselfe: for he gaue three hundreth talents of siluer more then Jason.

25 So he gate the Kings ‖ letters patents, albeit he had nothing in himselfe worthie of the hie Priesthood, but bare the stomake of a cruell tyrant, and the wrath of a wilde beast.

26 Then Jason which had deceiued his owne brother, being deceiued by another, was compelled to flee into the countrey of the Ammonites.

27 So Menelaus gate the dominion: but as for the money that he had promised vnto the King, he tooke none order for it, albeit Sostratus the ruler of the castle required it.

28 For vnto him appertained the gathering of the customes: wherefore they were both called before the King.

29 Nowe ¶ Menelaus left his brother Lysimachus in his stead in the priesthood, and Sostratus left Crates which was gouernour of the c Cyprians.

30 ¶ Whiles these things were in doing, the Tharsians and they of Mallot made insurrection, because they were giuen to the Kings concubine called Antiochis.

31 Then came the King in all haste, to appease the businesse, leauing Andronicus a man of authoritie to be his lieutenant.

32 Nowe Menelaus, supposing that he had gotten a conuenient time, stole certaine vessels of gold out of the Temple, and gaue certaine of them to Andronicus: and some he solde at Tyrus and in the cities thereby.

33 Which when Onias knew of a suretie, he reproued him, and withdrewe himselfe into a Sanctuarie at Daphne by Antiochia.

34 Wherefore Menelaus, taking Andronicus apart, prayed him to slay Onias: so when he came to Onias, he counselled him craftily, giuing him his right hand with an othe: (howbeit he suspect him, and perswaded him to come out of the Sanctuarie) so he slewe him incontinently without any regard of righteousnesse.

35 For the which cause not only the Jewes, but many other nations also were grieued, and tooke it heauily for the vnrighteous death of this man.

36 ¶ And when the King was come againe from the places about Cilicia, the Jewes that were in the citie, and certaine of the Greekes that abhorred the fact also, complained because Onias was slaine without cause.

37 Therefore Antiochus was sorie in his minde, and he had compassion, and wept because of the modestie and great discretion of him that was dead.

38 Wherefore being kindled with anger, he tooke away Andronicus garment of purple, and rent his clothes, and commaunded him to be led through out the citie, & in the same place where hee had committed the wickednesse against Onias, he was slaine as a murtherer. Thus the Lord rewarded him his punishment, as he had deserued.

39 ¶ Now when Lysimachus had done many wicked deedes in the city through the counsell of Menelaus, and the brute was spread abroade, the multitude gathered them together against Lysimachus: for he had caried out now much vessell of gold.

40 And when the people arose, and were full of anger, Lysimachus armed about three thousand, and began to vse vnlawfull power, a certaine tyrant being their captaine, who was no lesse decaied in wit then in age.

41 But when they vnderstood the purpose of Lysimachus, some gate stones, some great clubs, and some cast handfuls of dust which lay by, vpon Lysimachus men, and those that inuaded them.

42 Whereby many of them were wounded, some were slaine, and all the other chased away: but the wicked Churchrobber himselfe, they killed beside the treasurie.

34 For these causes an accusation was laide against a This game was to trie strength by casting a stone that had an hole in the mids, or a piece of metall,

‖Or, Olympian sportes, which were games kept euery fift yeere, b That is, of them that measured the corne.

‖Or, commandements, againſt Menelaus.

44 And when the king came to Tyrus, three men ſent from the Senate pleaded the cauſe before him.

45 But Menelaus ſeeing nowe conuinced, promiſed to Ptolemeus the ſonne of Dorimenes much money, if hee woulde perſwade the King.

46 So Ptolemeus went to the King into a court, where as hee was to coole himſelfe, and turned the kings minde.

47 Inſomuch that he diſcharged Menelaus from the accuſations (notwithſtanding he was the cauſe of all miſchiefe) and condemned thoſe poore men to death, which if they had told their cauſe, yea, before the Scythians, they ſhoulde haue bene heard as innocent.

48 Thus were they ſoone puniſhed vniuſtly, which followed vpon the matter for the citie, and for the people, and for the holy veſſels.

49 Wherefore they of Tyrus hated that wickednelle, and miniſtred all things liberally for their burial.

50 And ſo through the couetouſneſſe of them that were in power, Menelaus remained in authoritie, increaſing in malice, and declared himſelfe a great traitor to the citizens.

CHAP. V.

1 Of the ſignes and tokens ſeene in Ieruſalem. 6 Of the end and wickednes of Iaſon. 11 The purſute of Antiochus againſt the Iewes. 15 The ſpoiling of the Temple, 27 Maccabeus fleeth into the wilderneſſe.

ABout the ſame time Antiochus vndertook his ſecond voyage into Egypt.

2 And then were there ſeene thorowout all the citie of Ieruſalem fourty daies long, horſemen running in the ayre, with robes of golde, and as bands of ſpeare men.

3 And as troupes of horſemen ſet in aray, incountering and comming one againſt another with ſhaking of ſhields and multitude of darts, and drawing of ſwordes, and ſhooting of arrowes, and the glittering of the golden armour ſeene and harneſſe of all ſorts.

4 Therefore euery man prayed, that thoſe tokens might turne to good.

5 Nowe when there was gone forth a falſe rumour, as though Antiochus had bene dead, Iaſon tooke at the leaſt a thouſand men, and came ſuddenly vpon the citie, & they that were vpon the walles, being put backe, and the citie at length taken,

6 ¶ Menelaus fled into the caſtle, but Iaſon ſlew his owne citizens without mercy, not conſidering, that to haue the aduantage againſt his kinſmen is greateſt diſaduantage, but thought that hee had gotten the victorie of his enemies, and not of his owne nation.

7 Yet hee gate not the ſuperioritie, but at the laſt receiued ſhame for the reward of his treaſon, and went againe like a vagabond into the countrey of the Ammonites.

8 Finally he had this end of his wicked conuerſation, that he was ‖accuſed before Areta the king of the Arabians, & fled from citie to citie, being purſued of euery man, and hated as a forſaker of the Lawes, and was in abomination, as an enemie of his countrey and citizens, and was driuen into Egypt.

‖ Or, ſhut vp.

9 Thus he that had chaſed many out of their owne countrey, periſhed as a baniſhed man, after that hee was gone to the Lacedemonians, thinking there to haue gotten ſuccour by reaſon of kinred.

10 And hee that had caſt many out vnburied, was thrown out himſelfe, no man mourning for him, nor putting him in his graue: neither was hee partaker of his fathers ſepulchre.

11 ¶ Now when theſe things that were done, were declared to the king, hee thought that Iudea would haue fallen from him: wherefore he came with a furious minde out of Egypt, and tooke the citie by violence.

12 Hee commaunded his men of warre alſo, that they ſhould kill and not ſpare ſuch as they met, and to ſlay ſuch as went into their houſes.

13 Thus was there a ſlaughter of yong men, and olde men, and a deſtruction of men and women and children, and virgins and infants were murthered:

14 So that within three dayes were ſlaine foureſcore thouſand, and fourtie thouſand taken priſoners, and there were as many ſolde as were ſlaine.

15 Yet was hee not content with this, but durſt goe into the moſt holy Temple of all the worlde, hauing Menelaus that traitour to the Lawes, & to his owne countrey to be his guide, 16 And with his wicked hands tooke the holy veſſels, which other kings had giuen for the garniſhing, glory, and honour of that place, and handled them with his wicked hands.

17 So hautie in his minde was Antiochus, that he conſidered not, that God was not a little wroth for the ſinnes of them that dwelt in the citie, for the which ſuch contempt came vpon that place.

18 For if they had not bene wrapped in many ſinnes, he, aſſoone as he had come, had ſuddenly bene puniſhed, and put backe from his preſumption, as Heliodorus was, whom Seleucus the king ſent to view the treaſurie.

19 But God hath not choſen the nation for the places ſake, but the place for the nations ſake.

20 And therefore is the place become partaker of the peoples trouble, but afterward ſhall it be partaker of the benefits of the Lord, and as it is now forſaken in the wrath of the Almightie, ſo when the great Lorde ſhall be reconciled, it ſhalbe ſet vp in great worſhip againe.

21 ¶ So when Antiochus had taken eightene hundred talents out of the Temple, hee gate him to Antiochia in all haſte, thinking in his pride to make men ſaile vpon the drie lande, and to walke vpon the ſea: ſuch an high minde had he.

22 But hee left deputies to vexe the people: at Ieruſalem Philip a Phrygian by birth, in maners more cruell then he that ſet him there:

23 And at Garizin Andronicus, and with them Menelaus, which was more grieuous to the citizens then the other, and was deſpitefull againſt the Iewes his citizens.

24 Hee ſent alſo Apollonius a cruell prince, with an armie of two and twentie thouſande, whom hee commanded to ſlay thoſe that were towarde mans age, and to ſell the women, and the yonger ſort.

25 So when he came to Ieruſalem, he fained peace, and keepe him still vntill the holy day of Sabbath: and then finding the Iewes keeping the feast, he commaunded his men to take their weapons, 26 And so hee slewe all them that were gone foorth to the chewe, and running thorow the citie with his men armed, hee murthered a great number.

27 But Judas Maccabeus, being as it were the tenth, fled into the wildernes, & liued there in the mountaines with his companie among the beasts, dwelling there, and eating grasse, lest they should be partakers of the filthinesse.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Iewes are compelled to leaue the lawe of God. 4 The Temple is defiled. 10 The women cruelly punished. 28 The grieuous paine of Eleazarus.

NOt long after this, sent the King an olde man of ‖ Athens, for to compell the Iewes to transgresse the lawes of the fathers, and not to be gouerned by the Law of God,

‖ Or, Antiochia.

2 And to defile the Temple that was at Jerusalem, and to call it the Temple of Jupiter Olympius, and that of Garizim, according as they did that dwelt at that place, Jupiter that keepeth hospitalitie.

3 This wicked gouernement was sore and grieuous vnto the people.

4 For the temple was full of dissolution, and gluttonie of the Gentiles, which dallied with harlots, & had to doe with women within the circuite of the holy places, and brought in such things as were not lawfull.

5 The altar also was full of such things, as were abominable and forbidden by the law.

6 Neither was it lawfull to keepe the Sabbaths, nor to obserue their auncient feastes, nor plainly to confesse himselfe to be a Iewe.

7 In the day of the Kings birth they were grieuously compelled perforce euery moneth to banket, & when the feast of Bacchus was kept, they were constremed to goe in the procession of Bacchus with garlands of Iuie.

8 Moreouer through the counsell of Ptolemeus, there went out a commaundement vnto the next cities of the heathen against the Iewes, that the like custome, and ‖ banketting should be kept.

‖ Or, eating of the flesh that was sacrificed.

9 And who so woulde not conforme themselues to the maners of the Gentiles, should bee put to death: then might a man haue seene the present miserie.

10 For there were two women brought forth, that had circumcised their sonnes, whom when they had ledde round about the citie (the babes hanging at their breasts) they cast them downe headlong ouer the walles.

11 Some that were runne together into dennes to keepe the Sabbath day secretely, were discouered vnto Philip, and were burnt together, because that for the reuerence of the honourable day they were afraid to help themselues.

12 ¶ Now I beseech those which reade this booke, that they be not discouraged for these calamities, but that they iudge these afflictions, not to be for destruction, but for a chastening of our nation.

13 For it is a token of his great goodnesse, not to suffer sinners long to cõtinue, but straight wayes to punish them.

14 For the Lord doeth not long waite for vs, as for other nations, whom he punisheth when they are come to the fulnesse of their sinnes:

15 But thus hee dealeth with vs, that our sinnes should not bee heaped vp to the full, so that afterward he should punish vs.

16 And therefore hee neuer withdraweth his mercie from vs: & though he punish with aduersitie, yet doeth he neuer forsake his people.

17 But let this bee spoken nowe for a warning vnto vs: and now will wee come to the declaring of the matter in few words.

18 ¶ Eleazar then one of the principal scribes, an aged man, & of a well fauoured countenance, was constremed to open his mouth, and to eate swines flesh.

19 But hee desiring rather to die gloriously then to liue with hatred, offered himselfe willingly to the torment, and spit it out:

20 As they ought to goe to death which suffer punishment for such things, as it is not lawfull to taste of for the desire to liue.

21 But they that had the charge of this wicked banket, for that olde friendship of the man, tooke him aside priuily, and praied him that he would take such flesh, as was lawfull for him to vse, and as hee woulde prepare for himselfe, and dissemble as though hee had eaten of the things appointed by the king, euen the flesh of the sacrifice.

22 That in so doing hee might bee deliuered from death, & that for the old friendship they was among them, he would receiue this fauour.

23 But hee began to consider discreetly, and as became his age, and the excellencie of his ancient peeres, and the honour of his grey haires, wherevnto he was come, and his most honest conuersation from his childhood, but chiefly the holy Law made and giuen by God: therefore he answered consequently, and willed the straightwayes to send him to the graue.

24 For it becommeth not our age, said he, to dissemble, whereby many yong persons might thinke, that Eleazar being fourscore yeere olde and ten, were now gone to ‖ another religion.

‖ Or, to another maner of life.

25 And so though mine hypocrisie (for a little time of a transitory life) they might be deceiued by mee, and I should procure malediction, and reproch to mine olde age.

26 For though I were now deliuered from the torments of men, yet could I not escape the hand of the Almightie, neither aliue nor dead.

27 Wherefore I will nowe change this life manfully, and will shewe my selfe such as mine age requireth, 28 And so will leaue a notable example for such as be young to die willingly and courageously for the honourable and holy lawes. And when he had saide these wordes, immediatly he went to torment.

29 Now they that led him, changed the loue which they bare him before, into hatred, because of the wordes that he had spoken: for they thought it had bene a rage.

30 And as hee was readie to giue the ghost because of the strokes, hee sighed and saide, The Lorde that hath the holy knowledge, knoweth manifestly, that whereas I might haue beene deliuered from death, I am scourged, and suffer these

these sore paines of my bodie: but in my minde I suffer them gladly for his religion.

31 Euen now after this maner ended hee his life, leauing his death for an example of a noble courage, and a memoriall of vertue, not onely vnto yong men, but vnto all his nation.

CHAP. VII.

The punishment of the seuen brethren and of their mother.

IT came to passe also that seuen brethren, with their mother, were taken to bee compelled by the king against the lawe, to taste swines flesh, and were tormented with scourges and whips.

2 But one of them which spake first, saide thus, What seekest thou? and what wouldest thou know of vs? wee are readie to die, rather then to transgresse the lawes of our fathers.

3 Then was the king angrie, and commanded to heate pannes and caudrons, which were incontinently made hote.

4 And he commanded the tongue of him that spake first, to be cut out, and to flap him, and to cut off the vtmost parts of his body in the sight of his other brethren and his mother.

5 Nowe when hee was thus mangled in all his mebers, he commanded him to be brought alme to the fire and to fry him in the panne: and while the smoke for a long time smoked out of the panne, the other brethren with their mother exhorted one another to die courageously, saying in this maner.

6 The Lord God doth regard vs, and indeed taketh pleasure in vs, as Moyses * declared in the song wherein hee testified openly, saying, That God will take pleasure in his seruants. Deut. 32. 36.

7 ¶ So when the first was dead after this maner, they brought the second to make him a mocking stocke: and when they had pulled the skinne with the haire ouer his head, they asked him, if hee would eate or he were punished in al the members of the body.

8 But hee answered in his owne language, and saide, No. Wherefore hee was tormented for thwith like the first.

9 And when hee was at the last breath, hee sayde, Thou murtherer takest this present life from vs, but the King of the worlde will rayse vs vp, which die for his lawes, in the resurrection of euerlasting life.

10 ¶ After him was the third had in derision, and when they demaunded his tongue, hee put it out incontinently, and stretched forth his hands boldly,

11 And spake manfully, These haue I had from the heauen, but nowe for the lawe of God I despise them, and trust that I shall receiue them of him againe.

12 Insomuch that the king and they which were with him, marueiled at the young mans courage, as at one that nothing regarded the paines.

13 ¶ Now when he was dead also, they vexed and tormented the fourth in like maner.

14 And when hee was nowe readie to die, he saide thus, It is better that wee should change this which we might hope for of men, and wait for our hope from God, that we may be raised vp againe by him: as for thee, thou shalt haue no resurrection to life.

15 ¶ Afterward they brought the fift also and tormented him,

16 Who looked vpon the King, and saide, Thou hast power among men, and though thou bee a mortall man, thou doest what thou wilt: but thinke not, that God hath forsaken our nation.

17 But abide a while, and thou shalt see his great power, how he will torment thee and thy seede.

18 After him also they brought the sixt, who being at the point of death, said, Deceiue not thy selfe foolishly: for we suffer these things, which are worthie to bee wondered at for our owne sakes, because we haue offended our God.

19 But thinke not thou, which vndertakest to fight against God, that thou shalt be vnpunished.

20 But the mother was marueilous aboue all other, and worthy of honorable memory: for when she saw her seuen sonnes slaine within the space of one day, she suffered it with a good wil, because of the hope that she had in the Lord.

21 Yea, she exhorted euery one of them in her owne language, and being full of courage and wisedome, stirred vp her womanly affections with a manly stomacke, and said vnto them,

22 I cannot tell howe you came into my wombe: for I neither gaue you breath nor life: it is not I that set in order the members of your body,

23 But doubtlesse the Creator of the worlde, which formed the birth of man, and founde out the beginning of all things, wil also of his owne mercie giue you breath, and life againe, as ye now regard not your own selues, for his lawes sake.

24 Nowe Antiochus thinking himselfe despised, and considering the iniurious wordes, while the yongest was yet alme, he did exhort him not onely with wordes, but swore also vnto him by an othe that he would make him rich and wealthie, if hee would forsake the lawes of his fathers, and that hee would take him as a friend, and giue him offices.

25 But when the young man would in no case hearken vnto him, the king called his mother, and exhorted that shee would counsell the young man to saue his life.

26 And when he had exhorted her with many wordes, shee promised him that shee would counsell her sonne.

27 So shee turned her vnto him, laughing the cruell tyrant to scorne, and spake in her own language, O my sonne, haue pitie vpon mee, that bare thee nine moneths in my wombe, and gaue thee sucke three yeeres, and nourished thee, and tooke care for thee vnto this age, & brought thee vp.

28 I beseech thee, my sonne, looke vpon the heauen and the earth, and al that is therein, and consider that God made them of things that were not, and so was mankind made likewise.

29 Feare not this hangman, but shew thy selfe woorthie such brethren by suffering death, that I may receiue thee in mercie with thy brethren.

30 While she was yet speaking these words, the young man said, Whom wait ye for? I will not obey the kings commandement: but I will obey the commandement of the law that was giuen vnto our fathers by Moyses.

31 And thou that imagineſt all miſchiefe againſt the Hebrewes, ſhalt not eſcape the handes of God.

32 For we ſuffer theſe things, becauſe of our ſinnes.

33 But though þ liuing Lord be angry with vs a little while for our chaſtening and correction, yet will he be reconciled with his owne ſeruants.

34 But thou, O man without religion and moſt wicked of all men, lift not thy ſelfe vp in vain, which are puffed vp with vncertein hope, and liftеſt thine handes againſt the ſeruants of God.

35 For thou haſt not yet eſcaped the iudgement of Almighty God, which ſeeth all things.

36 My brethren that haue ſuffred a little paine, are nowe vnder the diuine couenant of euerlaſting life: but thou through the iudgement of God, ſhalt ſuffer iuſt puniſhments for thy pride.

37 Therefore I, as my brethren haue done, offer my body and life for the lawes of our fathers, beſeeching God, that hee will ſoone bee mercifull vnto our nation, and that thou by torment and puniſhment mayeſt confeſſe, that he is the onely God, 38 And that in me & my brethren the wrath of the Almighty, which is righteouſly fallen vpon all our nation, may ceaſe.

39 Then the king being kindled with anger, raged more cruelly againſt him then the others, and tooke it grieuouſly, that he was mocked.

40 So he alſo died holily, and put his whole truſt in the Lord.

41 Laſt of all after the ſonnes, was the mother put to death.

42 Let this now be enough ſpoken concerning the bankets, and extreme cruelties.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Iudas gathereth together his hoſt. 9 Nicanor is ſent againſt Iudas. 16 Iudas exhorteth his ſouldiers to confidence. 20 Nicanor is ouercome. 27 The Iewes giue thankes, after they haue put their enemies to flight, diuiding part of the ſpoiles vnto the fatherleſſe and vnto the widowes. 30 Timotheus and Bacchides are diſcomfited. 35 Nicanor ſheeth vnto Antiochus.

THen Iudas Maccabeus, & they that were with him, went priuily into the townes, and called their kinſefolkes and friends together, and tooke vnto them all ſuch as continued in the Iewes religion, and aſſembled ſixe thouſand men.

2 So they called vpon the Lorde, that hee would haue an eye vnto his people, which was vexed of euery man, and haue pitie vpon the Temple that was defiled by wicked men,

3 And that he would haue compaſſion vpon the citie that was deſtroyed, and almoſt brought to the ground, & that he would heare the voyce of the blood that cried vnto him,

4 And that he would remember the wicked ſlaughter of the innocent children, and the blaſphemies committed againſt his Name, and that he would ſhew his hatred againſt the wicked.

5 Now when Maccabeus had gathered this multitude, hee could not bee withſtoode by the heathen: for the wrath of the Lord was turned into mercie.

6 Therefore he came at vnwares, and burnt vp the townes and cities: yet he tooke the moſt commodious places, and ſlew many of the enemies.

7 But ſpecially hee vſed the nights to make ſuch aſſaults, in ſo much that the bruit of his manlineſſe was ſpread euery where.

8 ¶ So when Philip ſaw that this man increaſed by litle and litle, and that things proſpered with him for the moſt part, he wrote vnto Ptolemeus the gouernour of Coeloſyria and Phenice to helpe him in the kings buſineſſe.

9 Then ſent he ſpeedily Nicanor the ſonne of Patrocius, a ſpeciall friend of his, and gaue him of all nations of the heathen no leſſe then twentie thouſand men, to roote out the whole generation of the Iewes, and ioyned with him Gorgias a captaine, which in matters of warre had great experience.

10 Nicanor ordeined alſo a tribute for the king of two thouſand talents, which the Romanes ſhould haue, to bee taken of the Iewes that were taken priſoners.

11 Therefore immediatly he ſent to the cities on the ſea coaſt, prouoking them to buy Iewes to be their ſeruants, promiſing to ſell foureſcore and ten for one talent: but he conſidered not the vengeance of Almightie God, that ſhould come vpon him.

12 When Iudas then knewe of Nicanors comming, he told them that were with him, of the comming of the armie.

13 Now were there ſome of them fearefull, which truſted not vnto the righteouſneſſe of God, but fled away, & abode not in that place.

14 But the other ſolde all that they had left, and beſought the Lord together to deliuer them from that wicked Nicanor, which had ſolde them, or euer he came neere them.

15 And though he would not doe it for their ſakes, yet for the couenant made with their fathers, and becauſe they called vpon his holy and glorious Name.

16 And ſo Maccabeus called his men together, about fiue thouſand, exhorting them not to bee afraide of their enemies, neither to feare the great multitude of the Gentiles, which came againſt them vnrighteouſly, but to fight manly,

17 Setting before their eyes the iniurie that they had vniuſtly done to the holy place, and the crueltie done to the citie by deriſion, and the deſtruction of the orders eſtabliſhed by their fathers.

18 For they, ſaide hee, truſt in their weapons and boldneſſe: but our confidence is in the Almighty God, which at a becke can both deſtroy them that come againſt vs, and all the world.

19 Moreouer, he admoniſhed them of þ helpe that God ſhewed vnto their fathers, as when there periſhed an hundreth and foureſcore and fiue thouſand vnder * Sennacherib.

20 And of the battel that they had in Babylon, againſt the Galathians, how they came in all to þ battel ‖ eight thouſand, with foure thouſand Macedonians: and when the Macedonians were aſtoniſhed, the eight thouſand ſlew an hundred & twentie thouſand through the helpe that was giuen them from heauen, whereby they had receiued many benefites.

21 Thus when he had made them bold with theſe words, and readie to die for the lawes and

2. King. 19. 35. Iſa. 37. 36 tob. 1. 18. eccle. 48. 22. 1. mac. 7. 41.

‖ Some reade ſixe thouſand.

and the countrey, he deuided his armie into foure partes,

22 And made his owne brethren captaines ouer the armie, to wit, Simon, and Joseph, and Jonathan, giuing eche one fiftene hundred men.

23 And when Eleazarus had read the holy booke, and giuen them a token of the helpe of God, Iudas which led the foreward, toyned with Nicanor,

24 And because the Almighty helped them, they slew aboue nine thousand men, and wounded and maimed the most part of Nicanors hoste, and so put all to flight,

25 And tooke the money from those that came to buy them, and pursued them farre: but lacking time, they returned.

26 For it was the day before the Sabbath, & therefore they would no longer pursue them.

27 So they tooke their weapons, and spoyled the enemies, and kept the Sabbath, giuing thankes, and praysing the Lorde wonderfully, which had delivered them that day, and powred vpon them the beginning of his mercie.

*Num.31.27 1.Sam.30.24

28 And after the Sabboth, * they distributed the spoiles to the sicke, and to the fatherles, and to the widowes, and deuided the residue among themselues and their children.

29 When this was done, and they all had made a generall prayer, they besought the mercifull Lord to be reconciled at the length with his seruants.

30 Afterward with one consent they fell vpon Timotheus and Bacchides, and slew aboue twentie thousand, & wanne hie & strong holdes, and diuided great spoiles, and gaue an equall portion vnto the sicke, and to the fatherlesse, and to the widowes, and to aged persons also.

31 Moreouer they gathered their weapons together, and laid them vp diligently in conuenient places, and brought the remnant of the spoiles to Jerusalem.

32 They slewe also Philarches a most wicked person which was with Timotheus, and had vexed the Jewes many wayes.

33 And when they kept the feast of Victorie in their countrey, they burnt Calisthenes that had set fire vpon the holy gates, which was fled into a litle house: so he receiued a reward meete for his wickednesse.

34 And that most wicked Nicanor, which had brought a thousand merchants to buy the Jewes, 35 He was through the helpe of the Lorde brought downe of them whom he thought as nothing, insomuch that he put off his glorious raiment, and fled ouerthwart the countrey like a fugitiue seruant, and came alone to Antiochia, with great dishonour through the destruction of his hoste.

36 Thus he that promised to pay tribute to the Romanes, by meanes of the prisoners of Jerusalem, brought newes, that the Jewes had a ‖defender, and for this cause none could hurt the Jewes, because they followed the Lawes appointed by him.

‖Or, God their defender.

CHAP. IX.

1 Antiochus willing to spoile Persepolis, is put to flight. 5 As he persecuteth the Iewes, he is stricken of the Lorde. 13 The fained repentance of Antiochus. 28 He dieth miserably.

AT the same time came Antiochus againe with dishonour out of the countrey of Persia.

2 For when hee came to Persepolis, and went about to robbe the Temple, and to subdue the citie, the people ran in a rage to defend them selues with their weapons, and put them to flight, and Antiochus was put to flight by the inhabitants, and returned with shame.

3 Now when he came to Ecbatane, he vnderstood the things that had come vnto Nicanor, and Timotheus.

4 And then being chafed in his mynde, he thought to impute to the Jewes their fault, which had put him to flight, and therefore commaunded his charetman to drive continually, and to dispatch the iourney: for Gods iudgement compelled him: for he had saide thus in his pride, I will make Jerusalem a comon burying place of the Jewes, whē I come thither.

5 But the Lord Almighty, and God of Israel, smote him with an incurable and inuisible plague: for as soone as he had spoken these words, a paine of the bowels that was remediless, came vpon him, and sore tormentes of the inner partes,

6 And that most iustly: for he had tormented other mens bowels with diuers & strange torments.

7 Howbeit he would in no wise cease from his arrogancie, but swelled the more with pride, breathing out fire in his rage against the Jewes, and commanded to haste the iourney: but it came to passe that hee fell downe from the charet that ranne swiftly, so that all the members of his body were bruised with the great fall.

8 And thus he that a litle afore thought he might command the floods of the Sea (so proude was hee beyonde the condition of man) and to weigh the hie mountaines in the balance, was nowe cast on the ground, and caried in an horselitter, declaring vnto all the manifest power of God,

9 *So that the wormes came out of the body of this wicked man in abundance: & whiles he was alme, his flesh fell off for paine and torment: and all his armie was grieued at his ‖smell.

*Acts.12.23.

‖Or, rottennesse.

10 Thus no man could beare because of his stinke, him that a litle afore thought he might reach to the starres of heauen.

11 Then he began to leaue off his great pride, and selfewill, when he was plagued and came to the knowledge of himselfe by the scourge of God, and by his paine which increased euery moment.

12 And when hee himselfe might not abide his owne stinke, he saide these wordes, It is meete to be subiect vnto God, and that a man which is mortall, should not thinke himselfe equall vnto God through pride.

13 This wicked person prayed also vnto the Lorde, who would nowe haue no mercie on him, 14 And said thus, that he would set at libertie the holy citie vnto the which he made haste to destroy it, and to make it a burying place.

15 And as touching the Jewes (whom hee had iudged not worthy to be buried, but would haue cast them out with their children

dien to be deuoured of the foules and wilde beastes) he would make them all like the citizens of Athens.

16 And whereas he had spoyled the holy Temple afore, he would garnish it with great giftes, and increase the holy vessels, and of his owne rentes beare the charges belonging to the sacrifices.

17 Yea, and that he would also become a Iewe himselfe, & goe thorow all the world that was inhabited, and preach the power of God.

18 But for all this, his paines would not cease: for the iust iudgement of God was come vpon him: therefore despairing of his health, he wrote vnto the Iewes this letter vnder written, conteining the forme of a supplication.

19 ¶ THE KING, and prince Antiochus vnto the Iewes his louing citizens, wisheth much ioy and health and prosperitie.

20 If ye and your children fare well, and if all things goe after your minde, I giue great thankes vnto God hauing hope in the heauen.

21 Though I lie sicke, yet I am mindfull of your honour, and good will for the loue I beare you: therefore when I returned from the countrey of Persia, and fell into a sore disease, I thought it necessarie to care for the common safetie of all,

22 Not distrusting mine health, but hauing great hope to escape this sicknesse.

23 Therefore considering that when my father led an hoste against the hie countries, he appointed who should succeede him:

24 That if any controuersie happened contrary to his expectation, or if that any tidings were brought that were grieuous, they in the land might knowe to whom the affaires were committed, that they should not be troubled.

25 Againe, when I ponder howe that the gouernours, that are borderers and neighbours vnto my kingdome, waite for all occasions, and looke but for opportunitie, I haue ordened that my sonne Antiochus shall be King, whom I oft commended and committed to many of you, when I went into the hie prouinces, & haue written vnto him as followeth hereafter.

26 Therefore, I pray you, and require you to remember the benefites that I haue done vnto you generally, and particularly, and that euery man wilbe faithfull vnto me & my sonne.

27 For I trust that he will be gentle and louing vnto you according vnto my mind.

28 ¶ Thus the murtherer and blasphemer suffered most grieuously, and as he had intreated other men, so he died a miserable death in a strange countrey among the mountaines.

29 And Philip that was brought vp with him, caried away his body, who fearing the sonne of Antiochus, went into Egypt to Ptolemeus Philometor.

CHAP. X.

1 Iudas Maccabeus taketh the citie and the Temple. 10 The actes of Eupator. 16 The Iewes fight against the Idumeans. 24 Timotheus inuadeth Iudea, with whom Iudas ioyneth battell. 29 Fiue men appeare in the ayre to the helpe of the Iewes. 37 Timotheus is slaine.

MAccabeus now and his company, through the helpe of the Lorde, wanne the Temple and the citie againe,

2 And destroyed the altars, & chappels that the heathen had builded in the open places,

3 And cleansed the Temple, and made another altar, and hurned stones, and tooke fire of them, and offered sacrifices, and incense two peeres, and fire moneths after, and set forth the lampes, and the shew bread.

4 When that was done, they fel downe flat vpon the ground, and besought the Lord, that they might come no more into such troubles: but if they sinned any more against him, that he himselfe would chasten them with mercy, and that they might not be deliuered to the blasphemous, and barbarous nations.

5 Nowe vpon the same day, that the strangers polluted þ Temple, on the very same day it was cleansed againe, euen the fiue & twentieth day of the same moneth, which is ‖ Chasleu. ‖Or, Nouember.

6 They kept eight dayes with gladnesse as in the feast of the Tabernacles, remembring, that not long afore they held the feast of the Tabernacles when they lined in the mountaines and dennes like beastes.

7 And for the same cause they bare greene boughes, and faire branches and palmes, and sang Psalmes vnto him that had giuen them good successe in cleansing his place.

8 They ordened also by a common statute and decree, that euery yeere those dayes should be kept of the whole nation of the Iewes.

9 And this was the ende of Antiochus called Epiphanes.

10 ¶ Now will we declare the actes of Antiochus Eupator, which was the sonne of this wicked man, gathering briefly the calamities of the warres, that followed.

11 For when he had taken the kingdome, he made one Lysias, which had beene captaine of the hoste in Phenice, and Coelosyria, ruler ouer the affaires of the Realme.

12 For Ptolemeus that was called Macron, purposed to do iustice vnto the Iewes for the wrong that had beene done vnto them, and went about to behaue himselfe peaceably with them.

13 For the which cause, he was accused of his friends before Eupator, and was called oft times traitour, because he had left Cyprus that Philometor had committed vnto him, and came to Antiochus Epiphanes, therefore seeing that he was no more in estimation, he was discouraged, and poysoned himselfe, and died.

14 ¶ But when Gorgias was gouernour of the same places, he enterteined strangers, and made warre oft times against the Iewes.

15 Moreouer the Idumeans that helde the strong holdes which were meete for their purpose, troubled the Iewes, & by receiuing them that were driuen from Ierusalem, tooke in hand to continue warre.

16 Then they that were with Maccabeus made prayers, & besought God that he would be their helper, and so they fell vpon the strong holdes of the Idumeans, 17 And assaulted them fore, that they wanne the places, & slewe all that fought against them on the wall, and killed all that they met with, and slew no lesse then twentie thousand.

18 And because certaine (which were no lesse then then nine thousand) were fledde into two strong castles, hauing all maner of things conuenient to susteine the siege, 19 Maccabeus left Simon, and Joseph, and Zaccheus also, and those that were with them, which were enowe to beseige them, and departed to those places which were more necessarie.

20 Nowe they that were with Simon, being led with couetousnesse, were intreated for money (through certeine of those that were in the castle) & tooke seuntie thousand a drachmes and let some of them escape.

a A drachme is the eight part of an ounce, which is about three pence.

21 But when it was tolde Maccabeus what was done, he called the gouernours of the people together, and accused those men, that they had solde their brethren for money, and let their enemies go.

22 So hee slewe them when they were conuict of treason, and immediately wan the two castles:

23 And hauing good successe, as in all the warres that hee tooke in hand, hee slewe in the two castles more then twentie thousand.

24 Now Timotheus whom the Jewes had ouercome afore, gathered an armie of strangers of all sortes, and brought a great troupe of horsemen out of Asia, to winne Jewrie by strength.

25 But when he drew nere, Maccabeus, and they that were with him, turned to pray vnto God, and sprinkled earth vpon their heads, and girded their reines with sackcloth, 26 And fell downe at the foote of the altar, and besought the Lorde to be mercifull to them, and to be an enemie to their enemies, and to be an aduersarie to their aduersaries, *as the lawe declareth.

*Exod. 23. 20. deut. 20. 4.

27 So after the prayer, they tooke their weapons, and went on further from the citie, and whē they came nere to the enemies, they tooke heed to themselues.

28 And when the morning appeared, they both ioyned together: the one part had the Lord for their refuge, and pledge of prosperitie, and noble victorie, and the other tooke courage as a guide of the warre.

29 But when the battel wared strong, there appeared vnto the enemies from heauen fiue comely men vpon horses with bridles of gold, and two of them led the Jewes,

30 And tooke Maccabeus betwixt them, and couered him on euery side with their weapons, and kept him safe, but shot darts & lightnings against the enemies, so that they were confounded with blindnesse, and beaten downe and full of trouble.

31 There were slaine of foote men twentie thousand and fiue hundred, & six hundred horsemen.

32 As for Timotheus himselfe, hee fled vnto Gazara, which was called a very strong hold, wherein Chereas was captaine.

33 But Maccabeus and his company laied siege against ℔ fortresses with courage for foure dayes.

34 And they that were within, trusting to the height of the place, blasphemed exceedingly, and spake horrible words.

‖Or, the fiue and twentieth day.

35 Neuertheless, vpon the ‖ fifth day in the morning, twentie poong men of Maccabeus company, whose hearts were inflamed, because of the blasphemies, came vnto the wall, & with bolde stomackes more downe those that they met.

36 Others also that climed vp vpon the engines of warre against them that were within, set fire vpon the towers, and burnt those blasphemers quicke with the fires that they had made, and others brake vp the gates, and receiued the rest of the armie, and tooke the citie,

37 And hauing found Timotheus, that was crept into a caue, they killed him, and Chereas his brother with Apollophanes.

38 When this was done, they prayed the Lord with Psalmes and thanksgiuing, which had done so great things for Israel, and giuen them the victorie.

CHAP. XI.

1 Lysias goeth about to ouercome the Iewes, 8 Succour is sent from heauen vnto the Iewes. 16 The letter of Lysias vnto the Iewes. 20 The letter of King Antiochus vnto Lysias. 27 A letter of the same vnto the Iewes. 34 A letter of the Romanes to the Iewes.

VEry shortly after this, Lysias the Kings steward, and a kinsman of his, which had the gouernance of the affaires, tooke sore displeasure for the things that were done.

2 And when hee had gathered about fourescore thousand, with all the horsemen, hee came against the Jewes, thinking to make the citie an habitation of the Gentiles.

3 And the Temple would hee haue to get money by, like the other temples of the heathen: for he would sell the Priests office euery yeere.

4 And thus being puffed vp in his minde, because of the great number of footemen, and thousandes of horsemen, and in his fourescore Elephants.

5 Hee came into Judea, and drewe neere to Beth-sura, which was a castle of defence, fiue a furlongs from Jerusalem, and laied sore siege vnto it.

a Whereof eight make a mile.

6 But when Maccabeus and his company knew that hee beseged the holdes, they, and all the people made prayers with weeping, & teares before the Lord, that he would send a good Angel to deliuer Israel.

7 And Maccabeus himselfe first of all tooke weapons, exhorting the other that they would ieopard themselues together with him to helpe their brethren: so they went forth together with a courageous mind.

8 And as they were there besides Jerusalem, there appeared before them vpon horseback a man in white clothing, shaking his harnesse of gold.

9 Then they prayed the mercifull God all together, and tooke heart, insomuch that they were ready, not onely to fight with men, but with the most cruel beasts, and to breake downe wals of iron.

10 Thus they marched forward in arap, hauing an helper from heauen: for the Lord was mercifull vnto them.

11 And running vpon their enemies like lions, they slewe eleuen thousand footemen, and sixteene hundred horsemen, and put all the other to flight.

12 Many of them also being wounded, escaped naked, & Lysias himselfe fled away shamefully, fully, and so escaped.

13 Who as he was a man of vnderstanding, considering what losse hee had had, and knowing that the Hebrewes could not be ouercome because the Almightie God holped them, sent vnto them,

14 And promised, that hee would consent to all things which were reasonable, & persuade the king to be their friend.

15 Maccabeus agreed to Lysias requestes, hauing respect in all things to the common wealth, and whatsoeuer Maccabeus wrote vnto Lysias concerning the Iewes, ꝓ king granted it.

16 For there were letters written vnto the Iewes from Lysias conteining these words, LYSIAS vnto the people of the Iewes sendeth greeting.

17 John and ‖ Abesalom, which were sent from you, deliuer me the things that you demaund by writing, and required me to fulfill the things that they had declared.

‖ Or, Absalon, or Absalom,

18 Therefore what things soeuer were meet to be reported to the king himselfe, I haue declared them, and hee graunted that that was possible.

19 Therefore if yee behaue your selues as friends toward his affaires, hereafter also I will endeuour my selfe to do you good.

20 As concerning these things, I haue giuen commandement to these men, and to those whom I sent vnto you, to commune with you of the same particularly.

21 Fare ye well, the hundred and eight and fourtie yeere, the foure & twentieth day of the moneth Dioscorinthius.

22 ¶ Nowe the kings letter conteined these words, KING ANTIOCHVS vnto his brother Lysias sendeth greeting.

23 Since our father is translated vnto the gods, our will is, that they which are in our Realme, liue quietly, that euery man may apply his owne affaires.

24 Wee vnderstand also ꝓ the Iewes would not consent to our father, for to be brought vnto the custome of the Gentiles, but would keep their owne maner of liuing: for the which cause they require of vs, that wee would suffer them to liue after their owne lawes.

25 Wherefore our mind is that this nation shall be in rest, and haue determined to restore them their Temple, that they may be gouerned according to the custome of their fathers.

26 Thou shalt doe well therefore to send vnto them, and graunt them peace, that when they are certified of our minde, they may be of good comfort, and cheerefully goe about their owne affaires.

27 And this was the kings letter vnto the nation, KING ANTIOCHVS vnto the Elders of the Iewes, and to the rest of the Iewes sendeth greeting.

28 If ye fare well, we haue our desire: wee are also in good health.

29 Menelaus declared vnto vs that your desire was to returne home, and to apply your owne businesse.

‖ Or, April, some read: Xanicus, and some Januarius,

30 Wherefore, those that will depart, we giue them free libertie, vnto the thirtp day of the moneth of ‖ Panthicus, 31 That the Iewes may vse their owne maner of liuing and lawes, like as afore, and none of them by any maner of wayes to haue harme for things done by ignorance.

32 I haue sent also Menelaus to comfort you.

33 Fare ye well: the hundreth and eight and fortie yeere, the fifteenth day of the moneth of Panthicus.

34 ¶ The Romanes also sent a letter conteining these words, QVINTVS MEMMIVS and Titus ‖ Manlius ambassadours of the Romanes, vnto the people of the Iewes send greeting.

‖ Or, Manlius,

35 The things that Lysias ꝓ kings kinseman hath granted you, we grant the same also.

36 But concerning that which he shal report vnto the king, send hither some with speed, whe ye haue considered the matter diligently, that we may consult thereupon, as shall bee best for you: for we must goe vnto Antiochia.

37 And therefore make haste and send some men, that we may know your mind.

38 Farewell: this hundreth and eight and fourtie yeere, the fifteenth day of the moneth of Panthicus.

CHAP. XII.

1 Timotheus troubleth the Iewes. 3 The wicked deed of them of Ioppe against the Iewes. 6 Iudas is auenged of them. 9 He setteth fire in the hauen of Iamnia. 20 The pursute of the Iewes against Timotheus. 24 Timotheus is taken and let goe vnhurt. 32 Iudas pursueth Gorgias.

WHen these conenants were made, Lysias went vnto the king, and the Iewes tilled their ground.

2 But the gouernours of the places, as Timotheus, and Apollonius the sonne of Gennaus, and Hieronymus, & also Demophon, and besides them Nicanor the gouernour of Cyprus, would not let them liue in rest and peace.

3 ¶ They of Ioppe also did such a vile acte: they prayed the Iewes that dwelt among them, to goe with their wiues and children into the ships, which they had prepared as though they had ought them none euil will.

4 And so by the common aduice of the citie, they obeyed them, and suspected nothing: but when they were gone foorth into the deepe, they drowned no lesse then two hundreth of them.

5 Now when Judas knew of their crueltie shewed against his nation, he commanded those men that were with him, to make them ready.

6 And hauing called vpon God the righteous Iudge, hee went forth against the murtherers of his brethren, and set fire in the hauen by night, and burnt the shippes, and those that fled thence, he slew.

7 ¶ And when the citie was shut by, he departed as though he would come againe, & root out all them of the citie of Joppe.

8 ¶ But when he perceiued that the Iamnites were minded to do in like maner vnto the Iewes, which dwelt among them, 9 He came vpon the Iamnites by night, and set fire in the hauen with the flame, so that the light of the fire was seene at Jerusalem, vpon a two hundreth and fortie furlongs.

10 Nowe when they were gone from thence nine furlongs, in their iourney toward Timotheus, about fiue thousand men of foote, and and fiue hundreth horſemen of the Arabians ſet vpon him.

11 So the battell was ſharpe, but it proſpered with Iudas through the helpe of God: the a So called because they were shepheards. [Or, pastures, [a] Nomades of Arabia, being ouercome, beſought Iudas to make peace with them, and promiſed to giue him certaine [] cattell, and to helpe him in other things.

12 And Iudas thinking that they ſhould in deede bee profitable concerning many things, graunted them peace: whereupon they ſhooke hands, and ſo they departed to their tents.

13 ¶ Iudas alſo aſſaulted a citie called Caſpis, which was ſtrong by reaſon of a bridge, and fenced rounde about with walles, and had diuers kinds of people dwelling therein.

14 So they that were within it, put ſuch truſt in the ſtrength of the walles, and in ſtore of victailes, that they were the ſlacker in their doings, reuiling them that were with Iudas, and reproching them: yea, they blaſphemed and ſpake ſuch words as were not lawfull.

15 But [Maccabeus ſouldiers, calling vpon the great Prince of the worlde (which without any [] inſtruments, or engins of warre, did * caſt downe the walles of Iericho, in the time of Ieſus) gaue a fierce aſſault againſt the walles, [Or, battell rammes. Ioſh.6.20.

16 And tooke the citie by the will of God, and made an exceeding great ſlaughter, inſomuch that a lake of two furlongs broade, which lay thereby, ſeemed to flow with blood.

17 ¶ Then departed they from thence, ſeuen hundreth and fiftie furlongs, and came to Characa vnto the Iewes, that are called Tubieni.

18 But they founde not Timotheus there: for, he was departed from thence, and had done nothing, and had left a garriſon in a very ſtrong holde.

19 But Doſitheus, and Soſipater, which were captaines with Maccabeus, went forth, and ſlewe thoſe that Timotheus had left in the fortreſſe, more then ten thouſand men.

20 And Maccabeus prepared, and ranged his armie by bandes, and went courageouſly againſt Timotheus, which had with him an hundreth and twentie thouſande men of foote, and two thouſande and fiue hundreth horſemen.

21 When Timotheus had knowledge of Iudas comming, he ſent the women, and children, and the other baggage afore vnto a fortreſſe called Carnion (for it was hard to beſiege, and vneaſie to come vnto becauſe of the ſtraites on all ſides.)

22 But when Iudas firſt band came in ſight, the enemies were ſmitten with feare, and a trembling was among them through the preſence of him that ſeeth all things, in ſo much that they fleeing one here, another there, were oft times hurt by their owne people, and wounded with the points of their owne ſwords.

23 But Iudas was very earneſt in purſuing, and ſlewe thoſe wicked men: yea, hee ſlewe thirtie thouſand men of them.

24 Timotheus alſo himſelfe fell into the hands of Doſitheus, and Soſipater, whom hee beſought with much craft to let him goe with his life, becauſe hee had many of the Iewes parents and the brethren of ſome of them, which if they put him to death, ſhould be deſpiſed.

25 So when hee had aſſured them with many words, and promiſed that hee would reſtore them without hurt, they let him goe for the health of their brethren.

26 ¶ Then went Maccabeus towarde Carnion, and Atargation, and ſlew fiue and twentie thouſand perſons.

27 And after that hee had chaſed away and ſlaine them, Iudas remooued the hoſte toward Ephron a ſtrong citie, wherein was Lyſias and a great multitude of all nations, and the ſtrong young men kept the walles, defending them mightily: there was alſo a great preparation of engins of warre, and darts.

28 But when they had called vpon the Lord, which with his power breaketh the ſtrength of the enemies, they wanne the citie, and ſlewe fiue and twentie thouſande of them that were within.

29 ¶ From thence went they to Scythopolis, which lyeth fiue hundreth furlongs from Ieruſalem.

30 But when the Iewes which dwelt there, teſtified, that the Scythopolitans dealt louingly with them, and intreated them kindly in the time of their aduerſitie, [Scythians.

31 They gaue them thankes, deſiring them to bee friendly ſtill vnto them, and ſo they came to Ieruſalem, as the feaſt of the weekes approched.

32 ¶ And after the feaſt called Pentecoſt, they went forth againſt Gorgias the gouernour of Idumea:

33 Who came out with three thouſand men of foote, and foure hundreth horſemen.

34 And when they ioyned together, a few of the Iewes were ſlaine,

35 And Doſitheus one of the Baccenors, which was on horſeback and a mighty man, tooke Gorgias, and lapt holde of his garment, and drewe him by force, becauſe hee would haue taken the wicked man aliue: but an horſeman of Thracia fell vpon him, and ſmote off his ſhoulder, ſo that Gorgias fledde into [Or, Moreſa, or, Mareſa, [] Mariſa.

36 And when they that were [] with Eſerin, had fought long, and were wearie, Iudas called vpon the Lord, that he would ſhew himſelfe to bee their helper, and captaine of the fielde.
[Or, with Gorgias.

37 And then he began in his owne language, and ſung Pſalmes with a loud voice, inſomuch that ſtraightwayes he made them that were about Gorgias, to take their flight.

38 ¶ So Iudas gathered his hoſte, and came into the citie of Odolla. And when the ſeuenth day came, they cleanſed themſelues (as the cuſtome was) and kept the Sabbath in the ſame place.

39 And vpon the day following, as neceſſitie required, Iudas and his company came to take vp the bodies of them that were ſlaine, and to burie them with their kinſmen in their fathers graues.

40 Now vnder the coates of euery one that was ſlaine, they founde iewels that had bene conſecrate to the idoles of the * Iamnites, which thing is forbidden the Iewes by the Law. Then euery man ſawe that this was the cauſe wherefore they were ſlaine.
Deut.7.25. Ioſh.17.1. 11,12.

41 And so euery man gaue thankes vnto the Lorde, the righteous Judge, which had opened the things that were hid.

a From this verse to the ende of this Chapter, the Greeke text is corrupt, so that no good sense, much lesse certaine doctrine can be gathered thereby: Also it is euident that this place was not written by the holy Ghost, both because it disenteth from the rest of the holy Scriptures, and also the authour of this booke acknowledging his owne infirmitie, desireth pardon, if hee haue not attained that hee should. And it seemeth, that this Iason the Cyrenian, out of whome he tooke this abridgement, is Ioseph Ben-gorion, who hath written in Ebrew fiue bookes of these matters, and intreating this place, maketh no mention of this prayer for the dead, lib. 3. Capit. 19. For it is contrary to the custome of the Iewes, euen to this day, to pray for the dead. And though Iudas had so done, yet this particular example is not sufficient to establish a doctrine, no more then Zipporahs was to proue that women might minister the Sacraments, Exod. 4. 25. or the example of Razis that one might kill himselfe, whom this authour so much commendeth, Chap. 14. 41.

42 And they gaue themselues to prayer, and beseought him, that the sinne might not vtterly bee destroyed for the fault committed. Besides that, noble Iudas exhorted the people to keepe them selues from sinne, for so much as they sawe before their eyes the things which came to passe by the sinne of these that were slaine, 43 And hauing made a gathering through the company, sent to Ierusalem about two thousand drachmes of siluer, to offer a sinne offering, doing very well and honestly, that hee thought of the resurrection.

44 For if he had not hoped, that they which were slaine, should rise againe, it had bene superfluous, and vaine, to pray for the dead.

45 And therefore he perceiued, that there was great fauour layd vp for those that died godly. (It was an holy and good thought.) So hee made a reconciliation for the dead that they might be deliuered from sinne.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The comming of Eupator into Iudea. 4 The death of Menelaus. 10 Maccabeus going to fight against Eupator, moueth his souldiers vnto prayer. 15 He killeth fourteene thousand men in the tents of Antiochus. 21 Rhodocus the betrayer of the Iewes is taken.

IN the hundreth fourtie and nine yeere, it was tolde Iudas that Antiochus Eupator was comming with a great power into Judea,

2 And Ipsias the steward and ruler of his affaires with him, hauing both in their armie an hundreth and tenne thousand men of foot of the Grecians, and fiue thousand horsemen, and two and twentie Elephants, and three hundreth charets set with hookes.

3 Menelaus also ioyned himselfe with them, and with great deceite incouraged Antiochus, not for the safegarde of the countrey, but because hee thought to haue bene made the gouernour.

4 But the King of kings moued Antiochus minde against this wicked man, and Ipsias informed the King that this man was the cause of all mischiefe, so that the King commanded to bring him to Berea to put him vnto death as the maner was in that place.

5 Nowe there was in that place a towre of fiftie cubites high, full of ashes, and it had an instrument that turned round and on euery side it rouled downe into the ashes:

6 And there whosoeuer was condemned of sacrilege, or of any other grieuous crime, was cast of all men to the death.

7 And so it came to passe that this wicked man should die such a death, and it was a most iust thing that Menelaus should want burial.

8 For because he had committed many sinnes by the altar, whose fire and ashes were holy: he himselfe also died in the ashes.

9 Nowe the King raged in his minde, and came to shewe himselfe more cruell vnto the Iewes then his father.

10 Which things when Judas perceiued, he commaunded the people to call vpon the Lorde night and day, that if euer he had holpen them, he would now helpe them, when they should be put from their Lawe, from their countrey, and from the holy Temple:

11 And that hee would not suffer the people which a litle afore began to recouer, to be subdued vnto the blasphemous nations.

12 So when they had done this all together, and besought the Lord for mercy with weeping and fasting, and falling downe three dayes together, Judas exhorted them to make themselues ready.

13 And he being apart with the Elders, tooke counsell to goe foorth, afore the king brought his hoste into Judea, and should take the citie, and commit the matter to the helpe of the Lord.

14 So committing the charge to the Lorde of the worlde, hee exhorted his souldiers to fight manfully, euen vnto death for the Lawes, the Temple, the citie, their countrey, and the common wealth, and camped by Modin.

15 And so giuing his souldiers for a watche word, The victorie of God, hee picked out the manliest yong men, and went by night into the kings campe, and slewe of the hoste fourteene thousand men, and the greatest Elephant with all that sate vpon him.

16 Thus when they had brought a great feare, and trouble in the campe, and all things went prosperously with them, they departed.

17 This was done in the breake of the day, because the protection of the Lorde did helpe them.

18 Now when the king had tasted the manlinesse of the Iewes, hee went about to take the holdes by policie, 19 And marched towarde Beth-sura, which was a strong holde of the Iewes: but hee was chased away, hurt, and lost of his men.

20 For Judas had sent vnto them that were in it, such things as were necessary.

21 But Rhodocus which was in the Iewes hoste, disclosed the secrets to the enemies: therefore he was sought out, and when they had gotten him, they put him in prison.

22 After this did the King commune with them that were in Beth-sura, and tooke truce with them, departed, and ioyned battell with Judas, who ouercame him.

Or, gaue and tooke the right hand.

23 But when hee vnderstood, that Philip (whom hee had left to be ouerseer of his business at Antiochia) did rebell against him, hee was astonished, so that hee yeelded himselfe to the Iewes, and made them an oath to do all things that were right, and was appeased towarde them, and offered sacrifice and adorned the Temple, and shewed great gentlenesse to the place,

24 And embraced Maccabeus, & made him captaine and gouernour from Ptolemais vnto the Gerrenians, 25 Neuertheless,

25 Neuertheleſſe, when hee came to Ptolemais, the people of the citie were not content with this agreement: and becauſe they were grieued, they would that hee ſhould breake the couenants.

26 Then went Lyſias vp into the iudgement ſeate, and excuſed the fact as well as hee coulde, and perſwaded them, and pacified them, and made them well affectioned, and came againe vnto Antiochia. This is the matter concerning the Kings iourney, and his returne.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Demetrius mooued by Alcimus ſendeth Nicanor to kill the Iewes. 18 Nicanor maketh a couenant with the Iewes, 29 Which hee yet breaketh through the motion of the King. 37 Nicanor commaunded Razis to be taken, who ſlayeth himſelfe.

AFter three yeeres was Iudas informed that Demetrius the ſonne of Seleucus was come vp with a great power and nauie by the hauen of Tripolis,

2 And had wonne the countrey, and ſlaine Antiochus and his lieutenant Lyſias.

3 Now Alcimus, which had bene the high Prieſt, and wilfully defiled himſelfe in the time that all things were confounded, ſeeing that by no meanes hee could ſaue himſelfe, nor haue any more entrance to the holy Altar,

4 Hee came to King Demetrius in the hundreth fiftie and one yeere, preſenting vnto him a crowne of golde, and a palme, & of the boughes, which were vſed ſolemnely in the Temple, and that day he helde his tongue.

5 But when he had gotten opportunitie, and occaſion for his rage, Demetrius called him to counſell, and aſked him what deuiſes or counſels the Iewes leaned vnto.

6 To the which hee anſwered, The Iewes that be called Aſideans, whoſe captaine is Iudas Maccabeus, maintaine warres, & make inſurrections, and will not let the Realme be in peace.

7 Therefore I, being depriued of my fathers honour (I meane the hie Prieſthoode) am nowe come hither,

8 Partly becauſe I was well affectioned vnto the Kings affaires, and ſecondly becauſe I ſought the profite of mine owne citizens: for all our people, through their raſhneſſe, are not a little troubled.

9 Wherefore, O King, ſeeing thou knoweſt all theſe things, make prouiſion for the countrey, and our nation which is abuſed, according to thine owne humanitie, that is ready to helpe all men.

10 For as long as Iudas liueth, it is not poſſible that the matter ſhould be well.

11 When hee had ſpoken theſe wordes, other friendes alſo hauing euill will at Iudas, let Demetrius on fire.

12 Who immediatly called for Nicanor the ruler of the Elephants, and made him captaine ouer Iudea, 13 And ſent him forth, commanding him to ſlay Iudas, and to ſcatter them that were with him, and to make Alcimus high Prieſt of the great Temple.

14 Then the Heathen which fled out of Iudea from Iudas, came to Nicanor by flockes, thinking the harme & calamities of the Iewes to be their welfare.

15 Nowe when the Iewes heard of Nicanors comming, and the gathering together of the heathen, they ſprinckled themſelues with earth, and prayed vnto him which had appointed himſelfe a people for euer, and did alwayes defend his owne portion with euident tokens.

16 So at the commandement of the captain, they remooued ſtraightwaies from thence, and came to the towne of Deſſau, 17 Where Simon Iudas brother had ioyned battell with Nicanor, and was ſomewhat aſtoniſhed through the ſudden ſilence of the enemies.

18 Neuertheleſſe Nicanor hearing the manlineſſe of them that were with Iudas, and the bold ſtomackes that they had for their countrey, durſt not proue the matter with bloodſheading.

19 Wherefore he ſent Poſſidonius, ‖ Theodolus, and ‖ Matthias before to make peace. ‖ Or, Theodotus. ‖ Or, Mattathias.

20 So when they had taken long aduiſement thereupon, and the captaine ſhewed it vnto the multitude, they were agreed in one minde, and conſented to the couenants.

21 And they appointed a day when they ſhould particularly come together: ſo when the day was come, they ſet for euery man his ſtoole.

22 Neuertheleſſe Iudas commaunded certaine men of armes to waite in conuenient places, leaſt there ſhould ſuddenly ariſe any euill through the enemies: and ſo they communed together of the things whereupon they had agreed.

23 Nicanor, while hee abode at Ieruſalem, did none hurt, but ſent away the people that were gathered together.

24 Hee ‖ loued Iudas, and fauoured him in his heart. ‖ Or, had Iudas before his eyes.

25 He prayed him alſo to take a wife, and to beget children: ſo he maried, and they liued together.

26 But Alcimus perceiuing the loue that was betweene them, and vnderſtanding the couenants that were made, came to Demetrius, & told him, that Nicanor had taken ſtrange matters in hand, and ordeined Iudas a traitor to the Realme, to be his ſucceſſor.

27 Then the King was diſpleaſed, and by the reportes of this wicked man, hee wrote to Nicanor, ſaying, that hee was very angry for the couenants, commanding him that he ſhould ſend Maccabeus in all haſte priſoner vnto Antiochia.

28 When theſe things came to Nicanor, hee was aſtoniſhed and ſore grieued, that hee ſhould breake the things wherein they had agreed, ſeeing that that man had committed no wickedneſſe.

29 But becauſe it was not commodious to him to withſtand the King, he ſought craftily to accompliſh it.

30 Notwithſtanding when Maccabeus perceiued that Nicanor began to bee rough vnto him, and that hee intreated him more rudely then he was wont, hee perceiued that ſuch rigor came not of good, and therefore hee gathered a fewe of his men, and withdrewe himſelfe from Nicanor.

31 But the other perceiuing that hee was preuented by Maccabeus worthy policie, came into the great and holy Temple, and commanded the Priests, which were offering their vsuall sacrifices, to deliuer him the man.

32 And when they sware that they could not tell where the man was, whom he sought, 33 He stretched out his right hand towarde the Temple, and made an oathe in this maner, If ye will not deliuer mee Iudas as a prisoner, I wil make this Temple of God a plaine field, and will breake downe the altar, and wil erect a notable temple vnto Bacchus.

34 After these wordes he departed: then the Priestes lift vp their handes towarde heauen, and belought him that was euer the defender of their nation, saying in this maner, 35 Thou, O Lorde of all things, which hast neede of nothing, wouldest that the Temple of thine habitation should be among vs.

36 Therefore now, O most holy Lord, keepe this house euer vndefiled, which lately was clensed, and stoppe all the mouthes of the vnrighteous.

37 Nowe was there accused vnto Nicanor, Razis one of the Elders of Ierusalem, a louer of the citie, & a man of very good report, which for his loue was called a father of the Iewes.

38 For this man afore times when the Iewes were minded to keepe themselues vndefiled and pure, being accused to bee of the Religion of the Iewes, did offer to spend his body and life with all constancie for the Religion of the Iewes.

39 So Nicanor willing to declare the hatred that he bare to the Iewes, sent about fiue hundreth men of warre to take him.

40 For hee thought by taking him to doe the Iewes much hurt.

14 But when this company woulde haue taken his castle, and would haue broken the gates by violence, & commanded to bring fire to burne the gates, so that hee was ready to bee taken on euery side, he fell on his sword,

42 Willing rather to die manfully, then to giue himselfe into the handes of wicked men, and to suffer reproche vnworthy for his noble stocke.

43 Notwithstanding what time as he missed of his stroke for haste, and the multitude rushed in violently betweene the doores, he ranne boldly to the wall, and cast himselfe downe manfully among the multitude:

44 Which conueyed themselues lightly away, and gaue place, so that hee fell vpon his belly.

45 Neuertheless while there was yet breath in him, being kindled in his minde, hee rose vp, and though his blood gushed out like a fountain, and he was very sore wounded, yet hee ran thorow the middes of the people,

46 And gate him to the top of an hie rocke: so when his blood was vtterly gone, hee tooke out his owne bowels with both his handes, and threwe them vpon the people, calling vpon the Lorde of life and Spirit, that hee would restore them againe vnto him, and thus he died.

a As this priuate example ought not to be followed of the godly, because it is contrary to the worde of God, although the authour seeme here to approue it: so that place as touching prayer, Chap. 12. 44. though Iudas had appointed it, yet were it not sufficient to proue a doctrine, because it is onely a particular example.

CHAP. XV.

1 Nicanor goeth about to come vpon Iudas on the Sabbath day. 5 The blasphemie of Nicanor. 14 Maccabeus expounding vnto the Iewes the vision incourageth them. 21 The prayer of Maccabeus. 30 Maccabeus commaundeth Nicanors head and hands to be cut off, & his tongue to be giuen vnto the fowles. 39 The authour excuseth himselfe.

NOwe when Nicanor knewe that Iudas and his company were in the countrey of Samaria, he thought with al assurance to come vpon them, vpon the Sabbath day.

2 Neuertheless the Iewes that were compelled to goe with him, sayd, O kill not so cruelly and barbarously, but honour and sanctifie the day that is appointed by him that seeth all things.

3 But this most wicked person demaunded, Is there a Lord in heauen, that commanded the Sabbath day to be kept?

4 And when they sayde, There is a liuing Lord, which ruleth in the heauen, who commanded the seuenth day to be kept,

5 Then he sayde, And I am mightie vpon earth to commaunde them to arme themselues, and to performe the kings businesse. Notwithstanding hee coulde not accomplish his wicked enterprise.

6 For Nicanor lifted vp with great pride, purposed to set vp a memorial of the victorie obtained of all them that were with Iudas.

7 But Maccabeus had euer sure confidence and a perfect hope that the Lorde would helpe him,

8 And exhorted his people not to bee afrayde at the comming of the heathen, but alway to remember the helpe that had bene shewed vnto them from heauen, and to trust nowe also that they shoulde haue the victorie by the Almightie.

9 Thus he encouraged them by the law and Prophets, putting them in remembrance of the battels that they had wonne afore, and so made them more willing,

10 And stirred vp their heartes, and shewed them also the deceitfulnesse of the heathen, and how they had broken their othes.

11 Thus hee armed euery one of them, not with the assurance of shieldes and speares, but with wholesome wordes and exhortations, and shewed them a dreame worthy to bee beleeued, and reioyced them greatly.

12 And this was his vision, He thought that he sawe Onias, (which had bene the hie Priest, a vertuous and a good man, reuerent in behauiour, and of sober conuersation, well spoken, and one that had bene exercised in all points of godlinesse from a childe) holding vp his handes toward heauen, and praying for the whole people of the Iewes.

13 ¶ After this there appeared vnto him another man which was aged, honourable, and of a wonderfull dignitie, and excellencie aboue him.

14 And Onias spake, and sayd, This is a louer of the brethren, who prayeth much for the people, and for the holy citie, to wit, Jeremias the Prophet of God.

15 He thought also that Jeremias held out his right hande, and gaue vnto Judas a sworde of golde: and as he gaue it, he spake thus, 16 Take this holy sworde a gift from God, wherewith thou shalt wounde the aduersaries.

17 And

17 And so being comforted by the wordes of Iudas, which were very sweete & able to stirre them vp to valiauntnes & to encourage the hearts of the yong men, they determined to pitch no campe, but courageously to set vpon them, and manfully to assaile them, and to try the matter hand to hand, because the citie and the Sanctuarie and the Temple were in danger.

18 As for their wiues and children, and brethren, and kinsfolkes, they set lesse by their danger: but their greatest and principall feare was for the holy Temple.

19 Againe they that were in the citie, were carefull for the armie that was abroad.

20 Now whiles they all waited for the triall of the matter, and the enemies nowe met with them, and the host was set in aray, & the ‖ beasts were separated into conuenient places, and the horsemen were placed in the wings:

‖Or, Elephants.

21 Maccabeus considering the comming of the multitude, and the diuers preparations of weapons, and the fiercenesse of the beasts, held vp his hands toward heauen, calling vpon the Lorde that doeth wonders, and that looked vpon them, knowing that the victory commeth not by the weapons, but that he giueth the victorie to them that are worthy, as seemeth good vnto him.

22 Therefore in his praier he said after this manner, O Lord, thou that didst send thine Angel in the time of Ezechias king of Iudea, who in the host of Sennacherib slewe an hundreth fourescore and fiue thousand,

2. Kin. 19. 35
Isa. 37. 36.
Ecclus. 48. 21

23 Send now also thy good Angel before vs, O Lorde of heauens, for a feare and dread vnto them, 24 And let thē be discomfited by the strength of thine armie, which come against thine holy people to blaspheme. Thus with these wordes he made an ende.

25 Then Nicanor and they that were with him, drewe neere with trumpets and shoutings for ioy.

26 But Iudas and his company praying and calling vpon God, encountred with the enemies, 27 So that with their handes they fought, but with their heartes they prayed vnto God, and slewe no lesse then nine and thirty thouland men: for through the presence of God they were wonderously comforted.

28 Nowe when they left off, & were turning againe with ioy, they vnderstood that Nicanor himselfe was slaine for all his armour.

29 Then they made a great shout and a cry, praysing the Almightie in their own language.

30 Therfore Iudas, which was euer the chiefe defender of his citizens both in body and minde, and which bare euer good affection towardes them of his nation, commanded to smite off Nicanors head, with his hand and shoulder, and to bring it to Ierusalem.

31 And when he came there, he called all thē of his nation, and set the Priestes by the altar, and sent for them of the castel, 32 And shewed them wicked Nicenors head and the hand of the blasphemer which he had holden vp against the holy Temple of the Almightie with proud wags.

33 Yee caused the tongue also of wicked Nicanor to be cut in litle pieces, and to be cast vnto the foules, and that the rewards of his madnes should be hanged vp before the Temple.

34 So euery man praised toward the heauen the glorious Lorde, saying, Blessed be her, that hath kept his place vndefiled.

35 Yee hanged also Nicanors head vpon the high castle, for an euident and plaine token vnto all of the helpe of God.

36 And so they established all together by a common decree that they would in no case suffer this day without keeping it holy:

37 And that the feast should be the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth, which is called Adar in the Syrians language, the day before Mardocheus day.

38 Thus farre as concerning Nicanors matters, and from that time the Hebrewes had the citie in possession. And here wil I also make an end.

39 If I haue done well, and as the storie required, it is the thing that I desired: but if I haue spoken slenderly and barely, it is that I could.

40 For as it is hurtful to drinke wine alone, and then againe water: and as wine tempered with water is pleasant and delighteth the taste: so the setting out of the matter deliteth the eares of them that read the storie. And here shal be the end.

GOD.

THe bookes of the old Teſtament doe teach vs that the ſame God, whom Adam, Noe, Abraham, Iſaac, Iacob, Dauid and the other fathers did worſhip, is *the onely true God, and that he the ſame is Almightie and a euerlaſting: who of his meere goodneſſe hath created by his worde b heauen and earth, and all that is in them: From whom all things doe come: without whom there is nothing at all: And that he is c iuſt and merciſull: who alſo d worketh all in all, e after his owne will: f To whom it is not lawfull to ſay, wherefore hee doeth thus or thus.

Creation of man.

MOreouer, theſe bookes teach vs, that this very God Almightie, after he created al things, ſhope alſo Adam the firſt man, g to the image and ſpiritual ſimilitude of himſelfe, and that he did conſtitute him Lord ouer all things that he had created in earth. Which Adam, by the enuy and fraud of the deuil, tranſgreſſing the precept of his creatour, h by this his ſinne brought in ſuch and ſo great ſinne into the world, that we which be ſprung from him by the fleſhe, i bee in nature the children of wrath, and thereupon we be made ſubiect and thrall to death, to damnation, to the yoke and tyranny of the deuil.

FVrthermore, we are taught by theſe excellent bookes, that God promiſed to k Adam, l Abraham, m Iſaac, n Iacob, o Dauid, & to other fathers of the old time, that he would ſend that bleſſed ſeede, his ſonne Ieſus Chriſt our Sauiour, which ſhould deliuer all thoſe from ſinne, and from the p tyranny of the deuil, which by a liuely and working faith ſhould beleeue this promiſe, and put their truſt in Ieſus Chriſt, hoping that of him and by him, they ſhould obteine this deliuerance.

The lawe

ALſo they giue vs to vnderſtand, that in the meane ſeaſon, while thoſe fathers the Iſraelites looked for the ſaluation and deliuerance promiſed (for that the nature of man is ſuch, ſo proude and ſo corrupt, that thoſe would not willingly acknowledge themſelues to be ſinners, which had need of the Sauiour promiſed) God the creator gaue by Moſes his q Law written in two Tables of ſtone: that by it, ſinne and the malice of mans heart being r knowen, men mought more vehemently thirſt for the ſ comming of Ieſus Chriſt, who ſhould redeeme and deliuer them from ſinne: which thing, neither the Lawe, nor yet the ſacrifices and oblations of the Lawe did t performe. For they were ſhadowes and figures of the true oblation of the body of Chriſt: by which oblation all u ſinne ſhoulde bee blotted out, and quite put away.

Chriſt God our Sauiour came.

BY the bookes of the newe Teſtament we be taught, that Chriſt ſo afore promiſed (* which is God aboue all things moſt bleſſed for euer,) he, I ſay, was ſhadowed in the bookes of the olde Teſtament, and in ſacrifices figured, that he was a ſent at the laſt from the father, the ſelfe ſame time which the father did conſtitute within himſelfe: I ſay, b at that time, when all wickednеſſe abounded in the world, then he was ſent: And this Ieſus our Sauiour, being borne in the fleſh, c ſuffered death, and roſe againe from the dead. Which actes of his were not done by him in reſpect of the d good workes of any man (for we were all ſinners) but that this God our father ſhould e appeare true, in exhibiting the aboundant f riches of his grace which he promiſed, and that g through his mercy hee mought bring vs to ſaluation.

The holy Ghoſt. Faith.

Nowe that wee ſhould acknowledge this ſingular and excellent benefite of God towards vs, Almightie God r giueth vs his holy Spirit: the ſ fruite and effect of the which, is faith in God, and in his Chriſt. For, without the holy Ghoſt, by which we are inſtructed and t ſealed, neither can we beleeue that God the Father ſent Meſſias, nor yet that Ieſus is Chriſt: For u no man (ſaith Paul) can ſay that Ieſus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghoſt. The x ſame Spirit witneſſeth to our Spirit, that we are the children of God, y and powreth into our bowels that charitie which Paul deſcribed to the Corinthians. Furthermore, ẏ holy Spirit doth giue vs hope, which is a ſure looking for eternal life, wherof he himſelfe is the certain z token & pledge. Alſo he giueth vs other * ſpiritual gifts, of the which Paul writeth to ẏ Galatians. Therfore ẏ benefit of faith is not to be deſpiſed, or litle to be ſet by. For by ẏ meanes of this truſt & a faith in Chriſt, which b worketh by charitie, & ſheweth it ſelfe forth by ẏ works of charitie, mouing man thereto, we are c iuſtified & ſanctified: that is to ſay, God & the Father of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt (which is made our [d] Father alſo by him, being our [e] brother) doeth accompt vs to be iuſt and holy through his grace, and through the merit of his ſonne Ieſus Chriſt, not [f] imputing our ſinnes to vs, ſo farre foorth that we ſhould ſuffer the paines of hell for them.

Good workes.

Finally, Chriſt himſelfe came into the world, to the intent that wee through him being ſanctified and cleanſed from our ſinnes, following his will in good workes, ſhould deny the things pertaining to the fleſh, and freely [h] ſerue him in righteouſneſſe and holineſſe all the dayes of our life: and that [i] by good workes (which God hath prepared for vs to walke in) we ſhould [k] ſhewe our ſelues to bee called to his grace, and gift of faith: which good works who ſo hath not, doeth ſhew himſelfe not to haue ſuch a faith in Chriſt as is required in vs.

Chriſt our Maſter and teacher.

To Chriſt muſt we come, and [l] follow him with a cheereſull minde, that he may teach: For he is [m] our maſter, [n] lowly and humble of heart: hee is to vs an [o] example, whereby wee muſt learne the rule to liue well.

Biſhop. Mediatour. Aduocate.

Moreouer, hee is our [p] Biſhop, and our [q] high Prieſt, which did himſelfe offer vp for vs his owne blood, being the onely [r] mediatour betweene God and men: Who now ſitteth at the right hand of God the Father, being made our [ſ] aduocate, making prayer and intercеſſion for vs: who doubtleſſe ſhall obteine for vs [t] whatſoeuer we ſhall deſire, either of him, or els of his Father in his Name, if ſo be that we thus deſiring, ſhall beleeue that he will ſo doe: for thus hath he promiſed. Therefore let vs not doubt, if we ſinne at any time, to come with [u] repentance (to the which hee doeth inuite and ſtirre vs at the very beginning of his preaching) and with ſure truſt to the [z] throne of his grace, with this beliefe, that we ſhall obtaine mercie. For therefore [y] came he into the world, that hee might ſaue ſinners by his grace.

Iudgment.

THis is verily Chriſt Ieſus, which ſhall come at a [a] certaine time appointed by his Father, and ſhall ſit in great maieſtie to [a] iudge all men, and to render to euery man [b] the workes of his body according to that he hath done, whether it be good or euil. And hee ſhall ſay to them which ſhall be on the right ſide, which in this world did looke for the good things to come (that is to ſay, life euerlaſting:) [c] Come ye bleſſed of my Father, enioy the kingdome that hath bene prepared for you from the beginning of the world. But to them which ſhall be on the left ſide, hee ſhall ſay: Depart from me ye curſed into euerlaſting fire prepared for the deuil and his Angels. And then [d] ſhall the ende be, when Chriſt hauing vtterly vanquiſhed all maner of enemies, ſhall deliuer vp the kingdome to God the Father.

Eternall life.

Eternall fire.

To what intent the ſcripturers were written.

TO the intent that we mought vnderſtand theſe things, the [e] ſacred bookes of the Bible were deliuered to vs by the goodnes of God through his holy Spirit, with the preaching of that doctrine which is conteined in them, and with his Sacraments, by which the trueth of his doctrine is ſealed vp to vs that we [f] mought vnderſtand, I ſay, and beleeue that there is one onely true God, and one Sauiour Ieſus Chriſt, whom (as hee had promiſed) he hath ſent: [g] and that we beleeuing, mought haue in his Name life euerlaſting.

Chriſt the onely foundation.

BEſide this [h] foundation, no man can lay any other in the Church of Chriſt: and vpon this foundation the Church doeth ſtand ſure and ſtedfaſt. And Paul willeth him to bee [i] accurſed which ſhall preach any other faith and ſaluation, then by Ieſus Chriſt, yea, although he were an Angel from heauen.

For [k] of him, through him, and for him, are all things: To whome with the Father and the holy Ghoſt, be all honour and glory, world without ende, Amen.

Certaine

Certaine queſtions and anſweres touching the doctrine of Predeſtination, the vſe of Gods Word and Sacraments.

Queſtion.

WHy doe men ſo much vary in matters of Religion?

Anſwere.

Becauſe all haue not the like meaſure of knowledge, neither doe al beleeue the Goſpel of Chriſt.

Queſtion.

What is the reaſon thereof?

Anſwere.

Becauſe they onely beleeue the Goſpell and doctrine of Chriſt, which are ordeined vnto eternall life.

Queſtion.

Are all ordained vnto eternall life?

Anſwere.

Some are veſſels of wrath ordeined vnto deſtruction, as others are veſſels of mercie prepared to glory.

Queſtion.

How ſtandeth it with Gods iuſtice, that ſome are appointed vnto damnation?

Anſwere.

Very wel: becauſe al men haue in themſelues ſinne, which deſerueth no leſſe: and therefore the mercie of God is wonderfull in that he vouchſafeth to ſaue ſome of that ſinful race, and to bring them to the knowledge of the trueth.

Queſtion.

If Gods ordinance and determination muſt of neceſſitie take effect, then what nerde any man to care? for hee that liueth wel, muſt needes be damned, if he be thereunto ordeined: and hee that liueth ill muſt needes be ſaued, if he be thereunto appointed.

Anſwere.

Not ſo: for it is not poſſible, that either the elect ſhould alwayes bee without care to do well, or that ✠ reprobate ſhould haue any will therunto. For to haue either good will or good worke, is a teſtimonie of the Spirit of God, which is giuen to the elect only, wherby faith is ſo wrought in them, that being graft in Chriſt, they growe in holineſſe to that glory, whereunto they are appointed. Neither are they ſo vaine as once to think that they may do as they liſt themſelues, becauſe they are predeſtinate vnto ſaluation: but rather they endeuour to walke in ſuch good workes as God in Chriſt Jeſus hath ordeined them vnto, and prepared for thē to be occupied in, to their owne comfort, ſtay, and aſſurance, and to his glory.

Queſtion.

But howe ſhall I know my ſelfe to bee one of thoſe whome God hath ordained to life eternall?

Anſwere.

By the motions of ſpirituall life, which belongeth onely to the children of God: by the which that life is perceiued, euen as the life of this body is diſcerned by the ſenſe and motions thereof.

Queſtion.

What meane you by the motion of ſpirituall life?

Anſwere.

I meane remorſe of conſcience, ioyned with the lothing of ſinne, & loue of righteouſnes: the hand of faith reaching vnto life eternall in Chriſt, the conſcience comforted in diſtreſſe, and raiſed vp to confidence in God by the worke of his Spirit: a thankfull remembrance of Gods benefites receiued, and the vſing of all aduerſities as occaſion of amendment ſent from God.

Queſtion.

Cannot ſuch periſh as at ſome time or other feele theſe motions within themſelues?

Anſwere.

It is not poſſible that they ſhould: for as Gods purpoſe is not changeable, ſo he repenteth not the gifts and graces of his adoption: neither doth he caſt off thoſe whom he hath once receiued.

Queſtion.

Why then ſhould we pray by the example of Dauid, that hee caſt vs not from his face, and that he take not his holy Spirite from vs?

Anſwer.

In ſo praying wee make proteſtation of the weakneſſe of fleſh, which moueth vs to doubt: yet ſhould not we haue courage to aſke, if wee were not aſſured that God will giue according to his purpoſe and promiſe, that which we require.

Queſtion.

Doe the children of God feele the motions aforeſaid alwayes alike?

Anſwere.

No truely: for God ſometime to proue his, ſeemeth to leaue them in ſuch ſort, that the fleſh ouermatcheth the ſpirite, whereof ariſeth trouble of conſcience for the time:

yet the ſpirit of adoption is neuer taken from them, that haue once receiued it: elſe might they periſh. But as in many diſeaſes of the body, the powers of bodily life are letted: So in ſome aſſaults theſe motions of ſpirituall life are not perceiued, becauſe they lie hidden in our manifold infirmities, as the fire couered with aſhes, Yet as after ſickneſs commeth health, and after clouds the Sunne ſhineth cleare: ſo the powers of ſpirituall life will more or leſſe be felt and perceiued in the children of God.

Queſtion.

What if I neuer feele theſe motions in my ſelfe, ſhall I deſpaire and thinke my ſelfe a caſtaway?

Anſwere.

God forbid: for God calleth his at what time hee ſeeth good: and the inſtruments whereby hee vſually calleth, haue not the like effect at all times, yet it is not good to neglect the meanes whereby God hath determined to worke the ſaluation of his. For as ware is not melted without heat, nor clay hardened but my meanes therof: ſo God vſeth meanes both to draw thoſe vnto himſelfe, whome hee hath appointed vnto ſaluation, and alſo to bewray the wickedneſſe of them whom he iuſtly condemneth.

Queſtion.

By what meanes vſeth God to draw men to himſelfe that they may be ſaued?

Anſwere.

By the preaching of his Word and the miniſtring of his Sacraments thereunto annexed.

Queſtion.

What meane you by the Word of God?

Anſwere.

I meane the doctrine of the Prophetes and Apoſtles which they receiued of the ſpirit of God, and haue left written in that Booke which wee commonly cal the Olde and New Teſtament.

Queſtion.

Howe may I bee aſſured, that it is the Word of God, which that Booke conteineth?

Anſwere.

By the Maieſtie of God appearing in that plaine and ſimple doctrine: by the pureneſſe, vprightneſſe and holineſſe thereof: by the certaintie of euery thing therein affirmed: by the ſucceſſe of al things according to it: by perpetuall conſent which is to be ſeene in euery part thereof: by the excellencie of the matters vttered: But eſpecially by the teſtimonie of Gods Spirite, whereby it was written, who moueth the hearts of thoſe in whome it reſteth, to conſent vnto the Word, and reuerently to embrace it.

Queſtion.

Howe doeth this Worde of God ſerue to draw men vnto him?

Anſwere.

When it is ſo preached and heard, that men may vnderſtand & learne what God teacheth: accept & receiue thankfully that which is therby giuen, promiſed and aſſured: and bee moued with deſire and diligence to doe that which it commandeth.

Queſtion.

Doe the Sacraments alſo ſerue to this ende?

Anſwere.

Yea verily: that by ſight, taſte and feeling, as well as by hearing, wee might bee inſtructed, aſſured, and brought to obedience.

Queſtion.

Howe doeth our Baptiſme ſerue hereunto?

Anſwere.

It teacheth vs to put on Chriſt, that with his righteouſnes our ſinfulnes may bee hidden: it aſſureth vs, that wee are ſo graft into Chriſt, that al our ſinnes by him are waſhed awap: it chargeth vs to die to ſinne, to cõtinue in the profeſſion of Chriſt, and to loue eche other.

Queſtion.

Hath the Lords Supper alſo this vſe?

Anſwere.

Yea doubtleſſe: for it teacheth, that the body and blood of Chriſt crucified is the onely foode of the newe borne children of God: it aſſureth that Chriſt is wholy theirs to giue & to continue life ſpirituall and heauenly to body & ſoule, to nourith, ſtrengthen, refreſh, and to make chearefull the hearts of the elect: it requireth thankfull remembrance of the death of Chriſt, vnitie among thoſe that doe profeſſe him, with a true confeſſion of his truetly.

Queſtion.

Why is not this vſe of the Sacraments commonly knowen?

Anſwere.

Becauſe they are abuſed for fourme, for faſhion, for cuſtome and company, without regarde vnto the Worde, whereunto they are ſo annexed, that they ought not vpon any neceſſitie by any perſon be ſeuered from it, which teacheth the right vſe of euery thing.

Queſtion.

I perceiue that nothing is more neceſſary then the Word of God: therfore I pray you ſhew mee how I may attaine to ſome knowledge and profite thereby.

Anſwere.

By diligent hearing of ſuch as preach it, by continual and orderly exerciſe of reading and praying.

Queſtion.

What orderly exerciſe thinke you moſt conuenient to be vſed herein?

Anſwere.

Anſwere.

That as euery day, twiſe at the leaſt, we moſt commonly receiue foode to the nouriſhment of this corporall life: ſo no day be let paſſe without ſome reading in ſuch ſort that occaſiõ therby may be taken to ſpeake againe vnto God by prayer, as hee in his Word ſpeaketh vnto vs: So that at the leaſt two Chapters would bee orderly and aduiſedly read euery day, al other buſines, impediments and lets ſet apart.

Queſtion.

This ſeemeth very eaſie to bee done, what thinke you elſe requiſite?

Anſwere.

That ſome eſpecial places of Scripture be ſo committed to memory, that the mind may euer bee furniſhed with ſome good matter againſt all temptations. To which ende I note theſe Scriptures vnto you, wherevnto you may ioyne other at your owne choiſe: Pſalmes 37. 50. 139. Eſa. 53. Iohn 17. Rom. 8. 1. Tim. 4.

Queſtion.

But the Scriptures are hard and not eaſie to vnderſtand.

Anſwere.

Diſcourage not your ſelfe herewith: for God maketh them eaſie to ſuch as in humilitie ſeeke him: and that hardneſſe that you finde ſerueth to moone you to the more diligence, and to make inquirie of ſuch as haue knowledge, when any doubt ariſeth. That which you perceiue not at one time, God ſhall reueale at another: So that you ſhall haue your growing in grace, knowledge and godlineſſe to Gods glory, and your owne comfort in Chriſt, whoſe Name for euer be praiſed, AMEN.

¶ The

a This word signifieth good tidings, and is taken here for the storie, which conteineth the ioyfull message of the comming of the sonne of God promised from the beginning.
b That is, written and taught by Matthewe.

¶ The holy Gospel of Iesus Christ, according to Matthewe.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN this historie written by Matthewe, Marke, Luke, and Iohn, the Spirit of God so gouerned their hearts, that although they were foure in number, yet in effect and purpose they so consent, as though the whole had bene composed by any one of them. And albeit in style and maner of writing they be diuers, and sometime one writeth more largely that which the other doeth abbridge: neuertheless in matter and argument they all tende to one ende: which is, to publish to the worlde the fauour of GOD towarde mankinde through Christ Iesus, whome the Father hath giuen as a pledge of his mercie and loue. And for this cause they intitle their storie, Gospel, which signifieth good tidings, for asmuch as God hath performed in deede that which the fathers hoped for. So that hereby we are admonished to forsake the world, and the vanities thereof, and with most affectioned hearts embrace this incomparable treasure freely offered vnto vs: for there is no ioy nor consolation, no peace nor quietnesse, no felicitie nor saluation, but in Iesus Christ, who is the very substance of this Gospel, and in whom all the promises are Yea, and Amen. And therefore vnder this worde is conteined the whole Newe Testament: but commonly we vse this name for the historie, which the foure Euangelistes write, conteyning Christes comming in the flesh, his death and resurrection, which is the perfect summe of our saluation. Matthewe, Marke, and Luke are more copious in describing his life & death: but Iohn more laboureth to set forth his doctrine, wherein both Christes office, and also the vertue of his death and resurrection more fully appeare: for without this, to knowe that Christ was borne, dead and risen againe, should nothing profite vs. The which thing notwithstanding that the three first touche partly, as he also sometime intermedleth the historicall narration, yet Iohn chiefly is occupied herein. And therefore as a most learned interpreter writeth, they describe, as it were, the body, and Iohn setteth before our eyes the soule. Wherefore the same aptly termeth the Gospel written by Iohn, the key which openeth the doore to the vnderstanding of ỹ others: for whosoeuer doeth know the office, vertue and power of Christ, shall reade that which is written of the Sonne of God come to be the redeemer of the world, with most profite. Now as concerning the writers of this historie, it is euident that Matthewe was a Publicane, or custome gatherer, and was thence chosen of Christ to be an Apostle. Marke is thought to haue bene Peters disciple, and to haue planted the first Church at Alexandria, where he dyed the eight yeere of the reigne of Nero. Luke was a Physition of Antiochia and became Pauls disciple, and fellowe in all his trauels: he liued fourescore and foure yeeres, and was buried at Constantinople. Iohn was that Apostle whome the Lorde loued, the sonne of Zebedeus, and brother of Iames: he dyed three score yeeres after Christ, and was buried neere to the citie of Ephesus.

c This is the rehearsal of ỹ progenie, whereof Iesus Christ is sprong according to the flesh.
d So called, for that he came of the stocke of Dauid.
e These two are first rehearsed, because Christ was especially promised to come of them and their seede, and therefore Christ commonly was called the sonne of Dauid, because the promes was more euidently confirmed vnto him. *Gen.*21.2. *Gen.*25.24. *Gen.*29.35. *Gen.*38.27.

16 And Jacob begate Joseph, the husband of Marie, [k] of whom was borne IESVS, that is called [l] Christ.
17 So all the generations from Abraham to Dauid, are fourteene generations. And from Dauid until they were caried awap into Babylon, fourteene generations: and after they were caried awap into Babylon, until Christ, fourteene generations.
18 ¶ Now the birth of IESVS Christ was thus, When as his mother Marie was [m] betrothed to Joseph, [n] before they came together, she was found [o] with childe of the holy Ghost.
19 Then Joseph her husband, being a [p] iust man, & not willing to [q] make her a publike example, was minded to put her awap secretly.
20 But whiles he thought these things, beholde, the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto him in a [r] dreame, saying, Joseph the [s] sonne of Dauid, feare not to take Marie for thy wife: for that which is conceiued in her, is of the holy Ghost.
21 And she shall bring forth a sonne, & thou shalt [t] call his name [u] IESVS: for he shal [x] saue his people from their sinnes.
22 And all this was done that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken of the Lord by the Prophet, saying,
23 [y] Behold, a Virgine shalbe with childe, and shal beare a sonne, and [z] they shal call his name Emmanuel, which is by interpretation, [a] God with vs.
24 ¶ Then Joseph, being raised from sléepe, did as the Angel of the Lord had inioyned him, and tooke his wife, 25 But knewe her not, till she had brought forth her [b] first borne sonne, and he called his name IESVS.

[k] This name putteth him in remembrance of Gods promisse to Dauid. Luke 1.31. [l] That is, a Sauiour. Act. 4.12. Phil. 2.10. Isa. 7.14. [m] Or, thou. [n] God is ioyned with vs by the meanes of Iesus Christ, who is both God & man. [o] Christ is here called the first borne, because she had neuer any before, and not in respect of any she had after. Neither yet doth this word (til) import alwayes a time following: wherein the contrarie may be confirmed, as our Sauiour saying, that he will be present with his disciples till the ende of the world, meaneth not, that after this world he will not be with them.

CHAP. II.

1 The time and place of Christes birth. 11 The wise men offer their presents. 14 Christ fleeth into Egypt. 16 The yong children are slaine. 23 Joseph returneth into Galile.

1 WHen [a] Jesus then was borne at Beth-lehem in [b] Iudea, in the dayes of Herode [c] king, behold, there came [d] Wisemen from the East to Jerusalem,
2 Saying, Where is the king of the Iewes that is borne? for we haue séene his [e] starre in the East, and are come [f] to worship him.
3 When king Herode heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.
4 And gathering together all the chiefe Priests & Scribes of the people, he asked of them, where Christ should be borne.
5 [g] And they sayd vnto him, At Beth-lehem in Judea: for so it is written by the Prophet,
6 [h] And thou Beth-lehem in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thée shall come the gouernour that shal fede my people Israel.
7 Then Herode [i] priuily called the Wisemen, and diligently inquired of them the time of the starre that appeared,
8 And sent them to Beth-lehem, saying, Goe, and search diligently for the babe: and when ye haue found him, bring me worde againe, that I may come also, and worship him.
9 ¶ So when they had heard the king, they departed: and lo, the [k] starre which they had séene in the East, went before them, til it came, and stoode ouer the place where the babe was.
10 And when they sawe the starre, they reioyced with an exceeding great ioye, 11 And went into the house, & [l] found the babe with Marie his mother, & fell down, and worshipped him, and opened their treasures, and presented vnto him giftes, [m] euen golde, and incense, and myrrhe.
12 And after they were warned of God in a dreame, that they should [n] not goe againe to Herode, they returned into their countrey another way.
13 ¶ After their departure, behold, the Angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dreame, saying, Arise, and take the babe and his mother, and flée into Egypt, and be there till I bring thée worde: for Herode will séeke the babe, to destroy him.
14 So he arose and tooke the babe and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt,
15 And was there vnto the death of Herode, [o] that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken of the Lorde by the [p] Prophete, saying, Out of Egypt haue I called my Sonne.
16 ¶ Then Herode, séeing that he was mocked of the wisemen, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, & slewe all the male children that were in Beth-lehem, and in all the coastes thereof, from two yeere olde and vnder, according to the time which he had diligently searched out of the wise men.
17 Then was that fulfilled which was

CHAP. XII.

3 Christ excuseth his disciples which pluckt the eares of corne. 10 He healeth the dried hand, 22 Helpeth the possessed that was blinde & dumme. 31 Blasphemie. 34 The generation of vipers. 35 Of good wordes. 36 Of idle wordes. 38 Hee rebuketh the vnfaithfull that wouldе needes haue tokens, 49 And sheweth who is his brother, sister, and mother.

AT * that time Iesus went on a Sabbath day thorow the corne, and his disciples were anhungred, and beganne to plucke the eares of corne and to eate.

2 And when the Pharises sawe it, they sayde vnto him, Beholde, thy disciples doe that which is not lawfull to doe vpon the Sabbath.

3 And he sayd vnto them, * [a] Haue ye not read what Dauid did when he was an hungred, and they that were with him?

4 How he entred into the house of God, and ate the shewe bread, which was not lawfull for him to eate, neither for them which were with him, but onely for the * Priests?

5 Or haue yee not read in the Lawe how that on the Sabbath dayes the Priests in the Temple * [b] breake the Sabbath, and are blamelesse?

6 But I say vnto you, that here is one greater then the Temple.

7 Wherefore if yee knew what this is, * I will haue mercy, and not sacrifice, yee would not haue condemned the innocents.

8 For the Sonne of man is * Lord, euen of the Sabbath.

9 * And he departed thence, and went into their Synagogue:

10 And beholde, there was a man which had his hande dried vp. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawfull to heale vpon a Sabbath day? that they might accuse him.

11 And hee sayd vnto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall haue a sheepe, and if it fall on a Sabbath day into a pitte, will not hee take it and lift it out?

12 How much more then is a man better then a sheepe? therefore it is lawfull to doe well on a Sabbath day.

13 Then sayd hee to the man, Stretch foorth thine hand. And he stretched it forth, and it was made whole as the other.

14 Then the Pharises went out, and consulted against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Iesus knew it, hee departed thence, and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all,

16 And charged them that they should not make him knowen,

17 That it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by Esaias the Prophet, saying,

18 * Behold my seruant whom I haue chosen, my beloued in whom my soule delighteth: I will put my Spirite on him, and he shall shew [d] iudgement to the Gentiles.

19 He shall not * strine, nor crie, neither shall any man heare his voyce in the streets.

20 A [e] bruised reed shall hee not breake, and smoking flaxe shall hee not quench, till hee bring foorth iudgement [g] vnto victorie.

21 And in his Name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 ¶ * Then was brought to him one possessed with a deuil, both blind, [f] dumme, and he healed him, so that he which was blind and dumme, both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amased, and said, Is not this the sonne of Dauid?

24 But when the Pharises heard it, they said, * This man casteth the deuils no otherwise out, but through Beelzebub the prince of deuils.

25 But Iesus knew their thoughts, and said to them, Euery kingdom diuided against it selfe, shall be ‖ brought to nought: and euery citie or house diuided against it selfe, shall not stand.

26 So if Satan cast out Satan, hee is diuided against himselfe: how shal then his kingdom endure?

20 And hee that receiued seede in the stonie grounde, is hee which heareth the worde, and incontinently with ioy receiueth it.

21 Yet hath he no roote in himselfe, and dureth but a season: for assone as tribulation or persecution commeth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

22 And he that receiueth the seede among thornes, is he, that heareth the word: but the care of this world, and the deceitfulnesse of riches choke the worde, and hee is made vnfruitfull.

23 But he that receiueth the seede in the good ground is he that heareth the word, & vnderstandeth it, which also beareth fruite, and bringeth forth, some an hundred folde, some sixtie folde, some thirtie folde.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth vnto them, saying, The kingdome of heauen is like vnto a man which sowed good seede in his field.

h He teacheth that the good & the bad shall be mixt together in the Church, to the end that the faithfull may arme themselues with patience and constancie.

25 h But while men slept, there came his enemie, and sowed tares among the wheate, and went his way.

i Christ meaneth onely that the Church shall neuer be without some wicked men, although they be neuer so sharply punished by such meanes as he hath left to purge his church.

26 And when the blade was springed vp, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 Then came the seruants of the housholder, and said vnto him, Master, sowedst not thou good seede in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 And he sayde, to them, The enuious man hath done this. Then the seruants said vnto him, Wilt thou then that we goe and gather them vp?

29 But he said, Nay, lest while yee goe about to gather the tares, ye plucke vp also with them the wheate.

30 i Let both growe together vntill the haruest, and in time of haruest I will say to the reapers, Gather yee first the tares, and binde them in sheaues to burne them: but gather the wheate into my barne.

31 ¶ * Another parable hee put forth vnto them, saying, The kingdome of heauen is like vnto a graine of mustard seede, which a man taketh and soweth in his field:

Marke 4.30,31. luke 13.19.

32 Which in deede is the k least of all seedes: but when it is growen, it is the greatest amõg herbes, and it is a tree, so that the birdes of heauen come and build in the branches thereof.

k This teacheth vs not to be astonished at the small beginnings of the Gospel.

33 ¶ * An other parable spake hee to them, The kingdome of heauen is like vnto leauen, which a woman taketh and hideth in three pecks of meale, l till all bee leauened.

Luke 13.21.

l By this he admonisheth them to waite till the fruit of the Gospel appeare.

36 Then sent Jesus the multitude away, and went into the house. And his disciples came vnto him, saying, Declare vnto vs the parable of the tares of the field.

37 Then answered hee, and said to them, He that soweth the good seede, is the sonne of man.

38 And the field is the worlde, and the good seede, they are the children of the kingdome, and the tares are the children of the wicked.

39 And the enemie that soweth them, is the deuil, * and the haruest is the end of the world, and the reapers be the Angels.

n The wicked which hurt others by their euil example, 42 And shall cast them into a fornace of fire. There shall be waiting and gnashing of teeth.

51 ¶ Jesus said vnto them, Vnderstand ye all these thinges? They sayde vnto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he vnto them, Therefore euery q Scribe which is taught vnto the kingdome of heauen, is like vnto an houses holder, which bringeth forth out of his r treasure thinges both new and old.

53 ¶ And it came to passe that when Jesus had ended these parables, hee departed thence,

54 * And came into his owne countrey, and taught them in their Synagogue, so that they were astonied, and said, Whence commeth this wisedome and great workes vnto this man?

55 Is not this the carpenters sonne? is not his mother called Marie, * and his ‖brethren Iames and Joses, and Simon and Judas?

56 And are not his sisters all with vs? Whence then hath he all these things?

57 And they were offended with him. Then Jesus sayd to them, *A Prophet is not without honor, saue in his owne countrey, and in his owne house.

58 And he did not many great workes there, for their vnbeliefs sake.

Herods opinion concerning Christ. 10 Iohn is beheaded. 19 Christ feedeth fiue thousand men with fiue loaues & two fishes. 23 He praieth in the mountaine. 25 Hee appeareth by night vnto his disciples vpon the sea, 31 And saueth Peter. 33 They confesse him to be the sonne of God. 36 He healeth all that touched the hemme of his garment.

AT * that time Herode the Tetrarche heard of the fame of Jesus,

2 And sayde vnto his seruants, This is John Baptist: a he is risen againe from the dead, & therefore great b works are wrought by him.

3 * For Herod had taken John and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philips wife.

4 For John saide vnto him, It is not *c lawfull for thee to haue her.

5 And when hee would haue put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a *Prophet.

6 But when Herods birth day was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereforе he d promised with an oth, that hee would giue her whatsoeuer shee would aske.

8 And she being before instructed of her mother, said, Giue me here John Baptists head in a platter.

9 And the king was sorie: nevertheless because of the oth, and them that sate with him at the table, he commaunded it to be giuen her.

10 And sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a platter, and giuen to the maid, and shee brought it vnto her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and tooke vp his ‖ body, and buried it, and went, and told Jesus.

13 * And when Jesus heard it, he departed thence vp ship into a desart place apart. And when the multitude had heard it, they followed him afoote out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth and sawe a great multitude, and was moued with compassion towarde them, and hee healed their sicke.

15 ¶ And when euen was come, *his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the houre is already past: let the multitude depart, that they may goe into the townes, and buy them vitailes.

16 But Jesus sayde to them, They haue no f neede to goe awaye: giue yee them to eate.

17 Then sayd they vnto him, Wee haue here but fiue loaues, and two fishes.

18 And he said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit downe on the grasse, and tooke the fiue loaues and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen and ‖ blessed, and brake, and gaue the loaues to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eate, and were sufficed, and they tooke vp of the fragments that remained, twelue baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten, were about fiue thousand men, beside women and little children.

22 ¶ And straightway Jesus g compelled his disciples to enter into a ship, and to goe ouer before him, while he sent the multitude away.

23 And assoone as hee had sent the multitude away, he went vp into a mountaine alone to pray: * and when the euening was come, he was there alone.

24 And the ship was now in the midst of the sea, and was tossed with waues: for it was a contrary wind.

25 And in the h fourth watch of the night, Jesus went vnto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when his disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit, and cried out for feare.

27 But straightway Jesus spake vnto them, saying, i Be of good comfort. It is I: be not afrayd.

28 Then Peter answered him, and said, Master, if it be thou, k bid mee come vnto thee on the water.

29 And hee said, Come. And when Peter was come downe out of the ship, he walked on the water, to goe to Jesus.

30 But when he sawe a mightie winde, he was afraide: and as hee l began to sinke, he cryed, saying, Master, saue me.

31 So immediatly Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and sayd to him, m O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

CHAP. XV.

3 Christ excuseth his disciples, and rebuketh the Scribes, and Pharises, for transgressing Gods commandement by their owne traditions. 13 The plant that shalbe rooted out. 18 What things defile a man. 22 He delivereth the woman of Cananees daughter. 26 The bread of the children, 30 Hee healeth the sicke, 36 And feedeth foure thousand men, beside women and children.

THen came to Jesus the Scribes and Pharises, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 *Why doe thy disciples transgresse the tradition of the Elders? for they [a] wash not their handes when they eate bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why doe ye also transgresse the commandement of God by your tradition?

4 * For God hath commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: * and hee that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to father or mother, [b] By the gift that is offered by me, thou mayest have profite,

6 Though hee honour not his father, or his mother, shalbe free: thus have yee made the commandement of God of no authoritie by your tradition.

7 O hypocrites, Esaias prophecied well of you, saying,

8 * This people draweth neere unto mee with their mouth, and honoureth mee with the lippes, but their heart is farre off from mee.

9 But [c] in vaine they worship mee, teaching for doctrines mens precepts.

10 * Then hee called the multitude unto him, & said to them, Heare and understand.

11 That which goeth into the mouth defileth not the man, but that which commeth out of the mouth, that defileth the man.

12 ¶ Then came his disciples, & said unto him, Perceivest thou not, that the Pharises are offended in hearing this saying?

13 But hee answered and said, * [d] Every plant which mine heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 [e] Let them alone: they be the * blinde leaders of the blinde: and if the blinde leade the blinde, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 ¶ * Then answered Peter, and saide to him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 Then said Jesus, Are ye yet without understanding?

17 Perceive ye not yet, that whatsoever entreth into the mouth, goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But those things which proceede out of the mouth, come from the heart, and they defile the man.

19 For out of the heart * come evill [f] thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, theftes, false testimonies, blasphemies.

20 These are the things, which defile the man: but to eate with unwashen handes, defileth not the man.

21 * And Jesus went thence, and departed into the coastes of Tyrus and Sidon.

22 And beholde, a woman a Cananite came out of the same coastes, and cryed, saying unto him, Have mercie on mee, O Lord, the sonne of David: my daughter is miserably vexed with a devil.

23 But hee answered her not a worde. Then came to him his disciples, & besought him, saying, [g] Send her away, for she cryeth after us.

24 But he answered, and said, I am not sent, but unto the * lost sheepe of the house of Israel.

25 Yet shee came, and worshipped him, saying, Lord helpe me.

26 And hee answered, and said, It is not good to take the childrens bread, and to cast it to [h] whelpes.

27 But she said, Truely Lord: yet in deed the whelpes eate of the crummes, which fall from their masters table.

28 Then Jesus answered, and said unto her, O woman, great is thy [i] faith: bee it to thee, as thou desirest. And her daughter was made whole at that houre.

29 ¶ So Jesus * went away from thence, and came neere unto the sea of Galile, and went up into a mountaine and sate downe there.

30 And great multitudes came unto him, * having with them halte, blinde, dumme, maimed, and many other, and cast them downe at Jesus feete, and hee healed them,

31 In so much that the multitude wondred to see the dumme speake, the maimed whole, the halt to goe, and the blinde to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 * Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and sayde, I [k] have compassion on this multitude, because they have continued with mee already three dayes, and have nothing to eate: and I will not let them depart fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 And his disciples sayde unto him, Whence should we get so much bread in the wildernes, as should suffice so great a multitude?

34 And Jesus said unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they sayd, Seven, and a few litle fishes.

35 Then he commanded the multitude to sit downe on the ground,

36 And tooke the seven loaves, and the fishes, and gave thanks, & brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

9 ¶ And as they came downe from the mountaine, Iesus charged them, saying, Shewe the vision to no man, g vntill the Sonne of man rise againe from the dead.
10 * And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the Scribes that Elias must first come?
11 And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Certainely Elias must first come, and restore all things.
12 But I say vnto you, that Elias is come already, and they knewe him not, but haue done vnto him whatsoeuer they would: likewise shall also the Sonne of man suffer of them.
13 Then the disciples perceiued that hee spake vnto them of Iohn Baptist.
14 ¶ * And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certaine man, and kneeled downe to him,
15 And sayd, Master, haue pitie on my sonne: for he is lunatike, and is sore vexed: for oft times he falleth into the fire, and oft times into the water.
16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not heale him.
17 Then Iesus answered, and sayd, h O generation faithles and crooked, how long now shall I be with you? howe long now shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.
18 And Iesus rebuked the deuill, and hee went out of him: and the childe was healed at that houre.
19 Then came ỹ disciples to Iesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?
20 And Iesus sayd vnto them, Because of your vnbeliefe: for * verely I say vnto you, if ye haue faith as much as is a graine of mustard seede, yee shall say vnto this mountaine, i Remoue hence to yonder place, and it shall remoue: and nothing shall be vnpossible vnto you.
21 Howbeit this kinde goeth not out, but by k prayer and fasting.
22 ¶ And as ‖ they * abode in Galile, Iesus saide vnto them, The sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men.
23 And they shall kill him, but the third day shall he rise againe: and they were very sory.
24 ¶ And when they were come to Capernaum, they that receiued l polle money, came to Peter, and sayde, Doeth not your Master pay tribute?
25 He said, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Iesus preuented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? Of who doe the kings of the earth take tribute, or polle money? of their children, or of strangers?
26 Peter saide vnto him, Of strangers. Then saide Iesus vnto him, Then are the children free.
27 Neuertheless, lest we should m offend them, goe to the sea, and cast in an angle, and take the first fish that commeth vp, and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt finde a n piece of twentie pence: that take, and giue it vnto them for me and thee.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The greatest in the kingdom of heauen. 3 He teacheth his disciples to be humble and harmelesse. 6 To auoid occasions of euil. 10 Not to contemne the litle ones. 11 Why Christ came. 15 Of brotherly correction. 17 Of the authoritie of the Church. 19 The commendation of prayer and godly assemblies. 21 Of brotherly forgiuenesse.

THe * same time the disciples came vnto Iesus, saying, a Who is the greatest in the kingdome of heauen?
2 And Iesus called a litle childe vnto him, and set him in the middes of them,
3 And said, Verily I say vnto you, except ye be * conuerted, and become as little b children, yee shall not enter into the kingdome of heauen.
4 Whosoeuer therefore shall humble himselfe as this litle childe, the same is the greatest in the kingdome of heauen.
5 c And whosoeuer shall receiue such a litle childe in my name, receiueth me.
6 * But whosoeuer shall offend one of these litle ones which beleeue in mee, it were better for him, that a d millstone were hanged about his necke, and that hee were drowned in the depth of the sea.
7 e Wo be vnto the world because of offences: for it must needes bee that offences shall come, but wo be to that man, by whom the offence commeth.
8 * Wherefore, if thine hand or thy foote cause thee to offend, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life, halt, or maimed, then hauing two handes or two feete, to bee cast into euerlasting fire.
9 And if thine eye cause thee to offend, plucke it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, then hauing two eyes, to bee cast into hell fire.

k The best remedie to strengthen the weake faith is prayer, which bath fasting added to it, as an helpe to the same.

22 Iesus sayde vnto him, I say not to thee, Vnto seuen times, but vnto m seuentie times seuen times.

23 Therefore is the kingdome of heauen likened vnto a certaine King, which would take a count of his seruants.

24 And when hee had begun to recken, one was brought vnto him, which ought him ten thousand n talents.

25 And because hee had nothing to pay, his master commaunded him to bee solde, and his wife, and his children, and all that he had, and the debt to be payd.

26 The seruaunt therefore fell downe, and besought him, saying, Master, appeale thine anger towarde mee, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then that seruants master had compassion, and loosed him, and forgaue him the debt.

28 But when the seruaunt was departed, hee found one of his fellowes, which ought him an hundreth o pence, and hee layd hands on him, and tooke him by the throate, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 Then his fellowe fell downe at his feete, and besought him, saying, Appeale thine anger towards mee, and I will pay thee all.

30 Yet hee would not, but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 And when his other fellowes sawe what was done, they were very sory, and came, and declared vnto their master all that was done.

32 Then his master called him, and said to him, O euill seruant, I forgaue thee all that debt, because thou prayedst me.

33 Oughtest not thou also to haue had pitie on thy fellowe, euen as I had pitie on thee?

34 So his master was wroth, and deliuered him to the iaylers, till hee should pay all that was due to him.

35 So likewise shall mine heauenly Father doe vnto you, except yee forgiue p from your hearts, eche one to his brother their trespasses.

3 Christ sheweth for what cause a woman may be diuorced. 11 Continence is a gift of God. 14 He receiueth litle children. 16 To obtaine life euerlasting. 24 That rich men can scarcely be saued. 28 He promiseth them which haue left all to follow him, life euerlasting.

AND * it came to passe, that when Iesus had finished those sayings, hee departed from Galile, and came into the coastes of Iudea beyond Iordan. Mar.10.1.

2 And great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there.

3 ℂ Then came vnto him the Pharises tempting him, and saying to him, Is it lawfull for a man to put away his wife for euery ‖ fault?

4 And he answered and sayd vnto them, Haue ye not read, * that hee which made them at the beginning, made them male and female,

5 And said, * For this cause, shall a man leaue father and mother, and cleaue vnto his wife, and they a twaine shall bee one ‖ flesh.

6 Wherefore they are no more twaine, but one flesh. Let not man therefore put asunder that, which God hath coupled together.

7 They said to him, Why did then * Moses command to giue a bill of diuorcement, and to put her away?

8 He sayd vnto them, Moses, because of the b hardnes of your heart, suffered you to put away your wiues: but c from the beginning it was not so.

9 I say therefore vnto you, * that whosoeuer shall put away his wife, except it be for whoredome, and marry another, d committeth adulterie: and whosoeuer marreth her which is diuorced, doeth commit adulterie.

11 But he sayd vnto them, All men can not receiue this thing, saue they to whom it is giuen.

12 For there are * some f chaste, which were so borne of their mothers belly: and there be some chaste, which be made chaste by men: and there be some chaste, g which haue made themselues chaste for the kingdome of heauen. He h that is able to receiue this, let him receiue it.

13 ¶ * Then were there brought to him little children, that he should put his handes on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus sayd, Suffer the litle children, and forbid them not to come to me: for of such is the kingdome of heauen.

15 And when hee had put his handes on them, he departed thence.

16 ¶ * And beholde, one came, and sayd vnto him, Good master, what good thing shall I doe, that I may haue eternall life?

17 And he sayd vnto him, i Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, euen God: but if thou wilt enter into life, k keepe the commandements.

18 Hee sayd to him, Which? And Jesus said, * These, Thou shalt not kil: Thou shalt not comit adulterie: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witnesse.

19 Honour thy father and mother: and thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

20 * The yoong man sayd vnto him, I haue l obserued all these thinges from my youth: what lacke I yet?

21 Jesus sayde vnto him, If thou wilt be perfite, goe, m sell that thou hast, and giue it to the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come and follow me.

22 And when the yoong man heard that saying, he went away sorowfull: for he had great n possessions.

23 Then Jesus sayde vnto his disciples, Verely I say vnto you, that a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdome of heauen.

24 And againe I say vnto you, It is easier for a ‖ camel to goe through the eye of a needle, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.

25 And when his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saued?

26 And Jesus beheld them, and said vnto them, With men this is vnpossible, but with God o all things are possible.

27 ¶ * Then answered Peter, and sayd to him, Beholde, we haue forsaken all, and followed thee: what shall we haue?

28 And Jesus said vnto them, Verely I say to you, that when the Sonne of man shall sit in the throne of his maiestie, yee which followed mee p in the regeneration, * shall sit also vpon twelue thrones, & iudge the twelue tribes of Israel.

29 And whosoeuer shall forsake houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my Names sake, hee shall receiue an q hundreth folde more, and shall inherit euerlasting life.

30 * But many that are first, shalbe last, and the last shalbe first.

CHAP. XX.

1 Christ teacheth by a similitude, that God is debter vnto no man, and how he alway calleth men to his labour. 18 He admonisheth them of his passion. 20 He teacheth his to flee ambition. 28 Christ payeth our ransome, 30 He giueth two blinde men their sight.

FOr the kingdome of heauen is like vnto a certeine housholder, which went out at the dawning of the day to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And he agreed with the labourers for a a penie a day, and sent them into his vineyard.

3 And hee went out about the b thirde houre, and sawe other standing idle in the market place,

4 And sayd vnto them, Goe yee also into my vineyarde, and whatsoeuer is right, I will giue you: and they went their way.

5 Againe he went out about the sixt and ninth houre, and did likewise.

6 And hee went about the eleuenth houre, and found other standing idle, and sayd vnto them, Why stand yee here all the day idle?

7 They sayd vnto him, because no man hath hired vs. He sayd to them, Go ye also into my vineyard, and whatsoeuer is right, that shall ye receiue.

8 ¶ And when euen was come, the Master of the vineyard sayd vnto his steward, Call the labourers, and giue them their hire, beginning at the last, till thou come to the first.

9 And they which were hired about the eleuenth houre, came and receiued euery man a penie.

10 Now when the first came, they supposed that they should receiue more, but they like wise receiued euery man a penie.

11 And when they had receiued it, they murmured against the master of the house, 12 Saying, These last haue wrought but one houre, and thou hast made them equall vnto vs, which haue borne the burthen, and heat of the day.

13 And he answered one of them, saying, ‖ Friend, I do thee no wrong: diddest thou not agree with me for a penie?

14 Take that which is thine owne, and goe thy way: I will giue vnto this last, as much as to thee.

15 Is it not lawfull for mee to doe as I will with mine owne? Is thine eye c euill because I am good?

16 * So d the last shalbe first, and the first last: * for many are called, but fewe chosen.

21 And hee sayd vnto her, What wouldest thou? Shee sayd to him, Graunt that these my two sonnes may sit, the one at thy right hand, and the other at thy lett hand in thy kingdome.

22 And Iesus answered, and sayd, Yee knowe not what yee aske. Are yee able to dринke of the c cuppe that I shall drinke of, and to be baptized with the baptisme that I shalbe baptized with? They said to him, We are able.

c He setteth the crosse before their eyes to draw thē from ambition, calling it a cup, to signifie the measure of ſ afflictions, which God hath ordeined for euery man: the which thing also he calleth baptisme.

23 And he said vnto them, Ye shal drinke in deede of my cuppe, and shall be baptized with the baptisme that I am baptized with, but to sit at my right hand, and at my left hand, is d not mine to giue: but it shall be giuen to them, for whome it is prepared of my Father.

26 But it shal not be so among you: but whosoeuer will bee great among you, let him be your seruant, 32 Then Iesus stoode still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I should doe to you?

33 They said to him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 And Iesus mooued with compassion touched their eyes, and immediatly their eyes receiued sight, and they followed him.

22 * And whatsoeuer yee shall aske in prayer, if ye beleeue, ye shall receiue it.

23 ¶ * And when hee was come into the Temple, the chiefe Priests, and the Elders of the people came vnto him, and hee was teaching, and sayde, By what authoritie doest thou these things? and who gaue thee this authoritie?

24 Then Iesus answered and sayde vnto them, I also will aske of you a certaine thing, which if yee tell mee, I likewise will tell you by what authoritie I doe these things.

27 Then they answered Iesus, and said, We cannot tell. And hee sayde vnto them, Neyther tell I you by what authoritie I do these things.

28 ¶ But what thinke yee? A certaine man had two sonnes, and came to the elder, and said, Sonne, goe, and worke to day in my vineyard.

29 But he answered and said, I will not: yet afterwards hee repented himselfe, and went.

n So farre it is vnpossible for them to repent and be saued, that stand in their owne conceite, that the greatest sinners that are, shall more soone come to repentance.

30 Then came he to the second, and said likewise. And he answered, and said, I will, sir: yet he went not.

31 Whether of them twaine did the will of the father? They sayd vnto him, The first. Iesus saide vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, that the o Publicanes and the harlots shall goe before you into the kingdome of God.

o God taught by John the way of righteousnesse, whose life was vpright and perfite.

32 For John came vnto you in the p way of righteousnes, and ye beleeued him not: but the Publicanes, and the harlots beleeued him, and ye, though ye saw it, were not moued with repentance afterwarde, that ye might beleeue him.

38 But when the husbandmen sawe the sonne, they sayde among themselues, * This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, and let vs take his inheritance.

39 So they tooke him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When therefore the L ord of the vineyard shall come, what will hee doe to those husbandmen?

41 They sayde vnto him, Yee wil cruelly destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyarde vnto other husbandmen, which shall deliuer him the fruites in their seasons.

2 The parable of the mariage. 9 The vocation of the Gentiles. 11 The mariage garment. 17 Of paying of tribute. 25 Of the resurrection. 36 The Scribes question. 44 Christs diuinitie.

THen * Iesus answered, and spake vnto them againe in parables, saying,

Luke 14.16. reue.19.9.

2 The kingdome of heauen is like vnto a certaine king which maried his sonne,

3 And a sent foorth his seruants, to call them that were bid to the wedding, but they would not come.

a Christ reproueth the Iewes of their ingratitude and obstinate malice, in that they reiected the grace of God, which was so plentifully offred vnto them.

4 Againe he sent foorth other seruants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I haue prepared my dinner: mine oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come vnto the mariage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their wayes, one to his farme, and another about his marchandise.

6 And the remnant tooke his seruants, and intreated them sharpely, and slewe them.

b God punisheth extreemely such ingratitude.

7 But when the king heard it, hee was wroth, and sent foorth his warriers, and b destroyed those murderers, and burnt vp their citie.

c The ingratitude of them which are bid, can not cause Gods liberality and his holy meanes to perish, which he hath prepared for his.

8 Then sayd he to his seruants, Truely the wedding is prepared: but they which were bidden, were not worthy.

9 Go ye therefore out into the hie wayes, and as many as yee finde, bid them to the mariage.

d In the Church the hypocrites are mixed with the godly.

10 So c those seruants went out into the hie wayes and gathered together all that euer they found, both d good and bad: so the wedding was furnished with ghests.

e He had not a pure affection and vpright conscience, which proceeded of faith.

11 Then the King came in, to see the ghests, and saw there a man which had not on a e wedding garment.

13 Then sayde the King to the seruants, Bind him hand and foote: take him away, and cast him into vtter darkenesse: * there shalbe weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 * For many are called, but few chose.

15 ¶ * Then went the Pharises & tooke counsell how they might tangle him in talke.

16 And they sent vnto him their disciples, with the h Herodians, saying, Master, we knowe that thou art true, and teachest the way of God truely, neyther carest for any man: for thou considerest not the i person of men.

17 Tell vs therefore, how thinkest thou? Is it lawfull to giue tribute vnto Cesar, or not?

18 But Jesus perceiued their wickednesse, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shewe me the ‖ tribute money. And they brought him a k penie.

20 And he sayde vnto them, Whose is this image and superscription?

21 They sayde vnto him, Cesars. Then sayde he vnto them: * Giue therefore to Cesar, the things which are Cesars, and giue vnto God, those things which are Gods.

22 And when they heard it, they marueiled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ * The same day the Sadduces came to him (which say that there is no resurrection) and asked him, 24 Saying, Master, * Moses sayde, If a man die, hauing no ‖ children, let his brother l marie his wife, and raise vp seede vnto his brother.

25 Now there were with vs seuen brethren, and the first married a wife, and deceased: and hauing no issue, left his wife vnto his brother.

26 Likewise also the seconde, and the third, vnto the seuenth.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seuen? for all had her.

29 Then Jesus answered, and said vnto them, Ye m are deceiued, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neyther marrie wiues, nor wiues are bestowed in marriage, but are as the n Angels of God in heauen.

31 And concerning the resurrection of the dead, haue yee not read what is spoken vnto you of God, saying, 32 * I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the liuing.

33 And when the people heard it, they were astonied at his doctrine.

34 ¶ * But when the Pharises had heard, that hee had put the Sadducees to silence, they assembled together.

35 And one of them, which was an expounder of the Lawe, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the great commandement in the Law?

37 Jesus saide to him, * Thou shalt loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, with all thy soule, and with all thy minde.

38 This is the first and the great commandement.

39 And p second is like vnto this, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

40 On these two commandements hangeth the whole q law and the Prophets.

41 ¶ * While the Pharises were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 Saying, What thinke yee of Christ? whose r sonne is hee? They sayde vnto him, Dauids.

43 He sayde vnto them, How then doeth Dauid in spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 * The Lord sayde to my Lord, Sit at my s right hand, t till I make thine enemies thy footestoole.

45 If then Dauid call him u Lorde, how is he his sonne?

THen the a kingdome of heauen shall be liened vnto ten virgins, which tooke their lampes, and went to b meete the bridegroome.

2 And fiue of them were wise, and fiue foolish.

3 The foolish tooke their lampes, but tooke none oyle with them.

4 But the wise tooke oyle in their vessels with their lampes.

5 Nowe while the bridegrome taried long, all slumbred and slept.

6 And at mnonight there was a crie made, Beholde, the bridegrome commeth: goe out to meete him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, & trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said to the wise, c Giue vs of your oyle, for our lamps are ‖out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Wee feare lest there will not be enough for vs and you: but d goe ye rather to them that sell, and buy for your selues.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroome came: and they that were readie, went in with him to the wedding, and the gate was shut.

11 Afterwards came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs.

12 But hee answered, and said, Verely I say vnto you, e I know you not.

13 *Watch therefore: for yee know neither the day nor the houre, when the Sonne of man will come.

14 *f For the kingdome of heauen is as a man that going into a strange countrey, called his seruants and deliuered to them his gooods.

15 And vnto one hee gaue fiue g talents, and to another two, and to another one, to euery man after his owne habilitie, and straightway went from home.

16 Then he that had receiued the fiue talents, went and occupied with them, and ‖gained other fiue talents.

17 Likewise also, he that receiued two, he also gained other two.

18 But hee that receiued that one, went and digged it in the earth, and hid his masters money.

19 But after a long season, the master of those seruants came, and reckoned with them.

20 Then came hee that had receiued fiue talents, and brought other fiue talents, saying, Master, thou deliueredst vnto me fiue talents: behold, I haue gained with them other fiue talents.

21 Then his master sayde vnto him, It is well done good seruant and faithfull, Thou hast bene faithfull in a little, I will make thee ruler ouer much: h enter in into thy masters ioy.

22 Also he that had receiued two talents, came and said, Master, thou deliueredst vnto me two talents: beholde, I haue gained two other talents with them.

23 His master sayde vnto him, It is well done good seruant, and faithfull, Thou hast bene faithfull in litle, I will make thee ruler ouer much: enter in into thy masters ioy.

24 Then he which had receiued the one talent, came and said, Master, I knew that thou wast an hard man, which reapest where thou sowedst not, and gatherest where thou strawedst not:

25 I was therefore afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: behold, thou hast thine owne.

26 And his master answered, and saide vnto him, Thou euill seruant and ‖slouthfull, thou knewest that I reape, where I sowed not, and gather where I strawed not.

27 Thou oughtest therefore to haue put my money to the exchangers, and then at my comming should I haue receiued mine owne with vantage.

AND * it came to passe, when Iesus had finished all these sayings, hee sayde vnto his disciples,

2 Ye know that within two dayes is the Passeouer, and the Sonne of man shall bee deliuered to be crucified.

3 * Then assembled together the chiefe Priests, and the Scribes, and the Elders of the people vnto the hall of the hie Priest, called Caiaphas,

4 And consulted how they might take Iesus by subtiltie, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest any vproare be among the people.

6 ¶ * And when Iesus was in Bethania, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 There came vnto him a woman, which had a box of very costly ointment, and * powred it on his head, as he sate at the table.

8 And when his disciples sawe it, they had b indignation, saying, To what needed this waste?

9 For this ointment might haue bene solde for much, and bene giuen to the poore.

10 And Iesus knowing it, sayde vnto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for shee hath wrought a good worke vpon me.

11 * For ye haue the poore alwayes with you but me shall ye not c haue alwayes.

12 For in that shee powred this ointment on my body, she did it to d burie me.

13 Verely I say vnto you, Wheresoeuer this Gospel shall be preached throughout all the world, there shall also this that shee hath done, be spoken of for a memoriall of her.

14 ¶ * Then one of the twelue called Iudas Iscariot, went vnto the chiefe Priests, 15 And said, What will yee giue me, and I will deliuer him vnto you? and they appointed vnto him thirtie e pieces of siluer.

16 And from that time he sought opportunitie to betray him.

17 ¶ * Now on the first day of the feast of vnleauened bread the disciples came to Iesus, saying vnto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eate the Passeouer?

18 And he said, Goe into the citie to such a man, & say to him, The master saith, f My time is at hand: I will keepe the Passeouer at thine house with my disciples.

19 And the Disciples did as Iesus had giuen them charge, and made ready the Passeouer.

20 * So when the euen was come, hee sate downe with the twelue.

21 And as they did eate, he said, Verely I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorowfull, and began euery one of them to say vnto him, Is it I, Master?

23 And he answered, and said, * Hee that g dippeth his hand with me in the dish, hee shall betray me.

24 Surely the Sonne of man goeth his way, h as it is written of him: but woe be to that man, by whom the Sonne of man is betrayed: it had bene good for that man, if he had neuer bene borne.

25 Then Iudas which betrayed him, answered, and sayde, Is it I, Master? Hee sayd vnto him, Thou hast said it.

26 ¶ * And as they did eate, Iesus tooke the bread: and when he had giuen thankes, he brake it, and gaue it to the disciples, and sayd, Take, eate: i this is my body.

27 Also hee tooke the cup, and when hee had giuen thankes, he gaue it them, saying, Drinke ye all of it.

30 And when they had sung a Psalme, they went out into the mount of Oliues.

31 ¶ * Then said Iesus vnto them, All ye shalbe m offended by me this night: for it is written, I will * smite the shepheard, and the sheepe of the flocke shalbe scattered.

32 But * after I am risen againe, I will goe before you into Galilee.

33 But Peter answered, and sayde vnto him, n Though that all men should be offended by thee, yet will I neuer be offended.

34 * Iesus sayd vnto him, Verely I say vnto thee, that this night, before the cocke crowe, thou shalt denie me thrise.

35 Peter said vnto him, Though I should dye with thee, yet will I not denie thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ * Then went Iesus with them into a place which is called Gethsemane, and said vnto his disciples, Sit ye here, while I goe and pray yonder.

37 And he tooke Peter, & the two sonnes of Zebedeus, and began to waxe sorowfull, * and grieuously troubled.

38 Then said Iesus vnto them, My soule is very heauie, euen vnto the o death: tary ye here, and watch with me.

63 But Iesus c held his peace. Then the chiefe Priest answered, and sayd to him, I d charge thee by the liuing God, that thou tel vs if thou be y Christ the Sonne of God.

64 * Iesus sayd to him, e Thou hast sayd it: nevertheless I say vnto you, hereafter shall yee see the Sonne of man sitting at the right hand of the power of God, and come in the cloudes of heauen.

13 Then sayd Pilate vnto him, Hearest thou not how many things they lay against thee?

14 But hee answered him not to one word, insomuch that the gouernor maruailed greatly.

15 Now at the feast the gouernour was wont to ‖deliuer vnto the people a g prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner called Barabbas.

17 When they were then gathered together, Pilate saide vnto them, Whether will yee that I let loose vnto you Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18 (For he knew wel, that for enuie they had deliuered him.

19 Also when he was set downe vpon the iudgement seate, his wife sent to him, saying, h Haue thou nothing to doe with that iust man: for I haue suffered many things this day in a dreame by reason of him.)

20 * But the chiefe Priests and the Elders had perswaded the people that they should aske Barabbas, and shoulde destroy Jesus.

21 Then the gouernor answered, and said vnto them, Whether of the twaine will yee that I let loose vnto you? And they sayd, i Barabbas.

22 Pilate said vnto them, What shall I doe then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all sayd to him, Let him be crucified.

23 Then said the gouernour, But what euill hath hee done? Then they cryed the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 When Pilate saw that he auailed nothing, but that more tumult was made, hee tooke water and washed his handes before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this k iust man: looke you to it.

25 Then answered all the people, & said, His l blood be on vs, and on our children.

26 Thus let hee Barabbas loose vnto them, and scourged Jesus, and deliuered him to be crucified.

27 ¶ * Then the souldiers of the gouernour tooke Jesus into the common hall, and gathered about him the whole band.

28 And they stripped him, and put vpon him a m scarlet robe,

CHAP. I.

2 The office, doctrine and life of Iohn the Baptist. 9 Christ is baptized, 13 and tempted. 14 He preacheth, 17 calleth the fishers. 23 Christ healeth the man with the vncleane spirit. 27 Newe doctrine. 29 He healeth Peters mother in lawe, 34 The deuils knowe him. 41 He cleanseth the leper, and healeth diuers others.

THe [a] beginning of the Gospel of Iesus Christ, the Sonne of God:

2 As it is written in the Prophets, *Behold, I send my [b] messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 *The voyce of him that cryeth in the wildernesse, is, [c] Prepare the way of the Lord: make his paths straight.

4 *Iohn did baptize in the wildernesse, and [d] preach the baptisme of amendement of life, for remission of sinnes.

5 And all the countrey of Iudea, & they of Ierusalem went out vnto him, and were all baptized of him in the riuer Iordan, confessing their sinnes.

6 Nowe Iohn was clothed with camels haire, and with a girdle of a skinne about his loynes: and he did eat ‖ Locustes and wilde honie,

7 *And preached, saying, A stronger then I, commeth after me, whose shooes latchet I am not worthie to stoupe downe, and vnloose.

8 Trueth it is, I haue *baptized you with [e] water: but he will baptize you with the holy Ghost.

9 ¶ *And it came to passe in those dayes, that Iesus came from Nazaret a citie of Galile, and was baptized of Iohn in Iordan.

10 And assoone as ‖ hee was come out of the water, Iohn sawe the heauens cloven in twaine, and the [f] holy Ghost descending vpon him like a doue.

11 Then there was a voyce from heauen, saying, Thou art my beloued [g] sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

12 *And immediatly the ‖ Spirit driueth him into the wilderneſſe.

13 And hee was there in the wilderneſſe fourtie dayes, and was [h] tempted of Satan: hee was also with the wilde beastes, and the Angels ministred vnto him.

14 ¶ *Nowe after that Iohn was committed to prison, Iesus came into Galile, preaching [i] the Gospell of the kingdome of God, 15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdome of God is at hand: repent and beleeue the Gospel.

16 ¶ *And as hee walked by the ‖ sea of Galile, hee sawe Simon, and Andrewe his brother, casting a net into the sea, (for they were fishers.) Matt. 4.18. luke 5.2. ‖ Or, lake.

17 Then Iesus said vnto them, Followe me, & I will make you to be [k] fishers of men.

18 And straightway they forsooke their nettes, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a litle further thence, hee sawe Iames the sonne of Zebedeus, and Iohn his brother, as they were in the ship, mending their nettes.

20 And anon hee called them: and they left their father Zebedeus in the ship with his hired seruants, and went their way after him.

21 ¶ So [l] they entred into Capernaum, and straightway on the Sabbath day he entred into the Synagogue, and taught. Matth. 4.13. luke 4.31.

22 And they were astonted at his doctrine: *for hee taught them as one that had authoritie, and [l] not as the Scribes. Mat. 7.28, 29. luke 4.32.

23 ¶ And there was in their Synagogue a man which had an vncleane spirit, and he cryed, 24 Saying, Ah, what haue wee to doe with thee, O Iesus of Nazareth? Art thou come to destroy vs? I knowe thee what thou art, euen that holy one of God.

25 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, [m] Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And the vncleane spirit tare him, and cryed with a loude voyce, and came out of him.

27 And they were al amased, so that they demaunded one of another, saying, What thing is this? what [n] newe doctrine is this? for he commaundeth the foule spirits with authoritie, and they obey him.

28 And immediatly his fame spread abroad throughout al the region bordering on Galile.

29 ¶ * And assoone as they were come out of the Synagogue, they entred into the house of Simon and Andrew, with Iames and Iohn.

30 And Simons wiues mother lay sicke of a feuer, and anon they told him of her.

31 And he came & tooke her by the hand, and lift her vp, and the feuer forsooke her by and by, and she ministred vnto them.

32 And when euen was come, and the sunne was downe, they brought to him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with deuils.

33 And the whole citie was gathered together at the doore.

34 And he healed many that were sicke of diuers diseases: and hee cast out many deuils, and [o] suffered not the deuils to say that they knewe him.

35 And in the morning very earely, ‖ before day, Iesus arose and went out into a solitarie place, and there prayed. ‖ Or, being yet night.

36 And Simon, & they that were with him, followed after him.

5 Now when Iesus sawe their faith, hee said to the sicke of the palsie, Sonne, thy b sinnes are forgiuen thee.

6 And there were certeine of ꝑ Scribes, sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doeth this man speake such blasphemies? who can forgiue sinnes, but God onely?

8 And immediately when Iesus perceiued in his spirit, that thus they thought with themselues, hee sayd vnto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 c Whether is it easier to say to the sicke of the palsie, Thy sinnes are forgiuen thee: or to say, Arise, and take vp thy bedde, and walke?

10 And that yee may knowe, that the Sonne of man hath authoritie in earth to forgiue sinnes, (hee said vnto the sicke of the palsie)
